Krieghoff Is Awarded Industrial Park Bid

Krieghoff-Lenawee Company was awarded the contract to build a shell building at the Tecumseh Industrial Park, Del King presient of the Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association (TAIDA) announced Tuesday morning.

The 20,000 sq. ft. building will be 100 by 200 ft. and will have metal sides and a 16 ft. eave. Floors, electrical work and plumbing will be finished later after a suitable tenant is located.

Construction is slated for the TAIDA selected 2½ acre site on the west side of the city's industrial park, located south of Russell Rd.

It marks the first shell construction for the city's industrial park. Completion is expected in nine weeks, King reported.

Shell will be used to draw industry to Tecumseh and is a joint effort of the city of Tecumseh, United Savings Bank of Tecumseh and TAIDA.

TAIDA, in cooperation with the city, is actively seeking a tenant.

Cost of the construction project is reported to be less than $88,500. This price does not include grading. Five construction companies bid on the project.

How soon will a new industry occupy the shell?

Assistant City Manager Paul Preston commented, "The shell will be the catalyst to hasten someone's decision. Visitors comment that Tecumseh seems to know where it is going and how to get there." Preston has worked on the industrial park development since his arrival March 1977.

June this year, Tecumseh city council and TAIDA agreed to work together to bring industry here. City agreed to pay all real estate taxes and sewer and water leads on the 2½ acres and lease property to TAIDA. On sale of site, the city will be paid for the land and its expenses.

King was elected president of TAIDA at a meeting July 7. Other officers elected were D.J. Martin, vice-president and Royal Welch, secretary-treasurer.

Jack Osburn, one of the founders, transferred his membership to Mark King, 24. Osburn stated, "This is an effort to involve younger businessmen in the growth of Tecumseh. I hope that more will be interested."

Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association was founded in 1955. It was instrumental in locating other businesses in Tecumseh, including the Faraday. Other members are Drs. Murray and Laidlaw, Bill Powell and Karl Schneider.

Hospital Requests Electric Appliances Be Kept at Home

Effective Wednesday, July 12, all patients coming to Herrick Hospital will be asked to leave their electrical appliances, unless battery operated, at home.

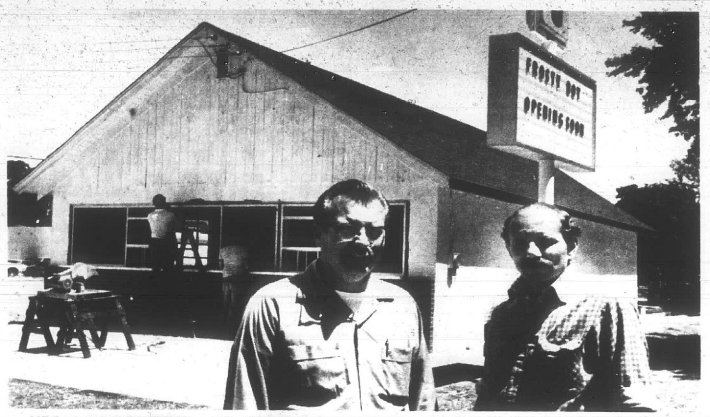
The new policy, explained in a recent Herald article, was developed after a Joint Commission for Accreditation of Hospitals recommendation that all patient's electrical devices must be properly grounded and safe for patient use.

Charles Robison, hospital director of maintenance and safety, indicated that "after lengthy research, we found that the most expedient way to handle this recommendation was to prohibit patients from bringing in their own electrical devices, such as razors, hair blowers, police scanners, etc."

The hospital will provide electric razors and a hair dryer, which has been properly grounded, for patients who desire to use them.

It is the hospital's sincere desire that the public will accept this decision and comply willingly, as the decision was made in the best interests of patients safety, said hospital officials.

Patients bringing electrical devices to the hospital will be asked to send them home with a friend or relative.



NEARS COMPLETION — Co-owners of the new Frosty Boy, Phil Hubbard (l) and Jim Hannan, report that construction there should be finished within the next 10 days to two weeks. The new look at the corner of Evans and Herrick Park includes complete redecoration and renovation to the block building. Workers are now putting in new glass and black topping. The lawn is reseeded, inside and out is painted and is scheduled for new plumbing and wiring.

Most GT Employees Are Back

About 90 percent of the some 200 members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 1106 in the Tecumseh area are back to work at General Telephone.

Last week the local union ratified a contract with the company after a 53-day strike, first in the company's history.

Strike, which started May 15, officially ended July 7 and some employees began returning to work that day. By Monday, all are expected to be on the job in the Tecumseh area.

Claude Munsell, company president, said the new two-year wage and benefit package is worth an average of $2,300 for each of the 2,900 bargaining unit members and will cost the company $6.7 million.

New contract provides improved wages and fringe benefits, including overall wage improvement of 7.8 percent in the first year and 7 percent in the second year.

Contract also calls for added personal holiday starting in 1979 and improved vacations, major medical benefits, sickness, accident disability benefits and pension plan improvements.

"We accumulated a huge backlog of installation orders during the strike because we concentrated on maintaining service," said Munsell. "We'll begin processing those orders immediately, but some will be delayed up to several weeks."

Welcome 72 Senior Citizens

Tecumseh welcomed 72 area senior citizens Wednesday, who are workers in the Michigan Farmers Union Green Thumb Program. The seniors participated in an informational training session at the Tecumseh Community Center July 12.

The senior citizens are involved in community projects such as nutrition sites, park beautification, Red Cross projects, community building maintenance and others.

Such meetings are held annually, explained visiting field representative Sandra O. Laws, to help the seniors on their Green Thumb jobs and with information valuable to them in their personal lives.

Tecumseh has four Green Thumb workers under the sponsorship of Ward Eardley, director of Parks and Recreation. They are Ruby Preston, Ross Snyder, the first Green Thumb worker placed

TECUMSEH'S GROWING FUTURE — There's more than corn in this field now as sewer and water for Tecumseh's 55-acre industrial park were completed last week. Part of the corn field, leased from city by Fred Feight, will eventually yield to a new industrial shell initiated by Tecumseh Area Industrial Development Association. TAIDA and the city, partners in the new building with United Savings Bank, hope that it will lead to a bumper crop of jobs for Tecumseh residents. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

The Michigan Farmers Union Green Thumb is sponsored by the National Farmers Union and funded by the federal Department of Labor.

It serves rural communities with populations of less than 55,000 and serves senior citizens 55 years of age or older who fall below the federal poverty income level.

Senior citizens are hired and assigned to work in non-profit community organizations, and municipalities.

They work 25 hours a week for a minimum wage, in addition to workers compensation, paid sick days, vacation and holidays, and other fringe benefits.

Mayor pro-tem Carlton L. Cook recognized the hard work of these senior citizens with a proclamation declaring Wednesday "Older Workers Day."

Assistant City Manager Paul Preston welcomed the group and presented the proclamation to Green Thumb district director Al James yesterday morning. Seniors' lunch was prepared through the Lenawee Council on Aging.

Focus on City Hall

by Paul Preston

It seems that immediately following a holiday we received a number of calls asking why their garbage pick up is behind. I feel that this would be a good opportunity to answer this question as well as others that have been raised about the garbage collection.

The city has a contract with Lenawee Disposal Company for the collection of residential refuse. At the beginning of each calander year each property owner is supplied with fifty refuse bags. All garbage must be placed in these bags. If you should require additional bags at any time you may purchase them for 48 cents a piece at the Clothes Line Laundromat. As this is the last year of this present contract the M.H. Weaver bag may change next year to another identification. Perhaps friends or neighbors would have surplus bags that could be purchased.

The bags themselves can be filled to the top but nothing should be placed so that it is hanging over the top. The bags are to be placed so they can be seen from the street, for example they can be placed next to the garage door but they should not be placed behind a bush so they cannot be seen.

One problem that arises on occasion is some people may not get their refuse out early enough to be picked up. The contract states that the disposal company can not start their routes before 7 a.m., however, according to the company they usually do not start before 7:30. It is difficult for them to say that they will be at a particular house at a particular time so it is important that the refuse be placed outside for collection before 7 a.m. if possible.

In the case of a holiday the pick up will always be a day behind. For example, the Fourth of July falls on a Tuesday this year, this means that the Tuesday route will be picked up on Wednesday and each days collection will be a day later than normal.

In addition to the weekly service the city holds a spring and fall pickup. The schedule for these pickups is always published in the newspaper. If you have items that can not be placed in the sacks or stored until the city pickup you may take your refuse to the Walker landfill. To enter the landfill you must have a dump pass which can be picked up Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at City Hall. The landfill, however, is open to the public Monday, Friday, and Saturday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The landfill is located one-half mile east of Sand Lake on Pawson Road.

The total cost for the contract with Lenawee Disposal, use of Walker landfill, and the Spring and Fall Cleanup is $78,000 a year. The funds to cover these costs come from Federal Revenue Sharing funds, not property taxes nor an extra charge on your water bill.

If you should have any questions or problems please do not hesitate to call City Hall.

Seek Families

Youth For Understanding is seeking families who will host some 3,700 teenagers who will arrive from 26 foreign countries.

A non-profit organization, YFU offers a family living experience, a chance to become involved in the homes, schools and communities of their host country.

Students arriving later this summer here will be from Latin America, the Middle and Far East and Australia.

They will be given the opportunity to take part in the barbecues, county fairs, weekend jaunts and other activities familiar to Americans but perhaps not-so-familiar to them.

Diana Follebout 517-777-4420, regional director, states that there are still opportunities to host a young student for the next year.

The students are required to have conversational ability in English and are responsible for their own spending money and expenses.

The host family provides board and room and the same love and guidance they would give to their own children.

SCHOLARSHIP — Cindy Adams, (center) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Adams Jr., of Herrick Park, is presented with the 1978 Judy Fielder Scholarship by Terri Pinter, chairman, and Julie Hackstedde, (l). Miss Adams is planning to attend Adrian College in the fall, and is aiming for a career in physical therapy and/or athletic training. Scholarship is named for the late Judy Fielder for her contributions as an active auxiliary member.

Tribute to Peggy Leighton

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

Last Saturday evening my husband and I returned to Tecumseh for our 10 year class reunion and to visit our parents. The reunion was a huge success but Sunday a very dear classmate, Peggy Leighton, died of Hodgkins Disease. My husband, Joe, is Sports Editor of the Traverse City Record Eagle. Enclosed is a copy of a story he wrote concerning the above happenings. I thought if you had room maybe you could run the story for all our classmates to read who are still in the area. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Debbie (Goldsberry) Conklin

(Editor's Note: Melissa Hanna also brought the clipping in to The Herald of this fine tribute to Peggy Leighton.)

By Joe Conklin
Record-Eagle sports editor

Reunions are meant to be happy, festive occasions and this one was no different.

The Tecumseh High School Class of '68 gathered in a hot union hall just outside of Clinton last weekend to renew old acquaintances, talk over the high school days and exchange pictures of the kids. It was a time to say hello again and good bye to one.

It was a fun night for my wife, Debbie, and me, two of the 200-plus who graduated from Tecumseh in 1968. They say that if half the class returns to the 10-year reunion it's a good turnout. We guessed that half had made it back.

There weren't that many surprising changes in the 10 years. The prettiest girl is still the prettiest girl and the class valedictorian is now a doctor. But the guy voted most likely to fall flat on his face is now a hairdresser and supposedly the most eligible bachelor in Denver.

During a pause in the hours of dancing and music, it was announced that Peggy, one of the Class of '68 was hospitalized and would appreciate hearing from her old friends.

Peggy was missed at the reunion. A cheerleader and editor of the school newspaper during her high school days at Tecumseh, she was well known and popular, the kind of girl you wanted as a friend. Her infectious laugh was her trademark.

Peggy had been battling Hodgkins Disease, a type of cancer, for several years. It was in remission for awhile and Peggy was able to lead an active life, stopping in to visit us most summers during Cherry Festival.

Peggy was also our link to the Class of '68. She still lived in Tecumseh and through letters kept Debbie and me updated on the latest gossip. Single, she worked as a substitute teacher for awhile but was now with Cleary College in Ypsilanti.

During her visit last summer, Peggy filled us in on the plans for the reunion. She was excited and so were we.

On our last visit to Tecumseh in May, Debbie visited Peggy and found her in failing health. Three other girls from the Class of '68 also were at Peggy's house that day and she told all of them how much she was looking forward to the reunion.

But as time went on, it became obvious she wouldn't be able to, Hodgkins Disease was winning the long battle and Peggy was weakening. She was living to attend the reunion but last week she realized she wouldn't be able to.

The reunion was Saturday night. Peggy died Sunday morning. The Class of '68 isn't the same.

TAX LIMITATION FOR MICHIGAN
ELECT JERRY KLEIN

YOUR EAR IN THE 18TH DISTRICT. . .
YOUR VOICE IN LANSING
MORE JOBS. . . MORE BUSINESS
CONSTITUTIONAL LIMITATION ON TAXES

"The lack of common sense in our government can be seen in our taxing and spending. They want to tax us 2 cents a gallon for gasoline to build a subway in Detroit. But they do not spend enough on our mental hospitals to insure patients are not abused. We are paying the highest taxes in our history and for what? Terrible streets and roads. . .sewage systems that are inadequate. . .a snarled legal system. . .an exploding welfare burden. Our government isn't solving problems—it is causing problems.

"We cannot hope to reduce the tax load overnight. We must move ahead on three fronts. Firstly, we must establish a business climate that will attract new business to the state and which will encourage the growth of business here. Added business means more jobs, higher incomes for all and less of a tax burden. Secondly, we must reduce the cost of government and shift spending from unessential to essential activities. Lastly, we must impose limits on the amount of taxes that may be collected and the amount of borrowing by government. Only with limits on what can be collected will there be limits on spending."

ELECT JERRY KLEIN

"There is something fundamentally wrong in the way our government and our society are being run. We are being eaten alive by rising taxes, rising prices, red tape, and regulation. Government is growing faster than the rest of society and its overspending pushes up taxes and causes inflation. Further, we the people are being forced to do the bidding of the bureaucrats and the politicians, instead of government serving the people.

"We are being treated as if we are nothing or as numbers on some huge list. Politicians are trying to run our lives. I, for one, am sick and tired of being shoved and manipulated and this is why I am running for office. I intend to shove back for the people."

To use the historical facilities only, Harris suggested patrons call the library first, as special events may be scheduled for the downstairs rooms that would interfere with a person's historical research. A staff member will accompany visitors to the Clara Waldron room for security.

Ask Renew One Mill

You can find plenty of Biblical texts about the wind. That's not why so many colonial churches have weather vanes atop their steeples.

Our early American ancestors were religious—and practical. A weathercock had to be mounted well above trees and roofs which could alter the course of the wind. Often the local church steeple was the highest place.

Nor is there anything irreverent in the custom. For centuries man has looked to the Church for guidance, direction, hope. It seems natural as he pursues his daily work to look to the Church to see which way the wind blows.

We get our weather news today from press, radio and TV. But look to the church of your choosing to gain the faith and courage that see reverent souls through "fair wind or foul."

Hannibal, Roekel, Collins in Match

Tecumseh is being represented by three local women in the 62nd Annual Michigan Closed Championship. A fourth, Sande Jacobs, has withdrawn. Finals for the championship flight are Friday, 1 p.m.

Maurine Hannibal, Tecumseh Country Club's champion, is playing in the first flight and won her first match Tuesday 3-2. She beat Mrs. Delmont Walter.

Alle Collins finished one up over Ester Ridas in the third flight, and T.C. Roekle won 3-2 over Mrs. Richard Jemison in the fourth flight. Both are TCC members.

Low qualifier Monday, Pamela Renna, lost her match on Tuesday and will finish the week in consolation play.

Patti Boice is going for her third straight win in the Michigan Closed Championship. As an interesting note, Patti is four months pregnant and the little extra weight and work certainly doesn't seem to be bothering her play much. After being down one stroke Monday, she went on to win two up by taking the last three holes.

Cards of Thanks

We would like to thank all who have come to our assistance during our sorrow, Father Fox, Father Cooper and the ladies of E.C.W. We thank the fine staff of doctors who assisted Harry and helped to ease his pain: Dr. Helzerman, Dr. Dustin, Dr. Lim and the beautiful doctors and nurses at M.D. Anderson Clinic in Houston, Texas. We thank the Purse Funeral Home for their considerate and compassionate handling of our needs. We thank the many friends who spent time visiting, who called and sent cards and messages while Harry was ill. We thank the many, many friends who called during our bereavement, who sent flowers, cards and prayers. Our words cannot begin to express the deep appreciation we feel. Your gestures eased our pain and comforted us in our loss.

Thank You

We wish to thank all those who contributed to the Peggy Leighton Memorial Funds. Thanks to the nurses on the fifth floor at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and to Dr. Nixon who assisted Peggy during her long illness. Thanks to the class of '68 for their book of pictures and notes which will be left with Carol Novak for your future reference. The book was a living testimonial to Peggy's radiant personality, courage and bravery and a great comfort to us. Thanks to the prayer groups of the First Baptist church, Reverend Boyd, and the ladies who served the food. Thanks to Mr. Purse, all our friends, neighbors and relatives. We appreciated all the fine poetry, prose and articles dedicated to Peggy.

You Told Us

By Kathy Brown

Glad to be back in the saddle here at the Tecumseh Herald. Roses to Dorothy Grigg, one of my favorite people and newspaper women, for holding the reins while I roamed where the deer and antelope play.

Some of you have asked me how I enjoyed my first tent camping experience. I loved it and hope that all of you have grand vacations, too. (And don't forget to write.)

All the advice of my well wishers paid. My husband, Mike, was the right partner to pick. The only near disaster was when I tried to wash the laundry with the powdered milk. I'm still laughing about that one, but I can't think Proctor and Gamble have to worry about the Michigan Milk Producers overtaking the soap market. Next time, I resolve to make labels.

PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANT ED FOLLAS SEES FIRST PATIENT AT HERRICK HOSPITAL

New Service at Hospital

Beginning July 17, a new face and new service debuted at Herrick Memorial Hospital. According to William Groover, hospital administrator, Edward Follas, Physician's Assistant, joined the hospital staff on a full-time basis to work in the Emergency Room during the day, Monday through Friday.

Follas is a trained Physician's Assistant and is licensed by the State of Michigan. He is 32 years of age and is planning to move to the Tecumseh area along with his wife, Marilyn, and two daughters, Elizabeth, 8, and Melissa, 5.

Ed comes to Herrick Hospital under the supervision of members of the hospital medical staff. He currently resides in Perrysburg, Ohio (a suburb of Toledo), where he was born and raised. He graduated from Whitmer High School in 1963.

After enlisting in the United States Coast Guard in 1967, he attended the Navy Corps School at Great Lakes Naval Base, where he received his training as a corpsman.

During his four year tour of duty, Ed spent a year and a half each stationed at Governor's Island, New York and Coast Guard headquarters in Washington, D.C., where he worked in primary care clinics, emergency room, x-ray and the laboratory.

Ed and his wife were married during his Coast Guard years. Upon leaving the service, he attended the University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point where he received a bachelor of science degree in psychology with a minor in biology.

Mrs. Follas also comes from the Toledo area, where she worked at St. VIncent's Hospital and helped establish a tumor registry, which is a research tool for the classification and study of malignant cancers.

Ed enjoys the outdoors, including fishing and being an amateur naturalist, noting that he has seen a few lakes nearby that he wants to try out. Both he and Marilyn are joggers. They also enjoy reading and music, but point out that the family has become the main hobby.

Hospital officials stated Follas is a welcome addition to Herrick Hospital staff. His impact in the Emergency Room will be two-fold, explained hospital officials, immediate care for emergency patients and relief for the private physicians who would otherwise have to leave their offices when called to cover the Emergency Room.

Hawaii Trip Is Planned

Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce begins a prize drawing promotion, with tickets going on sale for the first time during Sidewalk Days, Friday.

Most of the retail stores will have tickets as well as local service groups.

Donations are $1 and drawing will be Oct. 31.

80-Acre Site Use Discussed

Could the city of Tecumseh 80-acre recreation site west of town be converted to a city campground?

Councilman Leonard DeMoss raised the question at Monday night's council meeting.

Councilman James H. Palmer, member of the Lenawee County parks and recreation commission stated that it could be developed into a county park. The city might be able to swap the land with the county for property closer to the city, to the city's advantage. He encouraged council members to discuss the possibility informally with county commissioners.

At present time, city uses the 80 acres at Taylor and Carson Rds. for community recreation programs. It is considered one of the most scenic settings in the area.

City Turns Down Request by Firemen

Tecumseh City Council unanimously rejected, Monday night, the request of the Tecumseh Fire Department to purchase a four frequency scan head fire truck radio.

New equipment would have enabled Tecumseh's rescue crew to speak directly with emergency room at Bixby Hospital, Adrian. Currently, it is the only hospital in the county with this system.

Fireman's Association offered to pay half the cost. Installed, the radio cost approximately $2,100.

Council Rejects Expansion Plan

Tecumseh City Council unanimously rejected Monday night the request of Tecumseh Ace Hardware to expand the back of its building 10 feet for display area.

LaVoy Buys 12 City Lots for Apartment Development

Tecumseh City Council agreed Monday night to sell 12 residential lots along Mill Highway to J. LaVoy, Builder, 8574 Loire Valley Dr. Purchase price was $90,000.

LaVoy told Council he wants to build one twinplex immediately and start another before winter. Next year, he wants to build at least three more and each succeeding year until the 12 lots are built on.

LaVoy said he has no intention of reselling the building and will keep the units for income property.

Property is located on the east edge of the city's proposed industrial park, at Russell Rd. Tecumseh Council approved the rezoning after a public hearing May 15. Only one resident of the area opposed rezoning from single-family to two-family residential.

Vandalism Dangerous

Vandals committed a dangerous prank sometime last Thursday night or early Friday morning at the Al Meyers Airport.

Unknown persons smashed six red runway lights, that were used to mark the edge of the runway, three feet from Macon Rd.

Damage was $50 total according to the Clinton post of the State Police, however the loss of life that might have been caused by a runway accident is more critical, pointed out airport manager Harold Lange.

Troopers said there are no leads in the case. Because the lights are required by the Federal Aviaition Administration, the vandalism is punishable as a federal offense.

Brion Leads Qualifiers

Tecumseh Country Club pro Stan Brion led all qualifiers in the state Monday for the Michigan Open to be held in early August on the University of Michigan golf course.

Brion posted a round of 33-32 for 65 at Salem Hills.

Local golf professional warmed up to the task Sunday at TCC's "Beat the Pro" day. He shot 37-30 for 67 with the six under par round a probable record here.

Letter indicated asking price of the land, $7,500 per acre, as well as zoning. LaVoy was the only one to respond, Preston told Council.

2 Tecumsehs Plan Visit Here Friday

Councilman Leonard DeMoss reported that officials from Tecumseh, Ont. Canada will be in town Friday night to discuss its Corn Festival, Aug. 26, with Tecumseh, Mich. officials at city hall.

The hospitality exchange between the two cities first began in 1949. An International Day was planned July 2 that year by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce as one of the features of Tecumseh's 125th anniversary celebration. At the same time, Tecumseh, Ont. was planning to honor its Michigan namesake.

The two cities, 72 miles apart, were attracted to each other by their common name. Both are named for Tecumseh, Shawnee Indian Chief.

In 1949, Ontario visitors came to Tecumseh, Mich. for the first time. In 1950, Tecumseh, Mich. folks paid their Canadian friends a visit. Guests during each visit numbered 1,000 plus.

Then in 1967, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Canada's confederation, a Tecumseh, Mich. caravan of 200 buses, cars, etc. rendevoused at the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel for a grand parade into Canada.

Parades, waterball fights, ball games, flag exchanges, square dancing, food and reunions have marked each exchange visit.

Chief Tecumseh, portrayed by the late Robert H. Moore, added to the color and excitement of the festivities.

Canadians last visited Tecumseh, Mich. for the city's Sesquicentennial in 1974.

Teens Learn Job Skills

by Kathy Brown

Last year, when the Tecumseh Herald surveyed summer jobs and activities available to teens, some younger students expressed embarrassment about asking people for jobs.

This prompted us to ask the question: What is being done to help teens acquire job finding skills?

The answer: Some unique programs are available and continue to be developed in the schools.

Then why are some teens shy about job seeking?

School guidance counselors and teachers agree that it depends on the teen's ability to internalize the job seeking skill lessons and his or her own desire to work. External factors, of course, do effect whether or not a teen gets a job, i. e. availability of jobs, willingness of employer to hire a teen, age of student, etc.

Career education was officially mandated by the state of Michigan about three years ago when it passed legislation saying that it should be infused into the schools' curriculum, although specific guidelines were not given on how to implement.

At Tecumseh Junior High School, a job finding skills unit has been taught on introductory level for over 10 years. Today it is one of four subject units in a class called Group Guidance, a required, one semester class, for all eighth grade students.

Georgia VanKirk and Ernie Palmer are the teachers. Unit is designed to give one month of intensive career exploration including research on different occupations, salaries, required education and job outlook.

Values clarification is another important segment in Group Guidance. It encourages teens to discover what they value and why. They are encouraged to set realistic goals for their abilities and interests. This also helps them select necessary high school classes.

In the career unit, students are exposed to application forms, resume and application letter writing, job interviewing and duties and responsibilities of the employee. Film strips, speakers, field trips and role playing are some of the teaching methods used.

At the high school level, the teaching of job finding skills and availability of job finding resources continues.

In the 11th grade, students are taught a career unit in the U.S. History class. Materials for this unit were developed for the Vo-Tec Comprehensive Placement Service, a program made available to all county schools through a three-year state grant.

This six-lesson unit job preparation includes resumes, applications, interviews and duties and responsibilities of employees. It is also available to any high school senior and all Vo-Tec students.

Next year, its contents will be absorbed into a new Career and Life Planning Class for all 10th graders, taught and developed by THS guidance counselors. The half-credit course will be required for graduation from Tecumseh Public Schools.

New unit topics are group interaction, aptitude tests, self-awareness, social awareness, decision making, job preparation and career planning.

Marcia Soller, area placement coordinator at the Lenawee Vo-Tec Center, Adrian, explained the goals of the Lenawee Vo-Tec Comprehensive Placement Service and how the county high schools act as independent units, or satellite centers, to create a county-wide placement service.

In 1975, the Lenawee Intermediate School District Vo-Tec Center received a three-year state grant to implement pre-employment or job preparation training and to help students get jobs. A six-lesson unit on job seeking skills was developed and made available for classroom adaption.

Statistics show that 75 percent of the vocational students' immediate goal is a permanent job after graduation. Many must find jobs in Lenawee County.

"What we try to do is give them (the students) a picture of what the job market looks like when they hit it. (The program) helps them become self-sufficient in the job market," Soller explained.

Students who complete the six-lesson unit on job seeking then qualify for the job placement service to help them find full, part-time or temporary, cooperative jobs or on the job training positions.

Each high school student is connected to Vo-Tec's central computer. A Lenawee County employer calls the Vo-Tec placement office at 263-2106 and describes the job, status of opening, skills desired and rate of pay.

Vo-Tec computer sends a daily job list update to cooperating schools. Students then inquire about openings through their teachers or counselors, who then match students with employers and set up interview appointments for qualified students.

Vo-Tec students, graduates, alumni, adult education students, Lenawee County high school vocational students and graduates and Lenawee County employers may participate in the program.

Follow-up is made on students who use the placement center to see how they are doing, whether or not they are on the job or still job seeking.

Lenawee County is one of the few counties in the state to initiate this comprehensive placement service on a county-wide basis.

Two B & E's

Police investigated a breaking and entering at Cheker this week after manager John Kelley called them at 7:45 a.m. Sunday.

Police found that somebody cut the metal siding off the building at the back and then broke a hole in the wall. Would-be robbers then crawled into the building and attempted to blow the safe.

The safe didn't budge and nothing was apparently taken from the station at 905 W. Chicago. Case remains open to investigation, but police have no suspects at this time.

In other police action:

July 12 - Michael Filter of 904 N. Union reported the larceny of a Toledo Blade paper rack.

July 13 - Police arrested Terry L. Reinhart, 32, of Clinton on DUIL charges after they stopped him for driving erratically west on Chicago Blvd. Police followed the Reinhart auto from Adrian to Pearl Sts. before making the stop.

Also on Thursday, police arrested Marvin C. Higgins, 46, of Clinton on DUIL charges after they spotted him driving left of center on N. Evans. Higgins reportedly traveled several times in the opposite lane on northbound N. Evans.

July 14 - Loren Carpenter of Brooklyn reported his CB stolen while his auto was waiting for repairs at Les Dallas.

Tecumseh Tire Exchange, 615 Mohawk, reported an auto battery stolen Friday. Auto was left at Exchange while owner went fishing.

Buys Copier

Tecumseh City Council approved the purchase of a Sabin 7 copier from an Adrian firm at $4,050. Money will come from the equipment fund in the budget. Dealer will also buy city's six-year old machine for $250.

Council rejected the bid of an Ann Arbor firm for $4,190.

Focus on City Hall

by Paul Preston

Michigan Week is a special time in Michigan when we stop to reflect on our state, its heritage, its people, its products, and its future. There are days set aside during the week for special programs and activities, one of the most important of which is "Mayor Exchange Day."

The whole idea behind the day is much more than just having the mayors visit each others cities, it is to encourage an exchange of ideas. We felt very fortunate to exchange with Coldwater as we are approximately the same size, and we have many common interests. The exchange of ideas actually began two years ago through their Chamber of Commerce and their extremely successful industrial park development. We have used their program as somewhat of a model for our economic expansion activities.

This trip was very important and helpful in that Coldwater has been very successful over the years with their industrial shell building program and the information they provided us during our visit helped us to finalize the plans for the construction of our first shell building.

We found during our visit that Coldwater also has a strong interest in historical preservation and they were quite interested in our newly created ordinance and efforts to preserve the historical character of our neighborhoods.

One of the things our group found very interesting was the strong community support for the Civic Theatre. Through community efforts they have fully restored the Tibbets Opera House where all types of theatre, cultural and educational activities are held.

Coldwater has been very successful in the revitalization and strengthening of their downtown. Once again their success can serve as a model for Tecumseh as we are in the process of developing a central business district plan through the Tecumseh Planning Commission and the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the most impressive things about Coldwater is their obvious efforts at coordination and cooperation between the City, Chamber of Commerce, banks; civic groups, and downtown businessmen. This spirit of cooperation has resulted in a city that is very progressive and a city that knows what it wants and how to obtain it. Their warm hospitality was greatly appreciated by all of us who attended and we came away a little wiser.

Investigate 2 Accidents

Tecumseh police investigated two accidents this week. Both involved parked vehicles.

Last Thursday, Donald W. Benham, 19, of Britton told police he was parked on the burm of N. Maumee when he backed and hit an auto parked behind him. Second auto belonged to Dorothy L. Olpp of Ohio.

On Sunday, police cited Darrell Barnes, 17, of W. Virginia for failing to have his vehicle under control. Barnes was southbound on Union when he turned onto Cummins and hit a legally parked auto.

Talking It Out
Will I always remember him?

Remembering the deceased is a way of keeping a loved one always alive in your mind.

The full-service funeral is the traditional and time-proven way of making sure your memories are psychologically sound. A full service with your mutual friends and relatives present gives you a final memory of lasting value.

While the immediate memory may be a painful one after the death of a loved one, this poem may give you a new view.

As long as memory recalls, those who die
may live.

Until your mind's eye
dims,
Immortality
we give. (anon)

It was Cicero who said, "the life of the dead is placed in the memory of the living." And from Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird" — "how can they be dead when they live in your memory?"

Third APT Dance for Area Teens

Tecumseh area teens have a local activity to call their own —dancing. Every two weeks throughout the summer, teen dances are sponsored by A Place for Teens (APT) at Tecumseh High School. So far, 324 teens have attended two dances.

This Friday night 'Live and Unrehearsed' will again perform, 9-midnight. Disco and rock records and a light show will be featured.

Dances are open to Tecumseh school district teenagers and their registered guests. Tecumseh school I.D. cards are required. Admission is one dollar per person.

A Place for Teens (APT) is a community organization. Its goal is a year around, full-time 'teen center' for Tecumseh area teens.

Interested adults can help or chaperone. Call Pat Tressler, 423-7874 or Donna Roe, 423-3313.

First APT summer dance was June 23. Nearly 150 Tecumseh teens and guests danced to the platters of 'Live and Unrehearsed'. George Feezel, manager of the group, selected records and coordinated a light show for entertainment.

Chaperones were Brenda Johnson, Julie Little, Pam and Jim Newell, Donna and Craig Rosacrans, Jane and Ray Sheid, Marge Steiner and Pat Tressler.

Cindy Egli was a student chaperone and Mark Phelan helped with admission, snack bar and arrangements. Officer Gerry Greene attended the high school campus area.

Second dance was July 7; 175 teens attended. 'Superb Sound System' provided three hours of rock, disco and 50's record music with a 10 speaker system.

Manager Fran Shaffer has appeared at Cobo Hall and will appear at the Chicago O'Hare Exposition Center and at Boyne with Gordon MacRae.

Ken Dunlap, WABJ radio disc jockey, announced records and discussed requests with Tecumseh teens.

Chaperones were Martha and Cal Poppink, Donna and Craig Rosacrans, Jane Sheid, Marge Steiner, Pat and Jay Tressler. Officer Greene again attended the campus.

Sharon Fritz graduated as a practical nurse in a pinning ceremony at Muskegon Community College, Muskegon, June 27. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fritz, 6908 N. Adrian Hwy. She is a 1976 Tecumseh graduate and has been accepted by Mercy Hospital, Muskegon.

CARROLL SPRAGUE, CENTER, WITH DAUGHTER BRENDA (L) AND GRANDDAUGHTER JANE CATTELL (R)

Ride Shore to Shore Trail

Former Tecumsehite Carroll Sprague, 71, now of Hudson, and his nine-year-old granddaughter, Jane Cattell of Tecumseh, completed a two-week, 250-mile horseback trip across Michigan on the shore to shore riding and hiking trail.

The family adventure started June 17 at Tawas City on Lake Huron and ended June 30 at Empire near Traverse City on Lake Michigan.

The Michigan Trail Riders Association organized the trail ride.

Many miles of hills, rivers and beautiful Michigan lake area scenery were encountered.

Grandson John Sprague of Tecumseh spent two weeks helping along the trail. He rode 100 miles the second week. John's wife, Tonia Sprague and her horse, Pacer, rode the 250 miles.

Riding at intervals with them the first week was Carroll's daughter and Jane's mother, Brenda Cattell. She put in about 80 miles on horseback. Jane's father, Elden Cattell, put in about 50-60 miles on horseback and was the camp's general handyman.

Mrs. Carroll Sprague, wife of 50 years, was chief cook and bottlewasher and a big help in moving camp and holding down the fort.

All four horses received certificates labeling them as Michigan Registered Trail Horses. Carroll's two horses were Cinnamon and Spike, a 17-year-old who made a pretty good showing for a horse that age.

Tonia's horse, Pacer, under three years old, did well indeed as horses usually aren't broken to ride until they are at least two years old. Nine-year-old Jane Cattell's animal was Star's Jill, a self-owned 4-H pony.

Carroll and Jane each received a certificate and a trophy for completing the entire ride from Lake Huron to Lake Michigan. The accomplishment took hard work and perseverance. Carroll made the ride with sore ribs from a throw before the ride and received a sore hip after being thrown by his horse on the trail.

Jane competed in a fun day program at Goose Creek Camp, west of Grayling and won fifth place in the Goose Creek Classic for "riding a buck". She walked, trotted and cantered her horse with a play dollar under her knee—not an easy trick when the horse is trotting.

Elden and Brenda Cattell were accompanied by their other daughter, Sarah Lee, 5 and son, Teddy, 2. The youngsters put in a little trail riding, too. In fact, even Grandma Sprague put in a few miles on horseback.

The Cattells of Tecumseh came home after 10 days on the trail. They returned to celebrate the end of the trail ride with daughter Jane, Grandpa Sprague and other family riders at Lake Michigan, the weekend of July 4.

The shore to shore trail is not as well known as it could be, stated the Cattells. They originally read about another family's trail adventure in the Tecumseh Herald. Carroll Sprague, a rider since youth, felt the challenge and led the family on the trail.

Bostedor Grave Has No Stone

CLINTON — Sandra Bostedor of Jackson has corresponded with the editor of the Clinton news story appeared about the finding of a tombstone marked "Charles Bostedor" at the residence of the Art Gambees in Clinton.

The tombstone apparently was for Miss Gambee's grandfather. Fifth or sixth generation back, and to the Gambees that her search for Clinton's cemetery records that the Charles Bostedor grave has no such tombstone.

One can only speculate that the stone may have been at the Marsteller Granite Works for repair at the time the business was closed out many years ago.

Pastor To Study in Holy Land

July 24, Pastor Kenneth Strack of Grace Lutheran Church, will leave for a five-week archeological expedition and tour of Israel.

He will go with a group sponsored by Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary.

Upon completion of the study course, he will earn credit toward a master of sacred theology degree.

Twenty days of the trip will be spent at the excavation site, called Tel Michal, which lies on a ridge overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, within walking distance of the shore.

It is located on the Plain of Sharon, north of the city of Tel Aviv. The mound of Tel Michal covers an ancient city that was occupied from the period of the Judges into the New Testament era.

Excavations are under the auspices of the Tel Aviv University Institute of Archeology. Several American schools are participating in the dig in addition to Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary. They are the University of Pennsylvania, University of Minnesota and Brigham Young University.

Pastor Strack together with his group will also spend 12 days touring areas of the Holy Land including Jerusalem, Samaria, Judea, Galilee and the Dead Sea area.

On these weekend tours worship services are arranged at significant sites: the site of the resurrection of Jesus, Mt. Gilboa, Beersheba, Masada, ruins of an ancient fortress, overlooking the Dead Sea and a sunrise service on the shores of the Sea of Galilee.

GARDEN TRACTOR? — Ray Gentz, seated, explains he's on a one cylinder garden tractor, but it sure doesn't look like it. Gentz's tractor pulling hobby is sponsored by Tecumseh Machine and Tool on Russell, represented here by Vale Venia and Harold Vixley (left). Gentz has rebuilt the engine and is entering his machine in pulling contests all over the mid-west. This year, he has already taken two firsts and one second in six pulls. Now he's eyeing national competition this winter in Kentucky.

REVIEW CHILLICOTHE PLAY 'TECUMSEH'

Play Is Summer Highlight

A Play Review
By Deborah Harris

The highlight of your summer could be waiting on a wooded hillside near Chillicothe, Ohio. 'Tecumseh!' a three-hour outdoor drama staged near the famous chief's birthplace, is a spectacle no one in this area should miss.

Playgoers find themselves seated in civilized chairs in an amphitheater with natural stage created by a forest opening. Hills surround the audience and slope steeply from the right and left. A small pond in the background shines peacefully in the early twilight.

The undergrowth rustles. A party of Shawnee warriors creeps, then runs, then charges on horseback toward the audience. Tecumseh's biography, punctuated by violence and betrayal, begins with the ambush of a party of settlers and the torture-slaying of one white, which a youthful Tecumseh protests.

In 18 swiftly moving scenes, Tecumseh is portrayed as a genius thwarted by circumstance. A born statesman, Tecumseh realized the only way to save his beloved homeland from the encroaching whites is to unite all Indian tribes so they can bargain from a position of strength.

But his plan is doomed. He is betrayed both by unscrupulous whites and by Indians who lack his foresight and strength of character, including his own brother, Tenskwatawa.

The deepening tragedy is dramatically underscored as daylight fades. Stage lights continue to illuminate the production, but the sense of darkness increases both literally and figuratively as the Shawnee world disintegrates. Play ends under the stars as a few warriors carry Tecumseh's body away by torchlight.

The acting, for the most part, is excellent. Professionals play nearly all major roles.

Production of 'Tecumseh!' is an interesting story in itself. In 1970, university professor and civic leader W. L. Mundell, of Chillicothe, Ohio, founded the Scioto Society, a group of businessmen who wanted to improve the cultural, educational, historical and economic development of a three-county area around Chillicothe. Their first project was the production 'Tecumseh!' in 1973.

The play is based on 'The Frontiersmen,' a novel by Allen Eckert. (Both books are available at Tecumseh Public Library.) With the help of local fund raisers, the Ohio National Guard and a $482,000 federal grant to build the 1,600-seat amphitheater, the project got underway.

Mundell asked Arthur Rolette, a direct descendant of Tecumseh and tribal chairman of the Absentee Shawnee Nation, to form an advisory Shawnee group. As a result, Rolette recorded the Wolf Chant, an authentic song of defiance. The Shawnees sang it over 200 years ago as they removed their dead from the battlefield. It is performed in the play after the death of Tecumseh's brother, Chikaska.

Chillicothe and the surrounding community also rallied around the production. This year the left proscenium burned two days before opening night of the 1978 season. A determined staff, aided by cooperative businesses, contractors and volunteers, rebuilt it in 42 hours. The show opened on schedule.

1978 season of 'Tecumseh!' runs through Sept. 3, nightly at, 8:30 except Mondays. Discounts are available Tuesday through Thursday for groups of 25 or more. A limited number of brochures is available at the Tecumseh Public Library.

Trip from Tecumseh is about six hours. Amphitheater is located off U.S. 23, six miles north of Chillicothe, Ohio.

For more information, write The Scioto Society, Inc., P. O. Box 73, Chillicothe, Ohio, 45601, or call 614-775-0700.

Pre-arranged funerals?

Maybe that's a new idea to you, but we've been doing it at our funeral home for years. It makes sense . . . not leaving those important decisions to your family at a time of bereavement. It reduces stress, helps them know that your wishes are carried out, and could reduce unnecessary expenses for unwanted services.

Think about it — maybe you owe that to yourself and to those you love. Then call us. We'll be happy to answer your questions.

Boice Wins State Title, Beats Parrott One Up

By Kent Downing

Janina Parrott's real trouble Friday at the Tecumseh Country Club began on number 18. Patti Boice, twice defending champion of the Women's Michigan Golf Association's state title, knew it.

Parrott hit long and terrible left on the par three hole. She chipped to feet past on her second shot. Boice father from just short of the green and to the right. She had a much easier approach shot and put the ball six feet from the pin.

Parrott too putted, and Boice she. Suddenly, after 18 holes of even competition, Boice was one up and only three holes remained.

It then looked like Boice put the match away on the number 18 at the club. Both players hit the green in regulation and Parrott pushed her putt five feet by the hole from nine feet. Boice made her nine footer and went two up with only two holes now remaining.

Looking back at 72 holes would probably tell you the match was decided on the par five 17th hole. Parrott hit her drive into the rough and had to punch out to the fairway. Boice hit her drive down the middle and had a chance to reach the green in two.

Parrott played the opportunity perfectly, and punched her second shot right next to the pin. Boice whipped back her arms in disgust and refused comments to reporters would not look. Boice missed her putt and Parrott promised her putt was over. But all the cup solidifiers had not had their fill of excitement.

Both players hit the fairway on number 18 and Boice had to go for the green. Parrott played it safe and hacked out to the fairway. Boice whipped her second shot to the green and Parrott was over

Pictorial Highlights of Women's Michigan Amateur Tournament

CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS — Janina Parrott (left) went all the way to the finals of the women's Michigan State Golf Championship before losing to Patti Boice, 1 up. The win is the third in a row for Boice. Competition began Monday at the Tecumseh Country Club and ended with the championship final match Friday afternoon.

TRAP TROUBLE — Mrs. Keith LeClair had early trouble with the trap on number 12. She got out, but her expression shows she was unhappy with the short shot. LeClair lost her second match in the tournament one down after a convincing 7-6 win the day before.

HEADING UP 12 — Patti Boice and Janina Parrott (in background) head up par 4, number 12 at the club in front of a number of spectators. With the exception of number three, the two finalists played perfect golf. That put them even until number 15. Then Boice went one up and two up on 16. She finished one up after Parrott birdied 17.

SAILS AWAY — Joan Garety tees up on number one and sends her drive sailing. Garety competed in the championship flight and went to the semi-finals before losing to Boice 5-4. Nearly 100 women competed in six flights.

LARGE GALLERY — A large crowd followed Janina Parrott (right) and Patti Boice around Friday during the finals. Here Parrott attempts to drop a long putt on number 10. Parrott two putted while Boice evened the match up here with a birdie three. Parrott had gone one up a hole earlier by sinking a 16 foot putt.

My Mothers Garden

Her heart was like her garden,
Old fashioned, quaint and sweet,
With here a wealth of blossoms,
And there a still retreat.

Forget-me-nots there linger, to full perfection brought,
And there bloom purple pansies,
in many a tender thought.

And in that quiet garden, the garden of her heart,
Songbirds are always singing, their songs of cheer apart.

And from it floats forever, o'er coming death and strife,
Sweet as the breath of roses blown, the fragrance of her life.

In loving memory of our mother Edith Southard who left us one year ago on July 20th.
From her family

Claim 'Race Track'

A resident of that area asked Tecumseh City Council Monday night for increased patrol of Cummins and Union Sts.

"It's just a racetrack," the woman stated. 'Nothing seems to stop them.' She told that her tenant's car was hit by an unknown driver.

"If I become aware of a problem area, that's all we need and we can work on it. This has worked in the past," said Tecumseh Police Chief Merlin Mowery. He promised increased patrol of Cummins and Union Sts.

Approve $10,000 To Rebuild Truck

Tecumseh City Council approved Monday night to spend $10,000 from the equipment fund to rebuild a truck for more efficient wastewater plant operations.

Terry Hahn, superintendent of public utilities, explained to Council that the present equipment used to spread sludge after wastewater treatment presents three problems.

First, the weight of equipment and load compact the farmer's soil. Second, bad weather makes it impossible to spread the sludge and third, city has received complaints about sludge odors.

Approximately $5,000 of the total amount will be used to purchase floatation tires. This will distribute the load and prevent soil compacting.

"This will allow us to get on the ground earlier in the spring and later in the fall and also spread on plowed ground," said City Manager Cal Zorn.

A spreader will also be added to the transport. It will directly inject the liquid sludge into the soil and prevent odors.

Approximately 4,500 gallons of city's sludge per day, 365 days per year, are spread on a leased 10 acre plot west of town. Truck makes three trips daily.

Received Grants

Lewis Hensley, treasurer of the Allen H. Meyers Foundation of Tecumseh, reports that 10 area high school graduates of 1978 have each received a $500 grant to assist them in their studies at the college and university level.

The foundation was established in 1966 by Allen H. and Nydia Meyers for the encouragement and promotion of higher education, research in the sciences, and aviation-space studies.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

First of all may I say "thanks"! Thank you all so much for the cards, letters, flowers, calls and prayers. They were wonderful and such a help to both Mom and me.

Almost six weeks in the hospital with only a short 10 day break in between is too much. However, they did the trick and I am back home again feeling good so I really shall not complain.

Aside from the obvious medical aspect there are two things about a hospital that St. Joe's brought home to me. One, it is no place to go for a rest and two, it is no place to go to bird watch.

The latter was sheer disaster! During our first stay I almost panicked. Rachel Carson's "Silent Spring" became far more than a mere book title.

My room was on the sixth floor and had a beautiful window. The skyscapes were often spectacular, unfortunately I was about three windows away from the super sunsets. On the return trip the room was different but the floor was the same. Absolutely no birds either time.

Oh, not that the hospital was quiet — is ever a hospital quiet? There are machines that throb and pulse, compressors that hiss, doors that slam, carts that rattle, etc. But no pretty bird songs.

And, of course, no good listening nor good looking are not the things to which Mom and I are accustomed. Before the trip to Ann Arbor we were well launched into a busy and fun-filled bird watching season. Then to suddenly have nothing was almost traumatic.

It is an old cliche but still true that one does not really miss something until deprived of it. It is also true that a little bit is sometimes as bad or worse than none at all.

My use of the words 'absolutely no birds' is not strictly correct. One afternoon a hawk soared by the window. It was such a short look that there was no chance for identification, just a broad winged hawk. I also saw six pigeons one day.

By getting close to the window and looking down on a picnic area, Mom could tell me that the world's population of sparrows was still intact. There was an occasional starling, too. These few birds just seemed to emphasize the good bird watching we were missing at home.

Finally came the glorious day when the doctors said, "Home"! It could have been raining torrents and it would have been a beautiful day but, as luck would have it, it turned out to be a perfect sunshiny, blue sky morning.

The views through the small ambulance windows were magical. Leaves — close-up views of leaves. Blue sky and sunshine. (The second trip home was equally good.)

At last we were home! As I was trundled out of the ambulance the warm sun hit my face and my eyes looked up, up, up. Incredible.

Bird talk was everywhere and I could even hear my beloved Evans Creek bubbling along. It was so good to be home. It was as big a thrill this last time as it was the first.

Fretwells Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Fretwell of Leesburg, Fla., formerly of Tecumseh, have been visiting relatives in the area for the past month. On July 2 they attended the wedding of son Steven Fretwell and Robin Goldstein in Spring Valley, N.Y. The couple will live in Okemos, where he is studying for his master of fine arts degree at MSU, and his bride is working on her doctorate in nutritional research. They visited the Mike Fretwells in Adrian, the Charles Fretwells in Inkster and daughter, Mrs. Pat Gerth in Jackson. Grandson, Terry Fretwell, returned to Florida with them for a month.

Plan Public Meeting for Conservation

A public meeting to appraise problems, needs and trends in the use of Lenawee County soil and water resources will be held July 26 at 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the Cooperative Extension Service Building, Broad St., Adrian. Meeting is sponsored by the Lenawee Soil Conservation Service.

NEW OWNERS — Bauer Manor innkeepers are l-r, Al and Diane Andrews, Tim, 15, Susan 13 and Cindy, 8.

Society Plans Trip, Seminar

Although there is no general meeting scheduled for the summer, the Tecumseh Area Historical Society is still active with an upcoming field trip and a three-part seminar.

July 29, the group will tour the Cobblestone Farm, restored in Ann Arbor. For more information, contact president Betty Kline.

In late August, a three-part program on problems and solutions for old home restoration, such as insurance and practical aspects of restoration, will be presented.

Membership tea will be Sept. 24 at the Tecumseh Public Library. A feature will be a display of historical photographs. The 30 book collection on historic architecture, a gift from the society, will be displayed. Reference books are for the city's historic commission and home and business owners interested in restoration.

Oct. 18 Jim Beardsley will present a discussion and report on the Indian Dancing Grounds.

Barb McCann will speak in January about the Union Building, ca. 1850, which she and her husband purchased this last winter.

At its spring meeting, ways to spend the $1,500 purse from previous Promenade the Past home tours were discussed.

Pat Eby presented suggestions from a select committee. Criteria to select projects were: permanent value and benefit to largest number of people.

One project was the $300 gift of books on historic architecture for the library.

Millie Saksewski, Pat Beardslee and Betty Kline agreed to investigate whether the community could contribute with historical society to repair the wrought iron fences at Brookside Cemetery and Pioneer Park.

Cost estimate to have local blacksmith to reconstruct fence and duplicate ornaments was $3,825 of 1,243'. Estimate for new wrought iron fence, less ornate, was $22 per foot.

Chuck Gross, Dick Lewis and Betty Kline volunteered to price permanent markers for buildings in the historical district.

In other business last spring, the society reduced cost of life memberships from $100 to $50 and approved the concept of junior memberships at 50 cents. Detail on youth activities and group organization will be discussed further.

Lists were circulated for persons interested in being contacted for future "salvage work" projects, field trips and youth projects. Anyone interested may contact president Kline at 423-4228.

Prior to Elizabeth's arrival, her parents were feted at three cradle showers. May 1 the Britton-Macon School teachers attended a shower, hosted by Nancy Whitford and Sandra Shannon.

May 13 Patricia Schmidt, Pamela Feezel and Gail Hohenstein hosted a shower for friends and relatives in Tecumseh.

June 2 Sue Ives, Joyce Vogel and Donna Kennedy organized a shower at the Vogel's Clinton home. Couples, friends of the expectant parents, attended.

Peace Is Topic

A group of Lenawee County citizens will meet July 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Vo-Tec center to discuss plans for a World Peace Day, Aug. 6.

Group will discuss goals and ways to educate local residents on world peace and disarmament.

New Things Are Cooking

By Kathy Brown

New things are cooking at Bauer Manor.

Al and Diane Andrews, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, are the new owners of the 114 year old inn. They've brought a family to live with them and a new way of doing things, too.

"Things have been hectic," Al admitted. Not only have the new managers been trying to organize their restaurant, but also settle their family into a new home and school system.

Their three children, Tim, 15, Susan, 13 and Cindy, 8, are all taking an active role in the family enterprise. They attended the last three weeks of school at Clinton Public Schools this school year to become acquainted with the new system. "And the counselors, principals and teachers were gracious in helping them get a start," said their father.

The husband and wife are experienced in the food handling business. "Diane is a good cook in her own right and was a waitress and hostess in a country club back home," explained Al. He has a diploma from a hotel and restaurant management school in Cleveland, Ohio. He was also employed in a full-service restaurant supply company for 10 years. He climbed the ranks to achieve sales manager of the company

This is the first restaurant owned by the family and they are understandably excited and anxious to please.

"The atmosphere that we are trying to accomplish is one of gracious dining in a relaxed atmosphere. We want people to feel relaxed when they walk in the door," explained Al.

Family oriented themselves, Al and Diane have made changes to encourage family dining, too. There is a children's menu and no cover charge or minimum charge per person.

Dinners will be served until 10 p.m. The restaurant will be open six days a week, except Tuesdays. On Friday and Saturday nights, there will be musical entertainment for listening pleasure and dancing on a spacious dance floor. Sundays, an organist will entertain.

Keenly atuned to their customers' responses, the Andrews family has started its own guest book. "All the comments have been good so far," said Diane.

This Sunday, the restaurant will introduce a buffet that includes four entrees, vegetable and potatoes and 20 item salad bar.

The Andrewses became familiar with the Wamplers Lake area on summer vacations at a family cottage on Sweezy Lake. When they decided to buy a restaurant, this seemed like a desirable place to look.

They purchased the business from Kenneth and Mary VanDoren, who had owned the business for about 17 years.

Bauer Manor was recognized by the Michigan State Historical Society as a centennial business. In 1839, John Davenport operated it as a travelers' rest stop on the Great Sauk Indian Trail between Detroit and Chicago. It was a stage coach stop as late as 1900.

Today travelers and tourists are still recognized as an important part of the business, as are area residents.

Present building was built in 1864. It succeeded an 1834 log tavern built on Evans Lake by Henry W. Sisson of New York.

Bauer Manor is located at 1280 U. S. 12, on Evans Lake.

Bank Officials Anticipate Starting Construction Of Two-Story, Brick Office Here Next Spring

New Main Office of United Savings Bank Is Revealed in Architect's Rendering

Although there may be a few variations from the above architect's rendering, the drawing shown here may soon be a reality as the new main office of United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

Bank officers and directors have unofficially approved the plans. They are expected to stamp their official approval at the next board meeting.

This rendering, prepared by the architectural firm of Daniels and Zermack Associates of Ann Arbor, depicts a two-story, brick structure with eight columns facing E. Chicago Blvd.

Overall, the building will measure 82 feet along the boulevard and 102 feet deep. Square footage per floor is over 8,300. Similar amount of space will be utilized in the basement.

First floor includes a sizeable lobby, 10 teller windows, 10 offices plus a conference room, two waiting areas for bank customers, front and rear entrances and exits, and an elevator to the basement and second floor.

There are additional areas for handling new accounts, loan processing, accounting and secretarial stations.

Second floor will house mortgage and trust departments, board of directors' room, and will provide room for future expansion of offices.

Much of the basement will be allocated to the bookkeeping department. This level also will include storage rooms for records and supplies and an employee lounge.

Ample parking is being provided to the west of the new office, next to Merkel-Seidel Furniture, and at the rear. Traffic flow will be to and from the boulevard and N. Ottawa St.

After official approval from the directors, engineering plans will be drawn and bids taken. Construction is tentatively scheduled to start next spring.

In the past couple of weeks, the old Vescio building has been demolished, although some rubble remains to be hauled away.

TEA, Schools Negotiating for Contract

Negotiating teams for the Tecumseh Education Association and the Board of Education are meeting almost weekly in working out a new contract for the teachers.

Present three-year pact expires on Aug. 31st.

Supt. Robert Duhan reports that progress has been achieved during past sessions. Negotiations are being conducted at the high school, and future meetings already are scheduled.

Registration Still Short

Kindergarten registration for the 1978-79 school year is running about the same as in previous years but there are still many not registered, Rosann Vollmar at the Board of Education office reports.

Parents may register their youngsters at the office Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

School officials also remind families who have moved within the school district this summer to report their new address; otherwise, their child could be assigned to the wrong school building.

Examinations for THS Boys, Girls Aug. 10th

Annual physical examinations for all boys and girls participating in senior high school sports will be given in the THS gym on Aug. 10 at 9 a.m.

Examinations will be conducted by local physicians, according to Don Brazee, athletic director.

Chamber Meeting

Next regularly scheduled meeting of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, will be held Aug. 3, 7:30 a.m. at Don's Beef Buffet.

FOR KIDS, TOO — Tecumseh's Sidewalk Sale annually attracts hundreds, perhaps thousands of shoppers after big bargains - but there's other attractions for the youngster, too. Debbie Wellmin and Benny Roberts here enjoy their snow cones Friday afternoon just before the sprinkles came. Some merchants report that this year's sale was the biggest ever, others felt it was about the same as last year. Regardless, it was big despite the hot, humid weather that eventually turned to sprinkles in the afternoon. (PHOTO BY JIM LINCOLN)

Property Owners May Apply for 'Landmark' Recognition

Tecumseh property owners interested in having their home or business recognized as a historic landmark, may now apply for Tecumseh Landmark Designation.

The Tecumseh Historic Preservation Commission, appointed by Tecumseh City Council last year, has just completed designing an application form for this purpose. The forms are available at city hall, 309 E. Chicago Blvd.

These forms require basic information to identify and describe the potential landmark's name, owner, addresses, past and present uses, structural materials, style and condition, architectural and historical significance. Finally, it requests the sources of this information.

The commission also designed a Structure Evaluation Form for its own use to determine which buildings should be designated. Evaluation will be on a point system. A structure will be evaluated in four basic areas, architecture, setting and atmosphere, location and physical condition.

A building previously designated on the National Register of Historic Sites will automatically be a candidate for registration as a landmark.

Members of the Tecumseh Historic Preservation Commission are Michele Worley, Millie Saksewski, Lynn Cook, Dick Lewis, Earl Mason, Edna Smith, Theresa Powers and Paul Preston.

Next commission meeting is Aug. 18, 7:30 a.m. at Don's Contented Sole.

Youth Arrested Inside Russell Rd. Warehouse

Tecumseh police arrested Donald E. Pixley, 17, of Palmyra early Sunday morning on charges of breaking and entering the Frito Lay warehouse on Russell Rd.

Police were on routine patrol at 4:20 a.m. when they observed a metal panel on the building pryed away from the north side. Two backup officers were called.

Two officers entered the building through an unlocked door they discovered on the building's southwest corner. The third watched the building from the outside.

Inside, they found Pixley unarmed and made the arrest. Owner was called to secure the building.

Officers took a pair of wirecutters and vise grips as evidence. Articles were found along the west side of the building. Case remains open pending further status.

A second B&E was reported this week at the Tecumseh Herald office at 110 E. Logan. Police called the publisher, James Lincoln, early Wednesday morning after they found a side door kicked in and the alarm ringing.

Nothing was apparently taken, but the door casing on a side entrance was damaged.

Another breaking and entering was reported early Tuesday morning at the Arrow Parts store on 3421 Russell Rd. According to the sheriff's department, the door to the building was damaged, and pryed open either with the use of a vehicle or a crow bar. Nothing was missing. The damage of the door was $150.

A resume of other complaints includes:

July 19 - Karan Keller of 117 W. Brown reported her bicycle's rear wheel and tire taken. Keller locked her bike at the high school and returned to find the wheel gone.

July 20 - Mark King at the Party Shop on S. Maumee reported two shoplifters to police Thursday. King and two other witnesses reported and identified two suspects who entered the rear of the building, picked up a six pack of beer and exited the rear without paying.

Also on the 20th, Police arrested James Cuellar of Adrian on DUIL charges after they observed him driving left of center on N. Evans. Cuellar reportedly drove on the grass and over the curb when turning onto Brown to stop.

July 21 - Carson G. Bussell II, of Monclova, Ohio was arrested on open intoxicant charges after police stopped him on eastbound E. Chicago. Bussell had both Michigan and Ohio plates on his vehicle.

July 23 - Police arrested Katherina A. Bick of 307 N. Union on charges of driving with a suspended license after they stopped her for having a loud exhaust on W. Chicago. Bick was also arrested on a valid warrant for failing to appear on a citation out of the Jackson Post.

Have funerals changed?

The name of the local newspaper in Tombstone, Arizona, is "The Tombstone Epitaph." The town's famous graveyard, Boot Hill is a widely known tourist attraction and an American history lesson all in one. Tombstone has purposely secured its niche in western America by clinging to elements of its historic past.

While times and cultures do change, some traditional obseprances have never altered significantly. Such is the case in the observation of the traditional full-service funeral.

Progress of civilization has brought about improved techniques and products, but the basic reasons for conducting traditional funeral services have remained the same. Dignity, respect and love for the individual; loyalty to high ideals; and expressions of tender sympathy are timeless, universal qualities among advanced societies.

We are experienced and professional funeral directors. As such, you may confidently put into our care all the responsibilities of preparation and conducting of a traditionaly full-service funeral.

Vandals Arrested

CLINTON — Two Clinton juveniles are being detained at Spears Campus Youth Center, Adrian, pending a court hearing Aug. 3.

The boys were surprised in Clinton High School the night of July 19 by Clinton police officers, on routine patrol.

Officers flashed a light on a broken window at the east side of the school building, according to Chief Frank Becker.

As the officer stepped inside, he heard more breaking glass and the youths were caught as they ran up to him in the darkened hallway. Glass in eight doors were broken and scattered about.

Because the youths are under 17, their names are being withheld. However, it is reported that both had been expelled from the school last spring.

Helicopter Helps Round Up Steer

BRITTON — Sunday, local Britton and Tecumseh residents witnessed the first known steer round-up made by a helicopter in this area.

A steer, owned by Don Aebersold, Centennial Rd., Britton, jumped the fence Thursday night and traveled to a field adjacent to Schull Rd and M-50.

The animal crossed M-50 twice Saturday night causing a traffic hazard and great anxiety to its owner. Attempts to catch the steer were futile.

Sunday, efforts to assemble a sheriff's posse to round-up the animal were made in vain.

But it was Bernard Swindeman, neighbor of Mrs. Aebersold's mother in Deerfield, with his partner, Jay Stroud of S & S Chopper Service Inc. who brought their helicopter to the rescue.

Excitement of the Wild West variety heightened for the neighbors and friends as the pilot herded the steer across M-50 to Milwaukee Rd. and back again toward the feed lot of Kitty Kurtis.

From there, the exhausted animal was finally roped and led to captivity.

The Aebersolds thanked all their friends, neighbors and relatives who lent a helping hand in the round-up.

RIDGEWAY TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS

The Ridgeway Township Board Members would appreciate your giving the following proposition to be placed on the August 8th, 1978 Primary Ballot your support.

The 1977 tax year marks the end of a 5 year - 1 mill tax levy for the Fire Department equipment. This 1 Mill permitted us to upgrade our fire fighting equipment and we are both pleased and proud of our local department.

During this 5 year period, we were able to make considerable improvements on township roads, bridges and culverts, as we did not need to appropriate general fund money for the purchase of fire department equipment.

We would like you to consider a 1 Mill tax levy to replace the retired levy in order that we can continue the road and bridge improvements. The roads are at a point now, that without annual improvements, they will soon be in their former condition. Without financial assistance (1 Mill), we will be severely limited as far as any new improvements.

We thank you for your past support and sincerely hope you will give favorable consideration to this matter.

PROPOSITION YES NO

Shall the Township of Ridgeway levy a property tax of not to exceed one (1) Mill on $1.00 of State equalized valuation of the Township for the next succeeding five year period (5 years) for the Township road maintenance and bridge maintenance and construction improvements and place any amount so raised into a fund of the Township to be used for the maintenance and/or improvement of local roads and bridge construction in the Township.

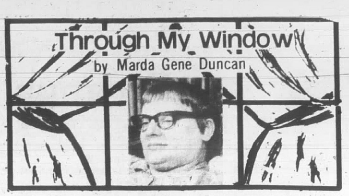
Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan



To be in the hospital over Memorial Day, on one's birthday, and for the Fourth of July weekend shows superbly bad timing. However, to be home when the mulberries are at their height is the other side of the coin. And to be home but flat in bed or sitting up just a little bit is expert scheduling. I speak from experience. My view of the mulberry tree by the white end-of-the-street barrier is always good but when laying flat in bed it is perfect.

Probably I say this every year but this summer there truly was a bumper crop of mulberries. The limbs of the trees bent low under the weight of the messy black fruit. And messy it is too. Not only does it stain people and their clothes but cars, houses and windows as well.

After gorging themselves on the fruit the birds seem to take great glee in dive bombing and decorating. Their aim is much too good. A nice clean washing hung on a clothesline is an open invitation.

Some people eat mulberries, I understand they make delicious pies, but we keep our trees for the birds and squirrels. They are deliriously happy during this season. This, of course, makes the window watchers happy for there is continuous action and many of the antics are funny.

The squirrels put on the best performances. I should say they usually do — this year they have not shown off as usual for the simple reason that there are not as many fox squirrels as is the normal complement.

There are too many red squirrels and they will soon be invited to leave. It is ridiculous but the two are simply not compatible and unfortunately the much smaller little reds drive the nicer squirrels out of the neighborhood.

Probably were it not for this we could watch the little reds with more pleasure. This year the tree is feeding two youngsters, about half grown, and they are so tiny that they can dash out to the very end of a branch without trouble. The limb hardly moves so quick and slight are they.

When the fox squirrels try this there is all sorts of branch bending and struggling to keep balanced. Often it takes nifty acrobatic skill on the squirrel's part not to be dumped off.

Almost all of the birds enjoy fruit this time of year, this included the black ones, too. Starling and grackles. Sometimes the tree seems decorated with nothing but black. And their actions are as somber as their looks. They simply flock to the tree, perch and eat.

Oh yes, they scream too but I'd just as soon not think about that. The orioles and red-headed woodpeckers are the best performers, they nip off the berries as they fly by.

The ground beneath the tree is black with fallen mulberries. Birds eat them, so does Murphy, the woodchuck. He is big and fat and it is easy to see why. What an appetite!

Watching him sit up on his haunches and eat or waddle across the yard and over the creek bank gives no indication of how fast he can move when necessary. The slightest strange noise sends him scurrying to safety and yes, I will admit that more than once we have created a commotion just to see him run.

Private Tour of Farmhouse

July 29, 1 p.m., members of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society and friends, will make a private guided tour of the Cobblestone Farm, Ann Arbor.

Cobblestone Farm, also known as the Ticknor House, is located at 2781 Packard Rd.

Original small frame house, which was on the farm when the Ticknors bought it in 1835, was connected to the Cobblestone house, built in 1844. Kitchen wing was added to original frame house between 1844-45.

The Cobblestone Farm Association is restoring the house and grounds as a working farm museum.

Peg Saxon, a member of the farm's board of directors, will guide historical society members and friends through the house, relating details about the history of the home, its owners and the actual restoration process.

Persons interested in the tour should contact TAHS president Betty Kline, 423-4226, by Thursday evening for reservations. There is no charge, but a head count is necessary. Rides may also be arranged.

All children 3½ through five years of age are eligible to participate in the free clinic conducted by the Lenawee County Health Department, by coming to the clinic on one of the above dates.

Michigan law requires a child to have this screening before entering kindergarten.

TAX LIMITATION FOR MICHIGAN
ELECT JERRY KLEIN

YOUR EAR IN THE 18TH DISTRICT. . .
YOUR VOICE IN LANSING
MORE JOBS. . . MORE BUSINESS
CONSTITUTIONAL LIMITATION ON TAXES

"The lack of common sense in our government can be seen in our taxing and spending. They want to tax us 2 cents a gallon for gasoline to build a subway in Detroit. But they do not spend enough on our mental hospitals to insure patients are not abused. We are paying the highest taxes in our history and for what? Terrible streets and roads . . . sewage systems that are inadequate . . . a snarled legal system. . . an exploding welfare burden. Our government isn't solving problems—it is causing problems.

"We cannot hope to reduce the tax load overnight. We must move ahead on three fronts. Firstly, we must establish a business climate that will attract new business to the state and which will encourage the growth of business here. Added business means more jobs, higher incomes for all and less of a tax burden. Secondly, we must reduce the cost of government and shift spending from unessential to essential activities. Lastly, we must impose limits on the amount of taxes that may be collected and the amount of borrowing by government. Only with limits on what can be collected will there be limits on spending."

ELECT JERRY KLEIN

"There is something fundamentally wrong in the way our government and our society are being run. We are being eaten alive by rising taxes, rising prices, red tape, and regulation. Government is growing faster than the rest of society and its overspending pushes up taxes and causes inflation. Further, we the people are being forced to do the bidding of the bureaucrats and the politicians, instead of government serving the people.

"We are being treated as if we are nothing or as numbers on some huge list. Politicians are trying to run our lives. I, for one, am sick and tired of being shoved and manipulated and this is why I am running for office. I intend to shove back for the people."

Program Winterizes Homes

HOME WINTERIZATION — L-r, Larry Pittmon, Jerry Beck and Ric Byers, workmen for the Region II Community Action Agency Adrian office, work to winterize the William C. Gatt home, 5337 Green Hwy., and other Tecumseh area homes. Storm doors, caulking, ceiling insulation were part of the job on this home. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Drifts of snow and bone chilling cold may be the farthest things from your mind this summer.

Meanwhile, several families in the Tecumseh area have thought ahead to the inevitable winter weather and have taken advantage of a home winterization program offered to low-income families through the Region II Community Action Agency.

CAA plans to handle 20-25 applicants this year. Seven homes are being worked on now.

In cooperation with the city of Tecumseh, the Community Action Agency program helps low-income families winterize their homes and ultimately lower their heating bills.

Agency provides up to $350 per home for materials for attic insulation, storm doors and windows, furnace repair and patching of holes in walls and foundations.

Labor is also provided. Special project CETA employees complete the work. Homeowners do not repay for either labor or materials. No lien is placed on the properties.

Qualified applicants must be owner-occupants of the home with a gross income not exceeding $3,713 for the head of household, plus $1,200 for each dependent. For example, a family of four would have to have a gross income of less than $7,313 to qualify for the grant.

For more information contact the local office of the Community Action Agency, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 423-5129, or the Community Action Agency, 848 Hoch Ave., 263-7861.

Program operates on a first-come, first-serve basis.

"This is not a home care service and not a welfare program," said Pat McHugh, energy coordinator for Region II, Jackson.

"The purpose is to cut down on the use of energy, reduce heating bills for those with low-incomes and for the health and safety of the people involved. It is not directed at any particular group. Any low income family that meets the requirements qualifies. Senior citizens, too," McHugh said.

Most common home winterisation problems on the jobs are caulking, leaking roofs, uninsulated attics, aluminum storm doors and windows.

City of Tecumseh contributes to the work of the Region II (Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee) Community Action Agency with an annual contribution of $4,400, five percent of its federal revenue sharing monies.

Jeremy Steals Hearts of the Community

By Kathy Brown

Jeremy Gaston Powers, almost a year old, is already a well known little man in the community. He is the adopted son and first child of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Powers. He was born in Columbia, Aug. 27, 1977.

The idea of traveling to a South American country to adopt a child captured the imagination of their friends and heightened the Powerses' expectations during the 10 month adoption period.

When Jeremy arrived in Tecumseh last December, he stole the hearts of the couple's friends at the family home, 301 N. Union St.

These days, Jeremy enjoys learning to swim, camping with his parents, riding the baby seat on his mother's bicycle and scouting bargains with her at local rummage sales. His parents say he is quite a "reader". His father predicts Jeremy's strong legs will make him an excellent kicker for Tecumseh.

In an earlier interview, Mrs. Powers said that when they decided to adopt a baby, she and her husband were disheartened to learn the waiting period in Lenawee County could be five years.

Then they learned about foreign adoption through friends. The Columbian American Friends, Ann Arbor, a group of American parents of adopted Columbian children, acted as a liaison for the adoption.

Process started with a home study by a social worker in Jan. 1977. The home study satisfies the state's concern that parents are capable to provide and care for the child.

Paperwork for both countries overwhelmed the couple at first, although it understood the need. "They are putting a life in your hands," said Mrs. Powers.

Waiting period was eased by the couple's friendships in the Lenawee Families for Adopted Foreign Children. Group includes at least two other Tecumseh families. It meets the second Thursday of the month at the Vo-Tec Center, Adrian.

Couples share information about foreign adoption and encourage new adopting parents during the long wait.

The Powerses departed for Bogota, Columbia Nov. 28, the day after Thanksgiving last year. The night they arrived, they first met Jeremy at the home of their liaison from Columbian American Friends, an American family living in Columbia.

The young family stayed in a boarding house until Columbian paperwork was concluded the following Wednesday. That Monday after their arrival, 21 families from the United States and other countries including Sweden and Germany, had appeared at the Columbian courts to complete their adoptions.

The Powers family took advantage of their wait in Bogota. They visited churches, salt mines, the orphanage FANA, and a museum where a collection of gold artwork from South American countries is kept in vaults.

They shopped at modern centers and purchased souvenirs, such as wall hangings, as a reminder of Jeremy's heritage, which they plan to teach him. His middle name, Gaston, is Spanish.

Columbians greeted the new family with approval. At the boarding home, the hostess fussed over Jeremy as if he were the first baby to visit, said his parents.

It will be another year before Jeremy becomes a naturalized citizen of the United States.

The Powerses, as all new parents, found their life changed by the baby's dependency. Errands and leaving home became a "production", said Wes Powers.

"After a couple weeks home," Wes said, "it just seemed like he was always here. What did we do with our time before he came?"

"When you look into the crib and see him smile that smile at you, it's worth it," said the proud father.

Wes Powers is employed by Ford Motor Co. Theresa Powers serves the Tecumseh historical preservation commission and Tecumseh Area Historical Society board as a director.

In between diapers and family afternoons, they continue to restore their North Union home. It was opened to the public during Promenade the Past third annual home tour last May.

Help Wildlife

Anyone can carry out the National Wildlife Week theme, "Wildlife Needs Everyone", by improving habitat in their own backyard, church, vacant lot, etc.

"Habitat" refers to food, water and cover for wildlife. A quarter of an acre, where ever there is no trespassing, is good size.

Habitat can be improved by planting trees and shrubs that produce shelter and food, putting up birdhouses and feeders, installing a pond, pool or birdbath.

Autumn olive, honeysuckle and flowering dogwood are a few berry-producing plants that add to habitat and do well in the county. For more information on the state low cost seedling program, or plans for your property, contact Lenawee Soil Conservation District.

Koszka Captures Medalist Honors

Kevin Koszka of 405 Seminole took medalist honors Wednesday at Macon Golf Course's sixth annual Junior Open Tournament.

Koszka ran in a 25 foot birdie putt on the first playoff hole against Scott McNitt of Adrian. McNitt missed his 27 footer for a bird. A hole earlier, Koszka sunk a similar putt to put himself in the playoff.

Koszka shot one over par golf his first nine, finishing with a 37 and then shot three birdies and two bogies the second nine to finish at 71. McNitt hit 35-36 in the championship flight to tie for low honors.

Scores for the first day were matched against Thursday's and Friday's play for a three flight, three day tourney.

By the time Friday's play was over, however, Koszka had posted 71-73-75 rounds to finish third in the championship flight.

Tom Dutiot won the flight with consistant pars, 72's, for a 216 total. That was three strokes under Koszka and two under Scott McNitt's 218 score.

Mike Lehmann of Adrian shot a final round of 78 to win the first flight with 238 strokes. Richard Stetler of Bridgewater finished second after defeating Scott McDonald of Tecumseh in a two-hole playoff.

Brad Smith of Britton won the second flight with a 255 total. He finished just one stroke ahead of Onsted's Dave McKenzie. Rick Hood, Adrian, was third at 258.

This marks the third time that Jacobs has finished in the number one spot just ahead of Richardson in the one, two winning positions.

John VanHorn and Mike Marvin tied for third with even pars, 70. Mike Jaeger and Gary McNitt tied for fifth at 71.

Bill Faulkner was the handicap winner with an actual 78. He got 18 handicap strokes for a net of 60.

Three Lenawee County Golf Association tournaments are left in '78. Only one, September 17th at Center View, is set in the Tecumseh area.

THREE UNDER — Doug Jacobs, left, of Tecumseh dropped four birdies on the back nine Sunday at Raisin Valley Golf course to top Adrian's Keith Richardson by one stroke. Jacobs shot a three under par 67 at the Lenawee County Golf Association tournament and posted a 35-32 tally.

CLARENCE LACNY AND CAROL NELSON

EDUCATORS ATTEND SEMINAR

Probe Public Relations

Better public relations for public schools was the subject of a seminar Clarency Lacny, Tecumseh High School principal and Carol Nelson, Tecumseh resident and graduate student, attended last week at Adrian College.

The intensive six-hours a day, five-day class focused on working with media and public to promote schools.

Dr. Paul Kimmelman, school public relations specialist and middle school principal from Perrysburg, Ohio led the seminar.

Media guests included Mary Jane Spencer, Toledo Blade, Jeff Hites, Channel 11 News, Rick Markoff, Adrian College-Associate director for development.

Special panels consisted of parents from Lenawee County, including Lori Egli and Barb Schrader of Tecumseh and news reporters from four county papers including Kathy Brown from the Tecumseh Herald.

"In a nutshell, one of the most important things I learned from the class was how to do a better job communicating school programs to the general public through the use of news media," said Lacny.

"The public and school personnel are equally interested in schools. They lack two-way communication. This is what we learned to do in the class," Nelson commented.

Both Lacny and Nelson agreed that the parent and media panels helped them understand the sensitivities of the general public and news media.

Another aspect of the seminar was a door-to-door survey. Each of the educators posed questions about education to Lenawee County residents.

Sample questions covered how much people know about their schools, the source of their information and reaction to public relations programs.

Object of the exercise was to help educators learn the public's reaction to education topics.

A cross-section of Lenawee County school district educators attended the Adrian College seminar including two high school principals, five teachers, one school board member and one superintendent.

NEW MANAGER — Mike Volpi, flanked by Judy Palmer and Mary Lou Dangler will manage Gaston's for owners, Bruce and Douglas Milkins of Grosse Ile. The Paul Danglers and James Palmers owned and operated the store since 1972. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Two from Grosse Ile Buy Gaston's Jewelry

Gaston's Jewelry, one of the oldest businesses in Tecumseh, was sold Tuesday by Jim and Judy Palmer and Paul and Mary Lou Dangler to Douglas and Bruce Milkins of Grosse Ile.

The Palmers and Danglers had operated the store for the past six years, taking over in April 1972 from Sally Pope and her mother, Mrs. E.C. Heilman. Gaston's was founded here on October 16, 1900.

New owners will retain the store's name and the services of Mr. Dangler as designer and jeweler.

A.B. Milkins Company also owns stores in Monroe and Wyandotte. The company was founded in 1905 in Wyandotte and acquired its second store in Monroe in 1974.

Mike Volpi, Jr., former manager of the Monroe store, is the new manager of Gaston's. Assisting him will be local residents, Ruth Hanna and Sarah Vaillancourt.

Mr. Volpi was active in the jewelry business in Hawaii before joining the Milkins Co. He also was associated with Broer-Freeman in Toledo. He is a member of the American Gem Society, affiliated with Gemological Institute of America, and is a recent graduate of the Dale Carnegie Customer Relations Course.

An active member of Rotary in Monroe, he intends to continue his community involvement with the Tecumseh Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Volpi and his wife, Joan, and two children, Shauna and Paul, have moved to Tecumseh and are members of St. Elizabeth Church.

Owners Douglas and Bruce Milkins, represent the third generation of the Milkins family to be associated with jewelry.

2 B&Es Investigated, Check Passer Arrested

Tecumseh police investigated two breakings and enterings this week, checked into a third attempted B&E, and arrested an Adrian woman on a three count felony.

Evelyn J. Reynolds, 29, of Adrian was arrested on three counts of passing checks without sufficient funds this week after three local businesses reported incidents.

Reynolds reportedly purchased $828 in appliances at Wolf's Appliance, bought records at King Charles with a $69 check and purchased goods at the Party Shop in the amount of $35.

On Friday, Ray Pratt, co-owner of King Charles at 116 E. Chicago Blvd., reported a B&E at the store and at H&R Block. Both are in the same building. Police suspect the culprit stayed in the store until closing and then left by breaking out a second story, west window.

Police have no evidence or suspects at this time. Assorted marijuana pipes were taken from the record shop, valued at $200. A stereo was taken from H&R Block, valued at $185.

Tuesday, police answered a call from Rodney Crawford of 103 Cairns concerning a B&E. Police found a half-inch pry tool was used to pry open a window in the Crawford garage.

Tools and auto parts were taken while the husband and wife were home. Loss was set at $224.

A third B&E was apparently attempted Saturday at Paul's Trailer Court. Cynthia S. Dumire reported that she woke to a noise at her front door and investigators found the door unlocked when they arrived. Dumire reported she had secured the door earlier.

July 27 - Forrest L. Grinnell of Clinton was arrested on DUIL charges after police found him driving left of center and excessively fast on northbound N. Evans.

July 29 - Police also arrested Michael A. Barrett of 601 Brook Saturday on DUIL charges. Barrett was stopped with one headlight out while police were watching W. Chicago Blvd. with radar.

Blaine R. Anderson of Romulus was arrested by police for driving with a suspended license after he was stopped for having a taillight out on M-50.

July 30 - Jeff Parker, 503 Cairns, reported his tires damaged during the night. Parker found the two rear wheels spiked.

July 31 - Ronald Prater of Adrian reported a stolen CB from his auto while parked at the lot at 214 E. Chicago. Loss was set at $250.

Gary L. Brewer of New Smyrna, Florida, was arrested on a valid bench warrant by police while on routine patrol.

Also on Monday, Robert Miller, of 715 Adrian, reported damage to his mailbox after 11 p.m.

J. Kelley of Howell, foreman for M&E Construction, reported lights on his crane were broken out at the construction sight on E. Russell, off of Rogers.

Aug. 2 - Edith Rose, of 307 N. Pearl reported her ten-speed stolen while sitting on her walk in the back of her home.

New Courts Are Damaged

Try to have something nice for the community and it often backfires.

Last Friday, the green coat was put on the city's four new tennis courts at Satterthwaite Park at the Community Center.

By Monday, the green coat on three of the four courts was marred, apparently by a motorcycle.

Repairs will be necessary before play at the courts will start. Posts and nets also have to be installed.

Charles Kipke of Tecumseh reported the destruction, resulting in $400 to $500 damage.

New Addition at Trickey's

A 2,000-square foot addition to Trickey's is nearly completed and will be open this week.

Local clothing store acquired the space after Harry's Cafe ended business.

Remodeling included new carpeting, new paneling and a new doorway from the main department store area. Addition will be used for infants, youth and related clothing items.

OK Box Contract by 30-28 Vote

It was extremely close, but workers at Tecumseh Corrugated Box voted Tuesday afternoon not to strike.

The vote came in at 5:30 p.m. after almost three hours of voting. Thirty voted in favor of the contract, 28 against.

Local, Area Candidates in Primary Tuesday for Party Nominations

There are 45,623 registered voters in Lenawee County, according to Pat Johnson, county clerk. In Tecumseh, 4,013 are registered, clerk Vera Gardner reports.

A light vote is predicted, but it should be larger than the August 1976 primary. At that time, approximately 17 percent of Tecumseh's eligible voters went to the polls, or less than 700.

Some observers feel that next Tuesday's primary could attract as many as 30 percent of the local voters. Outcome in some races may be close, especially at the county level.

Voters will be able to vote just one section of the ballot - Democrat, Republican, or party qualification. This means voting for Democrats only, Republicans only, or party qualification, such as Socialist Workers Party, Communist Labor Party or United States Labor Party.

Statewide contests have attracted little interest here. Gov. William Milliken is unopposed on the Republican slate as is Congressman Dave Stockman. U.S. Senator Robert Griffin is expected to win easily over challenger Brooks Patterson.

For governor, Democrats will pick from five candidates, William Fitzgerald, Patrick McCollough, William Ralls and Zolton Ferency. Six Democrats are seeking their party's choice in November - Phil Power, Paul Rosenbaum, Richard Vanderveen, Anthony Derezinski, Carl Levin, and John Otterbacher - for U.S. Senator.

Morgan Hager, Jr., is unopposed for Congressman from the 4th District on the Democratic ticket.

Most interest is centering around the races for State Representative, 40th District, two races in Raisin Township, and State Senator, 19th District.

Mary Bowers, James Hadden and Richard Platt are Republicans seeking their party's nomination for State Representative. All are qualified and a close race is expected. Platt is expected to pull a majority of the farm vote. Hadden is expected to have the majority in Adrian, and Mrs. Bowers should be the top vote getter in Tecumseh, and possibly a couple other communities and areas.

Democrat John Underwood is favored to win handily his party's nomination for State Representative over Paul Goode and Larry Forth.

John S. Mowat, Jr., relinquishing his State Representative position, is being opposed for State Senator on the Republican ballot by Aaron Ray Waldron, Elmer Curl, W. Jack Hurula and Fred Janke.

James Daly, local attorney, is favored to win the Democrats nomination for State Senator. He faces opposition from Ron Shankland, Daniel McCarthy and June M. Merrill.

In June, dissension in Raisin Township broke to the surface when township leaders publicly disagreed. Marjorie Comfort, present treasurer, is challenging Shirley Roback for township clerk.

Richard Gallaway, current township supervisor, is facing opposition from Robert D. Moore, who had the backing of the late Jim Mitchell before his death in June. Mitchell preceded Gallaway as Supervisor and held the post over 33 years.

In June, Comfort charged Gallaway and Roback with operating an inefficient government. At that time, Gallaway and Roback said they would stand on their record and would not battle the issue in the papers, although The Herald offered them equal space.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

4 Races in Raisin Include Supervisor, Clerk Contests

Raisin Township is the only one of six townships in the Tecumseh area that has four contests in the primary election Aug. 8.

Two year term offices of supervisor, clerk and trustee will be decided in the primary election, as all candidates are Republicans.

Only the treasurer's office will have Democratic opposition in the fall. Lynette K. Saylor, Democratic treasurer candidate, will challenge the Republican primary winner in November.

Incumbent supervisor Richard Gallaway is challenged by Robert D. Moore. Incumbent clerk Shirley Roback is challenged by incumbent treasurer Marjorie Comfort.

Claude N. Lane and Gretchen Lovett square off in the primary for the nomination as Republican treasurer candidate.

A three-way contest developed for the trustee office. Incumbent is Robert Murray. Challengers are James R. Bone and Bert Gagler.

Polls are located at the Fire Station on Holloway Rd. for Precinct one and at the Fire Station on Occidental Rd. for Precinct two. Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Following is a resume of the candidates in alphabetical order:

Resumes

Candidates were asked about 1. residency, 2. education, 3. public office and community service achievements, 4. why they seek office, 5. what they hope to accomplish and 6. their qualifications for office.

RICHARD L. GALLAWAY
Supervisor Candidate

1. Republican. 1105 Raisin Center Hwy, Adrian. Lifelong township resident.

2. Tecumseh High School graduate. Seminars in industry supervision, short course Michigan State University in agriculture, three terms studying assessing at Jackson Community College.

3. Elected Raisin Township trustee, 12 years; Raisin Township supervisor, two years. I have established a well-rounded program of service to the township including: a recreation program, revised maps, organized card file for assessments, regular meetings of the board of appeals and planning commission.

I have been doing more in programs than in the past with no criticism of what has been done in the past, involving as many people in local township government as possible.

4. I have been involved in township government for several years. I have been able to get something started on a local level and I would like to continue.

5. I want to continue what has been started, to keep planning for the future and growth of the township.

6. Experience, schooling and the will to do it.

ROBERT D. MOORE

1. Republican. 5914 Rogers Hwy., Tecumseh. Lived in Raisin Township since 1967.

2. Five generations of my family have attended and graduated from Tecumseh High School. I attended Michigan State University, The University of Michigan and continue to attend business management seminars and short courses.

3. I have served as president of the Michigan Forest Products Association and as a director of the National Wooden Pallett and Container Association.

4. Today, even township government is big business. So the fastest growing township in Lenawee County must have the management of a successful and experienced business mind. Raisin Township government needs responsible citizens to serve with unity, cooperation and dedication.

For these reasons, and with the support and encouragement of the late Jim Mitchell, I decided to run for township supervisor. Our well-planned and neat subdivisions, our modern fire department, attest to Jim's farsighted planning.

What we do today will affect the lives of our children tomorrow and I would like to be a part of the team that makes those decisions and plans.

5. Today, taxes are on everyone's mind and I want to

2 Collide in Crash

Sheriff's Deputies investigated a head-on collision at 2:05 a.m. Wednesday morning on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. One driver was sent to Herrick Hospital and the second sought his own treatment.

According to Deputies, Samuel Marcum, 27, of 1009 Murray, was southbound on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., near Kaiser Rd., when he crossed the center line on a curve and hit an auto driven by Peter C. Zarnoch, 51, of Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

Marcum was cited for being in violation of the basic speed law and was transported to Herrick Memorial Hospital where he was treated and released. Zarnoch received bumps and bruises and sought his own treatment.

July 26 - Tecumseh police investigated an accident on W. Chicago Blvd. where Thurman E. Stanley, 57, of 509 W. Brown St. reportedly turned right from the center lane on

EDITORIAL

Our Candidates: Bowers, Underwood, Mowat, Daly, Moore, Comfort, Spalding

There are some area candidates on Tuesday's primary ballot who have little or no chance of succeeding, and for obvious reasons. There are a number of candidates, however, who deserve election and who are qualified for the posts they're seeking.

Our choices are:

State Representative, 40th District, Republicans - Mary A. Bowers, vice-president of the United Savings Bank, who has devoted much of her time the past couple of months getting acquainted in the county. She would be an asset in Lansing for Lenawee County. Our second choice would be Dick Platt, Tipton farmer, who likewise has been hard at work in the campaign. Other candidate, Adrian businessman Jim Hadden, is popular but has put forth little effort in seeking the post.

State Representative, 40th District, Democrats - Tecumseh's John Underwood, a Clinton automobile dealer, who is almost certain to defeat his opponents next Tuesday.

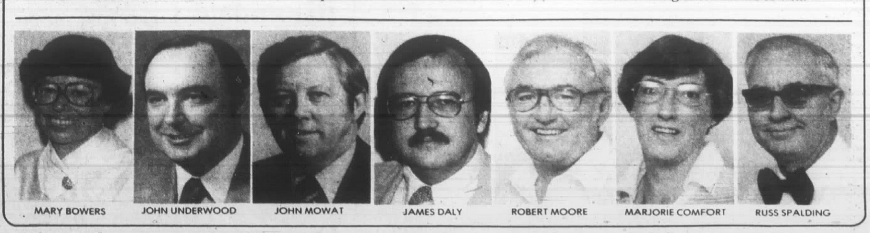
State Senate, Republicans - John Mowat, Adrian, who decided not to seek re-election as our State Representative. Mowat should pull enough Lenawee and Hillsdale County votes to win and offset a bigger Jackson County vote.

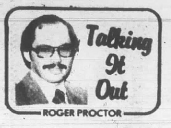
State Senate, Democrats - Attorney James Daly of Tecumseh, has won and received support not only from county organizations but from Jackson County organizations, too.

In other interesting area races, dissension in Raisin Township government is obvious. This fast, growing area needs some leadership. The late Jim Mitchell's support of Robert D. Moore for township supervisor should indicate the lack of confidence in present supervisor, Dick Gallaway. Mitchell served as township supervisor for over 33 years.

From first hand knowledge, we know that Marjorie Comfort is an efficient and intelligent hardworking individual. She questioned the township's leadership in June. At that time, The Herald offered equal space for a rebuttal, but there was none. She's running for township clerk and should win over Shirley Roback.

Russ Spalding, former Britton school superintendent, faces a veteran Stacy Zilkie for County Commissioner, 4th District. Sooner or later, the veterans must eventually relinquish their positions. Spalding, who has the support of a number of prominent Britton people, would be a good successor but will have to collect a big Britton vote to win.





Why have a wake?

The word, wake, literally means to "watch a corpse," according to Elaine Landau in her book, "Death: Everyone's Heritage."

The actual watching occurred, in olden times, from the moment of death until burial. It was traditional and probably practical. In those early times without benefit of our modern medicine, could it not also have been to reassure the family that their loved one was, in fact, dead and not merely in a comatose state?

The practice of conducting a wake is not uncommon and takes many forms. The Irish wake is famous in that it is an occasion for family and friends of the deceased to gather together, eat, drink, and have a "joyful" time. In this way, the deceased is honored and viewed in a peaceful atmosphere of friendship, love and camaraderie -- as "he would have wanted." The practice is also an acknowledged form of grief therapy for survivors.

Members of the Kawaiko Church of Hawaii put on a lavish luau following the burial of a church member. Festivities are designed to ease the grief of the bereaved and to say "goodbye" to their member in a happy setting.

We respect the customs of whatever religion or ethnic group is being served for wake or visitation. If you have any questions on these customs, please phone or stop by.

2 Cities Plan Festivities, Events for August 25-27

Tecumseh, Mich. residents lend your ears to plans for the Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada Third Annual Corn Festival, Aug. 25-27.

Tecumseh, Ontario is the home of Jolly Green Giant Corn. Last year the Canadians hosted 20,000 visitors during the weekend festival and served 10,000 ears of corn.

This year, the Canadians have included us Michiganders in their plans. The appointed exchange day is Saturday, Aug. 26.

Tecumseh, Mich. Council member Len DeMoss is organizing local participation and revealed these plans.

A caravan will leave Tecumseh city hall at 8 a.m. Aug. 26 and proceed to the international bridge. Once in Ontario, the caravan will be met by Tecumseh Canadians at the Windsor McDonald's and proceed to the festival.

Four Tecumseh, Mich. skydivers from Harold Lange's Parachuting Services will compete against four Canadian skydivers in target jumping.

These jumpers will be part of the grand parade at 11 a.m. Mayor Aden Mead of Tecumseh, Mich. and Mayor Don Lappan of Tecumseh, Ont. will ride together in the parade also. The Carlsburg Champion Team and Wagon will also be featured.

Tecumseh, Mich. folks are invited to enter floats, antique cars, horses, marching band, and any other appropriate parade units. Trophies will be awarded.

Crafts people in the area are also invited to display their work. Council member DeMoss has applications for the parade and craft exhibits.

The Moravian town Indian Council will present authentic dances in full costume at 1 p.m.

A fire fighters contest, evening dances, a beer tent, family carnival with 25 cent rides, international little league team games, and plenty of German style food are planned for the weekend.

A baby sitting service may be available.

Free camping with water and electric hook up at LaCasse Recreation Centre is being offered to Tecumseh, Mich. visitors.

Anyone with Tecumseh, Mich. identification will qualify for 50 cent discount on any souvenirs that weekend.

Council member DeMoss has information regarding reservations for weekend accomodations in the Windsor area.

Last caravan from Tecumseh, Mich. to Tecumseh, Ont. included 200 vechicles and cooperation of state, Detroit and Windsor police.

If this year's Tecumseh participation is to be as great, many volunteers will be needed to cooperate. Anyone or any group interested may contact Council member DeMoss.

Local Truck Driver Involved in I-94 Chain of Crashes

Dennis Kime, 27, Tecumseh, was driver of a beer truck which became involved in an accident, triggering an 11-vehicle pileup on I-94, two miles west of Albion late Monday.

One person was killed and 10 injured in the chain of collisions, tying up traffic for 12 hours.

State Police said the pileup began when Kime attempted to pass two other semi-trucks traveling west on the freeway.

As he passed the other two trucks, Kime told officers he lost control of his vehicle, slammed into the side of the lead truck, driven by Frederick Lewis, 31, of Waukegan, Ill., also hauling beer.

Lewis pulled to the side, but Kime's truck jack-knifed across the road, spilling fuel from its ruptured gas tank onto the pavement.

The third semi-trailer truck, carrying a load of wood chips driven by James Horn, 22, of Hammond, Ind., slid on the pavement and plowed into Kime's truck. The fuel ignited and engulfed Horn's Truck, burning him to death.

Kime was hospitalized briefly with minor injuries.

Two passenger cars following Horn's truck, slammed into the flaming wreckage. One car, driven by Thomas Marx, 32, of Brighton, burned but Marx escaped the flames.

Connie Carter, driver of the other car and her three children were treated for minor injuries.

Barricades were placed at the scene and shortly afterward, a semi-truck carrying frozen fish struck the rear of a car dodging the barricades. Both drivers were slightly injured.

Next, an Ann Arbor man, driving a car police say he stole from a repair shop outside Jackson, was traveling east on I-94, when he saw the barricades, and thought they were placed to stop him, then sped through them at 90 miles per hour.

He was arrested by pursuing officers.

Back at the accident site, Linda Graf, 29, of Wauresha, Ind., was slowly crossing the median when Santos Cruz, drove his truck, carrying 2,300 lbs. of cucumbers into the rear of her car. The Cruz truck then careened into the side of a parked county patrol car.

Deputy Ronald Muter, who was sitting in the squad car, is hospitalized in fair condition with neck and back injuries.

Raisin Township Supervisor

TO THE VOTERS IN RAISIN TOWNSHIP

EDUCATION

Tecumseh High School, Michigan State University, University of Michigan plus business management seminars and short courses.

Past President of the Michigan Forest Products Association and a Director of the National Wooden Pallet and Container Association.

Why Raisin Township Supervisor?

Raisin Township is big business and the government here needs responsible citizens to serve with unity, cooperation and dedication.

The late Jim Mitchell earlier this year gave me his support and encouraged me to run for the position of Raisin Township Supervisor. We in Raisin Township owe much to Jim Mitchell.

Relative to taxes, we should be assessed fairly, and we should stop yearly assessment increases caused by forces outside our township.

I will work toward Raisin Township becoming a Charter Township and preserving our borders.

We should work together to keep and improve necessary services and oppose adding burdensome and costly plans that in turn hike our taxes.

I FEEL THAT I HAVE THE TIME, THE KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITY TO SERVE YOU WELL AS RAISIN TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR

Under My Leadership . . . we will have harmonious, efficient and democratic township government.

Feel Free to Call Me at 423-4422 If You Have Any Questions

When do the Dog Days end? "When the cats take over," Neil Hunter of the Clinton Local joked with Herald staff members Monday. According to one almanac, the Dog Days begin July 3 and end Aug. 11 in 1979. The Dog Days is the period between early July and early September when the hot sultry weather of summer usually occurs. Now you have something to look forward to for next year.

The Andy Woodwards took a round-about route from Bradenton, Fla., to California, where they were joined by son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodward for a two week visit to Hawaii. They visited five islands and drove about to view the scenery. Andy was especially pleased to be able to find the well-hidden grave of Charles Lindbergh, whose life had always been of special interest to him. The Woodwards are back in Tecumseh now, but expect to relocate permanently in Bradenton when their Tecumseh house is sold.

make sure they are assessed fairly. I will work to stop the yearly assessment increases caused by forces outside the township.

I am proud to live in Raisin Township and will work toward the township becoming a charter township and preserving our boundaries.

I will work to keep and improve necessary services and fight against adding burdensome and costly plans which will only increase our taxes.

6. I have the time to spend on township business. After 25 years of building Pallox Inc. of Clinton into one of the largest wood pallet manufacturing businesses in Michigan, I have given the daily management responsibilities to my son and son-in-law.

I have the knowledge to work with government agencies, various commissions and elected representatives through my business experience and work with professional organizations.

I have the ability to recognize the problems and affect fair and just solutions.

Under my leadership, the township government will be harmonious, efficient and democratic.

MARJORIE COMFORT
Clerk Candidate

1. The Comfort family was among the settlers of Raisin Township, arriving in 1840. I have lived in the township 16 years.

2. I earned a B.A. degree from Michigan State University.

3. In addition to holding the office of Raisin Township treasurer for six years, I am a past president of the Little Garden Club of Tecumseh and Environmental Council of Lenawee (ECOL). Both groups received state and national recognition for their work in developing parks and nature areas. In connection with my work as an education writer, I was named a Michigan representative for the White House Conference on Education.

4. Raisin Township residents need and deserve to have township officers who take a sincere interest in their work, who will attend meetings, be in contact with other government offices and seek out local citizens' opinions on how the township should be governed. They also need officers who will keep costs of government down. I am a taxpayer in Raisin Township, and I like my money to be spent wisely.

5. As township clerk, I would make the office efficient, thereby cutting the need for hours of extra clerical help. The office would be responsive to the people of the township. The records would be up to date, accurate and understandable. Questions and letters would be answered promptly.

6. My qualifications include six years as township officer; my education; 10 years of writing about local government affairs as a newspaper reporter and editor; wide reading and studying of local government issues; attendence at seminars sponsored by the Michigan Townships Association and other groups. After I completed a course in local government accounting, the instructor asked me if I would go to work for her in Washtenaw County government. I prefered to stay in Raisin Township and help my neighbors.

SHIRLEY ROBACK
Clerk Candidate

1. Republican. 3700 Westgate Place. A township resident for approximately 15 years.

4. I have enjoyed serving the people of Raisin Township and I want to continue to serve them in this same capacity. I also feel with my past experience, I can and will do the best job with the best interest of the people in mind.

5. Better roads. Completion of recreation program. Study the fire department's future needs in the areas of equipment and education in fire protection and rescue service.

6. As the incumbent, I stand on my reputation as the clerk of Raisin Township for the past 5 1/2 years. My honesty to the people and my educational background all make me the best qualified.

My main interest is to serve the people of Raisin Township by making myself available during reasonable hours at the township office. Raisin Township has had a tremendous growth in population and this takes a strong cooperative unit of government which I feel we have not had.

Supervisor candidate Kenneth Koons. (He is the incumbent trustee seeking supervisor office vacated by Richard Platt's bid for the Republican nomination as candidate for the 40th district State House of Representatives.)

H. Wesley Whelan, incumbent clerk, is seeking reelection. Daniel Van-Valkenburg is seeking the trustee office.

Polls are located at the Franklin Township Hall, Tipton on M-50. Polls are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

You can find plenty of Biblical texts about the wind. That's not why so many colonial churches have weather vanes atop their steeples.

Our early American ancestors were religious—and practical. A weathercock had to be mounted well above trees and roofs which could alter the course of the wind. Often the local church steeple was the highest place.

Nor is there anything irreverent in the custom. For centuries man has looked to the Church for guidance, direction, hope. It seems natural as he pursues his daily work to look to the Church to see which way the wind blows.

We get our weather news today from press, radio and TV. But look to the church of your choosing to gain the faith and courage that see reverent souls through "fair wind or foul."

Braves Go Undefeated

Only one team has gone through the summer baseball season in town without a loss. That's the minor league champs, the Braves, and they have to be the hottest team in town.

The team averaged a little over 11 runs a game in their 16 game schedule and allowed their opponents less than two on an average. The most they scored was 17, but scored 16 times in three other games. They shut out one team, 16-0.

Kurt LaGore was the "Rookie-of-the-Year" with a .600 batting average, going nine for 15. And with a .600 average, LaGore didn't win the batting championship. Stacy Vallad squeaked by LaGore with two more hits for a .631 average.

Co-MVP's were twins Brad and Chad Anschuetz, each batting .500. Mike Penney was voted most improved player with only two strike outs and a .476 average. He tied Vallad for high honors in the home run department with three.

Other leading batters for the team include, Jeff Russell at .450 in his first year, Kenny Kingston with a .333 average and Tracy McMillon with a .571 mark.

Team pitching was lead by the Anschuetz's with 69 strike outs for Chad and 50 for Brad. Vallad had 64.

In the All-Star games, the Indians teamed with the Braves, to beat the Twins and Tigers, 26-7. In the second game, the Indians and Braves beat the Angels and Athletics, Braves batted a .657 and a .575 team average.

Team Drops One, Wins Second, 18-10

In the second meeting between the Tecumseh Recreation Department and the Milan Recreation Department, Tecumseh dropped the first game 6-4 then came storming back in the second game 18-10.

Lisa Elvey was the winning pitcher for Milan as she quieted the bats of Tecumseh, allowing only seven hits.

In the second game, Tecumseh banged out 20 hits and played outstanding defense. Joel Wood was the winning pitcher. Randy Halvin paced Tecumseh with five hits while Joel Wood and Jeff Ives added three hits each.

Eardley Paces Milan Team

The team sponsored by McDonald's and Erb's Chevrolet of Tecumseh won their last game of the season 6-3 over Milan Red. Mike Watters was the winning pitcher giving up six hits and striking out nine.

Tim Eardley paced Tecumseh with two hits. Tecumseh's big inning was the fifth when they scored four runs aided by two errors and a double by Marty Wallich.

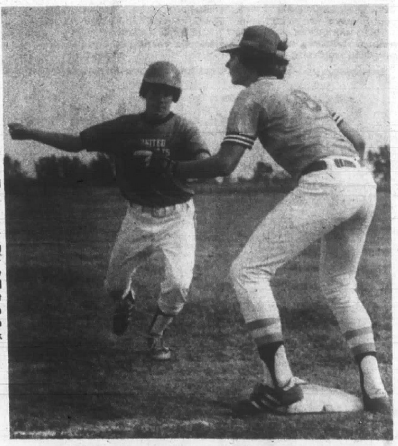
USB WINS — The United Savings Bank topped Adrian Tuesday night by five runs. At left, Rick Frontz grounded out to third and was an easy out for Gene Cooley at first. Below, Roger Proctor hit a long sacrifice to left field to score Terry Lighthall from third. Lighthall and Cooley lead the bank to the 8-3 victory with two hits each.



MILAN WINS — The McDonald-Erb sponsored Milan league team went up against the Pony All-Stars this week and won. At right, Rex Robinson of UPW took a big lead and had to hurry back to first on pitcher, Marty Wallich's throw. Andy Edison was covering first for Milan. Below, Darr Burnside bunted to third and was thrown out at first. Don Ringman came over from second base to back up the play.

Act To Help District Program

Soil and water conservation programs in Lenawee County have a long and successful history of being locally initiated, planned and managed through the Lenawee Soil Conservation District.

Last fall Congress passed the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act now known as the Resources Conservation Act. The Resources Conservation Acts calls for a comprehensive look at the nation's basic natural resources and for better programs to protect and improve them.

An important part of the law is its emphasis on citizen participation in determining the future direction of conservation programs that affect us at the local level.

Under the law, you can express your views and opinions on the nation's natural resources. Using the views and opinions of all people the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service will develop a program to guide conservation efforts and evaluate the program's effectiveness each year.

The Lenawee Soil Conservation Districts has joined the Soil Conservation Service in its efforts to strengthen soil and water conservation programs and will conduct an open meeting about the Resources Conservation Act later in the summer. Comments, opinions and suggestions are welcome.

To develop a truly responsive conservation program, participation of concerned individuals as well as local governments, farms, civic, and environmental organizations and other interested groups is needed.

How will this information benefit the local conservation district? The completed inventory and assessment of current local soil and water resource conditions will allow immediate positive answers to questions on soil, water related resources. It will identify long range program needs.

It will guide priorities and program emphasis. It will provide specific facts to locate needed assistance and a basis to negotiate for people, funds, and other resources needed to handle the identified problems.

These benefits will produce a stronger Soil Conservation District that is more visible and better able to meet the needs of the Lenawee County residents.

Extension Service Teaches Kids 'Good Health, Good Growth'

By Kathy Brown

How do you teach a youngster to reach for a glass of milk and an apple instead of a can of soda pop and potato chips for a snack? To prefer lean meat instead of pizza for regular dinner fare?

Tecumseh area volunteers and staff members of the Lenawee County office of the Cooperative Extension Service tried to educate young people aged three and older and their parents about nutrition last week at the United Methodist Church fellowship center.

Crafts, demonstrations, games and activities for everyone were part of the three-day 4-H Family Camp entitled "Getting It All Together For Good Health and Good Growth."

This was the first time such a nutrition camp was held in Tecumseh, stated Tecumsehite Jean Bick, cochairwoman for the camp and a Cooperative Extension Service nutrition aide.

The camp was scheduled for seven different locations in the county during July and August.

"It is quite an undertaking," explained Bick. "We are taking this service to the people and we have had a lot of fun and success. The children are learning and we've had good turnouts of around 50 people.

"I worked with Hudson mothers and by Thursday, they were enthused that they're children were learning about good nutrition," she told.

The fun and games helped students learn about the basic four food groups, milk, meat, fruit and vegetables and bread and cereal. In addition, two nutritional snacks and a school lunch in a paper bag showed children how to select nutritional foods.

"We're feeding them the right things so that they'll learn to eat the right things," Bick elaborated. "The school lunch in a paper bag is provided so that they know they can pack a proper meal in a sack."

From the general response of classes viewed during the first day, the children's enthusiasm was high.

Ann Hinsdale is county home economist and Jan Seitz is assistant home economist.

RAISIN TOWNSHIP CLERK, MRS. SHIRLEY ROBAK, TELLS THE TRUTH AND COMMENTS ON THE CONTENT OF ARTICLES RECENTLY PUBLISHED IN THE TECUMSEH HERALD.

My Raisin Township Clerk records are in compliance with the State of Michigan and the Township Auditor and therefore I would like to invite any Township Resident interested to review the records which are kept by the Clerk. As an elected Raisin Township Official, it is my duty and privilege to serve the people and I do so on Monday and Thursday from 9:00 A.M.-1:00 P.M. at the Township Office, or at any other reasonable time upon request. The Minutes of the Township Board Meetings are not changed unless approved by the Township Board and then this would be considered an addition or correction. The Townshp Supervisor is the presiding officer at Board Meetings, and it is my duty to answer to the Township Supervisor and to the residents of Raisin Townshp.

The Raisin Township Office was established several years for the convenience of residents due to the growth and progress made in the Township over the last five years. The office has been accepted and appreciated by the residents and other doing business with the Township Officials because of being able to go to one location for the majority of all business. Definite established working hours of operation of this Township Office is a normal and not an unusual requirement. It is true that the procedure followed in the Raisin Township Annual Meeting, April 1978, to require the Township Treasurer to maintain regular hours in the Township Office could have been reviewed legally for options available. It would appear beneficial to service needs of our Township Residents from one location and not three locations (residence of Supervisor, Clerk, Treasurer). Let's Cooperate. The City of Adrian or City of Tecumseh does not permit or approve any one person conducting City business from his/her choice of location.

Legal opinions of 20 March and 21 June 1978 by Michigan Township Association Attorneys states "The inhabitants can authorize such Orders and By-Laws as are conducive to the peace, welfare, and good order of the Township directing and managing the prudential affairs of the Township. Such Order and By-Laws must not contravene State Statutes." Due legal process in the development, the processing and approval of Township Orders and By-Laws appears to be mandatory for legal compliance with existing regulations regarding such actions.

Township finance receipts, per Township auditor recommendation are to be recorded in a sequence-numbered register system; this method authorized and approved by the Township Board, therefore, is mandatory and is not subject to interpretation by any Township official, without exception, in order to protect financial records of Raisin Township.

From public information, the Raisin Township Supervisor does not receive the highest pay of any Township Supervisor in Lenawee County.

If there are any questions or issues pertaining to the above, feel free to call me at my home 517-423-7992, or at the Raisin Township Office 517-423-3162.

Pre-arranged funerals?

Maybe that's a new idea to you, but we've been doing it at our funeral home for years. It makes sense . . . not leaving those important decisions to your family at a time of bereavement. It reduces stress, helps them know that your wishes are carried out, and could reduce unnecessary expenses for unwanted services.

Think about it — maybe you owe that to yourself and to those you love. Then call us. We'll be happy to answer your questions.

George Underwood

Ford-Lincoln-Mercury

In this day and age when every car maker offers such a wide selection of models to choose from, it is really difficult for you to decide where to go for a new car. All the companies advertise that their cars are the best, but who is to say which car really is. Obviously all the cars on the market today must have their good points or they wouldn't have survived the ups and downs of the business. We, therefore, can conclude that the real difference in buying a car is the dealer from which you make your purchase.

The ideal dealer to buy a car from offers a fair price on the new unit as well as an honest dollar for the car you trade in. However, the most important factor is the service that you receive on your new car year after year.

We would like to point out a dealer that considers the most important part of selling a car the quality service he can offer you after the sale. We are talking about George Underwood at the corner of Tecumseh and Macon Rd. in Clinton, phone 456-7414 dealers for the famous Ford-Lincoln and Mercury automobiles. See them today for a new or quality used car, and you'll see why we say "Customer Consideration" is their byword.

RICHARD PLATT for State Representative
Committee • 40th District

Dear Friends,

We are supporting Dick Platt for State Representative (40th District) in the Republican Primary on August 8th.

Dick Platt is not a Johnny come lately, he has been involved in local government and community service and his reputation for honesty and hard work is well known.

Those of us who have followed Dick's career over the years recognize that he has established a consistent, moderate and reasonable approach to the issues of the day as they arise. We feel comfortable with his approach and his responsiveness to the people of this area.

Knowing Dick as we do, we feel certain he will work hard for our area and be responsive to his constituents. For example, Dick Platt was working to reduce property tax many months before it became a headline issue and we are convinced he will continue this work even after the headlines fade.

We urge you to join us in electing Dick Platt on August 8th.

Sincerely yours,

Mark A. Jackson, Chm.

FIVE CENT LEMONADE — Entrepeneur Scott Miller, 8 and pals Jim Campbell, 5 and Timmy Miller, 4.

Businessman Scott Thrills Friends with 5¢ Lemonade

by Kathy Brown

In this day and age, when the Single Business Tax, workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance, labor demands, inflation, OSHA and the county health department threaten small business as we know it today, it is reassuring to meet young entrepeneurs like Scott Miller, 8, of Clinton.

He has weighed the risks of the business world and ventured to achieve a comfortable standard of living while providing consumer goods and services at a fair price.

Yes, friends, the nickel cup of ice cold lemonade is still available in the area at 404 Tecumseh Rd., Clinton. Thanks to Scott, we don't have to travel to Wall Drug, S. Dak. to get our nickel's worth of beverage.

Scott has fewer woes than today's businessman. He has no overhead to worry about. His major stockholder, his mother, Mrs. Frederick Miller, benevolently supplies him with the soft drink mix, dispensers, ice and paper cups.

"I've asked her if I can go down to the store and buy some stuff with my own money, but she says, 'No'," Scott told.

Competition is not an immediate threat. From the looks of it, customers like Jenny Jeppesen, 7 and Kerry Jeppesen, 5, Timmy Miller, 4 and Jim Campbell, 5, were all happy with the service.

In fact, they missed the service. During the three weeks that Scott and family vacationed, some of the neighborhood kids set up a stand on the corner of Tecumseh Rd. and Locust to meet the neighborhood demands. "It is a pretty good corner," stated Mrs. Miller.

"It has been real interesting. The other day two businessmen drove by in a van. When they saw him, they turned around and stopped," mused Mrs. Miller.

Like any self-employed businessman, Scott sets his own business hours. And he can afford to, "at least at this stage," interjected his mother. He sets up business when the weather is the hottest.

Does "shrinkage" affect Scott's profits?

"Sometimes when the weather hits 99 degrees, I drink some of the product," admitted Scott. But mostly he says he saves his money "to buy things that I need and want."

When he is not minding the store, eager beaver Scott enjoys earning his money mowing the lawn. For recreation, he rides his bike. He hasn't discovered The Club and golfing yet.

What inspired Scott to take his risks in business? It started back in his impressionable youth.

"When I was a little kid," Scott reminisced, "my mom got me a Bert and Ernie magazine subscription. I read about this kid that had a lemonade stand and I asked her if I could have one. She said, 'Okay'. Last year was my first year and I earned about $5," Scott said with an unmistakable pride.

He just had his grand opening of the season when the Herald reporter wheeled past, screeched the brakes and hopped out of the car, armed with camera.

"Three customers in the first minute. Business is good," Scott confided.

Though taxes and regulation are business concerns that may gray that curly, red-haired head in the distant future, Scott has learned other basic lessons in the free enterprise system.

Diversity of product is one. He stocks both lemonade and cherry soft drink.

The value of publicity and advertising is another. Scott was not bashful about having his picture taken on the job.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank those people who made the summer season of the Shawnee Marchers a success and to inform the public of the upcoming fall season.

First, I need to thank the parents of all these dedicated students who worked very hard during the month of June to make our competition show something the entire community could be proud of.

I would also like to thank the bus drivers and chaperones of the trips to other competitions in Michigan and Canada.

The Tecumseh competition June 29 went smoothly thanks to the co-operation of the school administration, the custodial staff at the high school, the building and grounds staff of the school system and the community recreation department.

The mechanics of the competition and the accompanying hospitality requirements for the visiting bands were handled very well by the many band booster committees.

A special thanks goes to Donald Dobrosky who coordinated the entire project. I also want to thank the Tecumseh Herald and the Adrian Daily Telegram for their excellent coverage of the competition.

With all this excellent work behind us, we look at the fall season with a new enthusiasm. We presently have over 70 students signed up for the new season.

Music practices started July 27 and will continue through the rest of the summer. If there are any students interested in joining the Marchers in the fall, they can contact me at my home.

TAX LIMITATION FOR MICHIGAN
ELECT JERRY KLEIN

YOUR EAR IN THE 18TH DISTRICT. . .
YOUR VOICE IN LANSING
MORE JOBS. . . MORE BUSINESS
CONSTITUTIONAL LIMITATION ON TAXES

"The lack of common sense in our government can be seen in our taxing and spending. They want to tax us 2 cents a gallon for gasoline to build a subway in Detroit. But they do not spend enough on our mental hospitals to insure patients are not abused. We are paying the highest taxes in our history, and for what? Terrible streets and roads. . . sewage systems that are inadequate. . . a snarled legal system. . . an exploding welfare burden. Our government isn't solving problems—it is causing problems.

"We cannot hope to reduce the tax load overnight. We must move ahead on three fronts. Firstly, we must establish a business climate that will attract new business to the state and which will encourage the growth of business here. Added business means more jobs, higher incomes for all and less of a tax burden. Secondly, we must reduce the cost of government and shift spending from unessential to essential activities. Lastly, we must impose limits on the amount of taxes that may be collected and the amount of borrowing by government. Only with limits on what can be collected will there be limits on spending."

ELECT JERRY KLEIN

"There is something fundamentally wrong in the way our government and our society are being run. We are being eaten alive by rising taxes, rising prices, red tape, and regulation. Government is growing faster than the rest of society and its overspending pushes up taxes and causes inflation. Further, we the people are being forced to do the bidding of the bureaucrats and the politicians, instead of government serving the people.

"We are being treated as if we are nothing or as numbers on some huge list. Politicians are trying to run our lives. I, for one, am sick and tired of being shoved and manipulated and this is why I am running for office. I intend to shove back for the people."

RIDGEWAY TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS

The Ridgeway Township Board Members would appreciate your giving the following proposition to be placed on the August 8th, 1978 Primary Ballot your support.

The 1977 tax year marks the end of a 5 year - 1 mill tax levy for the Fire Department equipment. This 1 Mill permitted us to upgrade our fire fighting equipment and we are both pleased and proud of our local department.

During this 5 year period, we were able to make considerable improvements on township roads, bridges and culverts, as we did not need to appropriate general fund money for the purchase of fire department equipment.

We would like you to consider a 1 Mill tax levy to replace the retired levy in order that we can continue the road and bridge improvements. The roads are at a point now, that without annual improvements, they will soon be in their former condition. Without financial assistance (1 Mill), we will be severely limited as far as any new improvements.

We thank you for your past support and sincerely hope you will give favorable consideration to this matter.

PROPOSITION YES NO

Shall the Township of Ridgeway levy a property tax of not to exceed one (1) Mill on $1.00 of State equalized valuation of the Township for the next succeeding five year period (5 years) for the Township road maintenance and bridge maintenance and construction improvements and place any amount so raised into a fund of the Township to be used for the maintenance and/or improvement of local roads and bridge construction in the Township.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

Months ago many of us who feed birds decided whether or not to continue feeding during the summer months. Here, in the gray and white house by Evans Creek, it was no problem — we just automatically feed the year around. There are however, many who take the other course.

During the bad weather months, often there are times when well-stocked bird feeders are the difference between surviving and not surviving but, once spring and summer arrive, Mother Nature's banquet boards are so well set that truly, the birds do not need our handouts.

Another reason for not feeding is the hordes of grackles and starlings a well-stocked feeder attracts.

With this latter reason I have great sympathy. Right now the feeders, the yard and the trees are alive with grackles. The noise is unbelievable.

Today, being a beautiful summer day with high temperatures and a lovely breeze, the windows and doors are wide open thus letting all of the grackle talk come in.

While dictating this article I am practically shouting to make myself heard above the din. The noise makers are primarily youngsters, screaming and hollering to be fed.

They have loud raspy voices and are insatiably hungry. The adults must get so tired of stuffing food into those cavernous maws only to have the kids resume screaming immediately. Sometimes it seems they hardly take time to swallow.

The worst and most persistent noise comes from the dull black youngsters who are too old to be fed. They tag after a parent screaming their hunger every second. What will power it must take not to break down and feed the squalling kids.

Actually I am sure it is not will power at all - when the youngsters are old enough to be on their own, their parents simply 'turn them off'.

In a remarkably short time they probably don't even recognize them. As far as the human reaction to all of the screaming and hollering, I can only say that at times it takes steady nerves to maintain a summer bird feeding program.

However, Mom and I are in agreement that the advantages of year around feeding outnumber the disadvantages. At least for us they do.

Grackles and starlings are not the only ones who have youngsters. By keeping food always available we have front row seats on all sorts of action pertaining to courting and family rearing.

A week or so ago we entertained a family of four just-out-on-their-own bluejays. They were past the begging to be fed stage but not old enough for the sibling bonds to be broken.

To see and hear them all come to the near-my-window feeders together was a treat. Seeing a bluejay being friendly with anybody is a treat. These were handsome birds, so colorful. Their blues were brilliant and their grays looked so soft.

Young birds mature fast and soon the young jays began showing traces of adult belligerence. Seldom did the foursome even try to eat together now and when they did, there was noisy fighting. Then matters settled down and for several days two could share a meal if each had his own food tray.

Near the end of this stage we fancied that it was easy to see the struggle between being a kid and growing up. That the kids enjoyed each other was indicated by their sharing the two food-tray feeders.

It was also apparent that they realized adult bluejays do not show such tolerance for other birds, not even one of their own.

The solution was that each bird made a concentrated effort to ignore the other. Sometimes they turned backs on each other whereas again, it was just simply looking past the occupant of the other feeder.

But all of my time must not be spent on bluejays, other youngsters are summer guests at the feeders also. The upside down nuthatches for example. Unfortunately we have never seen an adult bring the family to the banquet boards — what a sight it would be to see that long bill stab its way down a youngster's throat. Actually baby nuthatches are undoubtedly fed a nonfeeder bill-of-fare diet.

The juveniles, out on their own, seem to know about sunflower seeds. Usually these are neat birds with feathers always smooth and in place; the other day, however, a regular rag-a-muffin dropped in for a snack.

His creamy gray breast feathers were actually shaggy and on his head the white areas were freckled and rough with feathers just past the stage of popping out. A funny looking little character!

Space has runout — next week more about summer bird feeding fun.

ROOSTERTAIL FOR SOME, OTHER CARS STALLED IN FLOODED STREETS.

It Poured 2½ Inches of Rain in Half Hour

Heaviest rainfall in the history of Tecumseh fell here late Monday afternoon, swamping the city with approximately 2.5 inches in about a half hour period.

Many residents can't remember when it ever rained harder here. Monday's total rainfall, according to city officials, measured just under 3.4 inches, and it was the first measurable rain since early July.

While the rain was welcomed, the deluge was not. City storm sewers were not built to handle such an amount of water that fell in a 30-minute span.

One downtown Tecumseh store, Trickey's sustained considerable water damage to new carpet and merchandise, all located in the clothing store's newly remodeled addition.

Water flowed through the section like a river with employees in ankle deep water scrambling to save clothing articles. Many other shops had water in their stores, especially those on the south side of Chicago Blvd., but none had the damage sustained at Trickey's.

Many streets turned to rivers with water well over the curbs. Some automobiles stalled in high water, and one ended up on the railroad tracks next to D and C, blocking a train until it was removed.

Even the bridge over River Raisin on N. Evans St. was swamped with estimates of water on the bridge running up to eight inches deep. City employees opened the gates at Globe Mill Pond.

In some areas wind accompanied the afternoon storm and minor damages were reported in some rural districts.

Trickeys Take Water Problem To Council

"I was told in the past it was a civil matter. After tonight, it is my contention that the city must do something," said Mrs. Charles Trickey at Tecumseh's city council meeting Monday night.

Council was stunned when Charles and Betty Trickey related that Monday night's torrential rain flashflooded the new addition to their N. Evans store, formerly Harry's Cafe. Six inches of water gushed through the back door of the addition and covered $2,000 of new carpeting and some of their stock.

Apparently catch basins behind businesses in the city's northwest business block could not keep up with the downpour. City water plant recorded 3.39 inches of rain Monday night, 2½ inches in 30 minutes.

The Trickeys worked frantically with four employees and a volunteer. They waded barefoot to rescue merchandise and vacuum the water and sludge with carpet cleaning machines. Trickeys had planned to open the addition this week.

City manager Cal Zorn told Council he had never received a flood complaint at the former cafe building. Trickey's main store however did have a winter flooding due to frozen drains and parking lot runoff. He pointed out that the building sets low.

"There isn't a drain in town that took the water that came down tonight," Zorn said. "North Evans bridge had water eight inches deep. I can't imagine water laying on the bridge."

Zorn suggested a catch basin on the north side of the alley would take care of normal rain only. Cost for such basins are borne by property owners. Trickeys rent from Hubert VanCamp of Clinton. Zorn estimated minimal cost of $600.

"As a courtesy, at least we could get an estimate for the Trickeys and do everything we can to convince the property owner that it is his responsibility," said Mayor Aden Mead.

"It sounds like we don't care, but we do care," commented Council member Harold Easton.

Council member Jay Tressler suggested neighboring businesses along the alley "should be strongly encouraged to install downspouts and connect them to the basin."

After the meeting, council members visited the store and surveyed the damage.

Vote Mix-up Is Corrected

A mix-up in the voting machines and subsequent listing of candidates in Precinct 2 and 3 Tuesday morning resulted in considerable confusion and discussion before the problem were resolved by Vera Gardner, city clerk, and Pat Johnston, county clerk.

When the mistakes were first discovered, it was thought that two local candidates, James Daly and Mary Bowers, would lose votes.

Both Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Johnston are confident that neither lost a vote and the final tally was true and official.

The mix-up stemmed from the listing of three county candidates on the wrong voting machines. All three candidates were unopposed.

May Restore City Ponds

Could the city's ponds benefit from an ecological grooming?

Restoration of dying lakes and ponds will be the slide presentation at the Sept. 18 council meeting 7:30 p.m. at City hall. Public is invited to attend.

Arthur Laing of Riverview will present the slides and discuss methods that may be applied to city's ponds.

Of special interest to council was continued maintenance of Tecumseh Park "pit" for swimming.

Interior Plans OK'd , Seek New Exterior Plans

The board of directors of the United Savings Bank Wednesday morning approved the interior floor plans for a new main office.

The board, however, requested additional exterior designs from architects before giving final approval on the exterior design. Architects are Daniels and Zermack of Ann Arbor.

Also at their meeting, board members declared a cash dividend of 45 cents per share, payable Sept. 15 to shareholders of record, Sept. 1.

Moore, Comfort Are Winners in Raisin

Top two incumbent Raisin Township officials, Richard Gallaway, supervisor and Shirley Roback, clerk, were ousted by 27 percent of the township voters in Tuesday's primary election.

One Raisin Township incumbent, Robert J. Murray, trustee was returned to office. Voters selected Republican candidate Gretchen Lovett to oppose Lynette Saylor (D) in the November election.

Treasurer's office will be the only one contested in November, as the four primary contests were among Republican candidates.

The supervisor and clerk race drew the most attention and was clouded by controversy.

Earlier this summer, incumbent treasurer Marjorie Comfort charged that Supervisor Gallaway and Clerk Robak were running inefficient government. She decided to challenge Roback and won the clerk's office.

Robert D. Moore, who claimed support of senior Raisin politician the late Jim Mitchell, challenged Supervisor Gallaway and won by 60 votes. Moore received 234 votes and Gallaway 174 votes.

Incumbent treasurer Marjorie Comfort beat incumbent clerk Shirley Roback by 86 votes. Comfort received 254 votes to Roback's 168 votes. Comfort received the highest number of votes in four contested township races.

Robert J. Murray, incumbent trustee, easily defeated his two challengers with 197 votes. Murray received 97 votes over his closest opponent, Bert Gagler with 100 votes. Trustee candidate James Bone received 85 votes.

In the treasurer's race, Gretchen Lovett easily overcame her opponent, Claude Lane, by 127 votes. Lovett will be challenged by Lynette Sayler (D) in November. Saylor received 85 votes in the primary.

Harry Withrow Jr., uncontested for constable, received 281 votes.

Of the 2,250 registered voters in Raisin Township, only 602 voted.

Open Basement To Be Covered

Tecumseh City Council recognized the petition from 30 Westhaven Subdivision residents asking that an open basement be covered.

City acknowledged that it contacted Citizens' Mortgage regarding the problem and the open basement should be covered within the week. It was left by previous developers since 1973, according to the petitioners.

Daly, Underwood Win, Mary Bowers Second

Over 1,000 went to the polls here Tuesday in a primary election that saw two local Democratic candidates win positions on the November ballot, and a Republican candidate, Mary A. Bowers, lose her race for State Representative.

James Daly, Tecumseh attorney, won his contest for State Senator and will face John Mowat, Republican, in the fall. Mowat easily won his race that included votes from Hillsdale and Jackson Counties.

John Underwood, Tecumseh resident and Clinton auto dealer, will represent the Democrats in November for State Representative, 40th District. He will oppose Jim Hadden of Adrian, Republican, who defeated Richard Platt of Tipton and Mary Bowers of Tecumseh.

Russ Spalding upset Stacy Zilke of Deerfield for County Commissioner with the help of a big vote from Ridgeway Township.

Much interest here centered on Mrs. Bowers' candidacy for State Representative. She completely swept this section of the county with the sole exception of Macon Township.

In Tecumseh she outdistanced her opponents by three to one margins. Official city results show Mrs. Bowers with 488 votes; Hadden, 128, and Platt, 123. In the district, Hadden polled 2,744; Bowers, 2,054, and Platt, 2,052.

Most of Hadden's winning margin came from his hometown of Adrian, while Platt led in many rural areas and collected most of the farm vote. Ironically, both Mrs. Bowers and Mr. Platt campaigned harder than Hadden, who obviously depended on the Adrian vote for a win.

Underwood practically had no opposition in his race. His vote here was 153 to 85 for Larry Forth and 43 for Paul Goode. County totals were Underwood 1,495; Forth, 826, and Goode, 681.

Daly received 176 votes in Tecumseh; Daniel McCarty, 49; June Merrill, 33; and Ron Shankland, 28. County totals were Daly, 1,147; McCarty, 740; Merrill, 676; and Shankland, 281.

Tuesday's election here attracted over 25% of the registered voters. Tally shows 1,133 voted out of 4,013 registered. In the primary two years ago, just 17 percent voted, or about 400 less than this year.

Quick Response Saves Gambles from Disaster

A disaster of tremendous proportion was averted early Sunday morning when a sheriff's deputy discovered a storage shed behind Gambles on fire.

His timely discovery probably saved Tecumseh's largest store from going up in flames, and perhaps the entire block. Although neither firemen nor the police will say it was arson, neither will they deny it.

About 12:15 a.m. Sunday, the deputy alerted the Tecumseh fire department. In the few minutes it took the firemen to arrive at the scene, both the deputy and local police emptied their fire extinguishers on the blaze, helping to contain the blaze until firemen arrived.

Tecumseh firemen quickly extinguished the flames, a fact that owner Don Martin was very appreciative of. At one time the flames were several feet above the roof line, scorching the outside wall and charring some interior roofing.

Damages were limited to the small shed and some smoke damage in a stock room. The shed was completely destroyed.

Police chief Merlin Mowery and his brother, John Mowery, of the sheriff's department, spent all of Monday investigating circumstances possibly connected to the fire.

Earlier that evening, four wagons of youths on a hay ride had scattered straw throughout many sections of town — and some straw was discovered by Tecumseh police behind Gambles.

Prior to the fire, police were called to the Party Shop, where several youths on the hay ride deliberately took bottles of beer from coolers and smashed them on the floor.

Later, and after the fire, state police and deputies stopped the hay ride in the vicinity of Munger Rd. and Matthews Hwy. Local police were called to assist. The youths had started a fire there with several bales of straw.

Between 50 and 75 youth were on the hay ride, according to Chief Mowery, who was still investigating the case as of Wednesday.

B&E, One Attempt Are Investigated

Tecumseh police investigated one residential breaking and entering Tuesday, and a second attempt one while the family was at home Monday.

Robert Duhan reported the B&E on Tuesday of this week at his home at 220 Maple. Police believe entry was gained by a bathroom window. Three bottles of liquor were taken and children are suspected in the incident.

On Monday, Mrs. Dan Betzoldt of 501 W. Brown reported an attempted breaking at her home. Her young son reportedly heard the screen door being cut while sleeping in the front room.

Investigating officers found the door cut along the side, but no entry was made into the home. Nothing appeared to be taken from the garage that was entered.

Aug. 3 — Peggy Albaugh of Britton reported her auto damaged while parked on the west side of Maumee at the ball diamonds. Someone kicked her passenger door.

Aug. 4 —Police arrested Connie I. Wooley of Blissfield after they spotted her weaving on southbound S. Evans. Wooley was also reportedly traveling 50 in a 25 mile an hour zone.

Aug. 7 — Tecumseh's school bus manager reported a bus damaged over the weekend. Vandals broke an inside mirror.

Aug. 8 — Brandon Waynick of 501 Pawnee reported a stolen bicycle. Bike was resting unlocked in the rack outside the complex when taken.

Police discovered the door to the United Savings Bank, Herrick Park Branch, broken after local man reported the breaking. Police theorize the door was kicked in, but there was no entry.

Evelyn Fosbender reported a stolen bicycle Tuesday. Her bike was taken from the high school and was valued at $150.

Also on Tuesday, Rev. H. Nation reported minor damages at his church at 807 Sunset where children apparently broke out the rear light of the church bus.

Police Busy Handling 11 Accidents Here

After nearly two months of only one or two accidents a week, Tecumseh police found they were much busier this week with 11 mishaps.

Beth Was 'Loved by Many'

BETH SATTERTHWAITE

Margaret Elizabeth (Beth) Satterthwaite, 88, of 213½ N. Union St. died at 2:45 a.m. Aug. 6 after a long illness at Herrick Nursing Home. She had been a patient since April 5.

Her body was donated to science at the University of Michigan Medical School, Ann Arbor.

Beth, as she was affectionately known to many Tecumsehites, was a nurse for many years in and around the Tecumseh area. She took a personal interest in all her patients, especially babies and mothers.

She was unique because she always took time to follow up on the recovery of many of her patients and continued to perform acts of kindness. She was loved by many.

Miss Satterthwaite was born March 15, 1890 in Tecumseh to J. Newton and Eva (Perry) Satterthwaite.

She graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1907, attended the Westtown Quaker Boarding School in Philadelphia, Penn. in 1909 and attended Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

She received her three-year nurses's training at John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md. She celebrated her 50th anniversary in nursing there in 1965.

After graduation, Beth served with the American Friends Service Committee in France during World War I and worked in French civilian hospitals. In 1923, when she and her sister, Geneva, visited friends there, they were welcomed by an entire town.

After World War I, Beth returned to nursing in Tecumseh. When the Tecumseh Hospital first opened in 1938, she joined the staff. She worked with local doctors often as long as 24 hours. She participated in the hospital's home nursing service.

During her tenure, more than 8,000 babies were born. She doubtlessly welcomed many new Tecumsehites with one of their first warm hugs.

Beth had a keen interest in student nursing programs. She welcomed student nurses to her home and the community.

In 1961, Beth was honored by 300 friends and well-wishers at the United Products Workers' Union Hall. She received tributes from friends around the world. Bud Guest of WJR Radio was guest speaker. After visiting for 10 minutes with friends, Beth could not believe the party was for her. She thought the "Beth" was written only on her program.

Beth resided in the Tecumseh area almost all her life. She was a member of the Friends Church of Tecumseh.

Remove strips of beef from bag and place fruit in bag to coat with marinade. Remove fruit and reserve marinade.

Thread strips of beef (folded accordian-style) alternately with pieces of nectarines and pears on six skewers (12-15 inches long). Place on grill 3 to 4 inches over ash covered coals or in rack in broiler.

Broil at moderate temperature for three minutes. Turn kabobs, brush with marinade and broil to desired doneness, 3 to 5 minutes. Six servings.

Note: Other suggestions for kabobs: 1 inch chunks of pork, ham, hot dogs, sausage, lamb; cherry tomatoes, canned onions, green pepper slices, pineapple chunks.

Reader Writes - Many Will Mourn Satterthwaite Death

To the Editor:

Hundreds of her friends around Tecumseh, and hundreds more around the nation, are mourning the death Sunday of Margaret Elizabeth (Beth) Satterthwaite.

They will have to mourn in private, for Beth, who devoted a long and loving career to helping people, never wanted any "fuss" made over her. She asked that no memorial or funeral service be held for her and left her body to the medical field to which she had given her years.

When she retired after long service at Herrick Memorial Hospital, a testimonial dinner was given for her. Typically, she was most of the way through the evening, chatting with her many friends, renewing acquaintance, before she accepted the idea that the evening was in her honor.

She always marvelled at how nice even strangers were to her, not realizing it was her own goodness which was being returned.

I only knew Beth for 20 of her 88 years. I wish it had been more. In all those years, I never heard an unkind word from her, never knew her to have an uncharitable thought.

She was born in the 19th century, and had a great respect for the heritage of this area. Her roots were here. But she left to serve her country and the Friends Service Committee in France during overseas World War I.

She also had the courage and the spunk to be the first female to fly over Tecumseh, in the early "barnstorming" days of the air age.

She gave a good beginning to many hundreds of Tecumsehites, soothing their cries while she rocked them as newborn babes in the nursery at Herrick Hospital.

She continued all her days to make their lives better, just by her example of friendliness and concern.

Tecumseh is a better place because Beth Satterthwaite lived here.

To the Editor:

The recent front-page picture of the new United Savings Bank prompts me to comment on three Tecumseh businesses who obviously are dedicated to making our downtown business area a showcase.

The Bidwell Exchange and the Castlewood Bookshop with their restoration and preservation efforts show not only a deep regard for the detailed workmanship that is part of our heritage in these lovely old buildings, but also an awareness of the overall aesthetic quality of enhancing what is present rather than trying to do a superficial first-floor-only "modernization" that serves only to destroy the balance of the entire building.

Likewise, I wish to commend United Savings Bank for choosing a design that has all the modern qualities to symbolize a progressive institution yet has the tall arched effect and interesting brick detail that demonstrates their pride in Tecumseh's architectural heritage and recognition that a well-planned streetscape is one that blends together smoothly the modern and the old.

I would hope that other businesses in the area will use the same good judgement if and when they build or remodel.

THS Halls Are Quieter But Work Continues

By Kathy Brown

Linger on the corner of N. Maumee and E. Shawnee Sts. at Tecumseh High School some lazy summer afternoon.

For the first time in nine months, the wail of the Conrail train on N. Evans dominates the audio. Busy hammers and saws drone at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church and rustling leaves are background for a new chorus of sounds.

The school is empty. The parking lot is empty. It's mid-summer and no one would give a second thought about checking out the scene.

Yet within the next half hour:

A delivery man enters the front door and asks a custodian where to put the goods;

A teacher garbed in T-shirt, cut-off shorts and sandals — a completely foreign sight during a normal school day — pops in the principal's office to check on a newly arrived text;

A telephone caller inquires about a transcript copy;

And on the hour, student drivers exchange their four-wheel classrooms for bicycles and are on the road again.

This is the first summer in three years that Tecumseh High school has not had some kind of construction. Still the school is a center of summer activity for education, administration, extracurricular events — and not the least of these — maintenance.

"The building has to be cleaned and well at least once," explained high school principal Clarence Lacny. "The activities are a handicap to the custodians. It is a lot like a housewife. You can work better when there is no one around, but you work around activities." Lacny commented.

To try to avoid conflicts, the administration and head custodian, Tony Vasquez, plan the summer work schedule.

"Custodians begin on the Monday after the last day of school. They go through the building with a fine tooth comb. They clean fixtures, wash desks, cabinets, windows, virtually cleaning the building from corner to corner. And there are about 60 rooms," said Lacny.

The custodians are Vasquez, head custodian; Art Arquette, Ed Biscupski, Gladys Sweet, Chester Casey and Dan Lewis.

During the school year they work three shifts. In the summer, they work days, from 6:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

One of the biggest jobs is cleaning lockers. "You find EVERYTHING," Vasquez stated. Clothes are washed and kept in a lost and found. Pencils and pens are salvaged. Books are put back into the inventory.

"You sweep it. You clean it. You know it's going to be the same the next day. But you never get discouraged. Not if you like what you're doing," Vasquez said about the job.

In addition to custodial work, Vasquez and staff check security of the building.

"Tony is usually the guy that takes care of visitors when no one else is around," Lacny added. Vasquez answers questions and helps deliverymen.

Another aspect of maintenance is the general upkeep of the building. Three school district maintenance men, Chuck Frost, George Kempf, and Bob Glascock, also work through the summer to finish carpentry, plumbing, and outdoor work like driveway sealing.

Two CETA youth employees, Ronnie Stetten of Britton and Dennis Fox of Tecumseh, work with the custodial crew where ever they are needed.

Groundsmen Bill Davis and Ed Menominee work through the summer months to manicure the football field.

Meanwhile, there are a dozen or more ongoing activities at the school:

The 10-week drivers' education program involves 350 students and six instructors. Cafeteria is used as the classroom.

Paul Burns, agriculture teacher, and Future Farmer Association students utilize the "ag" facilities for summer projects.

Use of school office has increased, commented Principal Lacny. Former students, parents and older adults as well request transcripts for school or jobs and information about the starting session. Lacny handles these personally.

He also interviewed teachers for four openings. Other administrators and department chairmen share in the selection process.

Teachers return to school for fall classroom preparation.

In the athletic department, students utilize facilities for voluntary practice for fall athletics, impromptu games and exercise. Fall sports practice begins in three more weeks. Student physicals are conducted at the high school. Cheerleaders return for practice and stored equipment.

Outdoors, North Field is used by the Tecumseh Recreation Department for summer programs and is maintained in cooperation with the schools.

Other summer events at the high school include the June band festival and summer band camp later this summer.

A Place for Teens committee sponsors semiweekly dances in the gym with school cooperation.

Industrial arts workshop is used through the summer. Maintenance men are presently constructing cabinets for the hot lunch program in the elementary schools, to begin this fall.

Do the students and staff appreciate the custodial and maintenance effort?

LOADIN' UP — Robert Glenn, instructor, and his students load up for an hour of driver's education on the road. Three hundred and fifty students and five other teachers are involved in the summer program, one of several summer activities at THS.

"If you've been looking around for a Surety Bond, you've probably already discovered there's often a lot of 'legalese' and a mile of red tape to wade through.

"Not here. We issue Auto-Owners Surety Bonds. Their 'postcard application forms' are so unique, they're patented.

"And many bonds can be issued on the spot, during your office visit.

Chapel Dedication Is August 13

CLINTON — A rededication of the Riverside Cemetery Chapel will be held Aug. 13 at 3 p.m.

Arrangements for the rededication have been made by a committee of the Clinton Woman's Club, Mrs. William Neblo, Mrs. James Chellman and Mrs. Daniel Reilly.

The chapel was built in 1912 through efforts of the Clinton Culture Club, predecessor of the Woman's Club. The fieldstone structure originally cost $2,531.81.

Its costs was raised by donations of many area residents and businesses, whose names are recorded and displayed in the chapel.

When Joe O'Donnell became sexton of Riverside Cemetery in 1976, he conceived the idea of restoring the structure to usefulness. It had fallen in disrepair as a storage area.

Through cooperation of Clinton Township and Clinton Village, sharing the repair cost of $4,000, 80 and 20 percent respectively, and with many generous donations of individuals and local churches, the interior has been enhanced by a collection of decorative artifacts.

More than 1,000 pieces of glass was carefully restored in the windows by Gordon Piche of Ida. He also made a glass cross which is suspended from the ceiling.

Woodwork has been stripped, varnished and waxed and the interior has been replastered.

New carpeting covers the floor, where a hole permitted the lowering of caskets to the basement when the chapel was used for storage.

Sunday's rededication program will include: music arranged by Peg Geiger; invocation by the Rev. Floyd Vaughn of Clinton Baptist Church; history of chapel by Mrs. William Neblo; resume of restoration by Mrs. James Chellman, president of Clinton Woman's Club; dedicatory address by the Rev. Charles Sanders of Clinton Assembly of God; Memorials by Mrs. Charles Heigren, president of Clinton Historical Society; a presentation by Lester D. Proctor; benediction by the Rev. Roy Wagner of United Church of Christ, and remarks and ribbon cutting by Joe O'Donnell, sexton.

The chapel will now be available for use.

DREAM COME TRUE — Sexton Joe O'Donnell's dream of restoration has been realized for the 1912 chapel in Clinton's Riverside Cemetery. Rededication program is Sunday Aug. 13 at 3 p.m. Public is invited to view the chapel and attend the program.

GIFTS ENHANCE CHAPEL — Oak altar handcrafted by Olin Swaney of Tecumseh, is centerpiece of Clinton Riverside Cemetery chapel. Other gifts are pulpit and altar rail, lamps, candlesticks and Bible, paintings and straights chairs. Connected folding chairs were originals which have been refinished.

GROUNDBREAKING — A tribute was paid to Elmer Phillips when the Clinton Church of God, under the leadership of pastor the Rev. Charline Adams and district overseer the Rev. Fred Swank, broke ground July 13 for construction of a new church building on N. Adrian Hwy. Attending the ceremony, shown in photo are: (lr) Debbie Schneider, Brian and Terrie Adams, Mark Durham, Nellie Schneider, Mary Edith and Sandra Adams, Elayne Durham, Roger, Michael and John Lewis, Arga Miller, Matthew Durham, the Rev. Fred Swank, Charlie Earhart, Elmer Phillips, Sue Armstrong, Rev. Charline Adams, Lind Durham, David Durham, Gladys Durham of Florida and John Carl Bischoff.

Begin Construction on New Church

CLINTON — Construction has already begun on the site of the new Clinton Church of God on N. Adrian Hwy., where groundbreaking ceremonies were held July 13. Completion is expected in October.

The church is now housed in a former schoolhouse on Allen Rd., Clinton.

Land was donated by Elmer Phillips. The first donation to the building fund was given by the late Emma Burkey.

The Clinton Church of God has headquarters in Tennessee. It was formed in 1972 with six members. It is a mission church of the Carleton Church of God under the Rev. Mary Lou Ford and the Rev. Kathleen Reed.

Voter Turnout is 25% for Primary

CLINTON — 405 out of 1,621 registered voters cast ballots in the primary election in Clinton Township Tuesday, including 26 absentee ballots.

All Republican candidates on the township level were unopposed. Their vote totals were: supervisor, Frank Gignac 213; Janet Welch, clerk, 219; treasurer, Mary Hull, 245; trustee, Harry J. Comstock, 203; constable Leo Smith, 201; library board 4 positions, Karen Bolgos, 149; Sandra Jolet, 149, both for six years; Dorothy Snyder 169 for four years; and Shirley Ing, 155, two-year term.

Stanley Gibbard, unopposed for Dist. 5 commissioner, had 213 votes.

Democrat John Underwood, Clinton auto dealer, was successful in his bid to become a candidate for 40th district representative, with 57 votes, and will be opposed by James Hadden, who garnered 58 votes as the Republican in the township balloting.

Peterson Resigns

CLINTON — Resignation of Richard Peterson as trustee was accepted with regret by Clinton Village Council at the meeting Monday.

Peterson's work commitments will make it impossible for him to continue to serve on council.

Council approved the final plat No. 4 in Pleasant Valley Estates for Oak Tree, Inc. for lots 74 through 85.

A special meeting will be held Aug. 14 to approve paving bids.

Ticket Sales Are Good

CLINTON — Fall Festival '78 car ticket drawing chairman Gary Couture reported that although there are some 14,000 drawing tickets distributed, proceeds from only 2,700 have been turned in to date.

He urges all those who have been selling tickets to turn them in as soon as possible so the committee can determine just how the sales are going.

This year's interest in the ticket sales seems to be much greater than previous years. Organizations can earn more, with a 50-50 split on sales.

Besides the three local churches, St. Dominics, St. John's and United Church of Christ, other groups selling tickets are Clinton PTO, Clinton Jaycees, Spanish Club, cheerleaders, Tecumseh Child Club and Tecumseh Fire Department.

With the area fairs coming up soon, the local churches will be taking the cars to area fairs, but each church ticket chairman is seeking volunteers to go along to help sell tickets.

Chairmen are: Manchester Fair, St. Dominics Catholic Church, contact Vicki Poland 456-7136; Lenawee County Fair, St. John's Episcopal Church, Mary Jane Richard 456-4085; Saline Community Fair, United Church of Christ, John Davis 456-5845.

Any non-profit organization may volunteer to sell tickets at these fairs for its own benefit if it will call the above church chairmen.

Permits Approved

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board approved building permits totalling $110,000 reported by Building Inspector Charles Wilson at Monday's meetings.

Board voted to transfer $1,000 from the general fund to the Clinton Riverside Cemetery Fund.

Harry Comstock reported on the Cemetery Board meeting. Vandalism at the Cemetery had been reduced by action of increasing police surveillance until last Thursday, when an attempt was made to enter the newly restored chapel and door hinges were extensively damaged.

Auxilliary Nets $199

CLINTON — Jaycee auxiliary rummage sale held Aug. 5 at the Smith-Kimball Community Center raised $199 for community service projects in the coming year.

Any young woman wishing to attend should contact Sharon McGill, 456-7507, or Pam Hunt, 456-7888.

Accident Injures 3

CLINTON — Three persons were injured Saturday at 7:20 p.m. when a car driven by Robert Allen Curtis, 21, of Clayton, swerved into an electrical pole on W. Michigan Ave. 200 feet west of Division St. in Clinton.

Curtis and passengers, Rose Denny, 15, of Onsted and Ervin Signor, one year old, of Litchfield were treated at Herrick Hospital for injuries. Another child, Sue Signor was not injured.

Curtis told Clinton State Police he was westbound on W. Michigan Ave., in the right lane, when he was forced to veer off the road by a car driven by Gerald Raymond, of Addison, who was changing lanes to pass a third vehicle making a left turn.

Clinton rescue squad gave aid at the scene.

Festival News Needed

CLINTON — Clinton Fall Festival '78 publicity committee is urging all Clinton area folks to become aware that the big event is just nine weeks away.

The need is urgent for information of all plans by participating organizations, churches and committees, so that it can be assembled into the advertising material.

The task of telephoning all these people is a formindable one which can be avoided if they will get the information to the committee:

Amy Haft, 456-7542 daytimes; Mary Jane Richard, evenings, 456-4085; or Maxine Calhoun, 456-4512 evenings.

They have set a target date of Aug. 18 for getting this information to the committee.

3 Join Jaycees

CLINTON — Three new members were welcomed into the Clinton Area Jaycees at the meeting Monday. They are Bill Palmer, Mike Gruber and Dave Perry.

Clinton Jaycees will host the Punt Pass and Kick event cosponsored with the Tecumseh Jaycees.

Steve Thurber is chairman of the Aug. 20 chicken barbecue on MIS race day.

In planning for the Fall Festival '78, Jaycees have obtained permission to have a beer stand from noon Friday, through Saturday and Sunday until 6 p.m. They will also have a band Friday night and Saturday night.

Ed Thompson, chairman of the Festival Pork Barbecue reports that six hogs have been donated for the event to be held Saturday, Oct. 7.

Jaycees also plan to serve kielbasa and sauerkraut Friday afternoon and until the pork is ready on Saturday.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

Continuing last week's explanation of why we maintain a summer bird feeding program. Actually it can all be summed up in one word - - fun! One word hardly constitutes an article though, does it? Admittedly there are drawbacks, such as grackles and starlings, but Mom and I feel that the nice birds, although their visits are not as common, make putting up with the not so nice freeloaders worthwhile.

Cardinals are always welcome. Not an hour ago a young male dropped in for a snack. His color was not quite the brilliant mid-winter scarlet it will be, his topknot was laid flat but obviously it did not contain its full complement of feathers yet, his body was rather thin and he had the leggy look of a youngster.

Nevertheless, he knew all about sunflower seeds - - his strong red bill ground and bit through the tough outer shell with only a bit more trouble than an adult.

For sometime our cardinal population was strictly male but lately two females have appeared. One is a lovely adult with a soft fawn color on her breast and unusually bright red highlights in her wings and tail.

About the kid I shall only say that she shows promise and we hope she will continue to come to the near-my-window feeders thus letting Mom and me keep track of her progress into adulthood. Right now it looks like a job.

Sounds are another good part of summer feeding. They are of course, a good part of summer. But this is no place to go into the glories of the morning chorus nor the joy of a serenading male wren.

With the windows and doors open, all outdoor sounds come booming in. When two mourning doves snack together at the near-my-window feeders they are not attracting our attention much.

The other day, however, such a twosome was there and decided to exchange a bit of gossip. My goodness, that low mournful cooing almost blew me out of bed. It was incredibly loud. And so unexpected.

The young tufted titmice have loud voices too. Their shrill but not unpleasant whistles whould be coming from birds much larger than they are. Sometimes when they 'sound off' they seem to surprise themselves. Once we saw three kids, then two, just lately none have come around.

An update on the cardinal visits. A young one just popped out of the bushes and hopped to the food tray. It must be a female, she is an all over dark brown with no topknot, a dull black bill and the skinniest tail imaginable. She is eating well though and showing no signs of wing fluttering - - oh, yes, even the pretty cardinals flutter their wings helplessly when they beg Papa Cardinal for food.

He is the one who takes care of the family once it has left the nest. This gal is doing well so apparently she has been 'out on her own' for a few days.

Back to the subject, Marda. Another bonus of a summer feeding program is the unusual birds who just by chance stop at the feeders. Once a breath-takingly beautiful oriole landed.

Apparently he was just curious and wondered what was going on. Whatever the reason, his black head and orange body were gorgeous.

Some people have excellent success in attracting orioles to oranges, we did one year but have never had good luck since. Fruit is also attractive to catbirds.

We have not experimented much with this type of food though. The occasional catbird on the near-my-window feeders is just there out of curiosity. Once a pair of bluebirds landed on the roof of the feeder we had in the yard — that was a never to be forgotten thrill.

Squirrels are another benefit of summer feeding. We are entertaining our second family of youngsters now. Half-grown youngsters with thin smallish bodies, big feet and luxurious tails. The tails and feet will take some growing up too.

The three kids are working in that direction and it is amazing how much food they pack away. As of now apparently some sort of truce has been reached between the fox squirrels and the little reds.

It is nothing official I am sure but, if the big squirrels stick to the feeders and the tiny ones have the mulberry trees, there is little fighting. I have an idea such boundaries will not be observed for long. Both types of squirrel are too adventuresome.

As at the beginning of last week's article I must admit to understanding why some people do not maintain summer bird feeding programs but above are just a few of the experiences which make it well worth while for Mom and me to feed the freeloaders 12 months a year.

FFA DUO IN D.C. — Tammy Fisher and Charles Hunt (l) of Tecumseh are greeted in Washington, D.C., by Dee Sokolosky (r) of Owasso, Okla., national vice-president of the Future Farmers of America. Tammy and Charles attended the week-long National FFA Washington Conference program.

Attend National Conference

Charles Hunt and Tammy Fisher of the Tecumseh FFA Chapter at Tecumseh High School are attending a National FFA Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C., this week.

The week-long Washington Conference is being held at the Olde Colony Motor Lodge and the National FFA Center near the Nation's Capital.

The FFA Conference program is designed to improve leadership skills, develop an understanding of the national heritage, and prepare FFA members for more effective leadership roles in their chapter and community. The Conference is also a forum for the exchange of FFA Chapter activity ideas among members from across the nation.

Besides the training sessions, the 1978 program includes visits to Mt. Vernon Plantation, the National Archives, Smithsonian Institution, Arlington National Cemetery, and several other historic monuments and memorials in and around the Capitol.

A highlight of the Conference was a Thursday morning visit to the office of Congressman Dave Stockman of District 4 of Michigan.

Participants also attended a Capitol Hill meal featuring a question and answer period with Congressman, and Washington leaders in business and industry.

Charles Hunt, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hunt of Tecumseh. Tammy Fisher, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fisher of Adrian. Their vocational agriculture instructor is Paul Burns.

Tavern Hosts 'Frontier' Fete

Fifth annual "Frontier Entertainment in Michigan" festival will be Aug. 12-13 at historic Walker Tavern in Cambridge State Historic Park at Cambridge Junction.

Highlighting the two days of historical fun will be the "New Lumberjack Orchestra," a group of fiddlers and dulcimer players who play the authentic folk music of the American frontier.

Other features include folk dancing, a quilting bee, rug hooking, silhouette painting, whittling, and children's games popular in the nineteenth century. Hours will be 1-5 p.m. each day.

Historic Walker Tavern, built in the late 1830's, is now open to the public with period rooms showing the parlor and bar room and exhibits on Sylvester and Lucy Walker who operated the tavern as a stagecoach stop on the old Detroit-Chicago road.

A new visitor's center has also been opened this year with an audio-visual presentation on the history of the Detroit-Chicago Road.

The Tavern is located at the intersection of U.S. 12 and M-50 in Lenawee County. It is accessible via Cambridge State Historic Park, through the entrance located on M-50, one quarter mile north of U.S. 12. There is no admission charge.

Nova Scotia's Oak Island contains one of the world's most baffling mysteries. Captain Kidd is rumored to have buried treasure there. Since 1795, when three boys dug a 30-foot shaft, finding carefully laid flagstones and tightly fitted oak logs on three different layers, Oak Island has been the site of numerous searches. So far, the "Money Pit" has yielded up antique parchment, tools, and tons of coconut husks (the island is 1,500 miles north of the nearest coconut palm). 3 Agreements Reached, 4 Still Pending

Three agreements with unions have been reached by the Tecumseh schools, but four are still in negotiating stages, Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent reports.

Three-year contracts have been reached with the custodial and maintenance employees, elementary noon supervisors and the secretaries.

Agreements yet to be reached include the teachers of Tecumseh Education Association, bus drivers, mechanics and food service people.

Officials are hopeful that an agreement can be reached with the TEA by the beginning of school, Sept. 5th. TEA negotiators - Gary Lovett, Georgia VanKirk, Fred Birdsell, Patricia Aylesworth and Nancy Kinnard - have been meeting this summer with Cooley and Supt. Robert Duhan, negotiators for the Board of Education.

Some progress has been reported. The TEA and school officials had another negotiation session Wednesday morning. They've been meeting periodically since March.

Players Plan 2 Auditions for Musical

Tecumseh Players will have auditions Aug. 28 and 29, 7 to 9 p.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center Glass Room for its fall musical comedy, "Bells Are Ringing" to be performed Oct. 27, 28, Nov. 2, 3 and 4.

Anyone wishing to read the script may do so at the Tecumseh Public Library. Two copies are available there, but only one may be taken out overnight.

Local talent is welcome to audition. If unable to attend auditions, contact the Players at 423-5929.

Book and lyrics are by Betty Comden and Adolph Green. Music is by June Styne.

Setting, is New York, the time is recent and the people are wonderful. Leading lady is Ella Peterson, played by Judy Holiday on Broadway.

Ella is a switchboard operator for a telephone answering service called Susanswerphone. She is a sympathetic listener and becomes involved in the lives of the clients.

One client in particular, Jeff Moss, a playwright having difficulties finishing his play, brings Ella's desire to help people to a peak. Since Ella is so involved with her clients, an over-zealous police inspector suspects the answerphone is a cover-up for illegal services.

The hit show has laughs, love and good music with songs like "The Party's Over" and "Just in Time". A con man, and a singing dentist are only two of the 21 male roles in the show. In addition there are seven female roles.

Richard Pahl will direct this show with musical director Helen Bendes, choreographer Lori Thompson and technical director Gerry Johnstone.

Line Blows at Station

A three man crew from the Maumee, Ohio, office of Panhandle Pipeline was in Tecumseh 8:30 p.m. Tuesday and within five minutes, made corrections to its station on M-50 where a relief value blew at approximately 7 p.m.

"The relief valve did what it was supposed to do. It prevented any damage," said Panhandle Pipeline area superintendent John Maxwell. Before the valve was shut off and correction made, the noise could be heard in north and east sections of town.

Panhandle Pipeline owns the station. It is a sales point to Consumers Power Co. A Consumers representative was on the scene, as was the Tecumseh fire department, but they did not respond to a fire.

'Bidwell' Looking Great after Brick Is Cleaned

by Kathy Brown

Sidewalk superintendents had a new pastime last week. They watched the old paint being water blasted from the brick of the Bidwell Building.

"I have four or five of them every day. Each has a story to tell about the building. Most of it is what's already known," but nonetheless, all interesting to Bidwell owner and Manchester contractor Don E. Limpert.

Limpert bought the 126 year-old building for $10,000 from the city last February in a real estate deal that embroiled the city in controversy over its compliance with the Michigan Open Meetings Act. Building was vacant since 1976.

For the last three months, Limpert has been busy with two other workmen on the interior remodeling. He plans to have it ready for lease at the end of the month. First rentals could be as early as mid-September.

"The first floor will be the backbone," said Limpert. It could accomodate as many as seven small shops, from 300 to 700 sq. ft., unified by an interior arcade effect.

"It will be service businesses and retail from the interests I've had so far. I've had no committments, but people want to be committed. Between now and Sept. 1, I'll concentrate on tenants.

"I'm optimistic. I think I'll have it all rented, but I have no guarantee. I've never had a vacancy in any building that I've had," Limpert boasted. He restored 13 on Manchester's main street, including the Black Sheep Tavern and Theater and Exchange building. He still owns two and has "an economic interest" in the others.

"The second floor will be rented as demand dictates. It is really an experiment on my part to see if there is a market for second floor service businesses. There is a good chance it could be apartments, but it is not my first choice. I will reevaluate what is viable as I go along.

"The basement is accessible and would be rented if I could find an interested tenant. I have no intended use for the third floor. It will essentially be used for light storage.

"I believe existing buildings should be utilized as much as possible. Look at those buildings across the street. Look at the waste of usable space on the second floor," remarked Limpert. He served as Manchester Township Planning Commission chairman for nine years.

When Limpert came to Manchester in 1963, "looking for outlying developing areas," he told, "30 to 45 percent of the buildings on main street were vacant. Now there is 100 percent occupancy." One Manchester business doubled size, three new businesses came to town.

"If you can create something unique, the market comes to you. The first six years that I owned it, the Black Sheep Tavern didn't have a telephone number. It grew through word of mouth. Finally, as a convenience for out-of-town customers, that policy had to change.

"I try to utilize as much of the character of the building as possible. I use styles and materials common for the turn of the century. Old doors and window frames from buildings that are to be torn down are combined with what is practical and necessary.

"I literally take what people discard and recycle it. Of course it's fashionable today. I was doing it before it was fashionable. It makes good economic sense to recycle buildings."

Parking Lot Construction Nears End

Expansion of the city's northeast parking lot should be completed within the next 30 to 60 days, Cal Zorn, city manager, reports.

Some stone must still be spread and compaction completed before the paving.

Zorn expects to discuss the parking lot with Council Monday night and possible related improvements for the area, which could include plantings and a sidewalk directly behind the shops that face E. Chicago Blvd.

Two leases also must be secured for full development of the lot.

Children are eligible for kindergarten if they are five years old on or before December 1, 1978, so parents who plan to send their children to kindergarten and haven't enrolled them are asked to do so immediately.

If a child has been assigned to a morning session, parents should plan to meet with the teacher in the morning. If assigned to an afternoon session, they should plan to meet the teacher in the afternoon. Parents should bring their child's health record and birth certificate, if it was not presented at the time of the child's registration.

High School student schedule cards will be mailed to the enrolled students the last week of August. High School classes will begin on Sept. 5 at 7:45 a.m.

Junior High School pupils are to report at 7:45 a.m. on Sept. 5, the 7th grade to the boys' gym on the 1st floor, and the 8th grade to the girls' gym on the 3rd floor. Regular classes will begin immediately following the distribution of schedule cards.

Schools Organized for Government Lunch Programs

Supt. Robert Duhan outlines here, the new government lunch programs for the 1978-79 school year.

The Tecumseh Public Schools will offer a lunch program in all of it's schools under the provisions of the National School Lunch Program which the state has provided. ARA Food Services Company is assisting the Tecumseh Schools in the planning of this expanded program.

Under this program, the district will make available a Type A lunch to all paying students, and to those students who qualify for free or reduced price meals. Applications will be available in late August or early September for families wishing to apply for free and reduced price meals or free milk.

The Type A lunch that will be offered as a complete lunch providing one-third of the day's nutritive requirements. It will include a two ounce protein serving which may be meat, poultry, fish, or cheese; a three-fourths cup serving of a vegetable and/or fruit; one serving of an enriched bread item; and eight ounces of milk.

In addition to the lunch, milk will be offered to those students who wish to carry their lunches from home.

In the elementary schools only the Type A lunch will be served. In the Junior and Senior High Schools sandwiches, desserts, salads, etc. will be served on an ala carte basis as was the case this past year.

The price for the lunches will be 55 cents in the Elementary Schools, and 60 cents in the Junior and Senior High Schools. The price for the milk will be 5 cents per carton in all schools. Reduced price lunches in all schools will be 20 cents.

In the Tecumseh elementary schools, meals will be purchased by use of a ticket system. Students will pay for five-meal tickets in advance, and then use the ticket daily or whenever they wish to purchase a lunch. The ticket is good for five meals to be eaten at any time, not five particular dates. Therefore, a student could take a school lunch only two or three times a week and the ticket would still be good the following week.

In the Junior and Senior High Schools meals and milk will be purchased on a cash basis.

In the elementary schools, ticket money will be collected on Monday mornings. A food service person will visit each classroom on Mondays. Ticket money should be sent to school in an envelope with the child's name and room number on the front. If the student's ticket

TAIDA Breaks Ground for Industrial Building

Ground breaking was held Friday for the first building in the Tecumseh Industrial Park. The first and second spades of dirt were turned by Mayor Aden Mead and Del King, the president of the Tecumseh area Industrial Development Association.

The ground breaking and subsequent building is the result of a cooperative agreement between the TAIDA and the City of Tecumseh. In this agreement the city deeded two and a half acres of land to the TAIDA and agreed to pay the real estate taxes until such time as the land and the building are sold.

TAIDA in return has agreed to construct and own the building and reimburse the city for its land and any paid taxes upon sale of the land and building.

The building will be 20,000 square feet. As it will be a shell building, there will be no floor, plumbing, or wiring as this will be finished to the purchaser's specifications.

City officials see the construction of this building as an important step in the development of the industrial park and feel that it will faciliate the attraction of new industry to Tecumseh.

Talking It Out

LESTER D. PROCTOR

WHAT IS A FUNERAL TRUST FUND?

It is an interest-bearing fund set aside at a bank or S&L for use specifically to pay for funeral and burial expenses for one or more members of your family. It is an investment, too, since it earns interest and acts as a hedge against continued inflation.

As the fund grows, with its interest accumulating it may even provide MORE than the amount you have pre-arranged to pay for funeral expenses. This depends on factors such as the rate of interest paid, items and services to be covered, and how great was the inflationary effect during the duration of the funding.

Most states have laws governing the pre-financing of funerals and burial expenses. We are experienced in handling these matters, having conducted many such arrangements. We can advise and assist you in setting up a Funeral Trust Fund for you and your family. You might want to stop by and discuss this in full detail.

Bus service to Tecumseh Public School pupils will again be on a "safety first" basis. State regulations state that pupils in grades kindergarten through sixth grade may be required to walk up to one-half mile to scheduled bus routes and pupils grades seven through twelve up to one mile, is used to determine the length of bus routes as well as to group pupils so that fewer stops may be made. Backtracking has been eliminated unless absolutely necessary. Parents of pupils requested to join groups at pick-up points are again asked to give their cooperation.

All new children to receive bus service will be contacted by bus personnel as to time and bus number for the pupils. It is planned at this time that bus routes and times will be the same as last year unless parents are contacted individually.

Bus service for kindergarten will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 6, with the morning session from 8:55 a.m. to 11:25 a.m. and the afternoon session from 12:45 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. Kindergarten bus drivers will make home calls sometime before Wednesday, Sept. 6, to acquaint parents of their school bus routes.

New Lunch Programs

should expire during midweek or in case of absence, students should bring their money in envelopes the following day and present them to the cashier as they go through the lunch line.

Elementary lunch tickets will be kept in the classroom and distributed to students just prior to the class's leaving to go to lunch. In these schools after the ticket is collected it will be put in a box and returned to each classroom after the lunch period.

Milk tickets will also be sold for those children who wish to carry their lunches. Tickets will be sold in five-milk denominations and procedures similar to lunch will prevail.

The advantages of a ticket system are, students won't lose or spend lunch money frivolously; cafeteria can maintain more accurate records; and service through the line is much faster when tickets are used.

The food for all the schools will be prepared in the high school kitchen. The food will be delivered in insulated carriers to the elementary and junior high schools. In the elementary and junior high there will be a convection oven to heat the foods, and in the gymnasiums there will be portable steam tables and utility counters. The food will be served on disposable tableware. In each school, commercial type refrigerator, and three compartment sinks will be installed in accordance with health department recommendations.

With the cooperation of all students, parents, and school staffs, the lunch program in the Tecumseh Public Schools can be very successful one, and an enjoyable experience for all who wish to participate in it.

Bidwell Shines On Boulevard

Bidwell Building includes new plumbing, heating, air conditioning, expanded electrical work and suspended ceilings of different heights to lend uniqueness to each shop. "These (changes) make the building functional for tenants, not a museum piece," Limpert said.

His plans for the building do not include an escalator or elevator, nor does his proposed use require it, Limpert explained. Previous owners' plans, which included an escalator, made their plans for restoration financially impossible.

Limpert has been a carpenter since 1944 at age 18. "I'm not the indoor type," said the contractor. "I like to work. Most of my ideas are in my head. Art takes many forms. Restoring older buildings is a form of art as far as I'm concerned." His navy beret, tilted jauntily on his head, makes him look more artist than carpenter.

"Being comfortable with something that has been there for a long time is an important part of the psychology of retailing. It is intangible, but still real."

In keeping with the building's age, the exterior sign board will be low key. It will be called the Bidwell Exchange Building. "Exchange" denotes several shops under one roof. One window will be used for a common directory.

Limpert estimated the cost to recycle his building at $100,000, including purchase price.

On Monday, Marta J. Garcia, 21, of 10680 Macon Rd., reportedly ran into the rear of an auto driven by Scott T. Reynolds, 16, of Saline. Reynolds was stopped on W. Chicago at Democrat when struck.

M-52 Hazard Concerns Clinton School Board

CLINTON — Clinton Board of Education voted to endorse a resolution from Lenawee County Superintendent of Schools William Ross, concerning traffic control conditions on M-52 at Lenawee Vocational Center.

Board urges the Michigan Department of Highways to reassess timetable for improvements at the M-52 site prior to the 1982 schedule.

Fest Welcomes More Booths

CLINTON — Plans are well under way for Clinton's Fifth Annual Fall Festival to be held Oct. 6, 7, 8.

As in past years arts and crafts will be prominent on the village streets. A few of the crafts that have already been scheduled are: pottery, macrame, mirror images, antique jewelry, wooden toys, quilts, woodburning and calico items.

There will also be plenty of good things to eat during the three day event.

The United Church of Christ will again sponsor its popular fish fry Friday; St. Dominic's Catholic Church will hold an Apple Festival all three days.

Back by popular demand will be the Jaycee pig roast on Saturday. Jaycees will also sponsor a beer tent all three days.

Sunday, the Rotarians will have their annual chicken barbecue.

Other tantalizing aromas expected to be wafting around town may be from barbecued ribs, kielbasa, sauteed mushrooms, tacos, German pretzels, or cider fresh from a cider press as you wait.

There is still time to reserve a booth space at Fall Festival '78 by calling Gae Miller 456-7793.

Schools See Cutbacks

CLINTON — Suggestions for possible cutbacks in the curriculum at Clinton Schools were proposed by Superintendent Richard Wegner to the board of education at the Aug. 9 meeting.

Termed by Wegner as "reasonable and logical" the cutback proposals were made necessary by voters rejection of a one-mill operating millage increase in June, as well as uncertain contract negotiations with faculty and staff.

Suggested reductions include elimination of the pre-primary program; dropping all or part of the elementary vocal music program; cutting the summer vo-ag program by reducing hours of the ag teacher; drop junior high athletics; and canceling of all educational field trips and use of buses for cheerleaders and fans to athletic events.

Special meeting will be scheduled later this month for the board to consider action on proposals.

Contract negotiations, on county-wide level, are going slowly, Wegner explained, with next session scheduled for Aug. 30.

Board voted to borrow $281,000 to supplement cash flow for the beginning of the fiscal year through Nov. 30.

Morenci and Whiteford Schools are considering dropping after-school athletics because of millage issues in their districts. Clinton School District will contact other schools to fill these schedules, if such action becomes definite.

Rev. Mann is a missionary-pastor with the Hiawatha Baptist Mission which has its headquarters at Grand Rapids.

Since April 1975 the Mann's have been serving the Berea Baptist Church of Steven's Point, Wisc.

An addition to the church was dedicated April 16, 1978, and a full-time pastor has now been called.

Rev. and Mrs. Mann will begin a new church in Spring Lake, Fla., just south of Sebring, a community being built by the Westinghouse Corporation.

NEW PASTOR AND FAMILY — Rev. and Mrs. John Geisel with children Shari, Ricky and Lori, are newcomers to the area. They live on Ridge Hwy. The Rev. Geisel is pastoring the new "Bible Fellowship" church in Britton.

Rev. John Geisel Is Pastor of Newly Formed Church

BRITTON — The Rev. and Mrs. John Geisel and family of Grand Rapids recently moved to Ridge Hwy. He is pastor of a newly formed church, "Bible Fellowship" in Britton, a fundamental non-denominational church of independent Bible believers. Members meet Sundays 10 a.m. at the Britton-Macon School Home Ec. room.

The Rev. Geisel was born in Grand Rapids. He and his wife, Diana, have three children, Ricky, 9, Shari, 4, and Lori, 2. The Rev. Geisel said, "As a young pastor, I have a deep desire to communicate to young people, believing they have great potential and much to offer."

He received a bachelor degree from Liberty in Lynchburg, Va., 1976; studied as a pastoral major and minored in Greek and theology. He has pastored a church in Grand Rapids.

The Rev. Geisel stated, "I'm excited about the new church, Bible Fellowship, that I am pastoring in Britton. Here we all agree on the purpose of the church as taught in the Bible— Bible teaching, fellowship, building up one another and sharing Christ with others.

"Our emphasis is best explained by the statement 'People who care — caring for people.'"

DOORS OPEN SEPTEMBER 5

Britton School Set To Open

BRITTON — School will officially open at the Britton-Macon Area School Sept. 5. A teacher's conference and organizational meeting will be held at 9 a.m. in the school cafeteria Sept. 5.

School will start for all pupils Sept. 6. There will be a full day of school for all pupils on this day.

School will start at 8:18 a.m. and dismiss at 3:03 p.m. Doors to the school will be open at 8:10 a.m.

Parents of kindergarten children who did not register their child last spring will be able to register them in the afternoon Sept. 5. All kindergarten children living north of the Smith Road will attend classes in the morning and those living south of the Smith Road will attend in the afternoon.

It is suggested that mothers of kindergarten children put them on the buses the first day. Those who bring their children Wednesday are requested to leave them in the room with the teacher and not remain. It is believed that this method makes it easier for the child to adjust to school on the first day.

New students are asked to enroll at the principal's office the week of Aug. 28-Sept. 1. The time for registering will be from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the afternoon.

Cafeteria lunches will be served Sept. 6, for all pupils and teachers. Pupils who carry their lunches are expected to eat in the school cafeteria.

It's a Small World

BRITTON — Doug and Christine Fairbanks can't understand why Mary Bowers didn't win her election bid, after seeing how far-reaching her campaign was.

While traveling in Canada the Sunday before the election they stopped in Thessalon, about 700 miles east of Sault Ste. Marie, for coffee. Just driving out of the parking lot was a car with a "Mary Bowers for State representative" bumper sticker on it.

The Fairbanks were so surprised to see the local name "jump out" at them, they didn't see who was driving. Wonder who was campaigning for Mary so far from home?

Christmas Trees End Brion's Hopes in Open

He started out hot and finished cold.

Stan Brion, local Tecumseh Country Club pro, competed in the Michigan Open this week at the University of Michigan Blue Cross.

The tournament was a 72 hole, four day tournament, beginning Thursday with the qualifying round and finishing up Sunday.

Brion shot par 71 the first day, just two strokes beyond the lead. Only one player shot 69 while four placed second with 70's.

He shot two bogeys and one double bogey that day, but more than made up for those holes with four birds. And Brion had all that trouble in the first nine holes.

Friday, Brion shot 40-38 to finish at 78. Saturday and Sunday he shot 79's, 40-39 both days. That put him out of the running for the open title.

Randy Erskine won the event with a 277 total, shooting 71-71-66-69.

In other TCC news, Stan Brion will be hosting a golf exhibition with the aid of Jake Fasseke, Tom Thomas and Jim Applegate.

The exhibition is set for Sunday, Aug. 20 at 11 a.m. at the club.

Pros will be hitting a number of golf shots and will be explaining the proper procedure for each shot to the group watching. Public is invited.

Later, the four will be playing an exhibition 18 holes for the crowd.

TCC members are also reminded that the annual Pro-Member Tournament is Aug. 31. Sign up at the Pro Shop.

TREE TROUBLE — Stan Brion would be the first to admit he had tree trouble this week during the Michigan Open at the U of M golf course. At right, Brion hit a powerful drive that drifted right into a clump of evergreens. He was forced to hit his ball off to the side instead of at the green. He bogeyed the par five, number 11 hole.

McFaddens Observe 25th

Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, 5364 Green Hwy., were surprised with a party on their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 12 at their home. Their 15 children were hosts for the family potluck.

Fr. John O'Brien of Gesu parish in Detroit celebrated mass in the garden setting of their 100 year old, yellow brick Victorian home. The couple renewed their vows before 100 out of town guests, including friends and family from Tecumseh, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Toledo and Canton, Ohio.

John McFadden and Ellen Holtgrieve were married Aug. 8, 1953 in Toledo, Ohio. He is employed as a mechanical engineer with the Environmental Protection Agency in Ann Arbor. The family moved here from Detroit about six years ago.

Special guests Saturday included Nancy O'Neil of Toledo, Ohio, the couple's maid of honor, and Therese Holtgrieve, Mrs. McFadden's mother also of Toledo. Carol McNeil of Adrian baked a three-tiered wedding cake.

Fourteen of the 15 McFadden children were present, son John, 22, was in West Virginia with the Coast Guard.

Children are Dan, 24, employed at Associated Spring in Detroit. He will be the first to marry next June. His fiance is Patty Decker of Detroit. Patricia, 23, will graduate from Central Michigan University in two weeks with a bachelor of arts degree in business administration. Sharon, 21, is a graduate of nurse's training and is employed at Bixby Hospital, Adrian.

Gerald, 19, is an accounting major at Central Michigan University. Bob, 18, is a senior at Tecumseh High School, employed at the Cedar Shack. Kevin, 16, is a THS junior, employed by McDonald's.

Maureen, 15, is a THS sophomore; Mark, 14, a freshman; Mary 13, a ninth grader. Tim, 10, Brian, 9, Molly, 8, and Ann Marie, 6, are Sutton school students.

The seven oldest children are working and as a special gift to their parents, plan to send them to Ireland later this year.

Their father traced his ancestry back five generations. "He's very Irish," said Sharon McFadden. "This is something he's always dreamed of doing. Something he's always talked about since a relative visited there recently."

The surprise party was quite a feat. "I didn't think it would work out," Sharon confided. But a family reunion planned with her mother's family the week following made it easier to round up family members. Everyone contributed to the potluck.

Msgr. Vincent Howard celebrated a mass on the couple's anniversary at St. Elizabeth Church, the family's parish.

This news report was yet another surprise the kids cooked up for their parents.

No, this is not going to be a continuation of the past two columns, which dealt with some of the joys of a summer bird feeding program, even though I should like to start out with a bird feeder, a special bird feeder, the cylindrical thistle feeder. It is the exception to our summer feeding program.

Although it still hangs from the lower limb of the mulberry tree and there is about an inch of thistle seed in it, we do not fill this feeder during the summer. Why? Well, one of the main reasons is that the winter patrons completely ignore it during the warm weather months.

Primarily we put out thistle seed to entice the goldfinches. They are such charming little birds that it is a joy to have them around. They are free spirits and independent.

Although more than willing to freeload on our handouts when the weather is bad, they have never shown any inclination to continue visiting our feeders once the first crop of dandelions bloom in the late spring. Neither the thistle seeds nor the sunflower seeds, which they seem to so dearly love, are much of a drawing card when Mother Nature starts providing.

This streak of independence is not the only way in which the goldfinches differ from the other birds whom we consider bird feeder birds. Most of them are now finishing the spring and summer job of family rearing but only in late July and August do the goldfinches begin.

Whereas with most birds the males select their territories, then try to attract the females and talk them into raising the family in the chosen area, the selecting of mates occurs while the goldfinches are still in flocks. They apparently pick out a home site together.

They are choosy about where the family will be raised too. The one thing which must be available is a good stand of thistles or milkweed. The females build the nests, usually near the end of a branch of a small tree or shrub about five feet from the ground.

However, where none are available, goldfinches nests have been found as much as 20 feet high in larger trees. Always though thistles or milkweed are nearby. These plants afford both building material and food.

The lady golds are expert builders and weave nests which are usually water tight for a few hours. Construction takes about a week. They use fibers from the thistle and milkweed plants and spider threads to bind everything together.

Being opportunists they have also been known to gather material from other bird nests — and who can blame them for pilfering from the recently abandoned homes, such readily available nesting material would be a shame not to use.

The small nest cups are lined with a thick and soft layer of thistle seed fluff or milkweed down. Usually five bluish white eggs are laid.

While the females take on the sole responsibility of incubating their eggs, the males are attentive mates who bring food to the nest for them. Food consisting primarily of weed seeds, thistle or milkweed, of course.

Once the eggs hatch the males help their mates feed the kids. In fact, they usually bring the food to them and let the ladies feed the youngsters.

Here again the wild canaries differ from the majority of song birds for instead of stuffing wriggly and crawly down the little throats of the hatchlings, they eat the rough weed seeds and feed the kids by regurgitation.

If a second brood is to be raised the males take charge of the youngsters once they are able to leave the nest. This frees the females to begin constructing a new home — shades of the cardinals.

If just one brood is to be raised it apparently is a joint effort. In summing up it seems appropriate that the goldfinches, who make such an interesting color change as the males go from winter drab to summer bright, are consistent and have an interesting life style. We do miss their cheery presence in the summer though.

Ann Arbor Company May Move Here, Seeks Tax Break

Monday night Tecumseh City Council set a public hearing for Sept. 18, 8 p.m. at city hall to hear public comment on reducing real estate and personal property taxes of 50 percent for 12 years for an Ann Arbor company that wants to relocate in Tecumseh.

Jebco Manufacturing Company, an automotive parts manufacturing business, wants to move to 610 S. Maumee St., former home of Standard Steel. R.J. Diebold, owner, said it is moving from its 18 year Ann Arbor location because there is no room for expansion.

Present plant on Maumee is approximately 6,000 square feet. Diebold has already submitted plans to Tecumseh building inspector Bob Hamden calling for expansion of an additional 12,000 square feet and renovation to meet all existing building codes. Plant expansion and occupation is to be by December 1978, Assistant City Manager Paul Preston reported to council.

Jebco employs about 10 employees with expansion possibilities of up to 20 employees. Choosing not to move with the business, not all employees will continue to work at the Tecumseh plant, Diebold said. He plans to close the Ann Arbor plant.

Proposed tax break for Jebco is possible through implementing Public Act 198 of Michigan. City must first name an industrial development district. This can be either an entire area or just one parcel. In this case, it is one parcel. To establish a district, city must hold a public hearing. Business must then make formal application to the city for the tax exemption. It must also obtain a release from its municipality.

City clerk must notify in writing all taxing bodies in the district of the application. After proper notices and time for input from the other taxing bodies, the city council must either approve or disapprove the application. If approved the application is forwarded to the state for approval. There is no reimbursement from the state for the reduced taxes.

"There are very few tools available to a community to attract industry. Act 198 is one. I think we ought to give it consideration," commented

Negotiators met last Wednesday and met again this Wednesday morning. Discussions are now centering around economics in a new teachers' contract with the Board of Education.

Agreement on a new contract may not be reached until after the 1978-79 school year starts.

Plan Caravan Saturday for Tecumseh, Ontario

A caravan of Tecumseh, Mich. residents, including Mayor Aden Mead, will meet at 8 a.m. Saturday at city hall and travel to Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada for that city's Third Annual Corn Festival, Aug. 25-27.

Tecumseh, Ontario is the home of Jolly Green Giant Corn. It has exchanged ceremonious visits with its Michigan namesake three times since 1949.

Council member Len DeMoss was Tecumseh, Mich.'s liaison to organize local participation.

Michigan residents will leave no later than 8:15 a.m., be escorted by the State Police through Detroit and rendezvous at the Windsor McDonald's with the Tecumseh Canadians who will escort them to the festival.

Tecumseh, Ontario is approximately 10 miles west of Windsor, on highway number two, near the southern shore of Lake St. Clair.

The entourage will proceed to the municipal offices, 917 Lesperance Rd. where at approximately 11 a.m., a provincial historical marker will be unveiled. The plaque, commemorating the founding of the town, is one of many erected through the province by the Ontario Heritage Foundation, an agency within the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, devoted to conserving and publicizing the province's heritage.

Mayor Don Lappan of Tecumseh, Ontario and Mayor Aden Mead of Tecumseh, Mich. will then join the grand parade at 11 a.m. Route is from St. Anne's High School north on Shawnee, east on Tecumseh, north on Lesperance, east on Clapp to LaCasse Park where the celebration begins. Carlsburg Champion Team and Wagon will be a parade feature.

Four Tecumseh, Mich. skydivers from Harold Lange's Tecumseh Parachuting Services will compete against four Canadian skydivers in target jumping later at 2:30 p.m. They are Randy Hernandez, Lynford Beard, Greg Perlinski of Tecumseh and Detroiter Gerald Marklin. They will ride in the grand parade.

At 1 p.m. the Moravian town Indian Council will perform authentic dances in costume. Fire fighters contest is also at 1 p.m. Dancing begins 7:30 p.m.

A beer tent, arts and crafts fair, family carnival with 25 cent rides, international little league baseball games Saturday at 3 and 8 p.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m. and noon, plenty of German style food and free camping for Tecumseh residents are planned.

Last year 20,000 visitors came during the weekend festival and the Canadians served 10,000 ears of corn.

Tecumseh fire department may have as many as five representatives Saturday to play "barrel ball" with the Canadian firefighters. Greg Long, John Wotring and Joe Bartenslager definitely plan to represent Tecumseh, Mich., said Long.

Hearing Is Scheduled for $2 Million Loan

Tecumseh City Council set wheels in motion Monday night to enable the United Savings Bank to finance construction of its new main banking office on East Chicago Blvd. with tax exempt revenue bonds through the Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation.

Bank is seeking $2 million in loans to build new main office.

In compliance with the enabling legislation, Michigan Public Act 338 of 1974, Tecumseh city council defined the bank "project area" and "project district area" and set a public hearing date.

The project area is commonly known a the Vescio building on East Chicago Blvd. This is where the development will take place. The project district area is the area affected by the project. This is the entire city block. The public hearing will be 8:30 p.m. Sept. 18 at city hall.

That hearing will be the first in a series of city and county public hearings and legal steps before the bonds are issued.

"This is being done not to determine whether or not they will build a bank, but whether or not it will be financed through the Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation," explained Michael Marshall, representative of the Lenawee Chamber of Commerce and county EDC.

The Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation was formed Sept. 1977. It operates with a 15 member board, selected by the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners and represents a cross-section of geographical areas and occupations. Tecumseh's representatives are Council member Jay Tressler, Assistant City Manager Paul Preston and realtor Bill Powell.

The EDC is capable of assembling and developing parcels of land on behalf of industrial and commercial enterprises. It can finance property, buildings, equipment, improvements, etc. by the sale of tax exempt revenue bonds, under PA 338.

Advantages of this type of financing for the business include a lower interest rate, sometimes two or three percent below current rates, and longer loan payback period.

If for some reason the project should fail, neither the Economic Development Corporation nor the cooperating municipality is financially liable. All costs are paid by the business, including city's cost for public hearing notices.

"You as city council are the vehicle" to accomplish the procedures, Marshall told Council. "Because we are a public corporation, we have to take these extensive steps. The people living on that block (the project district area) will have to be notified of each

Parking Lot Landscaping Is Unveiled

Landscaping possibilities for the N. Ottawa Street city parking lot were unveiled Monday night at Tecumseh City Council meeting. Discussion was low key as Fred Shoemaker of Region II planning will meet with council to discuss the plan at a latter date.

"This is one of the most practical designs I've seen a planner come up with in a long time," said City Manager Cal Zorn.

Basically, the plan integrates the most recently acquired property, the former site of the Maurice Tuckey home, with the existing city parking lot behind the northeast business block. Pedestrian walks, trees, plantings, brick walk ways and treated logs for curb stops instead of concrete curbs are part of the attractive scheme.

Manager Zorn also reported a stalemate in talks with Sam Beal of Tecumseh Ace Hardware. Beal has not yet agreed to renew parking lot lease agreement with city. Those parking spaces are in parking lot block where improvements are planned. If lease is not signed, property will be back on tax rolls.

Council authorized the city manager to proceed with work on the newly acquired parking section and check prices of materials to complete the parking lot design.

Petitions Available for Council

Four Tecumseh city council members are to be elected Nov. 7 to fill vacancies caused by the expiring terms of Mary A. Bowers, Carlton L. Cook, James H. Palmer and Jay C. Tressler.

City clerk Vera Gardner has official petition forms for the office of council members. Forms must be filed between Sept. 4 and 5 p.m. Sept. 18.

Only One Bid for Addition

Only one bid was received by the School Board for construction of a classroom addition at Ridgeway Elementary School.

Bid from Krieghoff-Lenawee Co. was approximately $10,000 over architect's estimate of $47,000.

No action was taken on the bid except to have it reviewed by officials.

Lots of Eggs, Beef, Hot Dogs by Camp's 'Gourmet' Cooks

By Kathy Brown

Behind every successful football camp are the cooks, stoking the football machine.

Sunday through Friday last week, 43 Tecumseh varsity players trained at Camp Miniya, six miles northwest of Chelsea. While Pat Connors, head coach, had charge of building muscle, his wife, Sharon, three year camp veteran, had charge of planning diet.

Sandy Curth, wife of basketball coach Jim, and Kay Todd, wife of freshman coach Ted were Sharon's teammates, all cooks in residence, all volunteers. Together they have masterminded the winning meal plan.

Food for 50 "is not a glamour job," said Sandy Curth. But "it's a fun thing and we do it because we like it."

Contributing to the daily team effort were at least three new volunteer women per day. They tackled the Cinderella jobs, washing tables, dishes, pots and pans, sweeping floors, scraping vegetables, etc., while the cooks spiced the broth.

Eunice Smith was cited most valuable volunteer for three years perfect attendance. "I love to cook and I love these boys," she said.

Cooks served three meals a day and a snack, usually a delayed dinner dessert. Only one "cold" breakfast was served. Two scrambled egg breakfasts at 10 dozen eggs a meal, pancakes and French toast were the breakfast entrees.

Getting into the meat of the matter, how many have ever cooked or seen 40 lbs. of meat loaf downed to zero. Those hungry varsity appetites also consumed 50 lbs. of roast beef, 20 lbs. of hot dogs and nine lbs. of bologna.

Interesting meal strategy is a 12-item, all you can eat salad bar at lunch and dinner daily. Since the Connors' team introduced it, the players have snubbed peanut butter and jelly sandwiches as a meal supplement. That salad bowl took 14 heads of lettuce a day plus fixin's.

Lois Tilton, dessert chairwoman, huddled the moms together and enlisted their culinary talents to whip up pies and cookies. Desserts during the camp were fruit pies two nights and cream puffs another. Ice cream was offered, too.

The cookies, along with fruit, were available on snack trays during the day, except one hour before meals. Orange and lemon drink were always ready, too. Seventy gallons were consumed by Tuesday afternoon.

Doby's donuts are a camp tradition. Another camp tradition is the Thursday night family potluck. It gives parents an opportunity to keep up with camp action and the cooks a chance to use leftovers and clean up before leaving Friday at noon.

Julia Ternak of Italian Village donated the sauce and personally prepared her recipe at camp for Tuesday's spaghetti meal.

Others contributing to the team effort were McDonald's with loan of beverage cooler and Big Boy with place mats. The Harold Rousselo family, owners of the former Rusty's Drive-In, donated a beverage machine to the Indian Fan Club. Mrs. Connors praised everyone's cooperation.

Mrs. Connors explained how the women were drafted. "The men that did the cooking for football camp actually arranged their vacations during that time. Three years ago, one said he couldn't make it, then the other couldn't. Pat looked at me and I said, 'Well, if you aren't opposed to having women around, I'm sure I can get some women to cook.'"

Sharon joked that she considered subscribing to malpractice insurance in case the football team lost more games than it won and Coach Connors started looking for an excuse.

Despite the 90 degree weather and high humidity, making this the hottest camp weather in three years, the cooks exhibited high spirit. "Now I have proof of what you look like after three days of this," quipped Kay Todd. She passed around her Eastern Michigan University ID issued that afternoon. The women around the table exchanged a hearty chuckle.

Negotiate Contract Economics

Alice Marvin, President of the Lenawee Intermediate Education Association, reported Tuesday that the negotiations between the Lenawee Intermediate School District and the special education staff, have been going on throughout the summer months with little significant progress.

Negotiations are over the salary schedule for third and final year of the master contract.

There is another negotiations session scheduled for Aug. 25. In event that no progress is made then, the LIEA president said she would authorize a crisis committee to assist the membership in working toward settlement.

Hearing Set

Budget hearing for the Lenawee Intermediate School District is Aug. 28, 8 p.m. at the Intermediate School District board offices, M-52 at Valley Rd. in Birdsall.

Regular ISD board meeting will be Sept. 11, 8 p.m. at the same location.

Industry

Assistant City Manager Paul Preston before council's vote.

Council member Harold Easton commented, "Certainly other communities are vying for industry. Here we have an opportunity to attract industry. We may be criticized by present industry, but I'm sure that if they cared to expand, we would give them consideration."

Kinfolk out of town?
A good reason to pre-plan

We have, on occasion, suggested some of the most important reasons for pre-planning a funeral:

1. To alleviate the burden which falls on your family.
2. To insure that your wishes will be followed exactly.
3. To avoid the risk of wasteful, unnecessary over-spending.

But there is another, very important reason for pre-planning a funeral -- one which affects a great many persons.

Not everyone has "family" in town. We are a nation of travellers. And, although long-distance, out-of-town funeral arrangements are not uncommon, they tend to be more costly.

If you do not have "kin" close by, it may be a good idea to consider a pre-planned or pre-paid funeral now.

Many states have strict laws concerning pre-paid funeral services and burial expenses. We know what all is involved and can handle the details for you. We'd be glad to discuss them with you.

public hearing."

During the public hearings, the who, what, when, where, how and why of the project will be discussed to determine whether or not this is the method of financing that should be used. Input will come from the public, City Council, County Board of Commissioners and city and county planning commissions during the process.

Final decision rests with county board. But if a local government vetoed the project along the way, chances of county approval may be smaller, Marshall pointed out. In this case, he said he foresaw no problems.

Financing through the EDC is available to industry, commercial businesses, recreation projects and lending institutions. In contrast, municipalities can only issue bonds for industry, not commercial enterprises, etc. The only limitation of the method, noted Marshall, is that the bonds have to be salable. "This works well for those who have sound financial footing," Marshall said.

MR. and MRS. RANDY MAYES

Prettyman - Mayes Exchange Vows

Marcy Prettyman and Randy Mayes were married Aug. 12 at the First Baptist Church, Tecumseh, with the Rev. Wayne Mayes, of the Thornhill Baptist Chapel, Hudson, officiating the ceremony. The Rev. Kenneth Boyd, Tecumseh pastor, assisted.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman, 113 N. Democrat and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mayes of Hudson.

Janet Champanois was organist, Carol McLeod and Wayne Mayes Jr. the groom's brother, were vocalists.

Yellow and mint green mums, white daisies and yellow carnations and candelabra decorated the altar for the bride's approach on the arm of her father.

She wore a sheer cotton lace gown with fitted bodice, gathered skirt and deep lace ruffle. Her jewelry was a gold cross necklace, a gift from the groom. She wore a wreath of baby's breath in her hair and carried yellow daisies and roses with ivy.

Susan Prettyman, the bride's sister of Berrien Springs, was maid of honor wearing an empire styled, mint green gown. She wore mint green tinted daisies and baby's breath. Sue Sweeney of Marquette was bridesmaid, attired in yellow.

Mike Keller of Tecumseh was the best man. John Gibson of Macon was groomsman. Richard McCreary of Hudson and Tim Prettyman, the bride's brother of Tecumseh, were ushers.

Rose bowls, with yellow and green tinted daisies, decorated the fellowship hall for the reception. Cheryl Sheldon poured beverages, Laurie Hite served cake. Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCreary, the groom's sister and brother-in-law had charge of the gifts. Carol Clark passed the guest book and Brooke Proctor distributed rice packets.

The new Mrs. Mayes is a Tecumseh graduate and attended the University of Michigan last year. Mr. Mayes is a Hudson graduate. Both will attend Southwest Baptist College, Missouri, in the fall, where the groom previously attended school.

After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the couple will reside at 840 Clark St., Bolivar, Mo. 65613.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mayes at the Ponderosa Steak House, Adrian.

Bridal showers were hosted by Mrs. Thomas Roberts of Milan and Cheryl Sheldon and Kathy Lewis at the Sheldon residence.

Complaints Minor

With one exception, most complaints handled by Tecumseh police the past week consisted of minor thefts and vandalism.

Lone exception was reported Tuesday by Cynthia Parks, Clinton, who told police that $100 in cash was taken from her car at the Cedar Shack. Her automobile also sustained scratches to the top and sides and dents in the trunk. Parks works at the local restaurant.

Damages to vehicles or houses from eggs were reported by Mrs. Helen McCann, 212 N. Maiden Lane; Donald Berkley, Evans Creek Dr.; and John Threet, 308 Cairns.

Bicycle thefts were reported by Rita Albaugh, 219 Park St.; Brenda Bunting, 109 Van-Buren; Greg Aranda, 106 Muscody; and Dale Morgan, 807 Adrian St.

Last Wednesday, police arrested Emerson Vincze, 110 N. Oneida, on a warrant for malicious destruction of property. He was taken to Cambridge Junction and turned over there to the Jackson County sheriff's department.

Saturday, Timothy R. Anthony, 17, of 410 Wildwood Circle, a passenger in a car driven by a juvenile, was arrested for possession of alcohol. The juvenile was charged with possession of alcohol and marijuana. Police stopped their car at 3:16 a.m. on S. Evans St.

Also Saturday, Bill Neuman, 7967 E. Monroe Rd., reported two speakers and 24 tapes, taken from his vehicle at Tecumseh Park.

William Caulkins, 407 Seneca, told officers that a tire on a Jeep had been cut and the passenger seat slashed.

Police arrested Paul J. Reaume of Monroe here on warrants from the Jonesville state police post for a moving traffice violation, and from Taylor police for disturbing on the peace.

You Told Us

What kind of "jam" did you get yourself into on your summer vacation? I've been telling you about my experiences and I'd really love to hear about somebody else's problems, so I decided to sponsor a contest of sorts.

Tell me about the most odd, unusual or funniest experience you had on summer vacation this year. Any Herald reader may enter. Call, write or come in. I'll take the information, then an impartial judge will select a winner on the basis of sense of humor in the situation.

Prize of my own creation, will be modest, but well worth the time and 15 cents it will take you to enter. Winner and honorable mentions will be printed in this column. Let's have some fun together. Get those entries to the Herald by Sept. 15.

Speaking of situations, have you ever had an encounter of the third kind with a skunk? This weekend, we were in Lancaster, Penn. for my husband's family reunion. While camping in Black Moshannon Pennsylvania State Park, a pole cat sauntered into our site.

He crept up from behind and was headed under my lawn chair until Mike pulled out the flashlight and startled the animal. The bold critter must have been a camp pet looking for a handout as many campers left picnic baskets on tables overnight.

By the way, have you ever wondered what it is like to swim in iced tea? It is a colorful experience that thankfully soap can handle. The water in the Moshannon State Park where we swam resembled the brown waters of the Tahquamenon in Michigan's Upper Penninsula. It is not brown from pollution, but from the tannin of hemlock (or sometimes cedar) swamps that drain into the river. Tannin is found in tea and hence, the iced tea swim.

Discuss How To Restore

"Restoring, Renovating and Insuring Older Buildings" will be the topic of a program Aug. 30, 7:30 p.m. in the Tecumseh Community Center, E. Chicago Blvd. (M-50).

Sponsor is the Tecumseh Area Historical Society. The public is invited to attend an evening with special guests, all experts in their field.

Mike Quinn from Preservation Urban Design, PUD, an Ann Arbor architectural firm, specializing in restorations, will speak. Among other things, PUD is advising on the detailed restoration of Cobblestone Farm, a working farm museum being redone and preserved in Ann Arbor.

Area insurance agents will explain a bit about the special problems and questions faced by the person either living in or considering moving into an older structure. These questions include: "Can I insure for replacement value of special architectural features like marble fireplaces, winding walnut bannisters, stained glass windows? Can I get insurance for the place that's really a mess, but I am fixing up. What is this 80 percent clause I hear about?"

Don Limpert, Manchester contractor, specializing in renovations of older buildings will also be a featured speaker. Limpert is currently redoing the Bidwell Building in Tecumseh. He is responsible for the rejuvenation of more than a dozen downtown Manchester businesses, among his other accomplishments.

All of the guests will make a statement relating to his area of expertise, then will accept audience questions. Area business people and those who occupy an older home or business structure are encouraged to attend and ask questions.

"There is a definite move all across the United States in older communities to play up what they have in the way of an architectural heritage. We hope we can encourage a unified effort toward a unified streetscape in Tecumseh that recognizes our strong heritage right here at home," said Tecumseh Area Historical President Betty Kline. She added that through this meeting, the TAHS hopes to provide an opportunity for people to ask questions, find out what is being done and how restoration/renovation pays.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

To fully appreciate the following, three things should be remembered. One, the two food trays on the near-my-window feeder were almost empty; two, my bed was pushed back farther than usual so I could only see the southern most tray; three, it was early in the morning which is when I am most alert.

Thump. My first thought was that a walnut had fallen and landed on some hard ground. Hard indeed to make such a noise — and it must have been a large nut. Unusually large for this time of year.

Several more thumps and I decided it was not a walnut falling but perhaps someone was knocking at the door. Someone knocking softly enough so as not to disturb or wake us if we were sleeping, just loud enough to attract our attention if we were awake.

More thumps and the knocking possibility had to be discounted. The rhythm was not right and really, neither was the sound. There was too much of a hollow, dull quality to it. I steeled myself to becoming fully wide awake and even opening my eyes.

Ha ha, a bluejay zoomed out of the nearby maple tree and made an awkward landing on the south end of the near-my-window feeder. Perhaps what I had heard was a bluejay. These birds have a way with sunflower seeds which results in a noise similiar to what I had been hearing.

If they are going to eat the seeds at the feeder they do not gobble five to eight but instead work on one at a time. Selecting a seed the jay hops to the edge of the feeder and stands on the quarter round. Carefully using his feet to hold the seed against the side of the tray or quarter round, he then rears back and comes forward.

With all the power he can muster he whams his black bill into the black sunflower seed. Several such blows are enough to break through the outer layer of seed and expose the tasty inside meat.

We keep waiting for a bluejay to miss, about the time one hits his toe instead of the seed all sorts of action should happen. So far though they seem to have perfect aim and always hit the right spot. One of these years though —

The pert little gray tufted titmice use this same technique on sunflower seeds. They, however, do not make it look like such a dangerous procedure. I suppose it is because they are so much smaller and their bills correspondingly less heavy looking.

After all, the bluejay is a large bird with a big bill. And when he whacks it against a hard sunflower seed he makes quite a noise. Not, however the noise I had been hearing. That remained a mystery.

Earlier in the week the bluejays had been making peculiar sounds but we finally identified them. The whole gang, a family of four youngsters, found something of interest in the eavestrough around the roof of my room.

As they scratched and pecked away at whatever it was they made quite a racket. Just landing on the roof and jumping into the eaves made quite a racket.

About mid-morning the mystery was solved. There was another loud thump and I looked out to see a young bluejay on the feeder. The food supply was low and the noise was the tip of his bill striking the tray as he picked up little pieces of cracked corn.

None of the other kids hit the tray so hard when they ate. Could possibly his eyes be astigmatic and his depth-of-field preception slightly off? If so, perhaps this will be the guy who will one day bang his toe as he attempts to crack a sunflower seed.

KATHY BURKHARD, CHRISTIAN SINGER

Kathy Burkhard Tours Tecumseh

Kathy Burkhard, young Christian singer from southern Florida, is now touring the area and will appear in three gospel concerts at Tecumseh area churches.

The Ypsilanti native is the granddaughter of Allie Burkhard, 307 Marlboro Ct., and the niece of Dr. George Burkhard, 505 Outer Dr.

Miss Burkhard will perform Aug. 27, 7 p.m. at the Tecumseh Assembly of God Church, Chicago at Rogers. Aug. 29, 7:30 p.m. she will perform at the First Baptist Church, 5290 Milwaukee Rd. Sept. 10, 6:30 p.m. she will be at the Clinton Assembly of God.

There is no admission charge. Public is invited. A free will offering will be taken.

Kathy received her B.M.E. in voice at Cedarville College, Ohio, and trained as a music teacher. She taught in Lauderdale Christian School for two years.

During her short career, she has performed with well known artists, on radio and television, and as regular soloist at the Full Gospel Business Men's regional conventions. She was soloist at the popular "Jesus, '77 Festival" in Mt. Union, Penn.

Her current North American tour will take her to Canada where she will sing on the Huntley television show in Toronto and also at Queensday Cathedral.

Also in the area, she will perform in Adrian, Ypsilanti, Monroe and Petersburg.

Donations to Family, Father Asks

Larry Chase, of Napoleon, father of Tonya Chase, 12-year-old, who died Aug. 14 at Jackson, has asked that donations in memory of his daughter be made out to the family and sent to the family, rather than to Leukemia Research Foundation at Ann Arbor.

He says such contributions will then be given to Dr. Roy Clark, Jackson physician, for the doctor's research foundation there for hematology.

National Guard, Doll History DAR Topics

The Abi Evans Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Robison Aug. 11. Twelve members and three guests were present.

Regent Irene Wisner called the meeting to order. Mrs. Neil Pearson reported on the National Guard, the oldest military organization in our country. It dates back over 300 years.

The shortage of recruits is a serious problem at the present time. Problem may be corrected by the entry of young high school graduates with no immediate plans for college or other education. The National Guard offers training with compensation for these young people.

Mrs. Edwin McClain responded on the Godey dolls and their development. She talked about dolls in general. Children have played with dolls from the stone age to the present. Members brought dolls they had played with in their childhood.

The dolls ranged from boudoir dolls, pin cushion dolls, cot dolls, corn husk dolls, Dutch dolls, baby dolls, Cupie dolls to the present Barbie dolls.

Present Bibles

Aug. 13, the Gideons International presented Bibles for each patient of Herrick Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home.

Members of the hospital administration and staff attended this dedication along with members of the Herrick Hospital Auxiliary.

Two Tecumsehites Perform in "Molly"

By Kathy Brown

Aug. 12 I had the pleasure of attending "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" at the Croswell Opera House, Adrian. The Tecumseh participants in the musical comedy were thoroughly entertaining. The play was the last in the Croswell Summer Theater season.

The plot, set in 1900's, chronicles the exploits of Molly Tobin Brown, a fiesty Hannibal, Mo. native determined to gain fortune and respectability. Her mountain manners rub second generation Denver socialites the wrong way. A lone friend advises a European trip to refine Molly's zest for high society.

Her adoring spouse, Johnny "Leadville" Brown, croons "I'll Never Say No" and Molly drags him across Europe in search of culture. Rambunctious Molly makes a hit with royalty but her marriage starts to sink after an unsuccessful attempt to play her "royal flush" in Denver.

Back in Europe, alone, Molly realizes her life is amiss. Aboard a lifeboat in the mid-Atlantic, Molly at last discovers her courage makes her an admirable lady.

Toledo native Mary Spengler was a gutsy Molly. The chorus, some first timers on the Croswell stage, measured up to the star. Chorus was full-bodied in voice and spirit and well rehearsed in song and dance.

I wondered if I had seen the same production reviewed opening night by the Daily Telegram. The first night jitters were apparently worked out after three nights.

I enjoyed seeing familiar Lenawee faces from Tecumseh Players' Productions, such as Milt Schoch and John Westol. It was fun to watch Skip Johnstone in the bit part of the Count Feranti. The high school student has quite a resume in Tecumseh theater. This was his first Croswell role.

Joyce Ferguson, Tecumseh school teacher, was a scene stealer as the petite townswoman who minced across the stage beside her copious female friend.

Tall as a Colorado pine in stature and voice was Jim Burns in his performance as Molly's husband.

"Molly Brown" did not lack luster. It did lack local actors. Of three productions this summer, only two people from the Tecumseh area performed on the Croswell stage. In the last five years, I recall having seen more Tecumseh area people in the chorus and even in supporting and lead roles.

In contrast, this year, the directors preferred out-of-county talent. A Toledo director starred in "Mame" then directed another summer production. Ms. Spengler, Molly's star, was also cast in a supporting role in "Mame". New York talents took leads in a third play. In the forthright parlance of theater, "That's show biz." Yet there are veteran actors and rising stars in Lenawee County that could give the out-of-county talent a run for its money.

To me Croswell community theater means a showcase for Lenawee talent not just community owned and supported. As a local editor-reporter, I attend events to see local people. That's my function and interest, to report what local people do.

What do others think? Is the play the thing, or the people in it? A Croswell survey is being tabulated. But the Croswell audience and the Lenawee County supporters are the ultimate jury.

The Croswell is an asset to Lenawee County and has been of growing interest to county residents. It will be interesting to watch how the Croswell grows during these formative years, in its revitalization as the oldest Michigan theater and fourth oldest theater in the United States.

Bob's Owner at Pastie Pride

Gibby's two year lease with Pastie Pride, 910 W. Chicago, recently ended and owner Bob Sweeney reports that he will now be running the business again.

Sweeney will be open Friday and Saturday nights for his customers with Sicilian and standard round pizzas.

The Herald apologizes for their mistake in Pastie Pride's ad last week, that led readers to think Gibby's was still with Sweeney.

Accepts Low Bid

Tecumseh City Council accepted Monday night the low bid of Dundee Plumbing at $1,932 for a new hot water boiler for city hall. The Dundee company did work on the mechanical expansion of city building.

Council rejected bid of Clauda Plumbing and Heating, Inc. in Tecumseh for $2,266 and bid from Milan Plumbing and Heating at $3,160.

City manager Cal Zorn recommended replacement of the boiler because of the current unit's age. "Originally, we thought we could convert the old steam boiler to hot water. This had been completed when a hole appeared," he told.

To the Editor . . .

To the Editor:

Enclosed you will find the card which could be used to renew our subscription to your paper. After this past month, I wouldn't waste $8 on a one-sided paper which we feel is pretty low to having a biased opinion of political candidates.

Also, when you lie to us about not supporting a particular candidate then place an editorial on the front page supporting her plus others. We don't care (?) to something of this nature.

I would of sent this as a letter to the editor but am sure it would not be published; it would cost me another sum of money.

I hope some day the people have their eyes opened to the fact that all that is keeping your paper alive is the garbage you print on the front page and subscriptions of new people in the area.

Italianate home and couple recreate 19th Century mood in Marshall.

Marshall Celebrates 15th Annual Historic Home Tour

The 15th annual Historic Home Tour Sept.9-10 in Marshall celebrates "50 Years of Pride and Preservation." Then mayor Harold C. Brooks, now 93, started civic preservation in Marshall in 1928 when he restored a former livery stable and presented it as the new city hall to Marshall.

Nine private homes and four historic structures, adapted as museums, will be open. They range in age from 1840 to 1887. Italianate styles are predominate.

The sponsoring Marshall Historical Society salutes Trinity Episcopal Parish (1861), the church that started the tour. Historical society took over tour duties in 1967.

There are six "Downtown Diversions," a related tour event calling attention to the town's concern for historic preservation in the business district. A current downtown revitalization program, partially funded by the U.S. Department of the Interior through the Michigan History Division, is reflected by the "diversions."

All of them have restored 19th Century storefonts, with appropriate interiors, and are open both days to visitors.

Roving minstrels, antique sales, socials, an art fair, smorgasbords, band concerts, a Civil War encampment and full-scale "Battle of Capitol Hill," barbershop quartet singing and numerous other activities recall the past.

The grand parade will be held both days of the tour. Sunday will feature the Fifth Regiment Band from Howell.

Working with the historical society are at least 15 service groups representing 1,400 volunteers.

Tour proceeds have been used for restoration projects and 14 historical markers in Marshall.

Write Mrs. Charles E. Brooks, P.O. Box 15-F, Marshall, Mich. 49068 for more information.

FUNERALS: CONSUMERS LAST RIGHTS looks at conventional funerals and burials, plus such alternatives as cremation, direct burial, and body donation.

The editors of CONSUMER REPORTS, a magazine well-known for its tests and ratings of consumer products and services, take a thorough look at funerals. They discuss the advantages, disadvantages and hidden costs of each alternative. Would you plan ahead? There are even guidelines on prearrangements for death.

The Consumers Union (CU), publisher of CONSUMER REPORTS, is concerned with the cost of funerals and burials. It emphasizes that it isn't against undertakers, only the lack of information. The underlying theme of Funerals, as in all of CU's publications, is to keep the public informed and to assist in maintaining decent living standards.

The appendixes include suggestions on providing helpful information to survivors, VA National Cemeteries' addresses, embalming laws, transplantation, uniform donor cards, and autopsy and embalming procedures.

The 1,000 pages of HOW TO FIND YOUR FAMILY ROOTS provide assistance for almost every American in tracing his ancestry in 180 countries on seven continents.

Author Timothy Field Beard is one of the foremost genealogists in the U.S.

Each chapter describes techniques and resources used in each stage of the search. The steps are presented in the order they are likely to occur, but the author is quick to note that every person's search is unique.

Not only does he discuss printed sources, he also shows what information can be gathered from such things as pictures, jewelry, quilts, and clocks.

Other chapters deal with church and government sources. Using microfilm, computers, maps, periodicals, and genealogical guides are a few of the library sources. There are special sections for ethnic, Indian, and black American, as well as for adoptees.

An important part of this book is the addresses of librarie, archieves and societies throughout the world. Books and articles on research in each country and state are also listed.

A book on genealogy, especially one of 1,000 pages, could get dry and technical. Mr. Beard includes interesting anecdotes, unusual histories, and fascinating stories about "everyday people" to keep the writing lively.

HOUSE OF STICKS — Last Wednesday's wind huffed and puffed and tore down the trusses for the new Hoyt Whelan Co. being built on Occidental Rd., north of W. Chicago Blvd. "It shouldn't have happened," said one of the workmen, shaking his head. He said that construction was secured every possible way, but the wind twisted the frame like a pile of sticks. Workmen were under the roof trusses and had just walked around to the outside of the building when the construction collapsed.

Camp Was Work, Fun

By Kent Downing

Objective number one: to build team unity and moral.

Objective number two: to condition young players, to prepare them physically to play ball.

Objective number three: develop good football skills.

These were the three rules or objectives head coach Pat Connors layed out for his 44 players last week at Tecumseh's annual football camp. It was held at Camp Mihiya this year, about six miles northwest of Chelsea.

The average person wouldn't exactly call it a camp, however. Camp is supposed to be all fun and games.

Football players would be the first to admit it was fun — but not all fun. They held their own olympics, went swimming and made many close friends. Still, they had a very heavy schedule of conditioning and skill learning.

Their morning schedule went like this: up at 6 a.m., agility exercises, cross country running and breakfast at 7:30.

After breakfast, they stretch exercised, did punt formations, and full team offense and conditioning drills. At 11:30 it was swimming before lunch.

After lunch, they took two hours for camp olympics, a schedule of ten events with each cabin of young players pitted against all others.

At 2:45, they stretch exercised again and then began defensive drills. After a break, they started power cycles, the toughest of all conditioning exercises.

It was swimming at 4:45 and supper at 5:30. Camp olympics started again at 7 p.m. followed by specialty and team drills at 7:45. A team meeting was held at 9:00, and at 10:00, it was snack time and then off to bed.

It was a strenuous schedule, but then it had to be if the team were to build unity, strong bodies and good football skills.

And, football camp may well have been more important this year than ever before. Connors lost many seniors, including more key players then he had lost in a long time.

The most striking loss has to be the offensive backfield. It was certainly one of Tecumseh's best, and graduation took all five players — Jeff Hans was at quarterback with Jeff Robideau, Jeff Anderson, Butch Harvey and John Egbert.

Hopefuly, the camp and this week of training at the THS athletic field will weed out the weak and produce some new, young talent. The Indians are going to need that new talent.

Connors is now entering his sixth year at the helm, and it is certainly going to be tough to produce another Huron League championship team in 1978.

Begin Grid, Golf Seasons

Tecumseh's first football pre-season game or scrimmage this year will be a four team scrimmage at Mason Aug. 31. Game is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

First full game will be played against Chelsea here, the eighth of Sept. The non-league match against Chelsea will be followed by regular Friday night games, from Sept. 15 to the first Friday in November.

Golf fans will be happy to know that THS will be holding its first match Aug. 29. The Tecumseh Tournament is set for 9 a.m.

Monthly schedules for all fall sports will be published within the next two weeks.

Grid Candidate at Grand Valley

Jeff Anderson, running back from Tecumseh, is among 83 football candidates who will be on hand to open drills this Friday for the 1978 football season at Grand Valley State.

Coach Jim Harkema will welcome a group of 40 lettermen back from last year's squad, which had a 7-3 record and won the Great Lakes Conference title.

Few Clues in A&P Armed Robbery; Loss over $1,000

A lone gunman escaped with over $1,000 from the A&P store here early last Wednesday evening and there are few clues in the robbery, Merlin Mowery, police chief, reports.

Investigations so far have proved fruitless, although a number of witnesses and other parties have been questioned. The gunman supposedly fled north towards Clinton, but workers at the Allen Rd. intersection were questioned, and they failed to recall passing motorcycle type of vehicle on which he was seen riding from the A&P parking lot.

Residents on Burt St., Macon Rd. and other area roads were questioned, and they also failed to see a cyclist. Questioned residents were outside their homes at the time and would have recalled a passing motorcycle.

According to the police report, the armed robber was about six-foot, dark complexion and wearing motorcycle clothing - black helmet and yellow jacket - when he entered the A&P store about 6:20 and approached cashier, Virginia Fenner, of 713 Ternes Rd.

She was checking out a customer at the time when he demanded her money. It was then that she noticed a small handgun.

Mrs. Fenner hesitated, according to police, and asked Rose LeBeau, of Monroe and who was in the office, what was going on. He then grabbed her money from the register and demanded that she open the second cash register. He was told that it required a key and she didn't have one. A third cash register was open but empty.

In the meantime, Mrs. Lebeau was calling over the public address system for the store manager, Richard Bulloch, to come to the front of the store. When he approached, he was stopped by gun point.

The robber then stole cash from the office's cash register and fled.

Customers witnessing the robbery were Allen Southart, 402 Brown, and Norlene R. Malady of 307 N. Democrat. Witnesses in the parking lot told Bullock that the gunman fled on a motorcycle north across River Raisin bridge.

Roadblocks were set up minutes after the robbery, but they along with a search of area roads by police failed to locate the motorcycle or the gunman.

Two Tecumseh officers, William Meni and Don Rodehaver, were at the scene immediately after Tecumseh police were alerted.

SCHOOLS OPEN TUESDAY

Project 3,625 for 1978-79

Although Tecumseh school enrollment is slowly dropping - less than one percent from a year ago while many school districts have substantial reductions - school officials are projecting a 1978-79 attendance here next week of 3,625 students.

Projected enrollment is just 19 less than last year's official enrollment of 3,644. Official enrollment is taken on the fourth Friday of September of each year.

Classes start for all students Tuesday, except for kindergarten who start Wednesday.

Teachers will report today, Thursday, for a morning meeting at the high school with the administration, and later in the day for meeting with principals and room preparations.

Friday will be an in-service day in the morning for teachers, followed by principal meetings and room preparations.

City Alters Original Plan, Now Paving Only Portion of Lot

Original plans to blacktop the entire northeast, downtown parking lot have been dropped for this fall, according to Cal Zorn Tuesday afternoon. He explained the reasons for the change of plans.

Only the Tuckey property and the parking area and drive immediately north of the Tuckey property will be paved, the city manager explained. This paving should be completed within the next 30 days and metered by late fall.

Two reasons for excluding a large portion of the parking lot are the city's failure to obtain a lease from the owners of Baldwin Hardware, for its property jutting into the parking area, and possibility of a new sidewalk behind the stores on E. Chicago Blvd.

Zorn says three contacts have been made with Baldwin Hardware without success. The hardware property behind the store extends north to a line east of the north side of the Ken-Ray Drug building.

Ken-Ray property in the parking lot will be leased by the city, an arrangement the city has held with Ken-Ray and Baldwin Hardware for many years.

As for the sidewalk behind the stores, it will be up to the store owners, Zorn indicated. He said that Paul Preston, assistant city manager, has discussed the possibility with Dr. David Blanden, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Merchants are to be contacted in the near future.

If the sidewalk is constructed, blacktop in the area directly behind the shops will be lowered. Purpose is to have the sidewalk level higher than the blacktop.

Other improvements could be a park-like area within the lot, including a drinking water fountain and benches, and plots of grass and flowers among trees which were not removed when the Tuckey residence was torn down.

Pilot Program at THS

Beginning this fall, Tecumseh High School will be the first in the county to participate in an after-care program designed for former student residents of the Maurice Spear Campus.

Maurice Spear Campus in Adrian is a court-operated complex with short-term detention center, long-term treatment center and special education school directed toward 13-17 year old delinquents, male and female, who have become unmanagable at home. They are wards of the probate court.

Studies have shown that there is a 50 percent recidivism rate among former MSC students that return to their home school. The aftercare program is designed to reduce that percentage and hopefully eliminate it.

Upon release from Maurice Spear Campus during the school year, students will return to Tecumseh High School. Three or four students are expected to participate in the one-year pilot program. All will be residents of the Tecumseh School District.

The after-care program is designed to assist the student in his or her rehabilitation and return to a normal school setting. Volunteer staff members at Tecumseh High School will work as teacher representatives on a one-to-one basis with the students for 90 days.

The teacher representatives will monitor the student's overall academic progress, attendance and social adjustment. Periodic conferences will be held with the teacher representative, student and Maurice Spear Campus staff.

After 90 days, a termination review will be held to see if the student is ready to be on his own without the support of personnel.

An interesting aspect of the program is the contract each student signs. Each student agrees to set both long and short range goals for himself. The parents are appraised of these.

Students must agree to 100 percent school attendance and obey all school rules. In addition, the student promises to attend all teacher representative meetings, cooperate fully, work to his fullest and set realistic academic goals.

Aug. 23 officials cooperating in the program met at the Maurice Spear Campus. They were Clarence Lacny, Tecumseh High School principal; Kathy Kelso, Kathryn Suydam, Dinah Wakeford, Tecumseh teacher representatives; Dorman Borders, Probate Court officer; John Baran, Maurice Spear Campus director; David Stanifer, director of Juvenile Division of Probate; Sandy Samons, MSC social worker; Mike Hayden of MSC, Dave Smith of Call Someone Concerned and other MSC staff.

Also participating in the program at THS as teacher-representatives are Kathy Shroyer and Fred Herman.

"Since the recidivism rate is recognized all over the country, we will be a failure if the schools now fail. Schools must substitute as parents and give these students the care, support and concern the family does not offer. "If this program works, we are going to be successful, even if it works with just a small percentage. Tecumseh could be the pilot school for other school districts," commented Maurice Spear Campus director John Baran.

"We've always had a pretty good working relationship with Maurice Spear Campus, John Baran, the director, and his staff," said THS principal Clarence Lacny. "We're willing to do it. I'm anxious. As adjustments are necessary, that's what we'll do. The ultimate goal is to incorporate this program in other schools," Lacny concluded.

Set Millage for Schools at Meeting

A special meeting of the School Board will be held Thursday evening for setting millage for the 1978-79 school year, Supt. Robert Duhan announces.

Current operational millage is 28.5 mills. It could be retained or increased by a half-mill by the board, a decision expected Thursday evening.

Supt. Duhan says the millage for debt retirement, however, will be dropped from 1.8 mills to 1.64 mills. Schools also levy .7 mills for the library, and this millage will be continued.

Meeting is scheduled to start at 7 p.m.

Car at 70 mph, Skids, Hits Tree - No Injury

Only two accidents occurred on city streets the past week, but one involved a teenager who miraculously escaped injury.

David M. Patten, 17, of 906 River Acres Dr., was headed north on N. Union St. Monday when he skidded through the intersection at Brown St. and uprooted a tree.

Patten told officers that he was traveling 70 mph at the time when he attempted to stop for the intersection's stop sign. His car skidded 140 feet before striking the tree and another 45 feet after the impact.

Police cited him for careless driving.

In an accident Tuesday, Kenneth W. Wallows, 53, Adrian, was charged with improper lane usage after he changed lanes on W. Chicago Blvd. and struck Ricardo Marganon, 19, of 216 W. Kilbuck.

Folks Here at Festival in 'Tecumseh'

Last Saturday at the Third Annual Tecumseh Ontario Corn Festival, a caravan of 20 Tecumseh, Mich. cars was welcomed, Michigan campers filled the local Canadian campground, the Tecumseh, Mich. skyjumpers and recreation department baseball teams brought home trophies, the fire department came home wet and everyone filled up on corn and German style food and refreshment.

Bright and early Saturday, the 20-car caravan proceeded from the Tecumseh, Mich. city limits at 50 miles per hour to I-94 and Wyoming in Detroit where the state police met and escorted the travelers to customs.

"From that point, Tecumseh, Ontario's REACT CB people directed everything by CB and it was incredible. It was just great, " commented Council member Len DeMoss of Tecumseh, Mich., coordinator for local participation in the weekend festivities.

LISD Hires Former Bus Supervisor

The Lenawee Intermediate School District hired retired Tecumseh Schools transportation supervisor Mike Anderson Monday night to fill a part-time position.

This year Anderson will supervise the transportation program and prepare Gary Griewahn, newly hired supervisor of building and grounds, to assume the program next year. Griewahn was formerly assistant building trades instructor at Vo-Tech.

Board's purpose for meeting Monday was a public hearing over the 1978-79 budget which totals nearly $5,900,000. This figure includes $2.5 million budget for Vo-Tech, $2.5 for special education and $800,000 budget for the general fund. Budget represents a 6.5 percent increase overall. It is raised from county-wide 3.3 charter mills, $3.30 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

In other business, the board approved the salaries and fringe benefits for non-union personnel. No settlement was reached with special education or vocational education instructors, however talks continue.

Architects from the firm of Samborn-Steketee-Otis-Evans gave an interim report on the space needs and management within the LISD.

Next LISD Board meeting is Sept. 11, 8 p.m. at the LISD office, M-52 at Valley Rd. in Birdsall.

Russ Has Been 'Clipping' Us for 50 Years

By Kathy Brown

Russ Garno celebrates 50 years in barbering Friday, Sept. 1. Garno has barbered in Tecumseh for 38 years, 36 years at the former S. Evans location, directly across from the fire barn, and for the last two years, on E. Chicago Blvd., Tecumseh's main street.

How did he decide to cut hair for a living?

"I was starving and I had to eat," Garno said matter of factly. His Friday customers of long standing burst into a barbershop chorus of laughter. They know him like he knows every head he cuts.

"My father was a barber in Ohio in his younger days. I don't know if he barbered too long. When they struck oil in Ohio, he started to work in the oil fields," Garno related.

"I learned barbering from an old gentleman by the name of James Belleville in Deerfield. I was there about three years, then in Britton for nine years before I moved to Tecumseh.

"I was sixth in academic standing of my class in Deerfield--out of seven. I'm the best looking barber in the family," Garno quipped.

The fellows in the shop lapped up every joke. Garno's popularity stems from his sense of humor. One neighbor thought the jokes were too thick and bought Garno a can of appropriate repellent. With the price of a haircut, you can also hear Garno spin a yarn or two, you can catch up on the latest in town and you can watch the world go by on Chicago Blvd.

"I was the smallest one of two brothers and a sister. When I got to be 11 years old, my father said to me, 'Well, it looks like you're going to be the barber in the family. You know how it was back then. When someone told you what you were going to be, it kind of stuck.

"Actually, I've barbered longer than 50 years, I used to give haircuts to all the boys on the baseball team when I was about 11 or 12. We had a lot of hair under that apple tree in Deerfield."

The older gentlemen in the shop reminisced about boyhood haircuts. When they sheared the horses' manes, everybody got a haircut. When hair clippers were introduced, customers were suspicious of them. They thought it would ruin their hair.

Garno said that he and Belleville used to take turns cranking a bellows that powered the clippers. Whenever they got tired, there was always a customer in the shop who would volunteer to take a turn. "Those days people were waiting in a barbershop."

The cost of a hair cut was 25 cents, 15 cents for a shave. Today the average hair cut costs four dollars.

The long hair era introduced by the Beatles took its toll on the barber's clientele. His customers today are gen-

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Kahle will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sept. 10 with an open house, 2-5 p.m. at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahle, 1016 River Acres Dr. Hosts will be their children and spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahle, Mr. and Mrs. James (Phyllis) Mull and seven grandchildren. Imobelle Spalding of Tecumseh and Wayland Kahle of Adrian were married Sept. 8, 1928 in the Tecumseh Methodist Church by the Rev. Harry J.B. Marsh. They were engaged in farming 10 years in Adrian Township before moving to Tipton in 1938 where they reside. Mr. Kahle retired from the Tecumseh Products Co. in 1971. Friends and relatives are invited. Couple requests that gifts be omitted.

tlemen over 35 who appreciate a real hair cut. "I'll bet that there are kids in school that have never had a haircut," Garno said. "They take a pair of scissors and wack some hair off, but it's not a haircut." The profession is a craft as far as he's concerned.

"Maybe you won't agree with me, but I think that we're getting to be like the canine family. They sniff each other to find out if they are male or female," Garno commented.

"You can't tell by the smell anymore either," chimed the reporter. Everyone had a good laugh.

Garno has seen many products come and go over the years. One product that you can't beat is his flattering mirror. "See this mirror," Garno pointed to the wall mirror behind him. "How does it look? Pretty good? You don't look like that at home."

"It is surprising how much you learn here," said a customer while the others belly laughed.

Government has something to say about barbershops just like it seemingly does with everything else these days. State licenses have jumped 100 percent in the last year.

What was the most unusual haircut? "All of them," injected a customer with a devilish laugh.

"One of the most unusual haircuts I ever gave was an Indian haircut to a fellow that had a bet with the fellows in the bar," said Garno.

"My youngest great-grandson, four years old, said he wanted a Kojak haircut. I told him we'd both be in the doghouse if I did that. He asked, 'What's a doghouse grandpa?'"

Discussions have not progressed to the financial portions of the contracts yet with the teachers, he said.

Negotiating team for the local teachers are: Candy Martin, president, Wes Maki and Margaret Heimerdinger.

Last year contracts were not settled in Clinton until October.

Schools Except 1,276 Students

CLINTON — Clinton Community Schools are expecting an enrollment of 1,276 pupils as school gets under way Wednesday, Sept. 6 at 8:30 a.m. for an all day session.

Classes will be dismissed at 3:05 p.m. for elementary; 3:10 p.m. for middle school and 3:20 p.m. for high school.

Children who are new to the Clinton Community Schools should be registered before Sept. 5 at the appropriate building principal's office. Offices are open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

Kindergarten classes will be held in regular session Sept. 6 for both morning and afternoon children.

You Told Us

No one has entered the "Vacation Jam" contest announced in last week's column. Surely someone has a funny story about his or her vacation to share with Herald readers. To sweeten the experience, a special prize is being offered. Winners will be printed in this column. Contact me with your story before Sept. 15.

Staff members swapped animal stories last week. After my adventure with the skunk, I learned that my colleague Almina Hunt has taken up "batminton." The score so far is Almina, 1, the bats, 0. She said the secret is in the racket. A bat's radar is sensitive to the flat side of a broom. A sports racket, on the other hand, is not detected as well. Surprise attack is the best defense.

Cindy Egli proved to be Tecumseh's fairest at the fair. She was first runner-up in the 1978 Lenawee County Fair Queen contest. She received a $100 award and trophy. Cindy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Egli, 615 W. Chicago Blvd.

Tom and Evelyn Swanton of Tecumseh received a senior citizen award at the Lenawee County Fair Variety Show. They received the award for being married most recently. Their wedding date was Nov. 11, 1977.

Paradise is fun to visit, but it's expensive to live there. That's what Navy Aircraft Electronic Technician Chief Leonard and Beverly Lendon reported about Hawaii this week. They were on leave between assignments and arrived last Friday with sons, Jerry, 12 and Jay, 10 to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller of Tecumseh.

The Lendons lived in Hawaii three years near NAS Barbers Point, outside Honolulu on the mouth of Pearl Harbor. Not all were strangers to them in paradise. Through this column, they became acquainted with another visiting Tecumseh couple, Judy and Mike Sisson.

The Lendons enjoyed Hawaii's scenery, clear waters and "pupus" or weekend picnics. The boys enjoyed body surfing daily on their "boogie boards."

Food and living expenses, however, were costly in paradise. Cantaloupe costs .59 cents per pound, milk $1.10 a half-gallon. A one bedroom apartment sells for $49,000. Interesting about their school system is the fact that until this year, Hawaiian history not American history, was taught almost exclusively.

The Lendons left Tecumseh Wednesday to visit his folks in Louisville, Ohio. They will be assigned to NAS Memphis, Millington, Tenn.

They hadn't seen each other for 12 years but last weekend school chums Mrs. James Wolf of Plymouth (nee Shirley Hunt) and Mrs. Leonard Lendon (nee Beverly Miller) visited at the home of Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt. Shirley came to pick up her daughter, Melanie, who visited her grandparents. The Lendons were en route to Tennessee after reassignment from Hawaii. Other guests at the Hunt home were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and family of Ypsilanti and Howard Hunt of Jerome.

Kevin Osburn received a bachelor of science degree in computer engineering from the University of Michigan at Hill Auditorium. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Osburn of Park St. attended the ceremony with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Osburn Jr. of Waterford. Kevin will be employed by Inland Steel Corp. in East Chicago, Ind.

Louis Carswell of Carswell Tree Service, Murphy Hwy. had back surgery Aug. 15 at Toledo Hospital. He is at home convalescing.

Navy Operations Specialist Seaman Apprentice Kevin T. Stevens, son of John V. and Marilyn A. Stevens, 2255 E. Munger Rd., has reported for duty aboard the USS Turner Joy, San Diego, Calif.

A 1977 graduate of Tecumseh High School, Stevens joined the Navy in Aug. 1977.

Norman Bless of Tecumseh was named a vice director of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents. Elections were held at the 43rd annual meeting in Boise, Idaho.

Beth Butters joined a new unit, Pathfinder, for junior high aged girls this summer at YMCA Storer Camps, Jackson. The primitive camp appealed to adventurous girls who enjoyed the out-of-doors. Besides cooking, eating and cleaning up almost all their own meals, the campers experienced a great canoe and hiking trip with the boys of the similar Outback unit.

Storer Camps also announced that John Ewing, veteran backpacker and trips leader for Storer Camps, has planned canoeing, backpacking, cross country skiing and downhill ski trips with outdoor sleeping for fall, winter and spring. For more information, call 517-536-8607.

Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Martin and three children returned last week from a month's trip to the west coast. They visited Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming; dined in Chinatown in San Francisco, Calif.; toured a Hollywood film studio and the farmers market and visited D.J's former Marine base at San Diego, Calif. They found the change in temperature the most surprising experience. One day the temperature in Sacramento Valley was 117 degrees and just a few hours away, the temperature on the Pacific Coast was 60.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

The Tecumseh area has several orchards and farm markets from which readers may purchase fresh produce by the bushel to can or freeze. Some farms encourage you to pick your own. For your convenience, here is a list of the local markets.

Al's Farm Market located on M-50 in Tecumseh is probably best known for their acres and acres of pick your own strawberries in June. They also have pick your own green beans, peas and tomatoes in season. They have freezing corn you can purchase by the bushel, as well as fresh cantelope and watermelon. Everything sold at Al's is grown on the premises.

Kapnick Orchard on Rogers Highway, sells a variety of apples, peaches, nectarines, plums, pears and melons. They have green beans, lima beans, cucumbers, corn and peppers, all locally grown.

Produce may be purchased in small amounts just for eating or by the bushel for canning and freezing. They carry a large variety of canning jars and freezing supplies, also.

German Orchard, also on Rogers Highway, has available pick your own green beans, yellow wax beans, and tomatoes. Corn, cucumbers, and squash are also sold. Canning and freezing peaches are available right now. During their busy fall apple season, make an appointment to see their own cider mill in operation. They have several varieties of fall apples that will be ripe in mid-September.

Red Apple Orchard, located on the corner of Billmyer and Sutton is the newest orchard in the area. Their red apple season starts in mid July and extends through the fall with over a dozen varieties of excellent eating apples. They have several varieties of peaches and nectarines available right now, too. In season, they have hard to find asparagus and red and black raspberries. All of their fruit is picked tree ripened.

Stevens Orchard, formerly the Aiuto Orchard, is on Allen Road in Clinton. They have a variety of tree ripened fruit available, including peaches, plums and nectarines. Their Bartlett pears will be available after Labor Day, as well as their pick your own apples.

Meeks Orchard is located 1/2 mile west of Clinton on US-12. They have available peaches, apples, nectarines, plums, pears, grapes, sweet corn and (lima beans and cucumbers on order.) Their cider will be available in late September, also.

Keeney Orchards, on M-50 in Tipton will have their MacIntosh and Jonathon apples ready for picking the middle of September. Their Red and Yellow Delicious will be ready the following week. All of their apples are sold on a pick your own basis.

Raisin Valley Orchard, located on Valley road between Adrian and Tecumseh, has several varieties of pick your own apples. They have sweet corn available now, too, that can be purchased by the bushel to freeze.

Many orchards prefer that you call ahead and order what you need, especially produce that is limited in quantity or has a short season. This will insure that you get the fresh produce when available.

Of course, this is not a complete list. There are several farms that have pick your own vegetables, beans, corn, tomatoes, cucumbers and potatoes. They are generally listed in the ads in the local newspapers, many times under farm produce. But this list should give you some idea of what is available and where to find it.

For the Record

Dee Colson has taken a teaching assignment at Patterson School, grade two, after serving as elementary physical education instructor.

Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan

In utter desperation I finally went to the bird books. It simply would not be a successful summer without seeing a catbird. If one is not going to show up in person, the bird books would be the next best thing. And what better book than THE BIRDS OF AMERICA by John James Audubon. My bird bookshelves are fortunate in having a beautiful two volume set of reproductions made from the original water color paintings this artist did for his THE BIRDS OF NORTH AMERICA series.

Audubon's catbirds are good. One almost expects them to burst into song. He portrays one slender gray bird with a darker gray tail and almost black skullcap posing on a branch of blackberry bush. The bird's black bill is open, his wings slightly spread and his tail fanned wide. Even the rusty red or russet feathers under his tail are visable.

The second catbird in the picture is in an awkward pose — composition-wise it is important but, to me at least, it says little about the birds.

In the text accompanying the catbirds, Audubon is quoted as writing some strange things. They seem not at all in keeping with the present attitude towards these nice birds. He claims that no other bird, except perhaps the misunderstood crow, is more "generally despised and tormented".

Since it is felt that this picture was probably painted in Louisiana or Mississippi in about 1822, it can be assumed that the farmers and plantation owners begrudged these birds the fruit they ate. Consideration was never given to all the harmful insects they consumed.

Audubon also says the bird's unfortunate name is perhaps responsible for some of its unpopularity. He puts it more colorfully though — "the vulgar name . . . has probably rendered it more conspicuous . . . and has also served to bring it into some degree of contempt with persons not the best judges of the benefits it confers on the husbandmen..."

My, he did have a way with words as well as with paint brushes, didn't he? Of course I must agree about the name Catbird — ugh.

But it is hard to think of these birds as being persecuted. Thank goodness we are more knowledgeable today and realize that the insects they eat are more than ample payment for a few cherries or strawberries.

There are catbirds around this summer, we hear them. One of their sounds explains their name — they can and often do sound like a cat meowing. Catbirds are members in good standing of the Mimidae family which means they are superb mimics. The mockingbird and the brown thrasher are cousins.

One book lists 30 birds that the catbird imitates and probably there are more. I know that for years when we hear unidentifiable songs we "blame" it on the catbird.

It is frustrating to hear these pretty gray birds but not see them. We, however, have always found that catbirds were rather shy and not inquisitive enough to investigate the near-my-window feeders very often.

They like to pick bugs off bushes and trees and certainly the tangled growth on the creek bank must be much to their liking. It would seem, however, that once in a while they could venture into the yard — when we were looking.

But there is still hope. These are migratory birds and it should be some weeks before they 'pack their bags and head south'. The more adventurous will fly as far south Panama. Before any such undertaking though it is to be hoped that the one who has enjoyed the hospitality of our creek bank this summer will take pity on Mom, Gertie T. and me.

We would just love to see one — Mr. Audubon may be recognized as one of America's best but he can't beat actually seeing a bird in person.

Immunize Kids, Give French Fries

A "fun" clinic has been planned for a serious business by the Lenawee County Health Department, and members of cooperating McDonald's stores in Lenawee County.

The clinic is to update students on their immunization, Sept. 8, from 12:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Health Department, 1301 N. Main St., Adrian, the clinic will be a matter of "pricks and prizes," if you will.

Children who are taken to the clinic that particular day will be greeted by Cathy Wotring as well as the personnel at the clinic. Cathy is a STAR gal for McDonalds. That's Store Activity Representative. She is the woman who takes care of all the community-type program.

Each child who receives his or her "shot" will be listed on a special "Good Patient" certificate.

At the bottom of the certificate is a special ticket for an order of frozen fries redeemable at any of the three McDonalds stores in Lenawee County.

Jean Swiderski, director of nurses, at the local clinic explains the big push. "Not only have we been having practically an epidemic of measles, but the new public health code signed into law recently by Governor William Milliken states that "a teacher or principal shall not permit a child to enter or attend school unless a certificate which indicates a minimum of one dose of an immunizing agent against each of the diseases specified by the Michigan Department of Public Health has been recorded and certified to by a health professional or local health department."

Complications from the seven diseases for which children are to be immunized - measles, mumps, rubella (German measles), pertussis (whooping cough), diphtheria, tetanus and polio — range from high fever and a short illness to deafness, paralysis, brain damage, sterility and even death.

Lenawee County is therefore joining the rest of Michigan to prevent this sort of thing. Michigan has the dubious distinction of leading the nation in cases of measles and rubella and is second in mumps.

There is a form which can be signed by the parent if there are religious, physical or other objections to immunization. These forms must be signed at the school by the parent. They cannot be sent by the child.

Swiderski said there have been 491 reported cases of measles in Lenawee County since the first of the year, 39 cases of rubella and 108 people who have been sick with mumps. "For the past two and three years," she said, "there have been series of measles epidemics over the state. This is hitting Lenawee County now.

"We've discovered that children who received their immunization before 1967 and some of those receiving their immunization before they were 15 months of age have not become immune to measles. This is because of the type of vaccine that was available at that time. "Also we here are the Health Department feel there may be a lack of information on the part of the parents concerning times the little ones should be immunized. Babies should be started when they are two months old."

Trace 'Roots' at Museum

Lenawee County Family Researchers will open their fall season Sept. 5, 8:30 p.m. with a meeting at the Lenawee County Historical Society Museum, Main St., Adrian.

Anyone interested in tracing his or her family histories is welcome to join.

Sept. 12, 1 p.m. the group will meet at the Ridgeway Township Library. Thelma Frayer will explain what the library offers.

On a summer Sunday morning . . . at a boys' camp . . . a silhouette of the call to worship.

Interesting that man has used the percussion instruments to express the tempo of his excitement—and strings to translate his deepest emotions into melody. But generally he has chosen the brasses to sound his call to action.

Worship is action! It is our reaching out toward God. Through centuries it has united men in their quest for truth. It has been the clarion of consecration, courage, commitment. It has inspired love and sacrifice, hope and resolve.

Make worship part of your life. Its trumpets call you to new adventures in the discovery of Truth . . . the journey to a lasting Joy.

Caravan Travels to Ontario

Some Michiganders decided to make a long weekend of it and arrived Friday afternoon with recreation vehicles.

Buck Maynard of Tecumseh had a parade entry and several of the Ontario floats in the hour long parade welcomed Tecumseh, Mich. visitors.

Mayor Aden Mead of Tecumseh, Mich. rode with Tecumseh, Ontario's Mayor Don Lappan in the parade. The Michigan and Ontario skydivers rode together. The firemen all watched the review from the fire station.

Tecumseh, Mich.'s skydiving team, from Harold Lange's Parachuting Services, won the team trophy, beating Ontatio's team by two seconds in the hit and run accuracy contest. Greg Perlinski of Tecumseh received a trophy for having the best individual time.

The jumpers were dropped over a baseball diamond and had to land near second base, then run to first base, pick up a flag and carry it to home plate. Teams alternated jumpers and each jumper was timed from the minute he hit the ground.

Strangely enough, three of the four members of the Canadian team were regular jumpers at Tecumseh Parachuting Services. Two of them, a husband and wife, were not Canadians but Ann Arbor natives. The Tecumseh, Mich. team was certainly surprised.

Six representatives from the Tecumseh, Mich. Fire Department formed two water barrel ball teams and played the Canadians. Tecumseh, Mich. teammates were John Wotring, Dave Purkey, Joe Bartenslager and Greg Long on one team. Lonal Bishop, Dave Bishop and two Tecumseh, Ontario sports formed a second "Michigan" team. Eighteen firefighters played. The Tecumseh, Mich. team won the first round, but got beat in the second.

Saturday's highlight for the firemen was "the scenic tour of Canada thanks to Lonnie Bishop," said Greg Long. The firemen had a caravan of their own with Lonal as their chosen leader.

Tecumseh Parks and Recreation senior boys baseball team received a first place trophy for their win over the Canadians. All the boys, including the 11-12 year old team, brought home individual trophies. The teams swapped souvenirs. Each one, including manager Ward Eardley, received a kiss from the Corn Festival Queen.

Representatives of each of the Tecumseh, Mich. groups praised the hospitality, courtesy and organization of their Tecumseh, Ontario hosts.

KEEPING PACE — Members of the Shawnee Marchers practice barefooted as they march across the corps pace, a new teaching tool that helps the band members develop an even stride. Plastic fabric, approximately 25 ft. long, was donated by Tecumseh Fisher Body. Band instructors taped rope every 22 inches which guides the barefooted marchers. Behind the rifle guards are the new mellophones, marching band French horns. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Band Marches into New Season

Tecumseh High School's Shanwee Marchers drilled rigorously during the annual band camp Aug. 27-31 at the school. "They were absolutely busy from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.," said director Jimmie Rice.

Field drills were held from 7:30 a.m. to lunchtime and again from 6 to 8:30 p.m. Full band and sectional practices were held in the afternoons.

The group of 75 musicians worked to memorize the field maneuvers and music for an all new show featuring five tunes. Parents will preview the new show Thursday night, family potluck night. The show will premiere for the general public during the halftime of home football games. The Marchers will compete in two Michigan contests this fall, at Clarkston and Bridgeport.

Rice's teaching colleagues were Dick Reamsnyder, junior high school band director and his wife, Elaine Reamsnyder. She has a music degree and has taught privately. Donald Dobrosky, as in the past years, volunteered to work with percussionist.

Bill Silberhorn, formerly THS drum major for two years, helped with charting the Marchers' maneuvers. Bill served as assistant drum major last year at Western Michigan University where he is in his junior year this fall.

Wilma Silberhorn, Bill's mom and THS Band Booster, volunteered to supervise the two meals served during camp at the high school cafeteria. Volunteer mothers and the school cooks cooperated to prepare camp vittles.

A corps pace is an important new teaching tool this summer. Materials were donated by Tecumseh plant Fisher Body division General Motors. Corps pace is a kind of plastic covering with equidistant ribs. When spread on the ground, it enables marchers to establish a standard step.

Director Rice explained this year's camp goals. "From the competitions we've done in the past, we've learned from the judges that we need to spend more time with fundamental concepts. We're getting down to basics, doing more maneuvering practices for this style of marching. We're going to work on the show as much as possible so the kids get it under their belts before school starts."

Each section was drilled daily in marching maneuvers. Instructors kept close watch and gave "tick" marks whenever faults in performance were noted.

The exercise created a competitive spirit among the instrumental groups. Yet all seemed to be in good spirits, too," noted Donald Dobrosky. Teens wear orange T-shirts over jeans or cut offs.

New instruments will debut in the new show. Four mellophones, marching band french horns, were purchased and will add a richer, fuller sound to the performances. Marching bells and a marcher's xylophone of fiberglass are also new and will be used in concerts later.

New flags are coming for the flag corps, but Rice did not divulge what they would look like. Another new look for the flag corps are the black tapped poles, made simply of aluminum conduit, purchased locally. "We've learned how to cut corners on expenses," Rice said.

Judging from the corporation and pep exhibit during Monday's field practices, the Shawnee Marchers of Tecumseh High School will not be cutting corners when it comes to a quality performance.

Grass Waterways Protect Soil

Grass waterways are natural or manmade watercourses protected against erosion by grass cover. They serve as safe outlets for terraces, divisions and contour rows. They may also serve as a passageways for water that enters your farm from other land.

Good grass waterways are a must in controlling erosion on many farms. If you do not have them, or if they fail to work properly, all parts of the erosion control system for your field may fail, too.

Your first thought may be that you do not want your fields cut up by waterways. But crossing waterways with modern farm machinery is not difficult. Made with gentle sloping sides, waterways can be crossed easily with tractors. Power lifts simplify the job of raising and lowering tools during the crossing.

It is better to put up with a small inconvenience now than to be blocked later by a gully.

A grass waterway is not a waste area. It is an essential part of the soil and water conservation treatment of the farm and can be used for pasture or wildlife cover.

Next time it rains heavy, take a good look at the natural drainageways and draws in the fields. If there is erosion in these low places where runoff water collects and flows swiftly downhill, consider the need for a grass waterway.

Price Break for Seniors

Consumers Power Company is alerting its electric customers who are senior citizens of a new program which could reduce their electric bills.

Persons at least 65 years old and heads of households are eligible to receive electric service at lower rates under a new rate schedule established July 31 by the public service commission. The company estimates that 60,000 to 70,000 customers may meet the eligibility requirements.

The Tecumseh Police Department received a commendation award Aug. 29 from the National Child Safety Council for the department's outstanding participation in the area of child safety and drug abuse.

Kids Show How to Do It

Tecumseh area 4-H teens recently participated in county-wide day camps sponsored by the Lenawee County Cooperative Extension Service.

Members of the day camp project group were Debbie Cattell and JoAnn Blumhart of Onsted, Mary Schroeder and Shari Morgan of Britton, Lisa Wiesman of Palmyra, Barb Rebottaro of Tecumseh and Janelle Roback of Adrian.

The 4-H youth were primarily in charge of organizing project sessions for the 9-18 and adult age groups. Teen 4-H members volunteered to teach such projects as simple home repair, home design crafts, outdoor cooking, personal appearance, gardening and macrame.

According to their project leaders, the teens gained a lot of valuable experience in working with small groups. Many non-4-H'ers were introduced to 4-H.

'Sour Grapes' Saddens Reader

To the Editor:

I was saddened to read the recent letter from Mrs. Roback. It has been my observation that most papers, large or small, give space to all candidates in any election. The Herald gave equal time and space to ALL candidates.

No paper can force a person to vote the way the paper wants the person to vote. Apparently the people wanted a change. Sounds like sour grapes.

W. H. Browne

P. S. Here's my money for my new subscription to be sent to my daughter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Rainer, representatives of the Council, presented the award to Tecumseh Police Chief Merlin Mowery on behalf of the department.

The police department's child safety and drug abuse program for the children aged 5-12 will begin this fall and will consist of various safety, bicycle safety, crime prevention and drug prevention materials geared to each child's age level.

The area business and industrial leaders of Tecumseh annually fund the program. "Their helping hand will surely reflect throughout the area, not only today, but in the future as well," said Mrs. Rainer.

The NCSC is a federal tax-exempt, non-profit organization dedicated to the safety of young people.

St. Peter's Hosts Organ Recital Series

The fourth annual Fall Organ Recital Series will be performed at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Sundays, Sept. 3, 10, 17 and 24, 7 p.m., by the doctoral students of Marilyn Mason, professor of organ at the University of Michigan School of Music.

Series is open to the public free of charge. The Rev. David Fox, pastor and Lisa Byers, organist and director of music, have planned this event.

Organists to participate are: Joseph Galema, Michele Johns, James Kibbie, Francine Mate, Donald Renz, Thomas Strode, David Wagner and Paul Wey.

Recitals will encompass five centuries of organ literature. Composers represented include J.S. Bach, Bohm, Bruhns, Buxtehude, Correa, Distler, DuMage, Hurford, Jackson, Mathias, Mendelssohn, Pepping, Purcell, Stanley, Strunck, Sweelinck and Walther.

David Wagner and Donald Renz will perform in the first program of the series Sept. 3.

Wagner is a student of Marilyn Mason at the University of Michigan where he is in the doctor of musical arts degree program. He has also studied with Ray Ferguson at Wayne State University. A former faculty member of Macomb County Community College in Warren, Wagner was also an announcer for 10 years with Detroit's classical music radio station WQRS-FM. He has been organist-choirmaster of St. Ambrose Church, Grosse Pointe Park and is presently organist-choirmaster at St. Robert Bellarmine's Church, Redford.

Ann Arbor native Donald Renz received the bachelor of music and master of music degrees in choral music education from the University of Michigan in 1971 and 1972, respectively. Earns Air Force Badge

Pvt. Darrell C. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cox, 3676 Westgate Place, recently received the Air Assault Badge upon graduation from the Air Assault School at Fort Campbell, Ky.

Trainees learned to rapidly and safely exit a helicopter from a variety of difficult situations. Whether descending into tree tops or lowering themselves or injured soldiers down sheer drops, the graduates are highly proficient.

Cox entered the Army in March 1978.

Men in Softball Tournament, Final Game Set for Wednesday

Tecumseh Third in Tournament, Golfers Eye Fifth Straight Title

Tecumseh High School's golfers placed third in their annual Tecumseh Tournament Wednesday at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Lumen Christi finished on top with a 308 while Bedford carded 321. Tecumseh was just four strokes off Bedford's score with a 325.

Ron Smith, a sophomore, started out in the number one position for Tecumseh and finished with a disappointing 85, 46-39. Still, coach Paul Cunningham believes that Smith will soon wind up THS's hottest golfer this year.

Kevin Koszka started in the second position and shot a consistant 77, 38-39. The senior joins Smith and a second senior, John Faulkner, as the nucleus of the team.

Faulkner shot a 41-40 and started in the third position for THS.

These three players were joined in the tournament by a promising freshmen and a senior returning to the team after playing football last year.

Senior Jeff Osworth started in the number five position and carded a 88, 40-48. Scott McDonald, the freshmen, shot 82, 42-40.

And the freshmen could very well be the key to Tecumseh's success this year. They have three returning lettermen in Faulkner, Koszka and Smith, but the freshmen look as promising as those that started Tecumseh on such a hot winning streak four years ago.

This year's freshmen include Mark Walters, Tim Smith and Greg Scheuerman, along with McDonald who played in the tourney. There could be a couple more promising players coming along.

And freshmen potential is going to be important for Tecumseh. They are after their fifth straight Huron League championship. That's a tough reputation for the THS golfers and the three lettermen and Osworth can not uphold it themselves.

Tecumseh finished 8-5 last year and 7-0 in the league. Their five losses went to four class A schools and one class B, Lumen Christi.

The team won every dual match with league schools and coach Cunningham and assistant Victor Stevens believe this team's as good as last year's.

It just could be Tecumseh's fifth straight league title and that has never before happened in Huron League history.

TREES ALREADY?— THS golfer, John Faulkner hit a long drive Tuesday on the first hole of the Tecumseh Tournament, but found he had this second shot from behind a tree. Faulkner was forced to hit the ball along the ground and then pitch to the par four green for a bogey. Tecumseh's going after an unprecedented fifth straight Huron League title this year and so far the team is optimistic.

Tecumseh Squad Takes Giant Strides, but Have They Progressed Enough?

They are young! In fact, Tecumseh lost 22 football players this year to graduation.

Three returning starters are back in Greg Borton, playing offense and defense, and Randy Halvin and Mark Creswell on defense.

But coach Pat Connors is very happy considering the number of players he lost. He has found a good quarterback and five running backs he can count on.

The offensive and defensive line and backs are set and all seemed to know their assignments in their first scrimmage Thursday night.

Importantly, the team has been taking "super strides" since the beginning of football camp. The question is, will that progress be enough?

The team will find out Friday against Chelsea, here. And Chelsea looks tough. They were young in 1977 and lost many early games. Still, they improved enough later in the season to knock off the two teams battling for first. Most of that 1977 squad is back.

Jon Betzoldt, a senior, will be at the quarterback position with Tim Todd, a sophomore in reserve for Tecumseh. Betzoldt is looking good this year and was reserved behind Jeff Hans last year.

The only returning running back is Tom Chatters, but he carried only six times last year. This year, he will be joined in the backfield by John Ely, Joe Brooks, transfer Andy Greshwiler and Steve Palmer.

Others working at the position are Tom Wright, Kevin Salters, Jeff Betzoldt and Dave Rudd.

Key players on the offensive line will be Randy Bolz, John Lacney, Dave Render, Greg Borton, Terry Merritt, Randy Halvin and Mark Creswell.

Other linemen who may not be key players now, but may very well be in the near future are Kevin Bater, John Clark, Bob Warner, Scott Schafer, Chris Smith and receiver Scott Hans.

The defensive line will be lead by Halvin, Render, Merritt, Bolz, and Schafer. Main linebackers will be Creswell, Joe Brooks, Andy Greshwiler and Chatters. Deep backs, John Ely, Borton and Palmer.

The best of the second string includes Hans, John Southard, and Betzoldt as deep backs; Warner, Bater, Scott Gilpin, and Southard are at linebacker. Top choices on the line are John Clark, Lacny, and Chris Smith.

But while this may be the first and second choices for Tecumseh's best football squad this year, many other players could soon emerge on such a young team.

On offense, those players are; Randy Russell, Mike Fagan, Joe Royal, Tim Steuwe, Tony Turner, Dave Yoakum, Southard, Jeff Rendell, Matt Fasbender, and Randy Wisner on the line.

On defense; deep backs Wisner, Wright, Salters, and Jeff Betzoldt. Linebackers: Steuwe and Yoakum. Linemen: Fagan, Turner, Fasbender, Randy Russell, Bradley, Rendell, and Joe Royal.

The only other question is, where does Tecumseh fit in the league?

Monroe CC will be the favorite for the title. New Boston Huron looks good for second and Airport third.

But those standings are on paper only. And on paper, Tecumseh should probably follow right behind Airport. Where the team will actually fit is another question and nobody knows at this time.

Young teams have a habit of surprising coaches, fans, and opponents. They hustle, and after Thursday's scrimmage at Mason, Connors is sure they hustle.

The team made a lot of mistakes. But it's early and they are going to make mistakes. That's what a scrimmage is for.

The important thing is, this team is going to work hard and improve. They are going to compete and concede nothing

THS COACHES — These four veteran Tecumseh football coaches will be leading the Indians in 1978. They are, (l-r), asst. Ron Spagnoli, head coach Pat Connors, assts. Bob Ondrovick and Wayne Nix.

OFFENSIVE LINE — Senior Randy Halvin, number 55, will be at the center position for the Indians and returns as one of the team's three 1977 starters. Teammates, (l-r) Terry Merritt, Dave Render, John Lacny, and Randy Bolz will be joining him on the line.

PASS TO ENDS — John Betzoldt, number 16, will have three receivers in (l-r) number 19, Greg Borton, Mark Creswell and Scott Hans. Borton and Creswell are two of Tecumseh's three returning starters from last year.

BACKFIELD — On offense, Jon Betzoldt, kneeling, will be calling the plays to these three backs. They are, (l-r) Joe Brooks, John Ely, and Andy Greshwiler. Tom Chatters and Steve Palmer will also see a lot of action in the backfield for the Indians.

DEFENSIVE LINE — From left, Randy Bolz, Dave Render, Randy Halvin and Terry Merritt will be lining up against the Chelsea offense Friday night. Scott Schafer will also be playing the line, but was not available for photos.

LINEBACKERS — These four will be backing the defense linemen Friday. They include, (l-r) Joe Brooks, Tom Chatters, Andy Greswhiler, and Mark Creswell.

Clinton To Battle Hudson, Addison for Title

Much like any football team this early in the year, coach Don Eaton and the CHS football squad have a couple problems to iron out and a couple advantages on their side.

For Clinton fans, the biggest advantage must be the return of the entire offensive backfield. In fact, Eaton is proud to admit that they probably have the "strongest backfield in the league."

Terry Carlton will be in the quarterback's seat. Coming into the season this year, Eaton is very happy with his performance and looks to Carlton to do an excellent job. Carlton runs the option well and his passing has improved greatly.

Rounding out the backfield are Casey Thilo, Jeff Porterfield, Mike Karapas and Rudy Weirich. Thilo and Karapas are returning runners, and Thilo recorded 1,111 yards rushing last year.

Porterfield ran as a back only the first three or four games last year, but ran well. He then switched to the wing position where he mainly blocked. Weirich's main position was on the punting team last year but is much larger than a year ago and Eaton looks to him as a substitute anywhere.

One problem the team must work out deals with the offensive line. It is very unexperienced this year after graduation took Clinton's big four linemen. In fact, Eaton explains that the line averaged 180-190 pounds last year and is down to 150 this year. That's a distinct advantage.

Those players with the job of playing the offensive line are Chris Douglas, Andy Hoag, Jeff Vansickle, Lee Russ and Barry Yocum.

Swinging over to the defense, the backfield again is very strong. All the players are back in Thilo, Karapas, Hoag and Weirich.

At the ends will be Yocum and Ken Witherow. Vansickle and Jeff Porterfield will be at the linebacker positions. Porterfield is Clinton's biggest man at 175 pounds.

On the line will be Lee Russ, a four year starter and all-league material all the way. He will be playing nose guard and promises to be the key in the line.

The tackles are not solidly set yet, but Eaton looks to Chris Douglas, Gordon Miller, Dave Lane and Dale Driscoll to help.

Another advantage for Clinton this year has to be in their numbers. They started with a 20 man squad last year, but played most of the year with just 18 varsity footballers. This year the squad numbers 30. They have the bodies, just not the size.

Another "disadvantage" Clinton will feel this year is their schedule. The league is very well balanced with Eaton predicting no one going undefeated.

And CHS must play two of the toughest games away. That's against Hudson and Addison. The team must also play Morenci away. While Morenci is not a particularily tough team, the cross town rivalry makes the game rough.

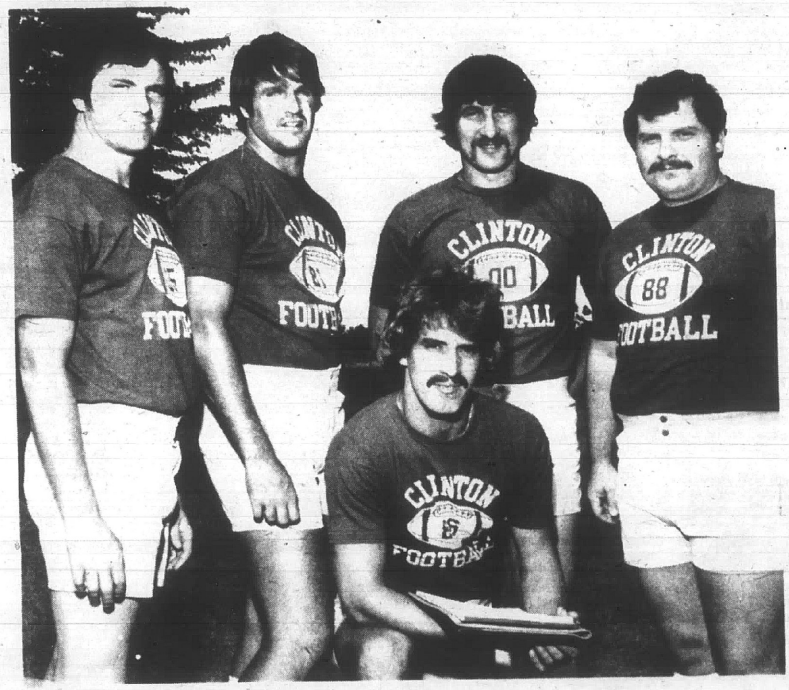
Eaton figures to finish right among the top. Blissfield won the league last year with a 5-1 league record, but lost many key players. Clinton was right behind with two losses. Addison and Hudson were at 4-2 also.

As head coach, Eaton is in his fourth year and though he won't admit it, he is primarily responsible for the steady increase of football popularily in recent years.

The first year of Eaton's coaching, the team posted a 1-8 record and then went 6-3 two years ago. Last year they were 7-2. With the present trend, and looking at this year's players, the team record should be even more successful this year.

But while Eaton has added much to the football program, thanks must go out to the Clinton community too. Now they're behind the team, the administration at CHS has done a great deal to help, and now Eaton has the personnel to help coach more effectively than three years ago.

Team opens the season Friday against Adrian Madison, at Clinton, 8 p.m.



CLINTON COACHES — Assisting head coach Don Eaton (kneeling) this year will be (l-r) Chris Wittenback, JV coach, and varsity coaches Bill Moran, Dave Pray and Randy VanGasse.

STRONG BACKFIELD — Clinton's entire backfield is back this year. Terry Carlton, number 10, will be the quarter back. Running backs include: (l-r) Casey Thilo, Jeff Porterfield, Mike Karapas, and Rudy Weirich.

TRI-CAPTAINS — Clinton chose these three players to lead the team this year. Casey Thilo playing back on offense and defense; Andy Hoag, an offensive guard and defensive back; Lee Russ, a guard both ways. Kneeling with the play book is head coach Don Eaton.

Britton Eyes Title with Explosive Offense, Quarterback Kimerer, Backs Osterhout, Bruce

Last year, the Britton football squad posted a 3-6 record - a record Randy Salisbury is not enthusiastically proud of.

But that record shows how incredibly young the team was in 1977. Most of that team is back this year and Salisbury is looking for a very good year.

Still he has only seven lettermen returning, and less than half of those are seniors. More experienced this year? Yes. As experienced as Coach Salisbury would like to be? No.

But in perspective, Britton has only 17 on his varsity squad and that's average. The team will always be young.

Despite the team's overall youth, fans are going to see an experienced, explosive offense this year. Britton is going to be more of a scoring threat than they have been in a long time.

Chris Kimerer, a junior, will be quarterbacking. He headed the JV offense last year and is a left handed passer. His passing ability is going to surprise a lot of opponents and fans.

And passing figures in Salisbury's playbook preveniently. Last year, Britton threw 30 to 40 passes all year. This year the team plans on 10 to 15 passes per game.

Jeff Osterhout and David Bruce will be the main men in the backfield. Osterhout, a senior, rushed for 900 yards last year. That's 900 yards on a team with a 3-6 record.

Bruce is six foot, 190 pounds. The junior is a big boy and is going to be especially hard to stop.

With the two excellent running backs and plays mixed with passing, Britton foes are going to bend this year and Britton will score.

In the end positions are juniors Greg Fanslau, and Mike Benedict. Both are a little over six foot and have good hands. They are certainly going to figure highly in Britton's scoring.

On the line will be one of Britton's two, three- year starters, Dennis Kimerer will be the backbone along with a couple seniors, Jeff Judkins and Bruce Clark.

Osterhout is Britton's other three year starter.

On defense, the linebackers are going to be the key as Britton has three returning lettermen and a fourth player with as much skill. They are Terry Benedict, Fanslau, Bruce and Jim Bluntschly.

The rest of Britton's defense is not yet set.

Salisbury is optomistic then. In fact, he proudly states that Britton has won two of the last four league titles, and he should be proud.

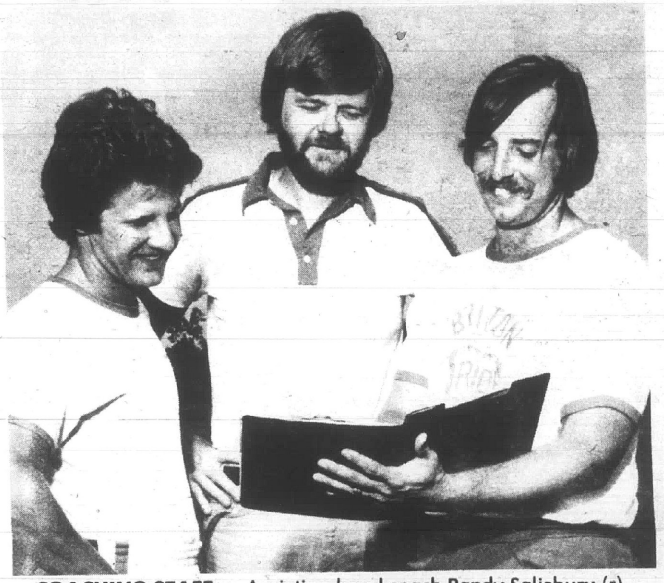
The coach is now entering his seventh year at the helm. Although his team did post a 3-6 record last year, his overall record is 27-23.

All are certainly eyeing a better year and the team talks of challenging the Tri-County Conference title. Sand Creek and Summerfield are strong. Deerfield could possibly surprise everyone and win it. Still, watch Britton's squad. They're going to be good.

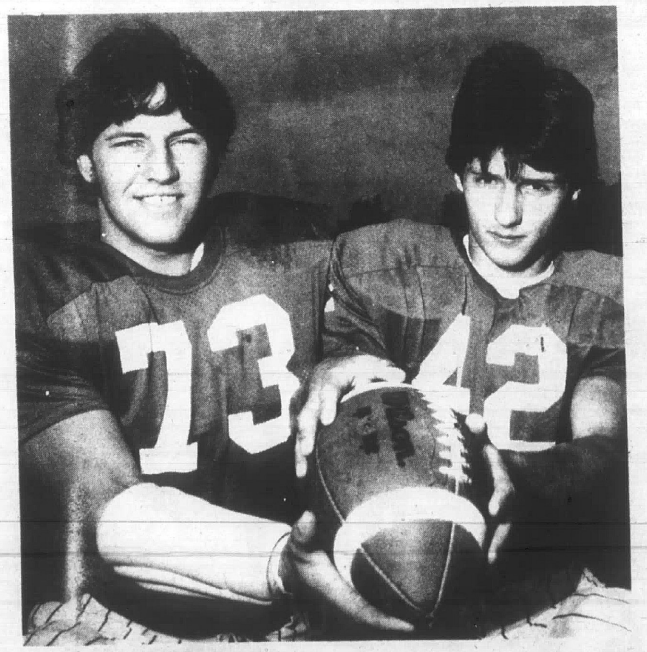
Assisting Salisbury this year are Doug Witt and Mark Lewis. Witt is newly graduated from Western and is doing an outstanding job with the offensive and defensive back.

Lewis is the JV coach and is assisting the varsity with the defensive line. He has been on the coaching staff for four years.

Britton opens against Northwood Friday, at Britton. The 7:30 p.m. game kicks off what promises to be a bright season for the Tories.



COACHING STAFF — Assisting head coach Randy Salisbury (r) this year with varsity football are Doug Witt and Mark Lewis. Lewis, (c) is also the JV coach.



CO-CAPTAINS — Dennis Kimerer, 73, and number 42, Jeff Osterhout, will be leading the team this year as captains. Both are lettermen and seniors.

CONDITIONS DETERIORATING

Board, Teachers Far Apart in Negotiating New Contract

According to a news release last week from the Tecumseh Education Association, negotiations with the School Board are far from satisfactory relative to a new teachers' contract.

Last paragraph of the statement exemplifies the TEA's position:

"The teachers have agreed to continue their services on a day-to-day basis and are hopeful that the table conditions will not continue to deteriorate."

Supt. Robert Duhan said Tuesday that further meetings have not been scheduled, and none will be held until after the board's negotiators, Supt. Duhan and Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, have an opportunity to meet with the board's advisory committee.

William Macbeth, James Records and Richard Heglin comprise the board's advisory committee.

The Tecumseh school superintendent refused to comment on the TEA's news release, and TEA officials declined any additional comments.

Balance of the news release is:

"After over 100 hours at the bargaining table, the Tecumseh Education Association and the Board of Education of Tecumseh Public Schools are a long distance apart in settlement," said spokesperson for the TEA, Gary Lovett.

"Negotiations advisory School Board members Macbeth, Heglin and Records have placed restrictive limitations on the School Board's negotiating team Supt. Robert Duhan and assistant superintendent, Gene Cooley, on the unsettled items so that the teams are unable to effectively bargain these items.

"Unsettled items include class size, split classes, mainstreaming, length of day and salary."

Maximum class size is 32 for elementary and 34 at the secondary level.

Split class issue is two grade levels in one classroom by one teacher.

Mainstreaming is the integration of exceptional children into regular classrooms.

And, it has been indicated by the TEA that the administration wants a longer school day.

TEA represents 158 teachers in the system.

The schools also are negotiating with the bus drivers on a new contract and have a meeting scheduled for Sept. 11th.

Operating Millage for Local Schools Same As Last Year

Millage for operating the Tecumseh schools for 1978-79 school year will be the same as last year, according to action by the School Board last Thursday night.

Although the Board could levy 29 mills for operation, members approved 28.5 of the voted 29 mills, 1.64 mills for debt retirement - down from 1.8 mills - and .7 mills for the library.

From local taxes, the schools will receive $2,924,000 for operation. This is based on one mill equaling $102,597.

Three debts to be retired include construction programs at Sutton and at Tecumseh High School. The elementary school has $620,000 left to be paid with a scheduled payoff in 1989, and a second indebtedness of $130,000 with final payment in 1984.

The recent high school addition has $1,450,000 remaining with a retirement date of 1995.

As the school district's evaluation increases, amount of millage for debt retirement decreases.

New Fund for Beth

A Beth Satterthwaite Memorial Landscaping Fund for Satterthwaite Park was established by friends of the late Miss Satterthwaite.

Gifts of any denomination will be accepted confidentially and acknowledged personally by the friends and neighbors of Beth Satterthwaite.

Checks may be written to the City of Tecumseh and deposited by donors at the United Savings Bank Savings Dept. Gifts are tax-deductible.

Locusts, pines, flowering shrubs and trees will be planted next spring around the community center park. Anyone who wants to beautify the park and honor Beth may contribute.

5 Circulating Council Petitions

If petitions now out and circulating are filed before the Sept. 18th deadline, a race for four seats on Council is assured in November.

Vera Gardner, city clerk, reports five petitions circulating are for three incumbents, James Palmer, Jay Tressler and Mary Bowers, and John Kish and Roy Hella.

NEW TEACHERS — Tecumseh schools have employed four new teachers for the grades 7-12. They include (l-r) Linda Sanders, high school English and art; Dorothy Jones, high school English; David Haines, Junior High math and industrial arts; Laurel Hamalainen, high school English.

ELEMENTARY TEACHERS — Five new teachers have been hired in Tecumseh to teach in the elementary grades. They are, (l-r) Barbara Records, music; Alan Falzone, second at Ridgeway; Jan Sura, first at Patterson; Joan Tucker, fifth at Herrick Park; and Donna Sass, elementary physical education.

Young Indians Face Chelsea Here in Friday Night Opener

A young and inexperienced Tecumseh football team will take to the field here Friday night in what could be a very tough opener against Chelsea. Game time is 7:30.

Coach Pat Connors has to replace a number of outstanding players from last year's club which won the Huron League championship, and several players will be seeing considerable action for the first time.

Besides lacking experience, the Indians are small in comparison to past teams that whipped Chelsea two years running and dominated the Huron League championship, and several players will be seeing considerable action for the first time.

Big Boy, City Agreement Questioned

Tecumseh Council authorized city attorney Greg Forsthoefel to clarify a city agreement with the owners of the Tecumseh Big Boy.

The restaurant is located in Tecumseh township, just outside the city limits on the west side of town. When township officials would not release the property for annexation by the city, the owners agreed to pay in lieu of taxes, the current city millage less than two mills, which is the township assessment, so that the restaurant could have city sewer and water.

However, that agreement did not mention personal property. Big Boy's summer tax payment of $1,293 was based on real property only, along with a statement pointing out that the agreement was for real property and not personal property. The difference was $688.

"It was my understanding that Big Boy wanted to be full partners and we have therefore been billing water as if the property were in the city," city manager Cal Zorn told Council. "I felt that Council should be appraised of the situation and perhaps the difference resolved."

"I intended at the time of the suggestion that it include only real property and not personal property," said Council member Harold Easton. "I don't believe we're providing full services. All we do is provide them with sewer and water and that's all. You're not snow plowing, you're not lighting the street."

"I think we should try to negotiate it," said Council member Len DeMoss. "All I remember was them being charged the same as a business in Tecumseh except fire millage." Council members Mary Bowers and Carlton Cook agreed with DeMoss.

"I understood it included everything," Forsthoefel said about the agreement.

Zorn told Council that although he has been charging the restaurant the commercial water rate as if it

Raisin Officials Resign Positions

After a lengthy agenda, Raisin Township clerk Shirley Roback and deputy clerk Kathryn Wagner resigned Tuesday night at the township board meeting.

Roback's reason was that she had a full-time job and mentioned personal reasons. Wagner said her reasons were personal. Roback could not be reached for comment at press time, reached at home, said her reasons for resigning were "personal and related to township business. I don't wish to elaborate."

Wagner also commented, "I will tell you this, Mrs. Roback is working in accounts receivable and doing a terrific job, despite what was said in the paper."

Wagner tried to resign earlier this year, but the board did not accept her resignation. At that time, the township board was embroiled in a controversy over whether or not township officials could be forced to work certain hours at the township hall.

Marjorie Comfort, township treasurer, opposed the board's philosophy. She later accused supervisor Richard Gallaway and clerk Shirley Roback of inefficient government.

Comfort beat Roback as clerk candidate in the August primary. Supervisor Gallaway was defeated by Robert Moore in the same election.

Supervisor Richard Gallaway told the Herald that a meeting would be called to name an interim clerk.

Also at the meeting Supervisor Gallaway told the board that he would be out of town and could not be available to set up voting machines for the November election. He told the Herald

Young Boy Badly Hurt in Accident

Although only four accidents were investigated by Tecumseh police the past week, two involved personal injury with one victim transported to Ann Arbor.

Five-year-old Troy Schumacher of Jackson suffered two broken legs, a broken arm and a jaw Saturday after he ran from behind a parked vehicle on S. Occidental and into the side of a passing car.

He was taken to Herrick Hospital and then to University of Michigan Hospital.

Driver of the car was Linda G. Schwede, 23, of 403 Marlboro Court.

Early Wednesday morning, Elizabeth A. Mueller, 18, of 511 W. Kilbuck, and her passenger, Thomas J. McKenzie, 22, suffered lacerations after a crash on Brown St.

Mueller was westbound when she struck a parked car, owned by Marilyn T. King, 9103 N. Union St. The King vehicle was knocked 40 feet and into a driveway. The Mueller automobile continued on for approximately another 300 feet, coming to a stop in a yard on N. Union St.

Warren Firm Prefers Tecumseh

Libra Manufacturing Company, 9303 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. marks one month of operation at its Tecumseh location, nearby Al Meyers Airport.

The business is a job shop that does precision machining and military contracting. Owners are Ron Stelzer and Joe Cardella, formerly of Warren. Twenty people are employed and the partners have placed no limit on the business' expansion ability.

Libra Manufacturing specializes in short run production, (50 to 100 units). Currently it manufactures hospital filtration and diagnosis equipment computer coupled. It also does military work for which it received the 1977 Small Business Administration small business subcontractor of the year award for Region Four, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin. Aerospace nominated Libra for the award.

Libra Manufacturing services 18 accounts at present. It ships products across the United States. Its production rejection rate is 1.6 percent. "We emphasize quality," said Stelzer.

One of the unique aspects of the Libra Manufacturing is the numerical control computer system it uses to operate their machines. The owners said that they have the 480th machine of its kind in the world.

Libra derives its name from the astrological sign of Stelzer's birth month. He and Cardella formed their partnership 10 years ago, organized their first business in Detroit, made two moves in Warren and finally moved to Tecumseh this year.

They purchased their building about three years ago, after considering about 40 other communities in southeastern Michigan. "Tecumseh was the most helpful and the most aggressive to get us here," said Cardella. They selected Tecumseh because "It was the nicest, best kept city. It was modern, up-to-date and not backwoodsish," Cardella elaborated. Quality of life for their families was another reason why they decided to move out of the congestion of the Warren area.

The business partners said that they considered the Tecumseh Industrial Park sites, but the restrictive covenants requires too much capital. They decided instead to double the present facility to 5,000 sq. ft.

Stelzer studied business administration at Lawrence Tech. He is the company's salesman and said sales have increased each year. Cardella, a University of Detroit mechanical engineer, works to develop the skilled labor in the business. Both of them and their foreman, Charles Ellis, are journeymen.

Study Stresses Special Education

As a result of a needs assessment within the 12 local school districts in Lenawee County, it has been determined that the greatest need in the area of special education is that of the learning disabled.

At the regular Lenawee Intermediate School District Board meeting Aug. 7, the board authorized George Eidson, director of special education, to hire four teacher-consultants of the learning disabled.

The Intermediate School District will receive additional federal funds for these positions.

The addition of these four new staff members brings the total number of available Lenawee County teacher-consultants to seven. In addition, there are two classroom programs for Learning Disabled children, one in Hudson and one in Adrian.

A plan for the delivery of full services to learning disabled children in Lenawee County has been developed with the aid of local school districts, principals, teachers, superintendents, parents and certain advisors on state and local levels.

Full implementation of the plan is projected for the school year 1982-83 at which time the full compliment of professionals, 17, should be available to serve those children thorughout the county with learning disabilities.

Plans call for five classroom programs and 12 consultants to work with youngsters in their local school districts while the youngsters remain in their regular classroom programs.

Currently the State of Michigan Board of Education has adopted only interim guidelines to identify a learning disabled child. Estimates range from two percent to as high as 20 percent of the school population as having a possible learning disability of one kind or another.

The advent of the law which mandates that handicapped children be educated as much as possible in local educational environments supports the concept that learning disabled children be served primarily in regular classrooms with supportive help from consultants in this field.

12 Men Are Hard To Find

The Tecumseh Players need 12 singing males of various sizes, shapes and ages to complete casting of their fall musical, "Bells Are Ringing."

Director Richard Paul has scheduled a special audition Sept. 12, 7 p.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Final casting decisions are delayed due to lack of men. A few male roles have been cast.

Auditions are informal. Helen Bendes, music teacher well-known in the area, is the musical director. Persons who attended previous try-outs have been called back and will do some additional reading at the audition.

were a city business, the city ordinance says that any non-resident user must pay one and one-half times the resident rate.

Since personal property taxes continues to decline over time, if the city assessed the non-resident water rate, it would collect more than on personal property taxes, Zorn told Council. He said that he would be satisfied with this arrangement if it could be worked out.

Dear World

MY YOUNG SON starts to school today . . . It's going to be sort of strange and new to him for awhile, and I wish you would sort of treat him gently.

You see, up to now he's been king of the roost . . . He's been boss of the backyard . . . His mother has always been near to soothe his wounds and repair his feelings.

But now things are going to be different.

This morning he's going to walk down the front steps, wave his hand, and start out on the great adventure . . . It is an adventure that might take him across continents, across oceans . . . It's an adventure that will probably include wars and tragedy and sorrow . . . To live his life in the world he will have to live in, will require faith and love and courage.

So, World, I wish you would sort of look after him . . . Take him by the hand and teach him things he will have to know.

But do it gently, if you can.

He will have to learn, I know, that all men are not just, that all men are not true.

But teach him also that for every scoundrel there is a hero . . . that for every crooked politician there's a great and dedicated leader . . . Teach him that for every enemy, there is a friend.

Steer him away from envy, if you can . . . and teach him the secret of quiet laughter.

In school, World, teach him it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat . . . Teach him to have faith in his own idea, even if everyone says they are wrong . . . Teach him to be gentle with gentle people and tough with tough people.

Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone is getting on the bandwagon . . . Teach him to listen to all men — but teach him also to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and take just the good that siphons through.

Teach him, if you can, how to laugh when he's sad . . . Teach him there is no shame in tears . . . Teach him there can be glory in failure and despair in success.

Treat him gently, World, if you can, but don't coddle him . . . Because only the test of fire makes fine steel . . . Let him have the courage to be impatient . . . Let him have the patience to be brave.

Let him be no man's man . . . Teach him always to have sublime faith in himself.

Because then he will always have sublime faith in mankind.

This is quite an order, World, but see what you can do . . . He's such a nice little fellow, my son!

City Hears EMS Plan

Tecumseh City Manager Cal Zorn advised City Council Tuesday night that the city may have to contract with a private ambulance service by January 1, 1979, if the county accepts recommendations from a county task force on emergency medical services systems and ambulance coverage.

Zorn and District six County Commissioner Nancy Nichols of Tecumseh were Tecumseh's representatives on that task force. Goal was to come up with a plan of cooperation among local governments and financial assistance from the county to ensure quality ambulance service in the county.

Private companies have complained that uncollectable bills are forcing them out of business. They asked the county for subsidies to continue service.

The task force recommended that the county give each local unit of government that abides with set standards, a subsidy of $1 per capita. Financial assistance would becomes effective Jan. 1, 1979 for one year and be reviewed by the County Board of Commissioners.

Zorn told Council he did not know at the present time what the service contract with a private ambulance company would cost the city.

You Can Have Europe 2 Ways

Next summer, if you can't go to Europe, maybe a bit of Europe could come to you.

Robert and Betty Kline, 511 W. Chicago Blvd., had a similar experience a few years ago. They welcomed European teachers in their home on two occasions while living in Norwalk, Ohio. This year, on their own, the Kline family visited their European friend during a three week tour of Europe.

The Klines hosted the Europeans in the American Host Foundation program, 12747 Brookhurst St., Garden Gove, Calif. 92640.

It is a non-profit organization, founded by a teaching couple to provide firsthand knowledge for European teachers of what the United States is like within an American family environment.

The teachers are matched with interested families on the basis of a questionnaire. Hosts provide a private room and board. Teachers pay their traveling expenses and must speak English. Visit is limited to seven to 14 days during the summer months.

Through the American Host program, the Klines hosted a teacher, Jan VanWerde from Geldron, Netherlands and a couple from Sweden, Per and Catherina Svensson.

Their guests found America quite different from what they expected, unlike the turmoil or situation comedy television presents. The guests experienced small town parades and family tourist attractions in the greater Cleveland, Ohio-Detroit areas.

The Klines continued their personal contact with the teachers and when the opportunity arrived for the Tecumsehites to travel on their own, their European friends acted as hosts.

In Sweden, the Klines visited the summer palace, the ruins of old castles and windmills. They also watched on of Sweden's master glass blowers. The Svenssons hosted their American guests at the family's 18th century summer house in southeastern Sweden. Their hosts, Per, is a teacher and Catherina, an intern judge.

In France, the Klines spent one and a half weeks in Paris with Francoise and Alain Pauzie. He works in personnel at a nuclear reactor plant and is an artist. She is an English teacher. While in France, the Klines visited Albi in southeastern France, toured the wine making area, lived in a chateau with Louis the 14th furnishings, toured the Basilica of St. Cecile and the Toulouse-Lautrec museum. In northern France, they visited Mers Les Baines, the Sea Baths, a native resort area.

In southeastern Netherlands, the Klines spent three days with Jan VanWerde in Geldrop with his family. The modern science museum, Rembrandt's home, flea markets and a canal tour were highlights.

The Netherlands is one of the most densely populated European countries. A small home of 800 feet, where Jan's family was raised, cost approximately $150,000 in American dollars.

The trip "was like walking through history," remarked Mrs. Kline, Tecumseh Historical Society President. In some cases, the family toured homes built in the 16th Century and still lived in today.

For the Kline brothers, Dave, 10 and Mike, 8, the highlight was their European beer can collection. They found an old European coin in one of the cans. They also enjoyed eating snails in France. "They were very good about trying different things," commented their mother.

In German, the family found its German dictionary useless. They had to order from a handwritten menu. Two of the four dishes were raw fish. "We made the best of it," Mrs. Kline said with a smile.

Beware of Salesmen with Zip

Tecumseh Postmaster Bert G. Smith cautioned citizens to be wary of door-to-door sales of incomplete or out-of-date zip code or post office directories.

A zip code directory is of little use unless it contains zip code information for the 480 major cities which have more than one zip code.

Official directories, published by the postal service, is available from the Government Printing Office stores in 20 major cities and also sold by several publishers licensed by the postal service.

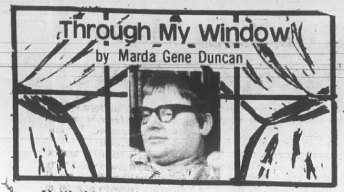
Through My Window

by Marda Gene Duncan



Until this summer I have always disagreed with one statement bird books make about chickadees. They say that these little black, white and gray birds are found in most areas year around.

There might be a seasonal shift, that is birds from the far north may move slightly south so that the wintering chickadees are not necessarily the same ones that nest in the area. But until this summer, we seldom saw chickadees during the hot weather months although friends did.

Fortunately all that has changed now. Since July, we have occasionally seen young chickadees. Several weekends ago, a twosome paid us a weekend visit. Such little characters! In the winter, a chickadee is plump, round-bodied bundle of soft feathers but the youngsters we saw were thin and scrawny.

Their heads were large and their breast feathers were a dirty gray. Even the facial markings were not good. one had a five o'clock shadow.

Their actions were childish, too. They had a bit of trouble picking up their food from the near-my-window feeders. Their coordination was just a bit off. It was, however, their voices that really gave them away. Shrill, high pitched squeaks.

One nice warm summer weekend the windows were open and one of the youngsters lit on the feeder. It was hard to believe that such ear-splitting noise could come from such a small bird.

Perhaps the funniest episode happened Sunday morning. The skinniest of the two was on the food tray squeaking his many troubles and difficulties loudly to the whole world. He seemed to be in a bit of a temper and his feathers, rough and ragged, were a far cry from the soft but always neat adult plumage. Although it was still August, the walnut tree was losing some of its leaves. Suddenly one of the yellow walnut leaves drifted down and lit next to the young chickadee. One almost died of fright. He jumped and quit hollering right in the middle of a scream. A terrifying experience.

There are still many unanswered questions about our young chickadees. Questions such as where were they raised and where was the rest of their family. These are gregarious birds who, except during the family rearing period, travel in flocks. They enjoy the company of their own kind but freely associate with other small birds.

In the late spring the chickadees pair up, leave the flock and seek nesting sites. There is some indication that once mated, a pair may stay together for life. A nice thought.

Chickadees are cavity nesters who either use an abandoned woodpecker's nest or find a dead stump or branch of a tree and excavate their own hole. Both male and female work hard at the 'digging out' but she has the sole responsibility for building the nest.

Excavation may take as much as 10 days, the construction of the nest about four. A normal clutch of eggs numbers six to eight, the female does the incubating but, once the eggs hatch, both parents share the hard work of feeding the always hungry youngsters. The kids stay in the nest almost 17 days and the family group stays together from three to four weeks after this.

Thus we had legitimate reasons for wondering where the rest of our chickadee family was. They certainly had not been on their own for long.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Canning and freezing fresh produce is a popular way to try to beat the rising cost of food and to stretch the food dollar. Here are two more recipes to add to your growing list of preserved foods.

This relish recipe from Lois Francoeur is both easy and good.

RELISH

7 large cucumbers
3 onions
1 red pepper
1 green pepper
3 cups white sugar
3 cups vinegar
1/4 cup salt
3/4 cup teaspoon ginger
3/4 teaspoon tumeric

Don't peel cucumbers but take seeds out of large ones and discard. Grind cucumbers, peppers and onions in food chopper. Place in bowl and add 1/4 cup salt. Let stand overnight. Next day drain well and add sugar, vinegar, ginger and tumeric. Boil about 5 minutes. Pour in hot sterilized jars and seal. Process 10 minutes.

Cornstarch added to this catsup recipe from Bonnie Green makes it a time saving shortcut.

CATSUP

2 gallon tomato juice
8 tablespoons salt
2 onion shredded
20 drops cinnamon oil
20 drops clove oil
3 cups vinegar
8 cups sugar
6 tablespoon cornstarch

Put tomatoes in blender and strain to get seeds out. Prepare enough to make 20 gallons tomato juice. Place in large canner or stewing pan and add everything but the sugar and cornstarch. Boil down about 1/3 and add sugar and cornstarch. Place in sterilized jars, adjust caps and process 5 minutes.

Hope to hear from you. Call 423-4848 with your favorite recipes.

Nguyen Minh Family Settles in Missouri

BRITTON — The Nguyen Thi Minh family, sponsored in Aug. 1975 by the Emmanuel Lutheran Church on Ridge Rd., have resettled in North Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Nguyen's family lives here. In two years, they hope to purchase a home in the Kansas City area. Pastor and Kathy Trapp and Matthew and JoAnna were visitors this summer.

Nguyen Thi Minh came to the United States with his wife, Kim Son, eight months pregnant at the time, and their three children, Quang, Diep and Giao.

The members of Emmanuel Lutheran Church found a home to rent on Smith Road and furnished it from their own homes. They also painted the home for the Nguyen family. One of the church members co-signed so that they could buy a car. The economy was difficult at the time, and no work was available.

Their second son had been born in late August (John Michael) and Minh desperately wanted to work. The family relocated the next spring in North Kansas City, Mo. where Kim Son's parents lived.

Minh had been a college professor and had also operated a printing shop with his father-in-law, a shop in which many government publications were printed.

In Kansas City, Minh first worked for the Orkin Pest Control Company and now works for TWA preparing meals for the airline. He hopes to soon bid into a mechanic's job with the airline.

Kim Son now works as a dental assistant and the older three children are in school. Minh has been able to quickly become a productive citizen,

Probe Problems

At a recent public meeting, Lenawee residents identified such items as lack of land use planning, loss of good cropland to other uses, soil erosion and water pollution from urban and agricultural sources as major natural resource problems for Lenawee County.

The Lenawee Soil Conservation District and the U. S. Soil Conservation Service is compiling public opinion on how county soil, water and related natural resources should be used. These opinions are being gathered from public meetings and a questionnaire that was sent to many county residents.

If you were one of the people randomly chosen, take the time to fill out the questionnaire and return it to the Soil Conservation District office by Aug. 20.

Board Ratifies 3-Year Contract

BRITTON — After more than a year of negotiations the Britton-Macon Board of Education has ratified a three-year non-economic agreement with the Britton-Macon Education Association.

Contract covers non-economic issues for last year and the next two years. Economics issues covered by the contract, such as wages, fringe benefits and insurance, will be in effect for the coming school year, said Superintendent William Saxton, and will be retroactive covering last year. This means economic issues will have to be renegotiated next year.

Last year the teachers worked without a contract. The board had to go through mediation and fact finding stages before a final agreement could be reached. Discussion of salaries was the main reason for the delay in reaching an agreement between the Board of Education and the teachers.

Tecumseh Public Library Books

SEARS, ROEBUCK, U.S.A. is a history and guide to how the "second-largest corporate donor to worthy causes" does its work. Gordon Weil tells about the founders Richard Sears (a watch salesman), Alvah Roebeck (a watch repairman), Julius Rosenwald (the mail-order man), Robert Wood (the retailer), and the countless others who developed the biggest retail business in America.

EYES, ETC., began as a private document on the author's self-examination, expanded to be a "book of anger at the deceits, crimes, and distortions of our rampaging age, filled with a tough irony, a haunting lyricism of praise." Eleanor Clark's drastic impairment of eyesight, a condition known as macular degeneration, prompted her to write these memoirs while reflecting on life today and mortality. Ideas and events from Homer's ILIAD and ODYSSEY are found throughout this "hardheaded" book.

Bernard Rudofsky's THE PRODIGIOUS BUILDERS explores the dwellings, fortifications, monuments, and tombs of man, attempting to develop a natural history of architecture. His special emphasis is on those who are "traditionally neglected or downright ignored." Over 100 photos illustrate his discussions of such unusual constructions as China's floating villages, the African Dogon's "Big House," and a Polish salt mine large enoughto be a self-contained town-complete with a railway.

THE PANAMA CANAL - THE CRISIS IN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE gives background of the canal from the 19th century to the argument over the treaty in 1977. Walter LaFeber uses interviews and newly-opened State Department documents for much of his narrative. He shows how nationalism has been growing since the 1800's and how the United States has manipulated Panama for its own advantage for many years.

The Shadow of the Hawk is collection of stories written by the 12th century poet Marie de France, told by James Reeves. Many of the legends are about courtly love and adventure.

Suggested by the actual wreck of an American ship in 1866, THE CURSE OF THE MOONRAKER is a story of survival on a deserted island between Australia and Cape Horn. Of the 83 passengers, only eight men, one woman, and a cabin boy survived. Eth Clifford has written an excellent book about group relationships.

40 MILLION SCHOOLBOOKS CAN'T BE WRONG is the title of a book by L. Ethan Ellis that exposes many myths of American history. He shows how myths get started through exaggeration, patriotism, and prejudice. Several historical cartoons and pictures are shown.

262 how-to-drawings and precise directions show readers how to make pants fit correctly. Barbara Corrigan, lifelong sewer and professional dressmaker, begins with the basics of choosing material and taking measurements. She builds on this information with directions for making elastic-waist pants, dress pants, work and party jeans, shorts, jumpsuits, and more! HOW TO MAKE PANTS AND JEANS THAT REALLY FIT also tells how to alter and remodel old pants.

MARS, THE RED PLANET, by Isaac Asimov details the history of this mysterious red planet from the first sightings to the discoveries by Vickings 1 and 2. Asimov describes how the motion of Mars established the nature of our solar systems. Photos and tables and predictions are included.

"Brainwashing"- is it good or bad? What is it in the first place? Margaret O. Hyde explores this expanding field of science in BRAINWASHING AND OTHER FORMS OF MIND CONTROL. She examines the methods, motives, and results. The various forms include behavior modification, biofeedback, hypnosis, meditation, and other altered states of consciousness. Mind control is useful in weight reduction, alcoholism, phobia treatment, and changing basic behaviors.

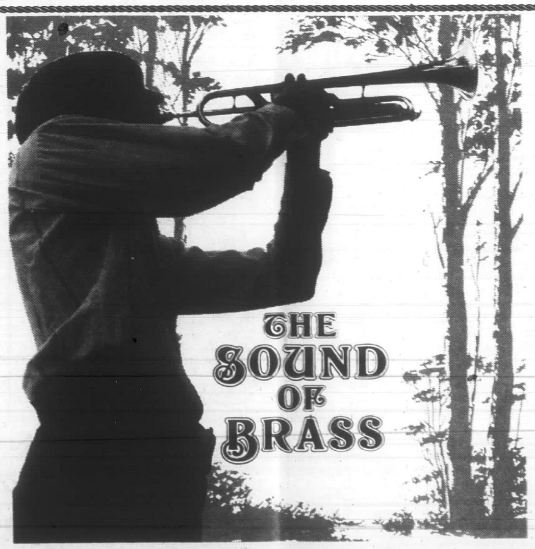
Tecumseh Big Boy



On a summer Sunday morning . . . at a boys' camp . . . a silhouette of the call to worship.

Interesting that man has used the percussion instruments to express the tempo of his excitement—and strings to translate his deepest emotions into melody. But generally he has chosen the brasses to sound his call to action.

Worship is action! It is our reaching out toward God. Through centuries it has united men in their quest for truth. It has been the clarion of consecration, courage, commitment. It has inspired love and sacrifice, hope and resolve.

Make worship part of your life. Its trumpets call you to new adventures in the discovery of Truth . . . the journey to a lasting Joy.

Three Top Runners Return, Coach Croft Eyes Good Year

Tecumseh's Cross Country coach is happy. Bill Croft has three of THS's top runners back from last year to form the nucleus of the 1978 team.

Brian Banda, Jesse Castorena and Kirk Oliver will be that nucleus, with each of the runners being in the top part of Tecumseh's best five last year.

All ran the three mile course at the Tecumseh Country Club in the high 15 minute bracket.

A fourth returning member of last year's squad is sophomore Scott Betzoldt. He ran in the number four or five spot last year and will probably run the same this year.

Croft has also had a surprisingly good first year runner in Lenny Castorena, Jesse's brother. He has been doing a lot of running and is reportedly looking good.

Others back from last year's squad or those that could easily help are: Kent Norris, Chris Sullivan, Russ Parish, John Prettyman, Joe Ruggirello and D.J. Biscupski.

New folks include: Fred German, who is running good, Ben Binder, John Beardsley, Skip Johnstone and freshmen Wendel West, Patrick Root, Joe Craig, and Jeff Barnes.

With such a strong nucleus and promising new runners, Croft plans to finish as well as last year, or better. They were second in 1977.

This year, the coach explains that Airport and Monroe CC will probably be the teams to beat.

Girls are going to make this year in cross country very interesting. Last year they ran with the boys, but this year they have their own team.

Leslie Oliver, Monica Mumme and Kathy Craig are back from last year. They are joined by a large group of newcomers that could make the team very strong either later in the year or next year.

They include: Lillian Eby, Julie Burkhard, Anne Smoke, Pam Meeks, Beth Comfort, and Beth Barrow.

The girls are young. They must be with 1978 being the first year of the team. Still, they're eager and hard working and will make a good showing this year and in the future.

Punt, Pass, Kick

Annual Punt, Pass, and Kick competition is coming to Tecumseh for area children Sept. 30.

Registration and information is available for the competition at Underwood Ford, Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

Registration can be taken up until the 29th for the competition at the THS athletic field.

3 Seniors Lead Clinton's Runners

The Clinton Cross Country team opens its season Sept. 7, at home against Flat Rock, Vandercook and Sand Creek.

Coach Ozzie Hashley welcomes back five lettermen from last year's team which won six and lost two. They finished 10th in the state, and won the Dundee, Manchester, Hillsdale, and Hudson Invitationals.

Hashley is quick to point out that although the Redskins return five lettermen, the team lost three of its top five runners from a year ago via graduation.

Leading the team will be a trio of senior lettermen, including all-LCAA runner Matt Peters, along with Mark Pritchard and Devin Schindler.

Also looking impressive in the early season workouts is junior letterman Tom Nighwander. The other letterman is sophomore Matt McNeil. Junior Gary Houghton is also returning from last year's team.

Newcomers to the team are freshmen Wes Fuller and Ken Caligiuri. Fuller was league Jr. High champ in the half mile run last spring.

Hashley figures Onsted to be the team to beat but hopes with luck and no injuries to have the Redskins in the thick of the LCAA title class.

Home meets begin at 5 p.m. at Rolling Meadows Golf Course located halfway between Clinton and Saline on US-12.

'Chip, Putt'

The Michigan Elk's Assoc., through Lodge No. 429 in Adrian, is sponsoring a Lenawee area "Chip and Putt" contest Sept. 16 at the Centerview Golf Course.

Competition is divided into three age groups: 12-13, 14-15, and 16-17 year olds. Any boy or girl in the age brackets may enter. There is no entry fee.

For more information contact the Elks contest chairman, Dave Snyder, after 6 p.m. at 265-8638.

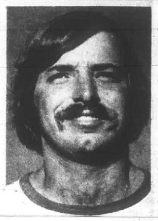
Football 'Opens' Set for Friday

PAT CONNORS



DON EATON

Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon open their season this Friday and each team opens at home. Game times are 7:30 for THS and B-MHS, but Clinton's game is set for 8 p.m.

Tecumseh will meet a tough and experienced Chelsea team, while going into the game with only three of last year's starters.

Still, Tecumseh is going to "hustle." And as Coach Connors said, they may be looking at third place in the league on paper, but he has enough young talent to surprise even the best teams.

The big question in Tecumseh is; has the team come far enough along to win against the best? The best answer comes from the coach; the team "will concede nothing!"

Clinton goes into their opening match against Adrian Madison, but they are much more experienced than Tecumseh. Coach Don Eaton and Clinton are looking at a possible league championship.

Key games for CHS this year are Hudson, Addison and even their rivals, Morenci. While Morenci does not promise to be especially tough, rivalry between the two teams is fierce.

Britton is also eyeing the championship this year and is as fortunate as Clinton. The two teams have experienced backfields.

Coach Randy Salisbury's team opens against Northwood and a win Friday could sent Britton on its way to its third league title in five years.

Still, before they can achieve that title, they have a couple tough opponents in Sand Creek and Summerfield. Even Deerfield could upset a couple of the best teams in the league.

Lease Is on Agenda

Tecumseh City Council altered its agenda for Sept. 18 and invited Sam Beal, owner of Tecumseh Ace Hardware, to discuss his lease to the city for the municipal auto parking system.

A presentation on the problems and solutions of dying lakes and streams will be postponed until the Oct. 2 meeting.

Beal told council he wanted an opportunity to discuss the negotiations with the city. He felt recent publicity was not favorable.

Beal's property in the northeast business block parking lot is shown in the city's plans for parking lot landscaping and improving.

Guilty Pleas Are Rejected

Guilty pleas of two Tecumseh men were rejected by Judge Rex Martin Tuesday during their arraignments in circuit court on robbery charges in two separate incidents.

The court rejected the guilty plea of Jobie G. Ruple, 19, of Tecumseh, on the charge of armed robbery at the Village Market, Palmyra, Aug. 26.

Trial date is Oct. 19, at 9:30 a.m. in circuit court.

However, the court accepted the guilty plea of Ricky Spiegel, 17, of Blissfield, on charges of armed robbery in the same incident. Spiegel was remanded to custody of the Lenawee County sheriff, pending sentencing.

Spiegel was also arraigned Tuesday on a second charge of assault with intent to rob while armed at Lytton's Shell, Manitou Beach, Aug. 29. Spiegel stood mute. The court entered a not guilty plea and set trial for Nov. 14 in circuit court.

Also in that Aug. 29 incident, Terry Stoddard, 17, of Tecumseh, was bound over on a charge of attempted armed robbery. Maximum penalty is five years.

The court rejected Stoddard's guilty plea and the matter is being held in abeyance, pending the outcome of an appeal by the prosecution.

Stoddard was originally charged with assault with intent to rob while armed. Maximum penalty is life.

Bank Hires New Officer

Mrs. Nancy Fraley of Macon has been appointed assistant cashier of United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

She had been employed for 14 years by National Bank and Trust Co. of Ann Arbor.

"We are fortunate to be able to employ Nancy at a time when we are expanding our branch system and building a main office," Merlyn Downing, bank president, stated.

While with the Ann Arbor financial institution, Mrs. Fraley held a number of positions, including bookkeeping supervisor, installment loan officer and branch manager.

The bank's new employee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis of Macon, is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and has studied banking at the American Institute of Banking plus classes at Washtenaw Community College.

Her husband, Ralph, is an assistant chief inspector at Tecumseh Products.

NANCY FRALEY

DESERVED VICTORY — Tecumseh opened the football season here last Friday night when a veteran Chelsea team was expected to push the Indians around. As it turned out, the Indians pushed the bigger Chelsea team around but still lost the opener, 7-6. John Ely, top ground gainer with 88 yards - just three less than the entire Chelsea rushing total - takes a handoff here from quarterback Jon Betzoldt. Tecumseh could open the Huron League title chase here Friday night with a win over New Boston Huron. Game time is 7:30.

Firemen Opening Doors to Public

The Tecumseh Firemen's Association will have an open house Sunday, Sept. 24 beginning at 1 p.m. in the city parking lot behind the city fire barn on S. Evans St.

The three hour program is planned for Tecumseh residents to drop in anytime during the activities to witness firemen rehearse rescue maneuvers with fire equipment.

Extraction of accident victims will be demonstrated with the jaws of life, which are used to pry open car doors after a crash. Equipment used in roof fires, including the department six-man ladder and cherry picker will be put into service. Air masks, purchased through firemen's association fund raising activities, will be demonstrated.

The "Slide for Life" safety belt, used in fighting roof fires, will be used. Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation will be demonstrated. Blood pressure check will be offered. Statistics on pumping capacity of fire trucks will be posted. New and antique nozzles will be available for inspection.

Firemen want to demonstrate the equipment available to them in dealing with fires, how it works and why the firemen use the methods they employ.

"We want the people to have a better understanding of the different things we do," said Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge. "What we will be doing (at the open house) will be similar to a practice session. We continue to improve and become more efficient as a department through these drills. We want to stress the use of smoke detectors in the home and make people more fire conscious, more safety conscious and prevent as many fires as we can."

Firemen's wives will serve cookies and coffee. Decals for children's and invalids rooms will be available.

The department consists of 18 firemen, including three full-time city employes. Two men are currently serving as auxiliary firemen. Anyone interested in joining the department will have an opportunity to find out more about it.

The demonstrations precedes National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 8-14, which will be climaxed in Tecumseh by the annual Firemen's Ball. The department is taking advantage of the fair weather to have outdoor open house, Sept. 24.

Two Students Semifinalists

Two Tecumseh High School students, William S. Brooks and Andrew C. Neilson, have been named semifinalists in the 24th annual merit program. William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brooks of 807 Outer Drive; Andrew is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Neilson of 506 Seminole.

These academic achiever students will have an opportunity to continue in the competition for about 4,100

17 Complaints on Report

Tecumseh police were busy the past week, handling 17 complaints that ranged from vandalism, dog bites to alcohol-related arrests.

Officers are still investigating vandalism that occurred last Thursday afternoon at Tecumseh High School. Roger Young, teacher, reported his car damaged while parked in the teachers' parking lot.

Young's 1977 automobile sustained a broken windshield - chunk of concrete was left sticking through the glass - and four headlights were smashed. Damages are over $243.

A 17-year-old student has been questioned by police in connection with the vandalism.

BOARD, TEACHERS AT IMPASSE

Mediation Scheduled in Contract Dispute

Tecumseh schools and Tecumseh Education Association are scheduled for mediation on Friday, Sept. 22, in an effort to reach a new contract for the teachers.

Mediation was requested by the TEA. A state mediator will meet with TEA officials and Supt. Robert Duhan and Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, who have been negotiating for the School Board.

An impasse has developed on items still on the bargaining table. According to last week's news release from the TEA, these items include class size, split classes, mainstreaming, length of day and salaries.

Duhan and Cooley met with the TEA negotiating team for approximately two hours Tuesday night, and "little if any" progress was made, Cooley reported. Prior to this meeting, Duhan and Cooley met with the entire School Board last Thursday night to discuss labor relations.

State mediator could, or possibly not, make recommendations to both parties for settlement. Mediation is not binding on either the TEA or School Board.

If agreement is not reached through the mediator, next step could be fact finding, a detailed analysis of the situation. Fact finding, however, is also not binding.

TEA represents 158 teachers in the system with the teachers now working without a contract on a day-to-day basis.

School Board still has a contract with the bus drivers to work out, but progress is being made. Next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 20th.

$15,000 Damages in House Fire

The David Brock home, 415 W. Logan St., sustained $15,000 damage in a fire early Sunday. No one was at home at the time.

The fire broke out around 12:25 a.m. Tecumseh Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge said the cause of the fire may have been faulty electric wiring. Fire started in the floor joist between the first and second floor of the wooden frame home. It damaged the second floor and attic of the building.

Sixteen Tecumseh firefighters were on the scene throughout the night. The blaze was under control after 90 minutes, but men had to stay at the home until about 6 a.m. due to smoldering insulation.

Structural damage was estimated at $10,000 and $5,000 damage to the contents. Smoke and water damaged some antiques. Couple had reportedly completed some restoration of the house. Neighbors reported seeing smoke from the home and contacted the fire department.

Firemen were called again Monday afternoon when sewer gas was leaking out of the pipes, but there was no rekindling of the fire.

Student Count: 3,598

Enrollment in the Tecumseh schools, taken Tuesday, was 3,598 or about the number projected by school officials for state aid purposes. Official enrollment will be taken on the last Friday of this month.

Officials had projected an enrollment of 3,625, or 27 more than Tuesday's count. Adult ed students, however, have not been counted, and they're expected to push the total enrollment well over 3,600.

Kindergarten through sixth grade enrollment is up by 30 pupils, but junior high enrollment is down 48 students. High school count is the same as last year.

Figures released by Supt. Robert Duhan are:

Elementary		Junior High
Kindergarten	243	7th Grade	245
1st Grade	251	8th Grade	282
2nd Grade	315	High School
4th Grade	271	9th Grade	314
5th Grade	234	10th Grade	293
6th Grade	249	11th Grade	301
		12th Grade	241

Breakdown is 1,848 in the elementary, 527 at junior high, and 1,149 at the high school, plus 74 special education students.

Rain Snaps 'Wave'

"That's what I like about Michigan. When it decides to change season, it really changes seasons," said Ken Hamblin Wednesday morning about the fall-like dreariness.

Monday and Tuesday's rain extinguished the 90 degree thirsts nurtured by last week's unseasonable 90 degree plus temperatures.

Folks extolled the "lovely" weather Tuesday, when the rain brought relief to shriveled gardens and crop fields, already parched from the long dry spell.

Almost an inch of rain fell Monday and a half an inch Tuesday. It was the first significant measurement at the city's water plant since Aug. 15 when the city recorded 1.05 inches of rain.

Aug. 27, Tecumseh had a measurable one-tenth of rain for those of you who noticed.

Prior to the Aug. 15 inch of rain, 3.39 inches of rain dumped on the city in one day, Aug. 7. Total rainfall since Aug. 7 is 5.11 inches.

Two Hearings before Council

Tecumseh City Council will have two public hearings at Monday night's meeting, Council meeting itself begins at 7:30 p.m. at city hall.

The first public hearing at 8 p.m. is to hear comments on reducing real estate and personal property taxes 50 percent for 12 years for an Ann Arbor company that wants to relocate in Tecumseh.

The proposed tax break for Jebco Manufacturing Company, an automotive parts manufacturing business, is possible through implementing Michigan Public Act 198.

Jebco has selected 610 S. Maumee St., former home of Standard Steel, for its relocation and expansion. Company's plans call for expansion that will total 18,000 sq. ft., tripling the size of the S. Maumee building.

All taxing governments must approve of the break for the company before it can be effected. There is no reimbursement from the state for the reduced taxes.

Council indicated at a previous meeting that there may be some questions from existing Tecumseh industries on this procedure.

The second public hearing at 8:30 p.m. will enable public comment on financing the new United Savings Bank main office through the Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation.

The new bank is planned for the site commonly called the Vescio property on East Chicago Blvd.

The LCEDC is capable, under Michigan Public Act 338, to assemble and develop parcels of property on behalf of industrial and commercial enterprises.

Advantages of this financing are a lower interest rate and longer payback period for the business.

"We could easily finance the new building by another method, but why do that when we can obtain funds with a better interest rate through sources that are available to us," said Ken McElroy, U.S.B. board chairman.

Tecumseh City Council is not involved in the loan, but is holding the public hearing to comply with certain provisions in the public act. A complicated series of public hearings and meetings will continue at county and city levels until the procedure is completed.

Residents in the proposed bank development block were concerned that the bank was going to buy their property. This is not the case. The bank already owns property it plans to build on.

Assistant City Manager Paul Preston said that he personally talked to residents on the block and answered their questions.

6 in Council Race

A race for four council seats is shaping up for the November election as five candidates are circulating petitions for nomination. A sixth petition has already been completed and filed with Tecumseh City Clerk Vera Gardner.

Newcomer Roy Hella, 1002 Sunset, has returned his candidate's petition. Another newcomer John J. Kish, 406 Seminole, was still circulating his petition Tuesday afternoon.

Carlton Cook, 140 W. Brown, requested his nominating petition this past week and joined incumbents James H. Palmer, 1102 Shady Lane, Jay Tressler, 311 W. Chicago Blvd. and Mary Bowers, 603 Red Mill Dr. in seeking nomination and a chance at being re-elected.

Thirty-five valid signatures of Tecumseh city voters must be collected by each prospective candidate. The petitions are still available at city hall and must be received by Clerk Gardner by the 5 p.m. deadline Sept. 18.

How can I make known My funeral preferences?

Usually your preferences can best be made known by your pre-planning some or all of the funeral services with a funeral director.

If you feel reluctant to give "instructions" to your family, you might make a list of preferences and suggestions covering your wishes. We have simple forms which will help guide you as you fill them out.

After completing the forms which entail no obligation on your part, then advise your family about your preferences and where you will keep the Pre-Plan Form.

We find people have a greater ease of mind once this is done, just as after filing a will or setting up an insurance program. It takes a load off the family later on and it makes sure your preferences will be respected.

There are many choices and options in pre-planning. You would be well-advised to discuss them with your funeral director. We will be glad to explain your options in detail. To help you reach an informed decision, we can also give you some reading material for your study. Stop by or phone for your free copy.

Pair Wins Academic Honor

merit scholarships to be awarded in th spring of 1979.

Semifinalists, the highest-scoring students in each state, are named from over 1 million students enrolled in 18,000 high schools who entered the 1979 Merit Program by taking the 1977 Preliminary Scholarship Aptitude Test—National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT—NMSQT).

The number of semifinalists named in each state is proportional to that state's percentage of the nation's total graduating senior class. Semifinalists, most of whom will complete high school and enter college in 1979, represent the top half of one percent of their state's graduating seniors.

To be considered for Merit Scholarships, semifinalists must advance to finalist standing by meeting further requirements. These requirements include being fully endorsed and recommended for scholarships by their secondary school principals, presenting school records that confirm high academic standing, and substantiating their high qualifying test scores with equivalent scores on a second examination.

Over 90 percent of the semifinalists are expected to qualify as finalists and to receive certificates of merit next February. All winners of merit scholarships will be chosen fvom the highly able group of finalist.

All semifinalists who attain finalist status will compete on a state-by-state basis for at least 1,000 National Merit $1,000 scholarships. The National Merit $1,000 scholarships are one-time nonrenewable awards supported by grants to NMSC from business and industrial organizations. A selection committee of professionals in college admissions and counseling is convened annually to select the 1,000 winners.

Finalists who meet the preferential criteria designated by grantors will also be considered for about 3,100 four-year merit scholarships to be offered in 1979. About 1,400 of these awards will be supported by grants to the merit program from corporations, foundations, unions, and professional associations; some 1,700 four-year merit scholarships will be underwritten by U.S. colleges and universities.

Through My Window
by Marda Gene Duncan

When one reads various books and articles one accumulates facts and figures which somehow do not work themselves into articles but are, nevertheless, too good not to share. Thus this week we have a column of hodge-podge.

While researching the article about chickadees, I found these dear little birds every bit as nice as I always thought they were. Although the male does not help his mate during the 11 to 13 days of incubation — and really, how boring it must be to be stuck in a dreary hole in a tree for that long — he is attentive and faithfully feeds her during this time.

She lays one egg per day and starts incubating only when the whole clutch is laid. She spends her nights in the nest cavity while he roosts nearby.

Neat birds. It was interesting to learn that much of their behavior complements their appearance. They are not about to live amidst clutter. As they excavate the nest cavity the wood chips are carried away and scattered some distance from the tree.

Actually this is a safety precaution. Many woodpeckers let the chips lay where they fall and thereby advertis where their nest is.

And finally, chickadee nestlings are cold blooded when they hatch out of the eggs. On the fourth day, they begin to develop temperature control but it is not until they are 12 days old that they become warm blooded.

Most land birds follow the same time schedule. Water birds, fowl and some ground nesters are another story. Many of these birds are fully developed and able to navigate soon after hatching.

A magazine about the San Diego Zoo says the California zoo has over 25,000 specimens of plants and 30,000 specimens of birds, reptiles and mammals on its 100 acres. Even non-zoo buffs fortunate to visit the park rave about it. It is ranked just barely about the Detroit Zoo. Both are world renowned.

Any lengthy article about animals is usually filled with statistics, some of them astounding. For example, at birth a baby hippopotamus will weigh 50 to 90 pounds. When grown, that same baby can weigh as much as 5,000 pounds. And how would you like to pick up the meal tab for an elephant? A hungry one will eat 600 pounds of greenery a day. If pressed an elephant can obtain a top speed of 20 miles per hour but their usual ambling gait averages about six m.p.h.

I have often commented on the rather contradictory remarks made in some bird books but mammal guides are in the same league. There are two rhinoceroses in Africa, the white and the black.

However, the black rhino is not black at all, it is a dirty brownish gray, and the white rhino is a pale gray in color.

The word white is a corruption of the Afrikaan's word "wyd" which means other places too, a white rhino can weigh over 6,000 pounds and will stand six feet tall at the shoulders.

And I can't seem to keep away from chickadees. One just lit on the near-my-window feeder and is loudly telling off the world. Don't know what the trouble is but he is certainly complaining. Sounds like a whole gang of birds instead of just one. So much noise from such a little bird.

Looking at him I can not help but notice what a small and sharply pointed bill this bird has. It would seem almost impossible for him to imitate a woodpecker and chisel out a nest hole in a tree.

I was glad to read that these birds are not foolishly proud. They often will use an old woodpecker's nest or sometimes take over a partially excavated cavity. They are smart enough to let the woodpeckers chisel through the tough outer layers. How clever of them!

Fosbender, MacGeorge Only Returning Starters

The 1978 Tecumseh girls basketball team and coach Diane Nelson are going into Saturday's opening game at Clinton with a lot of questions on their minds.

The team has lost seven seniors to graduation. Three were regular starters and the fourth often started. And with the loss of the three, the majority of the team's height and a lot of experience is gone.

Grace Burns, Debbie Steadley, and Robin Isom, were the graduating tall girls. Janice Jahner was the fourth and while she didn't have the height, she had the shooting arm.

Returning starters are Gloria Fosbender and Sandy MacGeorge. Both are beginning their third year on the varsity squad and will form the base of the team.

Fosbender, 5'4", will start at a guard position while 5'8" MacGeorge will be playing forward, a new position for her.

Chris McDonald, a sophomore, is a surprise for coach Helms and will be starting at center Saturday. The 5'8" girl played on the JV squad last year.

Kathy and Kelly Krueger will round out the squad. Both are 5'5" and will be playing guard positions.

Besides the lack of experience and height, the girls also found they had a few other weaknesses Friday when they scrimmaged Saline.

They had trouble putting points on the board and missed easy buckets. Their rebounding also needed work.

But much of that can be attributed to inexperience, changed positions, and lack of height. After the first six or so games in the season, who knows how good the girls will become and how far they will go?

But right now, coach Nelson just does not know how good her girls are going to be.

What she does know, is that her girls are quick and they hustle. That was apparent at the scrimmage where they had a lot of fast breaks and stole the ball a lot.

It is a rebuilding year, no doubt, but rebuilding teams definitely can be winners. Time will tell.

Opening game Saturday starts with the JV's at 5:30, at Clinton.

Julie Murphy Is Featured

Julie Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Murphy, 744 S. Union, was featured recently for her athletic ability by sports writer Jim Haynes of the EMU student paper.

Murphy, a senior at Eastern, graduated from Tecumseh as "Athlete of the Year". She played track, softball, basketball, tennis and volleyball. During her senior year she led her basketball team to the state championship.

At Eastern Murphy played basketball for two years before suffering an ankle injury that has forced her to "limit" her athletic activities to volleyball in the fall and softball during the summer.

As a shortstop for DAPCO, a team on Ann Arbor's Upper Major League Divison Softball League, she has led her team to the ASA State Championship.

After her graduation, Murphy plans to teach at the high school level. "I'd like to coach volleyball or softball," Murphy said, "although opportunities for basketball positions are becoming more and more available."

Julie's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. Pat Murphy, 606 N. Union.

Cross Country Team Posts 2-1 Record, Tecumseh Girls Are 1-1

Tecumseh's cross country teams opened their season Thursday against Saline in a non-league match.

THS boys captured three of the first four places and held on to win 25-31.

Jesse Castorena took first for Tecumseh with a time of 16:06. Brian Banda was second at 16:12, D.J. Biscupski, fourth at 16:34.

Other place finishes for Tecumseh went to Scott Betzoldt, who crossed the finish line in seventh place. Lenny Castorena was eleventh.

The girls lost their match against Saline 20-39. Anne Smoke did finish first for the girls with a time of 23:12. The rest of the girls finished 7-8-9 and 10th.

In a duel meet against Lumen Christi and Chelsea at Jackson Tuesday, Tecumseh beat Chelsea 19-38, but lost to Christi 25-31. Christi is rated third in the state.

Jesse Castorena finished second overall with a time of 16:20, just three seconds off the course record.

Banda finished fifth at 16:59, Biscupski sixth at 17:03, Betzoldt eighth at 17:19. Tecumseh's fifth finisher was Lenny Castorena.

The split decisions put the boys' record 2-1.

At home on Tuesday, the girls beat Jackson West 25-31, Leslie Oliver finished first at 22:24 while Pam Meeks finished fourth at 23:04. Both girls did not run against Saline.

Anne Smoke finished second at 22:24. Monica Mumme sixth at 23:49 and Julie Burkhard was 12th. Burkhard shaved a full five minutes off her last run.

The girls' record now stands at 1-1. All records for cross country are non-league

Depth Helps Clinton to 2 Wins

Clinton Cross Country used good depth to beat two teams in the opening meet Thursday at Rolling Meadows Golf Course.

The Redskins beat Vandercook 20-39 and Flat Rock 21-37. A Flat Rock runner finished first, a Vandercook runner was second. But then Clinton captured the next four spots and six of the next seven.

After the top two finishers, Matt Peters led Clinton with a third place in 16:18. Tom Nighswander was fourth in 16:47, Mark Prichard and Devin Schindler shared the fifth spot.

Freshman Wes Fuller was eighth, Matt McNeil ninth, and freshman Ken Caliguiri nineteenth.

Clinton had four runners in front of Flat Rock's second finisher and six runners in front of Vandercook's second finisher.

Clinton begins LCAA action next Thursday at Addison.

Footballers Lose Close Match, but Team Outplays Chelsea Squad

by Kent Downing

Tecumseh was supposed to be too young and unexperienced to hold their own against the Chelsea squad Friday night. They weren't.

The final score did leave Chelsea on top by one point, 7-6. But believe it, Tecumseh could have won and for the most part, their new talent played like veterans.

Tecumsh's offense, in fact, played much more of the game than the defense from the time of the opening kickoff. That's a credit for Tecumseh for moving the ball and stopping the Chelsea team.

After the kickoff, Tecumseh took the ball down field 12 yards and then was forced to punt. The ball then exchanged hands three times until Tecumseh got a second first down, again behind the running of John Ely.

Tecumseh's quarterback Jon Betzoldt then gave Ely a quick pitch and Ely carried 18 yards for a first down.

Tecumseh then punted as Betzoldt was dragged down behind the line and the team could not recover the loss.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Chelsea showed their first sign of life with three consecutive first downs. The 55 yards series was spoiled on Tecumseh's 15 when Randy Russell jumped on a Chelsea fumble.

Tecumseh's offense moved again with a 18 yard pass to end Scott Schafer. Tecumseh was then forced to punt but Chelsea returned the ball in four short plays.

Tecumseh countered with two more first downs, with the ball resting on the Chelsea 35, and 46 seconds left before half, Tecumseh passed a ball short that Chelsea intercepted.

Alan Augustine carried the interception in all the way for six points. Extra point conversion made it 7-0.

With a quick exchange of ball handling, Chelsea then ran the clock out at half. But in the series, Tecumseh's offense again showed determination as Ely first bobbled the kick and then returned it to the Tecumseh 44. Ely ran the next play to the 50 before the third play was intercepted.

Chelsea made its second and last offensive move at the beginning of the third quarter on three long first downs that took them to the Tecumseh 15.

Borton then picked off a Chelsea pass in the enzone and Tecumseh gained possession of the ball on their 20.

Tecumseh punted four plays later and Tecumseh's Chris Smith then dropped the Chelsea quarterback behind their line and forced Chelsea to punt.

Ely took the punt on a reverse and lost control of the ball on their own 10 yard line. Randy Halvin was on top of the play and fell on the ball for the Indians.

Ely ran the next two plays out to the 32 and then Steve Palmer took the ball around the left end for 18 yards and a second first down on Chelsea's 48.

Then, on the second play, Betzoldt connected with Borton on a pass at Chelsea's 25 and Borton ran the ball in for six points.

Tecumseh attempted a two point conversion. Betzoldt handed off to Ely and Ely headed around his right end and passed to Palmer. Palmer had to reach for the ball and his feet came down just inches out of bounds. Score sat at 7-6 and never changed again.

Chelsea was forced to punt the ball away at the end of the third quarter when Tecumseh's Mark Creswell knocked down a third down pass.

Tecumseh started on the move again with three first downs. The ball then rested on Chelsea's 27.

Tecumseh's offense then began to break down for the first time with an illegal procedure call and an intentional grounding penalty the next play.

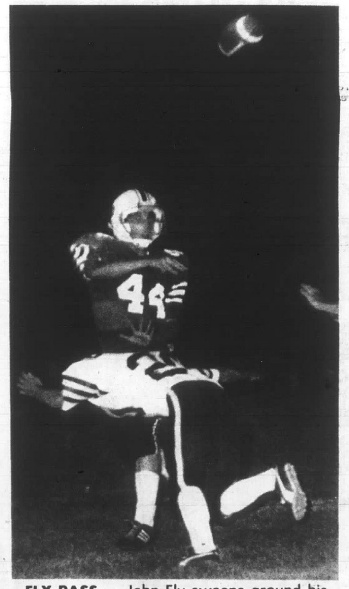
Tecumseh punted away and their defense held tight still again. Chelsea punted but roughing the kicker was called and Chelsea was given the ball on Tecumseh's 40.

Again they failed to get a first down and Tecumseh's Borton took a faked reverse on the punt back to the Chelsea 48. A pass to Borton on second down made it first down at the Chelsea 14.

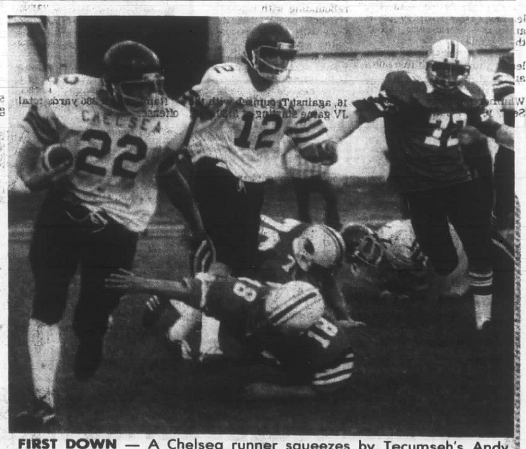
Tecumseh again looked like they were going to win when Betzoldt hit Borton close to the enzone. But Borton was hit just as he reached the ball and the play was call no catch.

The Indians were forced to go for a field goal. With 29 seconds left and from the 30 yard line, Tecumseh's kick was short.

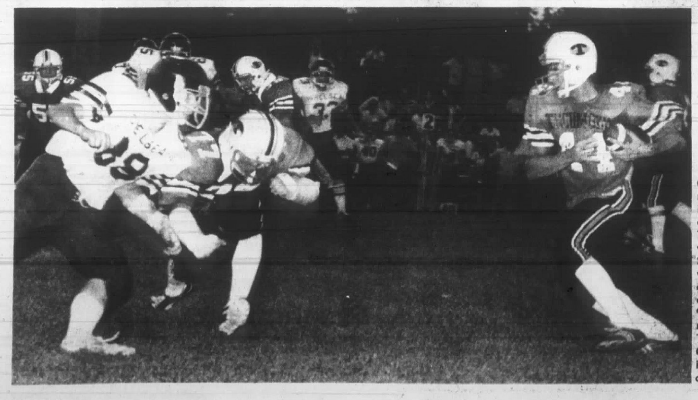
Chelsea fell on the ball to end the game.



ELY PASS — John Ely sweeps around his right end to pass off to Steve Palmer for an attempted two points after Tecumseh's third quarter touchdown. Referees called Palmer out of bounds in a very close play.



FIRST DOWN — A Chelsea runner squeezes by Tecumseh's Andy Geshwiler for a first down. Tony Turner, number 70, can be seen pursuing the play in the background.



CUTS BACK — John Ely, number 44, cuts back to the inside behind the blocking of 77, Randy Bolz. Ely was Tecumseh's leading rusher with 88 yards in 21 carries. Steve Palmer was second with 43 yards and seven carries. Ely's running and quarterback Jon Betzold's 99 yards in the air were mainly responsible for Tecumseh's 11 first downs. Greg Borton was the leading receiver with three catches for 86 yards.

Photos by Jim Lincoln, Kent Downing

STOPPED COLD — Tecumseh's Scott Hans, number 94, and Joe Brooks, 30, stop a Chelsea runner from gaining yardage. Tecumseh's defense played a very good game, holding Chelsea to just six first downs in 10 possessions and forcing Chelsea to punt eight times.

Non-League Losses

Tecumseh's golfers had trouble shooting consistant golf this week and dropped three non-league matches.

All matches were with class "A" schools and the loses do not count toward the league championship.

Coach Cunningham did see one bright spot on the team as John Faulkner shot very good golf most of the week.

At Adrian's tournament last Wednesday, he was the overall medalist with a 76. Saturday at Bowling Green, he shot a 37 front nine, but dropped to 46 on the back. Then on Monday against Lumen Christi, Faulkner led local scorers with a 40.

Against Adrian, Tecumseh counted five scores at 427 to their 405.

Scoring ran, Faulkner, 78; Kevin Koszka, 84; Scott McDonald, 85; Ron Smith, 87; Dave Langmeyer, 93.

The JV's for Adrian had more depth and beat THS, but Tecumseh's first four players did score better. Greg Scheuerman was low man at 79.

At Bowling Green, Tecumseh finished seventh in a 15 team field. They posted a score of 331 with four men.

Koszka was low man for Tecumseh with a 79. Faulkner, 83; Smith, 84; McDonald 85; Scheuerman, 86.

In that match, Tecumseh played very well the front nine, but seemed to fall apart the second. In fact, if Tecumseh had doubled their first round scores, they would have finished in second place.

Against Lumen Christi Monday, Tecumseh nearly pulled off quite an upset when they lost to the number one rated team by just six strokes, 166-160.

Christi was rated first by all coaches last year, and boasted an even better team this year.

Faulkner was low for Tecumseh at 40. Mike Zeitle shot 41; Smith, 42; Scheuerman, 43; Koszka, 44; McDonald 45.

Low man for the JV's in that match was Langmeyer and Mark Walters at 49. JV's easily defeated their opponents 171-198.

Teams play Ann Arbor Huron here Wednesday. Huron beat the team on their home ground last year by just three strokes. THS plays again Monday against Saline, here.

JV's Win

The Britton-Macon JV football team opened the 1978 football season with a 52-0 victory over Dundee.

The Tory offense rolled up 365 yards rushing in 58 attempts while the defense held Dundee to one yard rushing in 18 attempts and one pass completion for 10 yards.

John Montalvo was the leading rusher with 130 yards and three touchdowns, all in the first half.

Wally Armstrong was the leading tackler with five solos and four assists.

The Tories next opponent is Whitmore Lake, at home, Sept. 16 at 7 p.m.

Clinton Girls Win, 51-18

Clinton's girls started their 1978 basketball season by traveling to Ida last Thursday night. It was a rematch of last year's regional final which Clinton won in overtime.

Opening game jitters bothered both teams throughout the first quarter as Ida led 10 to 9.

Sparked by Sue Richter's six points, Clinton grabbed the lead half way through the second quarter and at half-time the Redskin girls led 25 to 18.

Clinton pulled away during the second half coasting to a 51 to 35 vitory.

Coach Bob King was pleased with the way his team played and the steady play of all 11 players on the varsity.

Sue Richter, Clinton's all-state player, started her senior year by leading all scorers with 18 points.

Barb Winder, a 6' junior forward, playing in her first varsity game, scored six points and led the team in rebounding with eight.

Other scorers were Lisa Cark with seven, Brenda Cark with six points. Kris Pratt ran the offense and scored five points and Judy Zimmerman had four points.

The next home game is Sept. 16, against Tecumseh with the JV game starting at 5:30 p.m.

John Faulkner Topped Tecumseh Golf Scores This Week.

Lose 27-12

The Britton-Macon Tories lost their opening game of the season to the Northwood Ohio Rangers, 27-12.

Northwood opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 23 yard pass play from Mike Bassitt to Jim Grigson. The extra point kick was good.

Britton came right back and scored on their first possession with Jeff Osterhout going the final 12 yards for the touchdown. The extra point run failed to make the score 7-6.

The Rangers came right back as Bassitt hit Randy Coy on a 67 yard pass play to make the score 13-6.

In the second quarter halfback Dan Pfitzer ran 35 yards for TD. The extra point pass was good to give Northwood a 21-6 lead.

Britton again struck as Tory quarterback Chris Kimerer hit Greg Fanslau on a 36 yard pass to make the halftime score 21-12.

Bassitt scored the last touchdown of the game late in the fourth quarter on a two yard run. Final score, Northwood 27, Britton 12.

Britton totaled 247 yards total offense, led by rushers Jeff Osterhout and David Bruce with 107 and 56 yards respectively. Kimerer was five of 17 passing for 80 yards. Fanslau made four receptions for 75 yards.

Fanslau led the Britton defense with 13 tackles and Dennis Kimerer added seven.

Rangers had 386 yards total offense.

3 Basketball Starters Gone at Clinton

Girls Basketball at Clinton High School reached an all time high last year as the Redskins were 23-2 and lost in overtime to Buchanan in the state Class "C" quarter finals.

Having lost three all-league starters through graduation, Clinton will be hard pressed to repeat last years performance. Missing this year, and with them a total of 11 years of experience, are Cathy Gibson, Karen Busch and JoAnn Grossman. The three girls were largely responsible for the 43-5 record over the past two years.

With six returning letter winners, Cocah Bob King is hoping that they will be able to hold the team together until some of the younger players develop. King feels that the two keys to this year's team will be the leadership of the seniors and developing the defense.

The bright spots right now are the three senior starters. Clinton will be led this year by co-captains, Sue Richter and Judy Zimmerman and center Lisa Cark.

All-State forward Sue Richter was Lenawee County's leading scorer last year and the Redskin's second leading rebounder. Sue will be starting her fourth year on the varsity.

Judy Zimmerman, leader in assists and the most improved player last year, will play at one guard position. Lisa Cark, 5'11" center, will be counted on to be a leader in rebounds and to help out offensively.

Rounding out the starting team are juniors Barb Winder and Kris Pratt. Winder, a 6' forward who went to school in Florida last year, has the potential to be a good offensive player and a strong rebounder. Pratt will play guard and run the offense and she is a quick defense player.

Expected to see plenty of action: senior Fran Corwin; juniors, Brenda Cark, Karyn Coward, Beth Langowski and Jani Thompson; sophomore Renee Peterson.

Hopefully the 1978 season will be an exciting one for both players and fans.

All home games will start at 5:30 p.m. with the varsity game starting around 7 p.m.

Clinton Runs Over Madison, 44-9

Madison scored first on a Clinton fumble Friday night, but the rest of the night belonged to the Redskins. Final tally set Clinton on top, 44-9.

Madison first scored after Clinton fumbled on the first play after receiving the kick. Ten plays later, a 21 yard field goal made it 3-0.

Clinton came right back with eight points after marching 69 yards in five plays. All-stater Casey Thilo carried the ball across the line and accounted for 56 of the yards.

Thilo then went three yards for Clinton's second score in the second quarter to cap a 49 yard drove.

Again the Clinton defense stopped Madison and Clinton went to the air for points. Quarterback Terry Carlton hit Barry Yocum with a 20 yard pass and then hit Mike Karapas for 31 yards and the score.

Madison then took to the air try and put some points on the board before half. Clinton's Ken Semanske, however, picked off the ball and took it into the enzone from the Madison 20.

Golfers Look for Challenge

Clinton's golfers have a new coach this year in Roy Gaddey and the whole team is looking to challenge for the LCAA crown.

On the way to that challenge, the team split a pair of matches this week.

Against Sand Creek last Tuesday, they scored 173 to Creek's 164.

Bernie Hough and Tom Eddy led the way, firing 42's. Steve Porterfield hit 44 and Brad Eversole, 45.

Then, on Monday, Clinton handed Addison its first loss after four victories with a 223-226 scoring.

Eddy was low for the Redskins with a 40. Porterfield followed at 44, Hough at 46, and Mark Dettging at 46. Blake Clark carded 47.

Clinton now stands at 1-1 in the league. They play at Whiteford Friday, host Addison Monday, Onsted, Wednesday.

Madison then started a drive, but time ran out in the half. Casey Thilo had already picked up 101 yards in the half on just 15 carries. He carried only twice more for three yards.

In the second half, coach Eaton put in Clinton substitutes and scoring died until Madison put together a 34 yard drive in nine plays and scored a six yard TD.

Clinton came right back again and Carlton ran 58 yards for six more points.

Clinton put the final points on the board in the last frame when Randy Weirich at quarterback hit Jeff Porterfield with a 19 yard toss.

Clinton gained 192 yards on the ground and threw for another 109 yards. They connected on seven of their 10 passes.

You Told Us

Sound the trumpets. We have an entry in the "Vacation Jam" contest. Come on readers. Certainly there are more of you that had an amusing experience on your vacation. A special prize of my own creation is being offered to the winner. Entries may be received by Sept. 15. For more information, contact Kathy Brown at the Herald.

"What are you going to do about the bees," asked Dorothy Hoffman. I don't know about the rest of you, but I'm going to leave them alone.

An article in Tuesday's Free Press confirmed what we already know, the air is buzzin' with yellow jackets. Two Herald employees were stung in 48 hours last week.

Reasons for the booming population were last winter's snow which kept temperatures in woodlots and piles of refuse ideal for hibernation. The dryness this year has protected the insects in their underground nests.

Third, a new species that tends to nest in houses and garages is reported in the area. Simplest way to eliminate a nest is to spray directly into it with a spray designed for this use.

Norm Biess, County Cooperative Extension agent, made a report following study of a specimen we collected at the Herald office.

The insect, commonly called a yellow jacket, is a member of the vespid wasp family. It is characterized by yellow and black bands on the abdomen.

Nests can be above or below ground. Some families build them of papery substance and they vary in size. The queen is the only one that winters over. The workers are hatched in the spring.

Adults eat nectar and are attracted to sugary solutions. They pester persons in the vicinity of their nests or sugary substances. Females inflict a harmful sting.

Margaret Leighton returned home from Florida last Saturday, where she welcomed her first grandson, Mark Edward Dembinsky. His parents are former Britton residents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dembinsky (nee Susan Leighton). Mark was born Aug. 21 and weighed 7 lbs. 14 oz. The new family resides at 887 Morgan Circle South, Orange Park, Fla. 32073.

Interesting feature of the delivery was the steak and champagne dinner for the new parents at Orange Park Community Hospital the night before the mother and child came home. Richard is a civil engineer for Smith and Gillispie in Jacksonville, Fla. Susan passed her state board exams in pharmacy and plans to return to practice.

SP 4 James M. McClain has returned home after three years in the Army, 2½ years of which he spent stationed in Germany. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. McClain welcomed him home with a party at the home of Ralph Peeks in Holloway. While in Europe, Specialist McClain visited Italy, France, Denmark, England, Switzerland and Austria. He is a 1972 Tecumseh graduate and will reside with his parents.

D. Jeffrey Winkler of Whitmore Lake completed his four year apprentice training and schooling at Washtenaw Community College. He has graduated into journeyman pipe fitter. A 1972 Tecumseh graduate, he is employed at Hohlenkamp Company Plumbing and Heating in Whitmore Lake. His wife is the former Terry Fortunato. They have two children, Kelly Lynne, 20 months and Jeffrey Joseph, six months old. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Winkler, 419 Wildwood Circle and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fortunato of 1002 Red Mill Dr.

Barb McCann of The Cake Shoppe has sent out an S.O.S. She is interested to know if any reader has information about the 128-year-old Union Building, alias Sage Building, alias Lilley State Bank. Her dream is to preserve the building's storefront and rear entrance. Building is next door to the 126-year-old Bidwell Building, second oldest downtown building, located on the southwest business block.

Here at the Herald, we dug out a 1900's postcard of the two buildings. That's a start. Come on you history buffs, get out your scrapbooks and thinking caps. Your reward may be in helping preserve the antique streetscape of downtown Tecumseh.

Mrs. A. R. Shigley of Fremont, mother of Mrs. P.G. Colgrove and Mrs. J.K. Touborg, has been transferred from Fremont Hospital to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Farmers Visit No-Till Farms

MACON — Area farmers attended No-Till Field Day at the Paul Schafer farm in Macon Township. The event was co-sponsored by the Lenawee Soil Conservation District, Ortho Chemical Company and Shafer's Farm Supply.

The idea of the field day was held to acquaint farmers with no-till concepts and to visit some no-till plots. As the name implies no-till farming means just that. There is no tillage such as plowing and fitting. Weeds are controlled chemically.

Paul Schafer of Schafer's Farm Supply, planted 10 no-till corn test plots on 10 different farms in the county. Plot sizes ranged from five to 10 acres. Several of these plots were visited on the tour. Also Dan's Farm Supply demonstrated how a no-till planter works.

Ortho chemical representative Yuvonne Balentine pointed out several advantages to no-till farming, including labor savings, fuel savings and moisture retention.

Tom Thrall of the Soil Conservation Service pointed out that there are many advantages to no-till farming. The Soil Conservation Service is particularly excited about the erosion control benefits. "With more farmers going to continuous corn and beans without rotating alfalfa, we are experiencing erosion above acceptable levels," Thrall stated. "No-till may prove to be the answer to this dilemma."

One stop on the tour dramatically demonstrated the erosion benefits. Farmer John Hewlett planted two adjacent fields of corn. Both were hilly. One field was planted in the conventional way, the other using the no-till methods. Both fields looked good, however the erosion was evident on the conventional field were sediment six inches deep at the bottom of the slope was observed. The no-till field had absolutely no evidence of erosion.

It was pointed out that no-till farming is not for everyone, nor is it a cure-all. "Unless a farmer is a good manager and is a good conventional corn grower, I don't feel that no-till is a way for him to grow corn," Thrall said.

Some soils are better adapted to no-till than others. Failures with no-till are due to poor weed control from a poor spraying job, poor stands because of poor planter adjustment and neglected insect problems.

But it has been shown that, for a growing number of farmers, no-till farming has been successful and the concept will continue to grow.

Clash in U.S. History

Keith Pohl, editor of "The Michigan Christian Advocate," spoke about American Indians at the Sept. 6 meeting of the Tecumseh United Methodist Women.

Pohl likened the European explorers' arrival in America to an encounter of extra-terrestrial beings. He asked the women to imagine a group of alien beings with advanced technology, suddenly landing, taking over the county, driving people away from their homes.

He posed the question: Would advanced technology mean the alien beings were better, more humane, more dignified, more important than earth people? Then he asked the women to think of the Indian's feelings when the more advanced Europeans came to American shores.

This comparison illustrated the plight of native Americans, who were driven from their land and way of life by the European explorers.

Pohl explained that the Indian and European life-styles clashed. The Indians were semi-nomadic. They were hunters and trappers. They lived in an area temporarily, then moved on for better hunting and trapping.

The European pioneers settled in one place and were agricultural. They wanted the land that the Indians considered a free gift from God.

The Rev. and Mrs. John Burkey will present "A Walk through Jerusalem" at Oct. 4 meeting.

Work Force

You can make good money at things like riveting or welding, but it isn't always a fun job. There's a tension to it that takes its toll of nerves and muscles.

Lots of jobs aren't fun, aren't even fulfilling. They're just necessary, both for the doers and for the rest of us, who profit by their services.

So what comes after work? Staying home and watching TV, or perhaps a little bit of nothing. It shouldn't be that way; not all that way, certainly.

People do have three facets—mental, physical and spiritual. It's the spiritual part that is the most apt to get shortchanged today, more's the pity. Because that's where the miracles begin.

Start finding that out by going to the church of your choice.

Memoriam

In memory of Doris Wiedmayer who died Sept. 14 1977.
Heavy are our hearts today,
Memory brings you back once more,
To the time when you were with us To the happy days of yore.
Our family circle has been broken, A link gone from our chain;
But though we're parted for a while, We know we'll meet again.
Some day we hope to meet you,
Some day, we know not when,
We shall meet in a better land
And never part again.
We shall meet with many a loved one That was torn from our embrace,
We shall listen to their voices
And behold them face to face.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall
Love's remembrance outlasts all.

SCHOOLS-TEA SPLIT WIDENS

Teachers March To Protest Letter from Board, Halt in Negotiations

A confrontation between the Tecumseh Education Association and School Board occurred here Monday night when over 100 teachers marched en masse to protest recent board action and to seek resumption of negotiations for a new contract.

It illustrated support of the TEA and its negotiating team. It also illustrated a widening gap in feelings and differences between the Board and teachers.

Unfair Labor Charges Filed

Unfair labor practice charges against the Tecumseh School Board were filed with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission Wednesday, according to Duane Winters, executive director of the Lenawee County Education Association.

Winter said authorization for the filing came Wednesday morning from the Michigan Education Association.

The State Commission will schedule a hearing date with an administrative law judge hearing positions of both parties, the local Board and Tecumseh Education Association.

Specific purpose of the confrontation was the returning of confidential and personal letters, signed by William Macbeth, president of the Board. These letters, outlining the Board's salary offer of Sept. 12th, had been sent directly to the teachers and not through the teachers' negotiating team.

At Monday night's regular monthly Board meeting, Nancy Kinnard, president of the Association, turned over the letters and read the following statement:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the Board - Mr. Macbeth, on behalf of the Tecumseh Education Association, I have been instructed to return these letters, which are no longer confidential, and make the following statement:

We are offended and shocked by your tactic to undermine the credibility of our bargaining team and henceforth wish all communications to the Association members to be communicated via the bargaining team. We further challenge you to return to the table quickly and to bargain in good faith as prescribed by Public Act 379."

Shortly after her statement, the Board went into executive session without commenting on her statement. School officials were asked Tuesday morning if they wished to comment on the TEA's statement, and there was none.

Macbeth's letter to the teachers, dated Sept. 15th, explained the Board's proposed salary package over a three-year period. Each letter was confidential and personal, listing the teacher's current salary plus his or her projected salary through 1980-81.

Accompanying the letter was a cost of living proposal, explaining how teachers could gain financially in addition to the Board's offer.

Gary Lovett, high school teacher and spokesperson for the TEA negotiating team, said Monday that Macbeth's letter is misleading. He also said that Macbeth ignored several other issues that concern teachers and the TEA.

According to Lovett, the TEA has asked the Board for binding arbitration in an effort to achieve a settlement - and the Board has refused. Mediation is scheduled for this Friday. It's not known whether it will be followed by fact finding, and eventually by binding arbitration.

Work stoppage - or a strike - is an apparent possibility for the Tecumseh schools.

The Association represents 158 teachers in the Tecumseh school system. TEA held a meeting at the high school cafeteria prior to the Board meeting, and then marched to the Board of Education office on W. Chicago Blvd.

Although school officials say 111 registered at the meeting, Lovett says 135 teachers were present. Teachers without tenure did not participate in the march nor were they present at the Board meeting.

TEA Statement Criticizes Board

The members of the Tecumseh Education Association this evening have displayed their alarm and dismay at Mr. Macbeth's confidential letter to each teacher urging ratification immediately. Such action tends to undermine good faith bargaining as required by law.

The Board has refused to deal with all remaining issues such as class size, split grades (two elementary grades in the same room), and mainstreaming until salary is settled. We just don't understand their attitude of take it or leave it. We are simply asking for parity with the 1974-76 salary level.

The Board can afford to pay us (even after returning ½ mill to the taxpayers) what we have earned in the past, and we believe it is unreasonable for them to expect us to take a cut in real wages.

The take it or leave it profile of the Board threatens the proud tradition of the Tecumseh Public Schools and endangers the welfare of our young people by potential demoralization and disruption of service.

Bargaining Team, TEA

Over 100 teachers attended the School Board meeting Monday night after marching from the high school to the Board of Education office on W. Chicago Blvd. They arrived shortly before the scheduled meeting and are seen here waiting outside for the meeting to start. Teachers are currently working on a day-to-day basis after failing to negotiate a new contract with the Board. Unless relations improve, a strike in the near future is probable and would mark the first time in the history of the schools that teachers have left the classrooms over a contract dispute. It would affect over 3,600 students. There are 158 teachers in the system at the high school, junior high and six elementary sites. Mediation is scheduled Friday for the School Board and Tecumseh Education Association in hopes of settling differences.

Firemen Host Open House

Tecumseh firemen will host the public to an open house at its fire station on S. Evans St. Sunday afternoon with a three-hour program scheduled to start at 1 p.m.

Residents may drop in anytime to inspect equipment and observe rescue demonstrations.

Wives of the 18-man department will serve cookies and coffee.

Appraising Area within Parking Lot

Tecumseh City Council Monday night authorized City Manager Cal Zorn to have the Sam Beal property appraised for the city to purchase for the municipal parking system.

Beal, owner of Tecumseh Ace Hardware, owns some property in the city's northeast parking lot.

Council also authorized the mayor to sign a six-year lease with Raymond and Emily Dubrinsky, to rent their property behind Ken-Ray Drugs for $1 a year. Property will be utilized in the city's auto parking system. In exchange, the city will remove the Dubrinsky parking property from the tax rolls for the duration of the city's lease.

Both the Beal and the Dubrinsky property are shown in the city's landscaping and parking lot. In the past, the city leased privately owned property and removed it from the tax rolls for the time of the lease. The city in turn metered the parking spaces, policed, maintained and improved the parking lots with parking meter revenues.

After three initial meetings, Manager Zorn and Beal did not progress on a lease. Lack of progress was reported by the media. At the Sept. 5 Council meeting, Beal requested, via letter, a face-to-face meeting. He felt the publicity was "one sided" and "unwarranted," he told Council Monday. "I'm not the ogre it made me out to be."

Without some agreement with Beal, the city would be faced with the question of improving private property in the midst of its plans to improve the northeast parking lot, Zorn told Council at previous meetings. "I don't think you can legally improve private property," Zorn told Council Monday.

Regarding the one dollar lease of his property to the city for its parking system, Beal asked Council, "Is this fair? I'd rather sell the property to the city."

"In the time I've been on Council, the same lot has come up at least three times. It's a sticky problem," said Council member Carlton Cook.

Three other council member, James H. Palmer, Mary Bowers and Harold Easton said they favored buying Beal's peoperty for the city parking system.

The city and Beal will each have the property appraised and discussed a purchased price at a later date.

"We have never bought property (for the parking system) when there was a going business. I don't know if it makes any difference," Manager Zorn mentioned to Council as a matter of fact.

Council member Cook added, "I think we should be prepared to deal with the situation, in case other merchants want to change their lease with the city."

Council first moved to postpone action on the Dubrinsky lease, then decided to sign it.

"I think we've got what we want right here," said Council members Jay Tressler. "You only have so much money you can spend to buy parking lot property in one year anyhow."

Hearings Approved

Two public hearings regarding proposed new commercial and industrial development in Tecumseh went smoothly Monday night. No objections were voiced to Council at either hearing. Few questions were asked.

After the first hearing, Council created an industrial development district enabling Jebco Manufacturing Company to apply to the city for reduced real and personal property taxes for up to 12 years.

Objective is to encourage industrial expansion leading to increased employment for Tecumseh citizens.

The Ann Arbor based automotive parts manufacturing business plans to triple the size of an existing S. Maumee industrial building.

The company will employ up to 25 persons, five of which are expected to move to Tecumseh with the business, said company owner R.J. Diebold.

Paul Preston, assistant city manager, clarified two points for Council. First, the assessed valuation is not frozen for the life of the exemption, which can be from one to 12 years. The assessment will continue to rise as the value of the building rises.

Second, Jebco Company requested the whole site, building and remainder of the parcel, be designated the industrial development district.

As there were no questions or objections at the second public hearing, Council gave the first okay to designated project area and project

Six Tecumseh City Council candidates filed petitions by Monday's deadline to qualify for a place on the November ballot. They are Mary Bowers, Carlton Cook, James H. Palmer and Jay Tressler, four incumbents, and two newcomers, Roy Hella and John J. Kish.

GAS EXPLOSION RIPPED HOUSE BEFORE FLAMES FINISHED DESTROYING IT

Blast, Fire Destroy House; Loss Estimated at $45,000

Residence of the Alexander Prajzners at 738 S. Union St. was completely destroyed Monday morning when the gas-filled house exploded and burned.

Firemen estimate the loss at $30,000 for the house and $15,000 for contents. Nothing inside the house was saved.

Tecumseh Fire Department was called at 11:20 and when they arrived moments later, the house was beyond saving. Only a shell now remains.

Prior to the explosion, excavation work was underway at the house when a gas line was broken in the digging. Consumers Power was called and company employees were there when the house blew up.

Leaking gas apparently had filled up the house.

CP employee, Clinton Hoag, of 203 S. Oneida, was in the excavation area attempting to drive a wooden plug into the gas line when the house blew. Hoag was injured in the blast and taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment of second degree burns.

The explosion knocked the house off its foundation and caved in walls. Ensuing flames consumed all contents, including furniture, appliances and the family clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Prajzner were at work at the time, and their three-year old son was with a baby sitter down the street.

Ruggirello was a member of the Raisin Township planning commission. As interim clerk, one of her responsibilities will be overseeing the November election.

district area for construction of a new United Savings Bank main office. Plan is to finance the new office through tax exempt revenue bonds issued through the Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation.

Mike Marshall of the LCEDC and bank officials attended the meeting. Marshall presented a drawing that defined the project area as the site commonly called the Vescio building on E. Chicago Blvd. It is owned by the bank for construction of its new main office. The remainder of the block is defined as the project district area.

Lenawee County EDC is empowered by Michigan Public Act 338 to issue tax exempt revenue bonds for commercial or industrial development as an economically favorable alternative means of financing.

Monday's public hearing to conform with the public act was the first in a series with local and county governments. The new USB main office is the first EDC project in Lenawee County and the second banking facility project in the state to use the method of financing.

When a Death Occurs Out of Town

If you're involved in making arrangements for a funeral service for someone who dies out of town, the assistance of an expert in these matters is often required, certainly desired.

You should contact us or another local funeral director who will then make arrangements with a highly qualified mortician wherever the death occured. (We have hundreds of personal contacts all over the country through our membership in National Selected Morticians. We will surely know some one personally in whom you can put your trust wherever you are.)

We will take the necessary steps to prepare the body for immediate transportation back home. We're experienced and equipped to handle the complicated details of transportation, air or rail.

We will confer at long distance with you or with other family members locally to plan for the local funeral services. It is important for you to remember, though, to call us or another local funeral home FIRST. Especially under these circumstances, you need to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort and fees. Your local mortician is more likely to serve you and save you in the way you would wish.

There may be situations wherein you would wish the body to be prepared for visitation services where the death occured and subsequently shipped back here for the funeral. Again it is important that the primary arrangements be made locally to insure the kind of services you wish without the risk of duplicate costs.

If you wish further details on out-of-town arrangements, please contact us.

Limit Parking?

Tecumseh Police Chief Merlin Mowery told the Herald that the department is considering restricting parking to only one side of Maiden Lane from Patterson to Chippewa.

"Our reasoning is that Maiden Lane is only 24 feet wide. It is the narrowest street in town and we've had a problem with some traffic getting out.

"We're concerned that if a fire truck were called out, it might not be able to get down there with parking on two sides. We welcome any comments from the residents."

Tories Slide by Trojans, 8-0

The Britton-Macon Tories started out their Tri-County Conference on the right note Friday night defeating Whitmore Lake Trojans 8-0, in a tough defensive battle.

The only score of the game came in the second quarter as the Tories marched 63 yards in 13 plays for the touchdown. The drive was highlighted by the running of David Bruce and two key third down passes from quarterback Chris Kimerer to end Terry Benedict.

Kimerer ran the final six yards for the score. Jeff Osterhout ran the extra point for the final 8-0 score.

The Britton defense bent, but it didn't break as twice the Tory defenders held off Whitmore Lake inside the Tory 10 yard line.

In the first half, Britton fumbled the ball at their own seven yard line, but held the Trojans on downs. In the fourth quarter, the Trojans got to the Tory 16, but Brad Rowe intercepted a pass and returned it 48 yards near midfield.

However the Tories soon fumbled and Whitmore Lake drove down to the Britton 10 yard line. The Tories held and then ran the clock out to secure their first victory.

Britton had 206 yards in total offense. Backs David Bruce and Jeff Osterhout led the 165 yard rushing attack with 87 and 55 yards respectively. QB Kimerer was three of seven passing.

Defensively for Britton, Dennis Kimerer had seven solo tackles and four assists for 11 tackles. David Bruce and Greg Fanslau chipped in with 10 and nine tackles

Bids High - Delay Work

BRITTON — Construction bids on the Britton-Ridgeway sewer project were 23 percent higher than authorized finances, causing another delay in the eight-year-old project that was scheduled to begin construction this year reported Donald Mitchell, County Drain Commissioner. Project must now wait until new finances are worked out.

Construction bids opened Aug. 31 were 58 percent higher than the estimate on the sewer section and 34 percent higher on the treatment site work.

The total estimated cost of the project was about $2.1 million. Bids received would have boosted the cost to about $2.6 million. This made the project cost higher than authorized finances.

"We have concluded that these bids cannot be accepted. However, the EPA has not yet permitted them to be rejected," said Mitchell in a press release. "We must now prove that these bids are unreasonable and unacceptable to EPA in order for them to approve their full share funding of new bids later."

"Meanwhile, the special assessments levied by the township and village remain in effect. The project is not dead. Only delayed until revised costs and finances are worked out," Mitchell explained.

Local planners have faced several frustrating delays on the Britton-Ridgeway sewer project. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency finally granted, in Jan. 1978, 75 percent of the estimated construction cost of $1,117,200 in federal funds. The state granted five percent or $75,961.

The county authorized the issue of $220,000 in bonds to help the local communities finance their share of the project over 20 years. The village and township entered financing contracts with the county for this amount and adopted a special assessment plan designed to raise the revenues to pay off debt costs.

Mitchell said inflation and government deadlines on such projects are the reason the bids are so high. "There are seven bidders. The unit prices in those bids are considered extremely high. Inflation and the crash programs caused by the government-imposed deadlines is causing labor and materials demands for such projects to run way out of line."

Mitchell also commented on the effect of the Headlee tax limit proposal on the future of the sewer project.

"The Headlee amendment, which is expected to be on the electors ballot Nov. 7, if passed, would have the effect of preventing the county from issuing bonds to help local governments finance such projects," Mitchell said. "There is not sufficient time now to go through the entire process of authorizing additional bond financing for this project before the Headlee amendment would cancel it, if it passes. Therefore, we must wait and see."

"Ironically, in this business, the Headlee amendment would have the effect of financially hurting the same people it is purported to benefit.

"New bids next January may be more reasonable. Bond interest costs at that time after this big rush, may be more reasonable. But we can't be sure of that. Continued inflation may cause the opposite. We must take that chance now," Mitchell concluded.

The Britton-Ridgeway sewer project was surveyed and designed in 1970. Land was purchased northeast of Britton for a stabilization lagoon type treatment system. Then grant funds were not available to this project competing with many larger communities with higher priority.

New programs with a series of new and ever-changing bureaucratic regulations caused hopes to rise and fall several times, Mitchell told. The village, the township, the county and project engineers stuck with it. All the rules were complied with. Construction was to begin this year.

Celebrates 20 Years

Members of the Grace Lutheran Church surprised Pastor Kenneth Strack with a fellowship evening on Sunday night, Sept. 10.

The occasion was the 20th anniversary of his ordination to the ministry and his 10th year as pastor of Grace Lutheran Church.

Present were many members of the congregation, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strack of Germantown, Wisc. and a number of fellow pastors. A brief history of Pastor Strack's ministry was given, and the congregation gave him several gifts including a watch.

It is interesting to note that at each of the congregations which Pastor Strack served there has been a building project. In his first parish at Naper, Nebraska, a new church was built. In 1963 Pastor Strack moved to Merritt Island, Fla. where he started a new congregation, and a church and parsonage were constructed.

Now, Grace congregation is involved in a major renovation to its church building, located at Maumee and Shawnee Streets.

The evening concluded with the pastor showing some of the slides he took during his recent archeological trip to Israel.

Smith Ties Golf Record

On Tecumseh's way to two golf victories this week, sophomore Ron Smith tied the THS school record of 36 with seven pars, one birdie, and one bogey.

Smith fired the 36 to top THS scorers on their way to a 159-175 defeat of Ann Arbor Huron last Wednesday.

Coming in second for Tecumseh was John Faulkner at 39. Scott McDonald shot 40 and Greg Scheuerman hit 44.

The JV's lost their match 198-182.

Against Saline Monday afternoon, Tecumseh just squeeked by the previously undefeated team by four strokes, 162-166. The win put Tecumseh at 2-2 while dropping Saline's record to 3-1.

Smith joined Mike Zettle, both shooting 40's for low honors. Kevin Koszka and Faulkner came in at 41 each.

The JV's lost their match against Saline by just three strokes, 182-179.

Golfers begin league competition Wednesday at New Boston Huron. They play in the Clinton Invitational Saturday.

RON SMITH tied the THS golf record Wednesday and helped lift the Indians past Huron 159-175.

THS Beats Huron, 28-14

Tecumseh's football squad took the ball 70 yards in seven plays after the opening kickoff Friday night for their first touchdown against New Boston Huron. That series started them on their way to a 28-14 victory.

They scored three more times with the aid of six Huron turnovers, their own passing and running outside.

John Ely took the ball on the kick and returned it 20 yards out to the 30. He ran the next play seven yards. Teammate Steve Palmer took the next play down field to Huron's 35, a 33 yard run.

Greg Borton then took the handoff from quarterback Jon Betzoldt down field 15 yards for the Indian's second first down. Two plays later, Betzoldt optioned the ball left to Ely, who scored from 23 yards out.

The ball exchanged hands twice before Huron's Randy Richardson took Tecumseh's punt all the way for a TD with three minutes left in the quarter.

After getting another first down, Tecumseh punted away at the end of the quarter. Huron returned the ball in four plays after Chris Smith dumped the Huron quarterback for a loss on third down.

Then, from their own 45 yard line, on second down, Betzoldt hit closely covered Borton on a perfectly thrown pass for Tecumseh's second score.

Huron was then called for a clip on the kick and Tecumseh's Borton was waiting in perfect position for a Huron pass on the next play. Borton intercepted and scored from the 25 with half the time gone in the second quarter.

Huron came out passing after the score for three first downs, but was stopped at fourth and two yards to go at the Tecumseh 20. Randy Russell was responsible for the setback with the help of Borton.

Early in the third frame, Tecumseh kicked away, but recovered a fumbled ball on the Huron five after a penalty and Chris Smith's tackle set them back.

Tecumseh's Andy Geshwiler took the ball in from the two on Tecumseh's second down.

Huron came out passing again until they scored from their own 12 yard line at the beginning of the fourth quarter, making the score 28-14.

Tecumseh returned the ball to Huron at mid field. Huron threw two more passes to put the ball at their own 17. It looked like Huron was going to score until Jeff Betzoldt caught a deflected Huron pass on the 12 yard line. Render deflected the ball.

Tecumseh punted the ball in four plays, but Randy Halvin recovered another Huron fumble on the kick. Again, Tecumseh punted away. This time, all the way into the end zone with the line of scrimmage at the Huron 48.

Huron came back with two first down passes, but then Tecumseh's Joe Brooks intercepted at mid field. Brooks ran the next play 27 yards and then Tecumseh let the clock run out.

Tecumseh had 10 first downs to Huron's 12, but held the Hurons to 60 yards rushing while rolling for 156

Peters Shines, Clinton Wins

Matt Peters broke away from the pack at the mile mark to finish an easy winner and set a new Addison course record time of 16:53. Matt shortened the old record by 16 seconds and boosted the team to a narrow 27-28 victory over Addison Thursday.

Tom Nighswander was fourth in 17:54. Matt McNeil ran a fine race to finish 6th, Mark Prichard was 7th, and Devin Schindler closed out the Clinton scoring with a 9th place finish.

Matt Peters made another impressive showing at Ann Arbor Saturday during the Greenhills Cross Country Invitational. Matt's second place finish with a time of 16:45 landed his team a fifth place overall ranking at the meet.

Tom Nighswander finished 14th, Mark Prichard 42nd, Matt McNeil 45th and Wes Fuller 53rd for the Clinton team.

Peters again took first place for Clinton Tuesday, as the team squeaked by Onsted 27-29. Peters turned in a 15:44 time, the fastest ever on the course.

Finishing 4th for Clinton was Nighswander at 16:37. Schindler finished 6th at 17:20 and Prichard was 7th at 17:24. Fuller was the 5th finisher for the team at 18:04.

Team's record now stands at 4-0, 2-0 in the league.

JV's Win

The Britton-Macon JV football team defeated Whitmore Lake 28-6 Saturday night. The Tories piled up 254 yards on the ground while Whitmore Lake collected 49 yards rushing and seven yards passing.

Jesse Running First

The Tecumseh Cross Country team is off to a promising start this season after taking a non-conference meet from Jackson County Western 20-37 Thursday.

Jesse Castorena turned in the best time for the Indians finishing the course in 16:27. Castorena was followed by Brian Banda finishing third, Scott Betzoldt fourth and D.J. Biscupski fifth. Wendell West was the fifth finisher for Tecumseh.

Girls Lose by 4 Points

Tecumseh dropped a closed basketball decision to Ann Arbor Huron's girls Tuesday 44-40.

Turnovers and missed foul shots hurt the Indians as they committed 43 mistakes and were 10 for 25 at the foul line. On the floor, the girls hit 16 of 47 baskets.

Gloria Fosbender and Sandy MacGeorge lead the Indian attack with 15 and nine points respectively.

Coach Diane Nelson explained that the girls hustled the whole game, but the heat was bad and Huron's four quarters of press was too much for the girls. The team's inexperience hurt and the game was physical.

The girls host Pioneer Thursday. Their record now stands at 0-2.

Saturday, the team traveled to the New Boston Huron Invitational and took a very respectable second place behind Harper Woods who is rated one of the top teams in the state.

Tecumseh finished with 98 points to Harper Woods' 74. Castorena turned the fastest time for the Indians finishing fifth at 16:28.

Banda finished seventh at 16:35. Betzoldt, Biscupski, and West finished in the 24th, 29th, and 33rd spots respectively.

Tuesday in their first league meet the Indians capped their string of pre-season successes by beating New Boston Huron 18-40. Jesse Castorena, in fine form, finished with his best time so far at 15:48 to take first.

Second place went to Banda with 16:27 followed by Betzoldt at fourth with 16:31, Biscupski at fifth with 17:01 and Lenny Castorena at sixth with 17:06.

Britton Splits

Britton bowed to Manchester Thursday in spite of a determined effort by Jodi Smith and Janene Schultz. Both sank 12 baskets for the Tory basketballers. Smith also led in rebounds with nine.

The Britton squad made a strong start in the early part of the game but failed to sustain the push.

Britton then overcame the Manchester loss to edge Grass Lake Monday, 48-46.

Schultz was high for Britton with 23 points. Smith followed with 12.

In that match, three technical fouls charged to Grass Lake aided Britton's victory late in the fourth quarter.

Two Wins

Clinton's golfers glided to a 224-244 win over Onsted Wednesday. Low score went to Tom Eddy who shot a 41 followed by Blake Clark and Brad Eversole with 44's.

Clinton again came out on top Monday, edging Blissfield 223-226. Eddy and Eversole were low men for Clinton with 42's.

Clinton Downs Tecumseh, 50-42

Tecumseh invaded Clinton last Saturday night to play the Redskins for the last time in girls' basketball history.

The two schools, natural rivals, played a very exciting game throughout with Clinton coming out on top 50 to 42.

Clinton jumped out to a 4-0 lead but the Indians scored the next 10 points to lead 10-4. The Redskins fought back to hold a slim two point lead at halftime 25-23.

Both teams scored 10 points in the third quarter to put the score at 35-33 in Clinton's favor.

The Redskins fought off the Indians pressure during the final period to come away with a well earned 50-42 victory.

The statistics were even with Clinton making 38% of its shots and Tecumseh 34%. Rebounds were 23 to 20 in Clinton's favor with Lisa Cark and Barb Winder leading the way with six apiece. The Indians had the fewest turnovers, 11 to 13.

Leading the Redskins was senior Sue Richter with 19 points. Guards Judy Zimmerman and Kris Pratt scored eight apiece while Barb Winder had seven.

Tecumseh showed fine balance in scoring as they were led by Kathy and Kelly Kruger with 10 points each. Kris McDonald and Sandy MacGeorge had eight each, while Gloria Fosbender scored six.

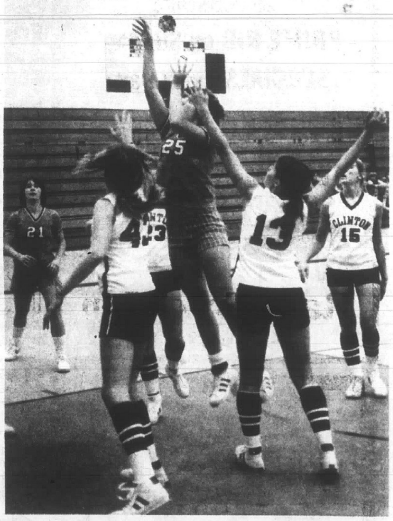
Coach Bob King was pleased with his teams play and the good support from the fans from both schools.

Then in a game last Tuesday, Clinton staged a great comeback during the last two minutes of the game, edging a fine Saline team 39 to 32.

Teams shot poorly throughout the game as both defenses were very tough. Saline led 10 to 7 at the end of the first quarter but Clinton came back to lead 15 to 14 at halftime.

The Redskins increased their advantage to 25-22 going into the fourth quarter. With 2:18 to play CHS found itself behind 32 to 29.

Sparked by guards, Kris Pratt and Judy Zimmerman, the Redskins scored the last 10 points of the game to give Clinton its second win of the young season.



TWO POINTS — Sandy MacGeorge puts in two points for Tecumseh while teammate Kathy Kruger looks on. THS lost to Clinton in their Saturday opener 50-42. Pictured for Clinton, from left, are Barb Winder, half hidden Sue Richter, number 13 Judy Zimmerman and Kris Pratt. Richter led all scorers in the first match ever between the two teams with 19 points.

Coopers Return from Wyoming

CLINTON — The Rev. and Mrs. Russell J. Cooper returned home after spending a month in Jackson, Wyo. and the Grand Teton National Park.

They visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Meade. David Meade returned to Wyoming with them after spending six weeks visiting them, his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Meade and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Klingensmith.

While in Wyoming, they watched the television of "Shoot Out", a reproduction of the old wild west gun fight and hold up.

It was filmed by ABC Broadcasting System and shown on the local evening news. The drama is played out every summer night on the main street of Jackson. The chamber of commerce is the sponsor. This year Michael Meade was a horseback rider in the re-enactment.

CHS Beats Addison

Interceptions proved to be the only edge that the Clinton Redskins needed to take the lead and keep it against Addison Friday night. The Redskins romped to a 14-6 victory in their conference debut.

Clinton took advantage of the first of four interceptions with a drive from Addison's 12 yardline. A seven yard pass from quarterback Terry Carlton to Barry Yocum and the two point conversion by Carlton gave the Redskins eight points and the momentum to hold their lead despite a hard push to within two by Addison in the third quarter.

Casey Thilo widened the lead for Clinton in the fourth quarter with a seven yard run. Thilo led the Redskins in rushing with 68 yards to his credit.

First downs came out even in the game with both teams earning nine. Addison held the edge in overall rushing with 162 yards to Clinton's 121 yards. Carlton and Yocum worked well together for the aerial attack completing three passes for 61 yards. Addison gained no yardage in the air.

Schools Gain 23 Students

CLINTON — School board at Sept. 13 meeting, was advised of the unofficial count of 1,310 students, up 23 from last year's 1,287.

Resignations of teachers, Diane Boggs and Eva Swenarton were accepted.

Eight teachers who have been hired to replace the eight who resigned are: Betty Oesterling, Ken Graf, Sue Proctor, Laura Schamberger, William Moran, Edward Aluk, Joyce Somers, Robert Smith and Debbie Boughman.

Board voted to establish the total millage for debt service on outstanding debts. This is in accordance with Section 27 of the State Aid Bill Act.

Board voted to drop their membership in the Michigan Association of School Boards since the benefits from the $827 membership fee was not being totally utilized.

A proposal for completion of the baseball field behind the board office was considered. Bids have been received for regarding and improving the field. More action will be taken when available funds are determined.

Curriculum changes were approved: add one teacher to deal with overload of fifth and sixth grade students needing remedial math and science; three para-professionals will be trained to work with those students needing help with math; Health class is being dropped since there are less than 15 enrolled.

Fellowship Organized

CLINTON — Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ was reorganized at a meeting attended by 21 women Thursday night.

Due to poor member attendance during the past year, a committee chaired by Mrs. Paul McKenna, was asked to develop a plan for the continuation of the Fellowship.

Those present Thursday agreed to work through a committee board system.

Two representatives of each of the three women's classes will serve as a program coordinating board, assisted by members of the classes. Classes will be responsible for the various fellowship projects on a three-month rotating basis.

Volunteers who will serve on the board are: Mary-Marthas, Mary Eleanor Witherell and Aurelia Sweeney; Priscillas, Gladys Bihlmeyer and Laura Randall; Seredipitys, Jan Pittman and Jennie Harris.

One general program will be held during Lent.

The women decided to recommend a Dec. 2 dinner be held without a bazaar.

Fall Festival booth will feature pretzels, ham sandwiches, cookies and coffee, served at tables in front of the church, all day Saturday, Oct. 7 only. Ruth Strolle is in charge of the booth.

Hookcrafters at Festival

CLINTON — One of the most popular features of past Fall Festivals will be repeated this year as the Southern Michigan Chapter of Pearl McGown Rug Hookrafters again display their craft at the home of Elsie Helgren on Jackson St.

There will be many hooked rugs on display and members will be demonstrating the craft.

All 12 active members had a hand in making the Cat's Paw design rug to be given away, with drawing proceeds to be donated to Spalding for Children adoptive agency, Chelsea.

Their display will be open all three days of the Festival.

Some members of the local chapter will demonstrate rug hooking at Cobblestone Farm, Ann Arbor, Sunday.

Plan Organ Recital Sunday

CLINTON — There will be an organ recital at the United Church of Christ, Sunday, Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m. Guest organist will be Kerwin Leader of Blissfield.

A $10,000 three-year renovation of the pipe organ was completed last spring. The pipe organ was first dedicated Sept. 3, 1927, after a $1,000 gift from Anna Dewey in memory of her mother, started the original organ fund. Organ cost $4,550 and is now valued at over $75,000.

Kerwin Leader studied keyboard since he was eight. He studied the last two years, before graduating from Blissfield, at Siena Heights College with Sister Mary Louise Wald, O.P. and at Adrian with Dr. James Sharp, Gary Ericksen and the last two years with Wilnilla Bush. He has given several recitals in Ohio and Michigan.

In 1975 he received the freshman music major award at Adrian College and in 1977 and 1978 the outstanding upperclassman and senior music major awards respectively. He accompanied the college choirs 1976-1978 and also on the European tour the summer of 1977.

He was chapel organist at Adrian College 1976-1978 and is now organist at The First United Methodist Church of Blissfield for the past six years. This year he received his bachelor of music degree in organ from the college and now is returning to complete hours in interior design.

He is working in an internship program in the design studio of Hudson's in the Franklin Park Mall, Toledo. This past summer he took an architecture travel seminar to England, France and Italy and was able to play at Queen's College Chapel, Oxford, England.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

This is the first year — or at least it is one of the few years — that we have logged much porch time in September. Warm weather lover that I am, it seemed just super to be out so much. Usually there are some hot days in September, after school has started, but they are not necessarily porch days.

Our screen room is on the north side of the house and right next to the creek. It takes quite a while for it to warm up in the morning and it cools off quickly in the late afternoon. The record breaking heat wave of a few weeks ago was perfect for our porch.

Another unique feature is that this screen room is close to the top of the creek bank. The trees growing on the bank put out lower limbs which are about at porch level. Thus our porch is practically like a tree house. And days spent in a tree house are fun -- ask any kid.

When those tree-house days fall in September they can be confusing days, too. We found ourselves in the midst of the early fall migration of warblers and neither Mom nor Gertie T could help me in sorting out Roger Tory Peterson's "confusing fall warblers."

Tiny birds, constantly on the move, they darted and flitted through the trees. There would be a fleeting glimpse here, a split fraction of a look there, and we gave up in utter despair.

Warblers are never easy to identify but in the fall they are particularly confusing. The males have lost their bright courting colors and more closely resemble the females and the adolescents. In other words, what we saw were little birds, mostly dull greenish yellow or yellowish green, with few identifying marks.

Some had wing bars, some had faint eye stripes, a few were dark on the back. We finally identified a prothonotary warbler and a yellow rump spot probably was a myrtle warbler. The nondescript birds were maybe Tenessee warblers. None of our identifications were sure though.

All of a sudden one day a small greenish yellow bird landed on a limb of the mulberry tree. It perched in front of a leaf, instead of hiding in back of it, and wonder of wonders -- I knew what it was! With those darkish wings and whitish wing bars it could be nothing else but a female goldfinch. She even sounded like one.

All afternoon she and a friend busied themselves in the nearby trees. Their visit prompted some questions. Where were the males and what did they look like? One of the joys of late winter and early spring is watching the male goldfinches turn bright yellow. In the fall however, we have never seen any half-turned back into the dull olive of winter.

Squirrel watching was another nice aspect of our porch days. Seeing them travel along their tree roads, doing this watching at close range, is completely different than the usual views through my windows. Day after day two young Little Reds played their follow-the-leader games. Back and forth, back and forth they ran.

Three trees north to the oak then they turned around, the leader becoming the follower, and it was back through the mulberry and maples to the other turning-around point. Sometimes they just ran but on other occasions they ran and chattered. The 'chirring' of a red squrrel is loud and quarrelsome. Actually, it is a rather unsquirrel-like song and people not familiar with it are always surprised.

Had Mom and I not known better we would have been surprised at the actions of a big fox squirrel. Scratch, scratch and clatter, clatter -- without even looking we knew a squirrel was running around and down the trunk of the walnut tree. What a loud noise those sharp claws can make.

When a slight movement caught our attention, we both looked and there was the squirrel jumping to the trunk of the mulberry tree. Quiet was now the order of the day. Up the tree and out on an upper limb he stole -- the classic description of "fog creeping in on cat's paws' came to mind. As he quickly but cautiously moved through the trees, we heard not the faintest sound.

And this from the squirrel who just moments before had made such a racket coming down this walnut tree halfway across the backyard.

Safe Pilot Recalls 1928 Solo

Fifty years ago they used to say "If you want a long life, have parents that live long and stay out of airplanes."

Joseph F. LeFevre disregarded the second half of that axiom. Sept. 8 he celebrated his 50th anniversary of his first solo flight.

He outlived many of his cronies by heeding another axiom, "You meet a lot of old pilots but not many old bold pilots."

"I've never had any hair raising experiences," said the OX-5 aviation pioneer. "I always flew within the rules. I never stuck my neck out. I wanted to live. That's why I'm still here."

LeFevre recalled that the first solo in Manitowoc, Wisc. He flew in a Swallow rag and wire biplane powered by a World War I Curtiss OX-5 engine. (To qualify as an OX-5 aviation pioneer, one must have flown a plane powered by a Curtiss engine prior to 1940.)

LeFevre's maiden voyage was made after only 1 1/2 hours prior instruction. "In those days if the instructor thought you were ready, you soloed," said LeFevre. Today a pilot has eight to 15 hours of flight time logged before soloing.

LeFevre's first solo flight lasted only 30 minutes. "Lessons were $15 an hour. I earned $15 a week in the Manitowoc shipbuilding yards. I couldn't afford much of that," said LeFevre. "In those days, those old aircraft were pretty rough."

"It was something I wanted to do as a kid. Why does a doctor become a doctor? It is in the blood and you have to do it. It's a particular dedication. It's an adventure."

There were no spectators when LeFevre soloed. His family's reaction to his flying was "negative."

"People had a fear of flying. People still do. There is no visible means of support. They don't understand the scientific principles behind it."

Besides, said LeFevre, "I didn't want to be seen by anybody in case something went wrong."

What were the highlights of his career? The nationally known aviator and aircraft businessman stated wryly, "Every take off and landing was an achievement."

LeFevre said he had worked 16 years at Meyers Aircraft and with Allen H. Meyers in the development of the Meyers 200, renowned as the fastest four place plane of its kind. When the design was sold to North American Rockwell, LeFevre worked with its division, Aerocommander, Albany, Ga.

He retired in 1966 and returned to Tecumseh. "To me it is the greatest city in the country," LeFevre exclaimed.

But LeFevre has not stopped building airplanes. He is currently designing and building a single place racing plane. "The fuselage is about complete. Next come the wings, power plant and initial flight test."

A member of the Experimental Aircraft Association, LeFevre helped Steve Wittman, "the greatest racing pilot of all time," weld his Chief Oshkosh with which Wittman won the 1937 Thompson trophy.

That home built racer competed against others built by major aircraft companies and today it hangs in the Smithsonian's new aviation museum in Washington, D. C. "It won more races than any airplane in the world," LeFevre said. He also served on the board of judges several years for national air races.

LeFevre said the largest craft he has piloted was a Boeing 707 on a training flight (not a passenger run) while the crew lunched.

LeFevre owned an American Eagle, a three passenger open cockpit biplane powered by a World War I Curtiss OX-5 engine.

During his barnstorming days, LeFevre and his pilot buddies would fly sightseers around for two dollars a person. In those years, 1935-40, fuel was about 20 cents a gallon. Today it is 89 cents a gallon.

Two of LeFevre's children have the aviator's interest in their blood. Son Doug LeFevre is an engineer with Grumman American Aviation Corporation, Savannah, Ga. A daughter, Audrey, is the wife of former Tecumsehite, Air Force Maj. Lawrence Gray, Biloxi, Miss. Bruce LeFevre of Macon keeps his feet on the ground at Ford Motor Company. The LeFevres, 117 Burt St., have a grandson and four granddaughters.

Photos Lure History Buffs

"History through Photos" is the theme of the Sept. 24 annual membership tea of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society.

Open house will be at the Tecumseh Public Library, 215 N. Ottawa, 2-4 p.m. Activity will be on the first floor for the convenience of the handicapped and senior citizens. Anyone who needs a ride may call Betty Kline, 423-4226.

Deborah Harris, library director, and her staff have assembled a display from the library's photography files. You may be surprised to find your home, business or ancestors pictured.

Books on history, geared for all age groups, and a special collection of publications on architecture, restoration and renovation recently purchased by the Historical Society.

President Betty Kline spoke about the society's objectives:

"We attempt to offer something for everyone, discussion and lectures on different aspects of local history; seminars dealing with present day preservation techniques for homes and businesses; community-wide projects as fundraisers for larger preservation projects, i.e. the annual Promenade the Past home tour; a junior membership, perhaps with the special goal of recording on oral history of the area from longtime residents; maybe even organized walking tours of Tecumseh.

Anyone curious about the group is welcome to the open house and join the society for refreshments.

Top Annual Award Is Won by Tecumseh Fisher Body Plant

Fisher Body General Manager's Yearly Quality Award for attaining the highest quality level among the division's five trim fabricating plants was presented Tuesday to the Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant.

Making the presentation in a ceremony attended by most of the plant's employes was Paul D. Pender, general manager of Fisher Body and vice president of General Motors.

Plant Manager William J. Polk accepted the 30-inch high, silver and walnut trophy in behalf of the facility's 1,200 employes.

In his remarks to employes, Pender said that "it takes qualified, competent, dedicated people to do the job that has resulted in the recognition you are receiving today."

"As far as the products made by the Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant are concerned," he said, "we don't have to worry. You people are doing your part in making it right in the first place."

In congratulating the plant employes on the achievement, Polk said their quality production efforts received special recognition from several governmental officials and Chambers of Commerce; as evidenced by the displayed proclamations and tributes from State Representative John S. Mowat, Jr., Tecumseh and Adrian Mayors Aden Mead and Norman Haft, and, the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners. Additional congratulatory letters were received from U.S. Representative David Stockman, the Tecumseh Area and Lenawee County Chambers of Commerce, signed by their respective presidents.

This was the second year of competition in the program which recognizes plants attaining top quality levels. Each month, product reviews are conducted by quality control auditors from Detroit. These audits of products, which are selected at random, rely on a comprehensive demerit index governing items that might lead to customer dissatisfaction.

Besides the year-end General Manager's recognition, awards are also made monthly and quarterly. During the past model year, the Tecumseh facility won three out of the possible four quarterly awards and 10 monthly award. In addition, during two of the monthly audits, the plant received the highest quality index ratings ever attained by a Fisher Body trim fabricating plant.

Edmund T. Henry, general factory manager, presented the fourth quarter award to employes at the ceremony, while the yearly banner and plaque was presented by James J. Edwards, divisional general manufacturing manager, to Philip J. Chrzan, Tecumseh plant superintendent.

Participating hourly employes representing production and the service departments incuded: Bonita L. McCarley (production); Karen C. Amstutz, (quality control); David J. Albrecht (maintenance); and Blass Ybarra, (production and material control).

Production at the Fisher Body plant began in the spring of 1965. Employes using over 300 sewing machines and other equipment cut and sew thousands of yards of material in the daily production of interior trim. Such components include front and rear seat cushion and back assemblies, head rests, center arm rests, and door and quarter trim for the Oldsmobile-Cutlass, Pontiac-Lemans and Grand Prix, Buick-Century and Regal models of the GM series of carlines.

Last year the plant shipped over 20,000 tons of interior trim to General Motors and Fisher Body assembly plants located throughout the continental United States and Canada.

32nd County Band Festival next Tuesday

Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers will participate in the 32nd annual Lenawee County Band Festival Oct. 3 at 8 p.m.

For the first time in 31 years, the festival will not be in Tecumseh. Adrian will host the festival in Maple Stadium.

The County Band Directors decided last year to alternate the location between Adrian and Tecumseh because of Adrian's more central location and larger stadium, said Jimmie Rice, Tecumseh band director.

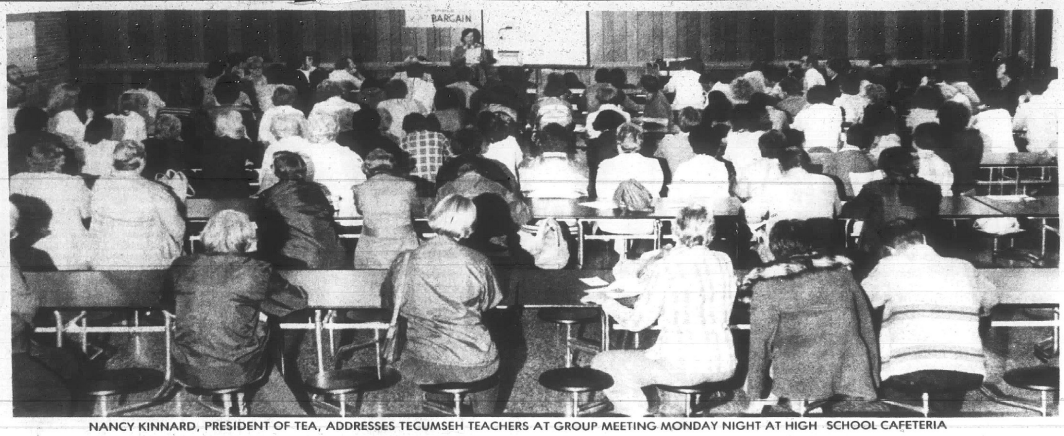
An admission will be charged with family rate available.

The county's 12 high school bands are expected to perform, each for seven and one-half minutes.

Later Bruce McCormick, Blissfield director, will conduct them in a mass band to perform Drake Relays by K. L. King, Battle Hymn of the Republic arranged by Moffet and Star Spangled Banner.

Tecumseh will perform Pictures of the Great Gate, Hotel California, Bottle Dance from Fiddler on the Roof, Swinging on a Star, and a special percussion arrangement by Donald Dobrosky, Cantina Dance.

The band festival originated in Tecumseh through the efforts of the Rev. B. O. Bashore of Tecumseh and Tecumseh band director, the late Clare Camburn.



NANCY KINNARD, PRESIDENT OF TEA, ADDRESSES TECUMSEH TEACHERS AT GROUP MEETING MONDAY NIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL CAFETERIA

MEDIATOR SCHEDULES OCT. 9 SESSION

School Board, Teachers Release Statements on Mediation, Positions

Statements from the Tecumseh Education Association and the School Board were released this week with each statement relating to a mediation session held here last Friday.

The Board and TEA have failed to negotiate a new contract for the teachers, although negotiations have been underway for the past eight months.

Next mediation session with mediator George Rickey of the Michigan Employment relations Commission has been scheduled for 10 a.m. on Monday, Oct. 9th. He will meet with Supt. Robert Duhan and Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, representing the School Board, and with the TEA negotiating team of which Gary Lovett, high school teacher, is spokesman.

Statements from the Board and TEA are printed below.

Board Statement

The Board of Education through its bargaining representatives has bargained in good faith since negotiations commenced in January, 1978. Throughout this process the education of the student, the best use of available tax revenue, and the welfare of our employees have been paramount in our efforts.

For many years, the Tecumseh School District has proudly offered a quality education program which has included a broad, comprehensive curriculum, plus extra curricular activities for students at all levels. Your Board of Education is charged with the responsibility of maintaining these programs, and where appropriate, improving these within the resources made available to the Board. This responsibility has never been felt more deeply as the Board views the impact of inflation on our overall operation.

At the bargaining table, the Board has presented a proposal which it believes is fair and equitable to both the teachers and taxpayers of the school district. Recently, at the request of the Tecumseh Education Association, we entered into mediation. The State appointed mediator has requested both parties to review the unresolved issues, and be prepared to again meet in mediation at the bargaining table. We will comply with this request.

Your Board is prepared to continue negotiations as required under Public Act 379, with the sincere desire that the unresolved issues can be settled as soon as possible.

TEA Statement

The Tecumseh Education Association bargaining team and the two representatives for the Board of Education entered mediations at 3:30 p.m., Friday, Sept. 22, 1978.

The mediator, George Rickey from Michigan Employment Relations Commission, received in an open session, the unresolved issues and position statements from both parties.

At that time, the parties went to separate rooms where Mr. Rickey met for two-and-a-half hours with the Board team to establish its profile. He then returned to work with the Association and establish its profile. Mr. Rickey, returning to Supt. Robert Duhan and his assistant, Gene Cooley, worked for another hour and a half only to return to the teachers at 12:30 a.m., and report, "I'm going to adjourn mediations for the night so that Mr. Cooley and Mr. Duhan can do some checking."

He further stated, "If I could smell a settlement four or five hours down the road, we would continue, but since we are moving at something less than an accelerated snail's pace a new date for mediation will be established within the first two weeks of October.

Late on Monday, after a general Tecumseh Education Association meeting, a press release from the Association reveals that within the last week, the real issue generating the breakdown in bargaining appears to center on the Board's refusal to effectively bargain in good faith.

Once again, this time after a mediation session, the controls of authority are outside the bargaining table and perhaps outside the Tecumseh Public School system. This continual battering that the Association and administration must experience at the table tends to make a mockery of the bargaining laws, frustrating both teams' members who must continue to live with each other while providing for the education and well-being of our youngsters in this community.

Meanwhile, those who control the strings of settlement, sit in their offices and do not experience this frustration.

In examining the historical background of the predicament we face, certain patterns begin to emerge.

Never in the history of Tecumseh Public Schools bargaining have the Superintendent and the Assistant Superintendent received so little trust and authority at the table from the Board of Education.

Never in the history of Tecumseh Public Schools bargaining has the Board projected a "take it or leave" attitude.

Never in the history of Tecumseh Public Schools bargaining have private sector labor relations tactics been applied (such as sending confidential letters implying individual bargaining).

Never in the history of Tecumseh Public Schools bargaining has the Board created a climate to induce a strike.

The implication of such patterns would lead one to believe that the consequences of a prolonged labor dispute would be devastating to our young people.

Therefore, on behalf of the community, the Tecumseh Education Association challenges the Board of Education and Mr. Duhan and Mr. Cooley to a marathon bargaining session to resolve all unsettled issues.

PRESENT TROPHY — A number of Fisher Body employees and officials were present at the formal trophy presentation Tuesday afternoon. Those participating, from the left, were Bonnie McCarley, J.J. Edwards, Blass Ybarra, Karen Amstutz, Edmund Henry, Paul Pender, George Hooton, William Polk, Larry Lock, George LaBarge, Jim Gillespie, Philip Chrzan and Ray Mattoon. Pender is general manger of Fisher Body and vice president of GM, and Polk is plant manager of the Tecumseh Fisher Body Plant.

Foundation's $89,900 Goal Highest Ever

Annual kickoff meeting for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation's annual drive will be held at 9 a.m. on Oct. 6th at Don's Beef Buffet.

Although this year's goal of $89,900 is the highest yet, over $95,000 was raised last year when contributions set a record.

Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent of schools, will succeed Harry Hans as general chairman of the drive. Roger Proctor will serve as Cooley's assistant.

The kickoff session, involving a number of local people directly involved in the drive, is the final organizational meeting prior to the campaign.

Industrial, commercial, professional, school, residential, public employee and special gift chairmen will be announced at the meeting.

Extends Review Privilege

The Herald's position relative to the School Board - Tecumseh Education Association contract situation will be one of neutrality. The local newspaper does not wish to be a factor in prolonging settlement through a news article that could possibly be construed as harmful in negotiations.

This policy does not pertain to statements released from the Board or TEA. Such statements will be published verbatim.

The Herald has offered to both parties the privilege of reviewing news items for accuracy prior to publication. For example, TEA officials reviewed and approved last week's article that appeared on the front page.

Report Progress in Civic Center, Plan Drawing

William Frownfelder of the Tecumseh Civic Center Study Committee reported progress at the committee's Aug. 30 meeting. He said that the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation is supportive of the concept of a civic center project and will hear from the civic center committee before it makes any financial commitment.

A committee of five persons was formed to present a report to the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation. Members are William Frownfelder, Clarence Lacny, Barbara Blanden, Jim Gillespie and Cal Zorn.

Cost of the project was discussed. At least $10,000 will be needed initially for architects fees and a land option.

The last known site being considered by the Civic Center Study Committee was acreage on the east side of N. Maumee St., across the high school.

The question of title to the finished civic center was discussed, but no final decision was made.

A preliminary architectural rendering, by Mike Knisely, senior architectural students, is expected soon so the civic center committee will have some visible tools with which to approach future investors or contributors.

Why Have a Full-Service Funeral?

Since the beginning of recorded history, man has publicly viewed and buried his dead with dignity and ceremony. Although rituals have differed, the funeral service meets the needs of the survivors, the living, as well as provide for the deceased. What are these needs and how does a full-service funeral provide for these needs?

Realization: First, it is a declaration of a death which has occurred and a testimonial to a life which has been lived. Denial of a death is not uncommon. The very fact of a funeral and the viewing of the body (or casket) facilitates the realization of the death.

Emotional expression: The full-service funeral is of deep significance, emotionally and psychologically, aside from the obvious clinical need for preparation of the deceased for burial. Sorrow-shared is sorrow-diminished. The full service and the facing of true facts is the first step toward emotional adjustment to bereavement.

For more information about the full-service funeral, stop by, phone or write. Helpful literature is available without obligation.

(This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask questions privately or publicly through this newspaper.)

Debate Garbage

Sept. 18 Tecumseh City Council had its seasonal merry-go-round discussion about the city's 11-year-old garbage collection system.

Council decided 4-3 that the new refuse collection bid will be based on providing the traditional 50 bags to each household unit.

The present system started in January 1967. Fifty 30 gallon paper bags are now distributed to each household in the city. Figure is based on use of one bag per week and no bags for two weeks annual vacation.

Additional bags may be purchased currently at 48 cents at the Clothesline Laundry, W. Chicago Blvd. This is the same cost per bag that the city pays.

The collection system has been financed through Tecumseh's share of federal revenue sharing funds since the city started to receive them in 1972. Prior to the revenue sharing funds, households were billed on the utility bill for a minimum of 50 bags annually.

Lenawee Disposal is now the contractor.

"I hope that there will be adequate time for response from the citizens," Council member Len DeMoss started the discussion.

"It's always in the middle of winter. They go three to four weeks without pick up. I don't see anything in the contract that would give the citizen an option," DeMoss explained.

"Maybe additional bags should be given to those who have more than the average number of people," suggested Council member James H. Palmer. He suggested households with one to three members be given 50 bags; four to six members, 65 bags and six and over, 80 bags per year.

Certifying the number of people per household would be extra work, said Council members Carlton Cook and Mary Bowers, disagreeing with Palmer's suggestion. "Why would we keep figures like that?" asked Cook.

"Twenty percent of the people move a year. Does a family of six get a refund?" asked Manager Cal Zorn.

"I still maintain that 50 bags are not enough for the average family. At Christmas alone you need two extra bags," said DeMoss.

"The 50 bags were never intended to be an average. They were intended to be a minimum," said Zorn. "When we billed the bags on the utility bill, nobody clamored. When we started to furnish 50, now we're supposed to furnish 100."

"I always thought it was an equitable system because the widow or small family could use bags without paying extra," said Mayor Aden Mead. He questioned whether smaller families wouldn't subsidize larger families under Palmer's suggestion.

Council members Jay Tressler, Palmer and DeMoss repeated that they wanted to see an increase in the number of bags supplied.

"I wonder if there aren't more ways to use the bags economically. If they chose not to do it, let them buy the bags," said Mead.

"I think they were used more economically when people paid for them," said Council member Cook in agreement.

Cook, Mead, Easton and Bowers voted "yes" to limit the number of bags furnished to 50. Palmer, DeMoss and Tressler voted "no".

City will advertise an invitation to bid to disposal contractors and send letters of invitation to those listed in the Yellow Pages, said Zorn. Council will probably select a bidder in October.

Senior Housing Faces Delay

The saying goes "No news is good news", but in the case of Tecumseh Senior Citizen housing, no news means disappointment. Five months have passed and the city's application for a loan for senior citizen housing from the Farmers Home Administration hasn't been reviewed at the state level.

Tecumseh's five-member housing commission will powwow at city hall 9 a.m. Thursday, said Assistant City Manager Russ Easton.

Preston said a letter from Farmer's Home Administration stated that due to staff training and reorganization, Tecumseh's application has not yet been reviewed. The irony is that the application was to have taken a limit of 60 days for review.

According to Preston's informal sources, Tecumseh's application was 28th in line to be reviewed. Perhaps one encouraging note is that neither the county nor the district had any problems with Tecumseh's application, said Preston.

One of the reasons the city applied for funds to Farm Home Administration was because it supposedly had faster review than the federa Department of Housing and Urban Development. Farm Home is an agency of the federal Department of Agriculture that specializes in loans for housing construction to communities of population under 10,000.

Tecumseh plans a four-story, 122-unit senior citizen complex for an eight-acre plot of land off Adrian St., nearby Tecumseh Park.

"We want people to know we are doing something," said Preston. He said Tecumseh Housing Commission members Paul Fackler, Roger Proctor, Jim Daly, Jens Touborg and Nancy Nichols will consider alternatives Thursday.

Hear Alley Plans

Three schemes to try prevent another flooding disaster in the alley of the northwest business block were reviewed by Council Sept. 18 with no action.

City manager was asked to discuss the plans with property owners involved.

Aug. 7, Trickey's new addition on N. Evans was flooded when three inches of rain fell in half an hour. Since that time city engineer Kipke has been studying the storm sewers and water conditions in the alley behind Trickey's Inc.

City manager Cal Zorn told Council, "The only thing that's really going to do any good is to lower the alley as much as we can." Cost of that option was estimated at $4,800 by the city engineer.

Zorn pointed out however, that another problem must be taken care of first. A dye test of the catch basins on the north side of the alley showed that water ran into a sanitary sewer, which Zorn said is against the city's ordinance.

Council members discussed the property owners on the south side of the alley indicated they were willing to replace or recap paving on their own property.

"They should be approached in such a manner that they know that they are not being forced to do this to solve Trickey's problem," said Council member Harold Easton.

Council indicated it would take care of alley portion, considered a public thoroughfare, if the property owners would pay for costs of repair on their properties.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

It's that time of year again. As we shift from one season to another there is no clean-cut decision but a gradual ebb and flow of summer and fall activities. One predominates for a while and then the other comes forth, always, however, the season into which we are advancing predominates, there is more fall than summer, and finally summer gives up completely.

Fortunately we have not reached that stage yet — as I dictate this there is still that marvelous tug of war going on as Mother Nature tries to decide which season she should be.

At this exact moment it is late fall on the near-my-window feeder. Two chickadees are squeaking their pleasure at finding a fresh supply of scratch feed and sunflower seeds.

Although these two little characters have been around for many, many weeks — actually this is the same twosome who came to the feeder when young and has allowed us the pleasure of watching the progression from youngster to near adult — still and all, chickadees bring to my mind visions of cold blustery weather.

If these two continue to be faithful we should be in for a good chickadee winter. They are both quite grown up and handsome. Their feathers are smooth and soft — finally their big heads have gotten beyond the pinfeather rough and ragged stage, and are almost velvet smooth.

As for color, they are beautiful. The black is jet black, the gray a pearly gray, and the white just slightly off-white. One shows much more color under his wings and on the sides of his breast than does the other. It is a rich reddish buff, almost a russet, perhaps even a dark peachy color. Very pretty.

Whereas chickadees bespeak cold weather to me, Saturday afternoon's brief visitor was most definitely a summertime thing. Mom and I were busily engaged in the boring, but essential, task of sorting through old files when something prompted me to turn my attention from the job at hand and look at the front window.

There, hovering slightly below the middle of the center pane of glass, was a hummingbird. Mom and I could hardly believe our eyes, we had not seen one of these tiny jeweled helicopters all summer.

There she was though and there she stayed for some moments. It looked for all the world as if she were peering inside with great curiosity and wondering what was going on. We know, of course, that such a thought never entered her head.

But, as she hovered there for some moments, we could not help wondering what prompted her to come so close to the window. Could it have been the red glass inside or the flowers beneath the window outside?

Being a dull day the hummer looked a little on the dark, unspectacular side. It takes bright sunshine to make these birds sparkle. Being a female she lacked the cravat that her mate wears. In sunshine it is a brilliant scarlet but with no sunshine it is merely a dark neck piece.

The female, however, is a dirty whitish color on her front with no markings at all. This gal was rather long and slender, perhaps she had not yet fully recovered from the exhausting work of rearing a family. Come to think of it, she looked haggard.

By now most of our local robins are either gone or are packing and getting ready to trek southward. Thinking about this annual fall trip reminds me of one motel in northern Florida. We only stayed there once but it was right next to a small park and, never in our lives, had we three Duncans seen so many robins. The park floor was absolutely carpeted and the trees full.

Just before dinner yesterday, the noise in the bushes beneath the near-my-window feeders was hard to believe. I knew it had to be young cardinals. That shrill high-pitched squeaking is unmistakable.

Soon two brown bodied, black billed youngsters without topknots ventured to one of the food trays. Skiddish and nervous, they took fright at something and disappeared over the creek bank. They were a nice reminder of summer though.

Banda, Castorena Lead THS Runners

The Tecumseh boys cross country team ran in two meets this week, beating league foe Flat Rock, 22-36 and placing sixth out of 18 teams in the Jackson Invitational Saturday.

Saturday, THS went up against four of the top schools in the state at the invitational and they beat two of four other schools there that were highly rated.

THS Girls Beat Adrian by Six

The tough, pre-season schedule of the THS girls basketball team seems to have paid off. After losing to some tough Ann Arbor teams in the early season, the girls came back with more experience to play Adrian Tuesday night and went away with a 42-36 victory.

The game looked easy for the local favorites at the end of the third quarter. The defense had played an excellent game and had just held Adrian scoreless the whole quarter. Offensively, Tecumseh had an 18 point edge.

Coach Diane Nelson then began substituting and Adrian began to hit from the outside at the same time. Adrian pressed and THS suddenly found themselves only two points up with 4:13 left in the game.

The team jelled and finished six points on top in the end with Sandy McGeorge leading all scorers with 22 points. Kris McDonald was second with 10.

The team hit 14 of 24 from the line and went 14 of 46 for 30% on the floor. Their foul shot game has improved but the coach reports they still must work on their floor shooting percentage.

Going into the game, Coach Nelson made some changes in her lineup.

Thursday, the girls were not nearly as lucky, as they dropped a match against Ann Arbor Pioneer, 57-46.

The team was in the game until the last three minutes and then they missed a lot of defensive assignments. Pioneer pulled away and ran on THS until they achieved a wide point margin for the win.

McGeorge and McDonald led the scoring with 17 each. Team shot six of 20 from the line and 33% from the floor.

Brian Banda finished on top for the placing 19 at 16:03. Jesse Castorena was 21st at 16:05. D.J. Biscupski placed 38th with a time of 16:23 and Scott Betzoldt was 53rd at 16:43. Lenny Castorena posted a time of 17:28 for 77th place.

Tuesday, Tecumseh beat Flat Rock for their second league win to no loses for the year. Still, they meet a tough Monroe Catholic Central team Tuesday in Monroe and that will be a meet the boys are going to have to run their very best in.

Ken Jabe finished first for Flat Rock at 15:52, but Tecumseh filled six of the next seven spots in the place listings to give them the victory.

Jesse was second at 16:17 with Betzoldt just 20 seconds behind for 3rd. Banda was 4th, finishing 20 seconds later at 16:57 Biscupski was 6th, Fred German 7th and Lenny 8th.

Tecumseh has now added 100-150 yards to their course and that has added about 25 seconds to their times.

Girls Lose

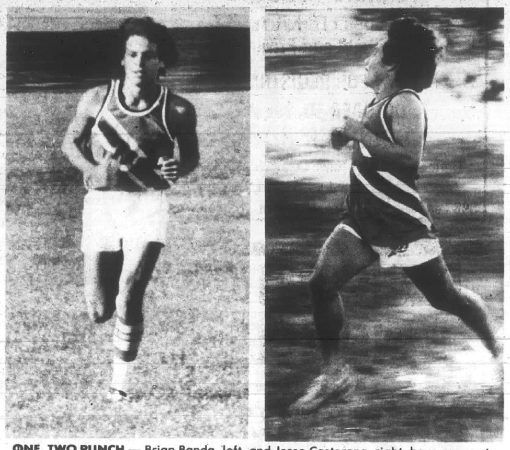
Tecumseh's girls lost a tough cross country meet to Milan this week, 17-44. Milan is rated one of the top five teams in the state and is undefeated to date.

Anne Smoke finished 4th for the Indians at 21:03. Leslie Oliver was 7th at 21:43. Tecumseh was without the aid of their third top runner, Pam Meeks, who was sick.

Directions

Here are the directions to Friday's game between Tecumseh and Monroe Catholic:

Take M-50 across T...graph Rd. into Monroe where M-50 becomes Front St. Travel Front St., take the right fork in the road and follow Third St. to Monroe St. Turn right from Monroe to Sixth St., turn left on Sixth St. to Navarre Field.



ONE, TWO PUNCH — Brian Banda, left, and Jesse Castorena, right, have proven to be Tecumseh's one, two punch this year in cross country wins. (PHOTOS BY JIM LINCOLN)

Extend Streak to Nine Straight

The Tecumseh golf team extended their dual league streak to nine in a row Thursday with a 163-173 win over New Boston Huron at Carleton Glenn Course.

The nine in a row represents every win for a THS team in league competition since 1976.

Ron Smith was low man for the local team, turning in an even par 35. He shot two birdies and two bogeys. John Faulkner followed at 42. Kevin Coszka, Mike Zettle and Greg Scheuerman each hit 43's.

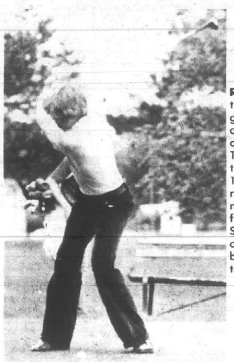
The JV's won their league match 175-206 and extend their league streak to more than a dozen wins. Mark Walter was low at 42.

Saturday, at the Clinton Invitational, THS tied with Clinton for second at 151, but lost the playoff for the trophy. Teams played at Centerview.

Smith again lead the Indians and teamed with Faulkner in the best ball tourney to post 42, 33. Smith had one eagle and two birdies. The two also tied for third place as a team and won the playoff.

Coszka and Zettle posted the other score for Tecumseh, 41, 38.

Tecumseh meets their best competition Wednesday, here, in a match against Monroe CC. They host Hillsdale Friday and Airport Monday.



RON SMITH... was the name in THS golf again this week as he fired a 35 against New Boston Thursday. He led the local team to a 163-173 victory, the ninth dual league meet win in a row for Tecumseh. Saturday, Smith had one eagle and two birdies in the Clinton Invitational.

Clinton Golf

Brad Eversole dropped a seven foot putt on the last regular hole to put Clinton's golfers in a sudden death playoff for second place at their invitational Saturday. Bernie Hough then dropped a four footer on the first hole of the playoff for a par to give the team the second place trophy.

Adrian won the best ball, two man, two team invitational with a 70-77. Clinton was second at 75-76. Tecumseh and Hillsdale were tied with Clinton at 151 before the playoff.

Blake Clark and Tom Eddy posted the 75 for Clinton while Hough and Eversole posted the 76.

In regular play last Thursday, Hough and Eversole posted 40's to lead Clinton to a 213-224 win over Gabriel Richard.

Clark and Eddy posted 44's and Mark Dettling hit 45.

Then on Tuesday, Clinton dropped its record to 3-2 in the league after Manchester shot 203 to the Redskin's 215.

Eversole was low for Clinton at 38. Eddy followed at 40 and Steve Porterfield carded 44. Hough carded 46 and Clark 47.

The win put Manchester in first place at 4-1 and Clinton is tied for second with Addison. They meet Addison Wednesday, away, and then travel to Onsted Thursday and Hudson Monday.

Punt, Pass, Kick Competition Set

Pick up registrations at George Underwood-Ford, Clinton, for Punt, Pass and Kick.

Competition is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 1, at 12:30 p.m., at the Clinton football field behind the middle school.

Clinton Slips by Addison, 14-6

The Clinton varsity football team extended its record to 2-0 Friday by defeating Addison by a score of 14-6.

The first Clinton score was set up on an interception by Casey Thilo who carried the ball down to the Addison 13 yard line where quarterback Terry Carlton found tight end Barry Yocum open for the score. The extra point was good on an option run by Carlton.

The second half saw Addison scoring in the third quarter, but the Clinton defense toughened and stopped the all important extra point making the score Clinton 8, Addison 6.

In the final stanza Clinton's offense clicked for some big yardage on two, 27 yard passes from Carlton to Yocum and the final seven yards saw Thilo going in for the score.

Defensively Jeff Porterfield had 14 tackles and deflected two passes. Rudy Weirich had three big interceptions and eight tackles while Thilo, Hoag, and Russ had seven tackles each.

Clinton is home this week against Onsted and the coaches and players would like to thank all the Clinton supporters who attended the game.

B'Ballers Roll over Britton

The Clinton girl's basketball team rolled easily over the Tories of Britton to post a decisive 69-28 victory Thursday in non-league action and preserve Clinton's unbeaten status.

The Clinton team established a lead early in the game which was never seriously threatened. At the end of the first half the score stood at 24-2.

Turnovers were perhaps the biggest factor favoring Clinton with Britton relinquishing possession of the ball 34 times.

Clinton also outshot Britton two to one with the Redskins hitting 35 percent to the Tories 17. On the boards the story was the same with Clinton pulling down 24 to Britton's 14.

Sue Richter and Lisa Clark were the high scorers for Clinton with 18 points each. Janene Schultz tried to keep Britton alive with 13.

Flat Rock Embarrasses THS, 26-0

The Flat Rock Rams literally invaded Indian territory Friday night and stung the Tecumseh football team with a 26-0 loss.

Offensively, the Indians moved the ball down field only twice. Once, they were in scoring position but were held at first and goal at the Ram's three yard line.

Defensively, the Indians just could not stop the Ram pass or the run. Add to that, six THS turnovers and you have an embarrassing Tecumseh defeat after a confidence filled victory the Friday before.

The Rams scored early in the first quarter with an eight-play, seven point series.

Tecumseh charged right back on the next series, The Indians were then held inside their five and actually lost yardage on the next four plays.

In the second quarter, the Ram's picked off a Jon Betzoldt pass and then threw for two long first downs that put them on the Indian's 28 yard line. A third pass made the score 14-0.

The Rams did not score in the third frame, but Tecumseh did put together their only other offensive move of the game

That series ended early in the fourth quarter when Betzoldt failed to connect on a fourth down pass from the Ram 35.

Flat Rock was then aided by Tecumseh penalties and fine running on their way to three first downs and another score. A missed extra point made it 20-0.

The rams scored one last time after sacking the THS quarterback on fourth down. Another personal foul penalty moved the Rams closer and they scored.

John Lacny blocked the extra point attempt.

Ely led all THS rushers with 67 yards in 13 carries. Betzoldt was four for 11 passing, all to Borton for 32 yards.

The Rams had 17 first downs to THS's seven. They rushed 160 yards to Tecumseh's 127.

On defense, Randy Russell recovered one fumble for the Indians while Dave Render, Mark Creswell and Tom Chatters led in tackles with 35 between them.

26-0 LOSS — THS had trouble executing offensive plays Friday and the defense just could not get their act all together as the Flat Rock Rams handed the Indians their first league loss of the season. At left, sophomore safety Scott Hans pursues a Ram end after the Flat Rock quarterback connected on one of 10 successful passes.

By Kathy Brown

Bob and Betty Kline and sons, Dave and Mike, 511 W. Chicago Blvd., are the winners in the "Vacation Jam" contest sponsored by this column writer. Their prize was a sample of my homemade strawberry and raspberry jam. (My friends tell me it's better than Smuckers'. Now aren't you sorry you didn't enter.)

The Kline family was the only one brave enough to share the most amusing vacation situation. After reading it, perhaps you'll agree that they deserve something sweet to extinguish the memory of their gastronomic experience. Here's their story:

"Our first night in Germany, we dashed out of the rain into a nearby restaurant. Armed with our phrasebook and dictionary, we were all prepared for dinner. Unfortunately the menu was handwritten. We couldn't read a word of it to look up the words. They (the restaurant help) spoke no English on the same par as our German.

"One section of the menu looked like it had 'wurst' in most of the words, so we took a shot and just pointed to four items. What a mistake. Shortly after, 'dinner' arrived--a cheese sandwich on bread spread with lard and a hot dog-like sausage. Those plates went to the boys. We were left with the other two plates--raw fish!

"After many sessions urging the boys to try everything, it was difficult to down even a bit of it. It was really awful.

"From then on, we decided if we couldn't read it, get interpreted or find it in one of our dictionaries, we weren't ordering it."

Isn't that the wurst experience you've ever heard?

Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son Ricky Frank Horton, who passed away 15 years ago September 29, 1963.

This is our strength as years go by: The one we loved can never die.

In our memory he lingers still, In our hears he always will.

Missed so much and forever loved by his loving parents.

Parade Swells, Entries Scurry

CLINTON — Several new parade units have indicated they will participate in the Fall Festival parade Sunday, Oct. 8.

To facilitate the parade route, no parking signs will be posted on both sides of the street from 12 to 5 p.m. Sunday, on these streets: Washington, Litchfield, Edgar, River and Gibson.

Dave and Barbara VanTuyle will be the parade commentators from a reviewing stand in front of the Clintonian Inn.

Recent additions to the parade line-up are:

Celtic Pipes and Drums, a volunteer band of 30 men from Oakland County. The group ranges from 18 to 80 years and many served with the Black Watch in Europe. Most are Scottish, Irish and English.

Steve and Teresa Dangler of Tecumseh with a group of 10 clown youngsters from the Tecumseh, Adrian area, Beth Taylor, Julie Million, Carla Barricklow, Shawn Dowling, Dean Wallace, Caroline Schwartz, Betsy and Chris Sherman.

High School bands from Clinton, Tecumseh and from Columbia Central of Brooklyn.

Society Meets, Discusses 150th

CLINTON — At a meeting of the Historical Society of Clinton, Sept. 21, at Lyster Hall, members discussed ways the village could celebrate the 150th anniversary of its founding in 1979.

Last celebration was 1963, when the 125th anniversary of the village incorporation was observed. Previously a centennial celebration was held in 1929.

Society members suggested year long activities would be preferable to a one day parade type of celebration. They would like to see such things as old-time sleigh rides, hay rides, box socials and picnics throughout the year as well as an old-fashioned Fourth of July.

George Lancaster brought the first record book of the Young Men's Literary Society of Clinton 1859-1862, which Mrs. Dan Reilly will review for the next meeting.

President Mrs. Charles Helgren distributed booklets on suggested procedures for installing and using wood burning stoves.

The reprinted copies of the old Lenawee County Atlases are in and those who have ordered them may pick them up at the County museum.

Next meeting will be Oct. 19 at Lyster Hall, when Dr. Charles Lindquist of the Lenawee County Museum will give the specific process for obtaining appropriate information on writing a town history.

Once again the fine showing was due in large measure to Matt Peters who finished the course in sixth place with 15:56.

Finishing behind Peters for Clinton were Nighswander in 12th position, Mark Prichard 20th, Devin Schindler 31st, and Matt McNeil 40th.

East Jackson garnered top honors for the class C division with 64 points.

See Wineries

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scheer returned last week from a 10 day business trip to Germany and France.

A wine merchant in Ypsilanti, Scheer and his wife, Sally, toured the winery and observed the harvest.

Sept. 16, they attended a dinner near Bordeaux, France, and joined a trade association of wine growers, the Commanderie du Bontemps de Medoc et des Graves. Gina Lollabrigida was another who joined the association the same night.

Dinner was served in a shai, where the wine casks were cleared out, and tables for 10, to seat 550 people were set and decorated with candlelight and flowers.

Return Tickets

CLINTON — There's a lot of Fall Festival drawing tickets out there somewhere, Gary Couture, Car Ticket Chairman, reports.

Some 21,000 tickets have been distributed to groups that are selling them, but only $5,400 cash has been turned in.

It is important that all groups turn in ticket stubs and cash, and all tickets they do not expect to sell, immediately.

If these unsold tickets are not turned in, it means more tickets will have to be printed.

TWO BARGAIN FOR 10 HOURS

Mediator Here Monday for Schools, Teachers

A 10-hour marathon bargaining session between Tecumseh Education Association and Supt. Robert Duhan and his assistant, Gene Cooley, was held starting at 4 p.m. Tuesday and ending at 2 a.m. Wednesday.

Result was some "good progress" in language items, according to Cooley, but "we're a long ways away in economics."

The Association, which represents 158 teachers in the school district and who are working on a day-by-day basis, has indicated in a statement that the TEA is "frustrated by the lack of substantial progress."

According to Cooley, the two negotiating teams also exchanged economic proposals. Details were not released.

TEA's release to the Herald from Nancy Kinnard, president of the Association, is:

"After 10 hours of intensive bargaining the Tecumseh Education Association remains frustrated at the lack of substantial progress. The next session will be with the mediator on Monday, Oct. 9, 1978. The Tecumseh Education Association came to the table Tuesday afternoon with hopes of settling the contract. But at 2 a.m. Wednesday when the board representatives were asked if they could negotiate further, they replied in the negative. A sensible solution demands both the Board and the Association to resolve this contract in binding arbitration in order to avoid disruption of school operations."

This week's marathon session was the first formal negotiating session between the Board's representatives and the TEA after both met Friday, Sept. 22, with state mediator, George Rickery.

Rickey has scheduled mediation again with the principal parties at 10 a.m. next Monday.

Meeting with Duhan and Cooley Tuesday afternoon and early Wednesday morning at the high school library were Gary Lovett, TEA spokesperson, Kinnard, Fred Birdsell, Stanley Legenc, Georgia Van Kirk, and Frank Graham.

An informal meeting took place last Friday afternoon between the Board's representatives and Lovett and Birdsell.

The schools have been negotiating with the teachers for a new contract for the past eight months. An article in last Thursday's Detroit Free Press, which stated that Adrian and Tecumseh teachers would go on strike that day, was false.

Source of the item apparently came from Michigan Education Association headquarters in Lansing.

Progress Is 'Slight' With Bus Drivers

After a seven and half-hour bargaining session Monday, the schools and bus drivers will resume negotiations for a new contract next Tuesday.

Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, reports "slight progress" at Monday's meeting.

Negotiating for the drivers is a union representative of the American Federation of State-County-Municipal Employees from Detroit.

The schools employ 24 bus drivers, and five were in attendance at Monday's session.

No details of the bargaining have been released by AFSCME or by the schools.

Council Has Clean Water Presentation

Tecumseh City Council heard a presentation from Arthur Laing of Clean-Flo Lake Improvement, Hopkins, Minn. on lake restoration. Council took no action.

The company operates as a lake management service, to help municipalities clean aquatic environments through a technique called multiple inversion that speeds up the natural aeration cleaning process of lakes and streams. Specially prescribed nutrients are used to restore natural checks and balances.

Company has worked on projects across the country. It offers a money back guarantee on its work based on the percentage of goals achieved.

City manager Cal Zorn said that his primary interest in learning about the method was its possible benefits to the city's swim lake, commonly known as "the Pit" at Tecumseh Park.

Laing gave the city "a firm quote" of $3,500 for a feasibility study. Ordinarily he said that they charge a minimum of $1,500 per lake. Tecumseh's pond system, including the Globe and Standish Ponds and the "Pit", comprise about 30 acres.

Laing estimated the cost to utilize the multiple inversion system at the swim lake as $10,000. Continuing program and maintenance would cost about $4,500 less each continuing year.

Sides showed dramatic results of other projects Clean-Flo has done. Benefits Laing cited included improved aquatic environment for wildlife, especially fish, weed control and reduced muck.

Landfill, Cemetery, Zoning on Agenda

Raisin Township board learned at its Monday meeting that the Department of Natural Resources has sanctioned the township sanitary landfill remain open until present trenches are filled.

The landfill was under threat of closing Nov. 1.

Township board requested cooperation from its residents in using the landfill as little as possible, recycling items whenever possible.

The grace period will allow the township citizens'

New Rates Protested

Increased city water and sewer rates, to offset deficits in both departments, brought at least one protest from Betty Kline, 511 W. Chicago Blvd.

Water customers were recently notified of the rate in a letter from the city.

The first 100,000 gallons cost .37 cents per 1,000 gallons; to 1 million gallons, the cost is 30 cents per 1,000 gallons; to 10 million gallons the cost is .19 cents per 1,000 gallons.

All users over 10 million gallons pay for sewer charges only which are .23 cents per 1,000 gallons of water usage.

"The homeowner is penalized, even if he or she is very prudent in the use of water while it is to the advantage of the industrial user to consume as much water as possible – if consumption is near break point in rates, it is definitely to one's advantage to pour it out on the ground to move into the next higher consumption category," Kline stated in her letter.

Council member Carlton Cook volunteered to answer Kline's questions personally.

pollution study committee an opportunity to come up with alternatives.

An Eagle Scout from Adrian was instrumental in restoring a local cemetery that Raisin Township had apparently forgotten about.

Steven Sommers of Adrian presented the Raisin Township board with a deed to a cemetery off Breckel Hwy.

The lot is the burial plot of five family members including Elizabeth Margaret Chandler, Philadelphia Quaker, early American poet and abolitionist who died in 1834. Her brother, his wife, a son and aunt are also supposedly buried there. Last burial is believed to have been in 1899.

The scout prepared a pamphlet on the history of the cemetery. He labored as a caretaker setting stones straight and mowing the lawn to make the cemetery accesible to visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gonzales, 3101 Breckel Hwy. were recognized as the property's owners.

Raisin Township will schedule a public meeting in mid-October to relate information on the charter township proposal that will be decided by Raisin voters at the Nov. 7 general election.

Raisin Township board rejected Monday the request of George Zetlow to rezone three lots adjoining Midway Market on Occidental Rd. from residential to commercial.

Zetlow wanted to open a picture framing business in a cement block building he purchased on one of the lots.

The township board decision however, upheld the recommendations of the Raisin Planning Commission

Implication Is Money for Expenses

J. Hernandez, 1010 River Acres, sent a letter to Council which left it puzzled Monday night.

Hernandez represented Tecumseh, Mich. in the Aug. 26 skydiving competition at the Tecumseh (Ontario) Corn Festival. He said the Ontario team members were compensated while the four Michigan members, the winners, had accumulated expenses.

The letter writer implied, but did not directly ask for money from the city.

"Maybe he's like a baseball manager that knows's he can't win the last one, but is preparing us for the next one," said Council member Jay Tressler.

Council member Len DeMoss, who organized local participation said he would consult with Hernandez on the matter.

Suggestions Are Sought for Drive

Industrial Park Drive may do the job when it comes to naming the street in the city's budding industrial park, but it's "too mundane" to suit Council member Jay Tressler.

He suggested the question be raised at Thursday's Chamber of Commerce meeting to see if any one else in the community has a suggestion.

Store B&E, Thefts Are Investigated

Five thefts including two motor vehicles, and a breaking and entering of a downtown Tecumseh shop were investigated the past week by Tecumseh police.

B&E occurred late Saturday night or early Sunday morning at the Watkins Shop, where entry was gained by breaking a panel of glass out of a rear door.

Officers discovered the break-in at 4:55 a.m. Sunday, and called a tracking dog from the sheriff's department. The dog led police through the adjoining parking lot and to the 200 block of E. Logan, where police theorize the party or parties had a vehicle waiting.

Reported loss is five dozen earrings, although some of the jewelry was discovered in the parking lot and along a curb on E. Logan St. Recovery included 10 pairs of pierced earrings, valued at $3 each, and two pair, valued at $4 each.

James Erb of Erb Chevrolet-Buick reported a car stolen off a lot at the agency. The 1978 Chevrolet Malibu may have been stolen as early as Aug. 28th.

Martin Wallich, owner of Tecumseh Plywood, had a pickup stolen Monday, but it was recovered later on Wildwood Circle, just west of N. Occidental.

Other reported thefts were:

Sept. 29 — Max Gilpin, 423 N. Evans St., a bicycle, later found in the 100 block of N. Evans.

Oct. 2 — Greg King, 411 Adrian St., told officers that two stop watches, a $175 camera, and his wallet with driver's license and credit cards were taken from his vehicle while parked at Tecumseh Plywood.

Oct. 3 — Phil Gamber, Tipton, reported a battery stolen from his vehicle while parked in the Presbyterian Church parking lot.

FHA Answer Anticipated

The city expects an answer this month regarding its pre-application for funds from Farmers Home Administration (FHA) to construct a 122 unit, four story senior citizen complex off Adrian St.

The city's application was dormant for almost two months at the district level of Farmers's Home due to agency reorganization. City originally applied to the FHA because paperwork was to have taken only 60 days for review.

The Tecumseh Housing Commission Sept. 28, decided to contact the governor's office for possible assistance. It decided to wait and hear from FHA before alternate financing methods are reviewed.

Alley Improvement To Stop Flooding

Construction has begun on an improvement plan for the alley in the northwest business block. Council adopted the plan Monday night. Due to storm sewer installation, project will be completed in one month.

City manager Cal Zorn reported to Council that "all of the merchants along the alley between the Gambles store and Evans St. have agreed to a program to lower the surface elevation and reblack top the area at an estimated cost of 80 cents per square foot."

Zorn said that property owners Morris and VanCamp, who own buildings leased by Trickey's store, agreed to install a storm sewer to remove water presently entering the sanitary sewer.

City share of improvement will be $2,200.

In effect, the alley will be lowered approximately one foot down the center to create an inverted crown to improve the drainage. Aug. 7 Trickey's new addition on the north side of the alley was flooded when 2½ inches of rain fell in half an hour.

Tow Service Questioned

Council member Mary Bowers questioned police department procedure in calling automobile towing service for accidents.

Police chief Merlin Mowery explained that the party in the accident is asked if there is a preference, then usually the officer at the desk telephones the service depending on service and time response.

During the discussion, it was told that Tecumseh Collision gets more of the calls.

"I don't think that they should be because they aren't in the city limits. I like to see things done fairly," said Bowers.

Final OK Received for New Bank Branch

United Savings Bank has received first approval from the Financial Institute Bureau and the FDIC for construction of a branch bank on Russell Rd. The bank announced its application for the branch last May.

Officials hope that construction will start before winter with completion early in the spring. An office of approximately 1,100 square feet is planned on E. Russell Rd., directly across from the west entrance into Tecumseh's new industrial park.

Building's exterior will be mostly brick with some frame. Construction will allow for future expansion.

It will be a limited service branch, featuring four auto lanes for drive-up facilities. A night depository is included. Parking will be front between the branch and the street.

Bank officials are now planning on two full time employees and one parttime to handle the branch's business.

United Savings Bank, which is also planning a new main office in downtown Tecumseh, has four other branches.

Settles Economics for Special Ed.

Special education staff contracts were ratified at the Oct. 2 Lenawee Intermediate School District Board meeting.

The Lenawee Intermediate Education Association exercised its option in this the third year of three year pact, to renegotiate the economic features of the contract.

The new one-year economic settlement was ratified Sept. 29 by the association. It represents a total settlement of $100,365 or an 8.01 total cost increase over 1977-78. Five percent was added to the first step of school teachers contract: seven percent for every other step and seven percent added to aides salary schedule.

In other action, the LISD board formalized its gift policy which states that final decision of accepting or utilizing any gift rests with the LISD board.

The annual mandatory special education plan for 1979-80 was approved at local levels and will be sent to the state for approval.

Charles Buckholder, instructor, updated the board on the farm power program at Vo-Tech.

and Lenawee Planning Commission to reject the request on the basis of spot zoning.

The Midway Market continues to be a non-conforming use since the township adopted its zoning ordinance.

Road projects were discussed by the Raisin Township Board Monday. A final decision will be made in December.

Roads mentioned were Ives, Dinius, Wilmoth Hwy., Labardee east of Rogers, Sutton Road between Occidental and M-52, Breckel Hwy. and DeLeon Drive. Some of these concern small lengths of road that were unpaved due to curves or indirect intersection with other roads.

Michael Dempsey, restaurant owner at Sutton Rd. and M-52, asked the Raisin Township board to reconsider his request to serve liquor by the glass at his pizzeria. He now serves beer and wine.

Dempsey stated that two other pizzerias in Adrian will serve liquor.

Lee Coffey, Raisin Township Planning Commission chairman, discussed revisions to the zoning ordinance.

Supervisor Richard Gallaway had met with Adrian Township officials and others on a proposed subdivision at M-52 and Sutton Rd.

The subdivision has been approved and state requires owners to hook up with Adrian Township sewer. Raisin Township was asked to collect unpaid debts as governing body.

Raisin Township Fire Chief Carl Wagner reported that salaries paid to the volunteerr department totaled $1,035 in September. To date fire salaries total $14,076.

Widowhood -- Adjusting to it

There are so many excellent texts and reference books relating to the adjustments which surviving widows and widowers must make. It might be helpful to list here some of them. We recommend that you file this column away for such time as you may find it necessary to suggest a book for a friend or relative (or for your own uses). These reference books are not overly technical and they will help you understand better the transitional stages of widowhood.

There's been much written of late about how to facilitate healthy mental and physical adjustments with the loss of a loved one. Here are just a few of them.

You Told Us

The letter "E" and I have not been friends since the school nurse gave me ol' "E" chart eye test and determined I needed glasses when I was in kindergarten. During formal education, students are warned to avoid getting "E's" which denote failure. The letter "E" has sure been maligned. Yet without "E" we could not remember, forgive or forget. Without "E" there is no life.

Consider further this reflection snatched from the Fulton County (Ohio) Expositor:

"The Letter 'E' is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and it's always in trouble. Yet, it is never in war, but always in peace. It is the beginning and the end of existence and the center of honesty. Though it starts off in error, it ends by making love perfect. And without it, there would be no life."

Residents and business people in the Dodge City-Harrison area have memorialized the efforts of a former Tecumseh resident by affectionately naming their local park "LaLonde Park" after the late Gordon LaLonde. In 1973, Mr. LaLonde collected $1,300 in a door to door campaign to achieve a matching contribution of $1,000 to build a fire hall for the township volunteer fire department. Balance was paid off from weekly bingo operations.

The five-acre parcel in Hamilton Township has been maintained by the Dodge City Volunteer Firemen in cooperation with Hamilton Township Volunteers from the community donated time for a park cleanup and a raffle is being held to raise funds for a tennis court. The spirit of local determination continues. Gordon was the late husband of Catherine LaLonde, of Harrison. Their daughter is Cathy McKenzie of Tecumseh.

ENERGY CONSERVATION
by Paul Preston,
Assistant City Manager and Director of Community Development

Even though I am sure that we do not want to think about it, winter is fast approaching and with it increased utility bills.

There are a number of programs available to homeowners to assist in winterizing their home, installation of additional insulation and help with payment of utility bills.

There are certain eligibility requirements for most of the programs listed below. The purpose of this article is to give you a brief overview of the programs available.

If you should require additional information or wish to check eligibility requirements for a particular program you should contact agencies mentioned in this article.

Electricity and Fuel Bills: If your utilities have been shutoff, if your utilities will be shutoff due to nonpayment of bills, and if your income does not exceed 25 percent of poverty level, you may qualify for assistance through the Community Action Agency Crisis Intervention Program or through the Michigan Department of Social Services Energy Assistance Program.

A similar program is available to those over 60 years of age through the Michigan Office of Services to the Aging.,

Home Improvement/Repair Grant: Through the Department of Social Services ADC and SSI recipients may be eligible for a home repair grant of up to $500 to correct health and safety hazards in the home, such as major fire damage, a defective furnace, etc.

For those 60 years of age and older and subject to certain other eligibility requirments, the Michigan Office of Services to the Aging provides home repairs to improve the condition of the home, to extend the life of the home and/or correct health and safety hazards.

Home Winterizing Grant: There are two major programs available. The first is through the Community Action Agency. Up to $350 is available to winterize your home to include: insulation of storm windows, caulking and weather stripping. There are certain financial qualifications. Essentially, the applicant must be head of the household and yearly family income must not exceed 25 percent of the federal income poverty levels.

The second winterization program is administered by the Michigan Bureau of Community Services. Up to $400 is provided for attic insulation, installation of storm windows, caulking and weather stripping. Their elgibility requirements are somewhat different than for the Community Action Agency.

Home Insulation Loan: This program is sponsored by the utility companies. If you are a customer of Consumers Power Company and wish to insulate your attic you may apply for a loan of up to $300 to be paid back in monthly installments.

To qualify you must be: a homeowner, a residential gas heating customer, good credit with Consumers. A 20 percent downpayment is required and up to 36 months to repay.

Home Energy Audit: MSU Agricultural Engineering Michigan State University and County Cooperative Extension Offices provide a free computerized service to help you figure out what it might cost to add insulation, installing storm windows and weather-stripping.

It will also tell you how much you might save on heating costs and how long it would take to pay off your initial investment.

If you are a homeowner you may request the free Home Energy Audit form from: EES 'Energy Hot Line" Toll Free 1-800-292-2704.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

Autumn offers a variety of seasonal foods to enjoy. Fresh apple butter and baked acorn squash are two of them.

Debbie Clark makes several batches of this apple butter every year. I prepared it this weekend and was glad I doubled the recipe. It was easy and delicious.

APPLE BUTTER

4 lbs. (12 medium approx.) tart apples
1 cup apple cider, mild cider vinegar or water few grains of salt
2 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. cloves
1/2 tsp. all spice
1 lemon (grated rind and juice)
1/2 cup sugar for each cup of pulp.

Wash, quarter, pare and core apples. Place in pan and cover with liquid (apple cider or other) and cook over low heat until soft. Put cooked apples through food mill and measure pulp. Place back in heavy pan and add 1/2 cup sugar for each cup of measured pulp.

Add seasonings and cook over low heat until sugar dissolves. Uncover and cook quickly until thick and smooth when you spoon a bit onto a cold plate. Stir with a wooden spoon during cooking so the apple butter will not stick and burn.

Pour into sterilized jars adjust caps and process pints and quarts in boiling water bath at simmering temperature for 10 minutes. Can also be placed in sterilized jars, leave head space and frozen in place of canning.

This acorn squash recipe is from a Pennsylvania Dutch cookbook and sounds good.

STUFFED ACORN SQUASH

3 acorn squash
1/3 cup molasses
1 teaspoon salt
1 pound pork sausage
1 teaspoon sage bread crumbs

Wash squash, cut in halves and remove seeds. Put a tablespoon of molasses in each half, sprinkle with salt and a pinch of powdered sage.

Fill the cavity with sausage and top with bread crumbs. Place the squash halves in a baking pan and add about an inch of water to the pan.

Cover and bake in hot oven (400 degrees) for 40 minutes. Remove cover and bake a few minutes longer to brown. Serves 6.

T-Shirts Shop Debuts

CLINTON — Alton and Orcelia Davison and son, David, of Westland have opened a new shop called "Shirts by Trouble" at 114 Jackson St. There will be a special prize drawing, Sunday of Fall Festival.

The new business will be managed by David.

Custom design T-Shirts, decorated to order, and novelties are featured now. An assortment of toys will be available for Christmas shopping.

Tom Parr and Dave Knorrp who operated the Infa-Glow Wallpaper Store at this location, dissolved partnership and closed that business two weeks ago.

Open 'Wooden Box' Doors

CLINTON — Soon after Jim and Evelyn Heimerdinger built their new house on Clinton-Macon Rd., 16 years ago, Evelyn began accumulating antiques and collectibles.

They never did use the recreation room--it was soon too full of her treasure trove of antiques. Then, the collection overflowed to the patio.

Next, good friends and nearby neighbors, Ed and Marge Yocum caught the collecting fever and recently, their garage also became crowded with the "oldies but goodies" acquired at many auctions.

Thus, was born the idea for "The Wooden Box" antique shop, opening this weekend at 141 W. Michigan in Clinton.

The shop is a joint venture of the two couples. It will be open weekends only, for a while, since Evelyn is still employed as a school social worker with Lenawee Intermediate School District; husband James is employed at Tipton Tool Co.; and Ed Yocum is employed with General Telephone Co.

Ed Yocum's creative use of materials from the Dowling homestead at Onsted, where Evelyn Heimerdinger, nee Dowling, grew up, has given a barn-like decor to the shop. Incorporated into it are such nostalgic items as the barn beams, and siding, wood track, hay cart, and sliding barn doors.

Opening days during Clinton Fall Festival, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will feature a spinning wheel demonstration by Donna Whiton of Clayton. There will also be music by Evelyn's mother, Iva Dowling, accompanied by banjo and fiddle.

Free refreshments will be served Friday.

The two women will run the shop and will be on hand to greet visitors this weekend.

Approve $29,000 in Local Permits

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board approved $29,000 in building permits reported by building inspector Charles Wilson at Monday's meeting.

Trustee Harry Comstock reported on the Sept. 26 meeting of the Clinton Cemetery Board.

Board voted to transfer $500 to the Cemetery Fund.

102 Units Crowd Route

CLINTON — Marchers in Sunday's big parade at 2:30 p.m. in Clinton will step to the lively music of five bands--Clinton High School Marching Band, Celtic Pipes and Drums from Oakland County, Michigan 5th Regiment Band of Howell, Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers and Adrian High School's Marching Band.

There will be five color Guard and Baton Corps from Addison, Jackson, Clinton, Adrian and Ottawa Lake.

A baker's dozen antique cars, trucks and tractors will parade. The oldest is a 1920 Ford Model-T fire truck owned by Max Marken of Ann Arbor.

Queens galore and even some kings will appear on floats.

No parade is complete without clowns--and this one will have nine groups of clowns from several communities.

There will be costumed Sally Covell dancers, and three units from the Shriners of Moslem Temple, Detroit.

Sauder Museum Farm and Craft Village, Archbold, Ohio, will bring a miniature horse pulling a mini-wagon with old-time farm produce.

The Army is sending a Jeep and the Navy--a destroyer on a 30' float.

Many mounted horse units will join the marchers and Pat Fero, of Ann Arbor, will drive her 1977 winning Fall Festival car, and there's lots more.

At parade's end . . . the 1979 Fall Festival general co-chairmen, George and Mary Lancaster will ride on "The Clinton Belle", symbol of Clinton's Fall Festival. The Belle is loaned by the O'Donnell family, Joe, Ellen, Jenny and Tige.

Parade forms on Tecumseh-Clinton St. and proceeds to E. Church St., then north on Currier to Michigan Ave., then west through business blocks to Division St., then south to Franklin St. and east to Middle School for dispersal.

Examine Diary of 1872 Family

CLINTON — Nora Knight reminisced about the "Old and New" for members of the United Methodist Women, about family life in 1872.

Reading from a diary of Peter S. Knight, dated Jan. 4, 1872, she noted how hard families worked each day then, yet their life revolved around their church, which they found time to attend frequently.

She also reviewed the early days of the Semper Fidelis Class.

Sharon Scott gave the devotions on the theme, "What Happens When Women Pray."

Plans were made for the annual Book Fair, Nov. 2-7.

A representative of the Logos Book Stoore, Ann Arbor, will be present at a coffee hour, Nov. 3, to review the new International Bible and other new books.

At the Nov. 6 meeting of the United Methodist Women, Margie McKenna will review the book, "Joanie."

Cost is estimated at $4,600. Inside was also painted recently. The center and the tree-shaded grounds will bustle with visitors this Fall Festival weekend as more than 40 Lost Arts crafts will be demonstrated there.

Weather or Not

CLINTON — All systems are GO for the Clinton's Fall Festival, and even the weather can't stop many of the activities planned.

There will be tents for the Pig Roast on Saturday, tent for the Apple Festival on the Center lawn, and many of the Lost Arts can be moved inside the Center if weather is rainy. Other Lost Arts may be moved into the Middle School.

Don't miss a minute of the fun.

Auditors Give Tecumseh 'Clean Bill'

Auditors Moore, Smith and Dale of Southfield gave the city books a clean bill of health after completing the annual audit last month.

Funds, agencies, operations of the city of Tecumseh as of June 30, 1978 and related statements of revenues and expenditures for the year were reviewed. "Nothing came to our attention . . . to indicate any improper or illegal action," said the public accountants.

CO-CHAIRMEN — George and Mary Lancaster will be co-chairmen for the 1979 Fall Festival and will ride in the 78' parade Sunday. Committees for next year's Festival are already being formed with the help of present committee chairmen. Volunteers are always welcome.

Clinton Harriers Seize Crown

Clinton Cross Country team captured the Division I championship of the Hillsdale College Invitational Saturday. This is the second year in a row that Clinton has won the crown.

Clinton totaled 58 points to outdistance runner-up Manchester who totaled 68.

Redskin Matt Peters battled Detroit East Catholic's all-state runner Rod Brevard for two miles only to lose out in the last mile and capture second place in 16:10.

Tom Nighswander ran an excellent race, finishing fifth in 16:37. Then the Redskins finished in mass taking 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th places out of over 50 runners.

Mark Prichard was 16th (17:25), Wes Fuller 17th in his best time of 17:29, Matt McNeil was 18th in 17:30 and Ken Caliguri ran the best race of his career to finish 19th in 17:35. Devin Schindler, who was up amongst the top runners during the first two miles tightened up at the end to capture 23rd in 17:43.

Clinton brought home the 1st place team trophy plus seven team championship medals. Six individuals captured medals for finishing among the top 20.

Then Thursday, Hudson nipped Clinton in the battle of LCAA undefeated teams.

Hudson was able to capture four of the top six spots to hand Clinton their first loss of the season. The score was 27-30.

Clinton was able to put seven runners ahead of Hudson's fifth man but the inability to capture the top spots hurt the Redskin cause.

Peters led the team finishing 2nd (16:08). Hudson's Randy Lyons won the race in a time of 15:59.

Nighswander was 4th (16:32), Prichard was 7th (17:34), Schindler was 8th also in 17:34. Wes Fuller was 9th.

Matt McNeil 10th, Ken Caliguri finished 11th Houghton was 19th.

Then against a weak Blissfield team Tuesday, CHS ran by the Royals 18-45. Peters turned in a first place performance at 16:14.

Nighswander was 2nd at 16:23. Schindeler was fourth at 17:02. Fuller and McNeil tied for fifth. Caliguri was seventh, Prichard was eighth and Houghton was 13th.

Clinton is now 5-1, 3-1 in the league behind Hudson.

Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear Dad, John I. Jones who passed away 2 years ago October 5, 1976.

God saw you wondering and waiting, He did what He thought best;
He put his arms about you, And whispered come to rest,
The heavenly gates stood open, Two years ago today;
With goodbyes left unspoken, You gently passed away.
So sadly missed and forever loved by his loving daughter, Lee Horton and family.

In memory of J. . Bater who passed away Oct. 6, 1975.
Sadly missed by his mom, Charles and Joyce and Barb and Bill.

Tecumseh golfers won three matches this week, pushing their record to 6-2 and 3-0 in the league. They are presently in first place all alone and have pushed their dual league meet record to 11 wins in a row.

Against Monroe CC last Wednesday, Greg Scheuerman led golfers to a 164-172 victory with a round of 40. Mike Zettle and John Faulkner came in second for the Indians at 42.

Ron Smith and Kevin Koszka each turned in 42's to round out the THS scoring.

The JV's won their match 185-20.

Then on Friday, Faulkner tied the school record of 36 as the Indians out played Hillsdale by 12 strokes. They posted a 158 round.

Smith came in second at one over par. Zettle and Koszka came in at 42 and 43 respectively.

In that match, on holes 13 through 16, Faulkner and Smith were playing together and shot a combined six birdies in the four holes.

The JV's won their match 173-190.

Smith led the Indians Monday as he posted a 38. THS smashed Airport 157-202.

McDonald came in second for the Indians at 39 while Faulkner and Scheuerman each posted 40's.

Dan Hall was low for the JV's with a 40. The team won their match 177-227. JV's are now 4-4, 3-0 in the league.

As an interesting note, if the Indians beat Grosse Ile their next match Wednesday, coach Paul Cunningham will have recorded his 100th win of his coaching career.

Indians play in the Jefferson Invitational Friday and then host Carlson Monday.

Girl Basketballers Beat Huron, Christie

Tecumseh's girls basketballers won two games this week, beating Lumen Christie 48-23 Thursday and New Boston Huron Monday, 39-34.

Against Christie, the Indians pressed in the first quarter and gained an 16-2 edge. That edge was never challenged.

Sandy MacGeorge and Gloria Fosbender led the way for the Indians with 12 and 10 points respectively. Kerry Hamilton was right behind with eight.

The girls shot 31 percent from the floor and hit six of 20 foul shots from the line.

Then Monday, Tecumseh had a 28-15 at the half against Huron and held on to win by a five point margin.

Kathy and Kelly Kruger lead the scoring with nine points each.

The girls still hit only 31 percent from the floor but out rebounded Huron 20-12. They hit nine of 27 from the line.

Falcons Down Indians, 6-0

As one Tecumseh coach put it, "when you play so well and get beat on the officiating, it hurts."

The officiating was bad and that's the way the game went for the Indians Friday. They lost their second league match of the season to the Monroe CC Falcons, 6-0.

The score was 0-0 half way through the fourth quarter when quarterback Jon Betzoldt made a beautiful fake to Steven Chatters through the middle.

Chatters was tackled and the play was called dead. Meanwhile, Betzoldt rounded the corner with the ball in front of the official who called the play dead. Betzoldt was caught from behind on the 12 yard line. Instead the Indians found they had the ball on their own 40.

The Falcons then mounted an offensive that took them down to the seven yard line. A Falcon runner fumbled and THS had an obvious recovery. The officials missed the play and the Falcons scored a few plays later.

Still, when they scored, CC had a first down on their three and Tecumseh made them execute three plays for the score. The score was still nearly short of the line.

That defensive stand was just an example of the Indians' best defensive game of the year. The Indians had three goal line stands inside the ten.

They were playing without many key players. Leading rusher, John Ely, and one of their top defensemen, Randy Halvin, did not dress due to injuries. Scott Schafer also didn't dress. He has a broken finger.

Mark Creswell and Kevin Salters were hurt at different times in the game and missed much of the action. Quarterback Betzoldt was also shaken up and sophomore Tim Todd filled in for a short period.

No buts about it though, the Indians had trouble moving the ball and the statistics prove it. THS had 25 yards rushing to the Falcon's 227. Passing added 58 yards in three for 13 attempts while the Falcons hit two of four for 16 yards.

Defensively Chatters had 17 tackles and Dave Render had 18. Joe Brooks recovered one CC fumble in the endzone while teammates Randy Russell and Chris Smith also recovered fumbles. Tecumseh had just one fumble, but that set up the winning score in the fourth frame.

The Indians punted seven times for 32.5 yards while CC punted five times for a 36 yard average.

BEST DEFENSE EVER — The Tecumseh Indians probably played their best defensive game ever at Monroe Catholic Central Friday. Above, number 30, Joe Brooks and 65, John Clark stop a CC runner with the help of a couple other Indian defensement. (PHOTO BY ERIK MASON)

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY — Tecumseh's cross country team is presently 3-0 in the league and is eyeing a league championship. Still they have some tough meets to go. Team includes: front, (l-r) Kirk Oliver, Jesse and Lenny Castorena, Brian Banda, Wendel West. Second, D.J. Biscupski, Scott Betzoldt, Joe Ruggirello. Third, Jeff Barnes, Fred German, John Beardsley, Ben Binder. Top, Kent Norris, Chris Sullivan, Russ Parrish, Skip Johnstone. (PHOTO BY JIM LINCOLN)

Addison Edges Clinton, 56-53

Last Tuesday Clinton's girls basketball team traveled to Addison to battle the Panthers for first place in the LCAA. Both teams were undefeated going into the contest.

In a very physical game that got out of hand, Addison edged Clinton 56-53.

CHS scored the first basket but Addison led 12-10 in an evenly played first quarter. Addison's press forced several turnovers and Teresa Nieto's 10 points gave them the lead at half time 36-26.

The two teams traded baskets during the third quarter with Addison still leading 46-36. The Redskins started a comeback and with 1:18 left in the game trailed by just three points, 52-49. However, Addison made four straight free throws to offset two baskets by Kris Pratt and held on to win 56-53.

Free throws made the difference in the game as Addison made 12 out of 17 while Clinton made just seven out of 21.

CHS shot 43% (23 of 54) from the floor and outrebounded Addison 37-30. Leading the Redskins in scoring and rebounding were Sue Richter with 16 points and 12 rebounds and Lisa Cark with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Porterfield and Thilo rushed 92 and 76 yards for Clinton respectively.

The defensive squad proved as formidable as the offense, as the score indicates. From linebacker position Porterfield dispatched 14 ball carriers and Lee Russ grabbed 10 more.

Clinton remains undefeated in league play.

The Redskins will host a tough Blissfield team for their Homecoming Friday, 8 p.m.

Break Record, but Lose to Hudson

Clinton won two matches and broke the school record this week, but lost a tough golf match to Hudson Monday.

Wednesday, the golf team broke the school record by four strokes, despite the attempts of the rain to halt the match against Addison. Final tally left CHS on top 204-215.

Blake Clark was low for Clinton at par, 36. He had one bird and one bogey, while parring the seven other holes. Bernie Hough came in at 38. Mark Dettling shot 42, Brad Eversole, 43, and Steve Porterfield, 42.

The old school record was 163, four strokes over the four man score of Clinton, 159.

Thursday, at Onsted, CHS's number six and seven man came through to help lift Clinton to a 212-217 victory.

Porterfield fired a 42 to finish second and Gary Gibbard shot a 44 to tie with Tom Eddy for fourth.

Hough finished on top for Clinton at 39. He shot three bogeys the first four holes and then parred out. Eversole was the other finisher at 43 for third place.

Monday, Hudson turned in their finest score of the year to jump past Clinton 211-223. Hough was low for the Redskins at 42.

Eversole, Clark and Gibbard each posted 45, while Eddy brought up the rear one stroke back.

Clinton is now tied with Hudson for second place while Manchester occupies first.

Marshal won the meet with 43 points. The Indians were right behind with 65.

Against Monroe CC Tuesday, the Indians pulled off a tough 23-34 victory.

The boys ran well and they had to, to win against a much improved CC squad. Now they run in the Manchester Invitational Saturday and then run their biggest match yet against Airport next Tuesday.

Against CC, Castorena was first at 15:51, while Banda followed in 3rd place with a time of 16:06.

Betzoldt was 4th at 16:11, Lenny Castorena was 7th at 17:08. Fred German was 8th and Biscupski was 9th.

The girls ran against St. Mary's Tuesday and lost 23-36.

Julie Burkhardt was 7th with her best ever at 22:47. Lillian Eby was 11th with her best time to date at 24:04. Monica Mumme ran a 12th place 24:57 with a hurt ankle.

Girls Beat Pittsford, Just Edge Deerfield

The Britton girls basketball squad won two games this week. They just edged Deerfield 44-43 Thursday and beat Pittsford 52-37 Monday.

Thursday, the Tories won the game at the foul line when they connected on 14 of 23 attempts and Deerfield could hit only three of 17.

Jodi Smith led the Britton scorers with 16. Armstrong was the second leading scorer with 14.

Monday, Janene Schultz dropped 19 points in the basket and Smith added 15.

Pittsford held close much of the game, but the Tories pulled away with six quick points from Schultz and five from Smith. Britton is now 5-2 for the season.

Hammers Pounding, Cast Reciting at Glass Room

Bells are ringing, hammers are pounding and the cast is reciting. The Tecumseh Players have begun enthusiastic rehearsals for their fall musical comedy, Bells Are Ringing. Director Richard Pahl is busy blocking the scenes and Lori Thompson, the choreographer, said all is well in that department.

Show dates are Oct. 27, 28, Nov. 2, 3 and 4. Reservations are necessary. Call 423-2770, or alternate number only, 423-5929.

Production will be presented in the Tecumseh Community Center Glass Room, E. Chicago Blvd. Curtain is 8 p.m. each evening.

New local talent has come up for the show, led by Donna Andre of Tecumseh. She plays the lead of Ella in the show. This is her first work with the players and she has impressed everyone with her talent and hard work.

Donna has been in high school productions, but this is her first community theater venture.

Lori Egli has a long list of accomplishments with other groups and with the Tecumseh Players. With the Players she was in Dear Ruth, Mary, Mary, Never Too Late and the 1978 winter play, Two Blind Mice. In this show, Lori plays Sue, owner of the answer phone service. Sue gets conned into giving her savings to a slick romantic crook played by John Frye. He is well known for his rich singing voice.

Romantic male lead Jeff Moss is played by Dick Egli. He has performed for the Players in the past shows such as Guys and Dolls and Finian's Rainbow. Multi-talented, he also writes plays.

Tecumseh's Dr. Carlton Cook will have the part of Kitchell, the singing dentist. Cook is a long time veteran of the stage and has been in numerous Players' productions. Dear Ruth, Torch Bearers and Anything Goes were some of his local credits.

John Thomas, relative newcomer, has again consented to take a part. His last adventure was as the doctor in Two Blind Mice. In this musical he will play the nervous show producer Hastings. He is constantly pestering Jeff Moss to finish his much overdue play.

Two comedy jewels in this musical are played by Hank Hart and Howard Furry, the super detective team of Francis and Barnes. Barnes is overenthusiastic in his job and Francis is a tag along. The result is disaster.

Howard Furry is a veteran comic of the Players' productions. Hank Hart makes his stage debut, but has delighted the cast in rehearsals.

Ricki Speller has done so many backstage jobs for the Players, it would be hard to list all of them. This time she has consented to be on stage. She will have the part of Gwynne, an operator in the answering service. She performed in Dear Ruth and a cameo role in Two Blind Mice.

The part of Olga, Jeff Moss' selfish girlfriend, is portrayed by Laura Mead. She is remembered as the Wicked Queen in the Players' children production of Snow White.

Brooklyn area talent is also featured. Kevin Baetz, a talented artist who writes, sings, dances and acts, will play Blake, the unemployed actor in the show. Kevin plans to pursue theater in New York.

Bruce F. Hardcastle will play Carl, the dancing delivery boy. Bruce entertained in the past production of Look on the Bright Side, produced by the Brooklyn Jaycees, co-authored by Kevin Baetz.

The cast in completed with chorus members

Heather Beatty, Lisa Caterina, Becky Hite, Gerry Johnstone, Kathi Johnstone, Kirk Jubenville, Dick Lewis, Richelle Marks, Ann Mason, Ginger Meikle, Kim Swift, Sandy Swift and Karyn Thomas.

WORKING TOGETHER — L-r standing, Ina Basham and Irene Baldwin, Foster Grandparents work in the Boysville library with Mike Chaffin, Jim Reeves and Robert Parker.

Boys Appreciate Grandmas' Time

by Kathy Brown

Those of us who were fortunate to know our grandmothers may remember her as the understanding heart in the family. Words of praise and encouragement seemed to come easily from her lips. She was the preferred adult companion to soothe an adolescent ego with fun and laughter.

Grandma's reward was appreciation. Many lessons in love were learned in those hours we shared.

Ina Basham and Irene Baldwin of Clinton feel appreciated by their "grandsons". The women share their time, talents and love with the students at Boysville in the Foster Grandparent Project.

Foster grandparents, men and women, work with youngsters in institutions, hospitals, schools and other places. They provide individual attention to these children and young adults for four hours a day, five days a week, 50 weeks a year. For their service, they receive a stipend, which helps the senior citizens be more financially independent.

"I've enjoyed every day. It's 20 hours of fun," said Mrs. Basham enthusiastically. She started working with the Boysville students this past summer.

"I'm truthfully glad to be assigned to Boysville," Mrs. Basham continued. "The boys are always respectful. They always let me go first and pick up my tray after lunch. We are just full of interesting conversation. They really appreciate having someone to talk with."

"Our conversations at lunch are like a family feeling around the table," added Mrs. Baldwin. "I had two choices, an elementary school or here. I chose Boysville. I feel in some small way, I could help them be good citizens. Some of the boys don't have parents and can't return home."

"I think they like us real well," Mrs. Baldwin continued. "They're concerned about us if we aren't here or don't feel good. When we get back, they put their arms around us. They feel wanted and accepted and we also feel the same," Mrs. Baldwin summarized.

The boys' are so enthusiastic about their grandmothers, they have invited them to cheer for them at sports nights and attend mass with them at the chapel.

Mrs. Basham explained that she drove to Boysville one Sunday to show her relatives where it is. She happened to meet the visiting father of one of her boys and was introduced. "It gave us a closer relationship," she said.

Mrs. Basham works with the boys in arithmetic and languages. Mrs. Baldwin assists in the art department with crafts such as macrame, latch hook rugs and ceramics. Both of the women's families reside outside the area.

Other women work as foster grandparents at Boysville. They are Edith Aguillon, Hazel Bear and Lois Frye of Adrian. Each has endeared herself with her boys.

"It gives us a different atmosphere to have them caring in a volunteer way," said Boysville principal Carl LaGore. "It is a different age group to work with the kids. It's excellent from that respect."

Socialization is an important part of the program for both the seniors and the students. The grandparents eat lunch with the students, play cards with them in the recreation room, etc. One grandmother even baked cookies for a group that went on a summer camping trip.

The Foster Grandparent Project is open to senior citizens aged 60 and older who meet the low income requirements. They must be in good health. A stipend of $1.60 per hour is paid and does not affect Social Security or Supplemental Security Income. Mileage of 15 cents a mile and lunch or allowance of $1.35 is also provided.

One day a week, seniors attend inservice meetings at the Piotter Center, Adrian, to discuss their experiences.

Funding for the project is made possible through ACTION, the Federal volunteer agency which provides $1.4 million along with a state appropriation of $1.1 million.

The Lenawee Council on Aging, local sponsor of the program, has received a renewal grant of $117,000 for fiscal year 1979 to continue the operation of the Foster Grandparent Project.

For more information, contact Cindy Stock, project supervisor, 263-2161, ext. 285.

RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

The nursing staff at Herrick Hospital "wishes you well" during Michigan Nurse Week. In honor of Michigan Nurse Week, nurses at the hospital will host several activities from Oct. 1 through 7.

Coffee, tea, and baked goods prepared by the nursing staff will be served in the hospital main lobby and emergency room lobby all week long.

A display of caps, featuring some rather unusual caps of nurses who have or are presently working here, can be found in the lobby. This cap display includes a cap from Old Church Hospital, Romford, in Essex, England.

Monday, all patients received specially decorated placemats with a note from the nursing staff. Plans for Wednesday include flowers and notes with luncheon tray.

Plans for Thursday include coffee and snacks being served to patients by the nursing staff at 2 p.m..

A highlight of the week will be the selection of an outstanding RN, LPN, and nurse aide from each shift. These nine individuals will be chosen by their peers on the basis of their contribution to excellent nursing care at the hospital, and will be presented with corsages, compliments of Herrick Hospital's Woman's Auxiliary.

The activities for Nurse's Week have been coordinated by the Nursing Staff Council and the Nursing Office. You are invited to come down and join us in honoring Michigan Nurse's Week. From all the nurses at Herrick Hospital, "We Wish You Well".

Happy Tears Mark Diann's Goodbye

by Kathy Brown

Happy tears marked the surprise farewell party Sept. 22 at the Tecumseh Community Center in honor of Diann Anschuetz, outgoing site manager for senior citizen program.

Anchuetz will continue with the Lenawee Council on Aging as outreach coordinator. Jean Bick of Tecumseh will assume the job as senior citizen site manager in Tecumseh.

"I'm going to miss all the people," Diann said at a less watery moment. "I'm going to miss how cooperative and responsive they all were. I'm going to miss the whole program. I also hope many volunteers will help the new director. I think Jean will make a good director. Things have been good here over the last year."

After less than one week, it appeared that the senior citizens were already warming up to their new site director. "They already started calling me 'mother hen'," Jean stated. Friday during Diann's party, they presented Jean with her own leader's whistle in brown leatherette with gold chain.

Tecumsehites may recognize Jean's voice at the other end of the line for Tecumseh Answering Service which she operated for seven years. For the last 14 months, the Tecumseh woman has been a nutrition aide for the Cooperative Extension Service.

Jean worked with family living programs. She visited limited resource families, talked about nutrition and worked at programs offered at seven centers including Tecumseh.

JEAN BICK

"I enjoy working with people and more responsibility," Jean commented about her new role.

She and her husband, N. James Bick, outgoing Kiwanis Club president, celebrated 23 years of marriage Sept. 17. They have four children, Katherine of Tecumseh, Sarah of Ann Arbor and Jennifer a Tecumseh High School junior and Andrew, a seventh grader, both at home.

In her new job, Diann will be the first full-time outreach coordinator for the Lenawee Council on Aging. Part of her job will be to acquaint senior citizens with the programs available to them.

Diann served as Tecumseh site manager for just over one year. She and her husband, Gerald of 502 Seneca, have three children, Cindy, 14, Jerry, 13 and Vicky, nine.

Hurricane lamps with pewter bases were presented to Diann from the seniors. Staff cook Marge Wright and senior citizen Lucille Goodwin baked special cakes for the party held Sept. 22 at the Community Center during the noon senior citizen meal.

Volunteers Honored

Over 125 volunteer individuals and organizations were presented certificates at the annual Lenawee Council on Aging volunteer tea Sept. 20 at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Site manager Diann Anschuetz introduced Jean Bick of Tecumseh, new site manager. Anschuetz will continue to work in the LCOA as outreach coordinator.

Guests at the tea were Mayor Aden Mead, County Commissioner Nancy Nichols of Tecumseh, Margaret Mead, Debbie Harris, library director, Kathy Brown from the Tecumseh Herald, James Anderson and Bill Danley from the United Savings Bank.

Top volunteers were Ted Ehinger, Petra Flores, Florence Twiggs and Florence Miller.

Margaret Mead and Kathy Brown served refreshments prepared by staff cook, Marge Wright.

The August Company donated a floral arrangement, which was used as a door prize. Ethel Wright was the recipient.

Sew and See

A sewing demonstration will be presented free to senior citizens Oct. 11, 9:30 a.m. at Jefferson School, Adrian. Tips will be given in lingerie and caridgan sweater making.

Also Oct. 11, 10 a.m. at the Piotter Center, will be a pre-trip meeting for persons making the Philadelphia-Washington D. C. trip.

Public is invited to a craft bazaar sponsored by the LCOA at the Piotter Center, 327 Adrian, Oct. 26 and 27. Older persons may sell items for pin money.

Club Sponsors Gregg Awards

The Business Club at Tecumseh High School held its first meeting Sept. 28 for the 1978-79 school year.

Officers elected were: president, Debbi Rupert; vice-president, Karla Brighton; secretary, Terri Watters; treasurer; Michelle Roy; publicity, Sue Propst and Sandi Nash; attendance, Cindy Paterson.

For the first time this year the club will sponsor the Gregg Awards Program in typing, shorthand, and filing. The Annual Halloween Potluck is scheduled for Oct. 26 in the high school cafeteria at 6 p.m. Club graduates are welcome.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Gertie T vows that she hears them, usually in the afternoon as she walks home from our house. Mom and I look and listen but, as of this dictating, we have neither heard nor seen any of the lovely cedar waxwings. However, this may change any minute now because fall is the time of year these birds always pay us a visit. When the berries of the barberry bushes turn scarlet and Prettyman's cotoneaster bush is loaded with its pretty red fruit, the waxwings are due.

Although technically classed as migrating birds, we are apt to see the cedar waxwings in this area at any time of the year. This suits us fine.

Between seven and eight inches long, waxwings are brownish birds with a bright band of yellow across the end of their tails. A closer look shows them to have small head crests, black eye masks, a slightly yellow cast on their fronts and a silvery blue sheen on their lower backs.

They have rather short blunt tails and the habit of perching in an upright position which is uniquely their own. There is simply no mistaking cedar waxwings lined up on a banch, no other bird sit up so straight.

Avid fruit eaters, they seem to know when various trees and bushes are ripe for harvesting. And when a flock finds the 'pickin's right' the birds will stay a day or two and have a wonderful time feasting.

At least it usually takes them several days to strip the barberry and cotoneaster. Theoretically they should also like the cherries and mulberries but we have seldom seen them at these trees.

They must be elsewhere. Perhaps they know of tastier fruit or maybe there is less competition. More likely it is simply a case of them being in our trees and we just don't see them.

To counter balance what they eat in orchards, these birds consume tons of harmful insects. In other words, they more than pay for the fruit they take.

And when a flock moves in, there is no loud screaming, there is no bickering or quarreling either. Oh, waxwings are by no means silent birds; in fact, they are chatty and usually there is a running conversation going. But they converse in soft lispy wheezes which are fun to hear.

Cedar waxwings are clean birds too. Their feathers are soft, always they look neat and trim. Although we greatly enjoy their visits to the barberry bushes, most of our cedar waxwing watching is thanks to our beloved Evans Creek.

These birds love to bathe and along the creek's edge there are many shallow pools which make perfect bath tubs. After much splashing and dunking the birds fly to convenient branches for long session of feather arranging.

We have seen them do it at all times of the year.

On days cold enough so that we shivered at the sight of them throwing water about, they seemed not to mind at all.

Late nesters, July and August usually finds them busy building their bulky nests and raising their families. This summer Ida was fortunate enough to have had such a nest in one of her backyard maple trees and she was kind enough to share the experience.

One of her reports told how crowded the female seemed to be — while incubating, her little crested head showed on one side of the nest and her pretty yellow banded tail stuck over the other. Once the eggs hatched the parents were ever so busy feeding the youngsters.

At first he brought the wriggly crawlies, gave them to her and she fed the kids. Finally they both had to forage to keep ahead of these appetites.

Juvenile waxwings are rather colorless and have streaked light fronts. When our annual fall flock moves in, we shall have to look close to see if we have any of Ida's kids.

Colburn Wins District Vote

A recount of the votes cast in the August Republican primary reversed the outcome of that election, placing C. William Colburn in the running for the 18th State Senatorial District seat.

Colburn was declared the 5-vote winner Wednesday over challenger Ronald L. Trowbridge. He originally led Colburn by one vote. The final vote tally showed Colburn with 4138 votes and Trowbridge with 4133.

The 18th District includes Clinton and Tecumseh Townships. Current representative Republican State Senator Gilbert Bursely of Ann Arbor retires at year's end.

Lodge 69 Attends Dinner

TECUMSEH — Fifty-five members, their wives and guests of Tecumseh Masonic Lodge No. 69, attended dinner, held at the Methodist United Church on Bishop Reed Drive, Saturday evening.

The event, sponsored by the Lodge, was given in honor of the Old Timers of the Masonic family, in the Tecumseh area.

Following the dinner, the worshipful master of the lodge, Wilson Miller, presented John Cameron with his 50 year pin. He also introduced the officers serving with him and six past worshipful masters present.

Robert Cooper, high priest of the Royal Arch Mason, Chapter No. 42, presented a life membership in the order to Virgil Tucker.

Blue prints of the site plan and the interior of the new Masonic Temple were displayed. A progress report was made by Wilmer Kiser, who stated that ground breaking ceremonies had been held and work on the new Temple would begin as soon as the building permit is granted.

He stated that providing there is no hold up on material, the building should be completed by the latter part of April or first of May 1979.

The dinner was prepared and served by Mary Van-Valkenburg, associate matron of Chapter No. 51, Order of the Easter Star, and her committee.

Local Historic Society Studies Weatherproofing of Old Homes

Do you live in a house that is "one with nature"...that is, cold when it's blustery outside and hot all summer long?

Help is on the way. Debbie Harris, Tecumseh library director, has received numerous inquiries about insulating and more specifically, how to weatherproof the older house. Because of the emphasis on the older structure and its peculiar problems, the Tecumseh Area Historical Society was approached to research the subject.

The first installment of how to do it pamphlet can be found in the library. A 10-page summary has been prepared and several copies are available for perusal.

Comparative listings of available types of insulation, weatherstripping and caulks emphasizing effectiveness, cost and installation pros and cons have been compiled from numerous sources and should be of great value as a timesaver and concise means of evaluating which items are most applicable to the usher's particular needs, talents, and available money. This section should be of interest to any home owner, not just the old home owner.

Of special interest to the occupant of the vintage dwelling will be a section dealing with problems, solutions, and suggestions peculiar to dealing with the weather proofing of the existing structuure. There has been an emphasis here on the do-it-yourself aspect and more detail of the method is found.

pamphlet as well, and an "Insulation Handbook" has been ordered through the Old-House Journal and will be available upon arrival.

The second installment of this how-to-do-it guide is in the planning stages. A program with experts from the insulation industry is tentatively scheduled for November. Further details will be announced at a later date.

Reader Writes

To the Editor:

On behalf of the House Judiciary Committee, I wish to express our appreciation to District Judge Yale L. Kerby of Adrian for his assistance and perseverance with regard to legislation which would decriminalize routine traffic and parking violations.

This legislation represents 5 years of effort on the part of many persons and agencies associated with traffic enforcement. Judge Kerby has served effectively on the District Judges' Traffic Committee which has been instrumental in formulating the final legislative package.

We commend Judge Kerby for his strong advocacy on behalf of decriminalizing traffic offenses and for his many helpful and practical suggestions.

Sincerely

"Now you can hear my paging system over my factory noises."

"It was impossible. Every time there was a page no one could hear what was being said because of the exceptionally loud noise of the factory machinery. So I called General Telephone. They came in, checked it out and installed some large, specially designed speakers which solved the problem. It proved one thing to me. If I ever have a problem or question relating to phones, I now know I can count on my phone company to get the message loud and clear."

SCHOOL STRIKE LOOMS

Board's 'Final' Offer Rejected by Teachers

Final offer from the School Board for settling a contract with the teachers was rejected by the Tecumseh Education Association at a general meeting of the teachers Tuesday evening.

Also at this meeting, a vote of the teachers has apparently given the Association's bargaining team the authority to call a strike at any time. Approximately 140 teachers of the 158 employed by the schools "overwhelmingly" voted in support of the Association's position and negotiating team.

Wednesday morning, a TEA official said, "we're ready to bargain at any time, none of us want to strike."

This official also expects some communication later this week relative to resuming negotiations with the board's bargaining team of Supt. Robert Duhan and his assistant, Gene Cooley.

Following a mediation session that started Monday morning at 10 o'clock and lasted until 2:20 a.m. Tuesday, Cooley stated in reference to the board's final offer that he had "hopes the offer will lead to a settlement." It was this offer that the TEA rejected Tuesday night.

Few details of the problems have been revealed. It is obvious, however, that class size is a major issue, along with salaries.

Job action, per TEA statement, has been defined as strike or work stoppage. And, as stated by the Association, it is in protest of unfair labor practice.

It is not known when the two negotiating teams will return to the bargaining table. As of Wednesday, no mediation or negotiating sessions were scheduled.

TEA Reports Support for Bargaining Team

During a Tecumseh Education Association meeting held on October 10, 1978, an update was given on the status of contract negotiations. The parties negotiated with the mediator for 16 1/2 hours on Monday and into Tuesday morning.

The Association members believe that the Board is negotiating in bad faith on the issue of class size. As a result of the Board's actions the Association overwhelmingly authorized their bargaining team to call for job action to protest the unfair labor practice which the Tecumseh Board of Education have and continue to engage in during our negotiations.

Boysville Observes 30th on Sunday

MACON — Boysville of Michigan, a residential child-care agency for Michigan youth in Macon, is celebrating its 30th Anniversary by holding an open house for the public this Sunday, Oct. 15, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at its central campus.

The day will feature a carnival-like atmosphere with tours and games for all ages, a chicken dinner, and a country autumn day.

Boysville began as a school for orphans and wayward boys in October of 1948. This property was donated by the late Henry Ford who had operated a vocational school for boys in his rural home of Macon.

The late Edward Cardinal Mooney called upon two groups for help: the Brothers of Holy Cross to administer the school, and the Michigan Knights of Columbus to provide financial assistance. Both groups continue their role today.

Over the past 30 years, Boysville has served some 4,500 boys.

It is now the largest private child-care agency in the state, providing programs to 190 boys daily. The central campus in Macon, houses 125 youths, and group homes in Detroit, Ecorse, Saginaw and Alpena account for the remainder of boys served in the agency.

Boysville's services have expanded in the past decade. In addition to the central campus facility in Macon and the group homes throughout the state, Boysville also offers a family service program in the Detroit metropolitan area.

The thrust of this program is to work with families of boys in placement at Boysville. An outreach program called Family & Youth Anonymous provides counseling services to family members in a self-help group setting.

Police Investigate Herrick Park B&E

School officials reported Wednesday morning that burglars did some damages in a break-in at Herrick Park Elementary School during the night but failed in what was obviously a search for money.

Harold Kempf, custodian, discovered the B&E about 5:45 Wednesday morning.

Entry to the school building was gained by breaking an outside window. Inside, a large plate glass window to the principal's office was smashed. Drawers of desks and cabinets were searched, but the office was not ransacked, officials report.

Louvers to the teacher's lounge were kicked in to gain entry, but nothing was reported missing. Access to the kitchen area was achieved by prying open a lift door over a counter. Door to a storage room off the kitchen was removed, but again nothing was found missing.

A fire extinguisher was discharged in the principal's office, police report but little damage resulted.

Police theorize the person, or persons, left by the north door of the building.

Other complaints investigated were:

Oct. 5 — Marjorie Tonneberger, 9995 Newburg Rd., reported her 1977 automobile stolen while parked in the R-Bons beauty salon parking lot. Keys were left in the ignition.

Oct. 5 — Morris Baker, Clinton, reported a CB radio missing from his car.

'Hoot' Retires After 50 Years

Gale W. Hooton of 110 S. Division wound up 50 years of service to his customers recently with the sale of his heating oil business to Paul Smith Oil Company of Adrian.

Hooton started his career retailing gasoline in 1928. Before high school graduation, he started working for Eddie Clark, where Joe Gregory's Barbershop now stands on N. Ottawa and E. Chicago Blvd.

He then worked in 1932 with Charlie Howe at a station where First Federal Savings now stands.

Then Hooton joined Harold Wilson in 1934 at a station at the corner of N. Evans and W. Logan St. Wilson took over the heating oil business and Hooton ran Cities Service. In later years, Hooton sold Arco then Pennzoil products.

For two years, Hooton operated both a heating oil business and the station. Finally in 1967, he sold the gas station business to Bill Hollis. Since 1967, Hooton operated Hooton Fuels heating oil.

At one time in the 1950's, there were as many as 17 gasoline stations in and around the village of Tecumseh. While he spent many hours tending pump, service was the most important part of the station business, said Hooton.

Tire repair and sales were frequent. Mechanic work was an important part of service. Road calls for customers sometimes required getting out in the middle of subzero nights.

These services are still important part of service stations today despite do-it-yourself and self-service trends.

"I probably pumped as much gas as anyone in town," Hooton remarked. "I'll miss my customers," he said sincerely.

He is leaving behind the long hours at the station and riding delivery truck for some leisure time with a fishing pole and set of golf clubs, two sports Hooton said he enjoys.

Bonners Host Armchair Travelogue

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowen hosted the October meeting of the Wit and Wisdom Club.

After the business meeting Mrs. Bowen introduced Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner. Mrs. Bonner entertained the group with highlights of their 'Trip Around the World', from Japan to London.

New Delhi, India is twice the size of Alaska, they said, yet supports 14% of the world's population - 600 million people and 400 million sacred cows. Although the caste system is outlawed, there is still great poverty. The Bonners flew to the Pink City where all the buildings are pink, then by bus to the beautiful Taj Mahal at Agra. It is constructed of white marble and took 22 years to build.

They stopped in Afghanistan, then Cairo, where the temperature was 100 degrees and in Istanbul, the only city built on two continents. It is known as the city of spires, having 400 churches. Here they saw an 84 carat diamond.

After flying to Tel Aviv, they proceeded by bus to Jerusalem, the Universal City of Jews, Moslems and Christians - then on to Jericho, the Golan Heights and Bethlehem were they visited the site where Jesus was born. They also visited a kibbutz.

In Capernium they boarded a launch for a trip on the Sea of Galilee. After visiting Nazareth they flew back to Tel Aviv and then to London. Mrs. Bonner commented many Arabs do business in London, and there is friction.

They displayed international items.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson.

Fire Awareness Saves Lives, Homes

To make everyone aware of the dangers of fire, National Fire Prevention Week is Oct. 8-14. In conjunction with Fire Prevention Week, Tecumseh Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge and the Tecumseh Firemen's Association offer these tips:

*Eliminate all fire hazards around home or business. Repair or replace faulty wiring. Remove stacks of newspapers. Don't store gasoline in the home. Keep it in a well-ventilated area.

*Keep the telephone number of the fire department next to the telephone.

*Observe careful smoking habits. Never, never smoke in bed.

*Equip fireplaces with sturdy metal screens and be sure the fire has died down before going to bed at night.

*Check heating system from furnace to chimney top.

*Work out an escape plan for the family. Plan it with at least two exits from each room. Practice the plan. Meet outside at a pre-arranged location.

*Install a smoke or fire detection warning system in the home. If it requires batteries, keep them fresh.

*Keep the chimney of wood-burning stoves installed properly.

*Make sure children know the dangers of fire. Keep matches and other flammable material out of their reach.

*If you have dead-bolt locks that open only from the inside with keys, leave the keys in the lock at night while you sleep.

One shot at an insulator can drop a city in its tracks.

I know, because I'm a Consumers Power lineman, and it's my job to search for the cause of a power failure.

People who shoot out insulators forget that a single shot can bring down a house, a factory, a hospital or even an entire city.

That's why Consumers Power offers substantial rewards for information resulting in either the arrest and arraignment, or the apprehension of persons responsible for damage to our property.

So, if you have information concerning such an incident, please contact a local police agency or call Consumers Power.

Club Travels 'Round the World'

Fifty-six members and guests of the Tecumseh Monday Club attended the annual fall luncheon Oct. 2 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. The Episcopal church women served at tables centered with arrangements of fall flowers by Mrs. Harold Sisson.

Each guest was presented with a boutonniere in fall colors, made by Naomi Sallows, club president.

Elizabeth Hayden read Psalm 121 and concluded with a short prayer.

The Past Presidents Club president, Julia Titley, introduced eight past presidents. Officers for the coming year were introduced: first vice-president, Geraldine French; second vice-president, Ann Waterman; recording secretary, Miriam Nixon; treasurer, Vera Driffill and corresponding secretary, Merrick Dibble. Included in their itinerary was Japan, where they rode the Bullet Train which travels 125 miles per hour; Hong Kong, where they sampled Bird's Nest Soup; India and the Taj Mahal; Afghanistan, with its militaristic influence; Cairo and the Pyramids. They also visited Instanbul, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and concluded the trip with London, where they visited Westminister Abbey and shopped at Harris' Department Store, that boasts 'anything you wish to buy, may be found here'.

She said that we Americans may consider ourselves fortunate with cost of living, when mayonnaise sells for $5 a jar and gasoline for $1.25 a gallon in some countries.

The program began and ended with a sing-a-long of old favorite songs, accompanied at the piano by Vera Driscoll.

Next meeting of the club will be Travel Day, with a trip to the Michigan Space Center, Jackson, followed by luncheon at the Sveden House. The group will meet at St. Peters Episcopal Church at 10 a.m. where transportation will be arranged. Members are asked to note the change of date from Oct. 16 to Oct. 17.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

If the present trend continues, this should be another good mourning dove winter. Let's hope so. Do you remember last winter? (Who could forget it!) Anyway, in addition to the record breaking snow and cold, many of us who fed the birds had more mourning doves at our food trays than ever before.

By the way, I hope that Mom and I are not the only ones who keep hearing all the dire predictions for the upcoming winter. It seems to be the universal feeling that we are really in for another rough season. While we are hoping for mourning doves perhaps we should also start hoping that the long range weather predictors are wrong.

The books can't seem to agree as to whether these birds form and live in flocks or not. These birds do share common roosting areas at night and those that migrate do so in flocks.

We would have said that they come to the feeders in flocks too, but in some writings it is more or less implied that the gang breaks up in the morning and, if they all happen to meet for food or drink, it is just a happenstance.

This may be true but it still seems as though our mourning doves come to the feeders in flocks. Those who do not find eating space on the trays perch in the trees or pace back and forth in the yard patiently waiting.

There is even some disagreement, among those of us who maintain feeding stations, as to whether mourning doves are exclusively ground feeders or not.

Cousins Pat and Ken, for example, vow and declare that their flock of mourning doves — oops, another vote in favor of these birds forming flocks — anyway, Pat and Ken say that their mourning doves never visit the feeding stations but instead eat entirely on the ground.

Our doves seem to do both. They are quite at home and at ease on the near-my-window feeders; in fact, no matter what style of feeders, open shelves, roofed-over trays, and even some with glass sides, they have always enjoyed the patronage of our resident mourning doves.

On the other hand, I must admit that the birds also engage in much freeloading on the ground. They do a wonderful job of eating the scratch feed and cracked corn which the other birds spill over the sides of the feeders. And under the corn-holders there would be mountains of corn if the doves did not eat it.

Squirrels strip ears of corn, kernel by kernel, but they only eat the germ or heart and drop the rest of the kernel to the ground. Fortunately the mourning doves are not too proud to eat leftovers.

If there is disagreement about many aspects of the mourning doves' life-style everyone thoroughly agrees on two things. One, that these neat birds are miserable nest builders. Slovenly is an apt descript.on for how they live.

The male brings a few twigs or sticks to his mate and she haphazardly works them into a flat shallow nest. Often it is so loosely woven that her eggs fall through. They sometimes select branches extending over a creek or small steam for the nest site and, on more than one occasion, the pure white eggs have been found out here in Evans Creek.

The second thing on which we all agree is the attractiveness of these birds. Their 13 inches of length is composed of a weak but relatively long bill, a small round head, longish thin neck, streamlined plump body, and long pointed tail.

The 14 narrow feathers of this tail are tipped in white with black spots and then some grayish white shows. This color scheme is visable when the tail is fanned.

Under the wings and on the lower tummy there is a definite bluish cast and the head and throat feathers take on an iridescent sheen in certain light. Otherwise mourning doves are usually thought of as pretty, slate-brown or even fawn colored birds.

If the birds who are here now stay all winter and continue to act as they have been lately, the window watching will be good. All last week they kept driving the bluejays away from the food trays and yet Gertie T laughed at a non-brave dove who was being chased around and around the highbush cranberry by a little sparrow.

CHS Smashes Royals, 29-0

Blissfield's Royals took the opening kickoff against Clinton Friday night and carried the ball down field 70 yards in 14 carries. That was the Royal's only threat as Clinton fans were treated to a 29-0 homecoming victory.

Clinton's Casey Thilo, Clinton's number one rusher this year, gained 172 yards offensively in just 26 carries.

The first half of the game belonged to Blissfield Friday, as they got 41 plays off to Clinton's 28. They could not score.

Clinton did score in the first half, however, when Thilo went over his right tackle on a three yard run.

The second half belonged to Clinton solely. They scored eight points in the third frame and 13 in the fourth.

Thilo ran eight plays in the third frame, the last for a 10-yard score. Terry Carlton's two point conversion made the score 16-0.

The third score for Clinton came on a bad snap from center on a Blissfield punt and Clinton took over on the visitor's 27. Carlton scored from one yard out to give the Redskins a 22 point advantage.

Thilo ran a 46 yard play around his right end to put the last points on the board for Clinton. He also kicked the extra point.

Statistically, Clinton had only one more first down than Blissfield's 11. They had 268 yards rushing to the visitor's 112.

Clinton hit on four of five passes for 54 yards while Blissfield hit on 5 of 17 for 59 yards.

Win 1, Lose 1

The Tecumseh girls basketball team joined the boys cross country team this week when they too suffered a heart-breaking loss. Monroe St. Mary's topped them 31-28 Tuesday.

They beat Flat Rock soundly last Thursday, 63-32, but the loss to St. Mary slips them to a 2-1 record to Mary's no losses. The girls have another shot at Monroe when they play them later in the year at home.

Against St. Mary, the girls "could have had it," but the buzzer just came at the wrong time as both teams went back and forth with the lead.

Chris McDonald led the local team with 10 points. Sandy MacGeorge followed with five and Kelly Krueger with seven.

The statistics for the game were unusually even as both teams played an excellent defensive battle, but had trouble shooting from the floor.

Tecumseh had 17 rebounds to their 16. THS had 30 turnovers to St. Mary's 29. Both teams hit 26 percent from the floor the first half and Tecumseh edged them by one percent the second half with 20 percent.

Against Flat Rock, last Thursday, the girls undoubtedly played their best offensive and defensive game of the year.

McDonald again led the scoring with 21. MacGeorge was right behind with 19 and Kerry Hamilton also hit double figures with 10 points.

The team pressed defensively and caused a lot of turnovers. Offensively they ran and shot well.

Airport Squeezes by Indians, 26-29

Tecumseh cross country runners lost a heart-breaker to Airport Tuesday. The 26-29 loss puts them in second place with one loss behind Airport.

The THS squad does have a shot at tying for first when they meet Airport again at the league meet.

Jesse Castorena finished second for Tecumseh at 15:56. Brian Banda finished fourth at 16:19. Scott Betzoldt was sixth at 16:57.

Wendell West and Ben Binder turned in eighth and ninth place finishes at 17:28 and 17:29 respectively.

D.J. Biscupski was injured and his team was not used for the three mile run. Biscupski did run, however, and if the Indians had used his time, they would have won the meet.

The Indians also ran at the Manchester Invitational Saturday. Banda was the highest finisher in the race for the local team. He posted a second place finish in the senior division with a time of 15:44.

Castorena also competed in the senior division. He finished 12th at 16:23.

For the junior class, Biscupski finished 13th at 16:31.

For the sophomore class, Betzoldt finished third at 16:17. Binder finished 16th at 17:02.

In the freshmen class division, West finished fourth at 16:39 and Jeff Barnes finished 19th at 18:17.

CHS Golfers Win Twice

Despite the cold weather this week, Clinton's golfers captured two wins, one over league foe Blissfield and one over Sand Creek.

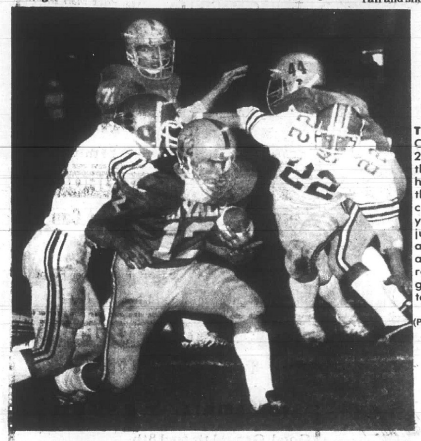
The Redskins soundly defeated Blissfield Wednesday 225-242. Tom Eddy took the first place position with a 42.

Bernie Hough and Gary Gibbard came in at 45 each. Brad Eversole hit 46, and Blake Clarke carded a 47.

Clark was then low for Clinton Monday when they beat Sand Creek by six strokes, 178-184.

Eddy, Eversole and Hough each posted 45's in the last of Clinton's dual meets.

Team finished 9-5 overall and 6-4 in the league.



THILO LEADS — Casey Thilo, number 22, was stopped by the Royals the first half but broke loose the second half to carry the ball 172 yards. At left, Thilo just begins to hit a Blissfield runner as the Royal is already beginning to go down from the tackle of a Redskin.

Eight in Row for THS Golfers

Tecumseh's golfers continued on their rampage this week, winning two additional dual meets and capturing first place in the Jefferson Invitational Friday. The victories pushed their record to 5-0 in the league and gives them eight victories in a row.

They must battle Jefferson in their last dual meet Wednesday, but should easily handle the Monroe team to bring home their fifth consecutive league title.

Then the team travels to the regional competition Friday the 13th. Coach Cunningham explains that the regional is the toughest in the state and that two out of the three qualifying teams will undoubtedly be in the top five teams state-wide. Only three teams will advance to state competition and they must battle 24 or 25 competitors.

Coach Cunningham also explained that they are the underdogs, but that he is optimistic because the players have been golfing much more consistantly lately.

Ron Smith and John Faulkner are both now averaging less than 40 a round. Kevin Koszka has been playing better lately and Mike Zettle and Scott McDonald have both turned in consistantly low 40 scores.

Against Grosse Ile Wednesday, THS won by four strokes when they posted a 158. Smith finished low for the Indians at 38. Koszka shot a 39 and Faulkner hit 40. Zettle and McDonald each hit 41.

The win was a good overall team effort with very good scores on a long, tough course none of the players had played before.

Friday, the team captured the Jefferson Invitational with a 315. Monroe CC was the nearest team at 329. The invitational title is the fourth in a row for THS.

Faulkner and Smith finished on top for the Indians with 77's. They tied for third overall. Koszka hit 80 and finished in the top eight positions in a 58 man golf meet. Tecumseh posted the best scores ever, and played the worst weather the meet could possible have.

Against Carlson here Monday, the Indians won easily 160-189. Faulkner was low at 38. Zettle and McDonald each posted 40's while Smith and Koszka came in at 42.

Smoke Sixth

The Tecumseh girls' cross country team also went up against Airport Tuesday and competed in the invitational Saturday.

Saturday, Anne Smoke finished sixth for the girls at 20:15. Leslie Oliver was seventh with a 20:31 time.

The girls lost their match against Airport Tuesday, 16-46. Smoke was the best finisher for the girls, finishing fifth at 20:48.

Trout Derby

The Sixth Annual Trout Fishing Derby will be held on Oct. 14, at the Walter Bohn Memorial pool, South McKenzie St., Adrian.

Airport Downs Indians

Things just are not going well for the Tecumseh football team. Again they lost Friday. Airport beat the Indians in the last three minutes of the game, 13-7.

Tecumseh scored first after Indian John Southern intercepted an Airport pass and carried it 23 yards to the Jet 27 yard line.

With 5:17 left in the game, Andy Geshwiler scored on a one yard run to make the score 6-6. Randy Bolz's kick was good to put the score at seven.

Jet quarterback Gene Baker then tied it up at the end of the quarter on his first play from scrimmage after trading possessions with the Indians. Baker ran 48 yards for the TD and the point after was good.

Neither team scored the second or third frame, but the Jets put together a 61 yard drive in the fourth frame for the victory. Randy Halvin blocked their extra point attempt.

The Indians looked like they were going to stop the Jet drive when the Jet QB passed to a downed end and the Indians had two defensemen on top of the play.

The defensemen came together however and the ball got away from them. The Jet end was laying at the right place to make the catch. That 32 yard pass on third down took the Jets to the Indian 15 and they scored a few plays later.

The Indians lost still another player, at least for a couple weeks, as Terry Merritt received a head injury.

Defensively, Tom Chatters and John Clark led the Indians with a combined 25 tackles.

The Indians had six first downs to the Jet's eight. THS had 104 yards rushing to their 209. THS connected on two of nine pass attempts for 25 yards while the Jets hit four of 12 for 78 yards.

Tecumseh fumbled three times and lost it once. They punted seven times for a 35.4 average to Airport's four punts, 44 yard average.

The Indians are home Friday for their Homecoming match against Gross Ille. Both Grosse Ille and the Indians are 1-3 for the season

Freshmen Squad Scores Four Wins

Tecumseh's freshmen football squad has gone undefeated to date with four wins. They have yet to be scored upon.

The young Indians beat Lumen Christie by six, Adrian by eight, Toledo Whitmer by 14, and Ann Arbor Scarlet by 22.

Tories Lose 20-14

The Britton-Macon Tories lost to the Deerfield Minutemen 20-14.

The Tories scored twice in the first quarter. First, Jeff Osterhout scampered 44 yards for a TD. Brad Rowe ran over the extra point to make it 8-0.

On Brittons next possession, Tory QB Chris Kimerer hit Terry Benedict on a 63 yard touchdown pass to make it 14-0.

Deerfield closed the gap at half when they plunged over from one yard out and ran over the extra point.

The Minutemen scored twice in the second half on a nine yard run and a 20 yard pass. This made the score Deerfield 20, Britton 14.

The Tories made one final drive, but were stopped on downs on Deerfield's one yard line with less than a minute to go in the game.

Britton had 273 yards total offense, 186 yards rushing. Jeff Osterhout led with 140 yards in 26 carries.

Terry Benedict had two pass receptions for 87 yards. Osterhout and David Bruce led the Tory defense with 11 and 10 tackles respectively.

Penalties spelled Britton's doom as the Tories were penalized 12 times for 92 yards, many times in key situations.

Tecumseh JV's

The Tecumseh JV football team defeated airport last Thursday 12-8.

In heavy rain the Tecumseh defense recovered five fumbles and picked off four interceptions from the Junior Jets.

Tim Eardley crossed the goal line on a run from the four in the first quarter, and Todd Danforth crossed it from the one in the third.

TWO WINS — Clinton posted two wins this last week and now enters regional competition. Blake Clark, above left, was low Monday for CHS. He joins teammate Brad Eversole, above, as they chip to the green.

Redskin Runners at Invitational

Clinton had six junior high runners compete in the seventh-eighth grade division of the Manchester Invitational Saturday.

Bob Zimmerman won the eighth grade class race, running the one-mile course in 5:05. Greg Kinney also picked up a medal by finishing eighth in 5:47 and Jack Thompson was 18th in 6:02.

In the seventh grade race, Butch Demers and Chris Fletcher picked up medals by finishing fifth and sixth respectively. Demers was timed in at 5:45 and Fletcher at 5:46. Randy George just missed a medal by finishing 12th in 6:24.

Did You Notice

by Maxine Calhoun

Someone got up at 2 a.m. to start the fires under the big porkers that Jaycees served Saturday, and stayed there while the winds blew so coldly.

Someone stood with arms in dishwater for several hours washing up after 415 folks who ate their fill of fish at the church supper, Friday. Someone cooked all that fish!

There were others who peeled the apples and baked the hundreds of pies for the Apple Festival at the Community Center.

Church pretzel bakers started last August to turn out 185 dozen of the treats gobbled up by hungry folks Saturday and Sunday, while one little white-haired lady shuttled them into ovens to heat--and she almost missed seeing the Sunday parade.

Somebody had to find an electrical cord-or many of them and then the necessary outlets to connect the booths that used power.

A thousand questions had to be answered--and someone had to answer them at Festival headquarters.

Phones ringing had to be picked up by busy committee folks, who had their own regular jobs to do last week, too.

And, when the record crowd had scattered from the village, and Monday morning dawned--village workers were faced with tons of litter to be picked up.

These folks and many others may not have received the plaudits for the swell Festival this year--but without them--the whole thing might have fallen apart.

If you had your driveway blocked by a visitor from out-of-town, or by a great big tent, you helped in your way.

It's this spirit of so many, many people pitching in any way they can--that makes it all work.

That's what makes Clinton a great place to live.

Pick Up Big Ones

CLINTON — Village Council voted to institute pickup of large trash items in the spring and fall only, instead of twice weekly as has been the custom.

Large trash will be picked up in October and April only, effective, Nov. 1.

Regular trash pickup will continue twice a week, four containers, not to exceed 30 gallons each, Mondays and Thursdays.

Bids were opened for sale of the village 4-wheel drive vehicle with Terry Reiser high bidder at $675.

A special meeting of wastewater treatment bonds.

Apples Have Fest Appeal

CLINTON — St. Dominic's Altar Society members met Monday night at the Community Center to review the recent apple project at Fall Festival.

The church booth sold 148 pies and had a successful weekend.

Ways to improve next year's festival project were discussed.

Members are urged to attend workshops for the annual bazaar to be held Nov. 24-25. Dates on the workshops are posted in the church bulletin weekly.

Lucky lady was Helena Beck.

Mrs. Joseph Bush and Mrs. Bruce Krueger were hostesses.

Juniors Win

CLINTON — Junior Class float "Stairway to Victory" was first place winner in the Homecoming Parade, Friday.

Second place was won by the sophomores' "Redskin Inferno"; third place by the freshmen's "Don't Look Back"; and fourth place by the seniors' "To a Redskin Victory."

Floats also appeared in the Fall Festival parade Sunday.

Weekend Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gove entertained for the weekend of the Gove-Trombley wedding, son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gove and children, Paul and Kimberly of Columbia, Md.

Clinton's Seniors

Clinton Cross Country team was paced by seniors, finishing third in the senior division of the Manchester Invitational Saturday.

The Manchester meet is run in four separate races by class (Frosh, Soph., Jr., Sr.). It is also scored as four different mets based on the top three individuals from a school by class.

In the senior race, Matt Peters finished fourth in 15:51; Devin Schindler was 22nd in 16:45; and Mark Prichard was 28th in 17:09.

Tom Nighswander was 12th in the junior race in 16:19. Gary Houghton was 46th in 19:13.

Matt McNeil, Clinton's lone entry in the sophomore race, finished ninth in 16:46, his best time ever.

Wes Fuller and Ken Caligiuri paced the freshmen, finishing eight and ninth respectiely, both in 17:15. Newcomer Mike Miller finished 21st in 18:45. Freshmen finished fourth.

Eighteen teams competed. Clinton is off until Saturday when they compete in the Hudson Invitational.

Mark Funds for Clinton

CLINTON — Clinton United Fund Committe asks that all residents of Clinton School District who are employed outside the area sign the necessary forms at the place of employment requesting that their contributions to the United Fund be returned to Clinton.

This must be done to insure that the local fund receives these contributions.

Girls Rebound, Beat Onsted

After a 10 day layoff and a very tough loss to Addison, Clinton's girls basketball team rebounded to beat Onsted Thursday, 33 to 22.

Both teams were flat offensively as Clinton's total score was its lowest in the past four years and Onsted's Wildcats shot only 12% from the floor.

Clinton led 8-6 at the end of the first quarter then held Onsted to just two free throws during the second quarter to lead 20-8 at half. Forward Karyn Coward sparked the Redskins by scoring seven points during the second quarter.

Clinton scored 10 straight to lead 30-8 midway through the third frame, but then scored only three points the rest of the game. The Redskins defense played very well throughout the game, holding Onsted to just five baskets.

Sue Richter led all scorers with 16 points while Lisa Cark helped Clinton to a 45 to 23 advantage in rebounding by pulling down 12.

The Redskins visited Columbia Central on Thursday and are at home on Oct. 17 and 19 against Blissfield and Morenci. Home games start at 5:30 p.m.

AND THE CROWDS PRESSED ON — This unidentified shopper was oblivious to the crowd swarming around her as she examined the wares at one of the Michigan Avenue booths. Crowd estimates at Sunday's parade were said to have surpassed last year's.

PLENTY OF ACTION — Bleachers were filled as seasoned riders thrilled enthusiastic audiences at the Titsworth Benefit Rodeo Saturday and Sunday during Fall Fest. Event by Midstates Rodeo Association grossed over $6,000. They'll be back for next year's Festival, perhaps three days.

Ponders Tax Proposals

Paul Preston, assistant city manager and director of community development, presented Tecumseh City Council Oct. 2 with a summary of two tax limitation proposals on the Nov. 7 general election ballot.

Council did not go on record to support either.

A total of 11 constitutional amendments will be voted on Nov. 7. Three are tax amendments, the Tax Limitation Amendment, designated as Proposal E on the ballot, also called the Headlee Amendment, the Tisch Amendment (Proposal J) and the Voucher Amendment (Proposal H).

According to proponents of Proposal E, it would stabilize tax rates. It would mean that voter approval would be required before taxes could be increased or new taxes added at both local and state levels.

All 39 different taxes in Michigan are supposedly covered by Proposal E, including property taxes, other local taxes and all forms of state taxation.

The Tisch Amendment, or Proposal J, would roll back property tax assessments over 50 percent. That means assessed valuation would be based on 25 percent of market value instead of the current method on 50 percent of market value.

However, the Tisch Amendment would create a tax shift. It would allow other taxes such as personal income taxes, business taxes, nuisance and user taxes to go up to compensate.

Proposal E, the Headlee Amendment, would prohibit state spending from increasing faster than the overall personal income of Michigan residents. Lid could be lifted by public vote or emergency declared by the state legislature.

It would prohibit the state from adopting new or expanding local programs without full state funding. The state could not reduce existing levels of aid to local governments, taken as a group.

"The state now returns approximately 42 percent to local governments. Even though the level could not be reduced the state could shift aid among types of local units or among programs and services," Preston elaborated.

The state would not reimburse local governments for collective bargaining and compulsory arbitration. "These cost pressures would continue or could even accelerate with double digit inflation, without any redress from the proposed amendment," Preston said.

Local government could not add new or increased existing taxes without voter approval. The proposal would prevent local property tax assessment from increasing faster than the rate of inflation.

Voter approval of certain bonded indebtedness is required under Proposal E.

"Under the proposed amendment, local units would be required to submit to the electors proposed general obligation issues that pledge the full faith and credit unlimited taxing power of the unit, but could continue to issue, without voter approval, limited tax obligation bonds, special assessment bonds and self-supporting revenue bonds. Such limited obligation debt bonds, however could not carry a full faith and credit pledge....and would carry a higher interest cost to the local unit or may not be marketable," said Preston.

Proposal J, the Tisch Amendment, would "have a much greater impact on local programs and budgets than the Headlee Amendment," Preston told.

"The major thrust is to reduce local property taxes by 50% and a limit of 2.5 percent in annual assessment increases and a 5.6 percent limit on state income tax.

"What this means is not a tax cut, but a tax shift. If property taxes are cut then other revenue would have to be increased, i.e. water rates, users fees for recreation, and other services.

"This could also result in a shift of power from local government to the state since the state will be required to pick up more of the cost of local operations and with more money, would come more state control.

"In our own case present property tax generates $552,500 per year or 28% of the present years budget. A 50% reduction would mean property tax income of $276,250 or a 14% decrease in services or a 14% increase in users fees. For example, just this fiscal year we had to increase water rates by 30%, if this tax cut was in effect we might have to increase it even more.

"At the business meeting of the Michigan Municipal League two resolutions were passed, and I must say not unanimously, to oppose both the Headlee and the Tisch Amendments," Preston told Council.

A third tax proposal on the Nov. 7 ballot is Proposal H, the voucher plan. It would replace current school finance methods, which rely on property taxes, with a voucher or tax credit which parents would use to send their children to the school of their choice, public or private.

It would abolish the 65 percent of property tax funds used to operate K-12 schools, mandate a system of general taxation to make up for reduced property taxes and issue vouchers to all K-12 children to use in the school of their parent's choice.

Eliminate Deaths with Safety Plan

Many fire-related deaths and injuries could be eliminated if the public became more aware of fire safety measures.

When fire strikes, there are several things to remember:

1) Avoid smoke asphyxiation by crawling or crouching below the smoke.

2) Check all doors before you open them. If a door is hot, don't open it. Intense heat or poisonous fumes could kill you instantly.

3) In a frying pan fire, smother the flames with the lid or baking soda. Don't use water or flour, which may cause the fire to explode.

4) Never try to put out an electrical fire with water.

5) If your clothes catch on fire, don't run for help. Drop to the ground and roll around or wrap yourself in a blanket or rug to smother the flames.

6) Make sure everyone is aware that there is a fire. Scream, holler, bang on walls, etc.

7) Never re-enter a burning building.

8) Don't jump from a window unless absolutely necessary.

9) Don't panic, remain calm. Go to the pre-arranged meeting place outside and wait. That way you can tell the firemen if anybody is still trapped inside.

10) Call the fire department. Keep the phone number of the fire department near the phone.

Michigan State Housing Development Authority Public Notice

The Lansing office of the Michigan State Housing Development Authority is currently accepting applications for the Neighborhood Improvement Program (NIP). All city, village, township or county governments interested in participating should contact MSHDA and request a neighborhood improvement loan application package.

To participate in NIP, local governments must submit an application to MSHDA which includes a proposed revitalization plan assessing the home improvement needs of their entire geographic area. The application must indicate neighborhood improvement areas in which plans for significant community development projects exist, or are underway. In addition, applicants must identify local lending institutions agreeing to participate in the program and through which MSHDA will channel the NIP loan funds.

MSHDA reserves the right to review and approve the applications and the designated neighborhood improvement areas. Upon issuance of a funding commitment by MSDHA, eligible property owners within the target areas will be able to apply for home improvement loans for rehabilitation of their existing dwellings.

Applications will be accepted by MSHDA through November 30, 1978 for commitments ending December 31, 1979. To obtain the NIP application package, write to:

"You just did WHAT?"

Joe can't believe that his friend has just returned from making funeral arrangements . . . in advance.

Actually, it's a step that more and more people are taking nowadays. It enables you to make all the decisions calmly and with reason . . . rather than leaving everything for your family to decide during an emotional time.

What does FAMILY mean? It means the together trail!

It means a father and mother sharing the beauty and excitement of God's world with their children.

The hike together. The picnic together. The working together and playing together that Home inspires. Just ask the psychologists — and sociologists — and criminologists — what values are found along "the together trail," or lost when family living misses its mark.

Worship and religious training belong, too, on the together trail. Faith grows best in an atmosphere of sharing. Character thrives in the sunlight of Christian example.

In the church of your choice there's precious opportunity for you — and yours. The Church is the together trail of God's Family!

Autumn is upon us. Here are two more seasonal recipes.

I am up to my elbows in grapes this week and am preparing grape jelly and canning grape juice. Here is an easy procedure for making grape juice.

GRAPE JUICE

Wash and stem fresh, firm and ripe grapes. Put 1 cup grapes into hot quart canning jar. Add 1/2 to 1 cup sugar. Fill jar with boiling water, leaving 1/4 inch head space. Adjust caps. Process quarts 10 minutes in boiling water bath.

GRAPE JELLY

5 cups grape juice
7 cup sugar
1 box Sure-Jell
1 1/2 cups water

Wash, sort and remove stems from fully ripe Concord grapes. Crush grapes, add water, cover and bring to boil on high heat. Reduce heat and simmer for 10 minutes. Use jelly bag or line a colander with four thicknesses of cheesecloth to extract juice.

Measure 5 cups of juice and place in 6-8 quart saucepan. Add Sure-Jell and stir. Bring quickly to a hard boil, stirring occasionally. Add sugar at once. Cook and stir. When mixture comes to a full rolling boil (one that can not be stirred down) cook and stir one minute. Remove from heat and skim off foam with a metal spoon.

Pour jelly immediately into hot sterilized containers and cover with 1/4 inch melted parafin. Cool. Cover with loose fitting lids and store in cool, dry place. To seal without parafin, pour hot jelly into regular canning jars. Place lid on jar, screw band on tightly and invert. Repeat with all jars. When all are sealed, stand upright and cool. Store in cool place. Sealing without parafin works only with canning jars and the two piece lids.

Here's another squash recipe that sounds good.

SKILLET SQUASH AND APPLES

3 small acorn squash
2 large apples
1/3 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup raisin
2 tablespoons butter or oleo

Cut squash in half length wise; remove seeds and stringy portion. Place in electric skilled, 350 degrees, cut side down; add 1 cup water. Cover and bring to boiling. Reduce heat to 220 degrees and simmer 20-25 minutes with vent open. Turn squash cut side up. Sprinkle with salt. Combine apples, brown sugar and raisins; spoon into squash, dot with butter. Cover; cook until tender about 15-20 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

See you next week. Hope to hear from you.

A cobblestone home, believed to be the only existing one in Lenawee County, is located at 7075 M-50. Known as the Wheeler Farm, it was built of glacier stones from Sand Lake circa 1840 in the row on row cobblestone style. It was the home of one-time Cambridge Township supervisor Wheeler and is listed on both the National and State of Michigan Registers of Historic Sites. It is a private home. It is reminiscent of Ann Arbor's Cobblestone Farmhouse., currently being restored as a civic project.

Auto-Owners Life Insurance Protection for the Entire Family

Think of Auto-Owners as the innovator in many modern approaches to life insurance (like our exclusive Perma-Term combination insurance), and you'll know why Auto-Owners is in the top third of all life companies in the country.

Maybe you should think about requesting a proposal from us. At no obligation, of course.

Teens Speak for Democracy

Hall-Slater Post VFW #4187 and its Ladies Auxiliary are sposoring the Voice of Democracy Program in Britton-Macon, Clinton and Tecumseh High Schools.

The program is conducted annually in our nations secondary schools during the fall term. It provides an opportunity for 10th, 11th and 12th grade students to think, write and speak up for America - and for freedom, democracy and citizenship.

Participating students write and tape record a three to five minute broadcast script expressing their views on the 1978-79 theme, "Why I Care About America."

From among the state winners, five national winners are chosen to receive a total of $22,500 in scholarships.

Three winners from each of the local participating schools will receive prizes of $100, $50 and $25 in savings bonds.

Competent judges will be selected to judge the tapes. The contest closes Dec. 5, 1978. Mrs. Walter Mueller serves as auxiliary chairman.

TEACHERS MARCH — Prior to Monday night's Board meeting, Tecumseh teachers marched in protest before the Board of Education Office on W. Chicago Blvd. Board officials and teachers have negotiated for a new contract since January without settlement. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Board, Association Release Statements on Problems

In statements received by The Herald this week, both the School Board and Tecumseh Education Association reveal their positions relative to salary and class size, details of which have not appeared publicly in the past.

Progress towards a settlement of a new three-year contract for the Tecumseh teachers has failed to materialize in the past week; if anything, the Board and TEA may be further apart today than a week ago.

Negotiations have been shelved apparently, as no bargaining sessions were scheduled as of Wednesday.

The Board has gone on record of making its final offer, a statement made last week and repeated again in the adjoining Board of Education release.

This is the same offer rejected by the teachers at a meeting last week, and TEA officials reported the vote then was "overwhelming" for rejection. At this session, the teachers backed their bargaining team and approved job action, defined as striking.

The Board has asked for a ratification vote of its offer, claiming that it was not done at the TEA meeting. The Board also has gone on record that class size has little to do with student learning and achievement.

TEA has implied that class size is significant and has made this a major issue in settling a new contract. Teachers asked for binding arbitration in the past but were turned down by the Board. Binding arbitration is asked again in this week's statement.

Two marathon sessions with a state mediator in September and earlier this month failed to bring the parties into an agreement. Additional meetings with the state mediator are not scheduled.

Board of Education Reports

To: The taxpayers and residents of the Tecumseh School District

Since January, 1978 bargaining representatives for the Board of Education and Tecumseh Education Association have met on twenty-five (25) separate occasions, for a total of one hundred and fifty (150) hours of intense negotiations.

At the request of the teacher bargaining team, we entered into state mediation on September 22nd and have met in mediation twice. During the mediation session on October 9th, which lasted nearly sixteen (16) hours, the parties reached an impasse regarding the unresolved contract issues. At the conclusion of the last mediation meeting, in an attempt to break the impasse, the bargaining team for your Board of Education presented a final offer consisting of a three (3) year proposal, with the sincere hope that it would be presented formally to the 158 member teacher bargaining unit as a ratification question. To date this has not occurred.

A few of the facts and comparisons of the Boards' final offer which are of major importance are:

Wages

1. The starting salary for a beginning (1st year) teacher with a Bachelors Degree last school year (1977-78) was $10,625.00. This year (1978-79) the starting salary would be $11,448.00.

2. The highest paid teacher in the Tecumseh school district last school year (1977-78) received $27,189.00. This year (1978-79) it would be $29,305.00.

3. Last school year (1977-78) the average teacher's earnings in the Tecumseh school district was in excess of $17,000.00. This year (1978-79) the average teacher's earnings would be about $18,600.00. This is an increase of approximately 9.0%.

4. In 1979-80 (next school year) the average teachers wages would be increased $1,670.00 to an equal average wage of slightly over $20,250.00, or approximately 8.9%.

5. In the third year of the Board proposal (1980-81) the average teachers wages would again increase an average of $1,760.00, to an annual wage of approximately $22,000.00, or approximately 8.6%.

In addition to the wage package, the Board also provides at no cost to the teachers, a liberal fringe benefit program and a fully funded pension plan.

The final economic package proposed by the Board of Education on October 10, 1978 represents an increase of $854,373.00. This would be an increase of approximately 28% over the next three (3) years.

*Tecumseh figures represent Boards' final proposal for current year (1978-79).

All Tecumseh teacher salaries are based on 185 contract days (students attend school 180 days). The contract day consists of a minimum of 6 hours and 35 minutes for high school teachers, 6 hours and 15 minutes for the junior high teachers, and elementary teachers 6 hours and 40 minutes.

Class Size

The present pupil teacher ratios in the Tecumseh School District have been realistically developed to allow every student an equal educational opportunity. Your Board and administration have carefully studied all of the available facts in an effort to justify changing these ratios. To date there has been nothing conclusive presented to the Board which justifies the lowering of class size.

At the present time the pupil teacher ratio in the elementary grades (K-6) is between 27 and 28. In the junior high classes are averaging 28, and at the high school level classes average 26 to 27.

The teachers are proposing a class size goal of 26 students at all grade levels. This of course would require additional teachers and classrooms.

With declining enrollments and the pending uncertainty of future funding of public education in our state, a contract commitment to reduce class size is unwise and unjustified at this time.

The Board of Education is charged with the responsibility of assessing, maintaining and improving all school programs, within the tax dollars made available to the school district. The problems increase each year as the Board views the impact of inflation, coupled with limited tax revenues. In the past, through sound planning and fiscal management, we have been able to provide a quality school program for our students.

Through the process of negotiations and more recently mediation, the Board has presented a three (3) year proposal that it believes is fair and equitable to both teachers and taxpayers of the school district.

The teachers have not formally voted on this final offer. The Board strongly urges that the teachers be given the opportunity to express their opinions through A FORMAL RATIFICATION VOTE.

Your Board of Education welcomes your opinion. Please feel free to contact a Board member.

Association Reports

Dear Parents and Neighbors:

We regretfully find ourselves in a difficult position which is the most painful situation we have had to face in all the years we've taught school.

However, we teach your children to stand up for those principles that they believe to be right, and we believe that it is right that your School Board be concerned enough about the welfare of your children that they will provide a classroom of 27 or less in the early elementary grades. We stand firm in the belief that smaller class size is imperative to properly establish the foundations of reading, math, and learning values at this early age.

Secondly, we stand firm in the belief that the Board has a civic responsibility to obey the laws of the state by good faith bargaining and responsible educational leadership as well as financial leadership. At the direction of Board President William Macbeth, Board member, Richard Heglin at the October 16 School Board meeting, clearly illustrated the Board's irresponsibility by the statement that "taxes could double" if we lower the class size. He was using the figure of fifteen (15) students in a class. That figure has never been suggested by the Association, nor does any data indicate a tax increase would be required to meet the T.E.A.'s position on class size. He further admitted that only early elementary students, students of lower economic levels, and lower ability would benefit from a smaller class size. Yet, the Board is determined to disregard our youngsters in need by maintaining a position of 31 in the elementary classrooms.

Finally, the Board's dictatorial profile indeed produces a mockery of the spirit of collective bargaining. The reoccurring unfair treatment of the negotiation process clearly causes one to question the coincidence that our Board of Education is led by local industry leadership. Why must the teachers have confidential letters sent to them suggesting individual negotiations? A further type of intimidation is shown in the Board's "final" proposal in the October 10 mediations, which strongly implies that if the proposal is not accepted, the work of the past ten months at the table shall be voided. The epitome of intimidation has come with their position that they will make no more movement, and that if a job action is taken, teachers will not receive retroactivity.

The contract items that remain unsettled are:

1. CLASS SIZE
   Board's position: 33 students grades 7-12
   31 students grades K-6
   with no assurance of enforcement.
   T.E.A. position: 30 students grades 7-12
   29 students grades 4-6
   27 students grades K-3
   and a strong formula for enforcement.
2. GOOD FAITH BARGAINING
3. SALARY
   Board position: 7.75% increase for the 1978-79 school year
   7.5% increase for the 1979-80 and 1980-81 school year
   T.E.A. position: 8% increase for each of the three years

Just exactly what are the differences here? When one considers that the salary proposals are apart by approximately $30,000 for a three-year contract out of an $18 million budget, certainly salary is not an issue. Consequently, only two remaining issues realistically appear to separate the parties from a settlement: CLASS SIZE AND GOOD FAITH BARGAINING.

The Board has refused to discuss or analyze data concerning classroom size and has deliberately presented misleading information to the public. If the Board were truly interested in resolving this contract dispute in good faith, and had the welfare of your youngsters in mind, the honorable avenue to an equitable settlement would require them to agree to binding arbitration.

Since the Board refuses to make any further movement, and bargaining is at an impasse, the public and student welfare would best be served by immediate binding arbitration.

Auto Crash Injures Two in River Acres

Two Tecumseh youths were injured early Tuesday evening when their automobile crashed into a tree at the Craig Rosancrans residence on River Acres Dr.

In Ann Arbor is David M. Patten, 18, of 906 River Acres Dr., a passenger in the car driven by John C. Burns, 21, of 906 River Acres Dr.

Both were taken to Herrick Hospital. Patten was then transferred to St. Joseph's where his condition is reported as good. He suffered a broken elbow, lacerations and is wearing a brace for a suspected neck fracture.

Burns remains in the Tecumseh hospital for observation. He reports body soreness, stiffness and facial lacerations.

According to the police report, Burns was headed north at a high rate of speed when he passed John Hernandez, 32, of 1010 River Acres, also northbound. Burns then lost control of his car, slid sideways for over 100 feet, jumped a curb, and then skidded 63 feet into a tree at 813 River Acres Dr., hitting the tree headon.

Tecumseh firemen spent approximately half an hour freeing Burns from the wreckage. At the scene, Burns was conscious but Patten was incoherent and only semi-conscious.

Police issued Burns a citation for reckless driving. His late model automobile was totaled in the accident.

In four other accidents on city streets the past week, police cited all drivers for violations. A resume is:

Oct. 12 - Mary E. Wassink, 65, Adrian, was charged with improper lane usage after turning in front of Marilyn L. Thompson, 46, Clinton, on N. Evans at Logan.

Oct. 12 - Gary L. Frost, 34, Clinton, was cited for failure to yield after an accident with Willis E. Halsey, 35, of 414 Center Dr., at the intersection of Chicago Blvd. and Evans St.

Oct. 13 - Mark A. Gramling, 18, of 116 N. Division, was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control. He ran into a parked car, owned by Eugene F. Clark, Detroit, on N. Maumee St.

Oct. 13 - Barbara Wheeler, 48, of 5250 Milwaukee Rd., was cited for failure to yield after she attempted to cross W. Chicago Blvd. at Pearl and struck Danny E. Clymer, 27, Adrian.

Postpones Action on Beal Property

Tecumseh City Council decided Monday night to postpone action on a decision of whether or not to buy property from Sam Beal of Tecumseh Ace Hardware to add to the city's northeast parking lot.

Beal told Council he would sell the property to the city with no restrictions for $17,000. Allan C. Graybiel appraised the property for Beal at $15,000, if restricted to city-operated parking or $20,000 if unrestricted.

Robert Camburn made the appraisal of the property at the city request, stating the fair market value was $17,000 in his opinion.

Both Graybiel and Camburn are employed at the offices of First Federal Savings.

"While I have no quarrel with either of the appraisers, the appraisals are considerable amount of money, more than I anticipated," said Council member Harold Easton. "I don't think the city can afford it at this time," Easton stated Monday night.

"It's not that we don't want the property, just that we don't have the bucks," said Council member Len DeMoss.

At a previous Council meeting, Beal indicated he would rather sell the property to the city instead of leasing it to the city for $1 a year for its off street parking program.

In return the city would remove the property from the for maintenance, insurance, policing.

If a purchase or lease agreement is not settled, then under the city's zoning ordinance on parking requirements, any property owner that owns off street parking would continue to be responsible to maintain it, and the property would return to the tax rolls.

Talking It Out

ROGER PROCTOR

Be Sure to Visit the Terminally Ill

If you are ever in doubt about whether or not to visit a friend or relative whom you know to be terminally ill, then make the visit! It will benefit both of you.

If he doesn't wish to see you, he will make his wishes known. If it grieves you to see him, share your grief . . . bring a caring and mutual friend. Together you may diminish the sorrow you share with your terminally ill relative. Do not be reluctant to ask if there is anything he wishes you to do for him -- any letters to write, people he'd like to see again whom you could bring or ask to come.

Don't be backward about talking of good times shared, memories of happy occasions, sad ones, too. If he knows he is seriously ill, your offer of help may be most welcome, perhaps even fortuitious.

What else do you talk about to someone terminally ill? Shared experiences, mutual good and bad and amusing times and situations -- but mostly you LISTEN. He has a lot to tell you . . . in words, in looks and expressions.

Studies made with terminally ill patients by Herman Feifel, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross and others indicate they may pass through emotional stages of denial, anger and finally, acceptance of their impending death. To learn more about coping with these stages, stop by for some suggested reading.

Council OKs Garbage Contract

The city of Tecumseh will continue to employ Lenawee Disposal for the present garbage collection service, but the new contract has a new price tag that will cost approximately $19,000 more.

Tecumseh City Council made the decision Monday night in a 5 to 2 vote. Council members James H. Palmer and Len DeMoss cast the dissenting votes.

The present system allows each household 50 paper bags of 30 gallon capacity per year. Bags must be placed in sight of the collector from the street. Under the new contract, additional bags will cost residents .68 cents per bag. Cost was .48 cents per bag under the previous contract.

New annual contract will cost the city $74,800. Since 1972, the cost of the refuse collection has been financed through city's share of federal revenue sharing funds.

Also Monday night, City Council received a letter of support for the present collection system from resident Polly Judd.

Both Council members Palmer and DeMoss favored an alternate proposal from Royal Disposal, former owner of Lenawee Disposal. They cast the only two "yes" votes for the alternative in an earlier motion.

Under that second proposal a household would provide its own disposal container and would have unlimited service at curbside for $2.45 per month, or annual cost to the city of $64,680. Lenawee Disposal's bid on the same alternative was $3.49 per month or $92,136.

Palmer argued that the alternate proposal would provide more service for larger families at a lower cost to the householder and at a lower cost than new bids for the present paper bag system.

"I think the question is can we justify a $19,000 increase," said Council member DeMoss, supporting Palmer.

"I think we'd be accused of being fiscally irresponsible. We may be forced to change a lot of things around here if Tisch (tax reduction) proposal passes," DeMoss reasoned.

"Let's not chop one of the most important services we have in the city," countered Council member Harold Easton.

"It's the lower of bids for the same service we have," said Council member Carlton Cook.

Royal Disposal's bid for the present system of service was one cent a bag more, or total annual contract of $75,900.

"I just think our whole town will look like a dumping sight. I look at it the two weeks that we have everything out (during city's annual fall and spring clean-up) and I think it will look like that all the time," said Council member Mary Bowers, disagreeing with the alternate proposal.

"I think we had a reputation of doing a good clean job of garbage pick up," said Mayor Aden Mead, leaning with the majority for continuing the present collection system.

"I think there's a middle ground here, but we haven't found it," said Council member Jay Tressler. He suggested that the city seek new ways to ask for alternative bids.

Red Devils Spoil Indian Homecoming

Friday's homecoming match against the Grosse Ile Red Devils was a test for the Indians...and they failed 6-0.

The footballers had already played the best of the league contenders earlier in the season and lost. Friday they played a mediocre team and still played bad ball.

And the Indian squad lost this game. Grosse Ile did not really beat them. The THS squad beat themselves. They turned the ball over or were heavily penalized on five different major drives.

On their first possession, the Indians took the ball downfield with a long pass to and run by John Ely. The offense then coughed up the ball on the Devil's 30 yard line.

Gross Ile returned the ball downfield to the Tecumseh 17, but defense held and the Indian offense took over. THS threatened again with a 12 yard run by Andy Geshwiler and 30 yarder from Tom Chatters. Ely then went around his left end for 12 yards before the team failed to get a much needed first down on the Devil's 26.

Gross Ile then passed and got 15 extra yards on an Indian late hit penalty before a Devil backed dashed 41 yards for the lone score of the game.

The Indians threatened still another time at the end of the first frame with good runs by Ely and Kevin Salters. At the beginning of the second frame, however, the offense again coughed up the ball, this time from the Devil 21.

The THS defense held tight and the Devils returned the ball in four plays after Chris Smith dropped the quarterback on third and eight. The Indians received the punt near midfield and Chatters soon returned the ball to the 18 for a first down. Tecumseh was then called for a clip that sent them back to the 37.

The ball exchanged hands four times before Chatters intercepted a Devil aerial on the Indian 40 and again the team stopped a drive. They faked a punt on the drive in the beginning of the third quarter and Geshwiler carried the ball to the Devil 45. A screen to Chatters gave them a second first down at the Devil 22.

THS squad was then called for illegal blocking. They ran the ball back to the line of scrimmage the next play but were called for a clip.

The ball then exchanged hands five times before the Devils threatened for the second time. John Southward intercepted a pass in the end zone to stop the drive at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

Tecumseh had still one other shot at a victory in the final two minutes of the game. Again Tecumseh was called for clipping and a run to the Devil 15 was negated.

Chatters led the Indians with 71 yards rushing. The Indians totaled 140 yards rushing with 10 first downs. The Devils had 157 yards and 16 firsts. The Indians were five of 13 in the air for 82 yards. Grosse Ile was 10 of 18 for 166 yards.

Defensively, Jon Betzoldt recovered a Devil fumble while Randy Halvin and Chatters led with 27 combined tackles.

Clinton Girls Win Twice

The Clinton Redskins beat Hudson and Columbia Central last week to run their overall record to 8-1, 3-1 in the LCAA.

Paced by Sue Richter's 15 points in the 1st quarter against Hudson, the girls basketball team raced to a 23-12 lead. Coach Bob King substituted freely throughout the game as Clinton coasted to a 65-50 victory.

Both teams took 71 shots but Clinton made 11 more baskets than Hudson as they shot 42% from the floor.

Richter led all scorers with 26 points and Kris Pratt played her best game of the year scoring 12.

Richter and Fran Corwin led in rebounding with 12 and 10 as CHS edged Hudson in rebounds 45-44.

The non-league game with Brooklyn Columbia Central was nip and tuck throughout as neither team led by more than five points in a very physical game.

CC jumped off to a 15-10 lead and led at halftime 23-19. The two teams traded baskets during the third quarter as CC still led 30 to 29.

Clinton finally took the lead with just over three minutes left in the game 37-36. Brenda Cark and Barb Winder both scored four points to help Clinton to a hard fought 45-40 victory.

Seniors Richter and Lisa Cark led the Redskins in scoring with 21 and 13 points.

Winder grabbed a season high 19 rebound as she led Clinton to a 60-36 advantage. Richter had 11 and Cark added 10.

The next four games are at home starting with Ida Oct. 19 and Morenci Oct. 24.

B-M Tories Lose Homecoming

The Britton-Macon Tories lost their homecoming game Friday night 20-14 to the Madison Trojans.

Madison scored first on a three yard run after an interception gave the Trojans the ball on the Tory four yard line.

In the second quarter, David Bruce hit the Madison punter as he was ready to kick and Chris Barth scooped up the loose ball for a Britton touchdown. Jeff Osterhout ran over the extra points to make the halftime score Britton 8, Madison 6.

Madison scored 14 points in the third quarter on two touchdowns and added a two point conversion.

Britton's final touchdown came in the fourth frame on a 98 yard dash by Osterhout. The extra point attempt failed to make the final score 20-14.

Madison had 198 yards total offense with 146 rushing and 52 in the air.

Britton had 286 yards total offense with 279 of it coming on the ground. Jeff Osterhout had an outstanding night as he rushed for 231 yards in 28 attempts. The Tories had 10 first downs.

Penalties again hurt the Tories as they were penalized seven times for 55 yards. One penalty resulted in a Britton TD being called back and another stopped a Britton drive late in the fourth quarter.

Tories are now 1-5 overall and 1-3 in Tri-County action. They travel to Petersburg Friday to play the undefeated Summerfield Bulldogs.

Castorena Leads Team

Tecumseh's cross country runners captured the first three spots Thursday to beat league foe Grosse Ile and then placed fourth Saturday at the Hudson Invitational.

Thursday, Jessie Castorena led the team with a 16:48 finish. Scott Betzoldt was second at 17:09 and Wendell West posted a 17:33 to finish third.

Lenny Castorena and Ben Binder finished fifth and seventh respectively to round out the 18-43 win.

Saturday, Jessie Castorena paced the local runners with a seventh place finish at 15:49. THS finished behind East Jackson, Clinton and Riverview.

Other finishers for the Indians were Betzoldt, 13th; West, 28th; Binder, 41st; L. Castorena, 46th.

To finish the week, THS meets Jefferson away Thursday and is at the Huron Meet next Tuesday.

Girls Drop Two Games

Tecumseh's girls basketball team dropped two decisions this week, losing to Grosse Ile Tuesday and Airport last Thursday.

Thursday, Gloria Fosbender took high game honors with 15 points, but also missed a crucial one and one foul shot with one second left as Tecumseh dropped the game 38-37.

Indian Kelly Kruger added 10 points to the THS cause.

Tecumseh dropped their game to Grosse Ile Tuesday with Klemens scoring 28 points against the Indians. Further details were not available at press time.

THS Golfers Win Again

The Tecumseh golf team finished their regular dual meet season Wednesday with a convincing 162-200 victory over Monroe Jefferson. The team then traveled to Marshal Saturday for the regionals and placed a disappointing ninth.

Against Jefferson, Faulkner shot a 38 to lead the team. Ron Smith added a 39 while Scott McDonald hit 42. Greg Scheuerman was right behind at 43.

That win left the Indians with an unblemished 6-0 league record. Next they must play in the league meet Wednesday. If they win there, they will be the league champions. If Monroe CC beats them, however, the two teams will tie for first in the Huron League.

Saturday, the team had hoped for better, but they finished ninth in their regional competition. The team hit 350. Jackson Lumen Christi won the match with a 323 score.

Faulkner was low for THS at 81. Koszka and Smith each hit 88 while McDonald carded a 93. In the match, Ron Smith just missed a hole-in-one by an inch when his ball nearly dropped in the 130 yard, eighth hole.

6 Games, 6 Victories for Redskins

Clinton notched its sixth league victory in as many games Friday night when they edged the Morenci Bulldogs in their toughest battle of the season, 32-20.

Morenci scored first on a nine yard pass but Clinton charged back with a 67 yard drive for a score. Jeff Porterfield ran the last two yards. Casey Thilo ran the extra two points to give Clinton an 8-6 edge.

Clinton scored again when Mike Karapas picked off a Bulldog aerial and returned it 55 yards down the sideline for six points.

Morenci then mounted a 52 yard drive and scored on a one yard run to put the score at 20-12 after Clinton's Porterfield got his second TD.

Clinton then took a larger lead on a 55 yard pass from Terry Carlton to Rudy Weirich in the second quarter. But then facing third and long yardage, Morenci closed the gap to within six, 26-20, on the Statue-of-Liberty play.

The Redskins came right back after the half and scored on the first series with Thilo scoring from three yards out to finalize the scoring at 32-20.

Neither team threatened after the last Clinton TD.

Thilo was the leading rusher for Clinton with 134 yards while Porterfield added 61 yards in four less carries, 16.

Clinton totaled 209 yards rushing.

The team was nine for 13 in the air for 187 yards. Karapas caught six passes from Carlton for 94 of the yards.

Redskins Finish Season

Clinton's golfers finished their season this week, taking third in the LCAA meet Wednesday and placing ninth in regional competition Saturday.

Wednesday, Manchester took first place honors with Clinton sliding just behind Addison's 441 with a 444. Bernie Hough was low at 84. Brad Eversole posted an 87. Blake Clark, Tom Eddy and Gary Gibbard each hit 91.

At Pontiac Saturday, the Redskins shot 367 for ninth place behind the golfing of Clark and Eversole. Both shot 89's.

Eddy was right behind with a 91 while Hough carded a 98.

DOWN HE GOES — A Tecumseh defenseman downs a Red Devil runner behind the line. Defensively, Randy Halvin and Steve Chatters led the team with 27 combined tackles.

Girls Split Pair

Britton's girls basketball team split a pair of games this week, losing to Whitmore Lake Tuesday and defeating Madison Thursday.

Against Whitmore Lake, the Tories just could not sink a basket in the third frame and lost 52-46. Jodie Smith had high game honors with 17 points while Janene Schultz added 13.

Then on Thursday, the girls bounced back to beat Madison 63-44 behind the third quarter shooting of Jodi Smith with 12 points. She finished with 29 points in all with Jill Smith adding 26 for the Britton team.

Britton is now 3-1 in the league.

Clinton Second

Clinton captured second behind East Jackson Saturday at the Hudson Invitational with a score of 119. Matt Peters was first for the Redskins with a fifth place meet finish at 15:41.

Other runners included Tom Nighswander at 16th place; Devin Schinkler, 30th; Matt McNeil, 31st; and Ken Caligiuri, 37th.

It's A Small World

Ever run into a friend in Tokyo, or meet one of your neighbors in Amsterdam? Maybe not—but such things are happening every day!

It makes you stop and think—the way this world is shrinking. It makes you wish that the men and women who live on opposite sides of the globe had more things in common.

There can be no more unifying force in the world than a common belief in God. And toward that ideal we are rapidly progressing. Christians the world over are feeling and expressing their unity of faith and purpose.

Sunday is World-Wide Communion Sunday. On that day, within the space of a few short hours, Christians in every land will reverently participate in the Lord's Supper which has been a mark of Christian faith for almost two thousand years.

Worship with the World in the Church of your choice!

A jury trial for Miller was set for Nov. 21 and 22.

New Members

CLINTON — Mrs. Mervyn Witherell and Mrs. Charles Randolph were welcomed as new members in the Clinton Woman's Club at the first meeting of the season, Oct. 13, in Smith-Kimball Community Center.

Speaker, Mrs. Pearl Hsu former member of the Chinese nobility, was unable to appear, so her student, Mrs. Harlan Fraumann spoke on "Flower Arranging."

Oriental arrangements always include evergreens to signify longevity, Mrs. Fraumann explained. She used silver lace, vines, evergreen branches, bright maple leaves and crabapple branches.

Chairman, Mrs. James Chellman requested that members display their quilts at the Adrian Womens' Club Quilt Show, Oct. 27-28 at the Lenawee Vo-Tech Center.

Plans were made to take items to the Nov. 30 Arts and Crafts Tea sponsored by the Lenawee County Womens' Federation of Womens' Club.

Next meeting will be Nov. 8 at the Community Center at 1:30 p.m.

Clinton UF

CLINTON — A public meeting will be Oct. 25, 7:30 p.m. at the United Church of Christ to determine if the United Fund board should continue to operate in Clinton.

A lack of board membership and public support has caused a crisis.

Ratify Contract with Custodians

CLINTON — Clinton Board of Education ratified a contract with International Union of Operating Engineers representing the custodians for the year 1978-79, giving all personnel in this group a .30 cent raise per hour, at the Oct. 11 meeting.

Contract was also ratified by the International Union of Operating Engineers representing the secretaries as negotiated.

Negotiations are still under way with Clinton Teachers Association for the faculty.

Superintendent Richard Wegner presented the cafeteria budget for the year 1977-78 and pointed out how the total ending balance had risen some $4,400 over the previous year and how self-supporting this operation really was.

Taking this into consideration, the board approved all cafeteria staff raises amounting to an additional $6,020 for the 1978-79 year, retroactive to Sept. 5.

Approve Two Text Books

CLINTON — At the Sept. 11 meeting, the Board of Education approved two text books for the high school psychology class.

The new texts are: "Youth and Suicide" by Francine Klagbrun and "The Risk of Loving," by Joseph Simon and Jeanne Reidy.

Board approved the hiring of Gregory Beer as high school industrial arts teacher.

After study of attendance records and two years of disciplinary action, board voted to expel a high school student.

Superintendent Wegner stressed his concern over the possible loss of all CETA programs, in which Clinton Schools have several employees. Loss of these employees would create a shortage in the teaching staff as well as various hourly positions.

Agenda Short, Crowd Big

Tecumseh School Board agenda was short Monday night but not the attendance. Over 100 parents and teachers crowded the Board's meeting room.

After approving a membership for the library in the Woodlands Library Cooperative, a tuition rate of $249.68 for the high school, authorizing an aide for a split class at Patterson, and a report on a new addition at Ridgeway school, the Board responded to questions from the audience about class size in the schools.

Mrs. Joanne Wilkins, a parent, presented a petition circulated and signed by parents last spring and asked the Board to do something about the large class sizes.

In response to a question of how the Board stands on class size, member Richard Heglin read from a publication supporting the Board's position that class size has little to do with student learning and achievement. He remarked that "smaller clases are not justified."

Mrs. Wilkens replied that other literature was available with different views.

The half hour meeting ended with the Board adjourning to an executive session to discuss personnel matters.

Prior to the meeting, teachers picketed the Board of Education office to protest the school's failure to reach a contract with them.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

The woodpecker clan is large, some 175 different species, and widely distributed. In fact, there are woodpeckers wherever trees grow and six branches of the family do not even require trees. They have adapted themselves to life among cacti instead of trees.

There are 22 different members of the family who breed in the United States and Canada and six of these we can expect to see in this area. Since we are approaching the best woodpecker watching season, perhaps a quick rundown of those we are likely to see would be in order.

The downy woodpeckers are by far the most numerous and the ones most likely to be seen. They are also our smallest woodpeckers, slightly over five inches in length.

They are attractive birds, whitish fronts with black and white backs, wings, and head. The males wear a red patch on the back of their heads which the females lack. With this exception the sexes are similar in appearance.

The hairy woodpeckers are merely overgrown downys. These 7½ inch birds are not as common as their smaller cousins and thus not as often seen. Proportionally their bills are much larger and their white outer tail feathers are usually not barred or speckled with black as are the downys'.

However, both species have a wide white stripe running vertically up the middle of their backs. Their heads are the same, too, white throats with thinnish black "chin" stripes, black eye stripes and wider band of black on the top of their heads.

White stripes fill in above and below the eye but do not completely circle the head. Again, the males have red head patches but the females don't.

The red-headed woodpeckers win our votes as the most handsome members of the clan. Both males and females have brilliant red heads and snowy white fronts.

Their wings and upper backs as well as the lower half of their tails are blue-black. The upper tail, the lower back, and part of the wings are white. No wonder a common nickname in some parts of their range is "the patriotic bird"

Young red-headed woodpeckers are brown headed with tattletale gray breasts and dark brown, with indistinct black stripes on the areas where the adults are blue-black. They are grubby looking characters.

Unfortunately our beautiful red-headed woodpeckers are declining in numbers. They are cavity nesters who are extremely vulnerable to the homesite raids of the starlings.

Far too often these pesky birds will harass the red-heads until they leave therby letting the starlings move in. Red-heads also eat more fruit than other woodpeckers which is one of the reasons we are more apt to see them twelve months a year. Suet in the winter and mulberries in the summer.

The yellow-bellied sapsuckers are the ragmuffins of the woodpecker clan. With the exception of the neat and slick feathered birds we entertained late last winter, they have always been unkept and poorly groomed.

They are dumpy sort of characters, about 7½ inches long, and often their yellow bellies are merely a dirty looking tan with a slightly yellowish cast. Their backs are "finely mottled" black and white and on the upper part of their black wings is a fairly long white stripe.

Their black and white heads are distinctly marked with brick red bills. The males have red throat patches bordered in black and the females wear white bibs with the black border.

The next to largest woodpeckers we could entertain are the 8½ inch red-bellied woodpeckers. Lower Michigan is the northern most limit of their normal range.

Winter is the time these birds visit us and, instead of suet, they seem to prefer corn. The name is deceptive, their fronts are only faintly tinged with red; however, their horizontally striped black and white backs are perfect for their other name, ladder-backed woodpecker.

The males show a unique red, bright but not deep, across the top of their heads and running down the back of their necks. The females wear the same red on the back of their necks and across the base of their bills with a soft gray in between.

Our sixth woodpecker is the flicker but he is controversial and must wait until next week.

G and S Carpet and Upholstery Cleaners by Steamway

The most modern carpet-cleaning equipment available was recently purchased by David and Phyllis Perry of Clinton.

The heavy duty "Turbo-Matic Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner" is powered by a gasoline engine and truck-mounted so it can be taken to any location - home or business.

"To clean carpets, it uses a steam-pressurized and heated solution which is injected into the carpet, then vacuumed out," said Dave, who received special factory training in the machine's operation in Denver at the time of purchase.

"When we enter your home or business, only the quiet-running 'wand' comes inside to do the cleaning," he added. "The operating unit stays outside in the truck, connected to the cleaning wand by up to 400 feet of hose. The 'Turbo-Matic' system is capable of cleaning any carpet or furniture with temperatures ranging from cold, to 250 degrees depending upon the type of fabric involved."

Dave said cleaning can be performed day or night at the customer's convenience, and on weekends when businesses are closed. Carpets are sufficiently dry for use within two to four hours after cleaning.

Dave added that carpet in an average size room can be cleaned in approximately one hour.

"We purchased the 'Turbo-Matic' because its unique cleaning head won't distort carpet pile like brushes can," said Dave, "and it uses high pressure steam with a strong vacuum action to completely clean a carpet. It is also many times more powerful and efficient than portable units."

Dave explained why customers have been satisfied in business where the carpets have been cleaned by this new, efficient method.

"Even though our cleaning method extracts deep down dirt and soil to the fiber base," he continued, "it is gentle. There are no brushes or scrubbing involved. Carpet fiber is restored to 'like new' appearance.

He explained that foreign matter is removed from the carpet as it is being cleaned, including allergy-carrying particles making the method sanitary.

"The best thing about 'Turbo-Matic' is that it is economical," he concluded. "Carpet and upholstery cleaning frequency is greatly reduced. With soil and dirt removed, fiber life is prolonged for years for added carpet value."

Call G and S Carpet and Upholstery Cleaners for more information or free estimates, at 265-8698.

CARPET CLEANERS — David and Phyllis Perry, pictured above, offer the most modern carpet and upholstery cleaning service available today. Their heavy duty "Turbo-Matic" cleaning system is the only one of its kind in this area and uses a steam-pressurized and heated solution to extract dirt and grim from any carpet at home or business. ROY, RAUL, JOHN HENRY and JOHN RODRIGUEZ

Brothers Vie for Titles

by Kathy Brown

Had fate allowed it, John Rodriguez, of 5590 Raisin Center Hwy., would have taken the Michigan Ropers' Association State Championship Oct. 7 right in his own backyard.

He may have even stole the Midwest Ropers Association Championship later that weekend at the Clinton Fall Festival.

Instead his brother, Roy of Cadmus, claimed both titles after the closest race the brothers have had together since they started roping as teens.

John, however, did finish second in both titles and took a monetary prize at the rodeo in Clinton. For his younger brother, Roy, it was the second time he won the state championship, the first taken in 1974 and his first Midwest championship.

Until Labor Day 1978, John was ahead of his brother in the nip and tuck race. By Oct. 7, the day of the MRA Class A finals at the Rodriguez arena, Roy edged ahead by 40 points. He finally snatched the crown by 75 points.

Championship is the family's legacy. Their father, John Sr., was state champion in 1949 and 1950. An older brother, Ray was the 1955 state champion.

John's roping career is not without laurels. He won the Michigan State Fair competition in 1966 and 1967 and competed in the MRA finals for the last four years. In 1959, he won the Ontario, Canada calf-roping championship.

Their father was raised on the King Ranch, Kingsville, Texas, one of the largest cattle ranches in the United States. John Sr. was a cowboy by vocation and avocation. He remained an active rider until he was 69.

The family settled in Michigan in 1940. Of John's five brothers and one sister, only one brother and the sister do not rope.

In a few years, Roy will teach his son, Raul, 8 and John will teach his son, John Henry, 6, the art of roping.

"We were brought up in it. It is a good sport. Lots of exercise, lots of activity, every weekend," explained John. The families attend as many as 25 rodeos and jackpots during the season.

"It is a skill to rope, an art. You have to be a good rider. You have to have a skill to rope. They say that a man is half as good as his horse. A good horse is half the battle (of winning)," said John.

John and his wife, Serafina, have hosted jackpots for the past 12 years at the Raisin Township homestead. Besides a son, they also have two daughters, Melinda, 12 and Anita, 10.

Michigan Ropers Association, founded in 1942, has approximately 90 members, practically all from the Lower Peninsula and only two are women.

Competing with the Rodriguez brothers, Oct. 7 were Bill Whiting of Deerfield; Dick Wahl, Ottawa Lake; Joe Garza, Clio; Rick Betz, Williamston; Mike Culhane, Clio; Lawrence Asquith, Stockbridge; Jim Elsee, Onaway; Audie Pankhurst, Mt. Pleasant and MRA president Tom Pugh.

Students Speak Out on State Proposals

The Headlee, Tisch and Voucher tax proposals (Proposals E, J and H, respectively) on the Nov. 7 general election ballot were unanimously defeated in a straw vote of 11 Tecumseh High School senior social studies students.

The panelists voluntarily participated in the first school press conference recorded for viewing on Channel 2, cable T.V., Oct. 19, 8 p.m.

The program gave seniors an opportunity to test their political reasoning on the 11 proposed amendments which the electorate will vote upon Nov. 7.

The 11 panelists answered questions from their peers and from local media representatives, Kathy Brown from the Tecumseh Herald, Harriet Fields, editor of the Lenawee Intermediate School District's Chalk Talk and Bob Gwizdz of the Daily Telegram.

Dick Egli, telecommunications director, was the moderator.

Students prepared for the program under the direction of their teachers, Gary Lovett, Jack Whelan and Larry Crittendon, social studies team teachers.

Panelists were Dorman Frederick, Amy Nichols, Joni Tomecek, Kent Norris, John Andre, Kim Burack, Laura Mead, Lisa Steuwe, Bob McFadden, Bob Eardley, Kevin Furstenberg.

Also unanimously vetoed was Proposal D the amendment to raise the drinking age to 21. Proposal A to call a constitutional convention (the last was in 1963), was also vetoed by the students, by a vote of eight "no" and three "yes".

Of the 90 students at Friday's assembly, only three were eligible to vote and two of them were actually registered.

The real effects of these tax amendments are not fully understood by the electorate or politicians, the students summarized.

The students favored belt tightening by governments just as families are forced to tighten their budgets.

A LOOK INSIDE Herrick Hospital

BY KATHY BAILEY, R.N.
RICHARD SIES, BUSINESS MANAGER

Herrick Hospital has been granted "fully delegated" status for Utilization Review and Medical Care Evaluation Studies as of Oct. 1, 1978 by the "Region VII, Professional Standards Review Organizations" (P.S.R.O.).

P.S.R.O. is a federal program arising out of amendment to the Social Security Act and applies to the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

There are 10 P.S.R.O. regions in the state of Michigan, each covering several adjacent counties.

The P.S.R.O. itself is a group of doctors who have contracted with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to perform a function of monitoring the volume of care rendered to Medicare and Medicaid patients by hospitals according to physicians' orders.

The main idea of the program is to save money for Uncle Sam by limiting hospital care to the length of time the patient actually needs that intensity of care. This is the mandate to P.S.R.O.'s around the country.

To fulfill this charge, each P.S.R.O. may choose to have its own staff carry on a daily review of patients in each hospital, or delegate that function to the professional and medical staffs of hospitals on a hospital to hospital basis, depending of course on the qualifications of each hospital.

Should the P.S.R.O. determine that a hospital is willing and qualified to carry such a program, the hospital is allowed the right to review its own patients.

Herrick Hospital is one of the first hospitals in this five county region to be given fully delegated status. This new arrangement will eliminate some redundant paperwork for doctors, as well as provide federal payment for the cost of this program.

Teachers Really Care About Class Size

The children who fill our classrooms are eager to learn. They have big eyes and curious minds.

BUT what good does all this curiosity do if we can't challenge them, everyone. Tecumseh teachers understand that all children aren't the same.

TECUMSEH TEACHERS are working without a contract - why - they care!

We are asking for - NO MORE THAN - 27 children in early elementary classes.
29 children in later elementary classes.
30 children in secondary classes.

This is what Tecumseh teachers want.

Accused Murderer Left Tecumseh Man in Critical Condition

Tommy Lee Brown of 102 Cairns was reported in serious condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Tuesday. He was hospitalized with four gunshot wounds he received early Oct. 19 at the Stiles-Wood Corporation, a family business in Ypsilanti Township where he works.

A family member reported Brown has paralysis from the waist down. He was originally in critical condition and remains in intensive care.

Brown was one of the injured in a shooting spree in Ypsilanti and Van Buren townships in which five people were killed and two others injured.

Among the injured in the same incident is Bobby Baker, Brown's half-brother of Westland. Baker is reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and is recovering from multiple gunshot wounds.

Dead in the incident is Daniel E. Wood, 38, of Canton Township.

According to Det. Sgt. Kenneth Kraus of the Ypsilanti State Police Post, Brown and Baker were shot and Wood was killed as the three worked in the early morning hours Oct. 19 in the small factory.

Billy Hardesty was arraigned on five counts of murder and two counts of assault with intent to commit murder by 14th District Court. Arraignment was held at St. Joseph Hospital where Hardesty is in fair condition from gunshot wounds after a gun battle with police. Hardesty stood mute on all counts.

No bond was set on the murder counts. Bond of $50,000 was set for each count of assault with intent to commit murder.

Examination dates were set in 14th District Court, Ann Arbor (Washtenaw County).

State police believe that Hardesty shot his father Wednesday afternoon at the family home in Van Buren Township in Wayne County.

Police theorize Hardesty's mother was killed later that evening. Hardesty's examination on those murder charges will be Oct. 31. Then, Hardesty went to Abigail's Tavern in Ypsilanti where Timothy Schofield and Troy Curry were killed. Hardesty's examination on those murder charges is Nov. 2.

Hardesty then proceeded to the Ypsilanti Township business, owned and operated by David Stiles Sr. of Britton and Elmer Wood of Canton Township. It was the scene where Hardesty's former brother-in-law, Daniel Wood, was killed, said police, and where the half-brothers were wounded. Hardesty's examination on that murder charge and two assault charges is Nov. 1.

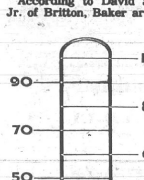
Hardesty was wounded in a gun battle with police at his parents' home just inside Wayne County and was arrested there hours after the shooting spree started.

Hardesty was charged in Washtenaw County, under a state law that gives prosecutors concurrent jurisdiction in felonies occuring within a mile of their county lines.

According to David Stiles Jr. of Britton, Baker arrived at the family business at 3:50 a.m. Oct. 19. He found his half-brother, Tommy Brown, injured and co-worker Wood, dead. Baker called an ambulance then waited. When car lights approached, Baker got out, thinking the car was an ambulance. Baker was shot on the run and then point blank, Stiles said Baker told family.

According to the family Hardesty had a history of drug and mental problems. The younger Stiles believed Hardesty returned to the scene to shoot the day shift, which included other relatives.

Brown is married and has three children.



Drive officials report $22,685 have been raised, one-fourth of the $89,900 goal.

Substitutes Are Needed

Substitute teachers for the Tecumseh, Britton and Clinton schools are in demand, officials report.

Rosann Vollmar at the Tecumseh Board of Education office says substitute teachers are needed at all levels here. She has a local list of 13 teachers for the secondary level and 21 for the elementary.

Area residents with a valid Michigan teaching certificate are urged to register with her. If out-of-state teaching certificates are held, reciprocity between most states enables the certificate to be transferred.

Lenawee County, as of Oct. 1, had a substitute list of 65, but this number has dropped because some substitutes are now teaching full time or have taken other employment.

Pickups Start

City pickups of leaves and brush start here Monday, and residents are asked to have them next to the curb.

Leaf bags are available at city hall.

Officials remind residents that leaves and brush only will be picked up.

Fund Campaign at 25% of Goal

Tecumseh's United Way campaign has reached 25 percent of its goal as of last Friday, reported Roger Proctor, assistant drive chairman.

Tecumseh's goal is $89,900, $5,900 more than last year's drive. Total received as of last Friday was $22,685.

Last year at this time during the drive, 21 percent of the goal had been reached.

Topping collections is the industrial division with 34 percent of its goal of $52,500, or $17,625.

Residential segment reported 32.5 percent of its goal of $2,150, or a total collected to date of $698.

Lagging behind is the professional division with only 6.5 percent or $150 toward a goal of $2,300.

Commercial and public employees division are tied at 13.4 percent of their respective goals. Commercial division reported a total of $1,445 and public employees division, $221, collected to date.

Police Arrest 3 in Stealing Gas

Three Tecumseh youths were arrested about 2:20 Wednesday afternoon on charges of larceny from a motor vehicle. They were caught by local police in the high school area after officers were tipped off of their presence there.

Held in the county jail and scheduled for District Court Wednesday morning are Ino Banda, 20, of 1101 Shady Lane; Bruce D. Spillman, 19, of 301 Herrick Park Dr., and Roger Calzada, 21, of 907 Murray Dr.

Officers arrived at the bus area and found Banda sitting in an automobile that had been parked between two busses. A hose and can were found nearby. Spillman and Calzada were located in the high school parking lot area, and evidence obtained by the police reportedly connected them with the attempt to steal gasoline.

Other police complaints the past week were:

RATIFICATION EXPECTED

Board, Teachers OK Tentative Agreement

Negotiating teams for the School Board and Tecumseh Education Association reached a tentative agreement Tuesday evening for a new, three-year contract.

TEA's membership of 158 teachers was scheduled to meet Wednesday night at the high school to review the contract. Most teachers learned late Tuesday evening that a tentative agreement had been reached.

According to the Association's by-laws, ratification vote by the teachers may not take place for another couple weeks.

Both the Board and TEA have mutually agreed not to release details of the contract until after ratification by the TEA and approval by the School Board.

Bargaining teams renewed negotiations at 4 p.m. Tuesday and met for approximately six and a half hours before settling their differences. The two teams first began negotiating last January and held a number of marathon bargaining sessions in recent months, including two sessions with a state mediator.

An impasse developed in September with the Association following up with a vote for job action - or approval of striking. A teachers' strike here the past two weeks was a definite possibility, and it would have marked the first such strike in the history of the local schools.

Now that a tentative agreement has been reached, unfair labor practices that had been filed against the Board by the Association are expected to be dropped.

Bus Drivers Ratify

Tecumseh school bus drivers ratified a new contract with the schools by a 14-6 vote Tuesday night.

The drivers, members of the American Federation of State-County-Municipal Employees union, had reached a tentative agreement last week. The School Board is expected to approve the contract at a special meeting within the next week.

The bus drivers, like the teachers, were on a verge of walking out and striking the schools until negotiations began making progress earlier this month.

Local schools employ 24 drivers in the transportation department.

4 Drivers Cited

Four drivers were cited for traffic violations this past week, and one suffered injuries and was treated at Herrick Hospital.

A resume is:

Oct. 19 — Linda F. Foster, 27, of 3869 Gady Rd., was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance after running into Mildred M. Stowell, 27, of 205 E. Shawnee, who was turning off W. Chicago Blvd.

Oct. 19 — Mildred J. Butler, 81, was cited for improper lane usage after she attempted to turn off N. Evans and struck Bruce E. Phenicie, 18, Paul's Trailer Court.

Oct. 20 — Larry S. Schultz, 28, of 2191 E. Valley Rd., suffered minor injuries when he struck a parked city truck at the construction site on S. Evans St. He was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control.

Oct. 23 — Ethel A. Baumgarten, 69, Adrian, drove in front of Judy A. Sisson, 31, of 310 N. Democratic, on W. Chicago Blvd. She was charged with failure to yield.

Tire Blows, Injuries Station's Employee

Jeff Baker, employee at Easton's Friendly Service Station in downtown Tecumseh, was seriously injured Friday afternoon when a tire he was working on suddenly blew up.

According to Harold Easton, station owner, Baker was working over a tire and had it under air pressure when the heavy wire bead in the tire snapped.

The tire went straight up, hitting Baker enroute, bounced off the station's ceiling, came down on the top and hood of a car being serviced, breaking the auto's windshield.

Baker suffered a compound fracture of the right elbow, facial lacerations and a badly lacerated finger. He was taken to Herrick Hospital and then transferred to St. Joseph's in Ann Arbor. He underwent surgery on the elbow Friday night.

Although in intensive care at Ann Arbor Friday, he was released Sunday afternoon.

'Bells Are Ringing' Musical On Stage Friday at Center

The Oct. 27 opening of Tecumseh Players' musical, "Bells Are Ringing," will culminate nearly 600 hours of work just on the technical aspects of the play. While the cast spends rehearsal time getting the show together, the tech crew is engaged in a bigger production which won't even take a bow.

Creating the sets for the show is the job of technical director Gerry Johnstone and crew members Lauri Kempf, Elizabeth Pray, Sue Santner, Anna Williams and Maggie Yerman. Others helping in various ways are Claudia Daugherty, Marti Frolich, Linda Maupin and Karyn Thomas.

Among the most challenging of the required sets is the interior of a subway car, achieved through use of a canvas backdrop measuring 24 feet wide and nine feet high, painted to produce the proper effect. Lauri Kempf, a Tecumseh sophomore, sketched the huge canvas subway, as well as another one depicting a New York street, this with help from Claudia Daugherty. Crew has spent long hours painting details on the giant canvas drops, assisted when possible by some of the cast members.

Another feature of this production is use of a revolving platform to produce the two main sets of the show. One side is the Susan-swerphone Office, where most of the activity originates. Other side is the apartment of playwright Jeffrey Moss, portrayed by Dick Egli, whose problems become the personal concern of switchboard operator Ella Peterson, played by Donna Andre.

During the course of this show the 24 by 22 foot stage area of the Glass Room will be transformed into 10 different settings, a total of 22 times. Included in these scenes are a cafe, a nightclub, the penthouse apartment of producer Larry Hastings, played by John Thomas, and the dental office of composer-at-heart Dr. Kitchell, portrayed by Dr. Carlton Cook, of Tecumseh.

Co-ordinating all the costumes for the 25 cast members, who require a combined total of 149 changes, is the monumental task of Dianne Marsh, with assistance from Mary Ann Bone.

Although the contemporary story eliminates the need for specific 'period' costumes, certain characters and scenes have distinctive dress requirements. Dianne's most notable creations are the gold Midas costumes and the Traviata dress with a ruffle which must be torn off and replaced for every performance.

A large assortment of prop items must also be obtained, and Kathi Johnstone has spent endless hours seeking items from rummage sales. Some items which cannot be found must be created, such as the laundry-filled clothesline in the New York street scene.

Another example is the sign used in the Crying Gypsy Cafe, painted by Karyn Thomas, who is also making trees for the park scene.

SORRY, WRONG NUMBER — Ella Peterson, played by Donna Andre ignores the flirtations of Jeff Moss, played by Dick Egli in the Tecumseh Players production of the musical comedy, "Bells Are Ringing, Oct. 27 and 28, Nov. 2, 3, 4 at the Tecumseh Community Center Glass Room. For tickets, call 423-2770. Senior citizen night is Oct. 27 only.

Talking It Out

Make No Hasty Decisions About Retirement

Unlike a Frank Sinatra, you will probably only retire once, so you'll want to be super-intelligent about how you go about retiring.

Don't burn your bridges behind you, such as selling your home and running off to the sunnier climes the day you retire. Your home may be the best investment you have at any price. Going to Florida or Hawaii for the winter may be retirement enough as a "get-away." Hasty decisions are frequently costly and irreversible.

Easy does it. It's better to retire slowly and gradually. Begin early. Think and plan about where to live, what you'll do and when. Gather FACTS about your decisions -- not emotions.

Estimate income at retirement and how you will supplement that income if it is too low; also how to use it to your best advantage if it is ample.

Mistakes are costly

Remember that at retirement you cannot afford to make too many little mistakes and ANY big mistakes. Plan in advance. Make lists of the pros and cons. Get expert help whenever it's needed. And here's where we may be of some assistance. We may be able to direct you to sources of expertise in some retirement matters, such as Social Security benefits, union pensions and veteran's benefits. Stop by and see us. We'll help if we can.

Outer Space Beckons Club

Nineteen members of the Tecumseh Monday Club ventured into the world of outer space Oct. 17 with a color tour to the Michigan Space Center at Jackson.

The displays answer questions about the life of the astronauts as they live in space.

Life size models illustrate how the astronauts are suited up, from the skin out, in order for them to live in space and on the moon.

Space suits worn by Mercury, Gemini and Apollo astronauts stand ready for inspection. The many forms of outer space food are displayed.

Magnified rock formations give insight into what the moon's surface is really like.

Younger children may find the controls of the Gemini Capsule Trainer especially interesting.

The model of a lunar surveyor, used to probe the moon's surface, and the chimp capsule, which preceded manned space flights, are also displayed.

The ceiling of the golden dome housing all these displays is hung with one of the actual parachutes used in the astronauts return to earth from the moon.

The women lunched at the Sveden House, Jackson.

Next meeting is Oct. 30, 2 p.m. Mrs. Walter Prill will lead the program on education.

Muellers Surprised on 40th

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mueller of Tecumseh were recently surprised with a 40th wedding anniversary party at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mueller of Deerfield.

It was to be a dinner party at Frank Unkle's restaurant in Toledo, Ohio with cocktails at their son's home—or at least that's what they told mom and dad. Since this was a custom for a number of years, no suspicions were aroused.

When the honored guests arrived at the Deerfield home, they were greeted by 40 friends and relatives. The honored couple was presented a corsage and boutonniere. Two walls of the dining room were decorated with family pictures, snapshots and the Mueller's wedding pictures, taken in secret from their parents' home.

A buffet dinner was served from a table featuring an autumn centerpiece and anniversary cake.

After dinner, Tom Koman entertained with selections on the accordian and a sing-a-long.

Mr. Mueller is employed at Duff Truck Lines.

The couple has nine children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Karolyn) Haarala of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mueller of Deerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mueller of Toledo, Ohio, David Mueller of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Paula) Hawkins of Tecumseh, Mary Sue Shelters of Adrian, Jana Lynne Mueller of Holloway, and Randall and Elizabeth, both at home. The Muellers have 14 grandchildren.

Relatives attended from Hanover, Plymouth, Toledo, Ohio, Ann Arbor, Adrian, Blissfield, Deerfield, Britton and Tecumseh.

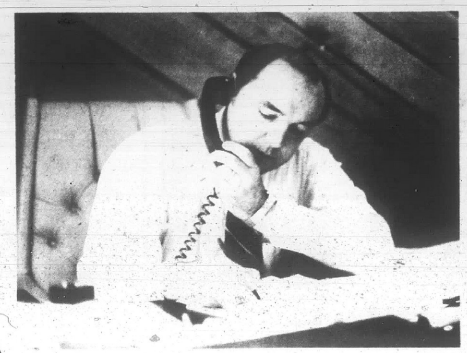
We Don't Need Politicians Any More!



UNDERWOOD
For State Representative

October 24, 1978

To my hometown friends:

A lot of people have asked me why I am running for State Representative. A typical comment is "John, I've known you all my life. I never knew you were a politician." Well, frankly I am no politician. I like people, not politics. And I think that politicians ought to be doing a lot more for people and a lot less for themselves. I am not a strong party man, like many of you, I pride myself in voting for the candidates who will do a good job regardless of Party affiliation. I am a businessman, a family man, a loyal "independent".

I've lived in the Britton-Clinton-Tecumseh area all my life. I respect people in this area for being proud, loyal, thoughtful, concerned and well-informed. As a taxpayer, like most of you, I am fed-up with high property taxes, dangerous roads, the heavy burdens of welfare and the countless million-dollar schemes to save Detroit that the taxpayers of Lenawee County must finance.

We need a State Representative who can say "No!" to the big city politicians. We badly need more tax dollars brought back into Lenawee County. We need to send Lansing a message, loud and clear, that Lenawee County is not in the State of Ohio. I'd like to be your State Representative. I'd like to carry that message for you.

I hope to win this election through a lot of hard work. It won't be easy. But I'm running against a professional Party politician from Adrian. I'm pressing on with my campaign across this county, meeting people, listening to you, and speaking out as a "small-town businessman". If I am fortunate enough to be elected, I pledge to speak out loudly, strongly and effectively for you in the State Legislature.

Sincerely,
John W. Underwood

PATRICIA J. JOHNSTON
County Clerk

We are urging everyone to make themselves aware of the ELEVEN (11) Proposals before they go to the polls. There will be placards posted in all precincts that they can read before they go in that will make it easier for them to understand.

In an effort to help, we have prepared a small card with the Proposal Letter and brief explanation of each one that we hope they will clip and take to the polls with them, marked as they would like to vote. It is permissable to take such items into the voting machine with you.

There is a statute that says "—no voter shall have the right to remain within the voting machine booth longer than 2 minutes and if he shall refuse to leave it after the lapse of 2 minutes, he shall be removed by the inspectors—".

The County Clerk and the election inspectors do not wish to harass any voter. We want everyone to have an equal opportunity, therefore we urge that you study the proposal and take the clip out sheet with you election day.

A GOOD HABIT IN VOTING: VOTE THE PROPOSALS FIRST, JUDICIAL CANDIDATES SECOND AND PARTY CANDIDATES LAST, with this sequence of events, you will NEVER miss any part of this complicated ballot.

Readers Write to Editor

To the Editor:

A few years ago, I voted for the men and women on our present school board whom I felt would best represent the interest and welfare of our student body. Perhaps the monopolization of individuals from a private industry as board members is deterring these men and women from speaking their minds, as I am certain many of our board members can't agree with the tactics being employed by the school's negotiating board.

At a recent school board meeting, Mr. Richard Heglin was attempting to make a point concerning class room size by citing studies made showing how much it would cost to hire additional teachers if the classroom size were limited to 15 to 34 students, and putting an emphasis on the smallest classroom size.

Most of us are aware, or should be, that the teachers are asking for a reduction from present 30 to 27 students over a three year period. If the rest of the board members are thinking along Mr. Heglin's line — it's no wonder negotiations are at a stand still!

It would seem to me any teacher who has been in this school system for a number of years is more of an authority as to the most effective and advantageous class size for the students than a board member quoting from a "study."

The differences remaining between the board and teachers are not so large that they cannot be resolved. It is time that the board stop playing politics and return to the negotiating table. The future of our children's education is at stake.

Voice YOUR opinion for THEIR sakes.

A Concerned Parent

To the Editor:

We have the dubious pleasure of living across the street from the high school and a block from the junior high school. Our lawn is usually littered with paper, cans, broken bottles and young people. Frankly this sometimes causes us to wonder about the future of our young people. Fortunately, we were recently privileged to have the senior class float assembled in our garage.

Yes, we said fortunately. These young people were a pleasure to have working at our home. They not only assembled their float, they were neat, polite, and respectful of our privacy and that of our neighbors.

They instilled in us the awe and hope that only the young can create with their enthusiasm and zest for life. In addition, this past weekend, we were surprised with a lovely thank you plant.

Somehow a simple thank you to the class did not seem quite enough. We hope that our letter will remind the community of the marvelous young people in Tecumseh who are responsible and responsive to their community and to the leadership of teachers such as Mr. Schmidt.

Sincerely,
Raymond and Nancy Nichols

To the Editor:

Once again this year, children in our community will be collecting for the United Nation's Children's Fund. UNICEF donations go a long way toward providing better health, nutrition and education for the poorest children of the world.

All children in the area are asked to come to St. Peter's Episcopal Church after 5 p.m. Oct. 30. The T.B.C. "CB'ers" club will provide extra drivers.

We can help...by being generous when the young people in our community Trick or Treat for UNICEF.

Grace Lutheran Lays Corner for Addition

Members of the Grace Lutheran Church at Maumee and Shawnee Sts. will join with Pastor Kenneth Strack Sunday at 10:30 a.m. to lay the corner stone of the new building addition.

Sealed into a box behind the memorial stone will be materials expressing the principles and history of the congregation.

The building addition will give the congregation a much larger entry, highlighted by stained glass windows of Christian symbols, a ramp for the handicapped, a carport, new study and nursery room.

Pledges Ride Express

More than 400 members of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church will become saddlebag-carrying "trail bosses" and "route riders" within the next few weeks in their church's Pony Express stewardship campaign.

The Rev. Allan Gray, pastor, said the campaign this year is based on the same concept as the Pony Express of more than a century ago—teamwork.

Gene Cooley, general manager of the campaign.

Each saddlebag bears the names of 10 church families on the run route, he said. A family fills in an "estimate of giving" cards, seals it in an envelope and inserts it in the saddlebag, which then is handcarried to another family on the route.

The Rev. Allan Gray explained that each member is asked simply to estimate the amount he or she will be able to give to the church during the coming year.

Asks Voters: Be Prepared

Due to the lengthy ballot, county clerk Patricia Johnston has asked that voters be well prepared to cast their ballots come Nov. 7.

She anticipated that some polls could close as late as 9 or 10 p.m. that day. Voters who familiarize themselves with the ballot and make up their minds before entering the booth will help speed the balloting.

(Tecumseh Public Library has sample ballots, newspaper clippings and other voting literature available for election '78.)

There is a two-minute time limit per voter. Johnston said that local officials have been taught to use their discretion in cases. Officials have been instructed to ask if voters need assistance, but will not harass anyone, Johnston said.

Johnston also recommended that voters vote on the proposals first. There are 11 to be considered at the state level alone.

Voting early will also be important in the Nov. 7 election.

Johnston suggested that the middle of the day, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., is the best time to vote to avoid the early morning and late evening rush of workers.

THS Runs Away with Huron Title

Tecumseh's boys ran away with the Huron League cross country title Tuesday after they posted a 5-1 league record and swamped their closest competitior, Airport, in the league meet.

Tuesday, at the Willow Metro Park, the Indians runners were certainly geared to win the Huron title, capturing 33 points. Behind was Airport with 59 and Monroe CC with 81. That's how the first three team finished in the league.

Tecumseh, in fact, had seven men in front of second place Airport's fourth runner. And that's on a very tough course where the average runner can add about half a minute to his usual three mile time.

Brian Banda was the third place finisher for the Indians at 16:11. Scott Betzoldt was fourth at 16:24 and Jesse Castorena was fifth at 16:25. D.J. Biscupski turned in a time of 16:45 for ninth and Ben Binder was 12th at 17 minutes flat. Wendell West was 15th and Fred German was 19th.

The boys raced in a 49 man field and all Tecumseh runners finished in better than the top half. Ken Jave of Flat Rock won the race on an individual basis with an outstanding 15:41 time.

Banda, Betzoldt, and Castorena were all chosen to the all-league first team. Biscupski and Binder were chosen to the second team. West just missed second team honors.

Lenny Castorena easily ran by all runners for the top seat in the JV race.

The Indians also ran against Monroe Jefferson Thursday. That 15-45 win ended their regular dual meet season.

Tecumseh breezed by the Monroe team with its first seven runners crossing the finish line within 18 seconds of each other.

Jesse Castorena was first in at 17:06. Taking the next six spots were: Betzoldt, West, Biscupski, German, Binder and Lenny Castorena.

Record at 10-1

Last week Clinton's girls basketball team easily defeated Blissfield 52-27 and edged Ida 57-54 to raise their overall record to 10-1.

Against LCAA League foe Blissfield, the Royals scored the first four points of the game but the Redskins came back to score 24 points in a row and led 24 to six at halftime.

Coach Bob King substituted freely throughout the game as all nine varsity players saw plenty of action.

Clinton outscored Blissfield in every quarter as they coasted to a 52-27 victory. In the LCAA the girls are second with a 4-1 record.

Renee Peterson, a sophomore, played her finest game of her career scoring 10 points. Sue Richter led the Redskins in scoring with 20 points while junior Barb Winder played well, scoring eight and leading the team in rebounding with 13.

The second rematch of last year's regional final teams saw Clinton edge Ida in a very thrilling game 57 to 54.

Both teams traded baskets during the first period with Ida leading 11 to 10. Ida started pulling away and led by seven at halftime 25-18.

The break between halves worked wonders for the Redskins as they exploded in the third quarter, outscoring the Bluestreaks 26 to nine to take a 10 point lead 44 to 34. Richter led the comeback with 12 points during the third quarter.

Ida refused to quit and kept coming back before time ran out on them and Clinton had their 10th victory of the year 57-54.

During the second half, the girls took 22 shots and made 17 for an amazing 77%. For the game they made 49% of their field goals (27 out of 55).

Clinton's two forwards paced the Redskins as Richter scored 18 points and had seven assists. Winder had the finest game of her career, scoring 18 points and hauling down 16 rebounds. Senior center Lisa Cark contributed 13 points and nine rebounds.

2 Victories

The Tecumseh girls' basketball squad pulled down two victories this week. They beat Gibralter Carlson Thursday and Monroe Jefferson Tuesday to put their season league record at 3-2.

Thursday, Kris McDonald led the Indians to a 63-36 trouncing of Carlson. McDonald scored 22 points. Donna Bohannon followed with 12 points.

Tecumseh led 20-9 at the end of the first frame and cruised to the victory without Carlson threatening. THS made 23 of 52 shots for 44 percent

CHS Struggles to 6-6 Tie

Statistically, Clinton outplayed Grass Lake Friday night, but struggled to a 6-6 standoff against their non-league foe with just 1:41 left in the game.

Clinton went without the services of their leading offensive rusher, Casey Thilo, who was injured in the third play of the game and did not return.

Grass Lake scored on their last play of the third frame on a six yard run. A fourth down screen pass was the key to their march. That pass took them to the Clinton eight yard line.

Clinton's score came with Mike Karapas darting the last three yards to cap a 56 yard drive. Jeff Porterfield made one exceptional run for 29 yards to hurry the march for the Redskins.

Neither team could convert their extra points.

Grass Lake attempted a last minute score when they intercepted a Redskin pass and returned it to the Clinton eight in the final minute. Karapas then intercepted a Warrior pass to stop the score.

Porterfield lead the Redskin's offensively, with 68 yards in nine carries. Karapas was right behind with 55 yards in 15 carries.

Clinton had 11 first downs to Grass Lake's six. Redskins had 199 yards rushing and 35 passing. The Warriors tallied 47 yards rushing and 51 in the air.

Britton Girls Win, 54-36

Britton-Macon's girls basketball team put on a good second half performance Thursday against Summerfield to leave the floor with a 54-36 win.

Britton's Jodi Smith led all scorers with 29 points. She went 15 for 19 from the foul line and sparked her team to the victory with a fine fourth quarter effort.

Summerfield led 22-20 at half, but the Tri-County foe could not stand up to Britton's late game surge.

Britton connected on 18 of 46 shots from the floor for 39 percent, but the team was out rebounded by Summerfield 43-34. Janene Schultz led the Tories with nine of their rebounds.

3 Way Tie for 1st

Clinton cross country team ended its dual meet season Thursday by crushing Manchester 23-35 at the Clinton course. The win gives the Redskin runners a final record of 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the LCAA.

Clinton will enter next week's league meet in a three way tie for first place along with Hudson and Onsted.

Clinton's one loss in a season is a team record breaking the previous low of two losses set by the 1976 team and duplicated again in 1977. This was also Clinton's ninth consecutive home meet victory.

In the Manchester meet, senior Matt Peters emerged the victor with a winning time of 15:47 over the windy three mile Rolling Meadows course. Junior Tom Nighswander was third (16:20), senior Mark Prichard was fifth (16:44).

Sophomore Matt McNeil was sixth (16:50), senior Devin Schindler was eighth (17:01), freshman Wes Fuller wsa ninth (17:10), freshman Ken Caligiuri was 11th (17:17) and junior Gary Houghton was 20th (18:59).

The 1:14 gap between the top five Clinton runners was one of their best of the season and was a key to the victory.

The LCAA meet will decide the league championship and will be held at Wolf Lake next Wednesday at 5 p.m. For directions see Mr. Hashley. The Redskins need support as they drive for their first LCAA title ever.

5th Straight Title for Indian Golfers

(PHOTOS BY KENT DOWNING)

Smith Posts Low 77 at Huron Meet

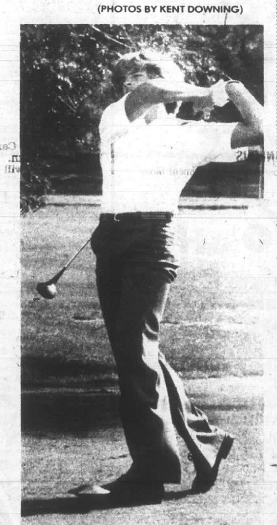
The Indians entered Wednesday's Huron League meet with an unblemished 6-0 league record and only Monroe CC could have touched the local favorites.

The Indians came through, however, and edged the Monroe team by five strokes to finish in sole possession of first place in the league. The title is the fifth straight for the Indians and is unprecedented in Huron League golf history.

The Indians shot 319 golf while Monroe followed with 324. Grosse Ile hit 330 and the other league teams posted scores in excess of 345.

Ron Smith was low for the Indians with a 77 and joined teammate Kevin Koszka with first team, all-league honors. Koszka turned in a 78 for the Indians with three birdies. Smith had two birdies and was medalist in the tournament.

John Faulkner and Greg Scheuerman both had 82's. Scott McDonald hit 85. All three were chosen to the all-league second team. Mike Zettle just missed second team honors



RON SMITH TEES OFF

THS Squeaks by Gibraltar

The passing arm of young Indian quarterback Tim Todd and an outstanding defensive play by John Lacny and Andy Geshwiler gave the Indians their second league win of the season Friday night.

Todd threw for two touchdowns against Gibraltar Carlson while teammate Kevin Salters added a third on a half back option pass to give the Indians a 20-19 overtime victory.

The "play of the game," however, came after Tecumseh scored a touchdown and point after, after a 13-13 fourth quarter tie put the two teams into overtime.

Gibraltar followed in the Indians path and scored in the overtime, but elected to go for the two point conversion for the win. Lacny and Geshwiler stopped the two point run a yard short for the victory.

Things started out on the dark side for the team, however. Carlson scored on their first possession. Then Tecumseh fumbled and lost the ball on their 35. Carlson scored to put the game at 13-0 in the first frame.

Sophomore quarterback Todd then came out throwing in the second half and hit Scott Hans on a 70 yard bomb for the Indian's first score.

The Indians scored again in the third frame after Tom Chatters recovered a Carlson fumble on the 14 yard line. Salters threw the TD pass on an option and Randy Boltz's point after was good to put the score at 13-13.

In the overtime situation, Tecumseh received the ball first, but were called for an offside penalty and found they had a first and 15 yard goal situation. Todd hit Greg Borton on the first play for the score and Boltz's all important kick was good for the Indian's score and victory.

The Indians managed just five yards rushing to Carlson's 129 and picked up eight first downs to the hosting team's 17. Passing, Tecumseh was six of 16 for 186 yards while Carlson was 12 of 27 for 122 yards.

Defensively, Jon Betzoldt led the Indians with 12 tackles while teammate Borton was right behind with 11.

Come from Behind

The Tecumseh JV football team extended its record to 4-2-1 with a come from behind victory over Gibralter Carlson last Thursday.

With eight minutes remaining in the game, Carlson led 20-8.

Tecumseh then rallied and came up with three touchdowns and two point after runs to end the game with the score, Tecumseh 30, Carlson 20.

Leading the Indians to the victory, Derek Nahabedian scored three touchdowns, one from the five yard line, two yard line, and a fumble recovery in the end zone. Todd Danforth tallied the other touchdown on a four yard run.

B-M JV's Win

The Britton-Macon J.V. football team defeated Summerfield Saturday night 24-6.

The Tories rushing attack was lead by John Montalvo with 103 yards n 18 carries.

Girls Finish 3rd

The Tecumseh girl's cross country team finished their season Tuesday at the Huron League meet. The girls capped a successful running season by finishing third against all league teams in this final competition of the year.

The finish also lands the team firmly into third place overall in the league standings.

Ann Smoke was the first among her teammates to cross the line with a time of 20:19 and fifth place. Lesley Oliver was 13th, Janelle Mumme 17th, Pam Meeks 20th and Lillian Eby 25th.

Airport ran away with first place honors at the meet.

Last week in a Huron League dual meet the Tecumseh girls routed Monroe Jefferson 22-35. Once again Smoke finished first with a time of 20:40.

Lesley Oliver was hard on her heels finishing second followed by Pam Meeks at fourth, Monica Mumme at seventh, and Julie Burkhard eighth.

Footballers Blanked

The Britton-Macon Tories were defeated by Summerfield Friday night 20-0.

The Bulldog's first score came in the first quarter on a 47 yard pass play. The extra point made the score 7-0.

In the second quarter, Britton marched to the Bulldog 18 yard line where they were stopped on downs. The Spalding, LaRocca combination for the Bulldogs connected again this time on a 61 yard touchdown pass. Stahl again kicked the extra point to make the halftime score 14-0.

Summerfield's last touchdown came in the third quarter on a 24-yard dash capping an eight play, 61 yard drive. Summerfield missed the extra point to make the final score 20-0.

Summerfield had 320 yards total offense with 192 on the ground and 128 yards passing.

Britton had 114 yards total offense, all rushing. Jeff Osterhout was the leading Tory rusher with 77 yards in 24 carries. Defensively for Britton, David Bruce, Dennis Kimerer and Mitch Dulinski all had nine tackles.

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Last week I started describing the woodpeckers which are indigenous to this area. There are six but I only finished five. Downy and hairy woodpeckers, red-headed woodpeckers, red-bellied woodpeckers and yellow-bellied sapsuckers. The sixth member of the clan is the flickers. There is a slight controversy about the name.

A few years ago the board which regulates such things decided that the yellow-shafted flickers and the red-shafted flickers are essentially the same birds but different color phases. (Much like the red and gray phase of the screech owls.)

Originally the yellow-shafteds were eastern birds and the red-shafteds western but there now seems to be a gradual eastward movement of the westerns and some intermingling.

Thus we should, they tell us, call both birds flickers. Old habits die hard though and it is difficult to remember not to say yellow-shafted flickers.

Difficult because, around here at least, we see only the yellow-shafteds. A whopping 13 inches long, these are our largest woodpeckers and the ones who behave most unwoodpeckerish.

In the summer these are the large brown birds who patrol the yards slurping up ants. In the winter, when visiting the near-my-window feeders, they are interested one, in the scratch feed and two, the suet.

The flickers' bill is all [illegible] large and [illegible] looking. All over brown birds, they are darker on top than underneath. Bright red V's mark the back of the heads and black crescents slash across the base of their throats.

When flying, a large white rump patch shows as does the vivid yellow lining of their tails and wings for which they are named.

Up close views show lovely intricate details — large dark freckles on their light tan fronts, dark spots arranged in horizontal stripes on their backs, and a slate blue cast to the top of their heads and necks. Males have black mustaches but the ladies are clean shaven.

After a quick look in the Birds of America I can only hope that the red-shafted flickers are indeed working this way. They are pretty birds, perhaps not as handsome as ours, but well worth seeing.

Living up to the name they have wing and tail linings which are red or rich salmon depending how one sees color. They have gray faces with red mustaches and brown heads. No red V's on the back of their heads.

Birds of North America by Robbins, Brunn, and Zim is quite a book. An amazing amount of information is condensed into a surprisingly small space. Well colored pictures, brief descriptions, territories, spring and fall migrating routes, songs, and sometimes even flight patterns.

According to the territorial map for the pileated woodpeckers, they could possibly be seen in this area. In actual fact, however, they are widely distributed throughout this country and Canada but nowhere are they numerous and their appearances are spotty.

We saw them in Florida, my aunt and uncle had them up north and I read an article about them in a large stand of woods near Cleveland, Ohio. Tecumseh — no.

It would be super exciting if the pileateds could find enough trees and enough solitude around here because they are fabulous woodpeckers.

Extremely large, at least 15 inches long, they have black backs, white fronts, both black and white on their heads but, by far the most distinguishing characteristic, is the flaming red crest on the top of their heads. Gorgeous!

The same book also shows two other woodpeckers who just might, under very rare and unusual circumstances, make a winter's appearance in our locality.

The northern three-toed woodpecker and the black-backed three-toed woodpecker. What names, they are almost longer than the birds themselves.

The former being about 8½ inches and the latter eight inches. Both have yellow on top of their heads and are predominently black and white birds.

The northerns have black and white ladder backs whereas the black-backeds have solid black backs. Unfortunately we need not worry too much for it is practically a sure thing that neither will visit our feeders or trees.

Band Strives To Surpass 40 Points

Tecumseh High School's Shawnee Marchers wound up the 1978 fall competition circuit last weekend with an all day competition in Bridgeport.

The band almost broke 40 points. Its highest score of three other competitions was 38, which gained the band a second place in flight A at Caro, Oct. 7.

Competition started Sept. 30 when Tecumseh went to Clarkston. It finished with 37 points to take fourth place, missing third place by only one point. Tecumseh competed with six other bands in flight A, such as Flint Southwestern and Durand.

Oct. 3, the Shawnee Marchers received a standing ovation from the Adrian audience at the Lenawee County Band Directors Festival, a non-competition event.

The Marchers returned home 4 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 8 from Caro's competition the day before. The group assembled at noon that same Sunday for the Clinton Fall Festival parade and was well received.

Oct. 14 Tecumseh placed eighth against 10 bands in flight A competition at Reed City. Score earned was 34. That competition was an overnight trip.

Of all the open flight and flight A groups, Tecumseh's percussion placed fifth and flag corps placed seventh.

"A lot should be said for these kids," said band director Jimmie Rice. "They average two practices a week of 2 1/2 hours. Parents should be given credits, too, for making sure they get there. That's really appreciated.

"The group is growing. We've gotten a lot of compliments, even though our scores are not high. Judges have commented they continue to see progress. We are encouraged to continue," Rice commented.

Nov. 6 will be the first concert date for the three Tecumseh bands. The varsity band, the concert band and a new band debuts, the freshman band. About 150 students are involved in the three.

Assurances for Treaters at Halloween

The Clinton Post of the Michigan State Police offer the following suggestions to help insure the safety of children during Halloween.

1. Instruct children not to eat any treats until they have been inspected at home.
2. Inspect all candy and treats your children receive while trick or treating. Closely examine any treats that are not commercially wrapped, such as fruits, cookies and homemade candy.
3. Be suspicious of any candy with torn or small holes in wrappers.
4. Disuss with children the areas they will visit while trick or treating. Confine trick or treating activities to the homes of neighbors and friends.
5. Younger children should always be accompanied by an adult or teenager while trick or treating, as an overall good safety practice.

If you find any foreign or harmful objects or substances in a child's candy or treats, do not discard it; contact the police immediately.

Robbie Prefers Flying

HE'S UP IN THE AIR — Robbie Gaecke, 10, of Tecumseh, youngest student pilot at Calhoun School of Aviation, is head over heels about flying, but is too young for a license.

While some 10-year-old boys busy themselves building model airplanes, 10-year-old Robert "Robbie" Gaecke Jr.. "If Robbie had been 16, I would have had him solo (Oct. 5)," said his flight instructor Les Calhoun.

But Robbie will have to wait six more years for his solo and another to receive his license.

Robbie started his aerial adventures about two years ago. Robbie sat beside his dad all the way through his dad's ground school training.

Eventually Robert Sr. decided Robbie was right for flying lessons. So Robbie began learning pinch-flying with Calhoun's School of Aviation, Rogers Hwy.

He has learned take offs, landings, turns and cross country.

Calhoun said he had "no hesitation" taking Robbie as a student, the first serious student he has had at so young an age.

"He helps me a lot," said Robbie's pilot father.

"He's observant, alert and mature," said Mrs. Gaecke about her pilot son.

What does Robbie have to say for himself? Not much actually, except for an embarassed giggle. When he's not being baraged with questions, Robbie is keenly interested in the conversation of adult pilots.

He's interested in airplane mechanics and reads publications from the Experimental Aircraft Association to which Robert Sr. belongs.

"Everything he's done up there, he's used, like reading and math in determining air speed and fuel consumption. And he can see a use for (these subjects)," commented Mr. Gaecke.

Robbie's time with instructor Calhoun will apply toward his 20 hours minimum instruction, required for a pilot's license. Time Robbie has logged co-piloting with his dad, however, does not.

As any 10-year-old, Robbie has a room full of airplane models, including a radio controlled plane and one with an eight foot wing span.

But given the choice of being earthbound or airborne, Robbie unmistakeably prefers the latter. He sports a T-shirt that says, "I'd rather be flying N 44266," the license of the family plane.

Gloria Dei Celebrates Lutheran Reformation

The 461-old Lutheran Reformation will be celebrated during the 10:30 a.m. worship service next Sunday in the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

Participants are the Chancel Choir with the new anthem "Lift High The Cross", directed by Mrs. John Ferguson. Mrs. Richard Heglin will read the lessons.

The sermon will deal with the theme "The Reformation of the present and the future." Guests are welcome.

Scouts Attend Fall Camporee

Fifteen scouts from Boy Scout Troop 272 participated in District Fall Camporee at Camp Kansatacke near Cambridge Junction, Oct. 6-10.

Scouts attending were Jim Slick, Mike Glenn, Chris Stubbs, Joe Caldwell, James Caldwell, Fred Clark, Rick Smoke, John Birdwell, Jim Pully, Grant Bauman, Steve Covell, Tim Deming, David Compton, Assistant Scoutmaster Sam Compton and Scoutmaster John Deming.

The scouts rowed, canoed, participated in archery and rifle shooting, camped and cooked. The event is one of the most popular held this year.

Saturday afternoon a representative from the University of Michigan engineering department brought a specially equipped van containing space age exhibits. A LEM simulator was the main attraction. The scouts were allowed to operate it to try their skill in landing a lunar module.

Scouts and Webelos were featured at the special camp fire program Saturday night.

PTO Discusses Young Readers

How parents can help children become enthusiastic readers is the theme of the Nov. 1 Patterson school PTO meeting.

The program, to be presented by Debby Harris, head librarian, will begin at 1 p.m. at the public library.

A tour of the children's library will be given, a movie will be shown and preschool children will participate in the story hour.

Patterson's PTO officers for the 1978-79 school year include Mrs. Brian Schick, president; Mrs. James Palmer, vice-president; Mrs. John Hackstedde, secretary; Mrs. James Tindall, treasurer; Mrs. James Gill, publicity; Mrs. Leo Jubenville, teacher's aide representative.

All PTO evening programs are family oriented, such as the Oct. 24 Pumpkin Party when families gathered in the school gymnasium to carve or decorate pumpkins. Ribbons were awarded.

Business meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month. During the first business meeting, PTO objectives were approved by a vote.

The objectives are:

1. To enrich the educational facilities for students and teachers at Patterson School. 2. To promote an open atmosphere between teachers, parents and students by providing family-oriented programs and activities. 3. To provide individual assistance through the teacher's aide program. 4. To provide an opportunity for all families at Patterson School to become better acquainted with each other.

Articles Help Fire Victims

The good and bad contributions this generation is passing to the next were discussed at the October meeting of Xi Delta Gamma chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the home of Mrs. Rex Armstrong.

Mrs. Charles Cook gave the program "Heritage of the Future."

Another workshop was Oct. 24 at the Armstrong home. A Christmas craft sale will be held at a later date.

Due to a fire at the home of one of the sorority sisters, the group will donate food, clothing or household articles.

Pledge ritual was given to Mrs. Michael Osborne.

The exemplar ritual was confired on Mrs. Roger Butler, Mrs. Charles Cook and Mrs. Jack Scheirer.

November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Patrick Alexander. Exemplar day will be observed.

Reserve your skill training for the future.

With the Army's Delayed Entry Program, you can come down now and pick the training you want. And if you qualify, we'll hold it for you - for up to 12 months, depending on the program you choose.

Then you can relax and enjoy yourself without worrying about what you'll be doing next year.

When you do come in the Army, you'll also have starting pay of $419 a month before deductions waiting for you.

Plus meals, housing, medical and dental care, and 30 days paid vacation a year. And if you'd like to start a college program on your own time in the Army, we'll pay up to 75% of your tuition for approved courses.

10 Tecumseh Residents Running on Next Tuesday's Election Ballot

Although state officials are predicting a medium size vote next Tuesday, a heavy turnout at the polls is expected in Tecumseh.

Besides state offices and issues on the big ballot, county and local races involve 10 Tecumseh residents.

Six candidates for four Council seats are in the race, including four incumbents. Mary Bowers, Dr. Carlton Cook, James Palmer and Jay Tressler are seeking re-election.

John Kish and Roy Hella are opposing the four incumbents.

For County Commissioner, District 6, the race involves Nancy Nichols, Democrat incumbent, and Janis Baker, Republican. In District 5, northwest section of the city, Stanley Gibbard is unopposed for County Commissioner.

John Underwood, Tecumseh Democrat amd Clinton businessman, is opposing Jim Hadden, Adrian, Republican, for State Representative, 40th District.

In the race for State Senate, Jim Daly, Tecumseh Democrat and attorney, faces Jack Mowat, Adrian Republican and currently the district's State Representative. This race involves Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson Counties.

Residents in the Tecumseh Township and Clinton Township are in State Senate 18th District and will vote on Senate candidates, Republican C. William Colburn, Democrat Edward Pierce.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m., and the voting is expected to be slow. There are 11 propositions on the ballot, including two high publicized controversial tax issues, the Headlee and Tisch proposals.

Other proposals that have been frequent topics of conversation include raising the drinking age to 21, denying bail under certain circumstances involving violent crime, granting of parole to a prisoner convicted of certain crimes, collective bargaining for state police troopers, voucher system for financing education, and permitting the deposit of state funds in Savings and loan associations and credit unions.

Deadline for absentee ballots to be voted outside clerk's office is Saturday, 2 p.m., and Monday, 2 p.m., for voting in person at the clerk's office.

Drive Needs More Support

The Tecumseh Community Fund thermometer is reading 35 percent of the total drive goal, reported Roger Proctor, assistant drive chairman. Total amount collected to date is $22,087. Only two weeks remain in the drive for $89,900.

Of the seven divisions, the professional division is still lagging with only 18.5 percent of its goal reached, or a total of $425. Division goal is $2,300.

This past week, the residential division outdistanced the others with 57 percent of its goal reached or $1,213 to date.

Only two weeks remain in this year's five week drive. Last year's drive went six weeks. Drive officials urge additional effort.

Because of the generous collection last year, some people may think that the goal is lower this year. This is not so.

This year's goal is $89,000, up $5,400 from last year's goal of $84,500. However the actual amount collected during the 1977-78 drive was $96,293 and exceeded the goal by $6,393.

Following is a third week report from each division:

	This Week	Total	%

Adrian Favored

Tecumseh and Adrian renew their football rivalry Friday night at Adrian with the Maples a heavy favorite to win.

Both teams sport 3-5 records, and the Indians' mark is one of the poorest here in many years. The 1978 season was one of rebuilding for coach Pat Connors, who is accustomed to winning.

Local folks have been extended an invitation to the annual Adrian chili - hot dog supper, sponsored by the Maples' band and orchestra boosters.

The supper will be held from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Michener elementary school, which is adjacent to Maples Stadium. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

BIDWELL EXCHANGE OPENS — Bidwell owner Don Limpert of Manchester at left proudly displays commendation from the Tecumseh Area Historical Society for restoration of the 126 year old building. Mayor Aden Mead cuts the ribbon at Oct. 29 open house. Approximately 300 people toured the six small businesses. Gladys Robideau originally presented the three story building at W. Chicago and S. Evans as a gift to the city in 1977. She hoped it could be recycled. City sold it to preservationist Limpert for commercial development. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Brothers Are Able To Visit

Tommy Lee Brown of Tecumseh and his brother, Bobby Baker of Westland, had a joyful reunion Tuesday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

It was the first time the two men were able to talk with each other since their nightmare ordeal Oct. 19, in which the two received multiple gunshot wounds.

The incident occurred in the early morning hours at the family business in Ypsilanti Township, the Stiles-Wood Corporation.

It was an episode in a 24 hour shooting spree in which five people were killed and three injured.

Billy Hardesty of Van Buren Township in Wayne County was arraigned last week on five counts of murder and two counts of assault with intent to commit murder in connection with the incident.

A sister-in-law, Cindy Loomis of Britton stated that the two brothers, Brown and Baker, are both in better spirits.

Brown is progressing to fair condition and is expected to be taken out of intensive care. He may have additional surgery later this week or early next week. He had four gunshot wounds and it appears he may be paralyzed from the waist down.

The Rev. Dane Ruff, family pastor remarked it was "a miracle" Brown is alive. He had a severed artery in his right arm, struggled to lift himself to lean against machinery and was conscious when help was finally available six hours later.

Baker, reported in improved condition is still in traction. He has a broken left arm and leg and will be in a body cast for several months.

What If 'J' Passes

What would the Tecumseh city council candidates propose to do to get extra operating funds if the Tisch amendment (Proposal J) passes in the upcoming general election.

That was the question of major concern of the audience at the Tuesday Meet the Candidates Forum. It was jointly sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary, Kiwanis and Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce at St. Peter's Church.

"I am really frightened. I think it can hurt the community. I'm not sure what we would do at this point. I think a lot of small communties will be hurt," commented Mary Bowers.

"The only thing that I can see immediatsly is that we would be back paying for our own garbage disposal, instead of federal revenue sharing funds. We would be cutting back in services pretty much across the board," said Carlton Cook.

Cook said that he is "Categorically not in favor of a city income tax."

Jay Tressler said "I think its obviously a matter of priorities. You have to try to determine where you can cut expenses when revenue runs out. If it means elimination of a few city jobs, that is fine, not for those laid off, but for citizens who cannot pay higher taxes.

Besides the three incumbents, Bowers, Cook and Tressler, new candidate Roy Hella attended the meeting. They presented their qualifications.

Incumbent James H. Palmer could not attend but sent a tape recording of his remarks prepared for the Herald. New candidate John Kish could not attend the meeting.

Planting Trees

The "surveyors stakes" you may have noticed along Chicago Blvd. in the residential district from Pearl to Sunset Streets are for tree planting and not highway expansion.

Members of the Tecumseh Little Garden Club pounded the stakes in front of property owners home to denote those willing to care for new trees. The Michigan Highway Department agreed to provide the trees to replace those removed on the state highway right-of-way. Approximately 25 will be planted, either this fall or in the spring.

The city of Tecumseh agreed to plant the trees if the residents will care for them for the first two years by watering each week the ground is not frozen, fertilizing three times during growing season, mulching and doctoring.

Trees selected by the State were linden and a variety of locust. They were selected because they are pollution free (do not drop seeds), are disease resistant and have shallow roots that will not disturb underground lines.

Raisin Firemen Plan 'Party'

A benefit for the Raisin Township Fire Department will be held Saturday, Nov. 11th, at the department's fire hall on Occidental Rd.

The "feather party" will start at 7 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any Raisin fireman.

Three Win

Three Tecumseh area women were treated Halloween as top prize winners of the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce drawing.

Andrea Tarr of Tecumseh won the trip for two to Hawaii. Ann Cox of Adrian won the microwave oven and Joyce Hopson of Tecumseh won the canoe.

School Bands Play Nov. 6th

Three Tecumseh bands will be featured in a Pops Concert Nov. 6, 8 p.m. at the high school gym. Jimmie Rice will direct.

Donations will be accepted at the door.

LESTER D. PROCTOR

Initial shock of widowhood

One enters widowhood with a crunching initial shock. It doesn't matter whether your husband or wife died after a prolonged illness or whether it was a sudden death. The resulting widowhood is a deep-seated impact which may last for days, weeks, even months.

During this period of initial shock, the widow or widower must be ACTIVE. By occupying his or her time with the important details of "getting things together" for everyday living, he (or she) is forced thankfully into activity.

Helpful relatives and friends play an important role at this juncture. So, too, do members of the three major helping professions -- doctors, clergy and funeral directors. (There are others, but these are the chief ones.) A survey of several hundred widowed persons found that of the three, the funeral director was considered to be one of the most immediate assistance, we're proud of this find.

With our professional responsibilities and experience, we as funeral directors can be of immediate help. We assist in processing the various legal papers such as Social security and VA. We have literally hundreds of small details to cover through the time spent with the family. And we try to help as best we can with the widow or widower in their emotional adjustments. We don't pretend to be psychologists, but we're so deeply involved over the years that we can sometimes be helpful in grief-counselling. One of our chief goals is to bring peace and comfort to the living in their hours of need.

Daly Resume

CANDIDATE
STATE SENATE
19th DISTRICT
James W. Daly

James W. Daly, Democratic candidate for the 19th District State Senate seat is a Tecumseh attorney in the firm of Crudder and Daly.

He has lived in the area about 10 years, was graduated from Eastern Michigan University with a political science degree and the University of Detroit with a law degree.

He worked six years at the Center for Forensic Psychiatry in Ann Arbor, is a former member of the board of directors, Alcoholic Information Referral Center at Bixby Hospital, a member of the Lenawee, Michigan and American Bar Associations, the vestry of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tecumseh Country Club, Kiwanis, Devil's Lake Yacht Club, Tecumseh Eagles, Adrian Elks and is on the board of the Community Action Center.

Daly cites his deep community involvement, legal background and experience in mental health field as major assets to the campaign.

Daly is deeply concerned about the Milliken and administration's record especially in the areas of health services, tax relief and industrial relations.

One Extra Proposal in Raisin

Raisin Township voters will have one more proposal to vote than most county residents Nov. 7. They will decide whether to make Raisin a Charter Township.

They also will decide whether the protection the Charter status gives them against being gobbled up by Tecumseh or Adrian is worth the risk of a future township board voting more tax money.

Townships have been authorized to form a charter type of government for 30 years, but only 19 of Michigan's 1,245 townships took the action in the first 25 years. Suddenly this summer scores of townships started the move because of a law signed in June which protects township residents from being annexed to cities without a chance to vote.

Under the old law, cities could expand by annexing any part of a township which touched the city border.

Lansing Township, which started with 36 square miles, just like Raisin Township, now contains only six square miles, because of a series of annexations.

The City of Tecumseh recently annexed 63.72 acres in Raisin Township, and is developing an industrial park and multiple-family housing on it. The Township Board had no opportunity to vote on this.

The Charter Township status will give the township board the right to vote on annexation of vacant property, and give the residents the right to vote on where they want to live.

The township board is circulating a letter in the township to tell voters about the proposal. They can't take a stand in that letter, but all five board members have publicly supported the move. Robert Moore, running unopposed for township supervisor, also supports Charter status.

"Township government is very close to the people," commented Marjorie Comfort, township treasurer, who has spearheaded the drive for Charter Township. "When you live and work within a couple of miles of every one of the voters, you are going to be responsive to what they want.

"Charter government allows the board to levy up to five mills in taxes, but it also allows the voters to throw out the tax, the officials — and the charter — at the next election.

"With that kind of control, I do not feel that the voters have to worry about their board voting tax increase just because the charter says they can."

(Editor's note: The news article was prepared by Marjorie Comfort, current township treasurer. Additional copies of the Township's letter are available at the township hall on Occidental at Gady Rds.)

Thanksgiving is three weeks away and it is not too early to start planning your holiday menu. Here are two baked vegetable suggestions that are delicious.

Gerrita Postlewait, from New Martinsville, W.Va., sent this recipe for Hawaiian Sweet Potatoes. They are excellent accompaniment to ham or turkey.

HAWAIIAN SWEET POTATOES

4 cups mashed sweet potatoes
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 can coconut
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cup milk
1 egg

Stir all ingredients together. Place in greased casserole pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Prepare topping.

TOPPING:
1 small can crushed pineapple, do not drain
1 jar maraschino cherries, chopped, do not drain
3/4 cup sugar
4 or 5 tablespoons cornstarch

Stir all ingredients together for topping in saucepan over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture starts to boil. Boil 2 minutes.

Pour over sweet potatoes and bake at 350 degrees 15 additional minutes. (Can be frozen and reheated.)

Creamed peas and potatoes are a favorite vegetable dish, especially in the South. Here is this popular dish made even better.

GARDEN ROW CASSEROLE

1 can cream of chicken soup, undiluted
1 cup shredded American cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
2 (16 ounce) cans tiny whole potatoes, drained
2 (16 ounce) bottles whole onions, drained
1 (16 ounce) can green peas, drained
1 cup buttered bread crumbs

Combine soup, cheese, salt, and milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until well blended. Add drained vegetables and mix well. Pour into greased three quart casserole and top with bread crumbs. Bake 350 degrees for 25 minutes or until bubbling. Yields 8-10 servings.

Note: Recipe calls for canned vegetables but prepared with fresh vegetables, this recipe is even better. To do so, cook fresh vegetables until they are about half done and then continue with recipe.

I am looking for other holiday suggestions, including Christmas candies and cookies. Please call 423-4848 with your holiday recipes.

Baker, Nichols Comment on County Commissioner Post, District 6

County Commissioner District 6

1) How many years have you resided in Lenawee County? In the Tecumseh area? How many years have you spent in public service and in what role(s)? What are your occupation (or prior work experience), affiliations, honors?

Janis Baker, Republican candidate, 501 Blanchard St., Tecumseh, native. Active member in United Presbyterian Church school, past president of the Tecumseh Acres PTO and five year member of the Tecumseh Planning Commission.

Employed as a dental hygienist for Drs. Murray, Wolf, Curtis for the past 10 years. University of Michigan graduate. Received post-graduate hours in preventive dentistry and worked with classrooms, children and parent groups in Tecumseh.

Nancy Nichols, incumbent Democratic candidate. 216 N. Oneida, 25 years resident of Tecumseh and Lenawee County. Elected four years as county commissioner, District 6.

Co-recipient of the National Association of Counties county achievement award for the Lenawee County Human Services pilot project.

The project, one of its kind in the nation, was a grass roots effort from within and among county service agencies in the public and private sectors to define common service areas and work together toward local control of services and define barriers to efficient delivery.

Her education includes specialized real estate courses from the University of Michigan, licensed in real estate in 1972, courses in county government and financing from Michigan State University.

Lenawee County Board assignments have included Ways and Means Committee, 1976-78, Human Services Committee chairmanship, 1976-78, Judicial Committee, 1975-78, County Health Department acting director, 1975-78, chairman, 1976-78.

Other appointments have included Tecumseh Housing Commission, secretary, 1976-78; Michigan Mid-South Health Systems Agency, board of directors, 1976-78, treasurer, 1978.

Honors include presentor at state meetings on human services, participant at governor's conference on human services and in health and education conferences.

2) How will you exercise leadership as a county commissioner?

Nichols: The most important part is to work together as people for a common goal which is good government.

Regardless of whether you're a Democrat or Republican, you should look at the issue and represent all of the people and be responsive to the people's needs, not just a partisan view or in response to a pressure group.

Encouraging citizen input is also important. Citizens can contribute by serving on a commission or by just picking up the phone and expressing an opinion.

Baker: As a county commissioner, it is my desire to represent Tecumseh in the most effective way possible in county government decisions. I would like to express the desires and concerns of the people I represent.

3) Name a decision (or more than one) that faces Lenawee County that you feel will require action from the County Commissioners in the next two years. Explain the importance of this challenge.

Baker: Lenawee County, I think will face tax reduction and stabilization. I intend to take a good look at the many programs such as welfare, transportation, etc. to see if these are programs are doing what we really want them to do and if we need these programs as well as to see if and in what ways they are being abused.

I'm sure many dollars could be cut if tighter controls were used and followed throughout our give-away programs.

Nichols: If the Tisch tax proposal passes, Lenawee County would lose $1.8 million in property tax revenue. If we were faced with that cut, naturally I would like to see services maintained wherever they are essential to the county. However this may not be possible.

Seventy-two percent of the budget is in salaries. You can't help but make cutbacks there. If faced with a severe loss of revenue, I would certainly recommend, particularly with elected officials, that they not expect increases.

We are looking at areas where cuts can be made, but we also have to look at where services are essential to maintain a safe environment, for example, police and health protection.

Roads should be prioritized throughout Lenawee County according to use, economic needs and hardship. An example of an economic need would be farmers who need roads to get their crops to market. Elderly persons living in an isolated location needing a passable road in an emergency would be an illustration of a hardship.

The road commission should have a plan for construction and maintenance to set its budget accordingly. Without such a plan, we must tie appropriations to a particular project.

In other words, when the road commission receives its appropriation, it should be paid for work completed. This was tried with the last allocation and was successful, rather than the blanket allocation that the road commission has received in the past.

4) How can citizens contribute to the decision making process in county government? Is there a need for citizen efforts in any challenge now facing the county?

Nichols: First, citizens can contribute by making themselves aware of the issues and concerns facing any unit of government through the local news media or by contacting their representatives, expressing their views, attending public meetings and volunteering to serve on various boards and committees.

With the possible cut in tax revenue, I think it is extremely important for people to make known what services they feel should be continued.

Baker: Citizens may participate in the decision making process by questioning their commission. The county commission meetings are open meetings and all possible questions should be directed to the commissioners.

It is much easier to make a decision and feel it is the right decision if input is received by a citizen representative.

If elected I would hesitate to make large decisions without input from those I represent. I would welcome your thoughts, questions, and ideas.

5) Of what single contribution to civic service are you most proud? Tell us about it.

6) Of what decision are you most proud?

Baker: 5-6) I am very pleased to have served on the Tecumseh City Planning Commission for five years.

While on the commission we have seen such new developments as the industrial park, new tennis courts, new apartment complexes, the beginning stages of a senior citizen housing complex, and a land use and master plan update of Tecumseh.

These projects are just a few of the commission's achievements and I am proud to have been a part of these.

Nichols: 5) I've had a tremendous working relationship with my fellow commissioners. Because of it, we've been able to accomplish better budgeting procedures and fiscal accountability. It has resulted in savings to the county and another benefit is that the taxpayer knows that his tax dollars are being monitored effectively.

When I first started as a commissioner, our county budget was only one sheet, a total of income and expenditures. I joined the Ways and Means committee in 1976. At that time, the budget didn't reflect all of the revenues and expenditures. I felt because they were tax dollars, there should be an accurate accounting.

Now we have a complete breakdown that lists everyone's salaries, income and expenditures in each department. Because of this, we were able to get a better bond rating, a AA rating, the best available in the state, for the most recent drain project.

Each step below that rating would have cost Lenawee County residents $450,000 more in interest.

Nichols: 6) The Human Services Project makes me most proud because it is something in which we are actually moving toward more efficient government, more local control, more responsiveness to the needs of people. Also it is more economic government. It was a bipartisan effort. It is doing what other people have only talked about or thought about.

7) What makes you the best choice for county commissioner for District 6?

Nichols: I feel that I've been an efficient, effective commissioner. I've always attempted to represent the people of Tecumseh in a manner which is responsive to their needs and fiscally responsible.

I consider my role as a county commissioner a full-time committment.

I've worked with more committees at state and local levels than any other commissioner and I've been invited by the governor and other state officials to participate in programs, conferences, seminars and lectures.

Because of the contacts that I've been able to develop throughout the state, with other state and county officials, I feel that I've contributed much to the future development of Lenawe County and toward greater recognition of the local needs of our residents.

Several senior members of the board are not seeking re-election on Nov. 7. With this change I would be in the position of being the only commissioner with a thorough knowledge of the budget system, county labor negotiations, and the total operation and policies which enable over 400 county employees to perform in the best interest of the taxpayer.

The experience and knowledge which I possess is essential, as never before, if we are to maintain and improve our county government.

Baker: I feel I would be the best choice for County Commissioner for District 6 because I want to take a new look at our county government. I want to ask new questions, seek new ways to cut county spending and be a new voice of the people of Tecumseh.

Cattle Prices Beefed Up

by Maxine Calhoun

This may not seem like a local story, but what happened in the last few days throughout Northern Michigan at feeder calf sales will have an impact on everyone who buys and eats beef next year.

While the autumn foliage turns ablaze, cattlemen each year make a pilgrimage to Extension Department sponsored feeder calf sales, were they expect to purchase their 'tools in trade' — feeder calves.

Other Michigan ranchers have nurtured their herds of beef cattle for a year, sorted off the spring crop of young calves from the cows on green pastures. Through their marketing associations they have sorted them into uniform lots by breeds and sizes, of heifers or steers.

The price they will get is set by supply and demand only.

When these sale bleachers fill up, the men who gather there aren't wearing businessmen's attire, as recommended by the noted authority John T. Malloy. They are jeans clad and booted, each sporting his branded, billed cap proclaiming his favorite implement company or breed association.

However, these hard-headed businessmen may, within a few hours time, invest $50,000 to $200,000 for a few truck loads of feeder cattle. At over $300 a head, it doesn't take long!

If they were at the gambling tables at Las Vegas — their gamble would be no greater.

The odds are against the cattle feeder this year, because of the shortage of calves available — and he'll have to bid against fellow feeders to get them.

For too many years the rancher who raised the cows, kept them a year and raised their calves for several more months, then couldn't sell the calves for enough to repay his investment costs, so now many farmers have cut back or sold out their herds.

That's why a recent Michigan sale that advertised 4,000 feeder cattle, actually had just 2,300 to sell. Nationwide, the calf numbers are estimated to be about 10 percent under last's years.

No spin of a roulette wheel has more tense moments than during that first bid on a pen of cattle as they come through the sale ring.

This year's bidding reached records highs — 500 lbs. steers to 87 cents lbs. and heifers at 77 cents lb., prices almost twice as high as last fall's prices.

Will dressed beef be twice as high next summer when these beef animals come back on the market? Will someone in Washington decree that the floodgate be opened for imported meat to be brought in to lower the beef price?

Will wage and price controls prevent the beef prices from reaching a level to compensate for the increased cost to the cattleman?

Will housewives switch to chicken if beef gets too high?

Or will cattle feeders draw the joker in the pack — and lose a 100 calves to shipping fever?

The last card won't be turned over for 10 months or more, before the cattleman will know if he has won or lost in his gamble for a living this year.

Beef will be higher and scarcer next summer — want to bet?

He will teach figure skating, coach hockey teams for different age groups and supervise public skating, flooding and maintenance of the rink on E. Franklin St., across from the Clinton Middle School.

Manchester Grabs Title

The Clinton Redskins lost a heart-breaking league title game to a monsterous Manchester football team Friday night, 22-0.

Manchester overwhelmed the Redskins with 13 first downs and 256 yards rushing, 37 passing. Clinton managed just eight first downs on 110 yards on the ground and 44 in the air.

Without a doubt, the Clinton team missed their star back, Casey Thilo, who was sidelined from the game with his right leg in a cast. Whether Thilo could have really been a game changing factor will never be known however.

What is known is that Clinton ended the season with a very respectable 5-1 LCAA record. They finished alone in second place behind Manchester with a 6-0 record.

Friday, Clinton looked like they were the team to be reckoned with at the game's beginning when Rudy Weirich recovered a fumble at the Manchester 34 yard line. Clinton failed to get a needed first down, however, and turned the ball over.

Manchester scored 13 plays later and then came back at Clinton again in the first half. Manchester fumbled on the second drive and Clinton recovered at their own six to end the threat.

Clinton came out for the second half full of fire, but the team was stopped at the Manchester 30 on a fumble. The recovery on Clinton's pitch left ended Clinton's most serious threat of the game.

The Dutchmen of Manchester turned the bad pitch into a touchdown and then scored again with eight more points in the final frame to finalize the score at 22-0.

Weirich was the leading rusher for the Redskins with 53 yards. Also offensively, Clinton fumbled two times and lost the ball on both occasions. Manchester fumbled three times and lost the ball twice.

Manchester had two penalties called for 30 yards while Clinton was called for four violations for 30 yards.

Split Pair

Britton's girls split a pair of games last week, losing to Deerfield by 11 points last Tuesday and beating Sand Creek by a 22 point margin Thursday.

Tuesday, Jody Smith finished with 13 points, and Jill Smith had 18 to lead the Tory team. Britton lost 62-51.

Thursday, Britton turned the tables and smashed Sand Creek 55-33. Smith fired 23 points to pace the Tories. Janene Schultz added 12. Patty Armstrong also hit double figures with 10.

Britton dominated the board, pulling down 39 recounds to Sand Creek's 21.

22-0 LOSS — Clinton met and lost their league championship football game to a very tough Manchester team Friday night. It was Clinton's first league loss. Above, Clinton quarterback Terry Carlton, number 10, prepares to pitch back to Jeff Porterfield just as a Manchester defensemen breaks through the line. At left, the Redskin's leading rusher, Rudy Weirich, breaks for open field. Weirich gained 53 yards on the ground in Clinton's 22-0 losing effort.

5-1 Record

Britton's Junior High football team ended its season with an impressive 5-1 record. The team defeated Deerfield twice, Summerfield twice and Madison. Their only loss was a close game against Sand Creek, 24-14.

Britton's offense was very explosive, scoring 209 points in only six games. The outstanding offensive players this year were Tracy Gibbs, Jim Schroeder and Mike Gonzales.

Brittons tough defense allowed their opponents only 68 points on the season. The leading tacklers were Kent Kimerer and Steve Lutz.

THS Girls Win

Gloria Fosbender dropped the winning basket for the Tecumseh girls basketball team last Thursday and allowed the THS squad to leave with a slim 44-42 victory over New Boston Huron.

Fosbender got the shot off with nine seconds left while being double teamed from six feet out. She also led in scoring with 18 points. Kelly Kruger contributed nine.

Then in a match against Flat Rock Tuesday, the Indian girls easily breezed by the home team by 30 points.

Khris McDonald and Sandy MacGeorge led in scoring as all Indian basketballers saw action on the floor.

VOTE NO on all 3... H, J, and E

Here's what PROPOSAL H would do to Michigan
—destroy local control of public and private schools.
—create one state-wide school district, run by the legislature.
—lower the quality of education in a great many school districts, while increasing the cost.
—double your income tax.
—again try to circumvent the state constitution, and give a new push to creeping parochiaid.

Here's what PROPOSAL J would do to Michigan —result in increased costs for senior citizens, young home buyers and renters.
—cut in half local revenues for fire and police protection.
—it's a phony tax cut that benefits business and corporations.
—it's a state politician's dream of grasping away local controls.
—it's not a tax cut, but a tax and fee increase.

Here's what PROPOSAL E would do to Michigan —provide no tax relief for anyone.
—freeze into place an unfair property tax system.
—obstruct the creation of new jobs and perpetuate unemployment.
—ban property tax reform.
—stop further state improvement of school financing.
Almost everything in Proposal E is subject to costly legal challenge.

DON'T LET THEM CHEAT YOU!
They WON'T lower taxes!
They WILL cost you MORE!

Borton 'Shines' Against Jefferson

Friday was "Greg Borton night" as the Indians upped their league record to 3-4 with a 27-7 win over Monroe Jefferson.

Although the night was not officially designated Borton's "night," it probably should have been as the young man caught an 82 yard touchdown pass, intercepted three Jefferson passes, recovered a fumble and was responsible for 11 tackles.

Much of last week, the Indians did not dominate Friday's statistics and the game did not start out much to their liking. Still, they played better ball and went away with a convincing victory.

Jefferson scored first on an 87 yard march, but that was after the Indians threatened inside the Monroe 10 yard line twice.

The Indians's first score came on the second play following the Jeffrson TD when quarterback Tim Todd hit Borton on a 82-yard bomb. That evened the score at seven all.

They then scored off a Jefferson turnover when Joe Brooks scampered 50 yards with an intercepted pass with only 1:04 remaining before the half.

Andy Geshweiler was responsible for the third Indian score when he ran 30 yards around his end on the Indian's first possession of the second half.

John Tarros, a sophomore, was responsible for the last Indian score after Borton's interception gave the Indians the ball. Tarros crossed the goal line from one yard out to cap a 66 yard drive.

Saaed Akhavi kicked the final extra point of the game. Randy Bolz was responsible for the earlier conversions.

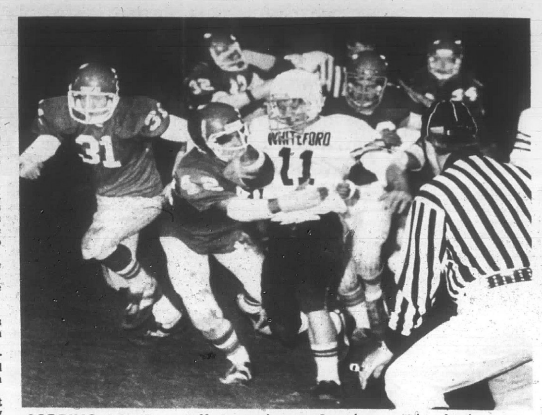
Geshwieler led the Indians running backs with 53 yards rushing. Teammate Kevin Salters ran for 47 yards.

Defensively, Dave Render and Joe Brooks accompanied Borton for high honors with a combined 34 tackles.

Tecumseh had nine first downs with 167 yards rushing to Jefferson's 13 and 210. Tecumseh threw 13 passes and connected on three for 92 yards. Jefferson hit four of 13 for 35 yards.

Tecumseh finishes their season Friday against a tough Adrian squad at Adrian. Both have 3-4 records.

OUSTERHOUT SCORES — Chris Kimerer hands off to running back Jeff Ousterhout for Britton's first score of the game. The Britton back ran 54 yards on a slant pattern. Jim Bluntschley, 34, is pictured in back.



SCORING DRIVE — Jeff Ousterhout, 42, takes a Whiteford runner down just before the visitors scored on their first possession of the night. David Bruce, 31, and other Tory tacklers are closing in behind.

Tories Lose to Whiteford

The Britton-Macon Tories lost to the Whiteford Bobcats last Friday night 15-12.

The Tories fumbled on the first play following the opening kickoff and the Bobcats recovered on their own 43 yard line. They then marched 57 yards for the score. The extra point made the score 7-0.

On the first play following the Bobcat kickoff, Jeff Osterhout raced 54 yards for a TD. The extra point run failed to make the score 7-6.

In the second quarter, the Tories stopped Whiteford on downs on the Bobcat 31 yard line and went in to score with Osterhout, going the last 11 yards. The extra point again failed and the Tories led 12-7 at half.

Whiteford put together their winning drive in the third quarter on a 60 yard march. Whiteford ran over the extra points to make the final score 15-12.

The Tories had two other scoring opportunities. Osterhout had a 44 yard scoring dash called back on a holding penalty and the Tories were stopped on downs at the Bobcat 18 late in the fourth quarter.

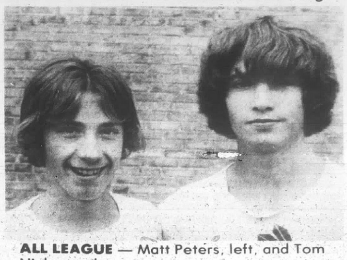
Whiteford 227 yards total offense, all rushing. The Bobcats had 14 first downs and were penalized twice for 30 yards.

Britton had 243 yards total offense with 207 yards rushing. Senior halfback Osterhout again had an outstanding night as he rushed for 173 yards in 36 carries. David Bruce led the Tory defense with 10 tackles and five assists for 15 tackles.

The Tories are now 1-7 overall and close their season this week at North Adams.

7th in JV

Gary Houghton was seventh in the LCAA JV race for Clinton.



ALL LEAGUE — Matt Peters, left, and Tom Nighswander

First Ever!

"Run your own race!"

That was Clinton's cross country coach, Ozzie Hashley speaking to his three mile runners Wednesday at the league meet. And it paid off.

Clinton turned the tables on their league foes and slid by Onsted by one point for their first league title ever in LCAA history.

Hudson did not have the depth of the Redskins or Onsted and posed no real threat. Onsted, however, took an early lead in the race and was still holding that lead at the two mile mark at Wolf Lake.

The Redskins hung back and then captured key spots in the last mile to win by the slim 51-52 margin. Hudson finished third at 73.

Matt Peters ran away from three challengers at the half way mark to easily capture the individual championship in 16:12. He was a full 14 second ahead of the second place finisher.

Tom Nigswander continued his outstanding year by joining Peters on the all-league team with a fifth place finish at 16:45.

Mark Prichard passed two key Onsted runners in the last mile to finish 13th in 17:21. Matt McNeill was 15th, Devin Schindler and Ken Caligiuri tied for 17th and Wes Fuller was 21st.

Place Second

The Clinton's Cross Country team for the second straight year has qualified for this Saturday's State Class C Meet. The LCAA champion Redskins qualied by finishing second in Saturay's Regional at Jackson.

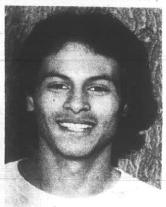
Matt Peters paced the Redskins finishing fourth out of over 90 runners in a time of 15:47. Tom Nighswander was eighth in 16:16.

Clinton had an excellent showing from Devin Schindler who was 17th in his best time ever of 16:33. Mark Prichard was 26th in 16:50 and Wes Fuller rounded out the top five finishing 27th in his best time of 16:51.

The State Meet will be held Saturday just outside of East Lansing. The Redskins will run at 11:30 a.m. For maps and information, students can see Mr. Hashley.

Two THS Runners Qualify

Brian Banda and Jesse Castorena qualified form Tecumseh's cross country team to run in the state meet next Saturday. Banda was the top finisher for the Indians last Saturday at the regionals and finished eighth at 15:48.



Castorena was 12th at 15:57.

Tecumseh finished fourth in the meet with Lumen Christi capturing top honors with 58 points. THS had 132 points, Holt was second at 68 and Charlotte had 81.

The Indian's regional is one of the two toughest in Michigan and was essentially a four team race. The closest team behind Tecumseh had 240 plus points.

Other finishers for Tecumseh were Scott Betzoldt, 25th, at 16:07; D.J. Biscupski was 39th at 16:30; and Ben Binder was 48th at 16:41.

Jim Shuster of Columbia Central was the individual winner at 15:15.

Coach Bill Croft explained that the Indians squad ran just about as well as they possibly could and turned in a fine performance on the three mile Potterville course.

1 Girl Runner Qualifies

Ann Smoke qualified from the Tecumseh girls' cross country team Saturday at their regional at Jackson Sharp Park.

Smoke finished 10th at 19:38 and met her goal of breaking the 20 minute barrier this year. The team as a whole also finished 10th.

FINISHES 8th — Brian Banda crossed the finish line first for the Indians at their regional competition Saturday. He was 8th in the race while teammate Jesse Castorena also qualified for state competition when he finished 12th.

Clinton Girls Win, 58-51

In a battle between two of the strongest teams in the LCAA, Clinton held on to defeat a fine Morenci girls' basketball team 58-51. The win keeps Clinton alone in second place with a 5-1 league record while Morenci slips to 4-2.

The Redskins jumped off to a quick eight point lead and held a 15-7 advantage at the end of the first quarter. Morenci came back to grab a five point lead, but Clinton bounced back to tie the score at halftime 26-26.

The Score see-sawed back and forth during the second half and with four minutes remaining in the game Morenci led 48-47. Sue Richter scored Clinton's next eight points, including six of six from the free throw line, to spark the Redskins to their 11th victory of the year.

Richter led in scoring with 24 points while senior Lisa Cark had 14 points and nine rebounds. The Redskins shot well as a team, making 23 of 57 attempts for 40%.

Clinton will play two very important home games this week — rival Manchester on Tuesday and league leading and unbeaten Addison on Thursday.

A Tribute to Bug's. He was perhaps Tecumseh's oldest business man, owning and operating Bug's Super Service on the corner of Evans and Shawnee for the last 39 years. Elwyn (Bugs) Bugbee, a quiet man, a man of faith, loving his work and his friends, would often remark about his wonderful employees, and how he valued his customers as very special folks. The kindness of our relatives and friends during his illness and death was magnified through prayers, words of cheer, floral tributes, delicious food, and other acts of assistance that gave us strength when ours was low. From our overflowing hearts comes a prayer that each of your names will be found in "God's Book of Sweet Remembrance."

4-H Members, Leaders Honored

Several Tecumseh area 4-H members and adult leaders were honored at the annual Lenawee County Junior Livestock Association banquet Oct. 12 at the Blissfield High School.

Approximately 470 people attended the roast beef meal.

Area youth who served as 1977-78 association teen directors are Kent Rhora (sheep) president; Tony Rebottaro (swine) and Anne Rundell (swine).

Area adults, Jay Fisher (swine), Elmer Marks (swine), Ralph Tillotson (beef) and Jack Barrett (sheep) served as the 1977-78 association adult directors.

Directors for the 1978-79 association board were elected.

They are: youth – Kevin Barrett (sheep), Matt Frye and Mark Tillotson (beef); adults – Jay Fisher (swine), Ralph Tillotson (beef), Jack Barrett (sheep) and Elmer Marks will also serve the board for another year.

The banquet gives the association members an opportunity to say "thank you" to the award sponsors, buyers and supporters of the 4-H and FFA activities.

Area youth and clubs presented awards for beef were:

Last year's auction earnings were $141,480. The Junior Livestock Association also received $1,110 for its part in the chicken barbecue on fair Sunday.

Brenda Rebottaro, a member of the Project Parents, also reported receipts of $1,110 for their part in the barbecue. Over 1,600 people were served.

The Project Parents, which consists of 12 parent members, realized a total 1978 profit of $3,874 from projects including chicken barbecue, fair week, Linehan Futurity Dinner and Linehan Auction.

Receipts are used to benefit the 1,955 Lenawee County 4-H members and 600 adult leaders, to provide scholarships, maintain the projects building and support the total 4-H program.

Lenawee County Junior Livestock Association is made up of 4-H and FFA members who are paid a 2½ percent commission on the sale of market livestock projects at the annual junior livestock sale at the fair.

The association's major purpose is to provide educational activities to all of its members so that they may better understand the livestock industry today.

The Lenawee County Fair Junior Livestock sale provides an opportunity to learn lessons in the livestock industry through sheep, swine and beef projects and actual marketing.

Discuss Rape

Detective Larry Brenner of the Lenawee County Sheriff's Department will visit the Jaycee Auxiliary at their general membership meeting Nov. 7.

Detective Brenner will give a slide presentation on "Rape" and will conduct a question and answer period afterwards.

The bank is on the southeast corner at the intersection of M-50 and Occidental and the meeting room is in the basement.

Women Host Bingo Party

Six Tecumseh Council Candidates Discuss Concerns and Issues

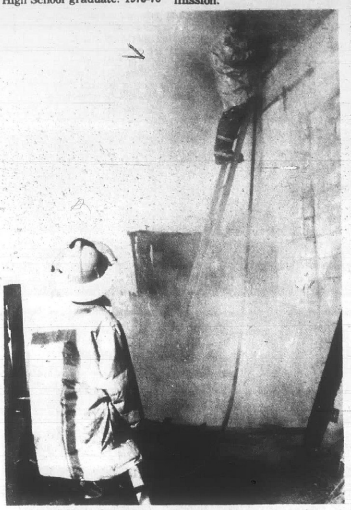
Chicago Blvd. Moved to Tecumseh in 1940. Tecumseh High School graduate. 1975-76 member of Tecumseh Planning Commission and Region II Planning Commission.



4 ANSWER ALARM — Four fire departments battled flames at Stevens Orchards, formerly Aiuto's, northwest of Clinton Wednesday morning. Heavily damaged was a warehouse along with the orchard's sales building. Clinton firemen called in Tecumseh, Sand Creek and Manchester departments.
(PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Member of Tecumseh City Council 1977-78. Advertising manager at Faraday, Inc. Retired U.S. Air Force Major. Master's degree in business management. Board member, Lenawee County Economic Development Corporation.

1) Name a decision (or more than one) that faces the city of Tecumseh that you feel will require action from Council in the next two years. Explain the importance of this challenge.

Palmer: If only one decision were in Tecumseh's future what would it be? Industrial park growth, senior citizen housing, condominium housing, and other housing, recreational facilities, highway improvement, tightening the budget, insurance protection, better public service at lesser cost, city auditorium and where, or how will a new tax method, if voted in, affect Tecumseh city and what will we need to keep us going?

What if state or federal aid does not keep coming in? What new federal requirement programs will we have to abide to?

The list could go on and on and being on council for five years, I know these problems don't get swept under and I will continue to face them and help make the right decisions for the community.

Tressler: An imminent challenge is a tangible expression of our willingness to help existing and new industry to expand and locate here by extending the tax and bonding assistance permitted under Michigan Public Acts 198 and 338. I hope we fully utilize these opportunities to provide for more well-planned jobs for our people.

Bowers: We need some type of a civic auditorium that will benefit our entire community. We now have a committee that is working on ideas for this.

However, I believe in the end result that this will have to be decided by council as it will have to be handled in such a way that our local tax payers will not have another Pontiac Silver Dome situation.

Long term financing must be considered before making this decision.

Hella: Expansion of existing industry, development of new industry.

3) How can citizens contribute to the decision making process in city government? Is there a need for citizen efforts in any challenge now facing the city?

Tressler: I personally welcome phone calls, visits and council meeting attendance by concerned citizens. I have not failed to follow through on each comment presented to me.

However, I did expect and would hope to receive more input from senior citizens regarding location and configuration of the proposed senior citizens building.

Bowers: Citizens can contribute to the decision making process in city government by attending council meetings and taking a more active part in finding out what their elected officials are doing. We are now working on getting new industry coming in our industrial park.

It would be my hope that any citizen living here would do as much as they possibly can in visiting other areas to get a plug in about Tecumseh and what a great town it is. Word of mouth can be one of your best ways of advertising.

Hella: Attend council meetings and give viewpoints on council related subjects.

Palmer: We as council members are the citizens' voice in the decision making process. Citizens of Tecumseh decide through communication to council members and 'thank goodness' most citizens care by voicing their feelings to council members.

Communications linked between council and citizens is very important and yes, the effort of citizens does show need for their concern in our decision making.

4) Of what single contribution to civic service are you most proud? Tell us about it.

Bowers: I think I am the proudest of being part of council and of getting the Frosty Boy at the corner of North Evans and Brown Street. We have an attractive well landscaped business there now. People in the area are very happy with it and such an improvement over the eyesore that was there for so many years.

Palmer: In civic service, I was on the selection board in choosing the community development director/assistant city manager. I am proud of the choice in Paul Preston. He has brought another dimension and closeness of people and government to Tecumseh, through communications between everyone.

We all know and can get involved, but as usual when you get involved you get what you put into it. Paul gets the job done and in turn we benefit with the best results.

Tressler: I am proud to have seen my idea for a community development director result in the hiring of a very capable administrator, Paul Preston. He has provided badly needed liaison between the city government and our citizens and is continually working for Tecumseh's orderly progression.

5) As a Council member or in civic service, of what decision are you most proud?

Tressler: I believe that I reached a just and proper decision when I voted against the original historic district ordinance, which would have restricted individual rights and then immediately thereafter, in a special meeting suggested a compromise solution which was unanimously adopted and became the key part of the existing ordinance, preventing it from becoming just a landmark ordinance.

Palmer: As a council member I am most proud of my personal effort for three years in bringing to the city of Tecumseh the McDonald's Restaurant. I feel it has benefited both them and our community, by service, and employment for our youth.

6) Is there any topic that you would like to discuss?

Bowers: My major concern is getting senior citizen housing for Tecumseh.

Cook: At the moment there are no moments or controversial problems facing council. We have in the past couple of years enacted ordinances relative to industrial development and gotten our industrial park underway. We have also gotten underway with an historic district ordinance.

These two items I feel are the most far reaching and important council events of the past two years.

The reason I am running again is largely my continuing concern for keeping Tecumseh a good place in which to live. We are on the edge of a metropolitan area where pressure to grow continues to mount.

I feel that the growth must be directed in such manner as not to destroy the distinctive quality of our city.

Kish: Combining my managerial purchasing background with prior ownership of the Irish Hills Restaurant and Motel, I feel well versed in controlling cost, for it is my responsibility to oversee purchases in the millions of dollars, on a practicable basis.

I feel that I can be a good watch dog for the people of Tecumseh in seeing that a dollar spent, will be done so wisely....

Positive action is needed in the orderly growth of the business, manufacturing and residential areas of Tecumseh. Tecumseh residents must take a closer look at the surrounding area, and fit into the changing growth pattern of Raisin, Franklin and Ridgeway townships and work closely with their elected officials.

In civic service, I have worked with The Board of Appeals for the last two years.

When elected, I will attend meetings, I will welcome comments from all of the residents of Tecumseh and the surrounding area, not just a select few.

I will base all of my decisions on any matter that comes before the Council, on what is good for the city of Tecumseh, not what is good or wanted for my personal whim. This, too often has happened in the past.

Palmer: Only topic I would like to mention is "Shall we elect our mayor by popular vote". I suggested this earlier this year and it expanded into a re-vamp of our charter. I believe our charter is a good, basic document. It was written and printed in 1963 and yes, we can amend it and update it without making it hodge-podge. What better feeling to a voter than to elect your own mayor.

Tressler: Council members are paid $6 per meeting, the Mayor receives $8. Tecumseh, Ontario, a city three-fourths the size of ours, pays their council members $2,000 per year. I believe that our council gives our citizens their money's worth while performing this rewarding public service.

Hella: Being a public servant for 16 years, I am well acquainted with the residents of Tecumseh. I feel that I can express the wants and needs for better city government for the residents of Tecumseh if I were councilman.

Brown, Kissner Seek District 3 Post

COUNTY COMMISSIONER
District 3
Ronald Brown

Ronald Brown, Republican incumbent. Elected and served eight years as county commissioner, Cambridge township supervisor for eight years. Resides in Cambridge Township since 1953. Lifelong resident of Lenawee County. A farm owner, he rents to his son, whom he assists occasionally.

Brown was elected by the County Board of Commissioners to serve as chairman for one year and served the majority of other county committees.

"County government is in good shape," said Brown. "I think the biggest problem could be the passage of the Tisch amendment. If passed, it would take out nearly $2 million from our budget. We'd have to desperately try to replace some of it from some source."

Brown said he has no recommendation for voters on any of the tax related amendments. Regarding the Tisch amendment he stated: "If that's what the people want, then we'll have to go along with it."

He said he favors statewide tax reform and would like to see a cap put on assessments. "People expect a modest increase in assessments. We've been getting hit harder. People are upset."

"I have what time it takes, what time it needs to do the job," Brown said regarding his qualifications. "I have the experience and ability to work with people," he concluded.

RONALD BROWN

COUNTY COMMISSIONER
District 3
Celia Linda Kissner

Celia Linda Kissner, Democrat, Cambridge township resident since 1973. First venture in politics. Owned and operated an audio-visual equipment and materials service for 19 years, serving schools throughout Michigan. Member of Michigan and Lenawee County Citizens for Reasonable Taxation, secretary of the Coalition for Property Tax Reform, non-partisan groups.

She said that taxation is the most important decision facing the county. She said she wants "The best possible services that fair and reasonable taxes can provide.

CELIA LINDA KISSNER

"It is necessary for the people to become involved and actively participate in their governments by attending meetings, bringing forth problems and supporting people trying to do a job. People must be involved if they want good governent.

"I am amazed people know so little about where they can go to complain or where and when meetings are held. I want to try to restore interest, participation and confidence in government."

She supports the Tish amendment (Proposal J) and recommended a "No" vote on Proposals E (Headlee), H (Voucher) and A (Constitutional Convention). The latter is "An expensive waste of money and could nullify changes made by proposal J," she said.

"Property taxpayers have had to pay an unfair burden. Proposal J is the first step in getting property tax reform, cut waste and inefficiency in government and make it accountable to people."

About her qualifications, Kissner stated, "I believe through managing my own business, growing up on a farm, working in a factory, and as a homemaker with two grown children, I have the background necessary to make the decisions as county commissioner that will benefit the people.

"I've also lived on a farm and in a metropolitan area, areas which were expanding. I think I can see the problems from a different viewpoint. Growth should be orderly.

"I think this is a wonderful area to live and I want to keep it that way. You can't take good government for granted. I feel that the people are trying, but I want to fight to keep it that way.

"I would let the people know whenever possible when a particular vote is coming up, with the cooperation of the news media, and let them know how I voted."

About county roads she stated: "There is a need for the county road commission to be accountable from the standpoint of funds, results and environment. As county commissioner, I would do what I could."

When Governor Milliken promises jobs . . . . . He delivers

475,000 more persons in Michigan have jobs today because Milliken has been doing his

The Promise:
"Until all citizens of this state are provided with an opportunity to hold a job, the creation of additional permanent employment will be my administration's number one priority."

The Performance:
Michigan's economy is on the move. Unemployment has dropped sharply and 475,000 more people are working today than were working four years ago. Michigan's gross state product, which reflects business activity, has increased from $61.5 billion in 1974 to $84.7 billion in 1977. Governor Milliken has worked effectively to bring new business to Michigan and to help existing industries expand in our state.

The Promise:
"I have maintained an unwavering commitment to preserving and improving the quality of life of our smaller communities. Throughout my career, that commitment continues whether it is in pursuit of balanced growth, saving the railroads or building better roads."

The Performance:
Many of Michigan's smaller towns and townships are experiencing unprecedented population gains and community growth. The state's total transportation network, especially in providing bus systems for rural areas, is regarded as a model which other states are following.

The Promise:
"We will make the streets and our homes safe for everyone."

The Performance:
Governor Milliken has moved quickly and decisively to cut crime. He has firmly supported a strong State Police and ordered more State Police onto high-crime areas on the state's freeways and highways. In the past two years, across Michigan there have been 100,000 fewer violent crimes reported.

The Promise:
"Just as a family must live within its means, government, too, must not spend more than it collects in revenues."

The Performance:
Michigan has gone seven years without a general tax increase and has been living within the limits proposed in the tax limitation proposal which Milliken supports.

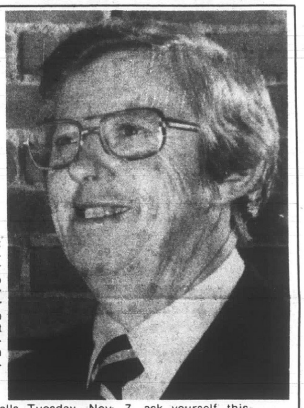
Take a Bite Out of BIG Government

The People Are Ready

JACK MOWAT believes that the majority of people of Michigan are willing to meet their obligations in such a way as to take care of themselves, their families, their parents, their children and their neighbors. On the other hand, he believes that government can never be contained by wasting resources on those unwilling to help themselves.



Before you go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 7, ask yourself this important question:

"Which candidate on the ballot is best qualified to speak for me during the next four years in the Michigan Senate?"

If you measure qualification by experience, then you'll vote for JACK MOWAT, who is completing his eighth year as State Representative from the Fortieth District.

If your criteria includes leadership, then you'll pick JACK MOWAT, who has been assistant Republican leader in the House of Representatives for four years.

If recognition by others is your yardstick, then you'll certainly pick JACK MOWAT, who has the respect of Republican and Democrat colleagues in the Legislature for his honesty and integrity.

If it is accomplishment you want, then you'll vote for JACK MOWAT, who has the respect of the Lansing press corps for his effectiveness as a legislator and aboveboard personality.

If it is what others say and how they react, that helps you make up your mind, then you'll vote for JACK MOWAT, because JACK MOWAT outpolled by 2 to 1 every other candidate who sought their party nomination for the 19th District, Michigan Senate, in the August Primary.

VOTE YOUR BELIEFS ON THE PROPOSALS

Familiarize yourself with the Proposals on the ballot Nov. 7. They are important to you. Vote for your beliefs on the Proposals and then vote for JACK MOWAT for State Senator. By voting for JACK MOWAT, you'll be assured that the beliefs of the majority will be honored by the Senate, not ignored.

Lovett, Sayler Vie for Raisin Treasurer Job

RAISIN TOWNSHIP Treasurer Candidates

1) How many years have you resided in Raisin Township? How many years have you spent in public service and in what role(s)? What are your occupation (or prior work experience), affiliations and honors?

Gretchen Lovett, 4358, Montrose Ct., Republican candidate for Raisin Township. Lived seven years in Raisin Township. Taught 6½ years, three years in Tecumseh Public Schools, deputy treasurer of Raisin Township.

Affiliations include treasurer of Coventry Village Homeowners Association, charter member and present president of the Town and Country Garden Club, active member of the Sutton School PTO. Cum Laude graduate of Union College.

GRETCHEN LOVETT

LYNETTE SAYLER

Lynette Sayler, 1595 Ives Rd., Democrat candidate for Raisin Township treasurer. Lived in Raisin Township for 20 years. She has a bookkeeping and tax service business for small businesses. Ten years accounting experience, including three in government. Attends Adrian College part-time, classes in accounting, management, tax and business law. While employed at the Department of Social Services, set up new bookkeeping system "praised by state auditors."

2) Name a decision (or more than one) that faces Raisin Township that you feel will require action from the Township board in the next few years. Explain the importance of this challenge.

Sayler: Charter Township—This is to be on the November ballot. The question is whether or not the good points of the proposal outweigh the bad.

I'd like the people of Raisin Township to have the right to control annexation by the city of Tecumseh but I'm concerned about the possibility of the township board being able to levy up to five mills without a vote of the people.

I think the township board owes us much more information and analysis before we are asked to vote on it.

Controlled Growth—I favor planning and good, sound business management when it comes to expansion in our township. I do not oppose all growth. But I do feel that it should be planned and systematically organized so as to insure no undue hardships on certain people.

Lovett: Among the issues facing Raisin Township, two emerge as significant. One is the charter township proposal which will be on the ballot Nov. 7.

At that time, the voters must determine whether to retain the township's present governmental structure or to proceed within a charter township structure.

I urge township residents to become informed of the charter township provisions before voting Nov. 7.

A second, important decision concerns the future of the sanitary landfill. The Department of Natural Resources has granted an extension allowing the landfill to operate through the winter.

The township's Pollution Control Committee is now studying how this service can be most effectively and economically continued. The township board must make a final decision within a few month.

3) Is there any topic that you would like to address?

Lovett: In the state of Michigan, the township government provides the opportunity for its citizens to participate in the "grassroots" of the decision-making process.

The township through its elected officials must deal with issues that include not only taxes and their assessments, and issue foremost in the thoughts of the voters today, but also such topics as nuisance controls (noise, sight, etc.), providing needed services, controlling industrial and residential expansion and its related problems, and the issues discussed above, to name a few.

In order to reflect the best interests of the township, those officials need input by their constituents, and I would welcome such communications from township residents.

Sayler: The township office is there to be used. My opinion is that it should be used.

I will work the hours necessary and feel deeply that as a public servant I should be available as often as I am needed by my constituents for matters related to my elected position.

4) What makes you the best choice for Raisin Township Treasurer?

Sayler: I grew up in this area, graduated from Tecumseh High School, and have lived in this area most of my life. I think that natives, so to speak, have a deeper understanding of the people of our area, our concerns, our frustrations and our motivations.

I know a lot of people in this township, and I know how embarrassed we have all been at the public disagreements so widely publicized at our township board meetings. While I will stand up and be counted, I will try to be dignified and direct in public meetings.

Lovett: I urge the residents of Raisin Township to vote for me as treasurer for several reasons:

I'm sincerely interested in the future of Raisin Township; working with the public successfully in the past will enable me to assist township residents effectively and to develop a good working relationship with other board members.

I will be objective in decision-making, investigating an issue thoroughly before making a decision.

As Deputy Treasurer I have been trained in the procedures for collecting taxes under the computer system and am able to carry out the responsibilities of the treasurer efficiently and accurately.

Election Concerns Writers

To the Editor regarding the upcoming election:

Tax cuts—sounds good, but in the real world we don't get something for nothing. If taxes are cut by half as the Tisch amendment proposes, that naturally means there will be less money to pay for all those services we take for granted.

Unless the voters are willing to increase available monies by voting in income tax increases or other means of funding, the only alternative is cuts.

Although no one knows the exact dollar amount to each area dependent on property tax dollars that the reductions would be (in itself a nightmare to budget planners), that there would be less money is a certainty.

I asked at some of the different places where property tax dollars are very important to see just what kinds of things would be on the "first to go" list considering the uncertainty of cut amounts.

In Tecumseh schools 20% of the budget goes for fixed operating costs such as insurance, heat, and electricty with the remaining 80% for personnel. The fixed costs will be unchangeable so the only place for cuts is in the area of personnel.

At the library, first hit again would be personnel along with hours, audio-visual resources, book budgets.

At the city level–the "frills" would go first. These include such things as parks and recreation department programs, personnel like the police department dispatcher (a frill?!), secretaries, etc.; services that we come to expect like leaf bags and their pick-up, large trash pick-up, free dump access, funds that subsidize the water department–which could mean another water bill increase, the underwriting of sewer and water line installations meaning the likelihood of the implementation of special assessments to pay for these.

We must realize that while we all want to pay less for property taxes, that either we must be willing to dig into our pockets to pay for these things by other means or be willing to do without them. Not a very happy prospect.

Let's not take a step backward by being responsible for a reduction of all the services and personnel we've wanted and needed.

Be realistic voter and please vote against Tisch-proposition J.

To the Editor:

The working class people of Lenawee County might well be advised of a couple of things before they vote in the Nov. 7 General Election.

I refer to congressman Dave Stockman and his attitude towards those of us who use our hands, backs and physical energy to earn our way in life.

In a recent photo story in the Tecumseh Herald showing Mr. Stockman having lunch with several area business people, it was reported that he had toured the Tecumseh Fisher Body Plant.

I was present during his "tour". What Mr. Stockman did, in fact, was to briefly enter the production area and show some interest in machines and processes of production. In my opinion, his attitude toward the workers was that of disdain. While I observed, he spoke to none of the workers nor even acknowledged their presence.

Mr. Stockman did, however, have dinner in the executive dining room with the plant manager and several company officials. He later wrote to the plant manager thanking him for the opportunity to meet with the Tecumseh Fisher Body "management team."

When running for office two years ago, Mr. Stockman was allowed in the plant parking lot with a squad of aides to seek the support and votes of the same workers he now seems to have such an aversion for.

The two visits I have referred to indicates to me that the Republican Mr. Stockman is a preferred and welcome guest of the monied corporations.

Now take the case of the Democratic candidate for the state senate, James Daly.

Twice Jim Daly tried to meet the workers at Fisher Body, in the parking lot as Mr. Stockman had done. On both occasions he was asked by the guards to leave the premises because he was trespassing.

Though the two gentlemen are running for different offices, I feel this unequal and unfair treatment is ample reason for me to vote against Mr. Stockman. I contend that he is so aligned with the corporate powers of the country that he is in fact a part of their "management team".

Jim Daly, on the other hand, represents something they fear - the strength and power of workers in the voting booth.

Sincerely,
Carl D. Schmidt

JIM HADDEN SPEAKS TO THE ISSUES

Paid for by Jim Hadden Campaign Comm. Clyne W. Durst, Chairman

EDUCATION—
I strongly support an education system which really delivers for quality teaching, student discipline and excellent performance.

INFLATION—
The biggest villian is government waste and overspending. Both can be stopped with sincere effort.

THE PROPOSALS—
Vote your beliefs. My responsibility as your State Representative is to carry out the majority beliefs on any and all issues.

TAXES—
The tax revolt is a fact of life that must be faced now, not tomorrow, by all officeholders. Taxes nourish on unwise spending. I'm going to put them on a weight watcher's diet.

REPUBLICANS—
Lansing needs more strong Republicans in the House and Senate. Rube Goldberg approaches of the Democrats have only compounded our problems.

VOTERS—
If voters in the other 82 counties had voted Republican as they have over the years in Lenawee County, there would be little to worry about. Unfortunately that hasn't been the case.

WELFARE—
People are fed up with welfare fraud. Those able to work should be required to contribute to their own welfare.

JOBS—
Lenawee County is doing all right at the moment with its lowest unemployment rate in years. But we can't rest on our laurels. Now is the time to plan ahead.

ROADS—
Our roads have gone to pot holes. Let the bumps shake up those responsible where necessary to get a smooth ride again.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION—
It's the great cushion we can have in a recession or depression. Its misuse has spawned laziness and inflation. Make unemployment compensation what it was intended.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION—
This is another area where state government has gone overboard. Industrial workmen's compensation is necessry, but keep it as a necessity..not a luxury.

FARM—
Farming is a gamble no matter how you look at it. More attention should be given farm problems to level out the highs and lows which are making the family farm obsolete.

CRIME—
The big cities no longer have a lock on crime. It's a problem that's budding in Lenawee and can't be allowed to grow.

RECREATION—
Though Lenawee County has a developing park system, there is little reason why we can't work toward making the Lake Hudson area a Michigan State Park.

ARSON—
Burning of farm buildings by vandals may seem of little significance to the public as a whole. But to the farmer whose buildings are destroyed, it is like losing part of your life.

YOUTH—
Youngsters of today have great opportunities. It is our job to get them to understand and appreciate these opportunities.

SENIOR CITIZENS—
Most of them know what a Depression is like. We can't afford to let them have a second experience because State Government is unresponsive to their needs.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Autumn is the time of year when my room becomes particularly noisy. Flat roofs are great. Any time of year when just the right kind of rain falls, they can be the best insomnia beaters in the world. Nothing is nicer to hear when falling asleep than the soft steady beat of a good rain. Nothing can be more destructive of a good night's sleep than the loud unrhythmatic bumping of falling walnuts. And yes, I speak with the voice of experience.

The walnut crop was good this year and the tree which grows near the southwest corner of my room did a superb job of throwing its nuts on the roof.

Crash, bang they came, then it was thump thump thump as they rolled across the roof, and finally a dull plop as they fell to the ground. The slightest breeze started them dropping in clusters.

And yes, it has been a windy autumn. During the day the noise was startling but at night it was much more so.

Several weeks ago Mildred brought in some branches which she and Wayne thought we should see. Most interesting. One of the branches from their witch-hazel trees was beautifully sculptured. It looked almost as if it had been espaliered.

This particular branch was also in full bloom. Full bloom in autumn? Yes. A pecularity of this shade loving tree or bush is that it blooms in the autumn and another pecularity is that the blossoms stay on long after the leaves have dropped.

The flowers are unusual, as might be expected. A bright yellow which at first reminds one of forsythia, they are composed of four long (almost an inch) narrow petals. Not being stiff these petals twist and are often referred to as looking like tiny yellow ribbons.

On several of the branches we noticed curious little seed pods. They were not more than half an inch long and rather blunt.

According to John Kieran in AN INTRODUCTION TO NATURE these seed pods or capsules hang on the tree and do not ripen until next fall. He continues, "...then by contraction they 'explode' and fling the tiny nutlets to the ground some distance away."

Indeed they do — explode is the exact word and I shall substitute floor for his ground.

The explosion is not noisy but, even with the radio playing, the next morning I heard a strange and unrecognizable ping-type pop. This was followed by the sound of something hitting the floor and rolling.

My first thought was that a small screw had fallen out of something. When Mom came in I even had her check but she could find nothing. It was not until the dust mop hit 'the something' that we found some answers.

Two extremely hard and tiny black seeds were on the other side of the room and, after checking the witch-hazel, we found the seed pods open. The pop and falling screw mystery was solved.

Thanks to these same friends, Mom, Gertie T and I now know a bit more about pawpaws. This too is a shade loving bush or small tree. It was surprisingly large oblong leaves which can be over a foot long.

However, the tree's true fame comes from its fruit. Odd looking is hardly adequate. Again I fall back on John Kieran's book, he claims that the fruits are "...three to five inches long and look much like fat little sausages or stubby bananas with rounded ends."

As they ripen in the fall their green color turns a withered looking brown. Surprisingly enough, the 'meat' of the pawpaw is edible. Most unusual tasting.

Another name for this tree is custard apple and yes, there is a thick custardy texture to the fruit.

Last winter, when the General and his Lady were cutting trees in the woods, they sliced off a three inch slab of water oak tree for me.

The texture of the wood and the growth rings were interesting. Moisture in the wood was frozen and, as the slab dried, it split. Split with loud rifle shot cracks. Again a noisy room.

During the period covered by this report, July 1, 1977 through June 30, 1978, a total of 3628 full-time resident pupils were enrolled, with another 16 full-time equivalency in Adult Education. There were no non-resident pupils. To serve these pupils the District employed a staff of 157.5 teachers. In addition the District employed an additional 13 staff members holding valid teaching certificates. The total amount paid for instructional salaries was $2,702,572.00. The number of full time equated certificated employees totaled 170.5. The ratio of 3628 pupils to employees holding a valid Michigan Teaching Certificate was 21.3 during the 1977-78 school year.

Minimum and maximum teachers salaries were as follows:

DEGREE	MINIMUM	MAXIMUM
Bachelor of Arts	$10,825.00	$17,308.00
Master of Arts	11,714.00	19,083.00
M.A. plus 15
Semester Hours	12,300.00	20,037.00
Specialist Degree	12,915.00	21,039.00

The District operated 123 classrooms in eight buildings; ten portable classrooms and five support facilities which are valued at approximately $15,000,000.00. School owned equipment and furniture is valued at approximately $1,350,000.00.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, this report accurately reflects the financial status of the Tecumseh Public School District for the fiscal year 1977-78, Rule 340, 351 of the General School Laws and the State Board of Education.

Players Offer Comic Relief Nov. 2, 3, 4

by Kathy Brown

This is the week for political endorsements. My endorsement will be short and sweet.

Go see the Tecumseh Players production of the musical comedy "Bells Are Ringing."

Donna Andre and Dick Egli are delightful as the romantic leads.

Others with roles contributing to the Players' winning team are Howard Furry as the marshmallow hearted Inspector Barnes, Carlton Cook as the frustrated songwriting dentist and last but not least Kevin Baetz, who portrays Blake Barton, a budding actor a la John Travolta.

One of the best numbers features tenor John Frye with a cast strong in spirit and voice.

The teamwork effort of every actor and crew member is obvious.

The detail of the sets is remarkable considering the limited area that the Players have to move in the Glass Room.

As this campaign weekend winds up, why not join the players and wind down with a smile and a song from some entertaining, creative people?

For the Record

In an accident report last week, it was Ethel Baumgarten and not Judy Sisson, that was cited for failure to yield.

Makes Offer To Purchase Lot in Park

Tecumseh City Council heard an offer Monday night from Tecumseh Printers on a six month option to purchase a lot in the Tecumseh Industrial Park.

Council decided in a 5-2 vote that the printers located at 109 E. Logan St. could purchase any lot available for sale in the industrial park. Aden Mead and Carlton Cook cast the dissenting votes.

Futhermore, Council unanimously decided not to deduct 10 percent from the sale price just because no realtor acted in the offer.

Tecumseh Printers offered to purchase a middle lot of three facing Russell Road in the industrial park. Company plans to build a 7,000 sq. ft., $400,000 commercial printing plant subject to obtaining industrial revenue sharing bonds for the total project.

"From a planning standpoint, I have a question as to whether or not we wish to sell the middle lot," said Paul Preston, assistant city manager. "By selling the middle lot, we preclude the possible development of a full five acres facing Russell Rd."

The second choice of the local printers was a corner lot with access from the industrial park drive. Under the zoning ordinance and industrial park covenants, the builder would lose a portion of useable land due to the 50 ft. setback requirements on both Russell Rd. and West Industrial Drive.

"Of the two lots, we want one with the most buildable land," Ken Hamblin of the

Pizza Hut Plans Restaurant Here

Tecumseh City Council approved Monday night, the intent of the Whinco, Inc. to transfer a Class C resort license to Tecumseh.

It will enable the franchise to serve beer and wine with its menu at a new Pizza Hut restaurant planned in Tecumseh at 1314 Chicago Blvd. presently occupied by Purkey and Sons Service.

The Class C resort license is a special type of license issued by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for use in Michigan as a whole and not as part of a community quota.

The license does not add to or subtract from the city's quota which is now full.

The type of license is subject to the same assessments, taxes, rules and regulation as a regular Class C license.

Whinco, Inc. is a Michigan corporation owned by Richard Insley and Doug Malone. It operates a Pizza Hut restaurant in Monroe, Coldwater and other communities and is building one in Adrian.

The Tecumseh restaurant will have 96 seats, employ approximately 40 people. Construction may start this spring.

Restaurant is described by its owner as a "full service type", not a fast food outlet, that serves "pizza and pasta type foods for family consumption."

15-Year-Old Flees, Caught After Chase

A 15-year-old Blissfield youth gave two local officers and the state police a merry chase early Sunday morning - and picked up three arrest charges for his actions.

The youth is confined at Maurice Spears Campus on charges of possessing a stolen vehicle, fleeing and eluding a police officer and for reckless driving.

About 3 a.m. Sunday, Tecumseh police officers Dennis Maurey and Daniel Pizana sighted a stolen vehicle heading west on M-50 and then make a turn into Rogers Hwy. Local police had been alerted by Blissfield state police of a stolen vehicle, which had been chased but lost in the Sutton Rd. and Blissfield Hwy. area.

Two Tecumseh officers quickly followed the pickup, turned on the cruisers' overhead lights at Blood Rd., only to have the vehicle speed south on Rogers.

Police report shows the chase involved speeds up to 95 mph and the pickup weaving from side to side, sometimes with lights off. A northbound state police officer on Rogers was forced off the road. He turned around and eventually apprehended the youth, but not until the pickup and the Tecumseh patrol car crashed into a ditch at the south end of Rogers at Rouget Rd., near Palmyra.

Neither the pickup nor cruiser made the turn at Rouget and plowed into a ditch

MOVING TO ARIZONA — Almina Hunt, right, is retiring after 19 years with The Herald and will soon live in Arizona. Sharon Baxter is taking over her duties. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

19 Years Is Enough!

By Jim Lincoln

After 19 years as bookkeeper, office manager, receptionist, proof reader, circulation manager and baker of cakes and goodies for office festivities, Almina Hunt is retiring from The Herald.

About the only work she missed was pouring "pigs" and running the press, when the newspaper was located on S. Evans St., and operating phototypesetting equipment and the press at The Herald's present location.

Only Lonal Bishop and the writer have been at the paper longer than Mrs. Hunt. Old timer Dorothy Grigg, society editor, retired a few years back after approximately 18 years with the newspaper.

Tom Riordan, co-publisher and editor at the time, and myself hired Almina way back when, and it was one of our better moves. Today, she knows more about The Herald and printing operations here than anyone else, including the publisher.

Although neither are old enough to retire, Almina and Bob Hunt have sold their farm on Murphy Hwy. and plan to move to Arizona next month. In the meantime, she's breaking in Sharon Baxter as office manager, proof reader, circulation manager, etc.

Best of luck, Almina - and Sharon!

City Buys Property for $17,000

In a 5-2 vote Monday night, Tecumseh City Council agreed to spend $17,000 to purchase property from Sam Beal of Tecumseh Ace Hardware to add to the city's northeast lot in the municipal parking system.

Council members Aden Mead and Jay Tressler cast the dissenting votes.

Prior to the roll call vote, Tressler questioned Council's wisdom to purchase property on the eve of a general election in which the voters would decide on three tax proposals, including one that could cut in half the city's revenue from property taxes.

"It's always going to be a bone of contention," said Council member Mary Bowers. "It's pretty much in an area there it isn't going to do anybody any good except the city of Tecumseh and I think we ought to own it."

The property the city purchased is virtually surrounded by city owned property.

Beal told Council in September that he would rather sell it to the city rather than lease it for $1 in exchange for being relieved of tax and insurance liabilities.

Without a lease or sale agreement, Beal would have been responsible to maintain and police the property himself.

The city of Tecumseh and Beal had appraisals made on the property. Allan C. Graybiel appraised the property for Beal at $15,000 if use is restricted to parking. Robert Camburn appraised the property for the city at $17,000. Both appraisers work for First Federal Savings.

City manager Cal Zorn said he felt $17,000 was a fair market price for the property, considering that the city has spent less for some property and $50,000 for the Tuckey property off Ottawa St., about twice the size of the Beal property in the same parking lot.

"It is not essential we have it, but yes, it would tidy up" the plans for the northeast parking lot, Zorn told Council.

"If we buy this, I think we should expect Don Smith (owner of Don's Beef Buffet and Contented Sole) and Ken-Ray (owner Don Dubrinsky) to come down and ask for the same," said Council member Carlton Cook.

Those business owners retain property directly behind their businesses. The city renewed a six-year lease agreement for the Ken-Ray parking property this fall.

Manager Zorn suggested that any money used from the city's general fund to purchase the Beal property be considered a loan from the city to the auto parking system and be paid back from parking system revenue available.

Prior to last year's purchase of the Tuckey property, the city subsidized the auto parking system purchases with "gifts" from the general fund.

Five Are Elected to Chamber Board

The Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce announced the directors elected to the Chamber Board.

They are: Roger Proctor, Don Dobrosky, Harvey Schmidt, Janet Fox and Nadine Seitz.

The other directors who will continue to serve through 1979 are: David Blanden, Opal Dickinson, Alan Beatty, John Damelio, Lincoln Lloyd, Henry Newlin and Marten Vegter.

OK Contracts

Contractural agreements between the schools and teachers and bus drivers were finalized Monday night when the school board approved contracts at a special meeting.

Tecumseh Education Association ratified its contract Wednesday night of last week by an 83 to 16 vote.

NICHOLS RE-ELECTED

4 Returned to Council; Underwood, Daly Lose

A medium to heavy vote was registered here Tuesday when nearly 60 percent of the city's 4,203 registered voters went to the polls. Vera Gardner, city clerk, reports 2,478 votes were cast.

All four council candidates were re-elected with Mary Bowers topping the others with 1,435 votes. Dr. Carlton Cook, Jay Tressler and James Palmer also were returned to city government.

Nancy Nichols, Democrat, defeated Republican challenger Janis Baker, 963 to 767, to represent the 6th District as County Commissioner. It will mark her third term.

Two local Democratic candidates lost, but not here in Tecumseh.

No Ambulance Service

Tecumseh has been without a local ambulance unit of Bennett's Ambulance since Nov. 3. However William Shelton, one of the four new partner-managers of Bennett's Ambulance told the Herald Wednesday morning, "We want to assure you that we're going to return Tecumseh to solid ambulance service within the next few days."

Shelton explained that the new managers are "looking at a Russell Rd. location in the city of Tecumseh and expect to know this afternoon (Wednesday)."

He said the change in Tecumseh was "due to unexpected loss of personnel," and that the new management is doing "everything in our power to relocate in Tecumseh."

Shelton said that William Norris of the Tecumseh office quit Nov. 3.

Shelton said that the Bennett Ambulance number for Tecumseh, 423-3000, is still operable and rings in to the central dispatch station in Monroe.

He stated that since there is not an ambulance ofice in Tecumseh, people may have to wait 10-15 minutes for service from Adrian instead of 4-5 minutes. If an ambulance is not available from the Adrian Bennett office, it will be dispatched from the Onsted or Dundee locations.

The new management, four employees of Navarre Ambulance in Monroe County, took over Oct. 15. They have assumed management of operation of Navarre Ambulance of Monroe and Bennett's Ambulance in Monroe and Lenawee Counties.

The new partners are William Shelton of Ann Arbor, Bernard Sieg of Erie, Thomas Calkins and David Kohler, both of Monroe.

The new Lenawee County manager of Bennett's Ambulance is Mark McCarty. He is working to upgrade personnel and equipment, said Shelton.

Another service in the county is EMT Ambulance.

City To Ask for Car Bids

Tecumseh City Council authorized City Manager Cal Zorn to take bids on an administrative car. It will replace one loaned to the police department after a police car was wrecked in a weekend car chase of a runaway youth.

The vote was 6-1 with Council member Jay Tressler casting the dissenting vote.

Presently the city has three administrative cars, one used by the manager, assistant manager and building inspector.

With one on loan to the police department, the three city officials would have to car pool the two cars.

"To me two cars are plenty for three people," said Council member Tressler.

Council member Harold Easton disagreed. "When we hired Paul, we agreed he would be furnished a car." Easton referred to the Assistant City Manager Paul Preston.

Council members Tressler and Len DeMoss did not recall the agreement.

"I don't think its fair to take away (Preston's) car now," said Council member Mary Bowers.

Council approved the action to seek bids for another administrative car.

Appointed to Commission

Council member Len DeMoss was appointed a delegate to the Liberty TV Cable, Inc. rate commission. The corporation is seeking a rate change.

Rates were last increased two years ago .50 cents a month for primary outlet and .25 cents more a month for additional outlet.

Emotional Stages for the Survivors

In her widely-read books on the subject of death-and-dying, noted psychiatrist Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross discusses from the point of view of the patient, the medical professionals and the families involved.

Her studies indicate that the stages of denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance of death are common to most terminally ill patients.

Some of these stages are common, too, with the survivors of the deceased. They, too, may experience a denial of the death of a loved one. They may also experience anger, depression and, finally, acceptance . . . and then begin rebuilding the pieces of family life without the deceased.

This adjustment period is of variable duration, depending on the person's psychological make-up. The widow (or widower) children, and relatives all interact and find strength in sharing each other's strong points, thus making the adjustment less difficult and prolonged.

For more information on how to cope with the stages to which we refer, stop by for suggested reading materials.

This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask questions privately or publicly through this newspaper.

This man made his funeral arrangements this morning...

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

With Thanksgiving right around the corner, here are two dessert suggestions to help plan your holiday menu.

Mary Ann Froelich sent this apple cake recipe. I baked it in a bundt pan and it was a pretty as well as a delicious dessert.

APPLE NUT CAKE

2 eggs
2 cups sugar
3 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
3 cups diced, peeled apples
1 cup chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla
TOPPING:
½ cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoon milk

In large bowl, combine salad oil, eggs and sugar and mix well. Sift together flour, soda and salt. Dredge apples and nuts with one cup flour mixture. Add remaining flour to sugar mixture and blend well. Add apples, nuts and vanilla. Batter will be thick. Spoon batter into greased and floured 10 inch tube pan.

Bake at 350 degrees for 1¼ hours. Cool for 30 minutes. Remove from pan and set upright. Combine brown sugar, margarine and milk for topping in saucepan. Boil for 2 or 3 minutes. Spread over warm cake.

Admission for nursery school members is free. Donations will be accepted from non-members.

Install System

Tecumseh City Council decided Monday night to consolidate its alarm system at the Fire Barn.

An increasing number of individual receivers was causing a space problem, similiar to the one the police station had with individual burglar alarms.

Assistant City Manager Paul Preston said he talked to each individual fire alarm user and each agreed to a one time hook-up fee of $75 and annual maintenance fee of $50 to install a more compact safety system.

Help Brochure

The city of Tecumseh will contribute an amount not to exceed $3,300 toward layout and printing costs for a civic brochure. City Council reached the decision Monday night.

The 16-page brochure would be used by the community as a promotional tool for its industrial park and the community as a whole.

The Chamber of Commerce has already raised $2,700 in subscriptions to help defray costs. No ads will be sold. Subscriptions were sought to cover cost.

City's contribution will come from $7,000 promotional material fund set aside for the development of the industrial park. To date, $2,800 has been spent, said Assistant City Manager Paul Preston.

Shows Makeup

Robert Soller, theater manager of the Croswell Opera House, Adrian, will present a program on theatrical makeup for the Tecumseh Players general meeting Nov. 14, 8 p.m. at the First United Presbyterian Church, 211 W. Chicago Blvd. downstairs fellowship hall.

This is a change of location for the meeting.

Board meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. and the general meeting at 8 p.m. Public is invited.

there. Local police car was totalled in the wreck and both Maurey and Pizana suffered minor injuries.

The 15-year-old suffered a cut forehead.

Two accidents on city streets here the past week were minor, but both drivers were cited.

Last Wednesday, Mary C. Lapham, 16, of 6780 Grove Court, was charged with failure to yield after a mishap with Douglas L. Kelto, 20, Adrian, on S. Evans at Russell.

Saturday, Patrick J. Keys, 16, of 2817 Coachlite Dr., was cited for defective brakes when he attempted to stop and struck a parked vehicle at Heeman's Market. Other vehicle is owned by Clement R. Laerriere of Tipton.

Drive Shy of 50%

Donations to the Tecumseh Community Fund have reached only 46 percent of the $89,900 goal in the fourth week of the drive, according to Roger Proctor, assistant drive chairman.

The latest figures show that the professional division is again lagging with only 44.6 percent of its goal achieved. Commercial division is also shy of its goal reporting 58.5 percent of its goal achieved.

While the industrial division reported 49.3 of its goal, reports thus far indicate that the division will approach its 1978-79 drive goal.

School division on the other hand is only $465 from its goal with 89.2 percent achieved.

Here are the division percentages for the week ending Nov. 3:

Division	% of Goal
Industrial	49.3%	Professional	44.6%
Special Gifts	10.6%	Residential	68.3%
Commercial	58.5%	Public Employees	60%
Schools	89.2%	Total	46.3%

Sayler Bumps Lovett

Raisin Township voters elected a Democratic treasurer to serve on its Republican board and approved the Charter Township proposal in Tuesday's general election.

Lynette Sayler received 907 votes to Republican Gretchen Lovett's 614. Sayler won over the incumbent deputy treasurer Lovett by 293 votes.

The Charter Township proposal was approved with 645 'yes' votes to 511 'no' votes. This measure will prevent Raisin Township from being annexed without township approval. It will also give the township power to levy up to 5 mills for operation.

Sixty percent of Raisin Township's 2,409 voters turned out for the election, according to the unofficial voting tally.

In Ridgeway township 60 percent of the 896 voters turned out to elect Jim Shiels Republican treasurer with 283 votes. Linda Rohrback Democrat challenger lost by 70 votes.

In the District 3 County Commissioner race (includes Franklin Township) incumbent Republican Ronald Brown beat Democrat challenger Ceila (Linda) Kissner, 1,141 to 958 respectively.

Strack Recalls Holy Land Tour

The Rev. Kenneth Strack of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church participated in an archaeological excavation in Israel this summer.

One of the purposes of the dig was to provide broader insights into the geographical areas and historic sites where Christ ministered. The second was to learn more about the places mentioned in Scriptures via tours across the Holy Land.

The four week archaeological dig at Tel Michal on the Mediterranean, seven miles west of Tel Aviv, Israel, involved 48 seminary professors, students and ministers under the auspices of Tel Aviv University Institute of Archaeology with the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Minnesota, Bringham Young University and Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary.

In one the three metered square area on the dig, a four handled vessel, circa 100 B.C. was found. Strack found a vessel handle with seal of a king on a throne. Also during the dig, a wine press, the largest uncovered in Israel, was found.

Scientific procedures are used in the archaeological work. Areas are platted and then assigned for painstaking digging, level by level. Anything found is recorded as to position, sorted into buckets then washed and identified by other crews. Strack noted even a scientific study such as archaeology has its limitations. Epocs are subjectively assigned by scientists.

The groups worked from 5 a.m. to 1 p.m. weekdays. Evening lectures on some phase of Eastern Mediterranean history, archaeology or geography were given by specialists from Tel Aviv University.

Tours of the Holy Land enabled the group to see the "nooks and crannies". The group criss-crossed Israel traveling north to the Golan Heights and south to Be'er Sheva, west to En Gedi, an oasis on the Dead Sea, and back to Tel Aviv on the Mediterranean.

Old Jerusalem with its ancient city walls and narrow streets, was one of Strack's favorite spots. Three faiths, Christian, Moslem and Jewish, trace their roots to the city. One of the most fascinating sites for Strack was a courtyard, marked as Pilate's, where a Roman soldier's name was found carved in the rocks.

The stark beauty of the Dead Sea contrasted with the semi-tropical climate of other areas were also interesting to Strack.

"Christian faith doesn't depend on seeing the Holy Land but on what the word of God has to say," Strack summarized his feelings about the experience.

Besides the inconveniences of camping, diet was another adjustment for some of the travelers. Beef is rare in the diet. Poultry, fish and soy meat are common. Fruits for dessert, breakfast and snacks were plentiful. Vegetables ar eaten even for breakfast. All the food is Kosher.

Strack is working toward eight credits in the masters of sacred theology program, four credits from Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary Mequon, Wisc. and four credits from Tel Aviv University.

Plans Donation Day

The newly installed officers of Tecumseh Chapter #51, Order of the Eastern Star, held their first meeting Thursday evening with Mary VanValkenburg, worthy matron, presiding.

The installation of those not installed Oct. 21 was conducted by Nan Busato of Cambridge Chapter, Onsted. Those installed were Olive Ann Ruettinger, Electra; Vera Driscoll, organist and Dean Moore, American flag bearer.

The altar was draped in memoriam for Florence Ryckman, past grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of the Eastern Star.

A life membership was granted to Berniece Duncan and Alice Nelson.

Announcements included a school of instruction for Tecumseh Chapter to be held Dec. 5 at 7:30 p.m. A practice for this event will be Nov. 30 at 8 p.m. Also the annual matron's alumni meeting to be held Nov. 16 at Masonic Temple in Adrian, beginning with a 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Members were advised that Tecumseh chapter will participate in a donation day at the local A&P store Dec. 13 and were reminded to alert the check-out person of their affiliation.

In observance of Thanksgiving, several officers conducted a short program at the altar, emphasizing the theme with symbols of the harvest season.

Next meeting of the chapter Dec. 7 will begin with a 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Liddell and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Linger.

Rev. Case Joins Britton Church

BRITTON — The Rev. Richard Case has recently been called to the Britton Congregational Christian Church. The pastor and his family will arrive this week and begin with his first service Nov. 12 at 10 a.m.

His wife, Janet, has been a managing-editor of her own newspaper and they have three high-schoolers, Douglas, Jim and Debbie.

A native Pennsylvanian, he has served the church since 1962 when he left Madison Avenue and the public relations field to serve as a missionary in Kentucky.

He has served churches in Oregon, Maine, New York, Kansas, and is presently serving in Wisconsin. He received his formal education at Penn State and Lafayette College along with Theological studies at Boston University and St. Paul School of Theology.

During his years in the ministry he found his niche in youth work and in the area of public relations. In 1964 he began to pen a column "The Pastors Study" which was later syndicated, in 1965 a television program was aired from Portland, Maine, under the same title.

In 1968 a book entitled "I Dare Say" was written by the pastor. Since that time he has done much radio broadcasting and writing and is currently writing a column along with a new book.

The Rev. Case sees a need in the world for man to become more involved in religion, but at the same time he feels that men of faith should become more involved with the world if we are going to affect any change in man.

Pastor Case has served as chaplain for the Shrine Temple in Kansas and Pennsylvania and is chaplain of "The Musky Shrine Club" in Wisconsin.

Clinton Finishes 15th in State

Clinton Cross Country team finished its season with a 15th place finish in the State Class C Meet Saturday. The Redskins were 10th in the state last year, but Saturday was not one of the team's better performances.

Clinton was led by Matt Peters who finished 29th out of over 140 runners. Peters ran the 3.2 mile course in 17:31 Tom Nighswander finished a fine year by finishing 51st in 17:55.

Devin Schindler was 74th in 18:15. Ken Caligiuri was 78th in 18:18, and Mark Prichard finished out the scoring by finishing 95th in 18:40. Other finishers were Matt McNeil 101st and Wes Fuller 105th.

Wyoming Lee won the state championship. The Redskins finished with a 6-1 record, and LCAA Championship, a Hillsdale College Invitational Championship, and they were runners-up in the Hudson Invitational.

Clinton loses Peters, Prichard and Schindler to graduation. Returnees will be junior Tom Nighswander, sophomore Matt McNeil and freshmen Wes Fuller and Ken Caligiuri.

LAST GAME — Senior John Ely attempts to break a tackle against Adrian for extra yardage. Friday's match was the last for Ely and 16 other THS seniors as Tecumseh closed out their season at 3-6.

Redskins Blank Bobcats

The Clinton Redskins may have lost and tied their last two games against six earlier wins, but you couldn't stop them Friday night as they rolled for 33 points against the Whiteford Bobcats.

It was an especially good game to end with as the Clinton footballers blanked the Bobcats and many different players played good football.

Mike Karapas ran for 55 yards and Jeff Porterfield was right behind with 49. Defensively Andy Hoag and Ken Semanske had good games with seven tackles each. Porterfield had one interception.

Clinton scored twice in both the first and second quarters and Kevin Cymes kicked a 23 yard field goal in the final period to round out the scoring at 33.

Karapas scored twice for the Redskins. He ran five yards for a score in the first period and caught a 32 yard pass from quarterback Terry Carlton in the second frame. Porterfield and Carlton scored the other two TD's, both on two yard runs.

Statistically, Clinton and Whiteford each had seven first downs. Clinton had 136 yards rushing to the Bobcats' 91. CHS hit six for 13 passes for 49 yards and Whiteford was one for nine for five yards.

Jeff Osterhout - Rushes 290 Yards

If last Friday was "Greg Borton night" in Tecumseh, this Friday was certainly Jeff Osterhout night in Britton. Osterhout rushed for 290 yards and four touchdowns against North Adams as the Tories knocked off the home team 26-20 in their last game of the season.

Osterhout got the Britton visitors on the boards first with a four yard scoring run and then added the two point conversion. In the second frame, Osterhout scored again as he broke for open field and scored from 74 yards out.

North Adams then came battling back late in the quarter and scored six on an eight yard run and then they added another touchdown in the beginning of the third frame. Ron Redding was responsible for the Adams scores.

The Tories then had a two point lead when Osterhout slipped through the Adams defense for a 22 yard score. Again in the fourth quarter, Osterhout hit paydirt, this time from 72 yards out.

North Adams picked up their last score late in the final frame on a seven yard run. Their two point conversion left the score at 26-20.

The Tories had 355 yards rushing against Adam's 290 and each had 14 downs. Defensively, Terry Benedict, Chris Kimerer and Dave Bruce had very good nights for the Britton team.

Britton Loses to Whitmore

Janene Schultz led Britton with 17 points against Whitmore Lake Thursday, but that was not enough as Britton dropped the game 58-43.

The Tories connected with only six shots in the first eight minutes of the game and trailed 15-5. Despite high scoring from Schultz and 14 points from Jodi Smith, Britton never really threatened.

The Tories managed only 31 percent from the floor while Whitmore Lake hit on 41 percent of their shots. Britton's record now stands at 9-6 overall and 5-4 in the league.

Shoots Buck

Wayne Lee, 231 E. Cummins, shot a 10 point buck deer with a bow and arrow recently in Lewiston.

It was the first buck he took with a bow and arrow. He works at the Tecumseh Products Company.

Adrian Beats THS in Defensive Battle

The Tecumseh Indians lost to rival Adrian High Friday night, but not until they put together one of their best defensive struggles of the year. The Indians dropped the game 12-0.

Tecumseh did not threaten in the first half, but Adrian scored once and threatened another time. First, midway in the second quarter, Adrian quarterback Scott McNitt hit Steve Knorr with a little pass over the middle and Knorr outraced his would-be tacklers for 56 yards for the score.

The Indians then had a chance to move the ball offensively midway through the third frame when Andy Geshwiler recovered a Maple fumble on the Adrian 35 yard line. The Indians could not move the ball and returned it four plays later.

Adrian then finished out the scoring on the second play of the fourth quarter. Sophomore quarterback Tim Todd attempted a screen pass for the Indians but his receiver fell and Ed Canasos was left waiting for the interception for Adrian.

Cavasos caught the ball at the Adrian 40, broke one tackle and nearly reached the goal line before a Tecumseh tackler took him down at the five. Adrian scored, but it took the Maples four plays.

Tecumseh then posed its first real threat when John Ely took a reverse on the kick and returned it 43 yards to the Adrian 44. Todd then connected on three of four passes, all to Greg Borton to give the Indians second and four at the Adrian 19 yard line. Passes were 14, 14, and six yards.

Todd was then sacked for the sixth time, this one for a 12 yard loss. Todd next completed a five yard toss to Scott Hans. Todd could not connect with Borton in the end zone on fourth down and Tecumseh turned the ball over to the Maples. Adrian then outran the clock.

Tecumseh managed just 40 yards offensive while Adrian had 181 yards on the ground and 79 through the air. Indians had four first downs to Adrian's 13.

Defensively, Jon Betzoldt and Dave Render led the Indians with 25 combined tackles.

Redskins Lose League Title Thriller, 50-49

The Clinton Redskin girls basketball team, seeking its third straight LCAA basketball championship, was stopped by Addison in a very thrilling game Thursday 50-49. Addison remained undefeated (12-0) and claimed their first LCAA girls basketball crown.

The Redskins started strong with a 17-12 first quarter lead. Each team scored 14 points during the second quarter and at halftime Clinton led 31 to 26.

Addison switched to a tough man to man defense and held Clinton to just 18 points in the second half. With just over a minute left in the game the score was tied at 47 each.

Addisons fine guard, Teresa Nieto, scored to put the Panthers ahead 49-47 and then added a free throw before Clinton scored at the buzzer to make the final score Addison 50 - Clinton 49. Nieto was almost impossible to stop as she threw in 27 points.

Senior Sue Richter led the Redskins with 17 points while juniors Barb Winder and Kris Pratt played very well. Winder scored 16 points and had 17 rebounds.

Against Manchester last Tuesday, the girls exploded for a 37-20 halftime lead and coasted to their 12th victory of the year 64-52.

Clinton's full court press and fast break broke the game open during the second quarter. Richter scored 20 points and had eight assists while Lisa Cark had 18 points and 10 rebounds.

The girls overall record now stands at 12-2 with four games left to play. The last home game before the district tournament starts is against Hudson Thursday.

The Hudson game is also parents night and the last home game for four seniors.

Banda 24th for Tecumseh

Brian Banda, Jesse Castorena and Anne Smoke very ably represented the Tecumseh High School cross country teams this Saturday as they traveled to Haslett to compete in the state meet.

Banda finished highest among the local runners with a 17:30 time. He ran 24th. Castorena was 51st at 18:07. For the girls, Smoke placed 70th at 22:37.

Although the three runners did not run as well as they had hoped, they ran well on a long three mile plus course. Both the Class B girls and boys teams had 80 runners competiting.

Besides Castorena and Banda, THS's top two runners, the Indians will be without the services of three other senior runners in '79. They are Chris Sullivan, Kent Norris and Kirk Oliver.

THS Accepted Into SEC League

Tecumseh High School was accepted into the SEC(South Eastern Conference) this past week and will be joining Saline, Milan, Chelsea, Lincoln, Dexter, and Jackson Co. Western for fall sports in 1980.

Athletic director Don Brazee explained that the move is purely for geographic purposes with THS now competing with schools much closer than their Huron League competitors. Brazee also explained that the new league is strong, competitive and the schools have very good athletic programs.

The SEC will lose three schools, Brighton, Novi and S. Lyon to an Oakland Co. league beginning with fall sports, 1979. Jackson Co. Western is joining the league at the same time. Tecumseh applied in November of '77 for an SEC opening and will start after giving the Huron League proper withdrawal notice.

Tecumseh's Indians began competition in the Huron League in 1959 and will celebrate 21 years with the Huron teams before leaving.

Girls Are 9-7

The Tecumseh High School girls basketball team played one of their worst games of the year this week against unbeaten Monroe St. Mary and then played one of their best Tuesday against Airport.

Tuesday, Gloria Fosbender, Sandy MacGeorge and Kris McDonald had 13, 11, and 10 points respectively to lead Tecumseh to a 43-37 victory over Airport. Last time the two teams met, THS was edged by just one point.

Tecumseh's girls were down six in that game in the first quarter and then battled back to a one point lead at half, 17-16.

The Indians then put their defense together in superb form as they battled back and forth in the third frame and held Airport to just three points in the fourth quarter. THS, on the other hand, took their shots on offense and sunk 13 points.

The Indians hit 43 percent from the floor and out rebounded the Airport team.

Last Thursday was an entirely different story, an unpleasant one for the team, as they met unbeaten St. Mary and lost 49-30.

The Indians could sink just one basket the first frame and never threatened after the first few minutes of the game.

Fosbender was high with 10 points while McDonald had eight.

The girls are now 9-7 overall and 7-4 in the league.

Freshmen Finish at 5-2-1

Tecumseh's freshman football team completed their 5-2-1 season last Wednesday night with an 18-0 win over Chelsea.

The young Inidans put forth many tremendous efforts this year as they faced five Class A schools in an eight game schedule.

They handled Christi, Adrian, and Ann Arbor Scarlet with 8-0 wins, and Toledo with a 14-0 win. Their losing games went to Bedford and Monroe CC with scores of 14 and 12-0.

Their 8-8 tie was against Ann Arbor Clague.

The freshmen team is coached by Ted Todd and Raymond Schmidt.

Clinton JV's Win

The Clinton JV football team finished the season with a 37-12 win over Whiteford on Thursday.

This gives the JV's four wins in a row, and they finish the year with four wins and five losses.

Sisters Laura (l) and Andrea (r) will travel to Hawaii. John Damelio of Chamber drawing congratulates them. Winner's ticket was purchased at August Co.

Birthday Ticket Wins Big

For her sister Andrea Tarr's 15th birthday, Laura Galloway, 16, bought her sister a trip for two to Hawaii for the price of a ticket in the Tecumseh Area Chamber drawing held Oct. 31.

Laura wrapped up the ticket she purchased at the August Company and told her sister, "Here's your trip to Hawaii. But if you win, I go, too."

The girls are daughters of John and Madeline Townsend, 316 Wildwood Circle.

Ever since she was eight years old, Andrea has saved her spending cash for a trip to Hawaii. She never dreamed that the ticket her sister wrapped in a box and presented her on her Oct. 7 birthday would turn out to be the winning ticket three weeks later.

"I thought with all my luck, I wouldn't win anything. Or maybe I'd just win the microwave oven," said Andrea.

When the Chamber of Commerce called her with the news she said, "I just started screaming. You know like those people on the Price is Right. I started jumping up and down on the bed."

When Laura got home, Andrea and her sister were so excited, Laura was afraid something drastic had happened.

"They told me 'Laura, you'll never guess what happened. You'll never guess. Mom and dad weren't home and we didn't know what to do.' I kept asking them 'What happened'. I couldn't stand it. Finally they told me, Andrea won the trip to Hawaii," Laura recalled.

The family is now busy arranging the trip for the two girls who made a sister pact.

The girls will be chaperoned, probably by their parents. "She's had a lot of volunteers," said Mrs. Townsend. Even her grandfather in Kentucky has reminded Andrea he is available to make the trip.

Ann Cox of Adrian won the microwave oven and Joyce Hopson of Tecumseh won the canoe in the Chamber of Commerce drawing.

Bidwell Attracts Many Businesses

The Bidwell Exchange building, at the corner of S. Evans and W. Chicago Blvd., recently recycled by preservationist Don E. Limpert of Manchester, has enabled some first timers an opportunity to test-try their merchandising dreams and some established business people an opportunity to expand.

An example of the new business owners are Helen Brablec, 9365 Sutton Rd. and Sharon Schultz of Tecumseh. They co-own "In-Things", a decorating boutique.

"We've been friends since third grade," said Helen. "Our tastes and ideas are pretty much alike. We were both surprised when we found out that we were thinking of opening a business."

They pooled their resources, made some trips to Chicago and Detroit suppliers and opened their store which features unique home decorating items.

Baskets and wicker, which are particularly "in" this season, adorn their shop from ceiling to floor.

One of the more unusual baskets are a pair of "eel traps" used in India but more practical as ornaments in the United States.

Helen and her husband, Barry, have two children, Donnie, 8, and Kristie, 2.

Sharon and husband, Mike, have two daughters, Kim, 10, and Angela, 8.

An Onsted couple, Bob and Jan Clevenger, found that preparing for their first retail venture tested their sense of humor. So at 2 a.m. one morning, Jan announced she felt more like the "Nutty Gourmet" than the "natural" gourmet, hence the shop name was christened.

They decided to open a business while sitting on a Florida beach. "We've been interested in nutrition for a long time," Jan explained. "We had to travel to Ann Arbor for the foods that we now offer in the store." Kitchen gifts and accessories are also offered.

"Tecumseh and Manchester have been our favorite towns. I really like it (in Tecumseh)," she talked about their site selection. "The Bidwell Exchange is just perfect." She is involved in nursing and he is employed at Pepsi Bottling in Milan.

Sandra Stobbe, owner of the Village Hair Forum, opened her second shop in Bidwell Exchange at the suggestion of Limpert. She opened her Manchester shop in February.

A hairdresser for 14 years, Tecumseh is her third location. She worked in the Northville-Plymouth area prior to settling here.

The antique decor includes three antique barbers' chairs and wall papered with Stobbe's Life and Look magazine cover collection.

She plans a "fast service" salon with no appointment necessary.

The Gallery seemed a natural extension of Pat's Craft Studio, Tecumseh's Pat Seay owner. Art by local artisans, will be offered on consignment basis. Frames are sold too. Some of the artists currently displaying works are Russell Steinke of Tecumseh (oil painting), Norma Thomas of Onsted (pottery, water colors) and Evel (oil painting).

Sally Kennedy, student and instructor of Pat Seay's is now manager of the new shop. She resides at 8976 Clinton-Macon Road. She and husband Allen, have two children, Shana, 10 and Chris, 8.

Jo Ann Cooley, Tecumseh dance instructor for several years, now has her own studio in the Bidwell Exchange.

Called the Tecumseh Dance Workshop, she offers classes in beginning, intermediate and advanced ballet, modern and jazz for students and adults.

Mrs. Cooley has been an instructor at area colleges as well.

Fabulous . . . that's the view from the Golden Gate. Linking Oakland and San Francisco, the majestic sight of this famous bridge has thrilled the hearts of weary travellers, inspiring all with its promise of new opportunity.

Catching the morning sun or the evening twilight, the Golden Gate whispers its own welcome to those who near its watch. "Welcome to my beautiful city," or "Come again, old friend," it sighs. It seems to know and understand the problems of each human heart, and like a true friend, it is always there for all to share its strength and beauty.

There is another bridge of inspiration and truth where burdens may be lightened and courage renewed. People everywhere have drawn from its stabilizing influence, and you, too, will always be welcome within the fellowship of the Church. Find out for yourself this week.

Governor Milliken Pays Surprise Visit to Local Products

Gov. William Milliken paid the Tecumseh Products a surprise visit Monday of last week when he dropped in while campaigning for re-election.

Many company officials did not learn that the state's top official would be here until Saturday, and some not until Monday.

The governor and his party landed at the Products airport Monday morning and then proceeded to the plant, where he visited and toured some of the company's facilities, including the white room and machine shop.

His comments praised Tecumseh as a "clean community." He also remarked what a fine production work force the Tecumseh Products boasts.

Voters re-elected him as Michigan's governor at Tuesday's election.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

It was a perfect Indian Summer day. The temperature warm and the sky blue, the autumn colors were at their peak and the sun shone brightly. However, as I watched the extremely busy bird feeders, it was impossible to suppress a slight chill.

The hustle and bustle of the hungry birds was fun to see but it was a cold weather kind of activity and some of the birds were cold weather type birds. There was simply no getting around the fact that what I was watching was an all too realistic preview of winter.

The two little tufted titmice caught my attention first. They are always such trim and slick birds, never a feather out of place, that anytime they are an asset.

This day they were particularly welcome for I had not seen much of them all summer and fall. Occasionally one dropped in for a quick snack but during the cold weather months they will be every day regulars. And it was an every day regulars that this twosome was eating.

All day long they kept flying in for "refueling". Sunflower seeds and cracked corn seemed to be at the top of their list. As they searched for the tastiest tidbit, I had more than ample time to look and enjoy.

Charming 5½ inch long birds, an all over gray in color with, of course, their backs being darker than their fronts. Under their wings was a russet cast, they had cocky little topknots, black feet and legs, and small but sharply pointed black bills.

They also had black eyes which seemed large for such small birds. Handsome to see and extremely nice to have around.

Also nice to have around and also extremely pretty were the chickadees who joined the tufted titmice in a day long orgy of feasting from the near-my-window feeders.

There were two chickadees and again like the titmice, they sometimes dined together but, as often as not, freeloaded one to a tray. Chickadees and titmice are pals and on rare occasions all four were picking up sunflower seeds together.

When the bluejays zoomed to the feeders everyone else left. Sometimes it seemed that these big bullies came just to scatter the other birds.

Usually while there though they grabbed a bite or two and often it was more than two. It is amazing how many sun flower seeds a blue jay can gulp into his crop to carry away.

Mom and I laughed at one greedy jay who was actually chugging, and we could see him swallowing in order to make room for just one more seed. We counted six and he had packed away some before we started keeping track.

Several times during the day there were familiar chirping sounds coming from the yews between the feeders and the house. No question at all — cardinals. That characteristic chirping they make when eating is unmistakable.

Sometimes one of the birds worked its way up through the bushes to the food trays — I watched both male and female chomp on sunflower seeds — but usually they were content to stay out of my sight and feast on the leftovers which had been spilled from the feeders.

The most wintery birds of this beautiful Indian Summer day were the juncos. A whole flock had moved in a week or so before. Lovely birds but oh, how their black and gray does remind one of winter.

As they flitted away their white outer tail feathers were almost sassy. And the large fox squirrels also seemed to have a message for me. When they sat hunched over mountains of freshly put out food, I could not help but notice that their fur coats were getting thick and heavy and warm.

Yes, perfect Indian Summer day that it was, I still shivered — the activity at the near-my-window feeders said all too clearly, "Enjoy today, Marda, snow and cold are on the way!"

Donate 69 Pints

CLINTON — Sixty-nine pints of blood were donated at the recent Bloodmobile held in Clinton, the Clinton Area Jaycee reported Monday night.

Special recognition was made of the Budd Co. record of 75 percent of the donors participating. Harold Hunt was Bloodmobile project chairman.

Ed Thompson reported on the Fall Festival proceeds with $1,400 raised from the pig roast and $436 from the sale of festival drawing tickets. The Jaycees appreciate the donations from ticket sales by some individuals.

Christmas coloring books, supplied by the Jaycees, will benefit the Clinton Boy Scouts who will sell them in the community.

Russ Pichlik, math coordinator at the Clinton Schools demonstrated a learning-aid computer, owned by Lenawee Vo-Tech, which is a prototype of one the Jaycees are considering purchasing for use in the elementary schools.

Other computers will be considered before a decision is made. Steven Bowman and Steve Thurber are in charge of this project.

Jaycees voted $50 to be used for equipment in the kindergarten rooms.

CLINTON —Harold Davis was re-elected president of the Shamrock Senior Citizens at a recent meeting.

Others elected are: Helen Hendershot, vice-president; Mary Williams, treasurer, and new board members are Viola Hertler, Ernest Scheytt and Lillie Settles.

Meeting Nov. 9 will begin at 10 a.m. and will include a luncheon featuring homemade soup.

Program will be "School Days in the Past," with members asked to bring mementos of their school days.

Rudy Improved

CLINTON — Rudy Weirich, one of the Redskins outstanding players this fall, and a senior, is reported improving in intensive care at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Request Fire Lane Extended

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board instructed its clerk to request that the Clinton Village Council extend the fire lane "no parking" ruling to include the west side of Jackson St., across from the entrance to the fire barn.

Fire trucks have difficulty in maneuvering out of the building to avoid parked cars.

A new fire truck is expected to be delivered at the end of the month, and it will be even longer than the present vehicles.

Board voted to transfer $2,000 from the general fund to the Clinton Riverside Cemetery Board.

Approval was voted for $7,500 in building permits reported by building inspector, Charles Wilson.

Board voted to lower the bond for constable to $1,000.

Trustee James Meeks reported on the recent Fire Board meeting.

Quiz Experts on Insulation

"Everything you ever wanted to know" – About keeping the old homestead snug and warm this winter will be the topic of a free public seminar Nov. 14, 8 p.m., in the Community Room of the Tecumseh Public Library, 215 N. Ottawa, sponsored by the Tecumseh Area Historical Society.

A panel of three experts in the insulation and energy conservation field will address problems and offer advice to owners of older homes.

A question and answer session will follow.

Jake Schamberger from the Consumers Power Company will cover general energy conservation tips aside from insulation installation that will aid the homeowner in keeping the warm air in and cold air out and at the same time lower energy consumption bills.

Robert Sellers from Four Seasons Insulation is a RAPCO foam representative, along with his discussion of this type of insulation he will present information on fireplaces and stoves used for heating purposes.

To round out our panel, Tom Vern of Community Insulation will share his thoughts on cellulose insulation.

Vern also handles replacement sashes and will discuss several types, especially suited to the older home.

Dolls Made With Love

A little girl's "best friend" is her doll. "Best friends" are worth the time and fuss it takes to make everything perfect.

That's the philosophy Opal Davis, 416½ N. Evans, uses whenever she makes a doll. Since the late 60's she has made a number of the Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls and an assortment of different bed dolls and novelty dolls of all shapes and sizes.

"Bed dolls", used for bedroom ornaments are still popular with some teenagers today. But Mrs. Davis makes all her dolls washable, from durable cotton prints that would survive all the love a younger child could muster.

One of the most unusual doll patterns is Lanky Lou. This 24 inch doll is all arms and legs. Mrs. Davis nicknamed her "Ugly". Despite her gangliness, Lou has a special appeal similar to the Muppets dolls.

Brunette Bess, a 21 inch doll, is a proper and prim miss with eyelet apron, pastel print dress and round mouth drawn in surprise.

There's even a pattern for boys and bigger kids. Mrs. Davis' 12 inch Charlie Brown, is a huggable version of the Charles Schultz cartoon hero. Gloria Vanderbilt in gingham pink and white is especially attractive.

The firmness of the dolls, the durable cotton fabrics carefully sewn are the distinguishing qualities of Mrs. Davis' work.

She does not mass produce them. Each doll is patiently completed, right down to the detail of hair waves and embroidered faces before she starts the next.

"When I take the notion, I sit down and make them," said Mrs. Davis. She admitted she is not much of a salesman once the dolls are finished. Instead she sews the dolls for personal satisfaction and an occasional order.

She is interested in finding more patterns for old-fashioned bed dolls. One pair she particularly likes in her own collection are the Bobbsey twins.

The hobby has put her in some amusing situations. While on a shopping trip to find some notions, she came across a pair of rubber horn-rimmed glasses. Pondering the purchase she said aloud, "Well, I think these will fit my grandmother (doll)."

The salesman turned his head and asked, "How old is your grandmother?"

Seek Park Lot

Tecumseh Printers told Council. "It (the corner lot) does limit future growth." Hamblin suggested "in general terms, expansion to 30,000 sq. ft. total floor space."

Council member Harold Easton commented, "If that's the lot the man wants, sell it to him."

"I don't think it's cut and dried," countered Council member Jay Tressler. "Let's try and sell it in an orderly fashion. We're new at this game. I think we ought to give it more consideration."

Mayor Aden Mead asked Hamblin if it was the desired lot or nothing. "No, I wouldn't say that," Hamblin stated. "We're presenting a plan and we'll consider your decision."

Terms proposed by the Tecumseh Printers include a six month option at $1,000 to be applied to the purchase price. Total purchase price offered for 2.54 acres less 10 percent saved on realtor's commission was $11,430.

This offer is $1,270 less the city's asking price of $12,700 for a 2.54 acre lot, or $5,000 per acre including 10 percent realtor's commission.

City attorney Greg Forsthoefel warned Council that passing along the 10 percent realtor's commission as a discount to the independent property buyer "would discourage any realtor from taking an interest in this park."

Council previously agreed to pay a realtor's commission for sale of city industrial park property, but no policy was made on discounts given on prior sales transacted without a realtor.

"I can see his rationale, but I don't think that we should start deducting the 10 percent now," said Council member Len DeMoss. "I think (we're asking) a reasonable price now."

Council concurred unanimously.

PONY EXPRESS DRIVE — Route Rider Norman Jolliff, mounted on a horse, leans down to receive a saddlebag from station agent Harry Stanifer.

Breakfast Signals Start of 'Run'

A "trail boss" breakfast and worship service Sunday, Nov. 12 will signal the start of a Pony Express "run" at Tecumseh United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Allan Gray, pastor, said he expects 30 members filling the roles of trail bosses and station agents to be on hand for the breakfast briefing.

Church families on the Pony Express run will be relaying stewardship saddlebags to gather "estimate of giving" cards.

Gene Cooley, general manager of the stewardship campaign, will hand out the saddlebags and run route lists at the breakfast. A relay of the saddlebags among church members will begin immediately after morning worship, he said.

Each saddlebag bears the names of 10 church families. A family fills in a giving estimate card, seals it in an envelope and inserts it in the saddlebag pouch and then hand-carries the saddlebag to another of the families on the route.

Station agents are: Don Judd, Doris Kronbert, Bill Davis, Mike Krueger and Harry Stanifer.

Trail bosses are: Brenda Waltems, Bob Meads, Ginger Meikle, Paul Williams, John VanOrsdol, Bob Wood, Warren Peck, Ken Wright, Allen Snyder, Chuck Williams, Gerry Greene.

Charley Reppert, John Frazier, Bob Mil r, Roy Leinaar, Mary Lou Ford, Rosemary Poley, Beth Hatch, Joyce Jubenville, Lila Davis, Jane Clark, Rosemary Walsh, Kelly Garvin, Polly Judd, and Eva Work are also trail bosses.

Examines Department Recommendations

Tecumseh City Council examined Monday night the seven recommendations of the Department of Natural Resources on the operation and maintenance of the Wastewater Treatment Plant. City received an acceptable rating.

The prime recommendation of concern to the city was to increase plant staffing hours from eight to 12 hours per day weekdays and from four hours to eight on holidays and weekends. This would require hiring another person.

Other recommendations listed as minor were more analysis and monitoring of certain industrial wastes and analysis and reporting on heavy metals in raw sewage and final effluent and digested sludge.

Future soil analysis and installation of additional water system and power outage alarms was suggested, the latter with signals transmitted to the sheriff's department.

Members of the Service Employe International Union, Local 79 at Herrick Memorial Hospital rejected a contract Tuesday, said Hospital Administrator William Groover.

The SEIU represents a total of 123 Herrick Hospital employes, 43 part-time and 80 full time employes including maintenance, laundry, nurses aides, dietary, X-ray aides, orderlies, surgical aides, housekeepers and janitors.

Local 79 has been working under the old contract which expired Oct. 29.

Lonnie Stone, SEIU business representative from Lansing, is the professional negotiator for Local 79 of the SEIU — AFL-CIO. Three Local 79 employes also sit in on the negotiations.

Census Is Part of 'M' Survey Here

Recently the Board of Education authorized the conducting of a comprehensive survey of the Tecumseh School District.

This study is being conducted and coordinated by the Bureau of School Services from the University of Michigan. In addition to an indepth review of the school buildings, the instructional program and curriculum content, the study will include a complete census and a current demographic analysis of the school district.

Census enumerators will contact each dwelling in the school district between Nov. 13 and Dec. 8 to gather the necessary data for the survey.

Cooperation of the residents, when the enumerators identify themselves, will be greatly appreciated.

Plan Service on Nov. 22

Annual community Thanksgiving service will be held Nov. 22 at 7:30 p.m. in St. Peter's Church, 313 N. Evans St.

The speaker will be the Rev. Raymond Scribner, pastor of the Tipton Community Church.

The children's choir of St. Peter's Church and the choir of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church will sing.

Tecumsehites of all religious faiths are invited to attend and participate in this annual religious service to celebrate this national holiday of thanks.

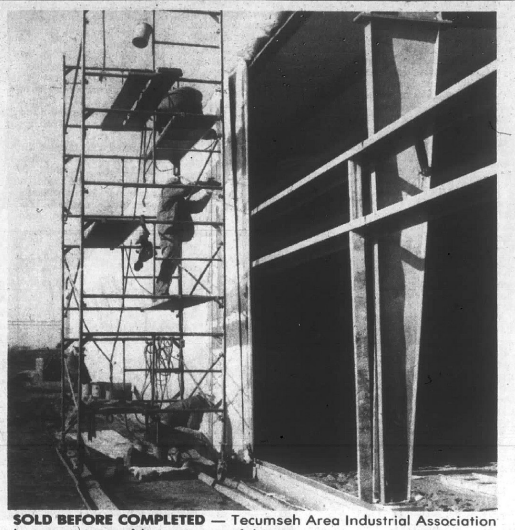
Directors OK Bank Design

Final approval of the exterior design of a new main office for the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh has been made by the bank's board.

Major change from the original plan is that more glass will be used in the front of the building, which will be located at 205 E. Chicago Blvd., a site formerly occupied by Vesbio's.

According to the bank's architects, Daniels and Zermack of Ann Arbor, working drawings for the main office will be completed in time so that bids may be opened in January. Construction is expected to start next spring.

Bids for a new branch office at 209 E. Russell Rd. will be opened Nov. 28th, and weather permitting, construction will start soon afterwards.



SOLD BEFORE COMPLETED — Tecumseh Area Industrial Association has reputation of being successful in attracting new business to Tecumseh, and this time TAIDA sold its building in the city's industrial park before the shell building was completed. Workmen here are putting up metal siding on the building which will soon be the home plant for B & H Manufacturing of Ann Arbor. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Drive at 82%

Tecumseh Community Fund tallied 82.5 percent of its $89,900 goal in the fifth week of the 1978 Drive, reported assistant drive chairman Roger Proctor.

The drive will be extended for one more week, until Nov. 21, to give all divisions an opportunity to realize their goals.

At least one division exceeded its goal. The schools division reported, 102 percent of its goal, or $4,394, exceeding the goal by $94.

Professional and public employees divisions are still lagging. Division percentages are 58 and 60 respectively.

Residential division is nearing its goal with 92 percent now achieved.

In the industrial division, Ed Walters, Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant United Way coordinator, announced a total pledge of $11,424 has been subscribed by the salaried and hourly employees of UAW Local #1341.

This when combined with the gift of the General Motors Foundation, representing both Fisher-Tecumseh and Chevrolet-Adrian, provides a total level of support, in the amount of $13,424 for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation for 1979.

The recently conducted Tecumseh Plant UW drive for 1979 was co-chaired by Robert Marvar, superintendent production and material control and James Pavelka, vice president, UAW Local #1341.

Complaints Are Minor

Complaints received at the police department the past week were minor with vandalism again topping the report.

Last Friday, Donald Smith, 111 W. Chicago Blvd., reported eggs against his property and the breakage of a light and window, possibly by a BB gun.

Monday, Donald Berkley, junior high principal, reported a chunk of asphalt had been thrown through a window in his office.

Nancy Nichols, 216 N. Oneida, told officers Monday that a rear view mirror on her vehicle had been broken.

On the same day, Mary Jo Rosacrans, 115-1/2 W. Shawnee, reported her vehicle scratched on both sides and front and back.

Other complaints were:

Nov. 9 - Daniel J. Leonard, 17, of 413 W. Chicago Blvd., was stopped for speeding on W. Chicago and then charged with driving while under the influence.

Nov. 9 - Skippy Cash Hanna, 24, Adrian, was observed speeding and weaving on W. Chicago Blvd. and then arrested for drunk driving.

Ann Arbor Company Buys TAIDA Building in Park

B & H Manufacturing Company, a 32-year-old Ann Arbor firm, has purchased the Tecumseh Area Industrial Association's building in the city's industrial park.

The 20,000-square-foot building is still under construction and only a shell at the present, but plans are being made to complete the building and have it ready for B & H Manufacturing operations on or before March 1.

DJ Martin, vice-president of TAIDA, completed the sales transaction Saturday after considerable work involving Merlyn Downing, president of United Savings Bank, and Jack Osburn, former member and president of TAIDA.

Owner of the company is James F. Curley of Manchester. He has been associated with machine shop operations for nearly 20 years and bought the company in January 1977. The 37-year-old owner was previously superintendent of plant engineering at the Ypsilanti Ford plant.

Curley is currently a school board member of the Manchester schools, a former Manchester councilman and is a past president of Jaycees there. The Curleys, which includes four children, have been Manchester residents for 14 years.

According to the owner, reason for moving to Tecumseh is for more room as the company has outgrown its facilities on W. Stadium Blvd. B & H employment is 30 and more employees will be added here, Curley remarked.

Company does machining work at the present for Automatic Valve of Farmington, Chrysler Marine Division, Chrysler Truck Division, Chrysler Introl and Game Time, playground manufacturer, of Blissfield.

The B & H plant may not be the last for TAIDA, which voted Saturday to build another plant in the industrial park if necessary arrangements with the city and bank can be made.

Tecumseh School Teacher Arrested on Felony Charge

Gerald Fox, 35-year-old elementary physical education instructor for the Tecumseh schools, was arrested Wednesday morning on a felony charge, stemming from a warrant signed by an officer of the United Savings Bank.

Charges against Fox are listed as obtaining money under false pretenses. He reportedly obtained a check from the local bank in the amount of $10,500 for two automobiles he allegedly owned but had sold and were no longer in his possession.

Officer Douglas Aylesworth of the Tecumseh Police Department arrested Fox in the principal's office of the Sutton school, and then transported him to the Lenawee County jail. He's confined there under $3,000 bond.

Fox has been an instructor in the schools for 11 years and formerly lived at 611 Outer Dr.

Supt. Robert Duhan was contacted Wednesday morning and declined to comment, saying that school officials would await "more information."

Zorn - 'Headlee Amendment Not Going To Affect Us Much'

Neither Tecumseh City Manager Cal Zorn nor Assistant City Manager Paul Preston were surprised that Michigan voters approved the Headlee tax limitation proposal in the Nov. 7 general election.

Here in Tecumseh, voters adopted the Headlee proposal with a vote of 167 "yes" and 117 "no". Headlee becomes effective Dec. 22 but its impact will be on the 1979-80 budget.

"I don't see where this is going to affect us too much," said Manager Zorn.

Under the Headlee amendment, local property assessments on a city-wide basis would be limited to the Consumer Price Index (CPI). It measures the change in the cost of typical wage-earner purchases of goods and services expressed as a percentage of the cost of these same goods and services in some base period.

Zorn said that Tecumseh's adjustments on local assessed value have not kept up with the Consumer Price Index.

Zorn said that the CPI went up to 69 percent over eight years, or about 8 percent each year. In Tecumseh, real property assessments in some eight years have increased 79 percent, but this includes new construction which the Headlee proposal exempts from the limit.

In other words, the Headlee amendment limits adjustments on existing real property but it does not exempt new construction from taxation. Therefore some increase over CPI is to be expected in local assessed value whenever there is new construction.

It appears the Headlee amendment will not affect amount of revenue Tecumseh collects through local property taxes. In the current 1978-79 budget, this amount is $522,500 or 28 percent of the toal revenue.

"I think this is something we can live with," said Zorn.

Assistant Manager Paul Preston pointed out that Headlee "doesn't preclude some properties from being assessed more than others," as long as assessments on existing property do not exceed the price index on a city-wide basis.

Preston said Headlee proposal should not slow down development of city's industrial park.

The Headlee amendment would have an effect on certain bond indebtedness.

Under the Headlee amendment, general obligation bonds will have to be approved by the electorate to gain the full faith and credit rating. But this was true in the past for Tecumseh, said Zorn.

Under the Headlee amendment, special assessments and self-supporting bond issues may be initiated by city government without voter approval, but they will not have a full faith and credit rating, without which interest rates are higher and the bonds may not be marketable at all.

The only bond issue in the forseeable future for Tecumseh will be a bond issue on expansion of the city sewage treatment plant, required by the Federal Clean Water Act. Date for this bond proposal to go before voters is not known at this time and is pending a facility study.

Talking It Out

What can I say? What can I do?

If you've avoided visiting the home of a terminally ill friend or relative because you don't know what to do or say when you get there, you're not alone. But here are some things you can consider:

DO IT NOW

Visiting them now shows you're still a friend. Visiting at the funeral shows the widow(er) and family the same things, but also that you waited too long. Do it now, and show you care.

What to say and do:

Say that you've been praying for him and mean it. Say that you've brought a book that might help. Say you've arrange to take that friend to the hospital (or doctor's office) for the regular visit next Thursday, so the spouse can tend other chores. Take his wife's grocery list along with yours when you go marketing next week. Offer to fix a lunch, wash a car, drive the kids or any other special little chore as needed. But do it now.

Don't stop there.

After the funeral, all of the above are still good examples to follow - and may aid in comforting the family.

Headlee

The last bond issue approved by voters of Tecumseh was in 1968 for the waste water treatment facility. City's total indebtedness is $175,000, $25,000 of which is on a water bond issue and $150,000 on a general obligation bond for the waste water treatment plant.

"We've had great construction programs in the past and we won't have to do these again. We've got most of the streets paved. Utilities are where development has taken place. All of that is behind us," Zorn commented.

As far as cuts in budget are concerned, Zorn said he doesn't foresee any at this time.

Will the city lose revenue from the state because of Headlee? City officials don't believe so. Headlee amendment restricts the state from changing the amount of money it gives to communities as a whole, but the state could vary the amounts among communities and among programs.

However, wherever the population continues to grow, communities may feel a pinch under Headlee because their ability to raise revenues locally through property taxes will be limited.

Here's part of the reason why: Local tax effort is approximately one quarter of a city budget. Other city revenues come from state and federal funds. Almost all of these funds are distributed on the basis of a formula that considers population.

A city with rapid growth is hurt because the population figures used in the aid formula are taken from the most recent census, taken every 10 years.

Wasn't that a beautiful Indian summer we had? It was certainly pleasant weather for getting the outside work completed before winter.

Here are two more last minute holiday recipes.

½ cup cinnamon candies
½ cup brown sugar

Combine juices and water in automatic 10 cup percolator. Place sugar and cinnamon candies in basket. Allow to go through perk cycle. Serve piping hot. Makes 12 (4 ounce servings). For larger percolators, double or triple recipe.

COLD PUNCH:

Omit cinnamon candies and ¼ cup of sugar. Combine remaining ingredients, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Chill. Just before serving, add 1 quart lemon-lime carbonated beverage. Makes 20 (4 ounce) servings.

City Tries To Save Money

The city of Tecumseh will try to save itself some money and utilize its animal pens at the city garage.

City was notified by Lenawee Humane Society that shelter fees are $25 per animal for each animal brought to the county facility by the city of Tecumseh. Cost includes holding the animal for a minimum of four days, processing, shots and worming.

If the city, holds the animals itself for the four day minimum, the Lenawee Humane Society will charge the city only $10 for euthanasia and disposal services. City must verify however that it has held strays for a minimum state required period.

City manager Cal Zorn told council that in the past, the city of Tecumseh was not charged for the service because the local United Fund contributed to the Humane Society.

An Open Letter to the Voters of Lenawee County

This is to thank all of you who expressed your confidence in me with your votes in last Tuesday's election and your assistance during the campaign.

There were so many who worked so hard and helped so much in the course of the campaign that it would be impossible to thank each of you personally. It is a truly humbling experience to be the recipient of such support and I am grateful for it.

I also want to congratulate Judge Kerby on a vigorous, honest and well run campaign.

I plan to work as hard as I can to justify the faith and trust you have demonstrated. District Court is a part of your government and is there to serve you. I hope that, together with Judge Timms, it can be run with the fairness, dignity and efficiency you should expect from your Courts.

Sincerely yours,
James E. Sheridan

Frame Shop, Gallery Opens

Owners Bill and Bev Zietlow will have an open house Nov. 17 and 18 of their new Tecumseh business's Ivy Gallery and Frame Shop, 105 W. Pottawatamie.

The Zietlows presently own "Country Art and Frame", 1257 Gady Rd. in Raisin Township and have specialized in custom framing for the past eight years.

The Tecumseh gallery will be a sales outlet for the same custom framing service and in addition, limited edition prints and local artisans work on consignment will be featured in the gallery. A complete line of ready made frames will also be available.

The couple will own the brick home, now gallery. Bev will operate it. Believed to be 100-years-old, the gallery was formerly a dentist's office.

The couple came to name it Ivy Gallery because the east side of the building is ivy covered.

Two of the artists who will present work during the open house are Tom Thiery of Onsted (watercolor and photography) and Jan Taylor of Adrian (oils).

Refreshments will be offered and a frame limited edition print will be given as a door prize

Clinton Girls Win 2, Record Sets at 14-2

The Clinton Redskins girls basketball team added two victories last week, raising their league record to 8-2 and overall record to 14-2 with two regular season games remaining.

The district tournaments begin on Nov. 27 at Clinton High School. Addison, Blissfield, Clinton, Hudson, and Onsted are in the district. All games start at 7 p.m.

It was an up and down week for the roundballers. Against Onsted the Redskins exploded to a 19 to 8 first quarter lead with Lisa Carks' nine points and Sue Richters eight.

Clinton was able to score only 24 points the rest of the game however and had to hold off a furious Wildcat rally in the closing minutes to edge Onsted 43-40.

The last three quarters of the game, according to coach Bob King were the worst his team has played this season. "We completely lost our poise and fell apart after playing a fine first quarter" King said.

Lisa Cark led in scoring with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Barb Winder led in rebounding with 15 to give Clinton a 47-31 advantage.

The Hudson game at home was an entirely different story as Clinton delighted a parents night crowd with their best game of the season, crushing the Hudson Tigers 71-30.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt as Clinton scored 10 straight points and was ahead 24-8 at he end of the first quarter and 39-9 at halftime.

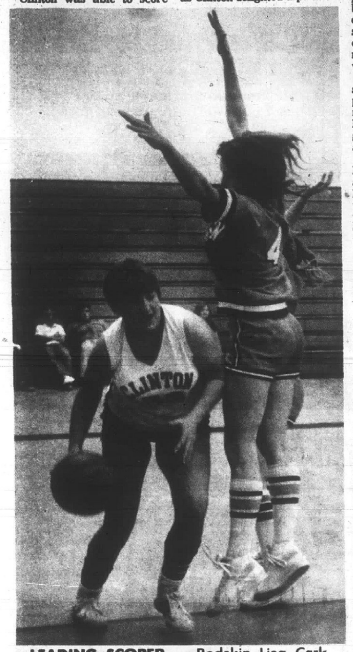
The Redskins continued their fine play during the second half, outscoring Hudson 33-21. It was the highest scoring game of the year for the girls as everyone played well with all players seeing plenty of action.

Senior Lisa Cark was outstanding, scoring 22 points and picking off 10 rebounds for the best game of her varsity career. Sue Richter only scored 14 points but she added eight assists and seven rebounds, and she played very well.

Barb Winder continued her steady play as she scored 12 points and led the team in rebounding with 11. Reserve Karyn Coward had her best game scoring five points and adding 10 rebounds.

Coach Bob King was very happy with his teams play against Hudson and felt that his Redskins are now starting to peak and should be ready to play much better when the district tournaments start in two weeks.

King also was pleased by the fine turnout of parents and wishes to thank them for their excellent support throughout the year.



LEADING SCORER — Redskin Lisa Cark couldn't go over this tall Hudson defender, so she went around her in the first quarter and sunk two points. Cark led all scorers Thursday night with 22 points.

5th, 6th Grade Flag Football

The Tecumseh Recreation Department's 5th and 6th grade flag football teams finished their season this past week when all eight played a game under the lights at the high school athletic field.

There was a three way tie for first place and that was not decided until the last evening of play. The Raiders, coached by Jim Brown; the Rams, coached by Jim Kingon; and the Cowboys, coached by John Huggler, were tied for first place. All had a six win and one loss record.

In sole second place with a four win and three loss record were the Vikings, coached by Ward Eardley. Tied for third place were the Steelers, coached by Dick Billington, and the Seahawks, coached by Gary Easton. Tied for fourth place were the Broncos, coached by Tim Eardley, and the Wolverines, coached by Jim Palmer.

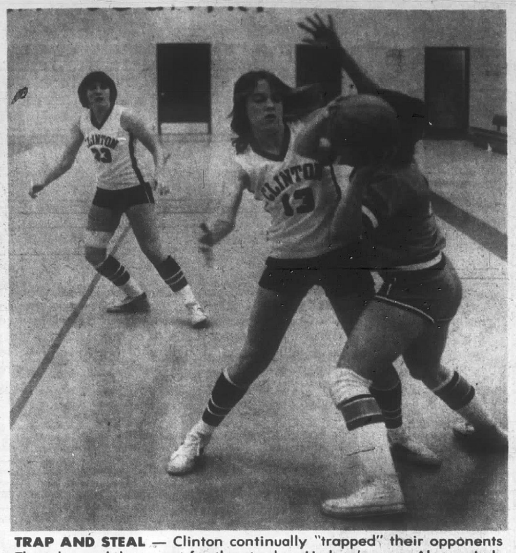
It was perhaps the most exciting and best season for the youngsters in many years. Good weather was a factor in a very successful year.

Thanks go to the Board of Education in their complete cooperation and to the high school athletic department for the use of the field for the last two nights under the light.

Ousterhout Is Honored

In the Tri-County league, Jeff Osterhout was added to the all-league team as a running back and David Bruce was chosen from Britton on the defensive squad at linebacker.

Honorable mentions for Britton went to Dennis and Chris Kimerer.



TRAP AND STEAL — Clinton continually "trapped" their opponents Thursday and then went for the steal on Hudson's pass. Above, Judy Zimmerman begins the trap with Sue Richter preparing to make the steal. Clinton easily beat the Hudson group 71-30.

THS Girls Win Two

The Tecumseh girls basketball squad proved they're playing better ball as the season goes on. They scored two wins this week and coach Diane Nelson reports that they're playing more as one unit and that's a good sign for the team with district tournaments beginning a week from Monday.

Against Grosse Ile last Thursday, Gloria Fosbender and Kris McDonald each chipped in 12 points as the Indians put 34 points on the boards to the home team's 31.

The Indian girls out rebounded the Red Devil squad and dropped 45 percent of their shots from the floor. And not only did the girls shoot better percentages than in the past, but they also held Grosse Ile's star, Ruth Klemans to 15 points. Klemans averages 25 points a game.

In that game, the THS girls were ahead the entire game except when they went in at half tied. One or two times they pulled eight or better points ahead, but they never lost the lead.

Tuesday against Gibralter Carlson, four players scored well as Tecumseh smothered the Carlson team 51-28.

McDonald had 14 points, Fosbender 10, and Donna Bohannon and Kerry Hamilton each chipped in eight points. Again the girls were hot from the floor with 46 percent of their shots dropping. They were nine of 24 from the line.

The girls put on a three quarter press the first frame against Carlson and led at the end of the first quarter 21-8. Carlson never really threatened.

CHS Claims Seven Spots

Clinton claimed seven spots on the LCAA all-league team this year while neighboring Britton had two footballers chosen for the honor in the Tri-County League.

Clinton received the seven spots in a field of 29 honorary seats. Only Manchester, the league champion, took more with eight honors.

For Clinton, Lee Russ and Chris Douglas were chosen as linemen on offense, Mike Karapas at end, Terry Carlton at quarterback, and Casey Thilo at running back. On defense, Jeff Porterfield was all-league at linebacker and Rudy Weirich at deep back.

Honorable mentions on offense went to Andy Hoag, Jeff Porterfield and Barry Yocum. On defense, Casey Thilo, Ken Withrow, Chris Douglas, Lee Russ and Jeff VanSickle were honored.

Honor Borton on Defense

Greg Borton was chosen on the all-league,first team recently in the Huron League. The honor was given for his defensive efforts.

Also on defense, Tom Chatters was chosen to the second team while John Betzoldt and Andy Geshwiler received honorable mention.

On offense, Kevin Bater, Randy Bolz, and Greg Borton were all chosen to the second team. Teammate John Lacny received honorable mention.

Little Speaks

Elwood Little of the Lenawee County Historical Society spoke to the Wit and Wisdom Club at the home of Elizabeth Wilson recently.

Little told the club about the historical society museum in Adrian. It displays artifacts pertaining to the county's history.

Some of the historical items contributed include the Cambridge Junction post office, the first post office in Adrian, garments of past eras, old toys, pioneer household items, furniture, glassware and photographs.

Newspaper clippings are also filed by topic. Currently, an exhibit on Indian artifacts is being loaned.

Tours are arranged for school children and groups.

CLINTON TEAM — The Redskin girls are fast approaching their "peak" playing ability according to their coach, Bob King, and there could be no better time with districts beginning a week from Monday. Team includes, front, l-r, all seniors, Lisa Cark, Susan Richter, Fran Corwin, Judy Zimmerman. Kneeling, Beth Langowski, Kris Pratt, Renee Peterson. Back, manager Carol Ahrens, coach King, Jani Thompson, Karyn Coward, Barbara Winder, Brenda Cark, manager Cathy Doig. (PHOTOS BY KENT DOWNING)

GOES FOR TWO — Second league-leading scorer, Jodi Smith, sweeps around two Sand Creek players and prepares to hit two of her 17 points Thursday night. The Tories lost a very close game by two, 41-39.

Split Pair

Jodi Smith was the big gun in Britton's win over Madison last Tuesday but senior Dawn Haas proved to be the star when she dropped in four points for Britton in the last two minutes to break a 41-41 tie.

Britton left the game with a final two point win, 45-43. Haas finished with a career high of nine points. Smith put 24 of Britton's 45 points on the score board.

On Thursday, Britton was not so lucky as they dropped a very close game against the Sand Creek Aggies, 41-39.

Eleven times that game was tied with the Aggies taking a "big" eight point lead in the second frame. Britton narrowed that lead and even went ahead by two, 39-37, with a little more than two minutes left to play.

The Aggies then tied the score and Kay Love put the final two points up for the Sand Creek win with two pressure free throws.

Jodi Smith was high for Britton with 17 points while the Britton team hit 30 percent of its shots. The Aggies also led in rebounds 27-17.

The Britton JV's won their match, 26-6.

The game is almost over, and this is the critical moment. The final score hangs on what Ken does with the ball. If he is successful, he will be the hero of the day. If he isn't, people may not entirely blame him, but even so . . .

Throughout our lives, even if we never touch a football, we cannot avoid coming up against moments when the "final score" depends upon our actions.

Decision-making is never easy, especially when the decision involves others as well as ourselves, and major decisions almost always do. This is when we need a place to go where we can empty our hearts and souls and let the peace and understanding which is God's flow into us . . . that place is the church.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Ho ho, hooray, and wow! This bird watching is really something. It is never boring and always the unexpected seems to be happening. No sooner do I have things nicely under control and operating on schedule then wham, something different and completely unexpected happens.

For example, last week the action on the near-my-window feeders was strictly winterish and I was all set to shift into cold weather birds. Wrong, all wrong.

Suddenly one day the chickadees and tufted titmice, who were snacking, left in a hurry. They were not about to take chances with a much larger bird who had swooped down and landed on one of the food trays.

I could hardly believe my eyes. It took a second look but, yes, I was seeing what I thought was there and all at once the winter birdfeeder action was warm weather type goings-on.

Although not quite a giant, the newcomer was much larger than the small titmice and even smaller chickadees. (According to the books, 10 inches compared to their 6 and 5.)

He landed and turned his back to me. My first impression was of a large white area across the rump or lower back, unusual tail feathers, and a dull brown head. As he turned his head and straightened up I saw a large bone white bill and a rather skinny neck and chest.

It could be nothing else, I was looking at a juvenile redheaded woodpecker and brown headed.

Indeed, he was a far cry from the brightly colored and handsome adult — hard to believe that next summer he will have a brilliant red head and blue/black wings and back.

The white rump patch will be the same though and the black tail too. Seldom have I had as good a look at the highly specialized tail feathers of this woodpecker.

Like all members of the clan he uses those stiff tail feathers as a brace or prop. They give leverage and help maintain his balance when banging away on a tree.

The two middle feathers are longer than the rest and pointed. They almost looked as though someone had used a jackknife and whittled them to a point. Most interesting.

The next day I received reports of other warm weather birds. Robins. Most of them left long ago but apparently a few stayed behind to enjoy the Indian Summer weather and the bountiful crop of berries on the mountain ash trees. From four widely areas I heard about unseasonable robin appearances.

However, the next newcomers to the feeders were most definitely cold weather birds. A pair of tiny red-breasted nuthatches. They appeared one day and have been fairly regular ever since. Such a treat.

Although birds of the northern conifer forest who mainly depend upon a diet of seeds from these trees, the red-breasteds are good winter birdfeeder birds. Suet, sunflower seeds, and nuts are the main attractions.

It is unusual for us to see them so early — in past years their visits have started after the snow and low temperatures have arrived.

I am not complaining though, any time one of these cute little birds wants to freeload here it will be all right with me. If two want to come it will just be that much more all right.

These nuthatches are tiny sprites, only slightly more than four inches long, who seem to have boundless energy. They flit and dart, always in a hurry.

Their long needle-like bills identify them as nuthatches as does their habit of walking on trees. On their heads there are two distinguishing white stripes. One above the eye and the other below. Running through the eye is a black or dark blue/gray stripe.

Their backs are a dark slatey blue/gray and their fronts are a washed-out, faded looking reddish tan. As could be expected the males are much more colorful than the females. Great little birds even though they are unwanted reminders of winter.

Announcing A Major Breakthrough in Banking:

"All the money you used to keep in your checking account now can earn 5% daily interest."

SAVINGS CHECKING
AUTOMATIC TRANSFER ACCOUNT

Commercial Savings Bank announces the Automatic Transfer Account. It's a plan that combines the 5% daily interest of savings, and the convenience of checking.

From now on, all the money you had tied up in a checking account balance can be put into a CSB Automatic Transfer Savings Account. You'll still keep your checking account, and you'll still write checks as usual. But the exact amount needed to cover each check will be transferred automatically from your savings.

And, if you keep a minimum monthly savings account balance of $1,250, you can write as many checks as you want, with no service charge.*

With an ATA you'll earn more interest. Because now all the money you deposit at CSB will earn 5% daily interest.

It adds up to more money for you. No wonder we call it a Major Breakthrough in Banking.

*When minimum balance is less than $1,250, monthly service charge will be $4.00 plus 20¢ per check.

"I just modernized my business. I got a pushbutton phone."

"Sure, I love old things. But I always appreciate new, more efficient ways of doing things. That's why I just had General Telephone install a pushbutton phone in my antique store. It really is faster—you can actually punch an entire seven-digit number in the time it takes to dial a 9 on a rotary phone. I make fewer dialing errors too. And somehow it makes me feel more businesslike. It even surprises me! As attached as I am to all my antiques, the one object in my store that I'd have the hardest time giving up is my new pushbutton phone."

Thinking of switching to pushbuttons? Give us a call and let's talk.

To the Editor

To the Editor:

I am extremely disappointed in the recent decline of the quality of The Tecumseh Herald. I am referring to the Nov. 9 issue by which your paper granted approval to nudity in advertising. The Erb "transportation twins" chose to draw attention to their ad with the addition of a reclining pose of Sugar - "And What Sugar Wants - Sugar Gets" "Right Boys?" Does this mean next week I should hope for a picture of a scantily clothed Burt Reynolds -"And What Daddy Wants - Daddy Gets" "Right Girls?"

Has the circulation of the Herald so decreased that you have to publish distasteful pictures to sell it? Please don't lower your standards of excellence to such cheap gimmicks that the Erb Brothers seem to think will help them sell cars.

I was further distressed that the pictures and story of my father and brother were published and appeared on the same page. If these tactics are to be continued in my hometown newspaper, I have no choice but to stop reading it.

Sincerely
Emily J. Manwaring

Retain Voting Site

CLINTON — At the meeting of the Clinton Board of Education Nov. 8, Superintendent Richard Wegner stressed the problems that occur at the Learning Resource Center of the Middle School when elections and Bloodmobile are held there.

He told the board that since the LRC has been used for these non-school activities, the Middle School has grown in number and the librarian and teachers have used the LRC more.

Clinton Township representatives, Janet Welch, Frank Gignac, James Meeks and Harry Comstock were present to state township concerns.

Mrs. Welch reported that all possible alternatives had been researched and were unfavorable. Township officials agreed that the LRC room most nearly meets election requirements and is the best location for the convenience of the voters.

The board of education and the township officials agreed to continue to hold elections in the Middle School LRC room. Storage of election machines continues to be a problem.

Board voted to raise substitute pay from $25 to $30 per day, effective immediately.

To eliminate wasted food, government regulations have been changed to allow a student in grades five through 12 to select only those items of the Type A lunch that he will eat. By offering two Type A lunches, more revenue will be brought in through cafeteria operations.

Jaycee representative, S. Thurber and Russ Pichlik were present to discuss the educational value of a microcomputor for individual student study. Both remedial and academically talented students will benefit.

Board member Steve Bowman, a member of the Jaycees, is much interested in this project and stated that the actual model and make of computer has not yet been determined.

Superintendent Wegner indicated that if the Jaycees were interested in purchasing the computer for school use, the school would take care of and maintain the machine along with other audio-visual equipment.

Curricu'um coordinators Russ Pichlik and Barbara Spahr gave summary results of the 1978 Michigan Education Assessment tests, administered to fourth, seventh and tenth grade students.

The 1978 results for grades four and seven showed a marked improvement over previous years.

The administrative council decided students need to write legibly. To stress the skills of cursive writing from grades two through eight, teachers will drill students daily.

Dundee and Ida Schools requested admittance to the Lenawee County Athletic Association.

Ida is a school with total K-12 enrollment above 2,000 and Dundee is above 1,900 enrollment.

Matter must first be brought to the attention of the legal association before action is taken.

Woolen Mill Throbbed in Village

CLINTON — "History of Clinton Woolen Mill" was the subject program given by Mrs. Frederick Rettke for members of the Clinton Woman's Club, Wednesday.

She played a recording made by Darrel Englehart which explained step by step, the complicated procedure of making cloth. The raw wool comes into the mill, is sorted, washed, dyed, blended in the picker, carded, combed into threads, spun, spooled, loomed, and woven.

Clinton Woolen Mill was organized in 1866 and started production in 1867 in a building on W. Michigan Ave., which cost $95,000 including the machinery. By 1880 they were wholesaling to clothing manufacturers, tailors, and the government.

In 1886 the mill employed 80 people. Dec. 11, 1886, at 6:30 a.m., the mill burned to the foundation, caused from gasoline used to light the building.

Insurance netted only $49,000, so two weeks after the fire, stockholders announced that if Clinton residents could not raise a certain amount, the mill would be moved to Tecumseh.

The money was raised, and the mill's steam whistle was tooted all day so Tecumseh folks could hear it.

The new building was erected at a cost of $150,000.

In 1930 the mill began making automobile upholstery, in addition to navy and cadet blue cloth for the Navy, which they made earlier. During World War II they made kahki cloth for the Army.

Employment reached 125 at the peak. But, production began to dwindle in the 1950's on account of the demand for synthetic materials and labor problems. The mill could not compete with much higher wages, and it ceased production in 1957.

DST, Inc., which bought the building in 1962, has asked Mrs. Rettke, an employee, to do some research on the mill so that a historical marker could be placed on the building.

At the business meeting conducted by Mrs. James Chellman, Mrs. Aleen Cahill of the Ways and Means Committee announced a plastics party will be held Nov. 18 at 1 p.m. at Water Wheel Center.

Cookies were solicited, as well as for the Federated Fine Arts and Crafts Tea, Nov. 30 in Adrian.

Cookies are also needed for the Girl and Boy Scouts Caroling at the Community Center, Dec. 13.

Mrs. Rettke is seeking any pictures of the interior operation of the Clinton Woolen Mill, such as the carding, weaving or mule-machines that stretched the wool.

Next meeting is Dec. 13 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James Chellman, for Christmas cookies and carols.

O'Donnells Escape Near Tragedy

CLINTON — What started out as a pleasant Sunday jaunt for Joe O'Donnell and daughter, Jennie, 10 and son, Tyge, 9, turned into a near tragedy.

The three hiked around the Water Wheel Estates dam area hoping to spot a deer.

They were half way around the 100-acre pond and were following the Raisin River when they spotted a cluster of fallen trees in the water that promised footing across the river.

Tyge was first out on the logs. He slipped and fell about two feet into the water.

Joe jumped in to rescue Tyge and found the current extremely strong, pulling under the logs. With some difficulty, Joe boosted Tyge up on shore. Jennie pulled her brother as best she could onto the slippery bank.

But, as Joe tried to reach shore, he went into water up to his neck and couldn't make it alone. Jennie reached out and held onto his hand as he struggled.

Joe called "Pull Jennie, pull!" The plucky little girl struggled on the muddy, steep bank. Her father was just about to tell her to let go when he made it to shore.

Thoroughly wet and chilled, the trio ran to keep warm. They were distressed to find the first house they approached, owned by Kathy Thomas on Bartlett Rd., was unoccupied.

They trudged along the road a few moments later, when Miss Thomas came along and rushed them home to appreciate what a close call they had had.

Shares Tips

CLINTON — Roy Gladdey, math instructor at Clinton High School, will be one of the Michigan mathematics teachers at a special conference Nov. 17 at Central Michigan University.

The educators will share math problems and solutions they've encountered during their first or early years of teaching.

Race to Bridgewater

CLINTON — Clinton Fire Department was among eight departments called to battle a blaze which destroyed the Braun Implement Co. store building at Bridgewater, Washtenaw Co., early Saturday morning.

More than 20 pieces of equipment and 100 firefighters were at the scene for six hours.

Damage to the building and equipment was estimated at more than $100,000, according to Manchester Fire Chief Jim Kensler.

The fire apparently started around 3:25 a.m. in the apartment above the store. Residents were not at home.

A small warehouse belonging to the adjacent Bridgewater Lumber yard was scorched but damage was slight.

Other departments assisting at the fire were Pittsfield, Milan, Saline, Dexter, Chelsea, Grass Lake and Manchester.

Driver Hurt, Rolls Jeep on E. Chicago

Although the driver suffered a minor head injury, four persons escaped serious injury in the early hours of Saturday when their Jeep rolled over on E. Chicago Blvd. at Ottawa.

David L. Swift, 21, of 5502 Sutton Rd., was eastbound when he claimed a tire blew and caused him to lose control. He skidded over 60 feet before the vehicle rolled over and stopped on its wheels. Officers found no hole in the tire.

Swift was charged with drunk driving, taken to Bixby Hospital for treatment and then to the Lenawee County jail.

Other accidents on city streets the past week were minor. A resume is:

Nov. 15 - Garry A. Harrison, 16, of 9355 Macon Rd., was cited for failure to yield in making a left turn. He collided with Harry J. Sabourni, 24, of 113 N. Maiden Lane, in the intersection of E. Logan and N. Ottawa.

Nov. 15 - Raymond I. Shelton, 49, of 104 E. Chicago Blvd., was pulling out of a city alley lot and onto S. Ottawa when a vehicle driven by Mary S. Davidson, 73, 227 Herrick Park Dr., reportedly changed lanes. Shelton hit the Davidson car broadside.

Nov. 17 - Charles R. Magee, 34, Adrian was cited after he passed a city street cleaner and struck Michael W. Filter, 27, Adrian, who was turning off W. Chicago into Van Buren.

Nov. 18 - Joseph J. Schneider III, 26, Brooklyn, backed into a parked car owned by Roy Waycaster, 205 Pine St. Mishap occurred on Pine St.

Ads Needed by Monday

The Herald's annual Christmas shopping section will be included in next week's issue.

Since this will be a tabloid section and inserted in the regular paper, it will be printed early - and early advertising copy will be necessary.

Any merchant, participating in the special section and not contacted yet, should call The Herald, 423-2174. Ad deadline for the section will be Monday afternoon.

Additional distribution will include approximately 1,200 for two routes and post office boxes in Manchester.

Tax Break Granted to Ann Arbor Firm

Tecumseh City Council unanimously approved Monday night to give Jebco Manufacturing Inc. a tax break of approximately 50 percent for the maximum 12 years under Michigan Public Act 198 for its current expansion of an existing facility on S. Maumee.

The Ann Arbor manufacturing company is relocating to Tecumseh. It is adding 12,000 sq. ft. to the original 6,000 sq. ft. building. Total cost of improvements are estimated to be $282,500.

In its expansion of the industrial plant, Jebco will complete new lighting, refinish offices, black top truck area now filled with dirt and triple the size of the facility.

Company will employ approximately 25 people.

2 Expected To Bid on Ambulance Service

by Kathy Brown

Eleven government units from north central and northeastern Lenawee County met in Tecumseh Nov. 13 to review proposed bid requests for emergency medical services from private ambulance companies.

Bids are due Nov. 27. Two private providers in Lenawee County, Bennett's Ambulance of Lenawee and Monroe Counties and EMT ambulance of Palmyra, are expected to bid on three alternative proposals.

The contracts are expected to be supplemented by a $50,000 county subsidy, without which the local ambulance services say they cannot operate.

Because services are equally expensive for individual communities, the local governments in this region of the county have formed a consortium. The county has required the governments to cooperate to be eligible for the financial assistance.

The $50,000 figure is based on $1 per capita for the census in the aforementioned region. Assistance would become effective Jan. 1, 1979 for one year.

The ambulance companies are asked to bid on all three alternatives. They also must meet standards adopted by the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners to be eligible for the subsidy.

The first alternative provides for four ambulances to be located at four prime locations, Onsted, Tecumseh and two in Adrian. Alternative two would be for an ambulance stationed in the western half of the defined region and alternative three would be for two stations located in the eastern half of the defined region.

The alternative bids allow the consortium of governments to select the most affordable system with the maximum amount of coverage for the region.

Marc Grossman, coordinator for Lenawee County Human Services explained that the county has been grappling with the problem of getting efficient delivery of emergency services for several years.

Prime reason the subsidy is needed is economics.

Grossman stated that the costs of operating an ambulance service is greater than the revenue, especially in a county with low population figure as in Lenawee County.

Bernard Sieg of Bennett's Ambulance said it costs $55,000 to keep one ambulance operating.

At one time, Lenawee County operated an ambulance through the sheriff's department and found costs $125,000 per ambulance, said Grossman.

State law has changed requirements on equipment, wages, standards of training, etc. The increased liability insurance costs to units of government and in some cases the impossibility of getting the insurance has made a regional effort, for efficient ambulance service, imperative.

"Everyone needs everyone else. Everyone is faced with the same problem," said Grossman.

Those in attendance at Monday's meeting from the Tecumseh area were Cal Zorn of Tecumseh, Frank Gignac, Clinton Township, Gary Couture, Village of Clinton, Larrie Eaton, Tecumseh Township, Richard Gallaway and Robert Murray, Raisin Townships, Russ Spalding, Fred Bryan and Jim Shiels, Ridgeway, Harold Rhora and Beatrice Gilmore, Macon. Others came from Onsted, Cambridge, Rome Townships and Adrian. Franklin and Adrian Townships were not represented, but have expressed previous interest in the plan.

Next meeting is Nov. 27, 7 p.m. at Tecumseh City Hall.

Examination Set for Friday

Examination on a felony charge against Gerald Fox, 35, local school teacher, will be held Friday in District Court at Adrian.

Fox was arrested last week on charges of obtaining $10,500 from the United Savings Bank on false pretenses. Warrant for his arrest was signed by a bank officer.

Mayor Mead Explains His Position

Mayor Aden Mead explained to Council Monday night his position regarding a letter of criticism.

Mary Lou Dangler submitted a letter to the editor and council complaining that her telephone question to Mayor Mead was rejected because she asked to remain anonymous.

"I think I was not discourteous and not impolite," said Mead. "But I have made it a policy that I don't choose to talk to people who remain anonymous, whether in public or private life. I am willing to talk to people. And I am sorry this came to your attention. I feel this is personal," Mead commented.

Council member Carlton Cook spoke in support of Mead's action. He reminded Council of one occasion when a person complained at a public hearing about the unfairness of a city ordinance. When she was asked to identify herself, the woman told Council she lived in Britton.

Council OK's Fence Repair

Tecumseh City Council approved the request of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society to restore the Brookside Cemetery fence as a historical society project.

The society committed $2,000 of its Promenade the Past receipts. Cost of the project will be $3,825. Blacksmith John Kosternik of Clinton, is being retained for the job by the society. Society hopes to complete the work through public donations.

Sheryl Bugbee, library assistant, wrote the script. Mel gets his name from the Dewey Decimal system of cataloging library books.

Free Parking Starts Dec. 8 in City Lots

Tecumseh City Council gave area residents an added incentive to shop downtown Tecumseh during the Christmas holiday.

Council unanimously approved free off street parking for the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce from Dec. 8 to Dec. 24.

The Chamber had asked for free lot parking from Dec. 1 to Dec. 24.

Council vetoed an earlier motion to grant free parking from Dec. 15 to 24.

"How much money are we talking about? I'd like to know," asked Council member Carlton Cook.

Revenue for one month is approximately $1,000 said City manager Cal Zorn.

"I think Council should realize what we're spending in the parking lots in the last couple of years. We haven't realized it (in revenue)," added Zorn.

Within the last two years, the city purchased two pieces of property in the northeast parking lot at total cost of $67,000.

Money was advanced to the auto parking system from the general fund. Now city is undertaking a beautification plan in the same lot. Trees have been planted and brick sidewalk is being laid by city crews.

"If there's one time of year we offer free parking to the merchants, it should be at Christmas time instead of driving people to Adrian and Ann Arbor. Let's open it up," declared Council member Len DeMoss.

"We feel you're not just giving free parking to the merchants, but you're giving it to the entire community," said Harvey Schmidt, Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce retail chairman.

Indians End Rivalry with Maples in Letter to Adrian School Board

One of the most exciting rivalries in southeastern Michigan has ended with the announcement that Tecumseh is pulling out of athletic competition with Adrian.

The Herald had no advance announcement of such a decision, and like many local fans, the decision is shocking. Announcement came Monday night via letter from the local school board to Adrian's board.

For 20 years the rivalry, particularly in football, has been intense, and admittingly, sometimes too intense. The football games were played cleanly, but occasionally pregame or post-game activities were unacceptable by either school.

One might say the same about Michigan-Ohio State, or Michigan-Michigan State. However, there's one main difference. Michigan and OSU will draw stadium capacity crowds every Saturday, regardless of opponent. Adrian and Tecumseh need the rivalry to attract large crowds and to help finance sports at both schools, at least this was the feeling in the past.

The "big game" is history, with it some of the outstanding football games ever played in the county. The Maples had an edge in the series, but there were a number of Indian triumphs, too.

Fund Drive Now over $86,000

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation reached 96.5 percent of its $89,900 goal, Chairman Eugene Cooley and assistant chairman Roger Proctor reported Tuesday morning at the conclusion of the six week drive.

The semi-final report showed $86,711.95 in pledges and collections.

Cooley said that he was optimistic that, as in future years, straggling pledges would help Tecumseh reach its goal.

Community Fund members expect the difference to be made up by the local professional, residential and commercial divisions plus pledges from industrial workers at Ford and General Motors plant outside Tecumseh.

Four of the local divisions reported going over their goals, commercial, schools, residential and special gifts. Topping the list was special gifts with 129 percent. Division chairman Ken McElroy reported $4,530 over the $15,400 goal.

Divisions that completed the drive short of their goal were industrial and public employees.

Local industries reported $45,487 in pledges, short $7,012 of the goal. Reason was attributed to layoffs. Public employees were short $623, but represent a smaller portion of the total drive.

"Everyone worked hard. We appreciated everyone's efforts," said Cooley. A final report will be made at a later date.

Here is the semi-final report:

	Goals	Totals	% of Goal
Industrial
Tecumseh Products		$26,349.00
Fisher Body		13,424.00
Other Industries		5,714.65
	$52,500	$45,487.65	86.6%
Special Gifts	$15,400	$19,930.00	129%
Commercial	$11,600	$11,708.00	101%
Schools	$4,300	$4,399.80	102%
Residential	$2,150	$2,325.00	108%
Professional	$2,300	$1,835.00	79.7%
Public Employees	$1,650	$1,026.50	62.2%

Vacate Street Is Requested

A request to vacate the west end of Hiawatha St. west of South Pearl was received by the city from David E. Kurowicki of Dundee, and Bryan R. Van Benschoten of 515 S. Pearl.

Kurowicki owns property at 601 S. Pearl St.

Council referred the request to city administration.

Property in question is a right of way on Hiawatha St. that was never used, said city officials.

In a request to vacate, the property is split between the adjoining property owners and placed black on the tax rolls.

Basketballers Open Here Tuesday

The Tecumseh boys basketball team is inexperienced this year. They can claim only one returning starter. Still, coach Jim Curth is quick to explain that fans should not count them out.

Monroe CC and Airport are the two teams to best in the Huron League this basketball season. Both teams are returning near full squads. Airport won the league championship, but the Indians finished a tough second with a 20-4 season. Two of those loses came with 35 foot jump shots and they won the Districts.

Hopefully then, Curth is starting a basketball tradition in Indian territory. Only time will tell. The first part of the year will undoubtedly be uncertain for the team with Curth planning on playing a lot of young basketballers. Still, he is confident the team will "jell" into a decent team.

When asked who would start if the team began play tomorrow, Curth picked out John Ely first. Ely is a 6'1" senior, the Indian's lone return starter. Mark Creswell will certainly figure prominately in the Indian's future, but he is out with an injury until January.

Opposite Ely would be Jeff Osworth. Osworth is 6'2" and is a senior. At one guard would be Ron Smith, a 6'2" sophomore. There is presently a battle for the fifth spot between Tom Maves and Scott Schafer. Maves is a 6'3" senior and Schafer is a 6'1" junior.

Other players scheduled for the roster include Dave Cubberly, Scott Hans, Pat Lytle, Terry Merritt, Mike Phenicie and Steve Pope.

The trainers are Brian Banda and Kevin Bater. Dorman Fredericks and Lee Prettyman will take up the manager positions.

The team begins with a scrimmage against Chelsea Friday, 10 a.m. They then tackle Saline in the season's first scheduled game Tuesday, at home. JV's start at 6 p.m., varsity at 7:30.

Sue's Heading for Second All-State Title . . . She's a Star!

By KENT DOWNING

Note: This article was written with a great deal of help from Clinton basketball coach, Bob King.

She's started and played in every Clinton varsity girls basketball game since the fall of 1975 when she became a starter as a freshman. That's 84 games in a row for senior Sue Richter.

Sue has quite a large list of honors and championship titles and she well deserves them. To top the list, she was all-state class C last year. This year she should certainly again be chosen to the team.

In fact, even according to her very able and justly prejudice coach Bob King, Sue has the moves and shots of the very best in the business. There may be a few players better overall or in one or two categories than Sue is, but there's not nearly enough around to fill the all-state class C team without her.

Sue's interest in basketball began at an early age, but her first organized play began in the winter of 1973 when she became a starter on the boys seventh grade team. She led in scoring and was second in rebounding that year.

The following year Sue joined the eighth grade team as a starter. She was third in scoring on a team that finished 8-2. All together, the two teams had a very impressive 31-1 record as freshmen and sophomores in high school.

Then in the fall of 1975, Sue started on the girls squad as a freshman and she's been a super offensive player, a good defensive player and an excellent rebounder ever since.

She plays a high post position, but has moved around on offense to some degree this year. She moves along the foul line and down the foul lanes. She uses a 15 to 20 foot jump shot and any of her opponents will tell you, she's almost impossible to stop.

And though Clinton's girls basketball hasn't received all the popularity as it deserves in the past, Sue is primarily responsible for the news and crowds the team does get.

Just how good is she? Statistics do not lie. Sue has hit 45% of her shots from the floor this year and nearly 70% from the foul line. She's averaging 18.9 points a game. Sue's had 138 rebounds, 74 assists and 65 steals. And probably most importantly of all, Sue has the job of running Clinton's offense smoothly and she does it like a professional.

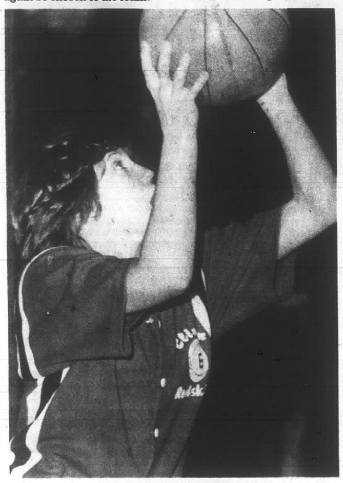
Sue's stats are actually down from a year ago, but part of that is due to her changing offense at times. She's also been shooting a lot less this year and she's been pulled out of games that were lopsided Clinton's way.

Her total high school points hit 1474, just 27 points away from last year's third place record for the state. She's only 51 points away from being the second leading scorer in the state and she's presently fourth.

The regular season is over for Sue, but the girls team must now begin district play and Sue has a good shot for that second place honor.

But if she doesn't reach that goal, Sue certainly has nothing to be upset about. Overall, since she has played with the varsity girls team, they have had two LCAA championships, three district championships, two regional runnerups and one regional championship. And that does not include this year or her total 69-15 career record in high school basketball.

Sue is a star!



SUE RICHTER SHOOTS TWO

Ski Club To Begin

The Tecumseh Recreation Department is again sponsoring a junior and senior high Ski Club and asks that youths register for the club's Tuesday trips no later than Nov. 27.

At least 25 students must register and a maximum participation of 32 will be allowed. Trips will be scheduled to Mt. Brighton with departure times to be announced at the school.

Registration forms may be picked up at the Tecumseh Recreation Department, from Mrs. Anderson at the high school, or from Mr. Montcalm's office at the junior high.

Girls Shine Second Half

The Indian girls came out cold Thursday against Monroe Jefferson and trailed most the first half. Then they pulled one point ahead, 17-18, at the midpoint and literally blew Jefferson away the second half. Final score sat the Indians on top, 46-23.

The Indians, in fact, held Jefferson to just six points the entire second half. They started going after the Monroe shooters and tightened up their defense. The Indians also played the rebounds better and ended up bettering Monroe, 24-12.

The team shot a very high 46 percent from the floor with Gloria Fosbender and Sandy MacGeorge getting high honors with 12 points each. Kris MacDonald also hit double figures with 10 points.

The win leaves the Indians secured in second place in the league with a 10-4 record. Monroe St. Mary is in first place.

The girls drew for district play to begin Monday and the Indians will battle Columbia Central. Columbia has an 11-5 record. If the Indians win their November 27th game at 8 p.m., they will battle Jackson Northwest at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

The semi-final bracket will then be filled for the Friday, Dec. 1 district title match.

VICTORY — The Tecumseh girls' squad started slow against Jefferson Thursday but exploded in the second half to win by a 20 point plus margin. Clockwise from left, Sandy MacGeorge goes for two with Gloria Fosbender, 22, and Kathy Kruger behind. Next, Fosbender, hits two. Right, number 34, sophomore Kris McDonald pulls down a rebound.

Clinton Girls Finish at 16-2

The Clinton Redskin girls basketball team scored two easy victories last week over Blissfield and Morenci to conclude their regular season with an outstanding 16-2 record.

At Blissfield the roundballers jumped off to a quick 24-7 first quarter lead and were never headed. Sue Richter scored 18 points during the first half as Clinton led 35-12. Outscoring Blissfield 29-11 during the second half, the Redskins breezed to an easy 64-23 win.

Nine players scored for the Redskins with Richter leading the way with 24 points while Lisa Cark had 11 and Judy Zimmerman added 10. Cark hauled down a season high 20 rebounds. ++

At Morenci the girls scored the first 10 points of the game and led 14-6 at the end of the first quarter. Clinton increased its lead and led 33 to 21 at halftime.

Morenci went stone cold in the third quarter as the Redskins stretched their lead to 44-22 and coasted to their 16th victory of the year, 53-30.

Playing in their last regular season game, seniors Sue Richter and Lisa Cark played very well with Richter scoring 22 points. Cark added 17 points and picked off 14 rebounds.

According to Clinton coach Bob King this was the third straight well played game by the Redskins. "We have been shooting very well (around 40%), controlling the boards and playing good defense," said King.

At the drawing Monday for district #68, which will be played at Clinton High School, the Redskins drew Blissfield.

They will play at 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 27. All district games will start at 7 p.m. Games will be played on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and the finals are set for Saturday, Dec. 2.

Criticize Mayor, Writer, Editor

Open Letter To: Editor of The Tecumseh Herald, Mayor and Council of the City of Tecumseh, Interested Citizens:

Recently I had the occasion to phone the mayor of our city for the purpose of making an inquiry regarding a city ordinance. He refused to talk to me because I chose not to divulge my name. As a responsible citizen of the city this bothers me. We did not have to give our name on the ballot to elect him to city council so I think we should not have to give our name to talk to him. The extended principle of our constitutional right to secret ballot should never be compromised.

Many people are not outspoken on matters that may concern themselves or others and would like to be heard anonymously. Mr. Mayor, I know the citizens did not have a direct choice in making you mayor, but they did elect you to the council. Part of your job as mayor should be to listen to everyone. After all I only called to find out what an ordinance was, nothing more. You have a responsibility to us all. Does the rest of the council know you will not accept calls unless you know the caller's name? A new mayor will be chosen by council in January and maybe these facts will help in their decision.

In defense of the mayor he may have been tired or eating or whatever, any of us have many times when we would not want to be bothered. The point here is that I believe we need a change in city law to allow direct public election of our mayor by popular vote. In return for the honor of being given this office we would then be able to expect at least limited hours when the mayor would be available in person or by phone at the city hall. I believe that this would result in a much greater opportunity for public input and consequently a more responsive and sensitive city government.

One other idea I favor would be cable televising of council meetings with a live phone for public answering local cable citizens questions. During the recent campaign the televised debates produced many constructive questions that probably would not have been asked if it were necessary for people to go out to present their questions in person. Citizens have many reasons for not attending council meetings (work, age, illness, shyness, children, etc.) that do not necessarily equate as apathy. Let's put the modern conveniences of telephone and television to work for us.

At this time I chose to be heard and sign,

Respectfully,
Mary Lou Dangler

To the Editor:

In regard to the letter from Mrs. Dangler, which was sent to Council and which appears in public print: I would much prefer to handle such a matter privately. But since the letter appears here, may I answer publicly?

About three weeks ago I received a telephone call from a person identifying herself as a "concerned citizen", who said she wished to talk with me. I told her I would be happy to talk with her, and I asked her name. She said she preferred to speak as a "concerned citizen", and I explained that if she wished to speak with me she must tell me with whom I was speaking. She said in that case she would have to write a letter. I was courteous to her; I tried to be polite. I thanked her for her call.

I feel it is the responsibility of every public servant to make oneself available at any time to any one who wishes to discuss city problems, but I have always insisted both in my public and private life that I will not accept anonymous telephone calls.

Contrary to Mrs. Dangler's contention that no-name telephone calls are akin to the privacy one is guaranteed in the voting booth, I cannot accept the comparison. I believe it's only common courtesy that if one telephones another, one should identify oneself, and not attempt to cloak oneself in anonymity.

Sincerely,
Aden E. Mead
Mayor of Tecumseh

To the Editor,

Why is it that every time someone objects to an item in a paper, they threaten to stop buying it? An example was a letter in your last issue objecting to a previous published advertisement.

A student of advertising is taught that the first item is an advertisement must catch the eye. Apparently it did, because she read the ad.

Without advertising there would be no publications, TV or radio. If we would ascend to her thinking, would we not advertise swim suits, lingerie, panty hose, etc.?

I read a large variety of publications. Certain ads and stories offend me. I just don't finish reading them or turn the page. On TV, I just don't listen.

If your reader cancels all the publications that run ads like the one she objected to, her only source of news and information would be the Christian Science Monitor.

Sincerely,
C. Chapman

To the Editor:

As in the case of two young men earlier, you again have become Judge, Jury and Prosecutor in the eyes of the Public in regards to Mr. Fox.

One wonders if the same type of front page article would have appeared in the Herald if the accused person had been a member of the Board of Education, an administrator at Tecumseh Products, a member of the City Council, a school administrator, a fireman or a policeman.

Your sense of justice stinks! A person is still innocent until proven guilty. Let's let the jury decide - not you!

As in the case of the two boys, you prejudged, assumed guilt, and pronounced the verdict even before they had a chance to defend themselves.

A man's career and reputation are at stake, Mr. Lincoln. Thank God your paper only comes out once a week. At 25c a copy, its not worth the paper it's printed on. You don't serve the public, you serve James Lincoln. At least the Telegram put the story in its second section and used a little taste and common sense.

Again, I dedicate the enclosed prayer to James Lincoln.

Dare you print this letter in your next edition? I doubt it.

County Tries New Sewer Fund Source

By Donald E. Mitchell
Lenawee County
Drain Commissioner

BRITTON — The bids received last August for construction of the Britton-Ridgeway sewer system came in too high to be accepted. Our authorized finances were inadequate for such high cost even with the EPA and DNR grants. Therefore, we could not award contracts on those bids. But EPA would not allow us to reject them.

The Headlee amendment approved Nov. 7, now prevents the county from issuing bonds for the benefit of that community project. The village and township now face the responsibility for carrying out their required pollution control project and financing it some other way.

It now appears there may be another way. The unique circumstances of that community situation now seem to fit another fedesal program, the Farm Home Administration. We have studied that possibility and have filed application with that agency.

If qualified and approved, it is possible to continue with the EPA grant program now holding and get some financing of local cost through Farm Home Administration. There is much red tape to the whole package and some changes in the present financing plan will have to be made.

The community may yet succeed in getting their project under construction in 1979 without increasing their own assessments in spite of higher construction cost and in spite of the Headlee handicap. There is hope.

Meanwhile, the special assessments now being levied in Britton are legal and necessary. Ridgeway is advised to proceed with levy of its special assessment now also. These will help to make it all possible even though some changes in the procedure may be made during the next year.

We hope to get favorable response from Farm Home Administration in six or eight weeks. The EPA grant offer previously accepted is holding until Jan. 24, 1979, and can be extended if progress is being made. We hope to be in position to take new construction bids in January.

Dedication

BRITTON — Nov. 26, as part of the morning worship service, the Britton Bethel Baptist Church will dedicate its new steeple in memory of Iva Caswell, charter member, who died two years ago.

Family and friends of Iva are also invited to attend.

Farewell for Hunts

BRITTON — Nov. 19, following the evening service, a fellowship farewell was held by the Britton Bethel Baptist Church for Bob and Almina Hunt.

Mrs. Gerald Booth decorated a cake for the occasion which read, "Bob and Almina, May God's blessings go with you. Your friends at BBBC."

An engraved plaque was presented with the inscription, "Bob and Almina, Nov. 19, 1978. Nor time nor distance can divide, our hearts that in His love abide. Your friends at Britton Bethel Baptist Church."

Almina has been actively involved in the music ministry of the church.

The Hunts will move to Arizona.

BRITTON — Elwood Little, president of the Lenawee County Historical Society presented a program, European Discovery Adventure at the group's Nov. 16 meeting. Little told of his travels through Yugoslavia, Switzerland and Germany.

Dr. Charles Lindquist, curator for the historical society museum, announced the official "kick-off" of the Heritage Project Fund Drive, chaired by Dr. John Dawson.

Proceeds will be used to transfer the historical society museum from its original site on Main Street in Adrian to the Carnegie Library, formerly the Adrian Public Library next to Adrian City Hall.

The society's goal is $100,000 which it hopes to achieve through donations and various fund raising projects throughout the county.

Betty Kline, president of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society, verbally committed $500 from the Tecumseh group to the project and "challenged" the Lenawee Historical Society members to surpass it.

The women fellowship of the Britton Congregational Christian Church provided the meal at the church.

The Lenawee County Historical society has 363 members and welcomes any one interested in membership.

President Speaks at FFA Convention

BRITTON — Alan Dickerson and Jeff Judkins, FFA members, and their advisor, Roger Anspaugh heard President Jimmy Carter speak at the national convention in Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 6-10.

President Carter spoke about leadership and told about the FFA when he was a member. He had received the honorary American Farmer degree.

Other speakers were Paul Harvey and Raellen Lescault, an ambassador from Disneyland, and Mickey Mouse, who is celebrating his 50th birthday.

Prior to arrival in Kansas City, the three stopped in Quincy, Ill. for a tour of the Moorman Feed Company. The company hosted a breakfast for the visitors. They toured the laboratories, plant and research barns.

On a stop in Independence, Mo., the group viewed the late President Truman's grave, the Truman Library and the Truman Museum. They also made stops at the Allis-Chalmers assembly plant and in St. Louis, they visited the arch.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

By now most of the leaves are down; in fact, most of them are bagged and hauled away. A few of our creek bank maples are still stubbornly clinging to a leaf or two but that is par for the course.

These trees are always reluctant to drop those last few leaves. Now, of course, the horizons of the window pictures have expanded and, as happens each fall, we are amazed at how far we can see. Every spring it is such a thrill when that first faint tinge of green appears in the treetops and yet each year at this time it is so satisfying to have the leaf curtain down and the world opened-up.

Is it just me or was the fall color spectacular not quite as spectacular as usual this year? Prettyman's maples were bright; they did not, however, seem to have that intense inner glow that they usually have. Mom's sarvis tree did itself proud, its oblong leaves were a beautiful coppery color. The winged euonymus bushes along the back fence took on their own day-glow fiery pink/red and surprised us by complimenting the copperish brown cherry tree leaves. Never before had I thought of cherry trees as being particularly pretty in the fall. Our dogwood tree had a rough time last winter but it put forth a good crop of leaves which turned the usual dark, dark crimson. All in all, I guess it was better color show than, at the first of the paragraph, I thought.

Now that the trees are bare it is interesting to check and see where the birds reared their families. Nests which were well hidden are now in clear sight. We spotted one the other day near the top of some — well, they are either tall tree-like bushes or short bush-like trees. Anyway there was a small nest there and, after raining but, after several days of strong wind, it vanished. We did not have time for a 'binocular' inspection so have no idea who the poor nest builders were. Mourning doves throw together sloppy nests but this was smaller than theirs would be. The casual look we had did not give the impression of bad construction. It could not have been good though to have blown away as it did.

Our view up the creek now extends to the bend in back of Gerti S's and looking north we can once more see Dorothy and Jan's. Any stretch of water has different moods and thank goodness, our beloved Evans Creek is no exception.

Now it will be our pleasure to become reacquainted with them. The stretch of creek in our west facing picture window has two curves and three sets of shallow rapids with quiet pools between them.

The rapids are nothing more than gatherings of stones over which the water bubbles. The surface of the pools mirror the sky. Bright sunny days show the water blue and often there is a nice reflection of the tall trees which line the creek.

On dark gray days the creek is black and foreboding; on the other hand, there are also cloudy days which turn it to burnished pewter and occasionally we have seen clouds which made our creek look silver.

Directly across the creek is a weed patch, a regular jungle of bushes, small trees, and weeds. Possibly an eyesore to humans but a paradise for the birds, squirrels, and rabbits.

During the summer we wonder what is going on over there, now we can know. It should attract all sorts of action this winter — there simply must be a super supply of natural food for the seed eaters, the dead and dying trees will be a hangout for the woodpeckers and, of course, the 'gone wild' bushes will provide protection for both birds and animals.

All of this is just a short flight from the feeding stations so there should be heavy traffic back and forth across the creek. And just think, we can see it all!

Brunch Kicks Off Christmas Walk

By Maxine Calhoun

Clinton Area Merchants will sponsor the fifth annual Christmas Walk in Clinton, Sunday, Nov. 26 from noon to 5 p.m.

Others assisting with the brunch are being recruited from St. Dominic's Catholic Church, St. John's Episcopal Church and United Methodist Church.

After brunch, folks are invited to stop in at the Smith-Kimball Community Center, where old-fashioned Christmas decorations, circa the 1800's, will be shown, as arranged by Shamrock Senior Citizens.

Shirley Fraley of the Historical Society of Clinton will present history of the center.

The downtown Clinton merchants will be open with holiday merchandise until 5 p.m.

Santa will greet youngsters in the State Savings Bank of Clinton.

Right across the street, the Clinton Township Library will be open from 12:30 to 4 p.m. with a special program of movies and stories for the children.

Grownups are asked to visit the library, too, to see the many things the library has to offer. There are three new paperback filled "trees" with all sorts of subjects to read about. Also there are many new books on the shelves, and a new magazine display.

Books may be checked out on Sunday, when librarian, Janet Welch and assistant, Janalee Welch, and daughter-in-law, Madelon Welch will be present to assist visitors.

After a circle around the downtown shops, it will be time to return to the Community Center lawn at 4 p.m. for a musical presentation by the Community Choir directed by Peg Geiger.

At 5 p.m. there will be a tree lighting ceremony at the newly installed 20-ft. pine tree moved to the Center lawn from the Joe O'Donnell residence for this occasion.

It all sounds like a good sendoff for the holiday season in Clinton.

The former Tecumsehite has amassed a repertoire of hundreds of tricks. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Lowery, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Perry of Jonesville and Sarah Lowery of Tecumseh.

Jack Silberhorn, 3701 Rogers Hwy. got an eight point deer Nov. 16 at 7 a.m. in the woods behind their home. "He's been going out there faithfully for 20 years. When I heard those shots, I just knew it was time," said his wife, Wilma.

Joseph B. Hooper Jr. received a certificate in welding. Gregory S. Illeck received a bachelor of science degree in auto and heavy equipment technology and Peggy A. Smith received an associates in science degree in radiologic technology with distinction.

Gus Wellnitz celebrated his 98th birthday Nov. 10. He flew, for the second time in his life, to Florida Nov. 5 to winter near his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, also wintering from the Tecumseh area. Gus' address is Rt. 1 Box 403 Eden Gardens, Inverness, Fla., 32650.

Club Plants 400 Daffodils

As one of its projects, the Adrian Garden Club met recently at the Milton C. Porter Education Center to plant daffodils around the newly erected sign at the front of the facility.

The project was under the direction of the Adrian Garden Club president, Mrs. Milton C. Porter. The presentation of 400 bulbs was made by Mrs. Earl J. Peters.

Assisting those from the Garden Club were members of Boy Scout Troop No. 102, all pupils at the Porter Center, under the direction of Scout Master Harold Tesch.

Tesch thanked Garden Club members for their part in beautifying the grounds at the Center and recalled that last year the same group had planted a tree which now thrives on the grounds.

In a brief program the Scouts lined up, each holding a placard with the name of one of the goals of the Boy Scouts.

Board Reports on Addition

The building, grounds committee reported on the progress of the Ridgeway school addition at Monday's school board meeting and set late winter or early spring as the completion date.

The exterior is near completion with only the roof needing work. The building is weather proof now.

The committee reported that some interior work, such as cutting walls and moving cabinets, could not be done until Christmas break when the children were not in school.

City Seeks New Bid

Tecumseh City Council rejected the lone bid received on a new car for the police department in hopes of finding a vehicle with faster delivery rate and maybe at a lower cost.

Council rejected the bid of Erb Chevrolet-Buick, Inc. for an Impala at $6,500 with 90 day delivery.

Bid was based on an auto to meet State Police car specifications.

Zorn suggested that if Council changed specifications, the city might be able to get delivery faster.

"We need to be better informed on the difference between a police package and what we could get...because I have to answer to those people who say we don't give our policemen the right kind of cars." stated Councilmember Carlton Cook.

Council is seeking to replace a police department car that was wrecked Nov. 4 in a chase of a runaway youth. That car was a 1978 Plymouth put into service last May. City collected $4712 in the insurance settlement. Car was purchased through state purchasing department at $5,400.

One of the city's three administrative cars was moved over to the police department to bring the department back to total of three cars.

"If something would happen to another police car, we're going to have problems," said City manager Cal Zorn. In case of an accident, another administrative car would have to be moved over to the police department, making the city officials short a car.

Raisin Board Meets

Raisin Township board had its reorganizational meeting Monday.

Newly elected officers are Robert D. Moore, supervisor, who succeeds Richard Gallaway; Marjorie Comfort, clerk; Lynette Sayler, treasurer. Robert Murray, trustee was returned to office and Eugene Vaughn, trustee is serving the last half of his four year term.

Township office hours were set as Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9-1.

Treasurer Lynette Sayler will collect taxes at the Sutton Branch office of the United Savings Bank on Fridays and at the Township office, 9-5, during tax collection period.

Tax statements will be out by Dec. 1.

Two new members were appointed temporarily to the township board of appeals. Trustee Robert Murray replaces Richard Gallaway and Township Planning Commission Chairman Lee Coffey replaces Carl Wagner.

Board unanimously reappointed Carl Wagner as fire chief for two years.

Board voted to hold a public hearing in December, date to be determined, regarding a tax break for Fisher Body under Public Act 198. A split vote was recorded with Murray, Vaughn and Sayler voting "yes" and Moore and Comfort voting "no".

Announcing
A Major Breakthrough in Banking:
"All the money you used to keep in your checking account now can earn 5% daily interest."
SAVINGS & CHECKING
AUTOMATIC TRANSFER ACCOUNT
Commercial Savings Bank announces the Automatic Transfer Account. It's a plan that combines the 5% daily interest of savings, and the convenience of checking.
From now on, all the money you had tied up in a checking account balance can be put into a CSB Automatic Transfer Savings Account. You'll still keep your checking account, and you'll still write checks as usual. But the exact amount needed to cover each check will be transferred automatically from your savings.
And, if you keep a minimum monthly savings account balance of $1,250, you can write as many checks as you want, with no service charge.*
With an ATA you'll earn more interest. Because now all the money you deposit at CSB will earn 5% daily interest.
It adds up to more money for you. No wonder we call it a Major Breakthrough in Banking.
*When minimum balance is less than $1,250, monthly service charge will be $4.00 plus 20¢ per check.

Investigate 6 Complaints

Six complaints investigated by Tecumseh police the past week were minor, but three persons were arrested for violations.

Saturday, police were summoned to the lobby of the post office where Alfred M. Wesley, 57, of 314 N. Maumee St., and Lois M. Wells, 46, same address, were found drinking and squabbling over a bottle of whiskey.

Both were charged with being disorderly and taken to the Lenawee County jail.

In another drinking related incident, Jeffrey A. Peters, 22, of 206 Pine St., was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol. Peters was arrested on N. VanBuren after police observed him weaving on other city streets.

Other complaints were:

Nov. 16 - Faye Crane of Crane Motor Sales, 807 W. Chicago Blvd., reported four wheel covers stolen from one car, and a battery removed from another.

Nov. 16 - John Birchfield of Tecumseh Tire Exchange, 615 Mohawk, told officers a battery had been stolen from an automobile there.

Nov. 16 - A. Flores, 607 Center Dr., reported a scratched left door on his vehicle.

Nov. 19 - Phillip Karner, 1301 W. Chicago Blvd., reported a wood chair thrown through a window there.

You Are What You Eat

By Shirley Weekley

From the Christmas season this year, I wanted to offer some recipes from around the world.

This first recipe, from Pauline Mueller, is a popular German Christmas cookie. It calls for a five pound bag of flour and makes a lot of cookies. Mrs. Mueller suggests you use a very large bowl to mix them.

LEBKUCHENS

½ cup butter
½ cup shortening
1 pint honey
1 pint molasses
1 pint sour cream
4½ cup brown sugar
5 eggs
1 tablespoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon cloves
2 tablespoon cinnamon
5 pound flour
4 tablespoon baking soda
¼ pound citron
¼ pound lemon peel
¼ pound orange peel
5 cups chopped hickory or walnut meats

Heat through the first seven ingredients, but do not boil. Mix spices, flour and soda together and add to first mixture. Add fruits and nuts. Chill overnight. Roll out and cut in squares.

Bake 350 degrees for 10 minutes until lightly browned. Dough can be kept in refrigerator for up to two weeks well. Makes 300 large cookies.

The Cooperative Extension Service of Lenawee County supplied these Mexican holiday cookies. They are easy to prepare and good.

MEXICAN CINNAMON COOKIES

2 cups shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
4 cups flour
1 cups pecan pieces
cinnamon and sugar

Cream shortening and sugar; beat in eggs. Add flour and nuts and mix. Roll into balls. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 minutes. After baking, dust in cinnamon and sugar while still hot.

The Cooperative Extension Service of Lenawee County offers a food demonstration one evening each month. For a minimal fee, you can watch a variety of foods prepared, receive the printed recipes and best of all, you can sample each of the delicacies they prepare.

For further information, call the Extension Service at (517) 263-8831, ext. 329.

Have a nice Thanksgiving!!

Council Accepts Electric Light Bid

Tecumseh City Council accepted the low bid of Courtesy Electric Corp. for 24 yard lights at cost of $114.80 for the fixture only.

The lights will be posted in the Westhaven subdivision as construction is completed.

Residents there are under Rural Electric Company which does not have a street lighting program. Under previous agreement, city has furnished lights and homeowners furnish power.

Refer Report

The Tecumseh School Board referred a report on the need for special education learning disabilities rooms to the policy committee Monday night.

In the past, the intermediate district provided a half time teacher for the service and the school was assigned one consultant for learning in 1978. The comprehensive masterplan for Tecumseh, however, calls for as many as three classrooms for grades K-12.

The policy committee was instructed to study the overall situation and make recommendations at a later date. At present, the schools have no space for the extra rooms.

According to surveys, appoximately two percent of the elementary children and between one and one and a half percent of high school students are in need of some sort of special education disability counseling or teaching.

"What . . . all out of turkey!"

No nation in history has ever had more to be thankful for, this Thanksgiving Season, than these United States.

Blame Students in Cancelling Adrian Rivalry

Tecumseh's decision to cancel its football rivalry with Adrian was an administrative one, Supt. Robert Duhan explains.

Local decision, which involved discussions with the football coaches, was reviewed with the school board at a special meeting on Nov. 6th. Adrian administrators learned last week of Tecumseh's decision.

Supt. Duhan says major reasons for terminating football relations involved non-football, related incidents, including incidents by students from both schools.

At the present, the 1979 game is still scheduled and will not be dropped unless both Adrian and Tecumseh are able to schedule agreeable opponents, Duhan reports.

Donald Brazee, high school assistant principal and athletic director, is currently involved in contacting other schools, not only for a possible replacement next fall but also for the 1980 season when the Indians enter a new league.

It's not known at this time that Tecumseh and Adrian will drop competition in other athletics.

Four Are Suspended for Violating Code

At a closed session of the school board Monday night, the board found four football players in violation of the student code for drinking on a school bus following the Tecumseh-Monroe CC football game.

All four started 10-day suspensions Wednesday, Nov. 29th, Supt. Robert Duhan announces.

An injunction prevented a prior suspension as the parents of the four took legal action. Last week, Judge Rex Martin returned the problem to the local board.

Both players and parents attended Monday night's meeting, Duhan reported.

Discussing Aid

A scholarship and financial aid information meeting for the parents of Tecumseh High School seniors will be held this Thursday evening at Tecumseh High School Chorus room, 7:30 p.m.

Counselors will tell how to meet college costs by applying for federal grants, the Michigan scholarship and tuition grants, college financial aid and local scholarships.

Help in understanding and filling out the family financial aid form will be given.

Because of the recent changes which have occurred in the financial aid area, the Tecumseh High School guidance counselors urge the parents of this year's seniors who will be seeking financial aid, to attend this meeting for the latest information.

$1,000 Damages

Samuel Swain's house at 1005 Park St. sustained approximately $1,000 in damages early Monday morning before a fire there was extinguished by the Tecumseh Fire Department.

A trash container near the building is blamed for the cause of the fire.

FIRST SNOWMAN — Todd Clark at left and Kelly Doe, both five-year-olds from Tecumseh, made the most of the first snowfall of the winter season and attempted to build their first snowman. By the looks of it, they enjoyed posing for the camera and sampling the snow just as much.

Officials Reject Two Ambulance Service Bids, Seek New Ones

Bids for emergency medical services from two private ambulance companies in Lenawee County were rejected Monday night by a consortium of governments that includes the city of Tecumseh and neighboring townships.

The bid of Bennett-Navarree of Lenawee and Monroe Counties was approximately $64,000 for one alternative with four service units and $70,000 for two other alternatives combined. It was considered financially unacceptable by the consortium.

The second bidder, EMT of Palmyra, submitted a late bid of $1 per person in the subscribing units of local government, for all three alternatives.

The consortium has asked that new bids be submitted by Dec. 4, 9:30 a.m. to the office of Marc Grossman, coordinator of Lenawee County Human Services.

Grossman said that both companies were informed that the bids were rejected, both indicated that they were interested in bidding again.

The individual governmental units will begin their regular business meetings Monday night. They have been asked to discuss the incoming bids so that their representatives can proceed at a consortium meeting set for Dec. 13, 7 p.m. at Tecumseh city hall.

Units of local government that do not have emergency medical services from a public provider were asked by the county to form a consortium to contract the services in the most cost efficient way.

Working in a consortium will make the local governments eligible for a $1 per capita subsidy from the county for these services. This subsidy amount is roughly $45,000 if the maximum number of governments participate.

To qualify for the subsidy, the ambulance companies bid on a one year contract with specifications approved by the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners.

Those units of governmet that may opt to join the program in the immediate Tecumseh area are the city of Tecumseh, villages of Clinton and Britton, townships of Ridgeway, Raisin, Clinton, Tecumseh, Macon and Franklin.

Others are the city of Adrian, townships of Adrian, Palmyra, Cambridge, Rome and village of Onsted.

If the new bids are the same or higher, where does the consortium go from there?

"The members of the consortium will have to decide," said Grossman.

He said it still may be possible that the consortium could agree on a contract with the private companies and start the subsidy plan as outlined by the county by Jan. 1, as previously planned.

Local units will determine whether or not they want to participate in the plan and how they will share the expense.

Her Ancestor Signed Declaration

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Oliphant stepped back into her family's history this past summer when they were royally welcomed by the townspeople of Amesbury, N.H., the hometown of Mrs. Oliphant's grandfather, Josiah Bartlett, first signer of the Declaration of Independence.

Josiah Bartlett was a man of many accomplishments. He was a physician of note and chartered the first medical society in New Hampshire.

As a patriot, he was a leader in the Province and later became the Governor of New Hampshire.

Most outstanding of all, he raised a large family which is noteworthy in the medical field. There were more doctors in his family than could be found in others in that home state.

Josiah Bartlett's statue stands in the Amesbury town square. During their visit, the Oliphants copied library materials and purchased a Bicentennial medallion struck in honor of the American Revolution hero.

The trip to Amesbury climaxed the Tecumseh couple's camping tour through southeastern Canada from Iron Bridge to Nova Scotia and on to northern New England.

Early in the trip, they visited the Sudbury, Ontario area which claims to be the world's richest mining area. They traveled along Lake Nipissing, the Ottawa River and into Montreal, Quebec where they toured the city by bus, then crossed the St. Lawrence Seaway bridge.

In Nova Scotia, they said the hills, valleys and ocean bays are unbelievable. They stayed in Cape Britton Highlands National Park where they were 1,500 feet above ocean level and rounded steep, sharp curves that turned into one way bridges.

They visited a Gaelic cottage museum on the way to Toro Bay and near Halifax, they saw people harvesting cranberries.

Throughout the entire trip, fresh seafood was the main fare. (Sometimes it was too fresh to be appetizing.)

Outside of Halifax, Peggy Cove offered a light house scene with booming surf.

At Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, they visited the fisherman's festival, witnessed a long parade, camped on the fairgrounds, were entertained by an accordian player singing Scotish tunes and saw an ox pull competition with 15 teams. The most weight a team pulled was 10,700 lbs.

The Oliphants crossed the Bay of Fundy and crossed the Economy Mountains. They saw the museum of Portsborough and found fossil fragments on the cliffs near Joggins.

Near Balmoral Wells, they watched grain meal being ground by the old stone method at a circa 1876 grist mill. They purchased some whole grain flours.

Near Gran Pre, the Oliphants visited a church with a picturesque flower and shrub garden and statue of Evangeline. They stopped at many lookout points along the highways and observed the ocean surf and villages below them.

They traveled by ferry to St. John and that night camped safely while the rain poured, wind howled and surf pounded.

Once in Maine, they followed the ocean highway.

After their visit to Amesbury, they continued into New York. They toured the Finger Lakes area, near Auburn, N.Y. and observed grape vineyards on both sides of the highway for as far as the eye could see.

They celebrated their return trip by picking mushrooms and preparing a steak and mushroom feast before coming home.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

I just looked out the window and there are squirrels everywhere. They are in the trees, on the feeders, and in the yards. There are big squirrels and little squirrels. They are chasing, eating and even resting.

About the only thing they have in common is that all are zippered into thick and warm fur coats.

And speaking of those heavy coats, I only hope that the old wives' tale is not true. The one about the thickness of animal's fur or hair indicating the severity of the winter.

Supposedly the heavier the coat the animal grows, the harder the winter will be. If true we are in for trouble. Our squirrels are all sporting super heavycoats — what we don't need is another winter like the last one.

Let's see, there are other 'scientific' weather indicators. Usually the TV weather news is full of them. The way moss grows on a tree is supposed to indicate something but I can never remember what. Corn husks tell something too.

Perhaps the best known and most often quoted concerns the woolly bear caterpillar. Is it the width of the brown band around the middle of the caterpillar that foretells something about he upcoming season? Does a wide band mean excessively cold or unseasonably mild? It is really not pertinent that I know because fortunately I have seen no woolly bears lately.

But getting back to our all-set-for-winter squirrels. Their fur coats seem especially warm looking this year. We all have noticed and commented. When they hunker down on the near-my-window feeders, it is impossible not to see the thickness of their pelts.

We especially laugh at their ears — in the summer, when the fox squirrels are wearing their warm weather gear, the tops of their heads, especially between their ears, are smooth and sleek which makes their ears look surprisingly large.

At this time of year that area is heavily furred, much of the ears are covered and my, but they do look ever so much shorter. In like manner their legs appear shorter now.

The hectic fall harvesting has just about ended and the squirrels should be well prepared for winter as far as food goes.

There was a beautiful walnut crop and much of it has been put away for cold weather snacking.

What Don did not rake up and put behind the white end-of-the-street barrier, the squirrels took care of themselves.

We like to have the surplus piled up in the ravine for then the squirrels can forage all winter long. They do too and it is great fun to watch a big fat squirrel burrow down into the snow and come up like a white snowman with a walnut tightly clasped in his jaws.

The fox squirrels and the nasty red squirrels store their walnuts differently. Both work frantically hard; however, the large squirrels are buriers while the little ones are storers.

With fall being so dry, the ground was, of course, concrete hard. The fox squirrels could have with their sharp claws and strong legs, dug holes but it would have been hard work. Reds smart they did most of their nut burying in the flower beds.

They will not begin to dig up all of the nuts they buried and who knows, next spring we might have walnut forests sprouting around the barberry bushes and beneath my south facing window.

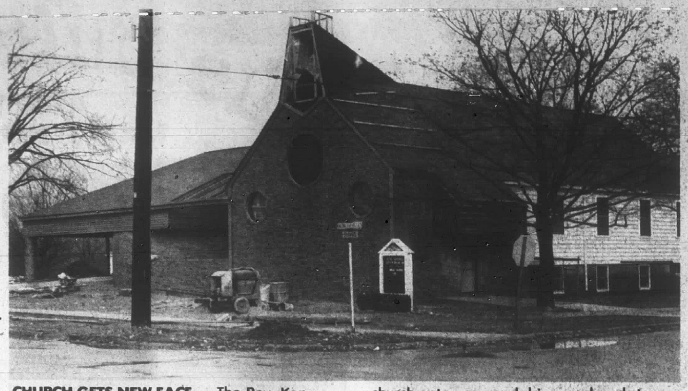
The pesky Little Reds have two ways of 'catching' their wintertime goodies.

A cavity in a tree makes a good storehouse. And at the other extreme, these squirrels will tuck nuts into the small crotches of trees or balance them on a fairly level spot on a tree limb.

By chewing or scratching at the shell or husk of the walnut the Little Reds apparently make the walnuts sticky enough to adhere to the tree limbs.

A strong wind will dislodge both the nuts planted on limbs and those carefully pushed into the crotches but until this happens, a well decorated tree is a rather surprising sight.

Right now the window pictures are full of squirrels. It is only a matter of time though before the Little Reds drive the fox squirrels out of the neighborhood. They will chase them away unless we invite the little beasts to leave first.



CHURCH GETS NEW FACE — The Rev. Kenneth Strack reported progress on the new $130,000 addition at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, corners of N. Maumee and Shawnee Streets. Wright Bros. Construction is doing the work which will include a new church entry, covered drive, enclosed steps, ramp, enlarged entry, pastor's study and children's room. A brick face replaces the siding. Three symbolic stained glass windows will decorate the front.

Pledge Cash for Three Projects

The Nov. 14 meeting of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society proved to be fiscally active. The society committed $2,600 to three major projects that will have an impact on the entire community.

The first project will be a marker system for historic structures in Tecumseh. The markers will help visitors and residents alike to learn something of the historical perspective of the town as they move about the streets.

The wooden, weather-proofed markers will be approximately 8-1/2" x 11" in the sepia tone with dark brown writing that have been the colors associated with the TAHS.

Markers will be available to any owner of a historic structure who can verify the original owner and date the structure was built. The only requirement is that the marker be attached to the exterior of the structure where it can easily be seen from the sidewalk or street.

"Many people who visit or live in our town comment on the many interesting structures along our streets, but they don't know anything about how old they are or what names are associated with particular buildings," commented Betty Kline, historical society president.

Other towns noted for interest in heritage, such as Savannah, Ga. have a marking system.

"Not only is it informational, but it serves as a daily reminder of the rich history of the area and the names associated with the town's early pioneers," Kline added.

For more information, contact Mrs. Kline.

The biggest and most visible project initiated is the repair of the Brookside Cemetery and Pioneer Park fence.

The society advanced $2,000 to blacksmith John Kosirnik of Clinton to do the restoration work in which he specializes.

Kosirnik was a blacksmith at Greenfield Village until his smithing became so much in demand that he went into private business.

The entire restoration project involves over 1,200 ft. of fence. It will take approximately two months, weather permitting and will cost $3,800.

The historical society is looking to the community for support in raising the remaining $1,800. Many of the town's founders are buried in Brookside Cemetery. Pioneer Park marks the former site of the home of Tecumseh's founder, Musgrove Evans. The park is located on N. Evans along Evans Creek.

Anyone who would like to contribute to the resotration project may mail contributions to the Tecumseh Area Historical Society (Fence Fund), P.O. Box 26, Tecumseh, Mich. 49286.

The TAHS has donated $500 from its general funds to the Heritage Fund for the new Lenawee County Historical Society. The museum on S. Main St., Adrian, will close its doors Dec. 30. Its new home will be the Adrian Carnegie Library after it is remodeled.

Donations to the Heritage Fund will enable artifacts associated with Lenawee County's history to be preserved in a proper environment by qualified personnel.

The Carnegie Library is listed on the State and National Registers of Historic Places. It was doomed for destruction until the museum committed itself to the move.

The new location will increase display and storage space. It will allow a wider range of exhibits as well as offer a spacious auditorium to accommodate more people for more special programs.

The building is sound structurally, but costs of bringing the heating, ventilating, plumbing and electrical systems up to date are estimated at $130,000. If an elevator, ramps and other desirable repairs are made, the cost could exceed $200,000.

"Groups and individuals throughout the county are being urged to support this very worthwhile endeavor," said Kline. She is a Heritage Fund committee member.

"Few if any of the communities in the county can practically support a full time museum with professional staff, therefore it is important for us all to pool our resources so we can have at least one top-notch museum in our own area for the central repository of our area's artifacts," commented Kline.

Contributions to either the Lenawee County Historical Society Museum Fund or the Tecumseh Historical Society Fence Fund are tax-deductible since the groups are non-profit organizations.

Guests Attend Woman's Club

BRITTON — The Britton Woman's Club met Nov. 21 for a Thanksgiving dinner at the Congregational Christian Church.

Present were 24 members, three guests, six County Federation officers, and six Macon Woman's Club members.

Dorothy Hindes, president, opened the meeting following the dinner. Gladys Prill presented pictures of "The Story of Hoover Dam". Thelma Frayer led the group in singing.

The club received an invitation from the Tecumseh Club to their Nov. 27 meeting at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 2 p.m. with Cyril Desnet as speaker.

Next meeting will be at Frances Ebrhardt's home with a program on foreign students.

Coach Forecasts Aggressive Team

As with most all basketball clubs at the beginning of a new year, Britton's coach Cam VanArsdalen is a little worried about the team's inexperience. They look to Friday's opener at Summerfield with only one returning letterman.

The team roster consists of three seniors, nine juniors and one sophomore. The one returning letterman is Greg Fanslau, a junior, and Coach VanArsdalen reports that Britton could easily be playing with four and five juniors at a time this year.

But despite the Britton team's inexperience, VanArsdalen is not worried. His team is also quick and aggressive and he reports that he has a good shooting ball club. On the JV squad Britton had a 17-3 record on the JV team last year so they do have a number of winning games under their belts.

Britton also promises a "tenacious" man for man defense with an up tempo game to compliment their defensive pressure and quickness.

The Britton coach has six players in the back of his head at this time for starting positions. They include: Terry Benedict, a 6'3" senior who missed much of last season due to bad health; Randy Dusseau, a quick and excellent shooting junior guard; Chris Kimerer, a junior guard with special defensive abilities.

David Bruce, a 6', 190 pound junior will be playing post; Dan Harriott, an excellent shooting forward and a junior; and finally, Dennis Kimerer, a senior with leadership and depth at any position.

Others on the squad include: Troy Bailey, Greg Fanslau, Jim Heiden, Chris Barth and Mike Benedict, all juniors. John Stephenson is a senior and sophomore Jim Slatick rounds out the squad.

Coach VanArsdalen sees Madison all alone at the top in the league with Whiteford and Deerfield causing some problems. Britton could easily be a dark horse if the team stays healthy.

VanArsdalen and JV coach John Drennan have coached together at Adrian College previously and the two hope to bring stability to the basketball program in Britton.

Fragrance of Cookies Filled Clinton's Center

CLINTON — The scent of holiday cookies baking in the kitchen wafted through the Smith-Kimball Community Center, Sunday, to lend an authenticity to the old-fashioned atmosphere of the home of the 1800's.

Decorated by the Shamrock Senior Citizens and the Historical Society of Clinton, the lovely old mansion was opened to visitors on the occasion of Clinton's fifth annual Christmas Walk.

Local antique shops had loaned many pieces of antique furniture and decor items which were arranged as though in use in the rooms.

Handmade old style ornaments fashioned of doilies and foil, and popcorn and cranberry strings decorated the ceiling-high Christmas tree in the music room where a collection of old dolls and toys were displayed.

A unique red-glass kerosene lamp chandelier burned brightly in the front parlor, where other momentos of a bygone era were shown.

Fresh wreaths in the windows and garlands swirled around the gothic pillars on the front porch gave a homey welcome to visitors.

Shirley Fraley reviewed the history of the Smith-Kimball house, built in the 1840's, now used as a community center, since the family donated it to Clinton.

A 20-ft. pine tree on the center lawn was lighted after the Community Choir entertained with Christmas carols, directed by Peg Geiger.

Clinton Students Progress in Reading

CLINTON — In early October, the fourth and seventh grade students at Clinton Community Schools participated in the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP).

All fourth and seventh grade students throughout the state are required to take the assessment test.

The purpose of this test is to evaluate how well students in the State of Michigan are progressing toward the mastery of basic reading and math skills.

Programs are considered successful if students can obtain from 75-100 percent of the basic skills tested.

Objective at Clinton Community Schools has been to improve students' skills in reading and mathematics. The MEAP is one of various indicators that are used to measure the program toward this goal.

The MEAP results are also used to help identify students who may need extra help in the areas of reading or math.

Over the past five years, progress was made in the areas of reading. Fourth grade results this year continue to indicate a steady increase in the number of students who have acquired basic skills in reading.

The most dramatic increase has been at the Clinton Middle School. Approximately 82 percent of the seventh grade students mastered basic skills in reading. In 1974, only 45 percent of the students had obtained this goal.

This year, parents who have children in the fourth and seventh grade will receive a report on their child's progress in basic reading and math skills. These reports are meant to inform the parents on their child's areas of strengths and weaknesses in these two subjects.

It is hoped that parents will go over this information with their child.

Further clarification on the MEAP results can be obtained, if necessary, by contacting the reading or match coordinators at the Clinton Schools, or by calling Mrs. Gibbard, Middle School Counselor.

This year's MEAP test results in mathematics at the fourth grade level shows an improvement over last year's results and a return to previous levels.

More than 80 percent of the fourth grade students have mastered three-quarters or more of the objectives tested. While fluctuation in scores are somewhat normal, this year's return to the 80 percent bracket is encouraging.

At the seventh grade level, the assessment test results show a steady performance compared to last year and a continued improvement over the math results of several years ago.

1,500 Served in Hot Lunch Program

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT
By Shirley Weekley

Everyday I am faced with trying to prepare (on a budget, of course) a tasty, nutritious, hot meal for two finicky children (and a finicky husband).

Monday through Friday, Nathalie McMinn is responsible for serving a tasty, nutritious, hot meal (on a budget, of course) to 1,500 finicky school children.

This year the hot lunch program at Tecumseh has been expanded to include the elementary schools. It is under the new management of the ARA Food Service Company. Hugh Erickson is the general division manager.

Nathalie McMinn is the food director for the Tecumseh program; Elaine Forgacs is the assistant. The kitchens are staffed with local residents.

The ARA Food Service is an international company, some 90,000 strong. Other local businesses that utilize the ARA food services are the Tecumseh Products, Budd Company and the Jackson Schools.

The Tecumseh School district consists of six elementary schools, (Patterson, Herrick Park, Tecumseh Acres, Sutton, Ridgeway and Tipton) as well as the Tecumseh Junior and Senior Highs.

The district's hot lunch program is a unique satellite program. The elementary schools do have the facilities to heat the vegetables, bake pizza and prepare the sandwich lunches. But there is no storage room at the elementary school for quantities of food, nor are they equipped to prepare the more difficult main dishes or casseroles.

Consequently, the bulk of the food is stored and prepared at the senior high kitchen and delivered via truck to the elementary schools each morning.

The federal government requires that a "Type A" lunch be offered to every school child. This consists of two ounces of meat, poultry, fish or cheese, 3/4 cup fruit or vegetable (usually 1/4 cup vegetable, 1/2 cup fruit) and 1/2 pint of milk. Junior and senior high school portions are larger.

This brings us back to the original problem, how to prepare that much food to serve that many students (approximately 1,200 elementary and 300 junior and senior high) and a complication.

While the six elementary schools are given the same menu, the junior and senior high are given a choice of two entrees (one not necessarily being the same as the elementary) as well as a la carte selections each day.

From 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. each day, the high school kitchen is a whirlwind of activity. Each of the eight staff has separate jobs. Each works diligently.

The morning is spent making certain the food is counted and fully ready to be delivered to the elementary schools. Two entrees are prepared for the junior and senior high and a la carte items must be prepared. The students are served. The remainder of the afternoon is spent on clean-up and the next day's menus.

Each elementary school employs two or three kitchen staff members. They spend several hectic hours at the school in the final preparation of the food that has been sent that day to serve 250-300 students.

The first half of the students arrive at 11:40 a.m. followed 15 minutes later by the second half. Time is of the essence during this serving period and the staff has it almost down to an art. The staff has to fill and serve 10 trays a minute to have the first group served before the second group arrives.

Clean-up has to be prompt, too, because the cafeteria has to be immediately reconverted back to a gymnasium. The first afternoon gym class often starts at 12:30 p.m.

How much food is needed to feed 1,500 students? The amount is overwhelming. Turkey sandwiches require 24, 20 lb. turkeys. That means a lot of baking time and several hours to take the meat off the bones to prepare the sandwiches.

Spaghetti is a favorite with children anytime. The sauce is prepared at the high school in large containers to serve 100 students multiplied by 15.

Here's the recipe: 245 pounds of ground beef, 30 pounds of onion, 36 gallon canned tomatoes, 11 gallon of tomato paste, eight pounds of Parmesan cheese, not to mention seasonings measured by the ounces and cupfuls, rather than by the teaspoons. Cooking time for each 100 serving container is three to four hours.

McMinn is aware of the students varied tastes. She keeps in touch with the satellite schools to see which menus the youngsters prefer.

She and the staff strive to present appealing meals to the students. Each week a new menu is introduced for variation. If a menu is rejected by the students, it is not repeated again.

Nathalie McMinn said she has been impressed by the friendliness and the comradery among the staffs, at the high schools and the elementary schools.

Serving 1,500 students, in the limited space and time does present an occassional problem. But the staffs at all schools consider it a personal challenge to iron out any wrinkles and make the program run smoothly and successfully.

When each staff member returns home after a busy day of food preparation, each is met at the door by a hungry family who wants a hot, tasty, nutritious meal (on a budget, of course) and each has to start cooking again.

New Books

The Tecumseh Public Library has two new books on money and retirement. One covers a multitude of financial plans; the other deals exclusively with IRAs (individual retirement accounts.)

MORE MONEY FOR YOUR RETIREMENT, by John Barnes, begins with a chapter on increasing your income through such things as shifting investments, buying bonds, cashing in insurance policies, and cutting unnecessary expenses. The author first advises: live better and enjoy yourself during the first years of retirement, when the urge to be on the move is still strong.

Other chapters deal with avoiding probate, help for the potential widow, ownership of assests, real estate, wills, and annuities.

The second book, WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS, gives detailed answers to frequently asked questions about IRAs.

The book came about as a result of author L.L. Unthank's personal investigation of the advantages of IRAs. The technical advisor is Harry M. Behrendt, an attorney in Toledo, Ohio.

IRAs are tied to a new tax program, the Pension Reform Act. Although over 25,000,000 people have established IRAs, over 45 million more people are eligible.

Under an individual retirement plan, they are eligible to invest up to $125 a month ($250 for married couples) in almost any security they choose and deduct the total amount on their federal income tax.

Herald Features New Column

Beginning this week in your Herald a new column will appear entitled "The Pastors Study". The author is a recent newcomer to the area and is the new pastor at Britton Congregational Christian Church.

The Rev. R. Richard Case is a native Pennsylvanian having been schooled at Penn State and Lafayette college. He had his own counsulting firm and also was a partner in an advertising and public relations agency in the New York City area.

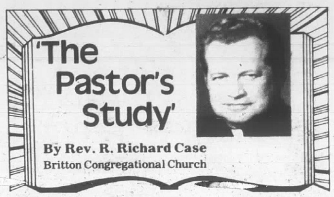
He left the business world in 1961 to become involved in church work where he became a missionary in Kentucky. From this point he moved on into the theological study at both Boston University School of Theology and St. Paul School of Theology.

Up to this time he had done a considerable amount of writing, but in 1965 he began a television program out of CBS Portland Maine also entitled "The Pastor's Study." While in the state of Maine his column was syndicated and the pastor in 1966 began lecturing throughout New England, Pennsylvania and New York State for a Boston Lecture Bureau.

In 1966 his first book "I Dare Say," was published and at the present he is writing and gathering material for two books. The one, "Common Sense II," has just been completed and is a commentary on our decaying from within democracy.

The author writes in a common sense level and relates man's religion as not only spiritual (or a Sunday type of religion) but also a religion of the street and factory. In other words, he said, "A way of life."

William E. Barrett author of "Lilies of the Field" and numerous other books said, "Reverend Case is warm and understanding to those elements that would constitute a better way of life."



"OF CULTS AND THINGS"

"You shall know the truth and the Truth shall make you Free"

Are you baffled and left in wonderment, — I am.. It has been just less than two weeks ago since the American Public has been made aware of the affair at Jonestown Guyana.

Yes 927 lives were wasted and for what reason? Certainly the instigators of such a crime could not truthfully say that by dying they could serve God better and what about those in the so-called religious group who carried and used the automatic weapons that killed many of the unarmed men, women and children. And yet this organization has the title of church and religion.

During my lifetime differing religions and faiths have always been of interest to me and I dare say that one would be hard pressed to find a religion that would believe in death as a way of life. The mere idea of any form of human sacrifice certainly would even be distasteful to most any non-believer of any kind of religion.

The naked TRUTH of Christianity is spelled with one word — LOVE —. Yes I will agree it does take some monetary involvement for any church or church organization to function. But the idea of good people being bilked out of lifetime savings and security bothers most people and rightly it should. In most all of the major denominations a yearly financial report is given to it's people, and the various members do have the right to know what and how their monies are being used.

FBI and the Internal Revenue Service should likewise have the opportunity to investigate some of the more questionable organizations, without the outcry of indignation; "Freedom of Religion." — Certainly the Jonestown affair doesn't sound like any fallable religion to you or I, does it? — The government will arrest and prosecute doctors, engineers etc. for giving a false statement or manufacturing credentials. In the case of clergymen not much can be done to insure their validity, again because we do have Freedom of religion.

In all probabilities it is much better to hang onto that freedom we cherish, but I do hope that this current affair and the past two or three years experiences are starting to make the American people aware of the perpetrators of sin (using God's name for your own personal gain) and shyster's.

It's just like buying groceries, sure you can purchase the off-brand, the one that makes all manner of wild claims. But if you are smart you check things out, first.

Generally speaking you are much safer in a grocery store when you stick to the old tried and true brands.

There are in America today over 500 different denominations and religions, don't you think that allows us all a great choice. The Holy Bible sums this all up so clearly when it say's, "They have itching ear's, seeking to hear that which they want to hear." Until next week, "God bless you, each and everyone."

Reader Addresses Honor Roll

To the Editor:

We have been subscribing to the Herald for many years and have enjoyed it. I have but one complaint to make and I think a very important one. It is on the subject of putting the names of the honor students in the paper.

I called to inquire as to why they were not put in and was told that all subjects are controlled by the amount of advertising you are able to obtain. I know that you used to put the names in from all the schools.

I did notice that this time you put in the names of the students with a 4.0 average or a straight A average. What about the students that worked and worked to get on the Honor Roll with a 3.0 average or better, which amounts to a B average?

As a whole, the student that gets a straight A grade is the one that school is not all that difficult for. The students that get a 3.0 average, are usually the ones that have a harder time obtaining the higher grades.

I know, because my son used to get very low grades and is now working harder and has been on the honor roll, now going on his second year. I know that he would like to see his name in the paper as a kind of recognition for his effort, as would all the students who really put in the hours in study.

If we do not encourage our young people and support them, who will?

It is terrible to think that someone has to commit murder, rob or commit a felony to consider, quote "make a note worthy item of interest."

An item that people would be more interested in reading. Can we only print the bad news to make a paper more interesting? Where are the good old days when people liked to read the good news!

It is not only the advertising that pays for your paper. It is the people like me, who buy your paper, that keeps you in business. I personally would rather read about the happy items, versus the "worthy items" (that so call) sell papers.

I think we, as parents, should encourage our young people as much as possible. Think positive, instead of negative. I wonder how many parents would agree with me if it could be made known? Probably quite a few.

Thank you for your time in reading this, as I know you are a busy man. But please consider this subject, before you reject it, as not being worthy of space in your newspaper. As being an item that people would not like to read or would not be better people for reading.

A Concerned Parent,
Marianne Smith

Her telephone is 423-7281. She prefers morning calls. Phyllis would appreciate the cooperation of her Macon neighbors by calling news early to enable her to make her Monday deadline at the Herald.

Phyllis is an active member of the Macon United Methodist Church, Priscilla Circle and Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Phyllis' interest in writing was nutured while her mother was a correspondent for the Saline Observer.

Phyllis is now preparing to publish on her own as she is writing a book about her husband's mother's family genealogy.

"That's really how I got interested in writing," Phyllis commented. The book will be based on the diary of Hannah Pierce. The family moved from New York across the Erie Canal to Toledo, Ohio and from there by wagon to Fairfield in Lenawee County.

At home, Phyllis is kept busy by the comings and goings of a three generation household.

She and husband James have four children. James II is married and he and his wife, Tamara, have a four-month-old son, Joshua.

Also in the Thomas clan are Judy, 20, a sophomore at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti; Jayne, a senior and John, a freshman, both at Britton-Macon High School.

Others around the Thomas table for Thanksgiving were Judy's roommate at EMU, Barbara MacKensie of Marquette; Ken Gerig of Britton; Jim's folks, Carl and Helen Thomas of Macon; his sisters and family, Dean and Jean Shafer, Erick and Jennifer Rozelle of Follansbee, W.Va.; Phyllis' mother, Lillie Hadley of Plymouth and her sister and family, Bob and Alice Debler, Tom and Terrie of Lansing.

The Deblers were overnight guests.

Jim II and his young family were guests of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farr of Grass lake.

Judy and Barbara returned to EMU Sunday after helping to celebrate at a birthday dinner for Phyllis.

Phyllis and husband, Jim, marked her birthday with dinner Saturday evening in Saline. They visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.M. Gilbert of the Saline Evangelical Home later in the evning.

Indians Drop Opener by Just Two Points

Sophomore Ron Smith drove up the middle against Saline's basketball team Tuesday night and sunk a six foot jumper to tie the Indians up at 39-39 with just 15 seconds left in the game.

Saline then went back down the floor and scored to go two up. The Indians had one last chance to tie with two seconds left on the clock. Their shot was short, however, and the Indians dropped their season's opening game, 41-39.

The Indians started out good in the first quarter with a 9-4 lead. They were not making their shots count, but they were forcing Saline to turn the ball over and continued to press much of the game.

Their shooting went from dry to drier, however, and their lack of experience showed as they were unable to really put together a substantial offensive thrust against Saline.

The Indians hit 16 of 65 from the floor for 24 percent while Saline hit 17 of 39 for 47 percent. The Indians hit but seven of 19 from the line for 36 percent.

John Ely was high for the Indians with 12 points while teammate John Faulkner added nine. Saline's leading scorer was Mark James with 10.

In rebounding, THS had the edge with 43 to Saline's 39. Jeff Osworth led the stats in that category with 13. Ron Smith grabbed 11 rebounds.

Score by quarters went Indians, 9-6-12-10 and Saline 4-15-10-12.

CHS Girls Win

The Redskin basketballers hit 22 points in a row at the end of the second frame against the Blissfield girls Monday in district play and went on to easily defeat their opponents 76-21.

Sue Richter had the best scoring night of her career when she hit 33 points. She was 13 of 26, or 50% from the floor and hit seven of nine from the foul line.

Teammates Barb Winder and Lisa Cark added 10 and nine points to the scoring respectively. Cark was also the leading rebounder with 14.

Clinton outscored the Blissfield squad 14-2 in the first frame, but then went cold until the last three and a half minutes of the half. They then hit 22 in a row to finish the half at 36-8.

Coming out at the beginning of the third frame, the girls scored the next six points before Blissfield was able to put two points on the score board.

Overall, the Clinton team hit 46% or 32 of 70 from the floor.

Clinton's record now stands at 17-2 and they will battle Hudson Wednesday before going into the district finals Saturday against Addison. Addison is undefated 16-0 and the Redskin's losses were to Addison by a total of just four points.

The two teams are among the best in this section of the state and a large turnout of fans is expected. All games start at 7 p.m. and will be played at Clinton High School.

Clinton Coach Eyes Opener with Optimism

Clinton's basketball coach, Jim Pittman, is entering his second year at the head position and looks to Friday's opener against league foe Manchester with optimism.

Pittman is optimistic because he has all five of his starting lineup back. They include: Dave Porter, a 6'2" forward and all-county player last year; Mark Dettling, a 6'5" center that was all league honorable mention; Terry Carlton, a 5'11" guard who is Pittman's "quarterback."

The other two are: Mike Karapas, a 5'11" guard who made all-league first team last year and Jeff Porterfield, a 6' forward. Coach Pittman also has two other good seniors in Doug Mowery and Ed Foreman. Mowery in fact will start many games and possibly even Friday.

Other members of the team include juniors Tom Foreman, Barry Yocum and Ray Phelps.

Clinton is definitely one of the three or four teams to beat this year in the LCAA league. The others are defending champion Blissfield, Hudson and even Onsted.

Coach Pittman sees no sure league champion and expects no team to go undefeated. He does have confidence in his boys, however. He has watched them combine a 47-8 record since their freshman, JV and varsity years. Pittman has advanced with the teams each year as coach.

Roy Gaddey is assisting Pittman with the basketball coaching and is handling the JV squad.

Wrestlers Aim High

As with this year's Clinton basketball team, Clinton's wrestling team should end up battling for the top position with three other prime contenders.

Addison, Hudson and Onsted should be out for league championship honors, but coach Chris Wittenbach and assistant Mike Savona report that group has worked hard and they're a good team of wrestlers.

Wittenbach has four outstanding wrestlers back in seniors Lee Russ, at 145 pounds, Clayton Semanski at 119, Devin Schindler at 112, and Andy Hoag at 132. Their other prime wrestler, Rudy Weirich, is presently out and may not return to the team due to illness.

And the Clinton coach can count on a number of other wrestlers to ably round out the squad. Bill VanTyle at heavy weight and Mark Pritchard at 126, are both returning seniors.

Other returning lettermen or wrestlers with experience include seniors Jeff VanSickle and Gordie Miller, junior Chuck Grinnell and sophomore Randy Weirich. And one man to definitely watch this season is Georgia transfer Lynde Grinnell.

Brad Williams, Rick Armstrong, Greg Parker, Jack Hartung and Rex Geiger also look promising and could well help the team in their matches.

Wittenbach also reports that he has one weight, 138, up for grabs still with Randy Weirich presently on top of the list of candidates. Tom Grossman, Dale Driscoll, Keith Hartung and Scott Thilo can not be counted out for the position though.

And while Wittenbach's wrestling team is composed of a great many seniors at the core, he reports he does have a very good group of freshmen to carry on in the years to come.

The Redskin wrestlers were fourth in the league last year at 14-6, but you can almost certainly look for better news this year.

Britton's in Finals

Britton captured a spot on the semi-final bracket Monday night and earned the right to play Deerfield in Thursday's 7:30 match to decide the district champion. The two Tri-County teams divided their regular season games.

Against Madison Monday, the Tories pressed the first frame but then stopped and entered the locker room at half with a 14-14 tie. Britton came back out and scored the first nine points of the third frame. They then coasted to the win with a press in the final frame.

Jodi Smith was the high scorer for the Tories with 18 points while Janene Schultz added 10 and was high with seven rebounds. Britton turned the ball over just 17 times while forcing 31 Madison turnovers.

Wrestlers Open Thursday

The Tecumseh wrestling squad begins match wrestling this Thursday with a tri-meet at Columbia Central. Their first home meet is Dec. 19 against Chelsea.

Head coach Pat Connors and assistant Ron Frenzen head into that first match with a very unexperienced team. They expect early problems, but the boys have been doing a great job in practice and learning well. By the time of Thursday's match, the coaches will know just how well they have learned.

By far, Jack Bagby is the top THS wrestler this year with three years of experience behind him. The coaches expect a great season out of him at the 126 or 132 weight class. Other seniors include Randy Halvin at 191 or 178 and Jesse Castorena at 138 or 132.

Four other wrestlers have had at least a taste of varsity wrestling under their belts. They are Matt Barret, Tony Turner, John Southard and Doug Ringman.

Coach Connors also reports that at least four other JV wrestlers could easily fit into the lineup once the other wrestlers have fanned out into their respective weight classes. Those four including Tim Day, Lenny Castorena, Mike Fagan and Greg Aranda.

Connors will not have an official match-up weight of his varsity squad until after Wednesday. The boys must wrestle off for varsity honors with the winners of each weight class starting at Columbia Central.

The league itself looks tough this year with defending state champion New Boston Huron the team hardest to beat. Other tough teams will include Catholic Central, Grosse Ille and Flat Rock.

Freshmen on this year's squad include: Jeff Day, Rick Coscarelli, Malcolm Barrett, Tom Maupin, Pat Wallich, Nick Osburn, Randy Baxter and Tim Connors.

Sophomores and juniors who could also work into the main squad after the top wrestlers spread out include: Marty Barrett, Terry Meyers, Bob Olvera, Scott Winstead, Tracy Miller, Chris Silberhorn, Sherman Bunting, Randy Harrison and Tom Hilliard.

Indian Girls 'Jell', Win Game by Two

The Tecumseh girls basketball team jelled in the fourth frame Monday night to go away with a 33-31 win over host Columbia Central in district play. Tecumseh now meets Jackson Northwest Wednesday and if all goes well, they will probably play Milan in the district finals Friday.

Gloria Fosbender was high for the Indians with 13 points while teammate Kris McDonald added eight to the THS cause. In all, girls hit 14 of 26 from the floor and made five foul shots.

The Indians were actually down 12-17 at the end of the first half. They then dropped to a nine point deficit at the end of the third frame in a game that was composed mostly of turnovers on both sides.

Suddenly in the fourth quarter, the girls came alive. They turned the ball over less, they hit their shots and they ran their press effectively. In fact, the Indians scored nearly half their points, 16, in that final quarter.

Fosbender hit six of her 13 shots in that final frame and was responsible for the win. She put the last four points on the scoreboard for the Indians when they sat at a 29 all tie.

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

VOL. 128 OUR 129th YEAR—NO. 19 THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1978 SIXTEEN PAGES—25¢

Housing Loan Recommended but Subsidy May Be Smaller

Tecumseh's plan for a 122 unit, four story senior citizen rental housing project cleared one hurdle this week, but there are still more to come.

Tecumseh's pre-application for $2.5 million dollar loan for the project passed the district office of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) in Howell.

Carl Robinson, district director, said the district FmHA office recommended the city's project to the state office for both rental assistance and interest credit through FmHA.

Interest credit reduces the amount of payment the city has to pay on a mortgage loan. This is reflected in monthly rental charges to the tenant. Monthly rentals charged to occupants are determined by the individual's income.

This is the first encouraging word Tecumseh has had on the status of its pre-application for the loan, filed this past spring. City was notified of a delay in the project's review in September.

Although Robinson said his office is "optimistic" about the future for Tecumseh's pre-application, he cautioned that the pre-application process will take more time as it proceeds through the state and federal reviews. Complications are possible.

Robinson said the Tecumseh project is the largest in the state that FmHA has considered.

The FmHA is a federal agency under the Department of Agriculture. It specializes in rural rental housing loans for rural areas with a population of 10,000 or less. Tecumseh's population is approximately 7,500.

The rental subsidy plan represents one-fifth of the total number of rental units in the Tecumseh project. It is a tentative number FmHA has been advised it can recommend for the Tecumseh project, Robinson explained.

Tecumseh asked for rental subsidy for all 122 units. However FmHA has only 226 new rental unit subsidies to work with in the entire state of Michigan.

Robinson said it may be possible the city could get more rental subsidies after the project has operated for a year.

The question now facing the five-member Tecumseh Housing Commission appears to be: Are 25 rental subsidies enough for the Tecumseh project?

Commission will meet Thursday at 10 a.m. at city hall. Paul Fackler is chairman.

To answer the question, it appears further market analysis may be necessary. Also the commission may examine other methods or programs to supplement rent of low income seniors.

A FmHA interest credit loan agreement is good for the life of the loan or 50 years. A rental subsidy agreement is good for 20 years and may be renewed if necessary.

Tecumseh is fortunate to be recommended to receive 25 such rental subsidies, since the total number of unit subsidies available for the entire state has been reduced, Robinson said.

The reduction reflects a shift of a national priorities. New emphasis is on rural rental housing for larger, low income families with incomes below $11,200, for whom home ownership is out of grasp and rental costs are also climbing out of reach.

Fund Drive Tops $88,000

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation reached 97.9 percent of its $89,000 goal, announced drive chairman officials in the final report Wednesday afternoon.

The final report showed the total in pledges and collections was $88,030.95.

Again topping its goal by the largest percentage was the special gifts division, followed by residential, commercial, schools and professional divisions.

Industrial division garnered 87 percent of its goal and the public employees division tallied 62.2 percent of its goal.

Gifts not yet received from employees who reside in Tecumseh and work out of town could help the 1978 drive meet its goal.

Here is the final report:

	Goals	Totals	% of Goal
Industrial	$52,500	$45,712.65	87%
Special Gifts	$15,400	$20,080	130%

Van Rolls, Choir Escapes Injury

Seven persons escaped injury late Tuesday night when the van in which they were riding skidded on ice and rolled over several times. Accident occurred on Sharon Valley Rd., west of Norvell.

Cal Rickard of Clinton was driving the vehicle filled with youngsters of the Sunshine youth choir of First Baptist Church of Tecumseh.

Cal Rickard, Cal Jr., Terry Rickard, Kim Seay, Stephanie Sheid and Jeanie McLeod, were all returned to Herrick Hospital where they were examined and released, all apparently only shaken up.

Susan Bless, who appeared more seriously injured, was taken to Foote Hospital, Jackson. She only had a pulled shoulder muscle and has been released.

The group had gone to sing at the Norvell Baptist Church. Carol McLeod, choir director, was in one of two other vehicles which preceded the Richard van on the return to Tecumseh.

2nd Fire This Year!

Harold Hilyard's house at 800 S. Occidental sustained fire damages mid-afternoon Monday, and it marked the second fire at the residence within the past year.

Firemen have estimated Monday's loss to house and contents at $10,000. Upstairs of the home was heavily damaged, and there was considerable water damage to the first floor.

On Jan. 16th, youngsters playing with matches were blamed for setting the house afire. Young member, or members, of the family are again suspected of setting the blaze.

Wallace MacGeorge, fire chief, says the fire this week started in the same closet of the same bedroom as the first fire. Investigation is being continued.

January fire's loss was estimated at $14,000.

Trial Scheduled for Jan. 30-31

Gerald Fox, 35, stood mute Friday at his arraignment in Circuit Court, before Judge Kenneth B. Glaser, on charges for obtaining money under false pretenses.

Trial dates were set for Jan. 30 and 31 in Circuit Court with Glaser presiding.

Charges were filed by the United Savings Bank. Fox allegedly obtained $10,500 from the bank on two vehicles which are no longer in his possession.

Yule Services Are Requested

Tecumseh area ministers and groups are asked to announce their Christmas and New Year worship services and holiday programs in the Tecumseh Herald.

Deadline for publication in the Herald is Tuesday, Dec. 12.

Police Reject Offer, 8 to 4

Tecumseh police rejected a three-year contract offer from the city last Thursday by an 8-4 vote.

Eugene Skinner, Donald Rodehaver and a union representative from Lansing head the officers' negotiating team, while a Detroit attorney negotiates here for the city.

Bloodmobile Unit Here Dec. 11th

Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Tecumseh Products cafeteria, Monday, Dec. 11 from noon to 6 p.m.

Anyone wishing to donate blood may enter by gate No. 1 at the plant.

Employes OK New Contract

Herrick Hospital service employees, members of the Service Employees International Union Local 79 ratified a contract Monday.

Hourly rate increases for the 123 employees were .35 cents per hour in the first year, .33 cents per hour in the second year and .32 cents per hour in the third year. Salary range of the employees is $2.97 to $3.85 per hour.

Life insurance benefit was also increased $500 each year of the three year contract.

Santa's Letters

Letters to Santa Claus will be printed in the Dec. 21st issue of The Herald.

Deadline for the newspaper to receive the letters is Dec. 18th.

Collecting for Family

A Raisin Township family escaped injury when their house at 4865 DeLeon Dr. was destroyed by fire Dec. 1.

Damages estimated at $14,000.

The fire was apparently caused by faulty electrical wiring in the house which the Carol Rodgers family had rented from an Adrian couple, township officials said.

The fire broke out at 7:40 p.m. The Rodgers children fled their house and notified a neighbor, who called the fire department.

Firemen fought the blaze for an hour with six pieces of equipment. They stayed on the scene for three more hours. Only a shell remains of the home.

Midway market is collecting donations of money for the widow, four children and two grandchildren in the burned out family.

Meredith Sims, 263-4323, can be contacted for information if anyone wished to donate clothing. Girls size 12 and girls size three clothing are especially needed.

Two Are Landmarks

Two homes on West Chicago Blvd. were designated as the first historical landmarks under the city of Tecumseh's procedures.

The houses are the James Beardsley residence, historically known as the Elijah Anderson house, 401 W. Chicago Blvd., a Greek Revival style and the Robert Kline home, 511 W. Chicago Blvd., historically known as the Seaton W. Anderson house, gothic revival architecture.

The Tecumseh Historic Preservation Commission recommended to the city council the two homes to be designated.

The commission has received three applications to date. These two were fully reviewed. Criteria established by commission includes architecture, setting and atmosphere, physical condition, location and history.

City Favors Low Ambulance Bid

Tecumseh city council favored the low bid of EMT of Palmyra for ambulance services in the northcentral and northeast sections of Lenawee County.

City's representative, City Manager Cal Zorn, will meet with the consortium of governments at city hall Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. to discuss united action on two bids.

Bids from two private companies in the county did not change from last consortium meeting Nov. 27.

EMT bid $1 per capita. About 45,000 people will be covered in the area defined.

Bennett-Navarre bid $64,035 on the same alternative which would place two ambulances in Adrian and one each within two miles of Tecumseh and Onsted.

The county has promised to subsidize the plan with $1 per capita beginning Jan. 1. However, residents will still have to pay for ambulance fees set by the companies. The subsidy was provided to insure a plan of emergency services, for communities without a public provider.

Police Complaints Jump Last Week

Police complaints the past week ranged from vandalism to thefts and assault and battery of a local police officer.

Most vandalism concerned glass damages.

Jenny Fielder, 106 W. Pottawatamie, reported a snowball was thrown through a storm window at the residence last Wednesday.

Thursday, Mrs. Rusty Rouselo, 306 Maple, reported two glass doors damaged, one with four holes through the glass. Police theorize that marbles and a sling shot were used.

Also Thursday, Donald Judd, 607 Blanchard, told police that a storm window was damaged, probably by a pellet from a B-B gun.

Gordon Roback of Whelan's Implement reported a snowmobile stolen Friday from a locked shed building. Entry to the shed was gained by breaking a window. The vehicle was in for repairs and was owned by Roger Behrendt of Adrian.

Two thefts investigated included shoplifting. Mildred Gove, 79, of 8725 Matthews Hwy., was charged with taking a bottle of vitamins at Ken-Ray's Tuesday of last week, and Anthony G. Turner, 17, of 4807 Whelan Dr., was cited for taking candy at the Kroger store Thursday.

A resume of other complaints is:

Dec. 2 - Gary Spillman, 1000 Park St., reported a missing hub cap from his car.

Dec. 3 - Graham Morden, 820 Waskin Dr., had over 100 Christmas tree lights stolen from an outdoor display.

Dec. 3 - Roy S. Morgan, 17, of 807 Adrian St., was arrested for assault and battery after he hit Officer William Meni in the chest with his fist. Police were investigating a disorderly person complaint at 807 Adrian St. at the time. Morgan was taken to the county jail.

Dec. 3 - Gerry Keith, 215 S. Oneida, had a tire on his car slashed while parked in a driveway.

Dec. 4 - McDonald's reported a damaged light pole in the restaurant's parking lot.

Dec. 4 - Methodist Church officials reported a damaged kitchen door. Intruders may have been surprised as they left a part of a 12-pack of beer in the refrigerator.

Dec. 4 - Jimmy Dale Hickman, 33, Adrian, was arrested on N. Union St. for drunk driving. Police had been alerted via CB that a car on N. Evans St. was driving recklessly and had forced some cars off the road. Hickman was taken to the county jail.

Goldie Marks 45th Year Downtown

BUSINESSWOMAN GOLDIE WATKINS

By Kathy Brown

Mrs. Marvin Watkins, proprietor of the Watkins Shop, 115 E. Chicago Blvd. marks her 45th business anniversary Dec. 18. She currently holds the record for being the merchant with the most years on Tecumseh's main street.

Mrs. Watkins purchased the "Style Shop" on E. Chicago Blvd., now the location of Ernest Oliver Real Estate, from Ray W. Puffer.

She was assisted in her first store by the late Mrs. Al Helserman, mother of Tecumseh's Dr. R.F. Helserman. The shop was known as the "Watkins Speciality Shop" for women's and children's apparel.

She operated the store there until about 1958 and then rented the Bidwell building at W. Chicago Blvd. and S. Evans for five years prior to renting and later purchasing her present location.

Mrs. Watkins' shop and the Palman Department store were the only shops offering women's and children's apparel 45 years ago. Today, there are three others, Dancer's, Cal's Tog Shop and Trickey's.

"The girls that worked in the old ammunition plant, (presently the Community Center), would get their checks and come right down to my store," Mrs. Watkins reminisced.

She opened her shop in the midst of the Christmas season during the depression, but she said business was good considering the times.

Her first customer was a man, but she couldn't recall his name.

"I like Tecumseh and have appreciated all the people that have traded with me. I'd like to be in business another 45 years," said Mrs. Watkins. Her eyes radiated a girlish glow as she spoke.

A copy of her first advertisement in the Dec. 21, 1933 issue of the Tecumseh Herald caused Mrs. Watkins to exclaim, "Come girls, look at this." The owner and clerks howled with laughter as they scanned the prices.

Silk dresses sold for $5.95 to $7.95. Wash dresses (and what mother could get along without those?) started at .59 cents to $1.50. Pure silk hosiery was advertised at .59 cents to $1. Lingerie, including gowns, started from .39 to $2.50.

Mrs. Watkins said that she was not career motivated when she started in business. "My son wanted to be a doctor and I wanted him to have his education." At that time her husband managed C.F. Smith Co., a grocery where the present Lawson's television store is at N. Ottawa and E. Chicago Blvd.

Back in the depression era as now, more than one paycheck was needed to finance a son or daughter's education.

Today her son, Dr. Richard Watkins, is a psychiatrist at Mercywood. He and his wife, Melva, have six children. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Watkins have four great-grandchildren.

"I thought I'd quit when I got him educated, but I went on. I just enjoy the store and I really enjoy my son's family," told Mrs. Watkins.

"I've seen sack dresses, bell bottom pants. I've seen a lot of different things. I've seen hats, beautiful hats, in fashion and I've seen them go from long dresses to short dresses.

Five Bands To Perform

Five Tecumseh High School and Junior High School bands will perform in concert Dec. 14, 7:30 p.m. at the high school gymnasium.

The holiday program will include the freshman, concert and symphonic bands from the high school directed by Jimmie Rice.

Richard Reamsnyder will direct the two junior high school bands.

A free will donation will be taken at the door.

This is the first time the five bands will be in concert. The seventh and eighth grade bands are the largest in several years, commented the teachers. They said that the Tecumseh music department continues to grow with community support.

There will be no regular monthly meeting of the Band Boosters in December.

Service Club Needs Mittens for Christmas

Can you remember when you were a kid and lost your mittens? Your hands were cold. After a lecture, you're parents probably relented and bought or made you another pair.

As difficult as it may seem to be each year there are children in the Tecumseh area who do not have mittens because their families may not be able to afford to buy them.

The Tecumseh Service Club mitten tree at the Herrick Park branch of the United Savings Bank enables Herald readers to show their Christmas spirit by donating mittens and gloves for distribution before Christmas.

Other items such as scarves, vests, hats, booties, whether handmade or store boughten, will also be welcome donations.

The Herrick Park mitten tree was made by Earl and Marjorie Bilby.

The Tecumseh Service Club is a volunteer organization of Tecumseh people who provide emergency assistance to families within the Tecumseh School District.

Food and clothing are also provided at Thanksgiving and Christmas to needy families, the elderly and shut-ins. Contributions of canned foods and cash are divided among the needy. Referrals are investigated and acted on accordingly.

The 1978 Service Club officers are Opal Dickinson, president; Irene Baran, vice-president; Phyllis Lennington, secretary and Jean Colgrove, treasurer.

Council Denies Alley Petition To Vacate

Tecumseh City Council denied Monday night the petition of David E. Kurowicki and Bryan R. VanBenschoten to vacate the west end of Hiawatha St., west of S. Pearl St.

City attorney Greg Forsthoefel and city manager Cal Zorn explained to council that the same request was denied in 1955.

Not long ago, Council denied permission to vacate the other end of the alley near Patterson, because it was still in use.

It was further determined that according to law, the property must revert back to the subdivision in which it was platted.

In this case, the property would revert back to the Wenonah park Plat on the south, instead of being split by the petitioners as originally thought.

Public Hearing Is Scheduled

Tecumseh city council held the second reading of an ordinance relative to the rezoning of approximately for acres of land on Mill Hwy. from industrial to two-family residential.

Property is located between Blood and Russell Rds. Request was made by Bill Mackey.

Public hearing will be held Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. at city hall.

Now they're wearing them long again. When I started, you wouldn't be seen in slacks. It's an all new and different world now.

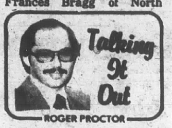
"I've enjoyed the store and I've enjoyed the people I've met and the friends I've made. I still have customers come to me that were here when I started. I've got real nice customers and I feel that they should be noticed when they come into the store. I think you should speak to them.

"I've always had nice clerks. I think that they all took a special interest in my store," Mrs. Watkins said with gratitude.

Mrs. Watkins said she enjoys being busy. "I can't sit and do nothing." When she is not in the store, she crochets and embroiders afghans, made 40 pairs of slippers for hospital patients last Christmas and sews for her grandchildren.

Mrs. Watkins is a member of the Methodist Church, Eastern Star, 40-et-8, a bridge club and was a past president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Watkins celebrated her 77th birthday Dec. 6.



What protection should I have for my family?

Most people feel the responsibility to assure their family or survivors a reasonably smooth adjustment to life without you. Fulfilling this responsibility helps greatly in your peace of mind.

Life insurance protection, written up by a knowledgeable agent to suit your situation, is an important step.

A will is an essential document that will assure your estate will be directed as you desire. State laws vary so a competent lawyer in the state of your residence is your best advisor. Important items to include in your will might include the naming of an executor, your bequests of significant properties, trust funds, and any memorial or remembrance gifts.

Pre-planning your funeral arrangements is also a great relief to your survivors. You definitely will relieve their burdens in their hours of sorrow and we can help you with this without cost or obligation.

Keep in mind that safe-deposit boxes are usually inaccessible for some time after a death. A small savings account or a book of Traveler's Checks which are immediately available will help until the estate is settled.

Six Accidents, Five Minor

With one exception, six traffic accidents investigated here the past week were minor.

Lone exception occurred Friday when Alice Burke, 58, Dundee, lost control of her westbound car on M-50 at Rogers and slid across M-50 into a bank, tearing up sod there. She told officers a car pulled out of Rogers and in front of her.

She was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment. Her passenger, Gerald Burke, 26, also of Dundee, sought his own treatment.

Other accidents were:

Nov. 30 - Terry W. Holt, 22, of 414½ N. Evans, attempted to turn into a drive at 416 N. Evans and slid on ice and into a chain link fence.

Dec. 1 - Frieda Lems, Paul's Trailer Court, reported her vehicle damaged while parked there. Other vehicle skipped.

Dec. 1 - Walter J. Dickerson, 76, of 4301 Monroe Rd., ran into Harold Richardson, 54, of 324 W. Patterson, in the Kroger parking lot.

Dec. 2 - Randall W. Cooper, 18, of 712 Occidental, was attempting to park at the Party Shop parking lot, slid on ice and struck a vehicle owned by Sheri Parrill of Adrian.

Dec. 5 - Norma J. Schroeder, 33, Britton, was cited for failure to yield after an accident with Richard V. Wakefield, 31, Dundee on S. Maumee at E. Kilbuck.

Edna Kopka Appreciates Cards, Visits

Mrs. Edna Kopka is a resident of Herrick Nursing Home. She is doing fairly well and would appreciate cards and visits.

The engagement of Kay Ann Render to Larry J. Johnson is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Render, 2435 M-50, Tipton. Kay graduated from Bronson School of Nursing, Kalamazoo, in March. She is an RN at St. Lawrence Hospital, Lansing. Her fiance is employed at M.E. Schupbach and Company, Linden. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leman Shelby, Fenton. An April 7, 1979 wedding is being planned at the Tecumseh United Methodist Church.

Question Auditors

Some Council members suggested Monday night the city take bids on auditors appointed to check the city's books.

Moore, Smith and Dale of Southfield have been the city's auditors since as long as he could remember, said City Manager Cal Zorn.

Their last bill for $10,815 for professional services was questioned by city council member Jay Tressler Monday. He suggested bids be taken.

Council member Mary Bowers agreed. "I think we should check and see what other cities are paying for their auditors," she suggested.

Discuss Plans of Civic Center

The feasibility of tentative floor plans for the Tecumseh Civic Center were discussed at the Nov. 15 meeting of the Tecumseh Civic Center study committee.

Plans were designed by Mike Knisely. He was given the go ahead to do the architectural rendering of the building. Deadline is February, 1979 to complete plans and renderings.

A fact find committee was formed. Clarence Lacny is chairman. Other members are Don Dobrosky, Larry Wollenhaupt and Kathi Johnstone.

The building committee was urged to get together and clarify the needs and requirements for the building. Next regular meeting will be in January.

City Orders Two Cars

Tecumseh will order two police cars through the state purchasing office, Tecumseh city council decided Monday night.

City Manager Cal Zorn told that wherever it purchased autos, it would require a 90 day wait.

He recommended purchasing under the state contract.

Two Cheverolet Impalas with 350 cu. in. engines and police packages will be ordered. Units will not exceed $6,000 each.

One will replace a police vehicle recently wrecked. The second will replace a vehicle that will be ready for retirement when the cars are delivered.

This will bring the city's fleet back up to six cars, three for administration and three for police.

'Charlie Brown' Visits Clinton

CLINTON — A group of local players will present "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" by Charles M. Schulz and Clark Gesner, Jan. 5 and 6 in Clinton High School Auditorium.

The musical comedy, based on the famous "Peanuts" comic strip will be directed by Peg Geiger.

Proceeds will benefit next year's Fall Festival Community Choir, so that they may purchase new music.

All of the actors in the show are Clinton students or graduates, except Ed Aluk, who is a member of the Community Choir and also a member of the Clinton faculty.

Several of the cast members have been involved in the show previously, as has Ed. He accompanied the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre production last summer. This time Ed will play "Charlie Brown".

Kim Swift, who played Snoopy, while in high school, will repeat the role.

Cyn Geiger, played "Patty" at the Croswell Theatre, while in eighth grade, and this time will play Lucy.

Devon Schindler will be Linus; Sandy Swift, will be Patty and Rex Geiger as Schroeder, will complete the cast.

The group will be rehearsing over the Christmas vacation.

Carolyn Dicks will provide the accompaniment as she does for Community Choir. Plans are also being made to add flute and percussion.

"We have experienced, well trained people in the cast and some really exceptional talent, "Peg Geiger said.

Prefer Adrian Game to State Play-offs

To the Editor:

In regard to the article "Blame Students in Cancelling Adrian Rivalry." Are you referring to some Adrian band members who played their fight song in the THS parking lot? Or the "A's" painted on some trees around THS? Or the white paint that was splashed on "The Adrian Bell?"

Are these activities so terrible that they should ruin one of the best rivalries in southeastern Michigan?

Let's face it, there's more to it than these minor events. The coaches are the main reason! That's right, the coaches. A coach personally told me that he wanted the rivalry ended, stating that we would stand a better chance of played some class "B" or "C" teams.

Many of the football players and I feel that if there had to be a choice, we would rather play Adrian and take a chance on going to the play-offs than to play another team and go for sure.

A coach told me that he never again has experienced the great feeling as when he played for THS and beat Adrian.

I am not trying to cut down our coaches, because they must make their own decisions, but I feel the students at both THS and AHS are taking a lot of blame that they don't deserve.

'Don't Blame the Kids'

To the Editor:

There are so many things on the radio and in the papers about all the bad things that the young kids of this generation do. I feel it might make the parents of these kids stop and think over a few things if you would please print these few words in your paper.

They were in a little book that I receive each month and were written by a lady from St. Louis, Mo.:

Are the Kids Really to Blame?

We read in the papers and hear on the air of killings and stealing and crime everywhere. We sigh and say, as we notice the trend, "This young generation...where will it end? But can we be sure that it's their fault alone, That maybe a part of it isn't our own?

Are we less guilty, who place in their way
Too many things that lead them astray?

Too much money, too much idle time; Too many movies of passion and crime;

Too many books not fit to read; Too much evil in what they hear said; Too many children encouraged to roam. Too many parents who won't stay at home?

Kids don't make the movies, they don't write the books, they don't paint pictures of gangsters and crooks. They don't make the liquor, they don't run the bars, they don't make the laws and they don't sell the cars. They don't peddle the drugs that addle the brain...

That's all done by older folks, greedy for gain.

ADRIAN SHOULD STAY ON SCHEDULE

Students Want Rivalry

A letter to the editor this week is probably representative of the Tecumseh High School student body and many, many Indian football fans.

This letter pertains to Tecumseh's recent cancellation of its football rivalry with Adrian. If the letter is accurate in determining the reason, or reasons, for the cancellation, then the students and fans are correct in being critical.

Since the modern-day rivalry started 20 years ago, the Maples have dominated the series, but not by much. We've won some, lost some and have been shellacked a couple of times.

For years, every Tecumseh player has wanted to whip Adrian, and usually during a prep career here, an Indian has enjoyed a victory, sometimes a couple. Many of us would rather savior a win over Adrian than whip Dexter, for example, and have a chance at the state play-offs.

Tecumseh is the largest Class B school in the Huron League and has been since the league was formed. At that time, Blissfield and Flat Rock were among the smallest schools. Both are rated in the C catagory today and both fared will against the Indians; especially Blissfield.

The Sugar Daddies - or Royals - frequently had mediocre teams, but against the Indians, they played hard and well. Same as the Indians do today against Adrian.

A year ago, Tecumseh's team was a couple TDs underdogs, but the Indians nearly pulled it off. This year, the Indians had a losing season for the first time in years, but still gave Adrian quite a game.

Cancellation reasons offered by officials today may be contradictory in in retrospect. We recall some years back when officials wanted to cancel athletic relations with a school now a member of the Huron League. Reasons then are about the same as those offered today; however, Tecumseh now wants to keep this school on its football schedule!

If student body opinions and fan wishes were considered, Tecumseh would not drop its football games and rivalry with the Maples.

CLINTON'S NEW SEWER PLANT TAKES SHAPE BESIDE RIVER RAISIN (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Sewer Plant Is Giant Step

CLINTON — Construction is 25 percent complete on the village's new sewer treatment plant.

Planning began seriously in 1975, although the project was discussed by council ever since 1969, when a possible joint sewer plant project with Tecumseh was considered and abandoned.

Ground was broken for the new plant last April at a location on the former village trash disposal site with access from Bartlett St. near the River Raisin.

The sewer project is expected to cost $3.4 million when completed by the fall of 1979.

Federal grant provides 75 percent; state grant 5 percent.

The remaining 20 percent is the village obligation, which has been raised by sale of village bonds for $650,000.

Recovery of village cost will be from sewer fees and connector fees, which will be added to sewer bills beginning in 1979.

Sadler Construction Co. of Highland, Mich. is the contractor.

Taking shape now are clarifier settling tanks, which will contain an agitating arm, and sludge will be pumped out of them.

Next the wastewater will be treated for removal of phosphorus, and will go through a sand filter, and final chlorination in the basement of the two-story building, now being constructed. This building will house the lab equipment on the second floor.

Parking will be in the rear of the building, with ready access for the handicapped.

Still to be determined is the ultimate disposal of the residual sludge, which must be spread on farmland in the area.

Plant was planned for 20 years future growth projections in the village area.

Present village sewer facility, little more than "holding tanks" is operated by one part-time employee, Scott Hartman.

New facility will require at least three full-time employees.

And keep yourself toasty warm in this tie-belted nylon jacket with expandable patch pockets that sport lots of handy snaps and zippers. Tailored with detachable fur trim on the hood, plus quilted shoulder detail, White Stag's "Sugarbush" is fortified with polyester insulation to guarantee against chilly temperatures.

Five Cities Form New Power Agency To Insure Future

CLINTON — Village officials have taken a step to insure an electrical power supply for the long-range future.

Village of Clinton recently joined four other cities, Marshall, Hillsdale, Coldwater and Union City, to form the Michigan South Central Power Agency, a corporation approved by the Michigan Finance Commission.

After lengthy consideration of five alternative options, the new Power Agency has decided to build its own coal-fired 50-megawatt electrical power plant at a prime site in Litchfield, chosen for its access to railroad line.

Projected to be functioning by 1984, the plant will be built at no cost to taxpayers. Bonds will be sold to finance the project. It is expected to provide the least expensive power available through a sales contract with the Power Agency.

Clinton's electrical power will be available from the new facility, through a sales contract, and transmitted on Consumer's Power lines, by considerations regulated by Michigan Utility Commission.

Clinton's first year "seed money" of $19,000 for the project will be returned by the Power Agency.

Interim officers of the Michigan South Central Power Agency are: interim general chairman, Richard Sharpe of Clinton; chairman of board, Jim Endicott of Coldwater; secretary-treasurer, John Meyer, of Hillsdale; and commissioners, Dick Ashton of Marshall and Mark Spencer of Union City.

Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month in Hillsdale.

Engineering consultant, financial consultant, and auditors have been hired and insurance arranged for the new Power Agency.

Such a consortium for the mutual production of power has only become legally possible in the past two years, largely through the efforts of the Michigan Municipal Electrical Association in promotion of a change in the Michigan utility law, Richard Sharpe explained.

Clinton has operated its own electrical power plant since 1894, and is presently purchasing supplementary power from Detroit Edison Co. A rebuilt generator is expected to be delivered by Dec. 15 to be installed in Clinton's newly enlarged power plant. The new generator is expected to be in production by next summer.

Council Votes Electric Rate Increase Again

CLINTON — A one mill increase in residential electric rates was voted by Clinton Village Council, Monday, effective with billing in January.

Council has been advised of an increase in electrical rate the village will be charged by Detroit Edison Co., for supplemental power, from 2.7 kw to 3.3 kw.

At the same time fuel oil costs to power the village's own power plant have recently been raised from 37.5 to 40.75 cents per gallon.

Word has also been received of the Detroit Edison Co. application for a 20 percent increase in rates, from the Michigan Power Commission.

A rebuilt generator, which the local power plant has been awaiting for almost a year, is expected to be delivered between Dec. 8 and 15.

Council discussed proposed park plans and has determined that the construction of a bridge at the Bartlett St. entrance, as previously planned, is not financially feasible.

Instead, an alternate entrance route will be constructed from west US-12, and it is expected the project can go forward rapidly in the new year.

A special meeting has been scheduled for Dec. 20 at 7 p.m. to consider wastewater treatment plant matters.

Britton Basketballers Split Two Games

Britton's boys basketball team split a pair of games this week, losing by two to Summerfield Friday and beating Pittsford by three on Tuesday.

Friday, the Tories ended up on the short end after being down by eight at half. They then put on a full court man to man press in the third quarter and tied the score at 40-40.

In the fourth quarter, Summerfield and Britton each sunk five shots, but Summerfield go off two more foul shots than the Tories and won the game 54-52.

The leading scorers for Britton were Terry Benedict and David Bruce, each with 11. Benedict led the team in rebounds with nine.

Tories were eight of 22 from the line and 22 of 52 from the floor.

Again Tuesday, the Tory team's inexperienced showed as the boys were unable to find the bucket in the first half and found their team down 24-17 at the half.

Chris Kimerer then came in, in the third quarter & sparked the team with three quick baskets and worked the press for the team as Britton began to overcome a 17 point disadvantage.

With 5:38 left in the last quarter, Britton went ahead 40-38 and they never trailed after that point.

Benedict again led in scoring with 12. Greg Fanslau added 11 and led on the boards with 13 rebounds. Bruce was also in double figures with 10.

The Tories were 21 of 71 ... the floor and five of 18 from the foul line.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Just for a moment, close your eyes and picture the scene in your childhood home that you liked best. Was it the music box in the front room, the grandfather clock, the large, fragrant kitchen? Whatever you are thinking of, your memory is a treasure chest of things you hold dear.

Let your mind wander further. You will remember not only loving scenes and favorite objects, but family and friends, their ways, their thoughts, their talk. God and His goodness were mentioned often. Prayer was a common practice. There was faith and trust and a feeling of security.

Sunday was a special day, and all activities were centered around the church and the home.

Come back to the present a moment. The Church was home to you then! It can be your home now; a place of worship where the heart remembers and rejoices.

Redskin Girls Crowned District C Champions

The Clinton Redskin basketball team was crowned the district champion Saturday night after the girls beat league foe Addison by a slim three point margin, 58-55.

The Redskin girls were "up" for Saturday's finals and they took off to an early lead with a press that rattled Addison. At half, CHS was up 29-20 and it looked like no team in the state could beat them.

At the end of the third frame, Clinton had increased their lead by scoring 17 points to Addison's eight. The momentum then suddenly changed and Addison began playing excellent ball.

With just 29 seconds left to play, Clinton was up by two, at 53-51. Addison fouled senior Sue Richter and she hit two points. Addison then brought the ball down the court and scored.

Again Addison fouled Richter as soon as she had the ball and again Richter hit two points. Addison made another bucket and trailed 57-55 with eight seconds to go.

Barb Winder, a Clinton junior, was then fouled and she hit her second foul shot to end the scoring at 58-55. In all, Clinton had only 12 points that last frame and 10 of those came on foul shots. Addison, in the meantime, put 27 points on the boards.

When asked about Addison's sudden surge, Clinton coach Bob King explained that their visiting team began to loosen up at the end of the game. Clinton then lost some ball handling and defense when one of their players fouled out. The momentum just changed.

Winder was high for the Redskins with 19 points while Richter followed right behind with 18. Lisa Cark also hit double figures with 13 points. Kris Pratt and Judy Zimmerman did not get as many points as they would have liked, but they were primarily responsible for Clinton's tight defense.

Clinton now advances to the regional competition and will meet Ottawa Lake Wednesday, the sixth. They will hopefully advance to the finals Friday, also at Addison. Games begin 7:30 p.m.

On their way to that district championship title, Clinton beat Hudson in a mismatch 66-35.

Clinton jumped to a 27-4 first quarter lead and breezed by their competition. Richter had a super game for the Redskins with 19 points. She was seven of 10 from the floor, she had seven rebounds, nine assists, and nine steals.

Winder added 10 points to the cause and Cark hit 11. All 11 Redskin team members scored in that game.

Win Invitational, First in Tri-Meet

Saturday, Clinton's wrestling team opened its season by winning the eight team Whiteford Invitational tournament.

The victory was not secured until Redskin heavyweight Bill VanTuyle defeated Onsted's heavyweight 8-0 in the last match of the day. Clinton edged out Onsted by a score of 183½ to 178½.

Also winning for Clinton were: Clayton Semanski at 119 pounds with three first period falls, Lee Russ at 145, and Gordon Miller at 191.

Rick Armstrong, Gregg Parker, Devin Schindler and Randy Weirich placed second. Mark Pritchard and Andy Hoag added third places and Brad Williams was fourth.

On Tuesday, Clinton tackled Whitmore Lake and Stockbridge in a tri-meet and went away with two wins. Against Whitmore, Clinton posted a 72-6 victory. They topped Stockbridge by nine, 39-30.

The Redskins had six double winners, each with one pin. They were: Rick Armstrong at 98, Clayton Semanski at 119, Mark Pritchard at 126, Randy Weirich at 138, Lee Russ at 145 and Brad Williams at 191.

CHS also had six single match winners. They included: Greg Parker at 105, Rex Geiger at 132, Jeff VanSickle at 155, Chuck Grinnell at 165, Gordon Miller at 178 and Bill VanTuyle at heavyweight. VanSickle, Grinnell and Miller each won by a pin.

Clinton Basketballers Open with Two Wins

Friday, Clinton opened their basketball season with a convincing 56-44 victory over Manchester.

CHS opened the game with the first six points behind a press and led 15-8 at the end of the first frame. They widened the lead to 26-17 at half by putting the ball inside to their taller teammates.

Manchester pulled within six at one time early in the fourth frame, but Clinton held them off by nine or 10 points a majority of the game.

Mike Karapas led the Redskins with 17 points. Dave Porter followed with 13 and Mark Dettling also hit double figures with 12.

Clinton held a slight edge in rebounding with 38 to the visiting team's 36. Dettling led in rebounding with nine. Clinton shot 51 percent from the floor and hit 20 of 39. Manchester hit 18 of 52 for 34 percent. Clinton was 51 percent from the line.

The JV's also won their match Friday night against Manchester, 42-31. Their leading scorer was Brian Dettling with 15 points and 13 rebounds.

Tuesday, the Clinton squad tackled Brooklyn Columbia Central and left the hosting Central team's court with a 10 point victory, 47-37.

Both teams committed a great deal of turnovers. Clinton had 30, but they were able to get the ball inside again to their taller players to score the victory.

Clinton led by just one point after the first frame, but went up by five, 23-18 at the end of the half. In the last two frames, the Redskins added 10 and 14 points to Central's six and 13.

Dettling led the local scorers with 15 points. Karapas added 10. In rebounding, Clinton pulled down 45 compared to 28 for Central. Dettling was responsible for 19 of the rebounds and Dave Porter also hit double figures with 10.

THS Destroys Northwest 56-37, Blissfield 83-50

The Tecumseh basketball players literally blew two opponents off the courts this week. They beat Jackson Northwest Friday 56-37 and Blissfield Tuesday 83-50.

Against Northwest, the Indians led by a eight point margin, 32-23 at half. Then they scored 16 points in the third frame to the visitor's two and relaxed for the win.

In that third frame, Tecumseh forced 15 turnovers with a half court press and numerous steals.

John Ely and John Faulkner led in scoring with 18 points each. As a whole, the team shot 24 of 58 for 43 percent from the floor. They hit eight of 14 from the line for 57 percent. Jackson was 31 percent from the floor and 53 percent from the foul line.

On Tuesday, the Indians were up by just one, 14-13, at the end of the first quarter. Then they humiliated Blissfield with a 28-8 point edge in the second frame and again cruised to the victory.

Faulkner, Ron Smith and Mark Creswell all played excellent games while teammate Ely cannot be neglected with 10 points. Everyone scored in that game.

Faulkner was primarily responsible for the second quarter surge with 13 of his team high 19 points. Smith was outstanding with 10 assists and Creswell was eight of 10 shooting. Faulkner was eight of 11.

As a whole, the Indians hit 38 of 72 from the floor for 53 percent and Blissfield was 19 of 57. From the foul line, THS was seven of 18 and Blissfield was 16 of 29.

Eliminate Indians

Tecumseh's girls basketball shooters went cold against Jackson Northwest Wednesday in district competition and were eliminated from post season play with a 42-33 loss.

The Indians hit only four of 24 the first quarter but battled back to 19-15 at half. Northwest pulled away, however, and the Indians were forced to foul in the final frame in hopes of getting the ball back.

Northwest, in the meantime, spoiled the Indian's strategy by hitting 12 of 14 from the charity line during the game.

Donna Bohannon was high for the Indians with 11 points.

Fierce Rally Is Late

Britton mounted a fierce rally late in the game against Deerfield's girls' basketball team, but it wasn't enough as the Tories dropped the district title match, 39-34.

Britton was behind 9-8 at the end of the first quarter, but went into the locker room at half with the score tied 20 all. Deerfield then began their press and forced many turnovers. Britton never scored in that third frame and just did not have enough time to come back.

Jodi Smith finished the game with 19 points for the Tories.

Win in Overtime

The THS JV basketball team won an exciting overtime victory Friday night over Jackson Northwest, 55-57.

THS got off to a good first quarter lead 13-10, which they increased 28-24 at the half. The lead changed hands many times during the second half, finally ending in a 48-48 tie.

In the overtime period the two teams traded baskets. However, with five seconds left, Todd Danforth made two pressure free throws to ice the game.

Derek Nahabedian and Tim Todd led THS with 10 points each, and 11 and nine rebounds respectively.

Lose Opener

The Clinton freshman basketball team lost their opening game last Thursday to Manchester in a defensive struggle 39-27

CHS Game Rescheduled with Addison

Next Friday's Clinton basketball game has been rescheduled. The Dec. 8th matchup against Addison has been changed to Dec. 22. The game will still be away with the JV's starting at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at 8 p.m.

THS Wrestlers Lose Three

The Indian wrestlers met three more experienced teams this week and went away with defeats at Thursday's tri-meet and Tuesday's Saline match.

In the tri-meet, Columbia Central beat THS 66-5 and Madison just edged the Indians 34-33. Jack Bagby was the top wrestler for Tecumseh with two wins, one by a pin.

Single winners for the Indians were Stewart Williamson, Don Ringman, Randy Baxter, Chris Silberhorn and Tony Turner.

At Saline, the Indians again faced a more experienced team, but many new wrestlers wrestled well and will be much more confident within a few weeks. Saline won 52-9.

Wins for the Indians went to Matt Barrett at 126 with a 4-3 decision, John Southern at 132 with a 4-1 decision and Tony Turner at 191 with a 6-5 decision.

TREES FOR RAISIN'S PARK — Thirty pine trees were transplanted to the James A. Mitchell Memorial Park in Raisin Township this past week. Looking out over the 38 acre park at Gady Rd. and Green Hwy. are township residents (l-r) Ken Mitchell, nephew of the late township supervisor, James A. Mitchell, Bryon Pemberton, 5, Brian Burns, 4, Aimee Bone, 3 and Marge Hart holding Melodie Bone, 22 months old. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Township Plants 30 Trees

Holiday gift giving started early in Raisin Township this year with the anonymous gift of 30 eight foot pine trees.

They were transplanted last week to the site of the township's new 38-acre park. Located between Gady Rd. and Green Hwy., it was named James A. Mitchell Memorial Park after the late township supervisor.

The new Raisin Township board, at its first meeting Nov. 20, allocated $1,200 for transplanting the trees. This was in addition to the $5,000 the township allocated for the new parks and recreation committee's park budget.

Total design for the park was done by the Region II Planning Commission. Over time, the park will include two ball fields, a picnic area, comfort station, picnic shelter and tennis courts. Development of the ball fields will continue next spring.

James Bone is chairman of the parks and recreation committee that is overseeing the progress. This past summer, work on the park also included 300 foot gravel access road and seeding of 15 acres.

The parcel of land was purchased in 1976 for future park and recreational development. The $40,000 purchase was made with Federal Revenue Sharing funds.

A James A. Mitchell Memorial Park Fund was established. Public contributions may be made through the United Savings Bank.

Raisin Board Tackles Violations

Most of the time in a four-hour Raisin Township board meeting Monday concerned violations of township and state ordinances, and how to correct them and make the township a neater, more orderly place to live.

Bill Gentner of Gentner Trucking was told to stop moving earth in the township until he receives the required permit from the township Board of Appeals. Mr. Gentner has been hauling earth from a site on Wilmoth Hwy. for several months, ostensibly to "level a home site." The township board rejected this, and said it considers the action to be a commercial venture.

John Erhart, of Academy Rd., met with the board concerning a six-month permit he received in August to live in a burned-out home while he repaired it. He says now he intends to tear down the remains of the house. Board members will inspect the site.

Two residents of Osburn Subdivision, concerned about junk cars and other nuisance violations in the area detracting from the value of their homes, presented addresses of suspected violators to constable Harry Withrow Jr. They received assurances from township officers that corrections will be required.

The constable also was directed to contact the township attorney for a court order halting a commercial use of property on Sutton Rd. next to the Lenawee County Conservation League property.

A suit against Charles Ives was dropped when Mr. Ives removed a violation on Ives Rd.

Faced with a growth spurt which is changing the township from rural to residential in many areas, the township board also is receiving growing numbers of complaints about junk cars, debris, unsightly premises and other violations of building codes and township ordinances.

Building Inspector William Mackey reported 44 inspections during November. Three violations and one stop-work order were entered. He also noted that 260 trailers and homes built since 1975 have been checked for smoke alarms, which are required by the state. Only five homes remain to be contacted, he added.

Several money matters came before the board. Supervisor R.D. Moore was given authority by the board to sign a note borrowing $29,320 as remaining cost for a fire tanker-pumper. The $12,000 down payment was paid earlier this year. The vehicle will replace one which has become unreliable because of age.

The supervisor also received permission to invest township funds in U.S. Treasury Notes, U.S. Treasury Bills and Certificates of Deposit, at the best rates available to the township. All are insured savings.

Having received approval from voters Nov. 7 to become a Charter Township, the board moved Monday to change the fiscal year of the township.

The current budget, which runs through March, will be continued as the first fiscal quarter of the new Charter year, while the board works on developing the proper hearings for a permanent budget for the last three-quarters of 1979.

Treasurer Lynette Sayler announced that because of a computer breakdown, tax statements were being delayed. She hoped to have them available soon.

In other business the board:

Appointed nine persons to the township planning, appeals and review boards.

Appointed Ken Kendall, a former constable, to that job again.

Voted to require agenda items to be submitted 10 days before a meeting, so board members will have a week's notice before discussions.

Made plans to organize township cemetery records with the aid of Dale Mitchell, township sexton, and Mrs. Mildred Gritzmaker, former treasurer.

Refused to reconsider a liquor-by-the-glass request from Dempsey's in Birdsall.

Shooting Victims May Come Home for Christmas

It has been two months since Tommy Brown of Tecumseh and his brother, Bobby Baker, of Westand, received multiple wounds during a shooting incident at the family business in Ypsilanti Township, Oct. 19.

According to Tom's mother-in-law, Ada Stiles, Tom is now at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he is undergoing therapy. Bob is now out of traction and learning to walk with a leg cast at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Both men hope to be home for Christmas.

Billy Hardesty, who was charged in the case with five counts of murder and two counts of assault with intent to commit murder, was determined mentally incompetent to stand trial.

Hardesty was remanded to the custody of the Michigan Department of Mental Health and is a patient at Ypsilanti State Hospital until he is capable of standing trial, said Washtenaw County Prosecutor William Delhey. Doctors predict that this could be at least four months.

Here is the text of Mrs. Stiles' letter about family members, Tom and Bob:

To Tecumseh area people with thanks

The people of this area have been so kind to us.

Our neighbors, people we meet on the street, business people where we regularly shop, and our family at Friends Church have been so concerned about Tom. They all have expressed sympathy and said they are praying for him. He has been in prayer chains in several churches. We thank you all. God is Great. Prayers are being answered.

Tom is Tommy Brown of Cairns Street, he is married and has three children. He was shot while at work, Oct. 19, 1978. His co-worker was killed and Tom's brother, Bob Baker, who was just visiting there, was shot and injured also.

Tommy has about 14 wounds, he has bullets in both lungs, was wounded in the cheek, neck, both arms, chest and spine. He has partial use of his right arm and is paralyzed from the waist down. He was in intensive care 15 days. After three weeks the bullet was removed from his spine.

Tommy is sitting up for several hours each day. He is able to do a lot of things for himself. He has a good appetite now. He spends a few hours in therapy each day. His attitude is good. He is looking forward to a pass to come home for Christmas Day.

Bob is married and lives in Westland. He has about 20 wounds. He has a broken arm, broken leg, bullets in both lungs, several chest wounds, mostly healed. Bob is trying to be up on crutches so that he can be discharged before Christmas.

The concern people have expressed has made this area a place of love for us.

Again, thank you all. Tommy's Family.

Maintenance Jurisdiction Is Granted

Tecumseh was granted maintenance jurisdiction over portions of Milwaukee Rd. and Mill Hwy. Dec. 1 by the Lenawee County Road Commissioners.

The move was made since the city put sewer lines along Milwaukee Rd. and Mill Hwy. lies within the proximity of Tecumseh's Industrial Park.

O CHRISTMAS TREE — L-r are Amy Barbre, Lisa Hebert, Paula Emery and Leanne Petry, members of Peg Rathke's third grade Patterson Elementary School class. They savored a vision of Christmas past during their Dec. 11 visit to Henry Ford Museum. The holiday theme is "Toys Around the Christmas Tree". A dozen exhibits feature a collection of children's toys spanning 200 years. Christmas crafts, such as wreath making, toy and furniture making, etc. were also observed. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

President's Call Is a Hoax

Saturday evening began like an average family evening at the home for one Tecumseh couple.

At approximately 6:30 p.m. the telephone rang.

The caller introduced himself in a southern accent, something like this:

"You have been chosen in a lottery. This is your President, Jimmy Carter, speaking. I'm taking a little survey."

That was the beginning of a 45-minute telephone conversation with a voice that the Tecumseh couple, who wish to remain anonymous, were convinced was President Jimmy Carter.

Patricia Bario, assistant press secretary at the White House told the Herald Wednesday morning that the call was a hoax. The couple were victims of a telephone prank.

"Without checking into it any further," said Ms. Bario, "I can tell you that the President is not routinely calling private citizens. He would not offer to send anyone a check for $25 and he would certainly not talk with anyone over the phone for 45 minutes."

The caller's southern accent, his information on national and international topics, even Tecumseh itself, had practically convinced the couple they were talking to the President.

Yet in the back of their minds were the nagging questions, Why would the president call us? Why would he offer to send $25, as the caller said, "for their courtesy in talking with him."

The caller obtained their address under that pretense.

Marian Staup, service representative at General Telephone Company, Adrian, sympathized with the couple who were victims of the prank, but she told the Herald there was nothing to be done at this point.

Only repeated callers that may be traced that can be prosecuted are punishable, said Staup.

This is the first such call received in the area to her knowledge, said Staup.

"That doesn't change my opinion of the president," said the Tecumseh woman who received the call, "But it makes me mad (that it was a prank.)"

The couple followed up the call with a letter to the President, before they discovered it was a hoax. They are curious if they will get a reply from the White House.

4 Accidents Investigated

Only four accidents were investigated the past week by local police, and none of the mishaps was serious.

Last Wednesday, Patrick G. Holdridge, 35, of 507 Orchard Lane, and Ricardo Marganom, 19, of 10789 Beebe Hwy., collided on S. Occidental at Shady Lane. Holdridge was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Wilma L. Dunham, 54, Britton, was charged with driving the wrong way on Shawnee St., Friday, after James S. Bales, 17, of 8751 Tipton Hwy., backed out of a drive and struck her vehicle.

Vicky Rodgers, 17, of 2985 Gady Rd., told police Tuesday that a vehicle passed her on E. Chicago Blvd. and then cut in too sharp, catching her front bumper. Other vehicle was driven by Helmut Linsgeseder, 37, of Saline.

Dwight E. Smith, 23, of 211 Cairns, struck and killed a deer Sunday on Burt St.

New Assistant Cashier Appointed, OK Other Bank Personnel Changes

United Savings Bank officials have approved a number of personnel changes, including the appointment of a new assistant cashier.

Tony Menyhart, who started with the Tecumseh bank on May 22, has been named an assistant cashier and will be located at the West Chicago office. Besides assisting in branch operations here, he will take over the duties of advertising manager for the bank.

Mr. Menyhart came here from Pukekohe, New Zealand, where he was a high school teacher for bookkeeping and consumer education. He is a native of West Bend, Ind., and a 1971 graduate of Purdue University.

Other approved personnel changes involve three branch managers — Barbara Young, Mary Bowers and Douglas Dillon — and Nancy Fraley.

Mrs. Young, assistant vice president and branch manager at the West Chicago office since its opening, has returned to the fast growing Sutton Road office as branch manager.

Mrs. Bowers, vice president and manager of the Herrick Park branch for a number of years, has been transferred to the main office in downtown Tecumseh.

She is now office manager for the main office and will also be in charge of business development and public relations.

Mrs. Fraley, assistant cashier, succeeds Mrs. Bowers as manager of the Herrick Park branch. She started with the local bank on Sept. 11 and after 14 years with The National Bank and Trust Company of Ann Arbor.

Mr. Dillon, Sutton Road branch manager and an assistant cashier, has been transferred to the main office where he will assist in the operations of the bank's auditing department.

Man Kettle Drive Friday, Saturday

Tecumseh Rotary and Kiwanis Club members will man the Salvation Army Kettle Drive this Friday and Saturday during business hours.

The Rotary will be on duty Dec. 15 and the Kiwanis will keep vigil Dec. 16.

The men will be posted at several downtown Tecumseh locations including branch offices of United Savings Bank, Kroger and A&P.

Proceeds from the annual drive are used to enable the Salvation Army plan a merrier Christmas for needy families in the area.

Each year the two men's clubs undertake the charity project in a friendly rivalry to surpass the other's collection tally.

2 Flee B&E at Saw Shop

Tecumseh police nipped a B&E at Tecumseh Saw Shop last Wednesday night, although two suspects at the scene fled before being apprehended.

Two patrol cars arrived at the business almost simultaneously and discovered a side door had been kicked in and a car nearby with its trunk open. One person then fled over the embankment to Evans Creek, and when the other party was spotted, he likewise fled. A tracking dog traced the two to the A&P parking lot.

Muddy foot prints were found inside the building, and four chain saws in the trunk of the car. The automobile has been impounded while police question the subjects.

No arrests had been made as of Wednesday morning.

In eight other complaints investigated, four included motorists on drunk driving charges.

Earl Bud Stevens Jr., 21, Palmyra, was stopped Friday on S. Evans St. for speeding and then was arrested for driving while under the influence. It was his second DUIL offense.

Also Friday, Nathan Hawkins, 24, of 315 N. Union St., was cited for drunk driving after hitting a tree on W. Logan St. Police were summoned to investigate the property damage accident only to observe Hawkins driving away and leaving the scene.

Garry L. Humphres, 21, of 5089 Green Hwy., was arrested Saturday by police after he ran several stop signs, one at a speed of 70 mph. He was eventually stopped on Green Hwy., south of Ives Rd., and charged with drunk driving.

Sunday, Scott D. Snyder, 19, Blissfield, was observed speeding and stopped on Rogers Hwy. Charges of DUIL were then filed.

Last Thursday, Hector R. Sanchez, 19, Adrian was arrested here on a warrant from the State Police and for driving on a suspended driver's license.

Also Thursday, a shoplifter took four sweaters at Cal's Tog Shop. Part of a license number was obtained before the lady drove away.

Checker gas station reported Friday that the ladies' restroom there had been sprayed with blue paint.

On the same day, police were summoned to the Clark station where Salvator Aiuto, 3187 Gove Dr., refused to pay $6 for gasoline.

Should I consider anything less than a full-service funeral?

Generally, the full-service funeral best meets the needs of the bereaved, as well as providing for the deceased. It is a declaration of death, as well as a testimonial to a life.

The full-service funeral is also a ritual of deeply profound psychological significance in our civilized society.

It was Gladstone, the famous English stateman, who wisely said: "Show me the manner in which a nation or community cares for its dead and I will measure with mathematical exactness the tender sympathies of its people, their respect for the law of the land, and their loyalty to high ideals."

We are living in an age of great change and progress. While many customers are influenced by the times, the full-service funeral has not been much altered. Progress has refined techniques and procedures, but the high ideals to which Gladstone refers have not been minimized or compromised. Man still buries his dead with ceremony and dignity.

Your choice of a full-service funeral demonstrates the tender sympathy and respect for the high ideals of which Gladstone would greatly approve.

Call or stop by for our literature concerning our full-service capabilities and counseling.

Museum Hosts Holiday Party

The Lenawee County Historical Museum will have an open house Dec. 16, 1:30-4 p.m.

It will be the last party before the museum closes its doors Dec. 30, 5 p.m. at 108 S. Main St., Adrian.

Displays will include Christmas decorations from the 20's, 30's, and 40's. Punch and cookies will be served. Museum volunteers will be recognized.

Pages of the 1874 Atlas (original lithographs) will be auctioned. Proceeds will go to the Heritage Fund for the renovation of the Adrian Carnegie Library, the museum's new location.

Public is invited.

Zip Codes Move Mail

For the best service this Christmas season, use ZIP Codes, place return addresses in the upper left corner of the envelope and use proper postage. These reminders come from Tecumseh Postmaster Bert G. Smith.

It is important, Smith said, that families "double check" that proper postage is affixed. Envelopes without postage will be returned to senders, if possible, or delayed by postage-due procedures.

When the return address is placed on envelopes bearing holiday greetings, it also helps remind friends of one's current address.

If the family to whom a holiday message is sent moved more than a year ago, it cannot be forwarded.

Reminder

The Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce reminds all shoppers that the City Council approved free parking in the city lots from Dec. 8 through 24.

Jaycee Groups Help Kids

A Christmas shopping spree for needy children was held Dec. 10 in downtown Tecumseh. Sponsors were the Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary.

Each child was able to purchase Christmas gifts with aid of a donation from the Jaycees and Auxiliary.

The children were transported to the United Savings Bank by Jaycee members. After a brief Christmas party, the children were taken to a local merchant for the gift selections.

Back at the bank, the auxiliary members assisted the children in wrapping their gifts.

Santa Claus made a surprise visit before the children returned home with their Christmas gifts.

Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary are now selling Christmas trees, candles, coloring books and light bulbs until Christmas at the Jaycee Clubhouse located at W. Chicago Blvd.

These holiday fund raising projects enable the Jaycees and Auxiliary to continue community service programs like the annual Christmas shopping spree for children.

The Tecumseh Jaycees meet the first Thursday of each month at the Jaycees Club House in Tecumseh.

Musicians Set Breakfast Mood

"An Old Fashioned Christmas" was the program planned by Mrs. Melvin Boltz for the annual Holly and Tinsel Breakfast of the Tecumseh Monday Club.

The sit-down breakfast was served at Dec. 11 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church by the church women. Forty-five club members and guests attended.

The program consisted of recitations and singing of Christmas carols. Music was provided by Vera Driscoll, pianist and Elizabeth Wilson and Mrs. Jerry McDugall, violinists.

Decorations featured tall, frosted candles with holly, tinsel and greens.

Returns Home

Henrietta Lindsley returned home from St. Joseph Hospital, Saturday, after surgery for her hip.

'The Pastor's Study'

By Rev. R. Richard Case

"WHAT GREATER GIFT"

How are you doing with your shopping list? Do you have the wonderful task over with? How about you mother and dad, do you have your gifts purchased for those wonderful children of yours?

I suppose you are like all parents. Well, that is to say, you would buy the best you could for your offspring. You will go to most any length to see that your childen get the most out of life.

When I speak in these terms, it almost sounds like parents in this nation take on the air of being saints. And yet we are quite far from this category.

Might I suggest that when you are all finished buying those gifts for your children, that you place one more under the tree.

Might I suggest you give them the best possible gift, one that keeps on giving year after year to your young people.

I suggest you give a gift that will put more meaning into their being. A gift that gives them a cushion that acts as a shock absorber, so that the problems of their lives are easier to take, gracefully.

And also, give a gift that gives assurance to them, a gift that gives them a goal in life.

That gift is Faith.

No, you can't buy it. But how can you give an intangible object like faith?

First you must have it. You must have faith in God and faith in Christ as your saviour. Then by pure example alone you can give this gift.

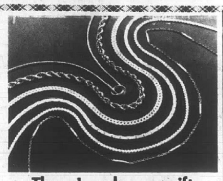
Your young people can only learn from your actions. They can only learn when they see that you are a devoted Christian, a Christian that does what he says he believes, a Christian that attends his house of worship regularly. And I don't mean once a year.

Yes, this Christmas think more deeply of the needs of your young people and their real needs.

Tell me, Mother and Dad, don't you agree? They have just about everything.

And yet it is quite obvious that science, education, gold and glitter, now that we have them, are not the complete answer. God should come first, and then the material.

Don't you agree our society has put the cart before the horse?



There's only one gift that's as good as gold. Gold.

Deborah Ann Kish, Vincent Vigliotti Recite Marriage Vows

Deborah Ann Kish and Vincent Vigliotti were married Nov. 25 at noon at the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Tecumseh.

The Rev. Kenneth Strack officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mrs. Melvin (Kish) Wegner of 1402 E. Monroe Rd. and the late Gaza M. Kish, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Vigliotti of Milford, Conn.

Alan Ballenberger was organist.

White satin bows with greens marked the pews and the altar was decorated with flowers matching the bride's bouquet.

Given in marriage by her brother, Thomas Kish, the bride wore a candlelight gown of polyester. It featured a high waistline with train at the hemline. The long, fitted sleeves had lace ruffles.

She wore a Lindy Star necklace, a gift from the groom. Her illusion veil was attached to a cap of silk flowers. She carried white roses, stephanotis and snowdrift mums.

Mrs. Scott Schmeichel of Ypsilanti was matron of honor wearing a navy blue gown of Qiana. It featured a cowl neckline and empire waistline.

She carried a nosegay of snowdrift mums, carnations and star flowers and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gene Langschied of Onsted, the bride's sister, and Linda Hause of Ann Arbor. They were attired in azure blue and cranberry, respectively.

Richard Dowin of Milford, Conn. was the best man.

Ushers were Robert McGrath of Ann Arbor and Terry Averkamp of Debuque, Iowa.

A buffet luncheon was served to 100 guests at the Fisher Body UAW Union Hall.

The groom's sisters, Susan and Judy Vigliotti, assisted at the reception.

Special guests included Lee and Jacob Langschied of Onsted, Leta and Mandi Kish from Tecumseh and Mrs. Henry Retter, the bride's maternal grandmother.

After the reception, the bride and groom left for their new home in Long Beach, Miss.

The new Mrs. Vigliotti is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and the University of Michigan, with a bachelor of science in medical technology. She worked as a medical technologist at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. Vigliotti is a graduate of Fairfield University, Fairfield, Conn. and the University of Michigan, with a master's degree in physical oceanography. He is employed at the National Space Technology Laboratory in Bay St. Louis, Miss. as a mathematician specializing in physical oceanography.

The groom's parents hosted a cocktail party prior to the wedding at the Holiday Inn, Adrian.

MR. AND MRS. VINCENT VIGLIOTTI

Kim Underwood, Gary Ebright Nuptials

Kim T. Underwood and Gary E. Ebright recited their marriage vows before the Rev. Allan Gray in the United Methodist Church, Dec. 9.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. George V. Underwood and the late Mr. Underwood. Groom is the son of Ernest Ebright and Virginia Ebright, both of Blissfield.

Mrs. Donald Bush was the organist.

Soloist was Candy Harrington of Adrian.

The candlelight ceremony was performed before an altar graced with a bouquet of red roses in memory of the bride's late father. Other decorations were red poinsettias and mixed holiday greens.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Merlyn H. Downing. She wore an A-line gown of white silk organza styled with a sweetheart neckline and bishop sleeves accented with silk Venice lace. The skirt ended in a full cathedral train. A matching lace crowned picture hat secured the cathedral veil. Her bouquet was of white roses, holly and stephanotis.

Bridal attendants were Jan Dorrence, of Cincinnati, Ohio, college roommate, maid of honor; and bridesmaids, Sue Ellen Smith, Lynn Peck, Rhonda and Sheila Underwood, sisters of the bride, all of Tecumseh.

Attendants were gowned identically in grape green antique satin, featuring ivory Belgian lace yokes, bishop sleeves and cummerbund waists. They wore springs of holly in their hair and carried bouquets of holly and red carnations and white roses.

John Granzow of Blissfield was the best man. Ushers were Michael Ebright, brother of the groom, of Blissfield; Lynn Lietzke and George Wingerd, both of Blissfield; and George V. Underwood III, brother of bride, of Tecumseh.

Flower girl was Cory Hampton of Toledo, Ohio, niece of bridegroom. Ring bearer was Wyatt A. Manor, Monroe, nephew of bride.

Davison Publishes 'Wee Folk' Book

CLINTON — Orcelia Davison of Westland became enchanted with the Irish Hills area some years ago, and last year used the locale as the setting for a children's book, "The Wee Folk Are Here".

Using a theme of leprechauns and their journey from the 'Auld Sod' to a new land, she has created a charming tale for little folks.

The book is illustrated by Joanna Summers, daughter-in-law of the authoress.

Last fall Orcelia and husband, Elton, opened the Shirts by Trouble shop on Jackson St., where they sell customized T-shirts and novelties.

This week Mrs. Davison created in her shop a Wee Folk towered castle scene from her book, complete with actual waterfall, stream and leprechaun dolls.

Visitors may see the Wee Folk Castle from now until Christmas daily 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sundays 12 to 6 p.m.

You Are What You Eat

by Shirley Weekley

For those special people on your Christmas list, or those people hard to buy for, try giving a welcome gift of home baked goods. When the recipient does bake, be sure to include the recipes.

These holiday breads make excellent gifts.

CHRISTMAS BABKA

½ cup softened butter or margarine
½ cup sugar
4 egg yolks
1 cup milk (scalded)
1 package dry yeast
1 tsp. lemon rind (grated)
¼ cup lukewarm water
4 cups flour
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. cinnamon
1 cup white raisins
1 egg yolk (beaten)
2 tablespoon water
¼ cup chopped nuts

Cream butter and sugar in large mixing bowl. Beat egg yolks (4) and salt until thick and add to sugar mixture. Dissolve yeast in ¼ cup lukewarm water and add to first mixture. Add lemon rind and cinnamon. Add flour alternately with milk and beat well to make a smooth batter. Add the raisins and knead with the fingers until the batter leaves the fingers.

Let rise in warm place until double in size. Punch down and let rise again until doubled in bulk. Butter a tube pan generously and fill with dough. Beat one egg yolk with 2 tablespoons water and brush on top of dough. Sprinkle with nuts and let rise. Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

Christmas Stollen is another favorite holiday bread and this is from Marge Broich of Adrian.

STOLLEN

¾ cup raisins
¼ cup candied fruit
2 tablespoons light rum
¾ cup chopped nut meats
1 cup milk
¾ cup butter
½ cup sugar
1 package yeast
¼ cup water
4 ¾ cup flour
2 eggs
½ tsp. salt
¾ tsp. grated lemon peel
1/8 tsp. nutmeg

Combine raisins, candied fruit, nut meats and rum in bowl and let set for several hours or overnight. Scald milk, add butter and sugar. Dissolve yeast in ¾ cup warm water, add to milk mixture. Add 1½ cup of flour to mixture to make sponge. Add salt, egg, lemon peel, nutmeg, flour and fruit. Knead to a smooth dough.

Let rise until double in bulk. Punch down and knead again. Divide dough into three balls. Roll each to a 12 x 7 inch rectangle.

Fold dough in half lengthwise and shape each into almost a full circle. Place on greased cookie sheets, let rise again.

Bake in 350 degree oven 20-25 minutes until done. Brush while warm with butter and sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

The lebkuchen cookie recipe printed two weeks ago is even better with a thin glaze. Brush each cookie with Pet milk before baking or boil 1 cup sugar, ½ cup water to 230 degrees and add ¾ cup confectioners sugar. Brush on cookies after baking. Call 423-4948 to share holiday recipes.

Board Adopts Two Policies

Policies concerning conflicts of interest for board members and access to student records were adopted at the regular meeting of the Lenawee Intermediate School District board, Dec. 4.

The policies were presented at a previous meeting.

The conflict of interest policy states that no member of the board can influence a contract. Board members must disclose interests if contracts are entered into by the ISD board.

The access procedure for students' records outlines what records are available to whom and how they may be obtained.

This action formalizes compliance with the freedom of information act.

Dunbar Construction Company of Britton received an $18,150 contract to renovate the administrative offices of the ISD office in Birdsall.

The regular board meeting was moved from Jan. 1, 1979 to Jan. 9, 1979 at 8 p.m. at the LISD office, Birdsall, M-52 and Valley Rd.

Superintendent Bill Ross and assistant superintendent for special education, George Eidson, were appointed by the board to meet with Samborn, Steketee, Otis and Evans, architects, to develop preliminary drawings to solve space and function problems at the Milton C. Porter Education Center.

Plans will not be the finished drawings, but will move toward development of the master building plan.

Snow closing procedures were discussed. A policy will be developed.

At the present time, the policy for snow closing at Vo-Tech requires that 50 percent of the student population will be home due to their individual school district's high school closing.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Mom was perfectly right when she said, "They certainly look more like themselves now." She was referring to the chickadees Last summer it was great fun and most interesting to have young chickadees visit the near-my-window feeders. We could not help noticing that they were typical kids — their feathers were a bit less trim and sleek than the adults and they looked skinny. They actually did.

Instead of being fat and roly-poly their bodies were lean, long and thin looking. Beanpole adolescents.

Now that the weather is cold and the chickadees are all grown up, they do indeed look more like they should. At least, they look more as we are used to seeing them.

Last summer was our first experience with juvenile chickadees, in past years they were strictly cold weather visitors. Oh, no one is complaining that they changed their habits. We all sincerely hope that 12-months-a-year chickadees will be permanent.

It is amazing how these little guys have changed. They are now the cuddly, round sprites of past winters. Their bodies are fat and of course, the cold weather causes them to fluff out the feathers a bit.

They are once again the birds that made Eddie sigh and exclaim, "Oh, wouldn't you just love to hold one cupped in your hands!"

Another visitor is having more trouble growing up. A month or so ago a young squirrel suddenly appeared. It was far too late in the season for such youngsters but there he was.

Much smaller than any of the other fox squirrels, his actions absolutely screamed kid, kid, kid. He was inexperienced, awkward, and most obviously out on his own for the first time.

It was on the feeders that he really showed his lack of age and knowledge. On his first visit we did not see how he reached the food trays. Suddenly we were all conscious of the small squirrel rather frantically trying to figure out how to get down.

He would run from one tray to the other, look over the side, back away, peek over the edge again, cautiously stretch or reach out with a front paw and then, as if frightened at feeling nothing, quickly back away. He finally crawled halfway under the tray but instantly pulled himself back on top again.

He started climbing from the feeders to the bushes but that too was dangerous and frightening. Finally the little guy positioned himself on the board between the two trays, froze for a few seconds, and then jumped.

Actually he leaped, and landed in the yard halfway to the top of the creekbank. Over the bank and up the trunk of the nearby maple tree he dashed, stopping only after reaching the safety of the large lower limb.

There he rested to catch his breath; and, I am sure, breathe deep sighs of relief at having successfully escaped from such a dangerous situation.

The next day we saw him up the feeder post. He climbed well enough but after reaching —in fact, after bumping his head on the bottom of one of the trays, he was stymied.

It took much scrambling, many slips, great stretching, and literally minutes of trial and error before he managed to struggle over the edge and reach the food.

Now he swings up with no trouble at all. It was certainly not an easy trick to learn though.

Learning the techniques of eating feeder food did not pose much of a problem. Once in a while a sunflower seed was extra slippery but those little front hand-paws dropped few.

Learning that fox squirrels do not share with each other was almost traumatic. Time after time he was chased away and even now the lesson is not fully learned.

He no longer tries to eat at the same tray with another squirrel but occasionally he will quietly sneak to the second tray and treat us with the sight of two squirrels on two feeders.

Now the little squirrel is almost as large as the others. He scampers up and down with no hesitation at all. The other day, however, we had good laughs over the antics of our almost grown-up squirrel and our all grown-up chickadees.

The squirrel was deeply engrossed in eating, he was hunched up on the feeder with his tail curled over his back. A pair of chickadees took turns flying from the nearby maple tree down to the feeder.

They would land in back of the squirrel, grab a sunflower seed and hustle it back to the tree. They were bold and daring — actually, the squirrel might not even have objected had they stayed to eat with him.

Tecumseh Sponsors Museum Benefit

Fifteen Tecumseh area couples were guests Dec. 7 at the home of Don and Edna Smith, 900 Red Mill Drive.

The occasion was the Heritage Fund Benefit Champagne Social, a fund raising event for the Lenawee County Historical Society Museum.

Also hosts for the evening were Robert and Betty Kline and Gordon and [illegible] of Tecumseh. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. John Dawson. He is the Heritage Fund chairman.

The Heritage Fund for the Lenawee County Historical Museum continues in its sixth week.

Monies will be used to rehabilitate the Adrian Carnegie Library as the new county museum's home.

The initial goal is $100,000 by March 1, 1979. Dr. Charles Lindquist, museum curator, reported that county-wide, about $20,000 in pledges and donations have been received.

The proposed new museum is next door to Adrian city hall on West Front St.

It was placed on the State of Michigan and National Register of Historic Places in 1977 because of its architecture and its nearness to the historic State-Dennis residential district in Adrian.

The Adrian Carnegie Library features a Romanesque exterior. It was built circa 1907. It will provide one-third more storage and exhibit room than the present county historical museum at 108 S. Main St., Adrian.

Contributions to the Heritage Fund are tax-deductible. Contributions will enable the society to bring the building [illegible] Exterior improvements are also necessary.

Tecumseh groups, individuals and families may consider long term gifts of a few dollars a month.

"The museum is not just a museum for the city of Adrian. It is something that every small community in the county needs. We could not support our own museums on an individual basis, but together we can afford a museum for the benefit of the entire county. It is something good for all of us," commented Betty Kline, Tecumseh Area Historical Society president

Contributions may be sent to the treasurer, Lenawee County Historical Society, Inc., P.O. Box 511, Adrian, Mich. 49221. Checks may be made payable to the Lenawee County Historical Society, Inc.

Redskin Girls Beat Two for Regional Championship Title, Begin State Play

The Clinton Redskins won the right to play in the state class "C" quarter finals for the second straight year as they defeated Whiteford and Napoleon to win the regional championship.

Against Whiteford the girls started strong and led 19 to 10 at the end of the first quarter. Sue Richter led the charge with eight points. The two teams played evenly the rest of the game with Clinton winning 49-40.

The statistics were all in Clinton's favor as the Redskins shot 40% compared to Whitefords 26%. The rebounding edge was 36 to 17 with Barb Winder hauling down 10 for CHS.

Sue Richter led Clinton with 23 points and several of her baskets came at very crucial times. Barb Winder played very well scoring 13 points. Reserve center Brenda Cark filled in for her sister, Lisa, and played a very steady game.

Kris Pratt led Clinton's defense as she held Whiteford's best player to 12 points. Judy Zimmerman contributed six steals to go along with her steady defensive play.

The victory over Whiteford put CHS into the regional finals for the fourth year in a row.

The championship game was played at Addison against the Napoleon Pirates. Clinton jumped off to a quick 4-0 lead but then played poorly the rest of the period as Napoleon led 6-5 at the end of that quarter.

Led by Lisa Cark, Clinton stormed back to lead 19-7 with 2:00 left in the first half but went cold again as Napoleon scored nine straight points. That cut Clintons lead to 19-16 at halftime.

Napoleon took the lead 20-19 with two baskets at the start of the second half. The score see-sawed back and forth with Clinton leading 34-33 at the end of the third quarter with a basket at the buzzer by Fran Corwin.

The Pirates grabbed a 39-34 advantage with 6:12 left in the game. After a time out the Redskins staged a great comeback outscoring Napoleon 12-4 during the rest of the fourth quarter.

Baskets by Richter and Cark gave Clinton the lead for good as the Redskins stalled during the last minute to come away with the win and the title 46-43.

It was Clinton's 21st win this year and it makes the third consecutive year that Clinton's girls have won at least 20 games.

According to Coach Bob King, the game was not one of the Redskins best. They experienced their worst shooting night this year, hitting only 28% from the floor. It was a real struggle throughout but, but the victory puts the Redskins into the quarter finals.

Senior Lisa Cark led the Redskins in scoring with 18 points and 13 rebounds. Forward Barb Winder had another good game as she scored 14 points and hauled down nine rebounds.

Sue Richter was held to eight points, one of the lowest totals of her career. Richter led with seven steals and did an excellent job of controlling the ball for the offense.

Kris Pratt and Judy Zimmerman played well on defense holding Napoleons leading scorer to just 11 points.

The quarter finals will be played at Galesburg-Augusta High School this Wednesday (Dec. 13) at 7:30 p.m., against Parchment.

Fans interested in attending the game should take I-94 west to exit #85. Turn north about one mile on 35th street. The school is on the right and is located on Battle Creek Street. It is a two-hour drive.

If the Redskins are successful, the semi-finals will be played at Lansing Waverly High School at 7 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 15. The state finals are at Jenison Field House on the Michigan State University campus Dec. 16, at 6 p.m.

Gymnasts Plan Holiday Program

The Tecumseh High School gymnastic team and coach Mary Wood has extended an invitation to the public to join them in a special Christmas program Dec. 21 at the high school, 7 p.m.

Coach Wood will be presenting a program while allowing her team a chance to compete in front of a crowd as they must do when league competition begins in early January.

A group of children will also perform basic tumbling skills and one fifth grader will even compete with a routine at the level of high school gymnasts. The children come from Wood's recreation department classes.

Postpone Activities

Tecumseh Recreation Department activities that are held in the schools' gyms will be postponed during school Christmas vacation between Dec. 21 and Jan. 2.

Britton Squad Loses, 44-38

Britton's basketball squad ran into foul and shooting trouble Friday against Deerfield and lost their game 44-38.

Britton was tied with Deerfield at the end of the first frame, 12 all, and even went three points up at one point in the second quarter. Coach VanArnsdalen then had to pull two key players that were in foul trouble.

The Tories suddenly lost some organization and found they were down by six at half with the score at 20-26. Deerfield came back out in a zone the second half and the Britton team could not catch up. Both teams scored 18 points that last half.

While playing good defensive ball, the Britton team was able to hit only 18 of 86 from the floor offensively for 27%. Deerfield was 18 of 52. From the line, Britton hit two of seven to Deerfield's eight of 17.

David Bruce led the local team with 12 points while Greg Fanslau also hit double figures with 10. Fanslau was the leading rebounder with 10. Bruce had eight. The team as a whole had 40 to Deerfield's 32 rebounds.

THS Indians Lose 51-39 to Adrian

The Indians hosted rival Adrian Friday night and the Maples left the Tecumseh basketball court with a 51-39 victory.

The Indians basketballers went into the locker room at half tied with Adrian, 19 all. They came out at the end of the third quarter just two points down, 39-41.

Then Adrian opened the game wide open with three minutes left on the clock, forcing turnovers and sinking four unanswered baskets. The Indians just couldn't catch up and Adrian sunk a couple baskets at the end to go away with the 51-39 victory.

John Faulkner was high for THS with 10 points. As a team, THS hit only 11 of 48 from the floor for 22 percent. Adrian hit 49 percent with 20 of 42 baskets.

From the line, the Indians hit 17 of 27 while Adrian hit 13 of 18. In rebounding, the Indians edged the Maples 41, 25.

Southard at Top

The THS wrestlers put a number of individual wins under their belts this week after battling Clinton and Dundee in a double meet Tuesday and traveling to New Boston for an invitational Saturday.

Saturday, John Southard led his team with three decisions and a first place win at the 138 weight. Tony Turner captured second at 191.

Other place finishes went to Matt Barrett at 126 and Jack Bagby at 132, both third. Randy Halvin finished fourth at 178.

New Boston won the meet with Saline finishing second. The next five places were all clustered in the 80 point range with the Indians taking sixth at 83.

At the double meet this Tuesday, Dundee topped the Indians 39-26, but the THS squad got the best of Clinton 42-24.

Individual winners for THS included: Jeff Day at 98, Stewart Williamson at 112, Lenny Castorena at 119, Nick Osburn at 126, Southard at 138, Chris Silberhorn at 155, Tim Steuwe at 165, Halvin at 178.

The Indians had three double winners in Marty Barrett at 105, Matt Barrett at 132 and Bagby at 145.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

VOL. 128 OUR 129th YEAR—NO. 21 THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1978 SIXTEEN PAGES—25¢

Ambulance Contract Is Near Reality

Tecumseh area units of government grew closer to an adequate emergency medical protection plan last week after indicating interest in accepting the low bid of EMT ambulance service of Palmyra.

The office of the county prosecutor Harvey Koselka is preparing a model contract to be considered by the local governments, including the cities of Tecumseh and Adrian, the townships of Clinton, Tecumseh, Macon, Ridgeway, Franklin and Raisin.

The village of Onsted and townships of Adrian and Cambridge were undecided at the Dec. 13 meeting.

The village of Clinton indicated it will remain with its volunteer service.

Marc Grossman, Lenawee County Human Services Coordinator, anticipates the model contract will be ready, hopefully by next week.

Dick Payne of EMT said that pending the signing of the contracts, he plans to have his ambulance units operating under the proposed plan by Jan. 1.

Payne's bid on the plan was $1 per capita in the service area, approximately $44,000. Bennett-Navarre's bid was over $60,000.

Under the plan four ambulances will be stationed to serve the north-central, northeastern region of Lenawee County. (This area encompasses approximately half the county's population.) Ambulances will be stationed in Tecumseh, Onsted and two in Adrian. Two EMT's will staff the stations 24 hours a day.

The county has agreed to subsidize the emergency medical services plan with $1 per capita for those governments that cooperate in signing a contract. In return the ambulance provider must meet requirements set by the County Board of Commissioners.

Among those are liability insurance. In addition to workmen's compensation, the provider must carry not less than $100,000 for bodily injury per person and not less than $300,000 per occurence. The firm must also have $50,000 in property damage insurance per ambulance.

The Lenawee County Board of Commissioners and the County of Lenawee will be listed as the insured. It was suggested each participating government require that it also be listed as insured.

Payne said that he would not place an ambulance unit in Onsted until the village decided to sign a contract. If Onsted did not sign the contract, the community would have to wait longer for ambulance service because a unit would not be stationed there, Payne said.

William Shelton, a partner in Bennett-Navarre Ambulance Company, said that his company will attempt to maintain and upgrade its services in Lenawee County, particularly in Tecumseh.

Bennett's will continue to seek a permanent location in Tecumseh. However, without the subsidy, Shelton said it may be financially unfeasable. Bennett's has stations in Adrian, Onsted and Dundee. It has a service contract in western Monroe County.

Until procedures with the new contract become clear, residents may call either ambulance company directly for ambulance service or the sheriff's department for dispatch of the closest, qualified unit.

$6 Million Budget Is School Record

Tecumseh School Board adopted a record budget Monday night. Total estimated budget was $6,015,087, up nine percent over last year's adopted budget and up 10.7 percent over last year's actual expenditures.

The budget for the 1976-77 school year was $5,519,000, but actual expenses were considerably less, $5,443,000.

Assistant superintendent Gene Cooley explained to the board that the finance committee was shooting for a 10 to 11 percent increase in this year's budget after inflation, new contracts, and fixed costs were considered.

Just over 70 percent of the budget, $4,247,918, is earmarked for instruction costs. Related personnel costs and salaries as a whole make up 80.2 percent of the budget, which is in line with area schools, according to Cooley.

Expenses, not included in the category of instructional, are administration, $175,903 or 2.9 percent of the budget, and public library, $107,101, or 1.8 percent of the budget.

Other costs in this category were fixed and included attendance, health, CETA, transportation for Tecumseh and special education, and maintenance. Total budget in this area was $1,484,165.

Cooley explained to the board that the budget was realistic and workable and spent some time explaining the drastic increases in many areas, including utilities, text books, salaries, etc.

Board usually adopts the budget for its fiscal year of July 1 to June 30, in October, but delayed teacher negotiations pushed the adoption to Monday night, Cooley explained.

Pre-applications Will Determine Fate of Project

Tecumseh's elderly housing project off Adrian St., south of W. Pottawatamie St., could well be decided within the next few weeks.

Paul Preston, assistant city manager, told Council Monday night that pre-applications will be taken shortly after Jan. 1st to determine the need for such housing, and if such need would financially support the project.

Through a report to officials, Preston pointed out that the city can not charge more than 25% of a person's income for rent. It is therefore possible for a tenant to pay rent less than the $150 per month rent projected that will be needed to finance the housing.

He said that pre-applications will be available soon and prospective tenants will have 30 days to complete and to return to city hall.

Tecumseh's application for a $2.5 million loan from Farmers Home Administration has been passed at the district level but for only 25 subsidized units, rather than 91 subsidized units that were requested. Overall, the housing project would have 122 rental units.

Preston feels that the state will approve the loan and then forward the city's application to the federal government for final determination, a decision expected to be announced in the next six to eight weeks.

In the meantime, if pre-applications show a greater need for subsidized housing, such a need will be made known to FmHA and a request made for additional financing.

If the housing project proceeds as city officials hope, prospective tenants who filed the pre-application will also have to complete and file full or final applications at a later date.

Preston said it is conceivable, based on approval and FmHA financing, that construction could start here in 1979.

'Good Growth' Is Reported

In this month's report to shareholders of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh, officers K.C. McElroy, board chairman, and M.H. Downing, president, report "good growth" during the year.

Average assets increased about nine percent, net income 10%, and cash dividends increased eight percent as a result of these additional earnings.

The bank had predicted net income to be $900,000 for 1978, and the officers expect to be very close to this goal.

December's cash dividend of $130,000 increased the bank's dividends for the past year to $400,000, and the two officers also report adding approximately $500,000 to capital accounts for the year.

Relative to the bank's construction programs, work on the new Russell Rd. branch could start soon, and groundbreaking for the new main office on E. Chicago Blvd. is scheduled for next spring.

Parents Protest, Say Discipline Inconsistent

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Render, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borton attended the Tecumseh School Board meeting Monday night to disuss their concern over the high school code of conduct and the handling of the code.

Mr. Borton took the floor first for the group and explained their primary concern. He explained that the high school administration was failing to be consistant in discipline and suspensions.

The group explained that they were not there "to cause the school board a problem." We're concerned!"

Mrs. Brooks added to her husband's statement, "When parents can see that rules are not applied to all children equally, then something is wrong!"

The three couples stated that they had many documented incidents of mishandling the code, but preferred to leave names out. They did say that they knew of one coach who cautioned a player because the coach knew he drank, but didn't want to catch him or the player would be disciplined.

The group referred back to small incidents involving the suspension of their three sons during the football season and stated their suspension as well as others were just not handled properly.

Board president William Macbeth, apparently angered, stated that the suspension of their sons was over and that they "will not rehash the entire matter!"

Mr. Brooks also cited one section of the code of conduct that does not allow smoking across the street from the school.

High school principal Clarence Lacney explained that student conduct off school property was not within the school's jurisdiction. The board promised to refer that section of the code to committee for clarification and rewriting.

Mrs. Brooks concluded, "we approve of the code, but it must apply to all."

Mrs. Eleanor Hull appeared before the board and voiced her opposition of "at home suspensions."

Mrs. Hull explained that she was a working mother and that discipline should be possible without sending children home to miss school. She stated she was not "against discipline," but was "really against at home suspensions."

The school board responded that they too had looked at other possibilities, including school suspension within the building in a staffed program. According to the board, such a program was impossible because of space availability and the extra money involved.

Macbeth commented that he felt school was a privilege, a privilege paid for by the community. He felt it was unfair to induce further costs onto the community to adjust a student.

City Awards Bids

Underwood Chevrolet-Olds-Pontiac of Clinton was awarded contracts for the purchase of three city vehicles by Council Monday evening.

Underwood's was low bidder for two four-yard dump trucks at $11,543 each. New trucks will replace 1968 models. Other bidders were Tecumseh Equipment and Erb Chevrolet-Buick.

Clinton agency also was low bidder for a 3/4 ton pickup at $6,372. Erb's was the only other bidder.

Mittens, Gloves Are Needed

The Tecumseh Service Club's mitten tree for the needy at Herrick Park Branch of United Savings Bank was not as successful this year.

Although the members of the club have already packed several Christmas boxes for families, mittens and gloves for older children, aged 10 through teens, would be appreciated for future emergencies.

For more information about the work of the Tecumseh Service Club, readers may call Opal Dickinson, president, at 423-2640.

Firm Granted More Time

Council granted Tecumseh Printers an extension of time Monday night to obtain financing for a lot and new printing plant in the city's industrial park.

Request to extend the time limit from six months to 12 months was approved with a deadline date of Nov. 6, 1979.

Printers approached Council last month about buying in industrial park.

Rezone Property to Residential

City officials approved rezoning of a lot on Mill Hwy. from industrial to two-family residential Monday night.

Council held a public hearing prior to the vote, and no one present objected. Vote to adopt the ordinance was unanimous.

Merchants, desiring greeting ads and not contacted, should call The Herald, 423-2174.

Business office of The Herald will close at 12 noon Friday, Dec. 22.

No Action on Bids

Three bids were received by Council Monday night for janitorial service at city hall for 1979. None was accepted.

Cal Zorn, city manager, asked officials to wait until next month for any action. He indicated that another party would be contacted.

Bids were received from Michigan Janitorial Service - formerly J.R.A. and currently providing service - and Servicemaster and Betty's Cleaning Service.

Zorn was critical of Michigan Janitorial Service, and told officials that lights had been left on and doors left unlocked. This firm was low bidder at $410 per month. Servicemaster's bid was $420 monthly, and Betty's, $750 per month.

Street Contest

If Council action Monday evening is acceptable to the Chamber of Commerce, local residents will have the opportunity of naming the street in the city's industrial park.

Chamber officials had discussed having a contest at its Dec. 7th meeting with three winners receiving $50 gift certificates. At that time, three street names were contemplated for the U-shaped drive.

Council Jay Tressler moved Monday night that the street have only one name, that the city and Chamber share a $100 prize, and any name be eligible for consideration.

His motion was approved, although Harold Easton voted against it.

Easton pointed out that a number of years ago, Council voted that future city street names be Indian oriented. At that same time, developers were naming streets after relatives, and officials did not feel it appropriate.

Easton is the only member of that Council still serving the city today.

Attorney Greg Forsthoefel was asked to change the resolution to permit any name for consideration.

Three Hurt in Accident

Only five accidents were handled by Tecumseh police the past week, but one traffic mishap injured the driver and two passengers.

Just before midnight Thursday, David A. Buck, 26, Clinton, lost control of his car on N. Ottawa and struck the guard rail at the curve by the athletic field.

Buck was injured along with his wife, Carol C., 25, and passenger Mario A. Giacchetti, 25, of Lisle, Ill. Three other passengers escaped injury. The injured were taken to Herrick Hospital by ambulance.

Police cited Buck for driving too fast for road conditions, no insurance on vehicle and for improper registration.

Last Wednesday, Dale E. Campbell, 16, of 308 Adrian St., was charged with failure to yield after a collision with David L. Hall, 21, 703 Outer Dr., on N. Maumee at Shawnee.

Also Wednesday, Paul S. Klanke, 40, of 804 Occidental, struck a deer on E. Chicago Blvd. near Rogers.

Address Junior Play, Hit and Run

Letter to the Editor:

A little dog, Raskel, was hit about 11 p.m. Tuesday in front of the Clinton Laundromat. The young people that hit Raskel knew they had hit him because they put on their brakes and released the dog from being dragged farther.

We understand that animals and children do dart out into the path of moving vehicles, and that it is not always the driver's fault. What we do not understand is a hit and run.

My daughter lives next to the laundromat and did not have a car to take Raskel to the veterinarians. By the time I got dressed and into town Raskel had lost much blood from hemorrhaging.

I ran into the laundromat and got a young man, Don Wrangler, to hold Raskel and give comfort while I drove to the vet's.

Raskel will take many months to heal because only one of his lacerations were able to be sewn up because the wounds around all the other many lacerations were too worn to hold stitches.

Jeramay, Raskel's 18-month-old master, will be able to romp with his pet someday in the long future. God saw it fit to let a little boy's pet live. Jeramay lost his 3½-year-old brother a year ago, but someday he will have his dog to play with again.

It is a proven fact that people treat their dogs the way they treat their children. I pray that I never see a child so badly torn as Raskel, but it may happen because people sometimes do drive away even from a child.

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter to tell the community of Tecumseh that there will not be a junior class play at Tecumseh High School this year.

This is not due to a lack of interest on the student's part. On the contrary, it is due to a decision made by the principal, Mr. Lacny; assistant principal, Mr. Brazee; the drama teacher; and the English department chairman.

This decision was made without representatives of the class or the class advisor in attendance.

The reason they gave us for this decision was that we had no teacher to direct the play. This is not true. There is a English teacher at school who is quite willing to direct the play for us.

I think the junior class should have the right to make the decision of whether or not they want a class play.

Junior plays are a tradition at Tecumseh High School and they have always been a good, worthwhile activity for any junior who wants to participate in it.

The junior class is prepared to work very hard to present a good class play. I think we should at least have the opportunity to do so.

Respectfully yours,
Rhonda Underwood

With Christmas less than a week away, here are two last minute cookie recipes.

Here is a quick recipe and it does taste like a candy bar.

OH HENRY BARS

2/3 cup margarine
4 cups uncooked oatmeal
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup corn syrup
3 teaspoons vanilla
1 package (6 ounce) chocolate chips
2/3 cup peanut butter

Cream margarine. Stir in oatmeal, brown sugar, corn syrup, and vanilla. Spread mixture in a 9 x 13 pan. Bake in 350 degrees oven for 15 minutes — no longer. Cool. Melt chocolate chips and peanut butter in saucepan. Spread over cooled bars. Refrigerate several hours. Cut into bars. Delicious!!

Date Pinwheels are an attractive as well as delicious Christmas cookie.

DATE PINWHEELS

2-1/4 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup margarine
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
1 cup pitted dates, finely chopped
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/3 cup water
few grains of salt
1/4 cup finely chopped almonds

Cream margarine. Gradually add the brown sugar and 1/2 cup granulated sugar, and beat until well blended. Add eggs and beat well. Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt and add to butter mixture and mix until smooth. Chill dough 30 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine the dates, the 1/4 cup sugar, water and the few grains of salt in saucepan. Bring mixture to a boil over moderately low heat, cook 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Cool. Stir in nuts.

Roll chilled dough into a rectangle 10x16 inches. Spread evenly with date mixture. Roll up like a jelly roll, starting with the wide side. Wrap roll tightly in wax paper and chill overnight.

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Cut roll into 1/4 inch slices and place about 2 inches apart on a greased cookie sheet. Bake 12 to 14 minutes. Remove cookies from sheets and cool on wire cake racks. Make about 4-1/2 dozen cookies.

Fireplace Starts Fire

TIPTON — An overheated fireplace was determined the cause of a house fire at 1296 Lake View Dr., Manchester Township that caused an estimated $10,000 to $12,000 damage.

Sand Lake Fire Department responded to the call Dec. 17 at 8:45 p.m. with 23 men and four pieces of equipment. Irish Hills Fire Department assisted with 15 men and two pieces of equipment.

It took three hours before the blaze was extinguished. The two-story home had extensive smoke and water damage.

A man staying in the home at the time, summoned the fire department.

Owner of the home is Michael Howe, a Clinton school teacher. He had lived in the home for just eight days before the fire.

Symbols Inspire Yule Program

BRITTON — Sunday evening the Grace United Methodist Church Christmas program was held under the direction of Mrs. Stewart Niblack and Mrs. Bill Bailey.

The youth band started the program with several music selections with Mrs. Paul Bailey at the piano.

After the ringing of the church bells the children's choir sang from the balcony, "[illegible] Bells". The children then entered the sanctuary singing, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas".

Several recitations were given by the children and then the congregation sang several carols, accompanied by Mrs. Norman Johnson at the organ.

After a reading by Mrs. Allen Bower of "Heaven's Christmas Tree", Mrs. Stewart Niblack and Mrs. Richard Linn sang, "O Holy Night" with the Holy Family portrayed by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crutchfield and their son, Kirk Andrew.

Next in the program, the adults of the church along with the Rev. Jack Roach played a scene titled, "The Living Christmas Tree".

The program was closed with Mrs. Allen Bower Presenting the "Birthday for Jesus". She made a three-tiered cake decorated with a star and an angel with 12 red candles to represent the 12 months of the year.

During this presentation the congregation gave offerings which will be donated to the Methodist Children's Home in Detroit.

Refreshments were served after the program in the fellowship hall and each of the Sunday school children received a ceramic "Joseph". Each year another piece of the nativity scene will be given to the children.

Tories Leap Out of Slump

Britton continued to have shooting problems Friday night and lost to Sand Creek, but the Tories leaped out of their slump Tuesday and hit 48 percent of their shots for an easy victory over Manchester.

Friday, Randy Dusseau had 17 points and Troy Bailey added 14 to lead Britton, but that was not enough as the Tories lost 56-49.

From the floor, Britton hit 22 of 66 while their opponents connected on 23 of 52. From the line, Britton managed only five of 14. Sand Creek hit 10 of 15. Greg Fanslau was the leading rebounder for the Tories with 10.

Britton actually worked the ball inside well against Sand Creek and took 40 of their 66 shots from inside the key. They just couldn't put the ball through the hoop.

Tuesday was an entirely different story as Britton beat Manchester 76-69. Britton dominated the game beginning with the end of the third frame and they were up by 21 at one point before all the players got in the game.

In Tuesday's game, Britton was up by two points, 41-39, at half. With two minutes left in the third frame, however, Sand Creek called time because they were down by four and then were having trouble with Britton's half court trap.

Coach Cam VanArsdalen then switched his boys to a man to man defense. Britton went on to score eight points to Sand Creek's two to finish the frame.

Terry Benedict lead the scorers with 24. Dusseau was right behind with 23. Dan Harriott also hit double figures with 12. Benedict led on the boards with nine rebounds.

Parchment Ends Clinton's State Championship Bid in Quarter Finals, 47 - 42

By Coach Bob King

For the second year in a row, the Clinton Redskin girls basketball team was stopped in its bid to reach the state semi-finals. Parchment, a larger class "C" school on the outskirts of Kalamazoo was just too much for the Redskins to handle.

The tournament trail ended for Clinton in the state class "C" quarter finals played at Galesburg-Augusta High School when Parchment held off a late Clinton rally to win 47-42.

Parchment, before this year, was a class "B" school and had lost only one regular season game in the last three years. They upped their record to 23-1 while the Redskins finished another very successful season at 21-3.

The game started with both teams feeling the pressure of tournament basketball as turnovers and cold shooting dominated the first quarter. Parchment led 7-0 before CHS finally scored as senior guard Judy Zimmerman made two free throws with only 1:19 left in the quarter.

The first quarter ended with Parchment ahead 11-2, and as things turned out, it proved to be Clinton's undoing. It was the coldest quarter of basketball Coach Bob King and his girls have ever suffered through.

As Coach King reflected back on the game he felt that the first quarter had a great bearing on the outcome of the contest. The nine point lead was just too much to overcome.

As the game progressed, both teams warmed up and at halftime Parchment led 27-15. The taller Panthers controlled the backboards (their front line averaged 6') and their man to man defense proved to be very troublesome to the Clinton team.

Parchment increased its lead to 33-17 halfway through the third quarter before the Redskins half court press started to work and caused several turnovers. Clinton outscored their foe 14-2 over the next four minutes to close the gap to 35-31.

With just a few seconds left Zimmerman put up a good shot which started to drop but spun out and a Parchment player grabbed the rebound, dribbled down the floor and scored at the buzzer.

This last second basket seemed to turn the momentum around in Parchment's favor. Instead of trailing by only two, Clinton found itself behind by six, 37-31.

A basket to start the fourth quarter gave Parchment an eight point lead and control of the ball game. Although the Redskins outscored Parchment in the third and fourth quarters, 27-20, they could not get any closer than five points the rest of the game.

Clinton's shooting percentage was 35% compared to Parchments 26%. Both teams scored 18 baskets but the Panthers won the game at the free throw line as they made 11 of 18. Clinton could only make six of 20 attempts.

The taller Panthers won the battle of the boards also, 45-33. Lisa Cark led CHS with 12.

All starter senior Sue Richter led both teams with 19 points as she finished her brilliant high school career. During her four years of playing for Clinton, Richter played in 90 games and scored 1,594 points.

Coach Bob King was very pleased with his teams comeback as they outplayed Parchment after that disasterous first quarter. Coach King felt that his team progressed steadily throughout the year and hit their peak against Addison in the district finals.

According to King the Redskins played well enough to win the state class "C" championship during the first three quarters of that game.

"We never played with such intensity again," said King. "We struggled through the regionals and our poor start and free throw shooting cost us a chance to advance to the semi-finals."

For four seniors it was the end of their basketball careers. Reserve Fran Corwin, who started several games; Judy Zimmerman (a co-caption) was one of our best defensive players; Lisa Cark, second in scoring with 269 points and second in rebounding with 236.

Lisa was also selected to the LCAA first team, second team all-county and she was the ninth best scorer in Lenawee County. Sue Richter, according to last year's statistics, finished her basketball career as the third leading scorer in the state of Michigan and first in total games with 90.

For Richter, Cark and Zimmerman the last three years were very successful. The teams they played on won 64 games while losing only eight. They won two LCAA league titles, three district championships and two regional crowns.

Club Holds Mini-Bazaar

Members of the Tecumseh Garden Club raised money for horticulture and environmental scholarships with a mini-bazaar at the club's annual Christmas tea Dec. 15.

Mary Mammoser, 4326 Dillingham Dr., was hostess.

Along with the other two garden clubs in Tecumseh, the Tecumseh Garden Club is anticipating the 50th birthday celebration of the National Council of State Garden Clubs in May 1979.

The club joins the 250 other Michigan Garden Clubs in creating three scholarships honoring the three past National Council Presidents from Michigan.

In providing items for last Friday's bazaar, the women proved their craft and culinary talents in addition to their gardening talents. One member, Henrietta Lindsley, delights the members with her tatting designs on stationery.

The past two summers, the group planted, weeded and watered behind the Herrick Nursing Home. The club members continue to remember their friends in the Nursing Home with tray favor and occasional arrangements for dining tables.

School Board Votes to Join County Board

Monday night the Tecumseh School Board agreed to become a member of the Lenawee County Association of School Boards.

This allows board members to meet with other schools and discuss common problems. If all area schools agree, 12 districts and the intermediate district will each have representatives.

An additional advantage of Tecumseh joining the Michigan chapter allows the city to receive three percent of all county dues to be put back into the local organization for operational purposes.

Sharon MacGeorge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge, 216 Park St., received a bachelor of science degree in education during commencement ceremonies at Central Michigan University, Mt. Proceeds Help Garden

Looking for a last-minute Christmas gift? The Town & Country Garden Club has the answer: practical and attractive note cards with an original pen and ink drawing of the Hidden Lake Gardens' rock garden.

The design is a creation of Harriet Lee (Honey) Himburg, sister of club member, Mary Ferguson, and a native of Owosso. She is currently studying at Brooks Institute in Santa Barbara, Calif.

The note cards are a fund-raising project to support the Town & Country Garden Club's continuing restoration of the Hidden Lake Garden's rock garden.

The rock garden, constructed in 1933, was once a Lenawee County showplace. Recently, it had fallen into a state of disrepair due to a shortage of funds and a lack of manpower.

Through the initiative and hard work of garden club members, the rock garden is again attracting gardeners and nature lovers from across the state.

Since the fall of 1975, club members have donated over 1,500 hours removing large areas of overgrown shrubbery, weeding, planting, making labels and constructing pathways.

They have raised over $500 which have gone back into the rock garden in the form of dwarf shrubs, alpine plantings, spring flowering bulbs and permanent labels.

The current stationery sale proceeds will be used to restore additional areas yet untouched in the 7,500 square foot rock garden and to maintain those areas already under control.

The note cards are printed in natural earth tones and come in packages of 10. They are currently available in Tecumseh at the August Company, the House of Hallmark and the Tecumseh Camera Shop.

Adrian residents may purchase cards at the Vine Street Flower Shop. The cards will also be available at the Hidden Lake Gardens' gift shop.

Gretchen Lovett, Town & Country Garden Club president, has more information at 263-8181.

Some Staff Raises OK'ed

CLINTON — Board of Education, at the Dec. 12 meeting, voted seven percent increase for three principals, Margaret Bless, Gordon Clark, and Howard Oesterling; approved a 10 percent increase based on their salary as stipend for coordinators, and approved an 18 percent increase at base salary for the athletic director.

Action came as the president, Dr. Dean Kirkland, voted yes to break a tie vote.

Board granted the principals three year contracts.

Action on administrative staff contracts was deferred until after a settlement is reached with teachers.

State Mediator George Richey was to begin meeting with the Clinton Education Association and board negotiators Monday afternoon, in an effort to settle contract discussions which have apparently bogged down.

Board voted to authorize the casting of an affirmative vote on applications of Dundee and Ida School District to join the Lenawee County Athletic Association.

One student will be expelled for the remainder of the semester because of inability to follow school rules.

Board was told that according to new laws on CETA, every employee on CETA in the school district will have to be transferred or laid off by Oct. 1, 1979.

Board discussed but took no action on a proposed union of Lenawee County School Boards.

Ed Thompson, representative of the Clinton Area Jaycees, confirmed the offer made by the Jaycees to purchase a computer and program tapes for elementary and middle school implementation.

Board voted to increase central office secretaries salaries by .30 per hour for the 1978-79 year.

A visiting citizen voiced concern over agendas given guests, and mentioned certain issues that he perceived as problems, bad country roads, and suggested that the board did not have enough bus drivers, and recommended that drivers be allowed to take buses home.

At an executive session, board voted to authorize the superintendent to invest the $50,000 check received Dec. 6 for athletic development, in the State Savings Bank of Clinton.

Special thanks were conveyed from the chairmen to the following for assisting in the success of the program: J & C's Family Foods, Court's Village Pharmacy, State Savings Bank, Elementary School staff, High School administrators and custodial staff, Clinton Women's Club for cookie donations, Jaycee wives who donated cookies, other merchants who assisted with the publicity of the event, Roger Korte, Iva Dowling, Melanie and Colleen Cowhy, and all participating Jaycettes and Jaycees...but especially Santa!

The winner of the toy raffle conducted by the auxiliary was Dennis Ennis. He received $50 worth of toys, games and Christmas candies.

Police Handle Two Accidents Early Sunday

CLINTON— Michigan State Police at the Clinton Post handled two accident reports early Sunday morning.

At approximately 12:55 a.m. on US-12 near Lima Center Rd., a vehicle driven by Charles Roumell, 33, of Brooklyn rolled over. Police said the car was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Roumell was transported to Herrick Hospital where he was admitted and discharged Monday.

At 1:30 a.m. Sunday on Macon Road, just east of Tecumseh, state police again responded to an accident.

Douglas Mason, 24, of Clinton was eastbound on Macon Road. His vehicle hit an icy stretch of pavement and crossed over the center line. He struck a westbound car driven by Mark Barrett, 18.

Both were taken to Herrick Hospital and discharged.

Taking a moment to say thanks for your friendship and understanding.

Boys Post 2 Wins

Clinton added two more wins to their list this last week with victories over Morenci and Blissfield.

Tuesday, Clinton beat Blissfield by eight, 60-52. Dave Porter hit 20 points for the Redskins and Mark Dettling connected with 18. Dettling also led in rebounding with 19. Porter had 11.

As a team, Clinton hit 23 of 62 shots from the floor for 37 percent and hit 14 of 22 from the line. Blissfield was 20 of 60 and 12 of 15 from the line. Rebounding was near even with Blissfield edging Clinton 41-38.

CHS was ahead most of Tuesday's game but fell three behind at the end of the half when they went cold offensively behind Blissfield's press.

Clinton came back aggressively in the third frame and exchanged baskets, but took a four point advantage overall behind seven free throws. They then pulled four more points out front in the last quarter for the win.

Clinton may have trailed Morenci by one at the end of the first frame Friday night, but the Redskins put an end to the doubt of the games outcome in the second quarter when they posted 30 points to Morenci's 11.

Final score left CHS on top 80-53. Terry Carleton scored 20 points, eight of them on fast breaks in the second quarter. Mike Karapas and Dettling each hit 14 points. Dettling hit 12 of his 14 in the second frame.

The Redskins started off playing very bad ball. They came around quickly in the second frame with an effective press and good passing, and they connected in the middle with their taller ball players.

As a whole, the team hit 51 percent from the floor to Morenci's 35. Clinton had 38 rebounds to their opponent's 34.

All-County

Sue Richter of Clinton and Jodi Smith of Britton were chosen to the first all-county basketball team this last week by the Daily Telegram sports staff.

Lisa Cark of Clinton and Tecumseh Indian Gloria Fosbender were chosen to the second team. Janene Schultz, from Britton, received honorable mention.

Tecumseh Teens Collect 2,570 Cans for Area Needy

Last week Tecumseh senior and junior high school students proved if anybody can be in the Christmas giving spirit, Tecumseh teens can.

They collected 2,570 cans and packages of nourishing food for distribution to needy Lenawee County families at Christmas time by the Associated Charities.

Tecumseh High School student council sponsored the annual canned food drive there. Goal was 1,200 cans. When the drive ended, the total was 1,422 cans.

This has been the largest drive at the school, reported Silvia Yearly at the student activities office.

Don Brazee, director of student activities, sponsored a pizza party for the winning class. Sharon Roberts' third hour freshman class proved it had the most enthusiasm. It collected 421 cans. Student representative is Lori Burack. The 33 students were feted Dec. 13 at the Italian Village.

Second place winners were Ed Roesch's third hour homeroom class. The 14 students of the class collected 416 cans, only five less than the larger freshman class. Each student received a $2 gift certificate from McDonald's as a second prize.

At the junior high school, about 1,047 cans were collected. Carrie Hite was the coordinator and Cheryl Salters was her assistant.

First place winners from the junior high school seventh grade math classes was Herbert Cleveland's class with 194 cans. Second place was Theodore Rachwal's math class with 162 cans.

First place winners from the eighth grade English classes were JoAnn Armentrout's class with 267 cans and second place was Nancy Stoutenburg's class with 72 cans collected.

First place winners received pop and chips.

Associated Charities uses the canned good to pack boxes for needy families throughout Lenawee County. So far there have been orders placed for 470 families this year. Last year 566 families received Christmas baskets.

Wrestlers Win One

The Clinton Redskins participated in two wrestling matches this week, humiliating Manchester Thursday and taking third Saturday behind Milan and Ida in the Milan tournament.

Thursday, Clinton allowed Manchester just nine points while pinning their opponents in six matches and piling up 58 points.

At 138, Randy Weirich won by forfeit; Lee Russ pinned his man at 145; at 165, Chuck Grinnell pinned his man at 53 seconds; Gordon Miller won his match 8-2 at 178; and heavy weight Bill VanTuyle pinned his man.

Saturday, Clinton took just three first places, but that included a win for Lynde Grinnell at 112. Grinnell defeated LCAA champion Rick Emmons of Morenci in overtime, 8-1. Russ at 145 and Gordon Miller at 191 also took first place.

Third place went to Semanske at 119, Weirich at 132, and VanSickle at 155.

You wait out the long days . . . wondering . . . hoping . . . Finally it is Christmas morning.

You're ready to open your gifts. Everybody expects you to. Yet you don't. Not right away.

Instead, you toy with a gingerbread man . . . an ornament on the tree. The moment is too rich in wonder and joy to let it pass without reverence.

There's a word we usually associate with worship. It applies also to our appreciation of life's exciting moments when we see these as evidences of God's love for mankind. Some say the measure of our souls is the reverence which life itself inspires in us.

This Christmas remember WHY we celebrate . . . WHAT it was that happened in Bethlehem . . . WHO gave the Gift . . . and to WHOM.

Then bring your reverence—and your family—to church.

6 Attend Cultural Weekend

Six Tecumseh area high school students attended COSMOS VII at Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City.

This International Weekend is sponsored by the State Y.M.C.A. of Michigan, in cooperation with Youth For Understanding, 4-H Clubs of Michigan, and other groups.

The program for the weekend focused on the individual, the nation, and the world in small group sessions led by young people. There were approximately 160 high school students involved, more than half of them coming from foreign countries and now studying in Michigan.

Such exercises as values games, creating cosmic cultures, and an egg sale to raise money for World Service work, were a part of the weekend.

Several films were shown to encourage group discussions about understanding oneself, other people, and the world situation.

An international dinner, folk dancing led by the Central Michigan University Folk Dancers, and a disco dance filled one evening.

The basic purpose of COSMOS, since its inception in 1972, has been to get the participants to reflect on the similarities and differences between cultures.

Youth For Understanding participants from the Lenawee area were:

Saeed Akhavi (Iran, Tecumseh High), Milton Jose Perez (Columbia, Tecumseh High), Ilse Vaes (Belgium, Tecumseh High), Bodil Bertelsen (Denmark, Clinton High), Annemieke Hofstede (The Netherlands, Clinton High), Pia Helkio (Finland, Britton High).

Dolly Robinson of Tecumseh is the Lenawee Youth For Understanding coordinator.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

"This is a day the Lord has made — rejoice and be glad in it!" Not a bad thought with which to start each and every morning. The past two years have not been as Mom and I would have ordered them. Dad died Feb. 1977 and last spring/summer I spent six weeks in the hospital. Nevertheless, life is good and we have oh, so very, very much for which to be grateful.

This is the time of year when it behooves us all to find a few quiet moments to re-think the priorities and to re-evaluate our faith.

For us it takes but a quick look outside to believe that yes, indeed there is a Power greater than ourselves.

Not long ago, for example, Mom and I were absolutely spellbound at the beautiful sunset. The sky was incredibly blue with more hues and shades of pinks and reds than could be imagined.

And there are similar sights — similar in that they are inspiring each day. Last winter Tecumseh experienced a blizzard to end all blizzards. The power of a storm is simply amazing. Likewise the beauty of its aftermath, the sculptured snow and the bright sunny days is hard to believe.

When spring came we once again marveled at the mystery of the bird migration. And as the wrens, robins, orioles, thrushes and all the other springtime birds join their voices in that glorious early morning serenade, what else can it be called but a celebration of life?

Not long ago we were dazzled by the annual autumn color show. As the maples across the street became their own special glowing yellow and the winged euonymus turned a vivid scarlet, it was impossible not to say a special little thank you.

So why then, does a wise Creator who showers us so abundantly with such beauty and loveliness allow things to happen? Seemingly cruel and tragic things.

Well, a long time ago Mom, Dad and I decided it was not meant that we should have all of the answers or know all of the reasons.

By now I am sure that most of you know my story. An automobile accident and spinal cord injuries which left me paralyzed from my neck down. But by wearing full-length body braces I sit comfortably in a wheelchair for short periods — I also am comfortable in a car and an airplane; however, most of my time is spent in a hospital-type bed.

But God never closes one door without opening another. These are the words which have meant so very, very much to my family and me. They first came to our attention in a sermon of Peter Marshall's. Since then many have used the thought.

So, when one door closes, it is up to us to find the others which are open. The search will be all consuming and leave no time for self-pity or bitterness. This is not to say that there will not be dark moods and spells of discouragement. I have found though that a look outside helps set things straight again.

One of my open doors has, of course, been bird watching. Since it is an easily shared activity, the whole family soon became involved. We watched a covey of quail on their daily visits to our back yard all one winter. We also enjoyed the spectacle of gulls robbing pelicans of their fishy catches.

One summer we watched the female flicker teach her youngsters the ins and outs of drilling for and eating ants; late each winter we are buoyed up when the male goldfinches begin their encouraging change to spring colors.

And as a spin-off from my bird watching there has been the opportunity of writing these THROUGH MY WINDOW columns. To share with others is a joy.

Please believe me that bird watchers enjoy watching birds but they also thoroughly enjoy comparing notes with each other. Thus not only have I told you about crossbill visits and evening grosbeak invasions but you have been most kind in telling me some of your adventures.

I thank you all for the notes, letters and even phone calls. I am only sorry that it is impossible to answer each and every one.

Finally, Mom joins me in wishing one and all happy holidays. May your Christmas season be full of good cheer and many blessings; may 1979 fill your lives with peace and happiness. Much good bird watching too!

Memoriam

In loving memory of our father and grandfather, John F. Marine who passed away, Dec. 19, 1968. The road into the sunset is one we each must tred, and though it brings us sorrow, when a loved one goes ahead, Still there is comfort, knowing we all meet again some day, when grief and pain are over and the clouds have rolled away. Sadly missed by the family who loved him.
12-21c

Loving memories never die, as four years have rolled by, in our hearts a memory is kept, Of one we loved and will never forget.

Christmas boots and miniature ice skates were given as favors. Door prize of a Christmas wreath was won by Gloria Wood. Hostesses for the evening were Bonnie Schuler, Diane Proctor and Patsy Littlefield.

'The Pastor's Study'

By Rev. R. Richard Case
Britton Congregational Church

During the past few days I have pondered, if I were to write a letter to Santa, just as I did when I was a child, what would I ask for?

Let us pretend, for the moment, that these wonderful days of youth have returned and I might write my letter with hope in my heart that my gifts will be received.

Dear Santa,

I would like to be able to tell you that I have been good all year, but this would not be true. Sometimes I have found myself becoming angry when some folks did not understand me. Nevertheless, I hope you will bring my gifts. I would like the following things:

FOR: My Church — A larger congregation. Any size or color that you happen to have.

FOR: My Children — A bag full of childhood memories. (Similar to the ones I have)

FOR: My Wife — Greater patience so that she will be able to put up with my peculiarities.

FOR: My Mother — Health, pace and contentment in her retiring years.

FOR: Children of the World — A blanket of love to warm them and protect them from unhappiness.

FOR: My Country — A large portion of faith in God, which was professed by so many of our forefathers in the great documents of law and order.

FOR: The World — Peace, understanding and patience.

FOR: Myself — The eloquence of Shakespeare, the wisdom of Paul and a large boxful of love. (You know, the kind Christ had.)

This is all I ask. I hope you will forgive my errors this past year. Oh yes, I will leave the communion table prepared for you under the tree.

Yours in God's service,
Rev. Case

P.S. Dear Friends, as Tiny Tim said,

"GOD BLESS US, EACH AND EVERYONE"

Plan Services for Former Superintendent

Memorial services are 1:30 p.m. Jan. 5, 1979 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church with the Rev. David Fox officiating for Orville Laidlaw, 85, of North Fort Myers, Fla., formerly of Tecumseh.

Burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Mr. Laidlaw died Dec. 24 at Wood Hospital, Arcadia, Fla., following a long illness.

Services in Florida were Dec. 27 at the Church of the Epiphany, Cape Coral, Fla.

He was a resident of Tecumseh for more than 40 years, where he taught high school and served as superintendent of schools from 1925-1932. For 25 years, he was district representative for Michigan School Services Company.

The Laidlaws retired to Florida in 1965. He was a member of the Church of the Epiphany and World War I Barracks in Cape Coral, Fla.

He was a charter member of the American Legion Post #34, in Tecumseh and also the Tecumseh Rotary Club. He was active in Boy Scouting and Episcopal youth work for many years.

Born and raised in Ludington, Mich., Mr. Laidlaw graduated from Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. He served in the army in World War I.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Ayesha, of North Fort Myers, Fla.; two sons, David of Milford and Dr. Robert of Miami, Fla.; one brother, two sisters, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tecumseh.

Pick Up Trees

City will begin picking up Christmas trees next Tuesday, Jan. 2, Cal Zorn, city manager, announced.

Residents are asked to place their trees between the sidewalk and curb.

2 Are Arrested for Car Theft in Monroe Co.

Two young Tecumseh men, Bruce Spillman, 19, of 301 Herrick Park Dr., and Roger Calzada, 21, of 907 Murray Dr., are in the Monroe County jail after being arrested late Tuesday evening and charged with stealing an automobile.

Mrs. Gladys Sweet, 3069 Ives Rd., reported her car stolen from behind First Federal Savings and Loan earlier in the evening. She was in the building cleaning and when she left, she discovered her car missing.

ATTEND VICTIM — Tecumseh firemen rushed to the aid of Harold Carmer at Tecumseh Equipment and then transported him to Herrick Hospital.. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Brooklyn Man's Injuries Serious

Harold Carmer of Brooklyn, age about 60, was seriously injured late Tuesday morning when a tractor toppled on him at Tecumseh Equipment Co.

Carmer, rushed to Herrick Hospital and then transferred to St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor, suffered internal injuries and was in surgery Tuesday afternoon for approximately four hours. His condition was first listed by the hospital as critical, but was changed to serious Wednesday morning.

Accident occurred when Carmer was assisting in removing a truck box from a truck behind the implement dealer's service department. Weight of the box caused the tractor to flip, landing on the Brooklyn man.

A fork lift was used to remove the tractor before Tecumseh firemen arrived at the scene. Firemen transferred the bleeding victim to the local hospital, not waiting for an ambulance from the sheriff's department.

Sheriff deputies later escorted the ambulance to the Washtenaw County line where it was met by another patrol car.

Also injured in the mishap was Ken Zarnow. He was examined at Herrick Hospital and then released. He reportedly suffered a sprained back.

Carmer, employee at Tecumseh Equipment, is a lifelong resident of Brooklyn and lives on a farm just outside the community. He formerly owned and operated a service station and later worked at Brooklyn Automotive Supply.

The second major part deals with the establishment of historic landmarks. The purpose of this section is to allow property owners to

Graduates Make Progress in Science

Susan Kessler of Tecumseh, a 1978 Siena Heights College graduate, is one of six recent graduates from that college's biology department, who is making further strides in the study of science.

She is pursuing a doctoral degree in medical science with special emphasis in anatomy at the Medical College of Ohio.

College officials believe that the increased numbers of Siena graduates electing to pursue advanced degrees is another indication of the science division's growing strength.

Serious students of biology at Siena are able to work directly with faculty on cooperative research projects.

Pastor's Study

HAPPY NEW YEAR!
By The Rev. Richard Case

By this time, holiday dinners have been well digested. Now sit back and relax until next year.

What kind of a Christmas did you have? No, I don't mean how many gifts did you receive. But did you receive that most wonderful gift of happiness and a warm glow inside? You know, the feeling you get when you're especially kind and nice to someone. I hope your house abounded with this feeling.

Gifts are nice to receive, but truly the real joy to be found in Christmas is fellowship and friendship with each other.

We had open house at the parsonage before Christmas, and many good friends stopped by.

I remember saying that a minister, as one in God's service, may at times become discouraged and feel that he isn't accomplishing what he set out to do.

Yet, what a wonderful feeling the season and evenings of fellowship had. All unhappiness seems to fade away. And one comes to the realization of that extra something that only brotherhood has to offer.

I suppose, too, by now you have given thought to New Year's. I read an article the other day concerning New Years's.

Did you know that in England and Holland it was customary for father to open the Bible and wherever his fingers would drop, he would read the Scripture? The reading would indicate his family's fortune during the coming year.

I noticed also that in America we eat different foods. The Southwesterners eat black-eyed peas, to bring good luck. And some American Indians eat acorns and salmon.

The Pennsylvania Dutch always leave a silver piece on the outside of a window sill. This is to insure not going financially short the coming year.

Oh yes, they say you must eat sauerkraut and pork. Aren't we funny? How about those resolutions? Did you know they originated in ancient Rome? People would clean their chimneys to bring good luck.

Today we are supposed to do the same by cleaning out our bad habits and making a new start. Mark Twain probably made the most famous resolution when he said, "I'm going to live within my income this year, even if I have to borrow money to do it".

Friends, I cannot give you any surefire way to riches or family wealth.

But this year, I can promise you a happier 1979, if you make one resolution and keep it.

"This year I'm going to try to be nicer to more people, more often, in more places."

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

This winter I have registered our bird feeders for the Second Annual Michigan Bird Feeder Survey. This is a project sponsored by the Michigan Audubon Society under the direction of Dr. Ray Adams. Participants will make bi-monthly reports. The survey should provide much useful and interesting information. It shall be fun to be a tiny part of it.

Although they are interested in birds that visit the feeding area all month long, the 'counting' is only done on one day. Fortunately that can be any day the counter picks.

The number of species is noted as well as the number in each species. The area watched and counted is to be the immediate area of the feeders as well as the waiting areas.

In other words, I shall be keeping track of five feeders as well as the trees and bushes where some of the birds perch and patiently wait their turn. I shall also include the part of Evans Creek in our west facing picture window because drinking is an important part of feeding.

I have not, as of this dictating, done the December count, somehow indoor Christmas-type things have taken precedence over window watching and bird counting.

However, the November information is compiled and Nov. 28 was quite a day. Sixteen different kinds of birds dined with us. We know for sure that there were six male cardinals and two females, five bluejays one hairy woodpecker and one downy, one red-bellied woodpecker, three tufted titmice, four chickadees, one male and one female red-breasted nuthatch, and eight to nine siskins.

Cedar waxwings drank and bathed at the edge of the creek but, did not show any interest in the bird feeder bill-of-fare.

There were many other birds at the feeder that day but unfortunately we did not count them, goldfinches, juncos, English sparrows, white-breasted nuthatches and mourning doves.

In a way it is almost too bad to start out with an abundance of birds. We will probably never again pick a count date which is so busy. To the list of November visitors we can add brown creepers, yellow-shafted flickers, starlings, grackles, purple finches, song sparrows and tree sparrows.

Crows were overheard, but they are not counted because our feeding program is in no way influenced by their behavior.

It was interesting to read about hawks on the sheet of instructions. The Coopers and sharp-shinned hawks are eaters of small birds and thus attracted to some feeding areas.

These hawks have short round wings and long tails. The larger, red-tailed hawks have broad wings and broad round tails. They frequent feeding areas where squirrels and rabbits are abundant.

The third member of the hawk family, the falcons, are represented in this area only by the small and highly colored sparrow hawks.

Goldfinches are singled out for special treatment on the identification sheet. It stresses the difference in the winter and summer garbs these birds wear.

Why do so few bird books emphasize the fact that the bright yellow, wild canaries of summer are the greenish-tan birds, with the black or gray wings, who flock to the feeders in the winter?

Then comes the sparrows and ho, ho, ho, I'm not the only one. Quoting directly, "Sparrow identification was the biggest problem..." How true!

English sparrow are our most abundant sparrows, unfortunately. In the winter we are also apt to have tree sparrows and song sparrow. The former have solid gray breasts with a single stickpin marking while the latter are noticeably striped.

Briefly summing up the results of last year's survey shows, "A total of 84,325 birds of 75 species..."

Goldfinches were the most numerous; in fact, goldfinches, evening grosbeaks, pine siskins, redpolls, purple finches, and pine grosbeaks all appeared in extremely large numbers.

This means that theoretically there should be a shortage of these birds this year. A few more years of study should prove or disprove this theory.

Perhaps it will also explain why the juncos seemed to prefer the western side of the state to the eastern.

Focus . . . on City Government

designate their property, wherever it may be located in the city, as a landmark.

I will explain both parts in more detail, dealing with historic landmarks first.

An owner of property located anywhere in the city may request to designate a structure as a landmark or a landmark site by submitting the proper application form to the commission.

This request for designation signifies the recognition on the part of the property owner that they have a structure architecturally or historically significant and wish to preserve it.

The commission has prepared the application forms. It is only two pages in length and requires a short period of time to complete.

The information required deals only with historical and architectural information on the house itself; the form does not require nor is the commission interested in personal information.

Once the application is received, the commission has 45 days to review and make its recommendations to the City Council.

The commission will review the application using an evaluation system that ensures that each house is judged equally.

There are five major areas that will be looked at: architecture, setting and atmosphere, physical condition and location. All of these deal with the exterior of the structure, not the interior.

Once the application has been received and a personal inspection of the exterior of the house by the commission has been made, the commission will then make its recommendations to the City Council to either approve or disapprove the designation.

If the house is approved as a landmark, the property owner can elect to make such designation binding on his/her successors in title.

If the owner does not elect to make the designation binding, subsequent owners may petition the Historic Preservation Commission for removal of the property from designation and will automatically be granted such release.

If the owner seeks and receives landmark designation, there are certain obligations placed on that owner. If he wishes to make any exterior repairs or changes except painting, he must receive approval from the commission.

The whole purpose of this review is to ensure that the home is preserved as closely as possible to its original design and construction.

It should be repeated that any property, residential or commercial, located anywhere in the city, can be designated as a landmark.

The other important part of the ordinance is the designation of the Chicago-Union Street Historic District. If your property is located within the district, it does not mean that it automatically qualified for landmark designation. You must still apply and have your application reviewed by the commission.

The ordinance does require, however, that any property owner with a structure 50 years or older, who undertakes any alteration of their property, must first consult with the commission.

An alteration is any act or process which changes one or more of the "exterior architectural features" of a structure.

The review by the commission is to be strictly advisory; there are no requirements that you follow their recommendations, but it is hoped that you will.

It is the commission's opinion that many homeowners would like to perserve the historical character of their structure, but are not always aware of the techniques and materials available to them.

We would ask that if a property owner plans to undertake any exterior changes, he contact either myself, Paul Preston, or Bob Harnden at city hall, so that a meeting can be scheduled with the commission.

The Historical Commission will schedule a series of meetings within the Historic District to explain the ordinance and program in more detail.

Notices will go out to property owners advising of the time and place.

Marshes Open Home

CLINTON — Clinton Historical Society named a committee to plan events to celebrate Clinton's 150th anniversary in 1979, at a Dec. 18 meeting.

A pre-Christmas open house, for society members and guests, was hosted by the Michael Marshes at their home on E. Michigan Ave.

Built in 1892, and known for many years as the Freeze house, the house has had only two structural changes since.

Notable for its pillared varandah on front and side, the house has many of its characteristic gingerbread touches on the interior, retained by the present owners.

Mrs. Marsh has combined antiques and modern furniture in its decor.

Guests shared Christmas cookies, punch and coffee around the Christmas tree.

Indians Beat Rated Airport, 64-45

Tecumseh basketball fans were expecting anything but a repeat of last year's performance out of a new and young 1978-79 high school varsity team.

Instead, they were treated to an early Christmas present Friday as the Indians handily beat state-rated Airport by a 19 point margin.

That win comes after a shaky early season for the team, but an impressive win over eighth rated Milan last week. The team has improved, according to coach Jim Curth, but it must continue to improve to win.

The Indians were tied with Airport at a half, 21 all, but then ran off 12 straight points at the beginning of the third frame to pull ahead. The teams then traded baskets to finish the quarter at 41-29.

Again at the beginning of the four quarter, the Indians scored big and went eight more up for a 20 point margin. The two teams finished scoring 19 and 16, with Tecumseh outscoring their opponents.

The THS squad shot 27 of 68 from the floor and were only six of 14 from the line. In rebounding, the Indians were on top with 43 to Airport's 30.

Individually, Mark Creswell led the team with 17 points and 14 rebounds. John Ely added 13 points and 13 rebounds. John Faulkner and Tom Maves also hit double figures with 10 points each. Ron Smith had 10 rebounds.

The stats were in the Indian's favor, even though the Airport squad had the height advantage on Tecumseh. According to coach Curth, the THS squad just played excellent basketball and worked very effectively together, especially on defense.

The team also got fine performances from the bench. Maves came off and hit 10 points while teammates Steve Sisson and Scott Schafer also played well.

The Indians are now alone at the top of the league with a 2-0 record. Their next match is against Grosse Ile Jan. 5. Grosse Ile is presently 4-1 and 1-1 in the league.
